Dear Dick,
Please excuse mo for not answoring sooner, but I was vary busy during tho last wonk. You know "school dago" ara horn, and I have a lot of work.

Mos, I'vn got to admit that Glassor's Wonder hoax want ovor big. But it might got him in trouble. Gornsio has found out and says that if ho finds out who pulled it of ho's going to bring a law-suit against him. And somothing tolls mo that Gornsio suspocts Allon. Allan rooontly pulled off anothor hoax, but it sooms that it didn't work. Ho had a friend of his make a projoctilo that strongly raprosontod a form of a motor. Inside this "motor" ho placed a message which said that ho was so and so, and that ho is a citizen of the oar th. But at tho ago of liz while standing in front of his house in San Francisco two tall strangors kidnapped him and brought him into a ship. By moans of hand-talk tho kidnappers made it clear that they worn in an intorplanotary ship and that hoy wore going to Mars. Tho ono who was kidnapped figuos ho's about 25 yours old now. With tho holp of a Martian friend ho has sont this mossago to Earth in the hope that it will roach his mother. Glassor and a friend then took the motor into tho woods and planted it into tho ground. Ho then took a chemical and ignited it. This chemical when igni.tod gives off a torrific amount of heat and light -- this was to refer to the $E$ entering of tho motoor into tho Far th's atmosphere. Tho chemical began with a "T" -- thorium or something liko that. Woll, as soon as this chemical was ignited Allan ran to tho nearest policeman and told him that ho saw something como out of tho sky and land in tho earth not far from whore ho was. Tho policeman follow nd him and was lad to tho motor. It was still hot -- the use of another chemical made it so. Tho cop took Allon and his friend's names and after a while took tho "motor" to tho poliostation -- and that's all that avar cam of it. Can you imagine the sensation it would cause if it worked!!

Boy, I must agron with you that tho now wonder paper is onrtainly tho cat's! Tho stories worn'nt, howovor, so vary good. It might intorost you to know that Universal Pictures (who are making Frankonstoin ) have just socurod tho rights from H.G. mols to mako tho Invisible Man into a talkie! What a picture that's going to bo! And while I'm on tho subject of scionco-fiotion hows, hare's soma mora:

Honrik Dahl Juvo -- up in tho mountains of Oregon -- is turning out anothor Dana Gleason story.

Francis Frag is working on Tho Moon Juno.
Jack Williamson (ho's going strong these days) is working on a novel -- Rod Storm.

Schachnor & Zagat have oraskod Argosy again with tho Groat Dome of Mercury.

Lowell Howard Morrow's next ara the Banner of Blood and Ompga--tho Man. Tho lattor is a tala of tho last man on darth-tho dried shrivollod up old earth of milloniums to como--and tho fight botwoon last man and a primeval monstor.for tho last fow drops of tho procious liquid wator, that now liss in tho doop roonss of a holn at the Vory bottom of the Pacific....

I say --"aro" two difforont mon. And I am told I would bo vory much surprised to find out who. If I ovar do, you may bo sura I'll tip you off. Amazing Thonquartorly is two days lato alroady. Tho Amazing Monthly was five days late. What's tho mattor anyhow? Aro thoso all signs to tha fact that Amazing is going to quit right away? I wondor whon Macraddan's millions ara going to start work with Amazing? I did onjoy tho latast issuo howevor as to contant. Automaton was far and away tho bost story in the issue. The nost was Kollor's Tho Rat Racket. Williamson Tho Stono from tho Groon Star looks all right, but I havon't road it as yot. Tho covar was tho worst ono I-ovor saw on an Amazing Stolios. It was putrid. Thoy ought to got wasso back. Which rominds mo of some more stants Allon and I pullod off. Wo callod up Wosso and askod him to toll us somothing about himsolf. Ho said ho didn't want to do it ovor the phone, but invitad us ovar to his housn for an intarviow last Tunsday, at which dato tho oditor of Astounding was also prosent, Harry Batos. Whon ho askod who was calling wo said Otis Adolbort Klino! Of courso wo didn't call for that intorviow. Wosso spoaks with a Russo-Jowish acoont. Wo thon callod up good old Gornsio and told him that the titlo The Lord of Thundor which is to appoar in tho noxt issuo of wondor was copyrightod, and that ho couldn't use the titlo without pormission. Wo gave him tho namo of our lawyor -- a fako ono of courso. If Gornsio donsn't invostigato tho affair and takns our word that the titlos is copyrightod it'll nocossiato in his dostroying all tho noxt issuo of wondor (which is undoubtodly printod by now) and have to put out a now issuo. I wonder if ho'll bito?

I hope that you'll find out somo morn particulars in ragarding to Smiths' forthooming storios. Try and got tho namas and tho magazino whoro thoy aro to bo publishod.

It's too bad thet you dian't como through to win the prosidoncy of your olass. Moanwhilo I havo boon soloctad Humor Editor of my high-school paper. I havo to writo about 1000 words a wook. Oy!maybe you can help me out. Do you know any jokes, gags, or anything humorous? Of courso I don't want thom if they're not original. But porhaps you or some of your frionds have mado up somo that I'll bo ablo to print. I'll approciato vour co-oporation. I'll ohange the above statement. Even if it isn't original but it's vory humorous I'll bo glad to road it. But, ploaso spocify whioh aro original and which aro not.

Th only storios that I bind aro tho onos from Argosy. Tho rost I "lot bo." I don't fool liko ruining tho magazino all. for ona sorial. I wasta too many good storias that way.
