Dear Don:

Your letter of January 26th with the several enclosures has just arrived. Thanks very much for sending me your ideas and the several items of information. When I have completed the first draft of the manuscript, I will probably want to check further with you on several specific matters.

Meantime, I do appreciate your letting me feature your work, and I hope to be able to include a stress on your field school. Would there be a possibility for me to visit your school this summer? I suppose this will depend in part on the time it is scheduled. I am aiming for a June 1st submission of the article but could get first hand ideas and photographs during June or early July if the school is then in action. After July 10th I will probably be in Ecuador searching for additional obsidian sources. Do let me know how specific plans for the school develop this year. All best wishes as always.

Cordially yours,

Bill
