Mr. Don Crabtree
Idaho State Museum
Pocatello, Idaho

Dear Mr. Crabtree,

Mr. Brott, of the San Diego Museum of Man, has referred me to you. I evidently missed being able to talk to you in person by one day when you were visiting San Diego recently. Our department is in the process of collecting materials to support our teaching of introductory courses in Anthropology. We are trying to locate a source to purchase or beg examples of stone hand tools. Mr. Brott felt you would be aware of any commercial sources offering casts of the major technologies of the Old World. Please indicate also whether you have for sale any of your reproductions using actual stone.

Many thanks. If you are in San Diego again our department would very much like to have you as a guest lecturer-demonstrator.

Sincerely,

Karen Lockwood
