

July 31, 1967

Dear Don and Evelyn,

Bill went to get the mail one day,
Drove down to Cibecue.
And came back grinning deep and wide
With a package, Don, from you.

With 30 people's eager eyes
All shining big and bright,
Bill opened up the package,
And we saw to our delight

A quantity of mallows
To toast by fire some night,
We rallied round the campfire,
Enjoyed them--every bite!

One cold and rainy evening
Hot chocolate we brewed up,
And added, then, a special treat,
Marshmallow to every cup.

So you can see by now we're sure,
How much we appreciate
Your very thoughtful gesture,
We think you're really great!

We all have signed this ditty,
To send to you our greeting
In hopes that very soon again
With you we will be meeting.

Sincerely,

Bill Longacre
