Feb. 28th, 1933.

My dear Richard:

I have your letter and will write (also mail the drawing) when I get a little leisure. I don't blame you for not liking Ellweller in Marton's depth - the tale was ruined by an editorial revision of the ending, without my consent or knowledge. In the correct version, the Ellweller got all of the earth men... a high-handed and senseless proceeding and I am pretty well disgusted with it.

Cordially,
Clark Ashton Smith
