Dear Sir, Mr. Crabtree,

At first, I must apologize you for my long absence of not communicating to you for about one year.

Just, I hear from my son, Hiroaki Kobayashi, that you have been sick, but fortunately recovering. I sincerely hope and pray of your recovery as early as possible. And also, taking this opportunity, I am worried about your wife's health, too.

Thanks to God, Hiroaki and all of my family are very well. He reported recently us that he already presented his graduation thesis for Master Course and will graduate this course next Spring, 1973. Especially, during this Mater Course Life for two years, he can not forget Stone-Implements making Course in Idaho for about one month, under your kind and careful guidance, I beleive.

Again, I hope you and your wife are healthy and happy. And say, MERRY X'Mas and HAPPY NEW YEAR for all of us.

Thanking you,

Hiromi Kobayashi
