We haven't caught up with Christmas yet this year. Art went to Turkey just after Thanksgiving to look into the possibility of Paleolithic materials in the new reservoir basins on the Euphrates and got back in the middle of December - just in time to wind up the semester. Eloise wrote her last final exam, went out shopping the next morning, tripped on a loose rock and fractured her right arm - can't write, that's why this xeroxed missive. Can't cook either so Art is keeping busy. Tom is a freshman at U of A this year and working part time as an announcer at a local radio station. It's been a very happy and busy year for us. Our very best wishes and greetings to you -
