Dear Dick —

Please forgive me for not writing sooner. I haven't any excuse except plain laziness for not doing so. As it is, I shall have to "throw myself upon your mercies" and hope that you will answer to us. We had a wonderful storm a couple of days ago. I think the weather is such a nice project. I passed all my exams with flying colors.

My lowest mark was a B-. That was in advanced algebra, and my highest was an A+! That was in Latin, my favorite subject.
I wish you could come and visit us again. Did you have a nice time on the Fourth? Two of my girl friends came down from Fancing, and we had a lot of fun talking about which town we would rather live in. I am having a perfectly lovely time doing much driving. I am going to get my license in Aug.
I need only 5 more miles, and any more I accumulate will be pure reliefs.

P.S. I am growing up to be a perfect lady,
am I not?

Sincerely —

Serna
