Dear Alan:

Just a note to congratulate you on a very successful meeting in Miami. Rick Faulkner just called and said it was the high point of the conference and was all due to you. I was, indeed, disappointed not to attend, but just could not afford the time or money. I look forward to the time when we can get together and break a few rocks.

Dr. Earl Swanson has suggested that at sometime in the future perhaps we can have a little symposium for you and other interested professionals.

I do hope that you will continue your good work and arrange another session on lithics at the next meetings and hope I will be fortunate enough to attend.

I am looking forward to working with Joel Gunn and hope he will share any information he gets from the school. Will send some rocks with him when he returns home.

Sorry about Ruth Ann Knudson's paper. She sent it to me and it took three pages to list my objections. She did not attend daily sessions at the school last year and am afraid got just a little information which can be a dangerous thing.

With best regards,

Don Crabtree
