

July 11, 1974.

Dear Mr. Don. E. Crabtree,

How are you? I am very sorry that I did not write to you for a long time. I think you are very busy with this summer flintworking school. I remember that nice and excellent school which was held 4 years ago.

This summer I have an excavation at Hokkaido for one and a half month. The site belongs to Final Jomon age (Japanese Neolithic) and 2000 - 3000 years B.P.

I am writing this letter at ^{the} lodging house near the site. In Japan it is now rainy season, so the ~~excavation~~ process of ^{the} excavation is slightly slow. We will finish this ~~excavation~~ excavation at the final of July. In Autumn we have a plan to dig up ~~the~~ ^{the} cave at ^{the} middle part of Japan. ~~At~~ At the bottom layer of this cave, there will be Upper Palaeolithic ~~culture~~ culture.

I do hope this ~~the~~ summer flintworking school goes well and sometime I ~~can~~ ^{can} take part in the school again. I always remember Twin Falls. It is a really nice, ~~and~~ wonderful and attractive town.

Please remember me to your wife, Guy Muto and Christine Lougren and ~~Pat~~ Pat Green.

As ever
