Dear Don:

Sorry things didn't work out for July. Perhaps it's best, however, as there's no sense our trying to work in a complicated, tight schedule.

I suspect I will have to make a trek west in the fall, especially if I'm unable to analyze all the Texas material. As soon as I find out about this, however, I'll let you know and then we can simply get together during the time that is best for you. I suspect sometime between November 1st and Thanksgiving would be most suitable.

Best wishes to your wife and I hope your California trip will be successful.

As ever,

Henry T. Irwin
