Mr. Don Crabtree
Kimberly, Idaho

Dear Mr. Crabtree:

Thanks very much for your recent telephone call. I greatly enjoyed talking with you, and was very sorry to hear about your back injury--which I hope is greatly improved by now. I trust you had a successful flint-knapping school. I've been in correspondence lately with Joel Gunn, one of the students in the school.

Dr. Heizer and I are most grateful for your generous offer to let us use the 40-50 references (in your bibliography) which we do not have. We will go ahead and include them, since that is your desire. Of course, we shall acknowledge your assistance, and also the assistance of Dr. Swanson.

I recently wrote to Irwin Rovner about his work with Mesoamerican obsidian, but haven't heard from him. Payson Sheets wrote the other day, and mentioned that lithic analyses from the Chalchuapa, El Salvador, project will be published shortly.

Sincerely,
