

25. June 1980

Dear Don,

As you see, I finally made it! As I hurry to get this into the mail, I will write you later on your letter and on pleasant experiments I am trying on the Egyptian knives.

With regard to a print in Flintknappers Exchange I am open to your comments.

I could imagine more or less the English version plus the photos and the drawings. I would reduce the archaeological part and increase the flintknapping details so that the text would reach to about two pages. The goal would be to put the challenge to all the experts and hopefully initiate a useful discussion. I will mail one reprint to Errett Callahan and Jackie Nickels and tell them to contact you.

I hope this approach meets your approval. I will also send a copy of my article to the regular correspondents and contributors of Flunknappers Exchange and personally ask for comments.

In the meantime I remain very sincerely your friend Peter

Please find me the address of Jim Woods, which I had forgotten to note.
