WELCOME WASATCH wishes
HOME to extend Sea-COLLEGIATES sons Greetings and a hearty welcome to our young people returning home for the holidays. They will be coming from all points of the compass, Judy Edmonds from Ha-wail will come the farthest.

We shall be glad to see you among us as we worship the King at this birth season.

CHOIR One of the most CANTATA worshipful and EXCELLENT inspiring performances of the year was given by our combined Chancel and Chapel Choirs last Sunday afternoon. Every part of the hour's program was faultless.

Martha Lee Mitchell at the organ and Mildred Metcalf at the piano gave a lovely-prelude to the cantata.

Much praise is due our Director of Music, Virginia Van Etten, and to all those who participated in this Christ-honoring Christmas program. All who heard it will find themselves more in tune with the Spirit of Christmas because of having done so.

WASATCH is proud of its musicians, vocal and instrumental, and of the excellent and worshipful music they provide for our services throughout the year. Thanks for the hours and hours!

HEARD IN PASSING: In this bivouac of life, you can be a hero in the strife, because the average man is represented by his wife. AND ANOTHER: It is usually when we are least conscious of being observed or of witnessing that we are most effective.

YES, we're short this issue.
Short on time. Co-operating with the mail service, we are mailing Monday to try to get this to you by Saturday. For more info about many items,

ILLNESS Please, please report serious illness or hospitalization to the office. Dr. Christiansen does the hospital calling, and is making "the rounds" three or more afternoons a week. Often he walks right passed the door of our own members, not knowing they are there.

If you are ill at home and would like to have one of our ministers call, phone the office, HU 7-7576. Our ministers are eager to assist in every way they can,
BUT, THEY ARE NOT MIND-READERS.
