WELCOME NEW DIVISION ENGINEER—Brig. Gen. Elmer P. Yates made his first visit to Dworshak dam Thursday enroute on a flight from Idaho Falls to Walla Walla. From left, Res. Engineer Don H. Basgen, General Yates, Mayor A. B. Curtis and Col. Frank D. McElwee, district engineer. Yates voiced keen interest in the dam which in size is the largest yet undertaken by the Corps and is exceeded in cost only by the John Day dam. He promised to return with his fishing pole.
