FOREWORD

"Came a tribe from the North"—so chant the united voices of the fighting Vandals. Like their ancient forerunners, the Vandals of old, these modern Vandals fight on undaunted, glorious both in defeat and victory. The Idaho spirit present wherever Vandals go into action has been the motivation behind the planning and production of Volume 34 of the Gem of the Mountains. We recognize a new spirit, a revival of the Idaho spirit of old in a new and more inspiring form than ever. This is felt by placing our fingers upon the pulse of student opinion and activity, it beats anew with renewed vigor and rhythm—the Spirit of the Vandals.

The editors and the staff have attempted to capture this new feeling in The Gem, truthfully picturing the year's events in their inspired form. The Gem of the Mountains, too, had to take on a note of inspiration and spirit in order to reflect this new and greater Vandal spirit. The result has been a search for modern, smart typography and art which we believe truthfully and entertainingly presents a picture of the modern Vandals in action, inspired by their historical counterparts as represented by the artist's creation of a new, collegiate Vandal, which we offer as a symbol of the true Idaho spirit.

DEDICATION

To the parents of the graduating class of 1936, this, Volume 34 of the Gem of the Mountains, is respectfully dedicated

To these we must credit the true Idaho spirit. Not only from the North, but from the directions of the four winds these fighting Idaho parents sent a class of Vandals to the University of Idaho four years ago. From experience we know that these were not four ordinary years, but a period marked by economic and social unrest and difficulty. Though oppressed and harassed by economic misfortune, these parents have sacrificed for Idaho, and these seniors, to become the Class of '36, stand as a living tribute to these Idahoans who have so steadfastly maintained their highest interest and support of higher education.

BOARD OF REGENTS

■■■ To execute the University's "New Deal," the "Brain Trust" has been the Idaho Board of Regents—builder of the University's financing and administration policies and final arbiter in state educational matters.

The glorifying step taken by the board during the year was the authorization to build a new university infirmary. Working with M. G. Neale, president of the University, the regents carried the proposal for a $118,000 building through financial and legal entanglements to a successful conclusion.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

■■■ Managing a library of 100,000 volumes—that is the task of Mary Belle Sweet, an Idahoan since 1905. Since 1927 Oren A. Fitzgerald has been university editor.

The man who takes your money and keeps a record of each student's financial status with the University is Frank Stanton, a Drake University graduate, who has been at Idaho since 1911. Floyd L. Packer toils as chief accountant and purchasing agent. R. W. Lind, since 1929 has superintended the buildings and grounds on one of the nation's most beautiful campi. George E. (Cap) Horton is graduate manager of student activities. Proctor of Men—that's "Good Scout" Robert F. Greene.

Ella L. Olesen, at Idaho since 1915, expects more than 2,500 men and women to complete checking through her registrar office next fall as students of Idaho.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

• • • Edward John Iddings is dean of Idaho's nationally-renowned College of Agriculture, which offers courses in fourteen major fields of study. The Extension Service aids farmers of the state, while the Agricultural Experiment Station carries on research in more than 140 problems of interest to the farmer.

During the year about 220 students have been enrolled in the College of Agriculture.

Dean Iddings received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the Colorado Agricultural College. His special hobbies are golf and hunting.

Dean Iddings came to the University of Idaho in 1910, where his extensive duties place him as the director of the Agricultural Experiment Station and also the Extension Service.

Edward John Iddings

COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE

John Anton Kostalek

• • • John Anton Kostalek, dean of the College of Letters and Science, except for one year when he was with the Chemical Warfare Division of the United States Army, has served continuously as a member of the Idaho faculty for twenty-five years.

The Northwest Science Association recognized Dean Kostalek's contributions to, and interest in science, by electing him president for the year 1930. The years he devoted to scientific experiment in a commercial field are reflected in the thorough and accurate manner in which he has filled the position as dean of the School of Letters and Science. Before he came to Idaho, Dr. Kostalek received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Wisconsin, and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Illinois.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Ivan Charles Crawford

■■■ A tense, energetic manner distinguishes Ivan C. Crawford, dean of the College of Engineering, as one of the University's best-known men.

Dean Crawford received his degree from Colorado. He was graduated from the War College at Washington, D. C., and during the war completed the course of training at the Army School of the Line, at Langres, France.

He was chief of the Building Section of the Belgian Mission, and later a member of the American commission to negotiate peace.

Two hundred and seventy-nine students are enrolled in the five divisions of engineering—chemical, mechanical, agricultural, civil, and electrical.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

■■■ Enthusiastic and alert, Ralph Hunter Farmer has been dean of the School of Business Administration since 1927, when he came to Idaho from the University of Minnesota.

Although especially interested in banking and taxation, Dean Farmer watches eagerly for any improvement in his school. During the last few years there has been a marked increase in interest and enrollment in graduate work in statistics and in a course which makes it possible to combine law with business.

At the present, with 102 enrolled in senior college and 225 enrolled in pre-business, the School of Business Administration is the University's third largest division.

Ralph Hunter Farmer

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

■ ■ ■ James Franklin Messenger, dean of the School of Education and director of the summer session, says his greatest interest is the same as that of many other deans—"the hope of advancing education and promoting a finer, more beneficial school system."

Dean Messenger received his A.B. degree from the University of Kansas, his A.M. from Harvard, and a Ph.D. degree from Columbia. He came to Idaho from Vermont in 1920.

Enrollment in the summer school during the summer of 1935 was about 890, which is almost three hundred more than were enrolled in the summer of 1934. The enrollment of the School of Education was 470 this year.

James Franklin Messenger

JUNIOR COLLEGE

■ ■ ■ An Idaho facultyman since 1924, and dean of the Junior College since 1929, T. S. Kerr represented Idaho as a speaker at the Institute of World Affairs held in California this winter. From the Institute he went directly to a meeting of the National Business Law Association in New York City, where he again spoke.

As Chairman of the public events committee, Dean Kerr has brought such speakers to Idaho as General Hugh S. Johnson, former NRA chief.

The dean says:

"The Junior College curriculum is being developed for the student who hasn't yet discovered his calling; by employing individual guidance, the course gives such a student an opportunity 'to find himself'."

Thomas Stone Kerr

COLLEGE OF LAW

Pendleton Howard

■■■ By offering new, up-to-date courses in the curriculum, Dean Pendleton Howard retains for his College of Law the highest respect of all capable critics—student lawyers and professional members of the bar. To meet the pace of increasing complexities in laws passed by local, state, and national agencies, Dean Howard has "stepped up" the courses offered in the school's curriculum.

Fifty-eight students are now registered in senior Law College, an increase of five over last year. About twenty will be graduated in June.

Dean Howard, who has studied closely the developments in such New Deal legislation as the NRA and the Securities Act, gained his LL.B. degree from Texas, and his Ph.D. from Columbia.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

■■■ Charles William Hungerford is dean of a school which offers courses leading to the degree of Master of Arts and the Masters' degrees in the various sciences. He holds a B.S. degree from Upper Iowa University, and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Wisconsin.

He has been with the University of Idaho since 1919, and is now professor of pathology and vice-director of the agricultural experiment station.

He is interested in plant study and has as his hobby the collection of exceptional irises.

There are now 103 students enrolled in the Graduate School—a slight decrease compared with the 1934 enrollment. The decrease has resulted from more students having secured positions at the close of each year.

Charles William Hungerford

DEAN OF WOMEN

■■■ Permeal J. French, dean of women, has served the University of Idaho for more than a quarter of a century with an enviable understanding and ability. Her remarkable memory, interest, and alertness have made her one of the most widely known women in Idaho.

Miss French is a true Idahoan, being educated in the public schools of Idaho, and having received her M.A. degree from the University of Idaho. She became dean of women in 1907, after serving as State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Through her activity in the administrative and social affairs of the campus, Dean French has made herself a vital and indispensable part of campus life.

Permeal J. French

DEAN OF FACULTY

■■■ The dean of them all in point of strictly continuous service on the faculty, Jay Glover Eldridge, came to Idaho in 1901, and was in 1903 made dean of the university faculty—a title which he has never relinquished. From 1903 until 1909 he was the one and only dean at Idaho—directing the "ags," the engineers, the scientists—all students.

Dean Eldridge, a professor of Modern Languages, presides at academic council meetings in the absence of President Neale.

Add to his Phi Beta Kappa key and a Yale Ph.D. degree his latest achievement in the scholastic field—being initiated as an honorary member of Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic honorary.

Jay Glover Eldridge

SCHOOL OF MINES

Arthur W. Fahrenwald

• • • Arthur William Fahrenwald acts as dean of the School of Mines and professor of metallurgy and ore dressing.

His B.S. and Met.E. degrees were received from the South Dakota School of Mines; his Engineer of Mines degree from the New Mexico School of Mines.

Coming to the University of Idaho in 1929, Dean Fahrenwald has made a brilliant record as "one of the boys on the hill."

His hobbies are golf, tennis, fishing, and hunting. In the fall of 1935 he turned "navigator" as guest member of the National Geographic expedition down the Salmon river.

The enrollment of the School of Mines is ninety-four, with fourteen to be graduated in June.

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

• • • Dwight S. Jeffers is dean of the School of Forestry, and professor of forest management.

He is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan and the Yale Schools of Forestry, receiving his M.D. and Ph.D. degrees from Yale University.

Dean Jeffers came to the University of Idaho in September, 1935, from the University of Washington. With him came the highest recommendations.

An enthusiast for outdoor life, he has as his personal hobbies camping and hiking.

A recent survey revealed that all Idaho Alumni Foresters are employed. The School of Forestry now has an enrollment of 323 students. Twenty of these foresters plan to be graduated in June.

Dwight S. Jeffers

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

• • • Besides training many students for teaching and coaching positions, the physical education program has as its purpose the regulation of facilities for affording every student—man or woman—adequate exercise.

Ted Bank, head football coach, is also the nominal head of the men's Department of Physical Education. To Percy Clapp, head of the intramural sports program, he has delegated the direction of many maneuvers of the department. Directing women's physical education is L. Janette Wirt.

Compulsory during the freshman and sophomore years, physical education offers everything from Danish gymnastics and folk dancing for women, to golf and boxing for men. With these play facilities "Jack should not be a dull boy."

Ted Bank

SOUTHERN BRANCH

• • • Students and faculty at the Southern Branch were faced in the fall of 1934 with what they thought would be a difficult task—finding a new man to fill the vacancy created by the untimely death of beloved Dean John R. Dyer. The man chosen was John R. Nichols.

Students who transfer from the Southern Branch, to the University proper, now comment:

"Dean Nichols has gained respect and admiration; capable, cheerful, and obliging, he has assumed his many responsibilities and fulfilled them all."

This year's enrollment at the Branch was about 900. The institution's steady growth has given impetus to a drive for a full four-year curriculum.

George E. Horton

GRADUATE MANAGER

■ ■ ■ Back when football players wore lengthy pantaloons, their "I" sweaters for jerseys, and no shoulder pads—that's when the Vandals were captained by a gangling kid named George Horton. The year was 1900; Idaho was champion of the Pacific Northwest.

Today the Vandals think they still have a champion in that same George E. (Cap) Horton as Graduate Manager of student activities. He is "Cap" to every one.

"Cap" still plays a square game in football and other athletic contests at Idaho, but he now works as "captain of the pocketbook." When it is a question of disbursing funds for student activities—such as athletics, publications, and a score of others—"Cap" Horton is the authority for making the move.

Cap's office, always busy, but unusually busy for the cameraman . . . Election day . . . When A.S.U.I. "big shots" are chosen for next year by hook or crook.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

••• The authority for filling appointive positions and making appropriations from student body funds, the 1936 student executive board purchased a source of lasting enjoyment for the "Lawson Littles"—the site for a hundred-acre golf course.

Heading the board are: the president, Theron Ward; vice president, Russell Honsowetz, and secretary, Dorothy Brown.

Other members are Carl Buell and Ralph Jensen, senior men; Jane Post and Wilma Mitchell, senior women; Bert Larson and Victor Thompson, junior men; Dorothy Rosevear, junior woman; and Robert Morley, sophomore man.

Ex-officio members include a faculty advisor, editor of the Idaho Argonaut, a resident alumnus, and the president of the Associated Women Students.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

■ ■ ■ Four years—time passes swiftly—and freshmen of four years ago now are seniors. Their hopes have been realized, or they have been disappointed—would-be "big shots" have fallen along the way, but the class has had its leaders, and they have been crowned. Athletes, editors, politicians, and students, all have given their bit to the school and have kept alive during their four years the Vandal spirit. Seniors now look forward to a new experience, graduation, and then to a new and bigger experience, life in the wide world. They will carry with them what they have learned in these four years, they will carry with them the Vandals' fighting spirit. The spirit will never die, Idaho seniors will succeed in life and build a bigger and better Idaho in their success—here's wishing them well—.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

■■■ The senior class has been active this year. Its members have been leaders in campus undertakings and activities, and as a group its experience and power have been felt. Officers for the first semester were: president, George Brunzell, also president of the Associated Engineers; George Rich was vice president, proving his merit as an executive as well as an athlete; Eleanor Echternach was secretary, and Bill Simons was the treasurer. The seniors staged successfully the annual Senior Ball. Wallace Geraghty was general chairman of the affair, and with a corp of assistants made the ball a social "standout." Officers were chosen for the second semester with these seniors winning the positions: Sam Johnson, president; Alline King, vice president; Betty Bandelin, secretary, and James Miller, treasurer.

■■■ The junior year might well be termed the coming-out year. Like debutantes making their bow to society, the leaders in the class come strongly to the fore, and in the junior class we can see the officers, editors, politicians, and powers for the following year. Student body prexies become cinches enough to be rated as such by the campus paper and the wagging tongues of would-be politicians. Blue Key, coveted mostly for the sake of wearing the charm, picks the leaders from this class, and big shots are at last "full-fledged." Juniors are glad to assume their new position on the campus, being a junior embodies all relief from the humble submissiveness of freshman days, the struggle for recognition as sophomores, and the future of filling the places of the most revered and honored seniors.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

One of the biggest Junior Weeks in history was the contribution of this junior class to the University's activity for the year. Based upon the Irish and St. Patrick's day, the juniors went to town on the idea and showed everyone what a real Junior Week is like. With the program including a mixer, a parade, an assembly, a serenade, the Prom, and the cabaret, there was no doubt that these juniors knew how to entertain. Bert Larson was general chairman with Earl Bullock, Winston Goss, Robert Krummes, and Jack Dyer as assistants. Junior officers for the first semester were: Earl Bullock, president; Charles Collins, vice president; Esther Flenner, secretary; and Fay Pettijohn, treasurer. Officers for the second semester were: Clarence Devlin, president; Cyril Adkins, Marion Swanson, and Ted Brasch.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

• • • Second year—Sophomores—the only change they recognize is in the new frosh—and do they look dumb! So think the sophomores. They have weathered the first year of humiliation, even though to hear them talk they put over plenty on those unsuspecting upperclassmen. The freshmen won't get away with anything this year—so say the sophomores. The sophomore year is a struggle for recognition. You see them "polishing" the editors and managers, for after all, they want to get ahead. By this time they know Blue Key chooses on a point system and sophomores stay up nights trying to calculate the points for this and its sister honorary. Sometimes they build their hopes too high and calculate their points wrong; their grades slip, and they slip unnoticed from the limelight. Sophomores—yes, but still green.

■ ■ ■ Sophomore Holly Day, coming before Christmas vacation, hurled the sophomore class into the campus spotlight in a big way. Started only last year, this affair has become one of the leading events of the year. Sophomores wore holly and sold tickets to their dance to make the thing a success in spirit and finance. Robert Granville was general chairman of the celebration, which consisted of carol singing, an assembly, and the holly dance. A feature of the dance was the visit of Santa with nuts and candy for all. Sophomore class officers for the year were: First semester, president, Dean Green; vice president, Bill Maclear; secretary, Louise Paulsen; and treasurer, Mary Wickes; second semester, Andrew James, president; James Perry, vice president; Marjorie Glenn, secretary; and Emy Lou Smith, treasurer.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

■■■ The "special" brought a train load of them this year as usual—freshmen—sought after by the Greeks the first week and "sat on" from then on. The first year is becoming less hectic each year; some more progressive houses have done away with the paddle, the "I" Club is too busy to enforce traditions, and the sophomores too lazy to post edicts. Big sisters and big brothers have reduced the hazards of registration to a minus "zero." All a freshman must do is become acquainted with his new environment and forget his high school days—both are difficult. The girls must have an activity—yes, simply must, and some of the boys would be better off if they had one. Two evils to be avoided the first year are love and the Blue Bucket—both are detrimental in more ways than one.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

■ ■ ■ Freshmen activities consisted of building the big bonfire for the homecoming rally and staging the annual Frosh Glee in May. The bonfire this year was of good size and showed lots of work, with a minimum of stolen materials of value. At the beginning of the year, Harold Roise, noted as a high school athlete, was elected president with the aid of his fraternity "brothers-to-be." Dick (good-looking) Hutchison was elected vice president. John (I'm a big shot) Elder nominated himself for secretary, and was victorious. He defied custom and the politicians the second semester and lost. Elizabeth Bothwell was treasurer. Sam Rich was second semester president. Carl Burt was vice president, Katherine Cady secretary, and Jane Harvey was chosen treasurer.

Alumni President

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

"Cec" Hagen, Alumni Secretary, and secretary at work sending out "Pep talk" material to the grads.

■ ■ ■ At the annual alumni meeting held in Moscow last June at Commencement time, E. H. Myrick of Orofino was elected president of the Idaho Alumni Association. Cecil Hagen was elected secretary.

During the last year the alumni all over the state have been very active. The organization of Vandal Booster clubs in practically all of the towns and cities in the state has been responsible for this activity. The clubs have as their avowed purpose the improvement of the University of Idaho's athletic standing, through encouraging the state's best athletes to attend the University and creating alumni interest in the University throughout the state.

William McCrea
Homecoming Chairman

ANNUAL HOMECOMING

The Alumni danced, yes, really, in the Gym.

■■■ Homecoming—when the alumni come from all parts of the state and nation to renew acquaintances and celebrate, it's a big day in Moscow. The alumni hold their meeting and discuss their business—but primarily it is a time for renewing friendships and making new ones. Homecoming this year was built around the southern idea in honor of our coaching staff from the south. William McCrea was appointed chairman of the event from Blue Key, the organization in charge of Homecoming each year.

Book III

VANDAL SPORTS

Coach Ted Bank, newest member of the Pacific Coast family of coaches and Director of Physical Education at Idaho.

DIRECTOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Coach Percy Clapp, assistant football coach in charge of Intramural Sports and Physical Education.

■■■ Coach Ted Bank was chosen to head the Idaho athletics department to succeed Leo Calland this year. Bank comes from away down south in Louisiana where he was assistant coach at Tulane University. Formerly he worked under that famous Michigan coach, Fielding "Hurry-up" Yost.

His initial season did not prove as successful as had been expected, but great expectations lie in the future with the coming of new men who will better understand his system than the men of this year who have been drilled so long in the Calland system.

Percy Clapp, who was chosen Bank's assistant, hails from Appleton, Wisconsin, where he was head football coach and chairman of the physical education department at Lawrence College. Clapp is a real leader of young men. He has the educational attitude toward athletics and has shown excellent cooperation since he arrived on the Idaho campus.

COACHES

■ ■ ■ Idaho has a complete new staff of coaches this year, with the exception of Rich Fox, Vandal basketball mentor. Fox led the court men through many seasons, and has proved his ability in both his teams and personality.

Bob Tessier hails from the same school as Head Coach Bank. He was coached at Tulane under Bank and Cox. He came here as assistant football coach and frosh basketball coach.

Al Paddock came to Idaho as assistant football coach and frosh football coach. He was head coach and director of physical education at Southwest Mississippi Junior College.

Mike Ryan, Idaho's new track coach and trainer, comes from Maine. He trained and coached the last four American Olympic teams and is himself an Olympic star.

MANAGERS

■■■ Louis Paskin was appointed senior football manager last spring by the executive board. He hails from South Bend, Indiana, and is a major in Business Administration.

William Pauley was chosen senior basketball manager for the 1936 season. He is in the College of Engineering, majoring in chemical engineering. He comes from Boise, Idaho.

The senior baseball manager for this year was Vincent Hunt from Buhl, Idaho. He is a student in the school of Education.

Franklin David, Moscow, was chosen senior track manager to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert Little. He is a student in pre-medics.

The managers are chosen from the junior managers for ability and interest shown in the sports for which they turn out.

King Otto Power

Duke Don Zimmerman
Duke John Moats

THE KING AND HIS DUKES

■■■ Sauntering unnoticed along the Vandal rooting section between halves of the Homecoming football game, a Washington State College student suddenly snatched Yell Duke Don Zimmerman's megaphone and tore across the playing field toward the haven of the W.S.C. rooters' section. Duke Zimmerman dashed madly in pursuit as soon as he sensed the calamity. Pouncing on the lanky snatcher's back before he could reach his Cougar cohorts, short-legged Zimmerman emerged from the melee with the remains of his megaphone to receive the acclaim of all Idaho supporters.

Zimmerman, and the other Yell Duke, tow-headed little Johnny Moats, have been of great assistance to Idaho's efficient yell king, Otto Power, who has performed loyally the task of directing athletic spirit in unified yelling.

A pep rally at the station as the team departs

KICK-OFF

Head Coach Ted Bank

Captain Bob McCue
of the 1935 Vandals

VANDAL LEADERS

■■■ Coach Ted Bank proved his ability and drive by guiding the Idaho Vandals through a successful football season. In his first season as head coach Bank has built up powerful reserves, who should go far in conference competition next year. Big Bob McCue was voted captain as well as most inspirational player of the 1935 squad. McCue played an iron man season until an injury at the last of the season prevented him from finishing a record year.

FOOTBALL SEASON

■ ■ ■ This year was the first year that Idaho played under the new system as introduced by Head Coach Ted Bank and his assistants at spring practice last year. The season was not very successful from the standpoint of wins and losses, yet it gave evidence of greater days to come. The coaches were handicapped by lack of experience on the part of the players in handling the new type of play.

The first game of the season was with the Washington Huskies at Seattle and resulted in a 14-0 defeat for the Vandals. On the following Saturday the Vandals played Gonzaga and went down to a one-point defeat. Gonzaga scored on the opening kick-off and converted the try for point. The final score was 7-6. The next week the football team was handed an unexpected 7-0 defeat by Whitman in their appearance before the hometown crowd. Idaho won next from Montana 14-7; lost to W.S.C. 6-0; and O.S.C. 13-0. They were defeated by Oregon 14-0; won from Nevada 26-6; and lost to U.C.L.A. 13-6.

Idaho opened the football season with a 14-0 defeat from the Washington Huskies at Seattle.

The first part of the ball game was entirely Idaho's, with the majority of the play being held on the Washington side of the midfield stripe. During the first period the Vandals worked the ball down to the 31-yard line on an exchange of punts. From there Devlin went down to the Washington 20. Sundberg bucked his way to the Huskies seven, and a line buck netted two more yards. On a fake line buck and a double lateral from Sundberg to Iverson to Devlin the ball was advanced to the one-yard line, where Devlin dropped the oval and Jimmy Cain brought the crowd to their feet with a 98-yard run for a touchdown. This was called back.

In the last minute of play during the first half, By Haines ran 47 yards for the first Husky touchdown. Rink Bond converted.

The other Washington score was made on the second play of the fourth quarter, when Nowgroski, Washington fullback, broke away for a 31-yard run over left tackle.

■ ■ ■ A first play touchdown by the Gonzaga Bulldogs gave them a 7-to-6 victory over the Idaho Vandals in a non-conference game at Spokane, October 8. Tommy McNeese, fleet Gonzaga halfback, caught the starting kickoff, dodged toward the center of the field, and ran ninety yards for the Bulldog's lone touchdown of the game. Seconds later, Ray Olsen converted and Gonzaga led 7 to 0. The Idaho offense rallied to drive the Gonzaga defense back with long gains time after time, only to be held for downs inside of the Bulldogs' ten-yard line. It was in the final period that Ward plunged through from the six-inch line for the only Idaho touchdown, after dashing around end for 46- and 19-yard gains. Idaho's try for point failed, and the remainder of the game was played in midfield.

The Vandals' drive that impressed the fans at Seattle seemed to be lacking against the Bulldogs, with Swede Ward and Willie Maxson being the outstanding Idaho backs. Idaho made 14 first downs to six for Gonzaga. The Bulldogs totaled 188 yards from scrimmage while the Vandals gained 320 yards.

■■■ In their first appearance in southern Idaho in the last three years, the Vandals defeated the University of Nevada by the score of 26-6. This was Coach Bank's first appearance before the south Idaho alumni, and he left a very favorable impression.

The first score of the game was made by Theron Ward on a long run through right tackle. In the second quarter, Willie Maxson broke loose for 62 yards before he was hauled down on the Nevada 21-yard stripe. A few plays later Norm Iverson scored from the five-yard line on an end around play. Louis Rich converted the try for point.

Midway in the third quarter, Devlin ran the Idaho score up to 19 points with a 61-yard dash around end behind perfect interference. Sundberg's try for point was low.

During the final quarter, Dayton put the ball in position with a series of line bucks and finally scored standing up from the 28-yard line. He also made the try for point from placement.

Idaho outplayed the Wolves throughout the game, making 15 first downs to their five.

••• A greatly improved Vandal ball club traveled to Eugene, October 18 to engage the strong University of Oregon Webfoots in a conference battle which was marked by the superior playing of the Idahoans in every department of the game except kicking and scoring. The Ducks took advantage of this superior punting and came out with the long end of a 14 to 0 score. Ross Sundberg was the leading Idaho ground gainer with an average of 4.2 yards per try.

It was Riordan's and Donnell's kicking that kept the Vandals in the hole. Oregon's boots averaged 48.3 yards to Idaho's 26.2 average on all kicks. Idaho drove the Ducks back time and again with a series of passing and running attacks, but the breaks were against them, for they were not able to get across the Duck's goal line. The Vandals gained 116 yards from scrimmage and 87 from their 10 completed passes for a total of 203 yards to Oregon's 132 yards from scrimmage and 37 yards from passes for a total of 169 yards. They made nine first downs to Oregon's six and completed 10 out of 17 passes.

■■■ In a fitting climax to the second annual Dad's Day at the University of Idaho, the Vandals registered their first win of the year with a 14-7 victory over the Montana Grizzlies.

There was little action seen during the first half of the game, with both teams seemingly content to punt on third down and wait for the breaks. However, the second half was decidedly different. The Montana team kicked over the Idaho goal line on the opening kick-off and the ball was brought out to the Idaho 20-yard line. On the next play, Theron Ward shot through the right side of the Montana line and sailed 80 yards down the field to score standing up.

During the fourth quarter, Sullivan, Montana captain, recovered Sundberg's fumble on the Idaho 22. A few plays later, Szasch took the ball over from the one-yard line. In the last seconds of play Iverson recovered a Montana fumble on the one-yard line and Maxson carried the ball across. Rich and Sundberg converted both tries for points, and Idaho finished with a conference win.

■ ■ ■ The gods of football, first sending a cold, drizzly Homecoming Day for the Vandals to contend with, added yet another handicap by handing the game to W.S.C. by a score of 6 to 0. The Cougar's points came early in the first quarter when the pass from center sailed over Swede Ward's head and then rolled into the Idaho end zone, where a Cougar player grounded it.

The sparkling play of Ed Goddard, W.S.C. quarterback, enabled the Cougar team to stay out in front after the first quarter. It would be impossible to name any Vandal player as outstanding, every man on the team playing a bang-up game. Continuing their practice of copping everything but the points, the Idahoans ran up a total of 196 yards from runs and passes to 140 for the Cougars. They passed three times for a total of 26 yards to 21 yards for the Cougars. The Vandals made eight first downs to seven for W.S.C. Babe Hollingberry's team excelled in only one phase, that was punting. The Cougars kicked eight times for an average of 40.8 yards against 33.6 for Idaho.

■ ■ ■ The Vandals journeyed to Corvallis on November 15 to meet the strong Oregon State Beavers. The Idaho team seemed to have a let-down after the W.S.C. game, and as a result they came out on the short end of a 13-to-0 score. Joe Gray was the sparkplug of the O.S.C. attack, and his shifty, clever running kept Idaho on the defense for the greater part of the game.

The first score of the game came in the first quarter when a Beaver punt was fumbled in Vandal pay dirt, and the ball wound up in the arms of the O.S.C. half for an Orange touchdown. The Beavers' second tally came in the third quarter when Gray, behind excellent blocking, raced 68 yards to cross the Vandal goal line.

Louis Rich, sophomore fullback, and Ralph Spaugy, center, played the most outstanding game for the Vandals. The Idaho aerial attack was the only department in which the Vandals were superior. Honsowetz passed all afternoon, completing 11 out of 19 tosses, but in spite of this, Idaho could get no closer than the Orange 30-yard stripe.

■ ■ ■ In their last game of the 1935 season, the Idaho Vandals played a championship game to surprise the Los Angeles football fans by nearly upsetting the strong U.C.L.A. Bruins. The Vandals threatened in all quarters, but failed to score until the last few minutes of play, giving the Bruins victory by a 13-to-6 tally.

Idaho started the fireworks in the first quarter when Clarence Devlin swept through right tackle and raced 41 yards before a Bruin tackler hauled him down. In the second quarter, "Swede" Ward broke loose over tackle and ran 54 yards before being nailed. The U.C.L.A. eleven scored their first counter in this period after a 68-yard drive. An aerial attack by both teams marked the second half. The Bruins passed to their second counter early in the fourth quarter. With less than three minutes to play, the Vandals scored their only touchdown when Holmes flipped a pass to Devlin, who drove 40 yards for a tally. In kicking alone was Ted Bank's tribe inferior. U.C.L.A. averaged 42 yards against 27 for Idaho. The performance of the Vandals in this game raised their conference stock considerably.

■ ■ ■ The Idaho Freshman team this year was one of the strongest teams they have had here in years. The men took readily to the new system of play that was introduced by Coach Ted Bank, and under the leadership of Al Paddock were able to turn in a very successful season.

In the first game they played the frosh gave evidence of some very strong material for the varsity of next year when they downed Cheney Normal by a score of 7-0. The only score of the game came on a pass from Harold Roise to Tony Knapp, left end, who took the ball on the Cheney twenty-yard line and raced over for the touchdown. With the Cheney team all set to block a kick from placement, Roise called a line buck that was good for the point.

The frosh lost the next game to Lewiston Normal by a score of 7-6. The Lewiston score was made on a well-executed pass from the center of the field. The frosh scored on straight football. The frosh outdowned the Normal eight to one.

The frosh lost their last game of the season to W.S.C. frosh by a score of 19-0. The line held well, but they were unable to stop the fleet W.S.C. backs on end runs.

VANDAL LEADERS

■ ■ ■ Coach Rich Fox took the helm of the Vandal baseball team, and guided it through a season which was considered successful, as the Idaho squad won three games and lost the remainder of the games on their schedule by relatively close scores. Rich Fox has coached a number of Vandal baseball teams, and every year he has developed material of championship caliber, but there has always been a psychological element which falls upon the squad before their first game. This causes the Vandals to emerge at the end of the season at the bottom of the conference standings. Bill Kleiner, captain and center fielder of the Idaho squad, proved a valuable asset both as a player and a leader for the team. He played a consistent brand of ball, and could always be relied upon to garner his share of hits.

THE BASEBALL SEASON

■ ■ ■ With only three wins and thirteen defeats, the Idaho Vandals ended in last place in the Northern Division of the Conference. They were able to register wins over Washington State, Oregon State, and the University of Oregon, but were unable to place against the Huskies from the University of Washington.

In the pre-season games the Vandal batsmen met with a little more success, managing to win consistently from the Lewiston Normal team. In the Whitman series during the spring vacation, Idaho dropped five straight games to the Missionaries from Walla Walla. In a return engagement at home the Vandals won a double header. Barney Anderson, senior catcher, was the most consistent slugger for the Vandals, with a .343 average.

The Vandals took it on the nose in the first two games of the series by scores of 20 to 10 in the first game and 6 to 2 in the second game. The Cougars bunching their hits and the Vandals bunching their errors accounted for the first loss. In the return game, Idaho kept W.S.C. at bay for a margin of four runs.

The Vandals came through in the third game with a 7-to-0 victory. Bill Black allowed the Cougars only one hit during the game. In the final game of the series, W.S.C. won by a score of 8 to 1.

■■■ Coach Rich Fox's Vandal baseball nine emerged from their four-game series with Oregon State College boasting one win as against three losses. The Idaho nine dropped the first three games to the Beavers by scores of 5 to 4; 12 to 1; and 9 to 4. They came back in their last game and drove the Orangemen all over the field, finally taking the game by the overwhelming score of 12 to 1. In this last game, Naslund, Geraghty, and Anderson were particularly outstanding. They played brilliant ball in the field and also managed to keep the Beavers worried by their consistent hitting. Idaho was unfortunate in the first part of the series. They got off to a bad start by dropping the first game, and it was not until the last game that they really hit their stride.

The Vandals lost the first game with Oregon by a score of 4-5, and were barely able to nose out the Webfoots in the second game by a score of 6-5. Naslund scored the winning run in the tenth inning.

The series with the Oregonians at Moscow was worse for the Vandals, and they lost both games played. The score on the first was 11-9, and 7-6 in the second.

■ ■ ■ The Vandals met the Huskies in Seattle on May 6 and 7 for the first two games of a four-game series.

Although the Vandal nine showed up well most of the time, they had innings in which they didn't seem to click. These bad breaks cost them both games. The Huskies chalked up three more runs than the Vandals in each game, winning the two with scores of 5 to 2 and 10 to 7.

The same streaked playing cost the Idaho nine the two games played on the home diamond on May 29 and 30, losing the first 8 to 5, and the second game 18 to 7. The psychological aspect seemed to figure strongly in this series. Once behind or on the bad end of the breaks, the Vandals could never forge to the front.

VANDAL LEADERS

■ ■ ■ Although Idaho could not be credited with a successful season in the 1936 basketball series, the Vandals were fighting all of the time. Coach Rich Fox, who has headed the basketball helm for a number of years, has developed teams which are a constant conference threat—tipping over the leaders on numerous occasions.

Wally Geraghty has proved to be the most consistent man on the team in his three years of varsity competition. To "Wally" and his team-mates, students can toss a bouquet of admiration for the fighting attitude they have displayed. It was with deep regret that we saw Wally play his last game.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

• • • The Idaho Vandals finished their basketball season with two wins and fourteen defeats chalked up against them. Idaho defeated the Washington State Cougars and the University of Washington Huskies for their total wins. Fans who saw this game with the Huskies claim that it was one of the best games ever witnessed on the home floor. After starting out with a bang in pre-conference games, the Vandals fell into a slump, and it wasn't until towards the middle of the season that they began to click. Four of the Vandal mainstays played their last season this year. They were Geraghty, Katsilometes, Fisher, and Iverson. These four men played practically every game this season, forming the nucleus around which the team was built. As a sign of appreciation, students gave these seniors a rousing ovation during the half of their last varsity game.

WASHINGTON SERIES

■ ■ ■ The third game in this series proved to be the most thrilling game that Idaho fans have seen on the Vandal court in many years. The Huskies came across the mountains without a loss on their record, and were confident of retaining that distinction. The Vandals, however, had a different opinion, and upset the championship-bound Huskies to the tune of a 40-to-33 victory. Geraghty and Fisher took scoring honors for Idaho with 10 points each. Wagner was high for the Washingtonians with nine.

The Huskies came back in the second game of the home series to hand the conquering Vandals a 52-to-38 defeat. Until the last nine minutes of this game the Idahoans looked as though they were going to give them another defeat. The Idaho defense snapped under the terrific strain of hard, fast playing for almost two games, and the Huskies piled up a 14-point lead.

The two games at Seattle resulted in Idaho coming out on the short end of the score in both games.

OREGON STATE SERIES

■ ■ ■ Idaho was unable to win a single one of the four games played with the Beavers from Corvallis this season. The Oregon State men won the series by scores of 31 to 24; 45 to 19; 22 to 21; and 33 to 22.

The first game, played at Corvallis, was the conference opener for the Vandals, and they showed lack of development. The Idaho men were unable to get past the close guarding of the O.S.C. five and went down to defeat 31 to 24.

The next night Idaho was unable either to hit the basket or to check the O.S.C. men. It was a very poor exhibition on the part of Idaho and they took it on the nose for a 45-to-19 defeat.

In the first game played at Moscow, it looked as though the Vandals had finally hit their stride as they pushed the Beavers to the limit in a close game. O.S.C. barely nosed out 22 to 21. Idaho lost because of inability to sink fouls.

In the last game of the series O.S.C. again was victorious with a score of 33 to 22.

■ ■ ■ Coach Rich Fox's Vandal five broke into the win column of the Pacific Coast Conference by defeating the W.S.C. Cougars 33 to 30 on the Pullman floor. After trailing 13 points at halftime the Idahoans came back in the second half to cop the lead and hold it until the final gun. The Vandals were particularly outstanding in their foul shooting, finding the hoop for 13 out of 19 tries. Geraghty was high point man of the game, collecting 12 points, 6 of which were foul shots. This game was marked by the comeback of Idaho, which was made possible by the brilliant playing of Iverson, Fisher, Johnson, Geraghty, and Katsilometes.

In the last three games of their four-game series, the Cougars revenged themselves by defeating the Vandals in all of the three games. It seems that the Idaho team could not click into the form that was shown in the first game of the series. The Cougars downed Idaho on the W.S.C. floor and then defeated the Vandals twice on the home court by scores of 46 to 33, and 60 to 42.

OREGON SERIES

■ ■ ■ The Vandal basketball team had a very unsuccessful season as far as the Webfoots from Oregon were concerned. Idaho was unable to break through for a single win in the four games played.

In the first game at Eugene the Idaho five was swamped by a last half drive by the Oregonians. The final score was 61 to 29 in favor of Oregon. Geraghty was high man for Idaho with 12 points.

The next night the Webfoots barely eked out a win in a nip and tuck battle. The Vandals were in the lead five times, but were unable to hold the advantage. The final score was 45 to 41 in favor of the University of Oregon.

In the last two conference games of the year, Idaho again lost to Oregon. The games, played at Moscow, were very rough. In both games Idaho was ahead most of the first half, but were snowed under in the second stanza. The first night, Idaho lost by a score of 41 to 31. The second game also went to Oregon with a score of 49 to 33.

Coach Al Paddock

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

■ ■ ■ The freshman basketball team made a fairly good showing this year under the capable coaching of Al Paddock. Although handicapped all through the season by the ineligibility of several of their best players the frosh made a fine showing. The coaching in the most part was to emphasize the system used at Idaho and to acquaint the men with the varsity type of play. There should be several fine men from this squad who will be on the varsity squad next year.

The frosh quintet were able to win only one game from their traditional rivals, the Washington State Kittens. In the third game of the series, Ray Lavigne sank a foul shot during the overtime period to give the Babes a 46 to 45 win from the Kittens. In the first two games of the series the Babes failed to get started during the first half and were unable to overcome the lead built up by the Cougar Kittens.

In their series with Lewiston Normal and with the Bulldogs from Gonzaga; the Babes were able to break even. The frosh won the first game with Lewiston, but lost the second. After dropping the first game to the Bullpups 41 to 40, the frosh came back to win 52 to 33 in the game played at Moscow.

CINDER PATH

Coach Otto Anderson

Captain Alfred Berg

VANDAL LEADERS

■■■ Coach Otto Anderson lead the Vandal trackmen through a successful season; and although the Vandals won only one conference meet, Otto developed a number of outstanding trackmen. Anderson has had to work under a great handicap at Idaho, because of the fact that the University has no field house in which he could train his men during the early spring months. In spite of this fact, Otto produced track teams which were a constant threat to the larger schools on the coast.

"Ap" Berg captained the 1935 team. He was an inspirational leader as well as an outstanding weight pusher. His consistent garnering of points was one of the main reasons why the Vandal track team was always considered a threat in the conference meets.

THE CINDER SUMMARY

■ ■ ■ In summing up the showing that Idaho made in the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference, we still can boast of winning our traditional meet from the Montana Grizzlies. The Vandals lost to Washington State College, Oregon State, and the conference meet. Even this meager showing had no bearing upon the coaching or the participants. Coach Otto Anderson did the best with what was available to him. The team, on the other hand, lost their points by hair-breadth margins.

What Idaho needs is a field house. It is no cinch having to train for a meet in a cold building. Furthermore, when the weather does clear up there is not enough time to get into shape before entering competition.

This year, Track Coach Mike Ryan has improved the training conditions by working out in the gymnasium, and we hope that Idaho can really go to town and show the conference gents that we are still on the map.

For the Vandals "Swede" Ward was high point man with 10 points, which he copped in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. ■■■ For the sixth consecutive year the Montana Grizzlies were forced to admit defeat at the hands of the Vandal cinder artists in the conference meet at Missoula. With three firsts, three ties, and the majority of seconds and thirds, the Idahoans were able to stave off the Grizzly comeback in the relay. The most distinctive event of the meet was claimed by Paul Berg in the high jump. Paul cleared the bar at 5 feet 10 inches to tie with two Montana men. Other outstanding performers were Adkins in the high hurdles, Neely in the 440-yard dash, Ward in the 100-yard sprint, and Brown and O'Neill in the distance races.

CONFERENCE MEET

■ ■ ■ Although noticeably out-classed, Idaho trackmen managed to capture 6 points in the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast track meet, which was enough to keep Montana at the bottom of the list. Washington State came through to win the meet with a total of 50 points.

Stew Neely, fast-stepping Idaho sprinter, ran second in both the 100-yard dash and in the 440-yard run. Shoemaker of Oregon broke the conference record in the 100-yard sprint by setting a time of 9.5 seconds. Sharp, of Idaho, accounted for the remaining Idaho points by tying for first honors in the pole vault at 12 feet nine inches, for Idaho's only first place in the meet.

FRESHMAN TRACK

■ ■ ■ For the first time, a great deal of emphasis was placed on freshman track. Early in the fall Coach Mike Ryan called a meeting of freshmen men to elect a track captain and a manager. At this meeting, Allan Poole, Canadian games star and a possible Olympic prospect, was elected captain of the freshman track squad. Ralph Blake, although not a track man himself, was elected manager of freshman track because of his interest in the sport. Over a period of days in the fall while the weather still permitted, Coach Ryan conducted a series of interclass and freshman track meets. At these meets all freshmen interested in track were urged to turn out and compete, and considerable material was discovered which will aid in building varsity teams in the next year or so. Soon after the start of the second semester, the freshmen turned out for track practices in the gymnasium and in Lewis Court. Several new events, including the hammer throw, were introduced. Freshman meets were arranged with Cheney Normal, Washington State College, and Gonzaga. Coach Ryan deserves a great deal of credit for the interest he has displayed in the freshman track squad, for it is only through this method of getting everyone out and competing that Idaho track teams can be built up. The interclass indoor meets were very popular and without a doubt have become a tradition at Idaho and will be repeated with equal success next year.

MINOR SPORTS

BOXING

Luke Purcell winning the Golden Gloves championship at Seattle by a knockout

Louis Denton Louis August, Coach Joey August

■ ■ ■ Boxing, Idaho's only self-supporting sport, under the able tutelage of Louis August, realized probably its greatest year at Idaho in 1935-36. Vandal boxers won all of the many major fight cards they competed in, including wins over W.S.C., Gonzaga, the Maraloma Club of Vancouver, B.C., and the Washington Athletic club of Seattle.

Five west coast champions—Joey August, Louie Denton, Luke Purcell, Paul George, and George Riddle—fought on the Vandal team this year.

WRESTLING

■ ■ ■ Wrestling was Idaho's one inter-collegiate championship sport during the past year. Under the instruction of Earl Leatham, the student wrestling coach, and Percy Clapp, faculty director, the Vandal grapplers succeeded themselves to the title they won last year—the Northwest Intercollegiate Wrestling Championship.

Paul Jones, ace Idaho matman, won the 134-pound northwest championship. Harold Stoddard, Leslie Holmes, and Stonko Pavkov reached the finals.

GOLF

■ ■ ■ Golf at Idaho during 1935 wasn't on a par with former years. The Vandal golfers competed in five major meets, but failed to tally enough points in any one to score a victory.

Competing in the North Division Golf Tournament—which included Idaho, Washington, Oregon, O.S.C., and W.S.C.—Idaho walked away with fifth place honors. Although defeated three times by W.S.C. and once by O.S.C., Idaho's star, Jack Cummock, scored lowest in every contest.

TENNIS

■ ■ ■ Tennis, under the leadership of Ray Sowder, had a .250 batting average at Idaho for the season of 1935.

Of the four major meets in which Idaho competed, only one, that with Montana, was scored under the victory column of the Vandal racketmen. Washington trounced the Idaho men early in the season, but later in the North Division tourney were pressed to defeat the Idaho Rust-Sowder combination 7 to 5. W.S.C. defeated Idaho four matches of seven.

SWIMMING

■ ■ ■ Swimming didn't afford Idaho victories or championships in 1936, but a team of efficiency was developed by Swimming Coach Bob Tessier.

Vandal swimmers engaged on a "home and home" basis with both W.S.C. and the University of Washington. On March 7, the team competed in the Minor Sports Carnival at Seattle.

Everett Wood, Allesio Caparaso, Charles Aspray, Harvey Hollinger, Fred Mueller, and Dwight Cable were swimming regulars on the Idaho squad.

CROSS COUNTRY

■■■ Cross-country was reintroduced into Idaho athletics this year by the University's new track coach, Mike Ryan.

Defeating Whitman in their initial race, Vandal cross-countrymen later subdued W.S.C. 33 to 23, and placed second in the North Division races at Portland, being nosed out by Washington 35 to 22.

Bill O'Neill, Idaho star, took first in all three meets and set a northwest record for the four-mile jaunt of 23 minutes and 9 seconds.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

G. Thiessen, L. Green, J. Cooper, D. Johnson, S. Pavkov, B. Larson

Those who assisted in the run-off of the intramural tournaments were: Harvie Walker, Leslie Holmes, George Thiessen, Bert Larson, Wallace Geraghty, Donald Johnson, Merle Fisher, Roland Winter, Joseph Knap, John Cooper, Leon Green, George Willott, Kenneth Carberry, and Stonko Pavkov.

These men acted as referees, timekeepers, and statisticians in the running of the intramural program for the year. Coach Percy Clapp was in charge of the entire program.

MANAGERS

TRACK

■■■ Colorful tracksters of Lambda Chi Alpha ran up 34 points to capture the intramural track championship for 1934-35. Alpha Tau Omega registered second with 26 $\frac{6}{7}$ points. Ridenbaugh Hall took third with 21 $\frac{5}{7}$ points, and the Phi Delts fourth with 16 $\frac{6}{7}$ points.

Don Johnson, Ridenbaugh Hall's one-man track team, ran off with individual honors by taking first in the discus throw and shattering Ap Berg's three-year-old university record in the shot-put with a toss of 41 feet, 9 inches.

GOLF

■ ■ ■ Intramural golf, played last spring on the Moscow course, was won by the driving team of Beta Theta Pi. A. T. O. scored second, and the Phi Delts third.

Warren Russell, Beta, was individual low scorer with 45. Clyde Koontz, Delta Chi; James Gridley, A. T. O., and Cecil Greathouse, S. A. E., were tied with 47's.

The Beta's championship team consisted of Warren Russell, Bill Gigray, Lawrence Baird, and Robert Brewer, whose long driving and accurate putting brought golfing honors to their group.

TOUCH-FOOTBALL

■ ■ ■ Spirited participation exhibited itself in the first university intramural sport for 1935-36—touch football.

Beta Theta Pi, climaxing a final hectic week, won the football championship by defeating Ridenbaugh Hall 13 to 2. Delta Tau Delta qualified to play the Betas for the championship when they defeated Ridenbaugh Hall in the semi-finals, but due to purported use of ineligible men, the game was forfeited to Ridenbaugh Hall. The Delts subsequently romped over the T. M. A. to cinch third place.

TENNIS

■ ■ ■ Tennis competition was superficial for Delta Tau Delta's flashy racquet men, who suffered not a single defeat during the marathon.

The final match was played against Senior Hall. Phi Delta Theta took third after a hard playoff with Ridenbaugh Hall.

A paramount battery in the Delt offensive was the Hoyt-Sanders combination, who demonstrated the way they play it in "Sunny Cal." Harris and Paris furnished the complementary victories for the Delts, which gave them victory points.

C. Sanders, C. Schuster, M. Byrne, R. Blake
G. Hoyt, J. Evans, E. Wood, R. Lang

Stars of the Delta Tau Delta were Everett Wood, Gerry Hoyt, Cedric Sanders, Bob Lang, Maurice Byrne, and Ralph Blake. Wood set an intramural record in the 50-yard free style race, and Hoyt a record in the 50-yard back-stroke.

The Lindley Hall regulars were Charles Aspray, Richard Trzuskowski, Allesio Caparaso, Dwight Cable, Matthews Boardman, Douglas Edwards, Floyd Wallis, Richard Campbell, Philip Bender, and William Boone. They hold the record in the 150-yard medley relay race.

A. Meneely, R. Johnson, A. Hall, R. Jenson, H. Kerr

SWIMMING

Swimming honors were divided between Delta Tau Delta and Lindley Hall. Two separate meets were held—one for "all-school" competitors and one for the regular intramural champions—the Delts winning the first and Lindley Hall the second. In each case one was the runner-up to the other. In the first match, the Delts beat Lindley Hall 29 to 21, but in the second the Hall boys retaliated to win 22 to 21.

Both meets were of high calibre with several records being broken.

Lindley Hall Swimmers

BASKETBALL

Terminating a lengthy, double-elimination tournament, the Tau Mem Alephs proved themselves supreme in basketball when they beat Lindley Hall 27 to 12 in the championship game.

The local men were undefeated throughout the season. As champions they garnered 300 points toward their intramural standing. Lindley Hall took second place, and the Fijis third.

Johnson, Jenson, and Meneely were outstanding for the Tau Men Alephs, playing good basketball throughout the competition.

VOLLEYBALL

■■■ Volleyball artists of Tau Mem Aleph subdued a favored team of Sigma Nu's in the championship battle to win premier honors and chalk up 300 points.

Third place honors went to Delta Tau Delta, who crushed Senior Hall in the semi-finals.

All Stars named by coaches after the tournament were: Martin, Delta Tau Delta, spiker; Pearson, Senior Hall, spiker; Ed-dington, Ridenbaugh Hall, spiker; Meneely, T.M.A., passer; Hall, T.M.A., passer; Hudson, Sigma Chi, passer.

A. Meneely, R. Johnson, A. Hall, B. Peterson, R. Jenson, F. Claypool

HORSESHOES

■■■ After much debate on the part of the intramural managers from the various groups, intramural horseshoes was retained as a sport on the schedule, but with minor point rating only. The regular round robin type tournament was run between the leagues as existed in the other sports of the year. All of the matches were held in the city horseshoe courts. Many of the groups entered some first class pitchers and the barnyard golf contest created a lot of interest. Winners were undetermined as the Gem went to press.

INDOOR TRACK

■■■ The first indoor inter-group track meet was held March 25 in the Memorial Gym and Lewis Court. These indoor meets are quite popular in the east, and this one drew a lot of comment at Idaho. This meet did not count in the intramural cup race but was participated in by most of the groups. Tau Mem Aleph won the meet, with the Phi Gams taking second honors and the Delts third. The military band played rousing numbers between events. This indoor meet will no doubt become a popular annual event.

DEAN OF WOMEN

••• In her years of service as Dean of Women, Permeal J. French has made many true friends. With her graciousness and charming personality, she has acquired the love and admiration of all University of Idaho students, men and women alike. She is always truly welcomed as a guest because of her cheerful nature and pleasing disposition.

The dean's chief interest is the welfare and happiness of the women of the University. She is constantly finding a scheme through which Idaho students will surpass those of other universities, in both social and educational opportunities.

More and more students each year are discovering what great enjoyment can be derived from their contacts with the Dean of Women, Permeal J. French.

Dean French and her Secretary, Gertrude Cromwell

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

••• The Associated Women Students is a self-governing group which works for the benefit of the women students on the campus. Every woman student upon entering the University becomes a member of the A.W.S.

Elections are held each spring. This year Dorothy Dole, an outstanding woman on the campus, is president. Other officers are: Mary Jane Pace, vice-president; Catherine Bjornstad, secretary; Jane Baker, treasurer; Louise Paulsen, yell queen; and Hazel Gentry, point supervisor.

In addition to these officers, the A.W.S. governing body is the A.W.S. Cabinet. The cabinet is composed of twelve representative women from the group houses, halls, and town associations, whose purpose is to deal with all women's problems.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

••• The black and white gym suits which symbolize the Women's Athletic Association are the outward signs of an organization which encourages good fellowship among women of the University who are interested in sports and athletics.

Membership is obtained by earning 100 points according to the W.A.A. point system. Points are given for participation in the major sports: Basketball, speedball, volleyball, baseball, and rifle; and in the leisure time sports: tennis, swimming, hiking, skating, bicycling, horseshoes, and winter sports.

The executive board was composed of: Ruth Evans, Dorothy Preuss, Jane Post, Mariette Kalbus, Lucille Nelson, Julia Moore, Margaret Rosebaugh, Evelyn Jenkins, Helen Williams, Betty Bandelin, Frances Murtha, Neva Eisinger, and Dorothy Hohnhorst.

The coveted silver and gold "I" blanket is the reward for the woman who earns 2000 points. Gertrude Olesen, Ruth Evans, and Dorothy Williams received blankets this year.

The "I" Club is composed of: Dorothy Williams, president; Gertrude Olesen, vice-president; Dorothy Preuss, secretary and treasurer; and Ruth Evans, sergeant-at-arms; Marian Swanson, Edith Slatter, Dorothy Rosevear, Ruth Ferney, Dorothy Armstrong, Alma Almquist, Vivian Larsen, Dorothy Hohnhorst, Josephine Mitchell, and Mariette Kalbus.

All first team members received one hundred points and the winning team members received 25 points extra. Second teams received 50 points. The juniors won the speedball tournament, while the seniors were runners-up.

• • • Tennis is one of the most popular of women's sports. A "round robin" tournament was held in the fall. It was a single elimination tournament, with the last two winners meeting for the championship. Helen Sullivan was the winner of this match with Helen Parmley as runner-up.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

• • • Basketball, which is a major sport, was a great success this year. Approximately 115 women turned out for the sport. The inter-class championship was won by the freshmen women. The second teams were classified from A to G. In this tournament, team A was the winner.

• • • Emphasis was shifted to playing, not winning, in women's baseball this year, with the change in the point system. Members of the winning team receive only the one hundred points given to every other member of a first team, and no bonus. Much interest was taken in the class tournament played off in May, with an improvement in the quality of play.

The winning team of the tourney, the seniors, was composed of the following: Dorothy Williams, Margaret Rosebaugh, Gertrude Olesen, Dorothy Preuss, and Ruth Evans.

• • • Horseshoes holds a certain lure for even the most sophisticated Vandal miss, as was proved by the interest shown in the annual tournament last fall. The competition was divided into two leagues, the final pitching duel being won by Parthena White and Gladys Smith.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

A couple from "Taps & Terps."

• • • Dancing in its various forms is one of the most active means of recreation in which the women participate. Miss J. Wirt teaches classes in the dance in its various forms. A great variety is available, from tap to ballet and interpretative. "Taps and Terps" is presented each year.

Not for R. O. T. C.—but for fun—these women blaze away.

• • • Rifle develops accuracy and nerves, both desirable in the modern woman. Two days a week were set off at the rifle range for the use of women out for rifle. Ida Mae Gillenwater, Edwardine Bechtol, Patricia Espe, and Mary Louise Iddings all blazed perfect scores during the season. In the sixth match of a six-match rifle season, the sophomore team won the title.

Editor-in-Chief of the Gem of the Mountains this year was Maurice Malin. Beginning work early in the summer, Maury had The Gem well under way by the beginning of school. With the assistance of his staff, he has succeeded in making this year's yearbook one of the best in the history of the school.

Besides holding one of the highest editorial positions at the University of Idaho, Maurice is well known in other activities. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta, social fraternity; Alpha Kappa Psi, national business fraternity; Blue Key, national upper-classmen's service fraternity; and Silver Lance, local honorary for senior men.

Active in other departments of the University, Frank is National King of the Intercollegiate Knights. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, national business fraternity; Blue Key, national upperclassmen's service fraternity; Silver Lance, local honorary for senior men; and Delta Tau Delta, social fraternity.

Wayland Tanning who assisted Frank, was forced to leave school and Richard Paris was appointed to the position.

THE GEM STAFF and Service Awards

Fred Robinson, Jean Dunkle, Margaret Barton, Jack McKinney.

Nancy Chamberlin, Esther Flenner, Earl Bullock, Margaret Echternach, Marion Johnson.

• • • The Gem staff was organized this year along materially different divisions. Fred Robinson, Jean Dunkle, and Margaret Barton were named assistant editors to form an advisory editorial board, giving representation in every class. The Gem was also divided into six separate books with an editor in charge of each. Under these editors: Jack McKinney, Nancy Chamberlin, Earl Bullock, Esther Flenner, Margaret Echternach, and Marion Johnson, work proceeded at a record-setting pace. The business staff effectively backed up the editorial staff by selling a record number of copies at an early closing date.

Two years ago the idea was conceived whereby all students working three years on either of the Gem staffs would receive as an award a copy of the book at the close of the third and fourth school years. The purpose was to encourage staff members to work more than two years, thus giving future Gems the benefit of their experience. These awards were resumed this year, with all three-year workers and the outstanding sophomore and freshman receiving complimentary books.

THE IDAHO BLUE BUCKET

James Crawford, major in journalism and leader in advanced military, took upon his shoulders the thankless job of editing the Blue Bucket . . . he tried and progressed.

Wayland Tanning . . . to get ads and sell The Bucket was his duty—a tough assignment.

■ ■ ■ Something humorous and original in the Idaho Blue Bucket this year was the aim of the editor, James Crawford. The first issue slightly startled the campus and resulted in considerable comment and a "fat" increase in sales. Outstanding issues of the 1935-1936 series were the Homecoming, "Squirrel," and "Conglomeration" numbers.

Marie Schneider was associate editor for the year. Wayland Tanning annexed the business managership to his long line of managerial positions and cooperated with the editor by putting a Bucket in every student's hands—he even talked the women into reading it. An efficient group of students assisted the editor and manager in their efforts.

Hugh Eldridge, Editor

Ddwain Vincent, Managing Editor

Unbiased and free from prejudice has been the Idaho Argonaut, under Hugh Eldridge, who by virtue of his wide journalistic experience has been able to make noticeable improvement in the paper.

He improved the front page make-up by using a new headline series and a new page heading, giving free use of the columns of the paper to student opinion, although arousing some ire with "editor's notes," and instilled more life with new campus columns.

Eldridge is a member of Blue Key, honor society; Silver Lance, senior honorary; the Press Club, and Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

RAY LINCOLN . . . Assistant Business Manager

With machine-like efficiency the business of the Argonaut has been handled during the past year by Bruce Bowler.

This same efficiency has been shown in the groups to which he belongs, and is no doubt due to his business-like attitude. Under his management increased advertising contracts were received with obvious benefits. He exhibited executive ability in organizing a large staff, allowing more students to work on the paper without sacrificing efficiency.

He is a member of Blue Key, honor society; the Press Club, and Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Ray Lincoln, as assistant business manager, handled the advertising work and served as general understudy to Bowler.

ARGONAUT STAFF and Service Awards

■■■ With the increased enrollment this year, the editors were swarmed under with applications for staff positions. As a result, the work was so divided that one group worked one issuing day while the second group worked the other day.

Editorial staff editorships were held by Phil Hiaring, night editor; Bill Ash, news editor; Barbara Mockler, day editor; Mary K. Riley, copy desk editor; Bill Pauley, sports editor; Ruth Haller, women, and Maxine Berger, society. Earl Bullock and Erma Lewis were assistant copy desk editors, and Avon Wilson, Mary Curtis, Ed Riley, and Dolores Kenworthy served as special writers.

Business staff leaders were Fred Robinson and Dwight Barton, circulation managers; George Davis, advertising; George Sommer, collections, and Everett Holt, secretary.

Argonaut pins as service awards were given at the close of the first semester to all members of the staff who had served for five consecutive semesters on the Argonaut. The purpose of this award is similar to that of the Gem awards, and the pin is the service grant as authorized by the A.S.U.I. executive board and constitution.

THE IDAHO ENGINEER

Elton Leitner was elected editor-in-chief of The Idaho Engineer at the annual engineers' election last year. Like past editors, Elton endeavored to make The Engineer of greater interest to the readers, the engineers.

Douglas Guy . . . As business manager, his problem was to make income equal expenditures—profit is an impossibility.

■ ■ ■ The Idaho Engineer allows subdued literary talent, a rarity in the College of Engineering, to reach print in the form of technical and scientific articles. Elton Leitner was chosen to edit the magazine and Douglas Guy fell heir to the managerial duties.

Associate editors were Joe Pimentel, William Arms, Milam Bottinelli, William Pauley, Frank Sawyer, and Grace Fenton.

Robert Strachan, assistant business manager; Albert Torelle, circulation manager; and assistants Paul Morken, George Davis, James Yoder, Linton Lang, Charles Harris, and Bruce Williams helped in managing.

FRESHMAN HANDBOOK

Hazel Gentry, honor student and super-activity woman, edited the Idaho Handbook for 1935-36. Limited by budgets and ideas, both almost traditions, she published a "Frosh Bible" which, though not radically different or even unusual, served its purpose well. Cromie Wilson was assistant editor.

■■■ The handbook is published and presented at the beginning of each fall semester to the incoming freshmen by the Associated Students. This has proved a great aid to the new students by acting as their guide. The handbook contains valuable information on the student government and campus affairs, activities and athletics, the constitution of the University of Idaho and the by-laws, as well as the traditions, songs, and yells of the school. It also contains the campus rulings of the A.S.U.I. This publication for the year of 1935-1936 was edited by Hazel Gentry with both Doris McDermott and Cromie Wilson acting as associate editors. A staff was chosen to assist the editor.

THE IDAHO MINER

Douglas Smith, junior in the School of Mines, edited the miner's publication this year. The magazine was of interest to mining students and graduates primarily. Ernest Oberbillig was business manager.

Each school seems to feel it necessary to print a magazine, and the miners are no exception. The Idaho Miner is the newest addition to campus publication, being run off the press for the first time in 1932, and at irregular intervals since.

Douglas Smith burned the midnight oil, not a carbide lamp, as editor of The Miner. Ernest Oberbillig and Richard Courtney acted as managers.

Claude Nugent, Bob Anderson, and Alfred Nugent served in upper bracket editorial positions, while Dick Fudge, Robert Vervaeke, Felix Hardison, and Edgar McAlister aided the editorial staff. Business assistants were Donald Metke, Sam Barton, Allan Poole, and John Jones.

DEBATORS

VARSITY

■■■ The forensics program for this year has been marked by several new trends in policy. A successful attempt has been made to give more students an opportunity to participate, the program has been balanced between campus debates, tournaments, and luncheon group tours, and the scope of activities has been extended by including oratorical and extemporaneous speaking contests in the campus schedule.

Senator James P. Pope this year sponsored an oratorical contest on the campus, and donated fifty dollars for prizes. It has been many years since oratory has been engaged in on this campus, and all thanks are due Senator Pope in aiding its revival.

The first activity of the year was a tour of luncheon groups in northern Idaho, taken by Lewis Orland and Robert McFadden. The team had seven engagements in five cities.

In December the varsity debate squad entered the annual triangular tournament held in Pullman. Those entering were Lewis Orland, William Lee, Homer Williams, Russel Fryer, Clifford Dobler, Arthur Johnson, Robert McFadden, Louis Racine, Loyd Barronett, Ralph Turnidge, Robert Mason, and Ralph Baker. Orland and Lee won two debates, and Barronett and Turnidge won one.

On January 29 Orland and Lee debated a team from the College of St. Thomas, of St. Paul, Minnesota.

This year, for the first time, the University was represented at the Linfield College tournament in McMinnville, Oregon, February 18 to 21. Eighty-six teams from coast schools were entered. Orland and Lee won four out of six debates, and Barronett and Turnidge won three out of six. Turnidge was also in the finals in extemporaneous speaking.

Early in April, Orland and Lee went to the Pacific Forensic League Tournament in Los Angeles. The tournament, one of the largest and most important in the West, included contests in oratory, debate, and extemporaneous and after-dinner speaking.

Idaho was represented in the Women's Triangular tournament, held on December 7, by Lorraine Hulett, Virginia Peters, Josephine Mitchell, and Gwendolyn Harrigan. The tournament was held in Walla Walla. Women from Washington State College, Whitman, and Idaho participated. The Idaho women were in a total of eight debates.

Sixteen teams were entered in the Inland Empire Junior College tournament held at Gonzaga University in January. Those participating were Louis Racine, Ralph Baker, Robert Stephen, Milo Sawyer, Robert Mason, Clifford Dobler, Leonard Arrington, Melvin Butterfield, John Young, and Joe Carr. Idaho won a total of seven out of twelve debates.

INTRAMURAL DEBATE

■ ■ ■ In the women's division of extemporaneous speaking, Jean Perkins, Kappa Kappa Gamma, won first place, while Helen Clough of Kappa Alpha Theta and Sarah Mitchell of Alpha Phi tied for second place. There were eight entrants.

Women's intramural debate was won by Kappa Alpha Theta, represented by Margaret Rosebaugh and Helen Clough. In the finals they opposed Kappa Kappa Gamma, represented by Jean Perkins and Helen Sullivan. The question debated was: "Resolved, That the ASUI Should Maintain a Student Book Store." Last year Kappa Kappa Gamma won the new cup presented by Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary.

An addition was made to intramural forensics this year in the form of extemporaneous speaking, and the response to the new activity was excellent. Delta Sigma Rho, national forensic fraternity, donated the cups, and the contests for the two divisions were held simultaneously on February 26.

Winner in the men's division was Charles Collins, Phi Gamma Delta, with Nels Stromberg, Kappa Sigma, in second place. There were seven entrants.

In men's intramural debate, Sigma Chi, represented by Jack McKinney and John Barker, scored over Kappa Sigma by a two to one vote. Kappa Sigma was represented by Eugene Bowman and Woodrow Pierce.

JUDGING TEAMS

■■■ A valuable part of the practical training given the advanced students of the various fields of agriculture is their participation in, and particularly their preparation for, the judging contests at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland. The best have been selected and have represented Idaho well, winning many trophies in the past, while competing with picked teams from Montana, Washington State, Oregon State, and Utah State. Idaho and "winners" in judging competition have become practically synonymous. The teams were coached this year by C. W. Hickman, D. L. Fourt, D. R. Theophilus, and H. W. Hulbert. Rodney Hansen was their manager.

■ ■ ■ Boyd Baxter, DeVere Tovey, Don Peterson, Frank Burstedt, Harold Ball, and Joe Acuff were selected from the advanced students in Animal Husbandry to judge the stock in this class. They placed fourth, the same as last year. The other teams competing were Washington State, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Oregon State. The team was coached by C. W. Hickman.

The dairy husbandry team was composed of Glenn Beck, Arnold Poulsen, Vaughn Hintze, and Don Mortimer. Out of 4800 points, this team placed only three-tenths of a point below Oregon State, the winners. The teams competing were Oregon State, Idaho, Washington State, Montana, and British Columbia. This team was coached by D. L. Fourt.

THE STAGE

Fred C. Blanchard

Theodore Prichard

■ ■ ■ Fred C. Blanchard, director of dramatics, is a tireless worker for the advancement of the theater on the campus. The widespread interest in dramatics at Idaho may be directly attributed to his efforts and ability. Mr. Blanchard's working day is not the prosaic eight to four o'clock affair; rather he works every night during rehearsals of a show—overseeing stage sets, adapting his ambitions to obsolete equipment, and polishing up amateur acting.

Technical director for dramatic productions—that's Theodore Prichard. Kept plenty busy with his duties as head of the department of art and architecture, "Ted" assumes the duties of designing long-remembered stage settings as an expression of his interest in dramatics. Not an "arty" person, he is equally effective with hammer or brush.

Dorothy Dole as Elizabeth

LILIES OF THE FIELD

The Meeting—'Tis a break for Elizabeth
The Ending—Catherine also gets her man

■ ■ ■ Lilies of the Field was an amusing drama concerning two sisters, Elizabeth (Dorothy Dole) and Catherine (Helen Wilson) in search of a husband. They made a pact stating all is fair in the contest as long as one does not copy the other's method. How they played the game of love in a London setting at their grandmother's home, furnished an amusing comedy with plenty of witty remarks and tight situations. Burnell Baker and Ethelyn O'Neal were convincing as the puzzled parents of the two girls, while Dorothy Pierce as the grandmother captured her share of the attention by her witty remarks. The play ended with Aldrich Bowler and Barnaby Haddon succumbing to the charms of the scheming females.

"THE DRUNKARD"

So—you want to pick a fight, eh?

And they lived happily—

Ah, ha, m' proud beauty!

■■■ On November 1 and 2, The Drunkard staggered on the stage to sweep the students off their feet with its "meller-drammer" effects. The hero had gusto, the villain had a black moustache, and the audience had tomatoes and cabbages. Never did a crowd of University students express its overwrought sympathy by such violent actions. Countless vegetables sailed through the air every time the long whiskers of the villain were seen curling around the edge of the wings. After stumbling through five hectic acts spiced with thrills and heart-rending scenes, the play ended happily with a touching scene, with the company singing "Home Sweet Home" to celebrate the hero's redemption.

"TEN MINUTE ALIBI"

The Star of the show—Dorothy Dole—Hello, Hello—There seems to be something wrong here—at least a murder!—Detectives Tracy and Brasch decide the "Ten Minute Alibi" is on the level.

■ ■ ■ A fascinating mystery hinging around a clock and how a change in time of ten minutes gave the murderer a water-tight alibi and his freedom—that's "Ten Minute Alibi," which kept the audience tense and interested until the final role of the curtain.

Dorothy Dole, in the only feminine role, seemed to fill each and every situation in just the right manner. As the victim of the scheming of Phillip Sevilla, Glen Starlin, she turned in an excellent performance. Grant Ambrose as Colin Derwent, the true lover who murders Sevilla to save his lady, did a fine bit of acting in what was the most difficult part. Sir Miles Standing, who just did his best to help out everyone, was acted by Eugene Ryan. George Oram, Don Tracy, and Ted Brasch completed the cast.

"LILLIOM"

The Prologue—Lilliom surrounded by carnival

Alline King as Julie, his loyal wife

Andy James as the Hungarian "tough," "Lilliom"

■ ■ ■ Franz Molnar's "Lilliom" was one of the most ambitious productions ever attempted by the university dramatics department. It is very rarely that amateurs aspire to portrayal of the classics, and "Lilliom" is truly in the category. "Lilliom" is the poignant story of an Hungarian "tough," played by Andy James as his best role, whose rough exterior could never permit his aesthetic soul to express itself. The finest thing in his life was his love for his loyal wife, Julie, played by Alline King. Only after Lilliom dies does Julie forget her shame enough to tell him that she cares for him. Aldrich Bowler did the finest character part of his college drama career as Ficsur, the degenerate figure from folk demonstrates his "barking" ability

the underworld of Budapest whose "get rich quick" scheme sends Lilliom to suicidal death.

"Lilliom" is a legend in seven scenes and a prologue. It is the story of a bully and wife-beater whose life comes to a tragic end because of inability to conquer the forces of love, imagination, and temptation at work in his defiant personality.

SCHOLASTIC

■ ■ ■ Group scholarship awards were of a repeat nature this year, with both Kappa Alpha Theta and the L.D.S. Institute repeating their previous habit of topping all other groups in scholastic rating. These two groups have permanent possession of these awards: the Mary McClintock Upham women's award and the Burton L. French men's trophy, and again have a first hold on the new awards offered by the same donors this year.

■ To Shull Arms, student of physics, goes the highest honor this year—a Rhodes scholarship. In competition with ten other applicants from the Northwest, Shull was awarded this signal honor at the examinations held in Spokane in December.

■ The Alpha Kappa Psi medallion was awarded to Maurice Malin this year. The business fraternity makes this award to the senior man in the School of Business Administration who has achieved the highest scholastic average during his sophomore and junior years.

■ The Phi Chi Theta key, awarded each year to the woman in the School of Business who had the highest scholastic average for her junior year, was won by Hazel Gentry. To her many other achievements Hazel has added a 6.00 average and the Phi Chi Theta key.

■ John M. Rosa received the medal awarded by Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity. This medal is awarded each fall to the man who the year before made the highest grades among freshmen in the College of Engineering and School of Mines.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

■ ■ ■ The Music Department has undergone a great many changes in the past year. They are fortunate enough to have obtained Mr. Archie Jones, University of Nebraska and University of Minnesota, as head of the department. Mr. Jones is director of the Vandaleers and the A Cappella Choir. Other new members of the staff are Mr. Hall Macklin, University of Illinois, and Miss Velma Gildemeister, Chicago Musical University, piano instructor; Mr. Donald McGill, Oberlin College, voice instructor and director of the chorus. Mr. Robert Lyons came to the University last year as director of the Military Band. Mr. Carl Claus, Miss Bernice Bernard, and Miss Marian Little are the other members of the staff.

UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY

• • • The University Symphony Orchestra, an accomplished organization of sixty well-trained musicians under the able leadership of Professor Carl Claus, has done much to add to the prestige of the music department. Professor Claus came to Idaho fourteen years ago and in that time has done admirable work in building this noted group to its present high standard. He spent the summer of 1932 studying advanced conducting and musical literature in Salsburg, one of the greatest music centers of Germany.

Special training for violins and violas with him, for the 'cellos and basses with Miss Miriam Little, and for the wind instruments with Mr. Robert Lyon, members of the music department faculty who can also play with this group, has done a great deal in making it of highest quality and standards. The symphony presents two formal concerts during the year, one each semester. They also appear on the Commencement program at the end of each year. The music lovers of the University and Moscow are afforded a great deal of pleasure by these concerts.

THE VANDALEERS

■ ■ ■ The Vandaleers, a mixed chorus selected from the outstanding voices on the campus, have made much progress under the direction of Mr. Archie Jones. The Vandaleers are selected from the Idaho students who have talent, good scholastic averages, and strong characters. They have made a place for themselves on the Idaho campus and have received many compliments on their excellent programs.

In April the group traveled to south Idaho, where concerts were given in the various towns, including Weiser, Burley, Rexburg, and others. Various trips to Spokane included programs presented to the Spokane Chamber of Commerce and programs over the radio broadcasting stations.

Officers are: Dorothy Brown, president; Fay Pettijohn, secretary, and James Wright, manager. Members are Gertrude Gehrke, LuDeen Waldram, Agda Walden, Helen Clough, Louise Tomlinson, Maxine Berger, Margaret Quist, Lorna Jane Cornell, Jessie Keeney, Geraldine Burris, Bill Boyd, Dwight Barton, Wayne Hampton, Donald Klingler, Bob Bollinger, Al Torelle, Paul Rust, James Burkhard, Bill Jorgensen, Larry Robinson; accompanist, Delsa Crowley.

THE UNIVERSITY BAND

■ ■ ■ Not just the old military band in a lot of snappy new uniforms, but an altogether new organization, is the University of Idaho Band. This band under the direction of Robert B. Lyon has become one of the most proficient and talented musical groups on the campus. The new uniforms in Annapolis style plus the vastly improved musical ability of the group is responsible for the greater popularity of this group.

Playing everything from a bit of the modern to symphonic classics or a martial tune, the band participated in a variety of activities during the year. The first appearance was at Homecoming, when the band paraded at the annual football classic and was a pleasant surprise to the boosters for a large university band. The band also gave two concerts during the year, presenting a varied program with old classics and new to suit the tastes of every music lover. The band also made a trip to Lewiston, where they played at the Lewiston Normal auditorium. Last but not least, the group provided military rhythm for the R.O.T.C. drills and inspection—and did they get the beat!

The group is organized with officers and a board of directors, who handle all business affairs.

IDAHO PEP BAND

■ ■ ■ Almost as vital to the athletic contests in which the Vandals participate as the players themselves is the Idaho Pep Band. As a tempo to which the fighting spirit of the Vandals and their supporters is keyed, this organization has won for itself the position of the outstanding college band in the Northwest. This year marked the fifteenth milestone in the successful career of this organization, the founding year being 1921. It is the official musical representative of the ASUI and the "Idaho fights" spirit.

Robert Seymour, Leader

Under the leadership of Robert Seymour, the band improved noticeably, although a great portion of the personnel were new members. The annual Pep Band Show was new and different and showed great originality in its musical interpretation of a year at college.

The members were selected through competitive try-outs which assured procuring the best voices available. The members of this group are:

Sopranos, Ethel Gehrke, Lorna Jane Cornell, Gertrude Gehrke, Vola-Claire Espe, Georgia Christensen, Thelma Mott, Helen Abbott, Helen Clough, Margaret Quist, Eleanora Graham, Mary Moore, Sara Mitchell, Marian Dwight, Margaret Brown, Ann La Rue, Jeanne Perkins, June Viel, Myrle Hawk, Catherine Cleveland; altos, Mary Smith, Betty Bandelin, Margaret Minty, Nina Mae Jewell, Elvina Tullett, Zelma McCarroll, Jean Baer, Ida May Gillenwater, Katherine Cady, Geraldine Wagner, Dorothy Brown, Gladys McCauley, Irene Wallis; tenors, Rex Tolman, Bill Boyd, Brandt Gessel, Wilson Bundy, Dick Maxwell, Eugene Ryan, Bob Bollinger, Kent Matney; basses, Archie C. THE WAR GAMES

Brigadier General
E. R. Chrisman

First drill in the spring.

COMMANDANT OF CADETS

■■■ One of the most respected and loved persons on the Idaho campus is Brigadier General Edward R. Chrisman. In tribute to his untiring efforts in service to the University, a group of alumni presented a large protrait of the General to the school. On the campus the high regard in which he is held is attested by the fact that he has been made an honorary member of Blue Key. He has served on the Discipline Committee, and it is largely through his efforts that the Scabbard and Blade chapter was installed at Idaho.

General Chrisman has spent practically his entire life closely connected with the University. When only six years out of West Point he came to Idaho as a lieutenant. At that time the institution was only five years old. During the Spanish-American War he went into active service in Cuba, but returned to Idaho at the end of the war to resume his duties with the military department. Active duty called once more, this time in South Dakota, Alaska, New Jersey, and the Panama Canal Zone. At the end of the World War he was in command of military forces in Puerto Rico. He returned to Idaho in 1919, and has remained here since.

Under his guidance the military department has reached a point of efficiency comparable with any University Reserve Corps in the West. A constant upward trend is maintained by consistently rating high in the annual inspection.

General Chrisman was permanently retired from the army four years ago after fifty-four years of service, but he maintains his interest in the school. He has seen this institution grow from a mere "mite" to one of over two thousand enrollment; a military department with a few cadet students to a regiment. The school is a part of him, and he is very much a part of the school. He is at present a member of the Academic Council of the University, and a very interested friend of the military department, to which he still lends his prestige and counsel.

—More of the same.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

■ ■ ■ Lieutenant Colonel Rufus S. Bratton is the newly appointed commandant of the military department. He comes from Vancouver Barracks, Washington, where he has been commander of the First Battalion of the Seventh Infantry during the past two years. During his army career he spent six years in Japan, where he was graduated from the Imperial Japanese Staff College and served as an attache to the American embassy.

The instructor in charge of the Junior Military students is Major Sutherland. He was transferred from Fort Missoula, Montana, to replace Major O'Connell. He comes from Mississippi, and is a graduate of Mississippi State College. Idaho is his second R.O.T.C. detail, the other being Oklahoma A. and M. College.

Captain Norman is the new sophomore instructor. In addition he is coach of the rifle team, replacing Major Hale, who has retired. Outside of the military department, his interests run afield in hunting and fishing.

The instruction of all freshman cadets comes under the duties of Captain Hart. He also coaches the women's rifle team. Captain Hart has spent seven years at Idaho, last year receiving his promotion to captain.

The supply room is under the able direction of First Sergeant Lonie Woods. He issues the uniforms and cleans and repairs the rifles. Guns are no work for him, as they are his hobby.

A large amount of clerical work is necessary in carrying on the business of the military department. This is handled by Sergeant F. Barnum. Sergeant Barnum saw action in Cuba in 1924, and holds a captain's commission in the Reserve Corps.

Robert B. Lyon is director of the military band and an assistant professor of music. He has developed an excellent band, which ranked very high at inspection, and also is highly praised as a concert organization.

NATIONAL CHA

■ ■ ■ Winning both national outdoor and indoor intercollegiate rifle championships in the same year, is a feat no team other than the University Rifle team, coached by Captain William A. Hale, has been able to do. As a result of this superior marksmanship the Idaho R.O.T.C. rifle team received the trophy presented in May for winning the national intercollegiate indoor match, firing against the five highest ranking teams in each of the nine army corps areas in the United States.

The Doughboy of the West trophy was won by the same team two years ago at the Fort George Wright R.O.T.C. camp. This trophy is presented annually by the Ninth Corps headquarters to the highest ranking team in the West. Idaho's winning score turned out to be the highest score in the United States last year, among several hundred units represented at summer training camps.

Members of the team who fired in the national indoor match in order of standing were: John Crowe, Robert Moser, Lewis Ensign, Ralph Morgan, Robert Ames, Merle Bowler, Donald Ridings, Donald Burnett, Harold Kaeser, and Mack McFarland.

To these men the University of Idaho owes its first national championship. Other schools claim them in football and other sports. For the recognition brought to the University by their performance, The Gem of The Mountains has dedicated these two pages to last year's University R.O.T.C. rifle team—true national champions.

Major Hale, coach of the national Champions

■ ■ ■ For five years Major W. A. Hale has been military instructor and rifle team coach at the University of Idaho. In this time under his able coaching, the excellence of their marksmanship has developed to such a point that the university rifle team won the National Intercollegiate R.O.T.C. rifle championship last year.

This past year, Major Hale was retired from active duty. He is now established as a business man in Moscow, and is an active Kiwanian. He has as his hobby the raising of prize-winning setters.

CADET OFFICERS

■ ■ ■ Cadet officers for the second semester were chosen soon after the arrival of Lieutenant Colonel Rufus Bratton, who assumed command of the Idaho R.O.T.C. unit.

George Rich, a member of Scabbard and Blade and known by all as a star of the gridiron, was named Cadet Colonel.

Theron Ward, student body president, Scabbard and Blade, and fleet halfback, was appointed Lieutenant Colonel.

William O'Neill was reappointed regimental adjutant, being the only field officer to hold the same position for two semesters.

Ross Sundberg, as a junior standout in advanced military, became regimental sergeant major, the highest junior appointment.

Richard Axtell, Russell Honsowetz, and Alfred Giese drew the remaining field appointments, receiving the commanding battalion positions of major.

DANCES

SENIOR BALL

■■■ The annual Senior Ball was held December 7 at the Blue Bucket, with the Blue Bucket orchestra furnishing the music. Wallace Geraghty was general chairman of the Ball. The theme of the dance was "the cocktail hour," with the leading night clubs of New York being represented in a skyline which covered the walls. President and Mrs. Neale were guests of honor, as were the members of the Board of Regents.

■■■ The women pay, just for a day, at the Spinsters' Skip. This annual dance was held on Washington's birthday, and for this one event the women dug down and paid all expenses. The Skip is sponsored each year by Mortar Board, and is one of the few traditional dances left on the campus. Wilma Mitchell was chairman of the affair, which featured Washington's hatchets in programs and motive. The Skip was held at the Blue Bucket Inn.

"It was crowded"—and this group liked the lounge at the Inter-Fraternity Formal.

INTER-FRATERNITY

■■■ The Interfraternity Council doesn't have a whole lot to do during the year, but when they throw a dance they do a fine job. The Interfraternity Council Formal was one of the high spots of the social year. The event was held at the Kappa Sigma house March 7, music by A. C. Whittaker's orchestra. Programs were of metal and contained the names of all the council members. The various fraternity crests served as the theme for the decorations.

■■■ "Step right up and buy a hot dog," shouted Harvie Walker at the annual "I" Club Carnival held in the Memorial Gymnasium March 28. And it was a real carnival with all the noise, lemonade, concessions and contests. A feature of the "I" Club Carnival was the crowning of the "I" Queen who had been chosen by the members, but whose identity had remained a secret until the dance. Alline King was crowned "I" Queen.

Did you enjoy your "hot dog"?

THE JUNIOR PROM

■ ■ ■ The Junior Prom, the most outstanding social event of the Junior Week, was held Friday evening, March 20, at the Blue Bucket. The hall was decorated in true Irish style, with a false ceiling constructed in which cut-out shamrocks let the indirect lighting shine through. The walls were covered with silhouettes of Irish figures. The Blue Bucket orchestra, clad in white suits with green lapels, furnished the music. Programs were of gold metal with a green cut-out shamrock. Robert Krummes was general chairman of the Prom, and under his direction the affair was a huge success.

THE JUNIOR CABARET

■■■ With the Irish still holding sway, the Junior Cabaret was held Saturday, March 21, in the Blue Bucket. Both the upstairs and the downstairs were crowded for the gala occasion. Charles Collins and his orchestra played down stairs, while Paul Ennis and his band furnished rhythm for the crowd upstairs. The decorations carried out the general Irish theme of the week. Paper hats and noisemakers and balloons added to the real cabaret atmosphere, and everyone had a hilarious time. Jack Dyer was chairman of the affair and put in lots of work to make it a success.

■■■ Kappa Phi is a club composed of university women who are members of the Methodist Church or who prefer that church. The organization was founded in 1916 at the University of Kansas. Tau, the local chapter, was installed in 1928. The aim of Kappa Phi is "Every Methodist woman in the University today a leader in the Church tomorrow."

■■■ Wesley Foundation is an organization of both men and women in the University of Idaho who have expressed their preference for the Methodist Church by doing active work for the church. These students are provided with both religious and social life. The activities of Wesley Foundation include dramatics, music, Bible study, and devotion. Dr. J. E. Purdy, Moscow church pastor, is the sponsor of the club.

■ ■ ■ The Idaho Clan, a local organization started this year, was originally called the Second Generation Club. It is composed of students whose parents or grandparents attended the University of Idaho. The main objective of the club is to act as a connecting link between the students and old alumni, promoting contacts, reviving old friendships, and bringing back to the campus old traditions loved by students of the past.

*An Institution as Old as the

When DAVIDS' STORE was founded, there was written into its policies an inflexible rule concerning the reliability of merchandise. It is not too much to say that our present growth is due entirely to the policy of never selling anything—however small—that we can not fully guarantee. And the most impressive phase of the success that has come to us lies not in its magnitude but in the ever-growing satisfaction, so freely voiced by thousands of our customers, in the reliability of their purchases.

■ ■ ■ Progressive development of our state is the objective of Idaho's educational and business institutions. Boise as the Capitol City, and the University of Idaho as the leading educational institution, are vital factors in this progress. Loyal cooperation between Boise and the University will bring honor and advantage to each and progress to our state; may the opportunity for service to our state be the guiding motive in our undertakings.

IN APPRECIATION

• • • This, the last copy written for the 1936 Gem, is written as the "Yearbook of the Vandals" rapidly assumes its final form in the shop of Syms-York Company in Boise.

It is with joy and regret that we see our job nearing completion. It has been a long year's work, the building of this book, yet during this period much has been pleasure mixed with the work.

To our many helpers the editor and the manager owe a great deal—without their help, advice, and cooperation, much that had been conceived would never have been achieved. These have made it possible for us to finish what we hope will be rated an outstanding yearbook—both from a University and a national standpoint.

To Fred Robinson, assistant editor; Jack McKinney, Administration; Earl Bullock, Sports; Esther Flenner, Vandal Misses; Margaret Echternach, Activities; and Marion Johnson, Organizations, the editor extends his sincere thanks for the manner in which each handled his individual Books, which, when assembled, are the Gem of the Mountains.

Three freshmen deserve special note for the interest and high quality of the work which they displayed. They are Ellyn Bradshaw, James Yoder, and Lloyd Evans. The last two spent long hours in the office with the editor, and the first would have if possible.

Ralph W. York and the personnel of the Syms-York Company, of Boise, receive the editor's and manager's sincere thanks. Without Ralph's aid, assistance, and never-tiring efforts such an undertaking as the 1936 Gem would have fallen short of its goal. The friendship of this firm has become one of our most cherished assets.

Walt M. Irvine and the Western Engraving and Colortype Co., Seattle, have struggled with us from the beginning and have stuck to the finish. Many of the ideas, innovations and features are Walt's, and their execution the result of Western's efficient staff. We hold in high esteem the friendships made at Western.

Photographs—night or day—call Charlie Dimond and he's there to see The Gem on hand at every event. Cooperation plus from Charlie—many thanks from the editor.

Seventeen hundred photos handled efficiently and in record time by Hutchinson's Studio and Sterner's Studio. The editor's appreciation can not be expressed in words.

To Ruth Evans and her Tri-Delt staff who supervised the mounting of these pictures—a bouquet.

For settling, free from politics, our Quest for Beauty, thanks to George Petty, for his trouble and interest.

The business manager and his staff appreciate the support of Gem Advertisers and the Boise Chamber of Commerce for their interest in the University of Idaho.

To Richard Paris, Walter Dinnison, and Carl Burt, the business manager extends his thanks for the work done in the sales campaign which resulted in a record sales total.

George Sommers, advertising manager, gave The Gem for '36 a financial boost by securing more advertising than the past few issues have carried.

Earl Bopp executed the difficult job of organizations collections well. Marjorie Glenn handled all business staff secretarial work efficiently and promptly.

To all members of both staffs, technical helpers, and the student body at large for its support, the Gem of the Mountains says: "Many thanks."

MAURICE E. MALIN,
Editor.

Business Manager.
