Dear Don:

I will be glad to pay the trucking charges for a sack of obsidian. It is very nice of you to offer to send it.

Could you write an article eventually for the Arkansas Archeologist concerning your heat treating experiments with the Arkansas novaculite and quartz? The readers are mostly amateurs but there is an increasing professional audience, particularly students.

I had a very good time in Illinois visiting with you, despite my broken foot.

Sincerely yours,

Dan F. Morse
