Dear Don:

Our mail strike is finally over, so I thought I should write to say how much I enjoyed meeting you and Evelyn at Pullman. I can't tell you how much I learned in that two week period, from you and from Jeff. The facilities at W.S.U. that Jeff is putting together seem really exciting, and I am shortly going to put in an application to go to school there next year.

I hope that you had a good trip home and that all is well in Idaho, and that I can see you and Evelyn sometime in the future at W.S.U..

Yours truly

Jeff Levitt
