ENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO AT MOSCOW

FOREWORD

Each succeeding year, each succeeding day, hour, minute, second sees a changing Idaho. Now in the fifty-second year, we see the passage of time engraved in the stone steps of the Administration building; Science Hall walls are a deeper hue; shadowy maples lining the campus walks throw their arms out farther . . . Idaho is experiencing the added dignity of age.

An ominous and threatening cloud has collected on the horizons of tomorrow. A favorite professor must give his talents to the army "for the duration"; a friend weighs the adventures of the Air Corps against the peace and solemnity of the class room . . . the Air Corps wins. Soberly we think of our destiny . . . our clouded paths . . . where will they lead? Only through personal deprivations do world calamities pierce our academic insulation. Maybe it is well that they do; it makes life real.

"The happiest days of your life." Go through your yearbook ten years hence and try to recall any four years so packed with joy, sorrow, conflict, and mental stimulation. New friends, old friends; new scenes, old scenes; new memories, old memories; recall them in this, the 1941 Gem of the Mountains.

Scenes from the University of Idaho campus . . . "one of the most beautiful in the United States."

DEDICATION

The 1941 Gem of the Mountains is dedicated to the memory of the late William Edgar Borah who devoted his life to the cause of peace, and to untiring effort on behalf of the people of his Idaho. Fighting for years in the Senate Chamber of the United States, the "Lion of Idaho" never lost sight of his dream for a world that could enjoy the benefits of an everlasting peace. The sun has set on the life of the Great Statesman, but the afterglow of his memory still burns bright in the dark and troubled skies . . . a light that symbolizes a great idealism.

"FORCE as a factor in international controversies has been tried out for three thousand years, and at this very hour it has brought the world nearer to a state of economic chaos and financial breakdown . . . I take the position that there is not an international controversy but may be peacefully adjusted if the will to settle it peacefully is at hand . . . I have never been able to bring myself to believe that it would be in the interest of peace to involve this country in the political affairs of Europe and if ever I should reach that conclusion, still I would not purchase peace at that price. There are some things in this world more desirable to me than peace, and one of them is the unembarrassed, unhampered, and untrammelled political independence of this republic."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The editors and contributors to this volume and those whose names are recorded here belong to a privileged generation of young Americans.

To them it is given to stand with their nation's greatest . . . with Lincoln, with Wilson, with Borah in defense of their own America.

A privilege indeed:

"To live in these great times and have your part
In Freedom's crowning hour;
That you may tell your sons who see the light
High in the heavens—their heritage to take—
'I saw the powers of Darkness put to flight,
I saw the Morning break'."

OUR GOVERNOR

CHASE A. CLARK

Millions of people throughout the world today would give everything but life itself for the privilege of coming to America. They are tired of war. They are tired of old-world methods of doing things. They have heard of this land of opportunity, this land of peace and justice.

The advantages of being an American citizen are so common to us that we must frequently stir ourselves to the realization that it is only in this part of the world that the privileges we enjoy are available. Even in this restless era it is hard for us to appreciate our good fortune in America.

May it not be necessary for us to be plunged into war to arouse our appreciation of being Americans. May each year bring to us greater devotion to our flag and to the republic for which it stands. May we all contribute our share in making our government a successful, working democracy, which will continue for centuries to come to give hope to the oppressed peoples of the world.

CHASE A. CLARK, Governor.

UNIVERSITY

For over thirty years, Dean Iddings has reconciled the practical and book-learning for Idaho aggies. He began as animal husbandry instructor in 1910, became dean in 1918. He is a cosmopolite, has studied ag conditions in sixteen European countries.

One of the oldest campus schools, the College of Agriculture was established in 1892. Its extension program was inaugurated in 1914. Popular short courses now offered include dairying, poultry, and a tractor course.

Faculty big names include Prof. C. W. Hungerford, of the experiment stations; Prof. H. E. Lattig, assistant dean; J. W. Barber, county agent leader; and Marion Hepworth, home demonstration leader.

Long with the college has been Prof. C. W. Hickman, animal husbandry head. Nationally known, Prof. Hickman judges stock at some of the largest fairs in the west.

Dean T. S. Kerr of the College of Letters and Sciences specializes in business law and directs the University's largest division of instruction. His two books on business law are used in leading colleges. Graduate of the University of Indiana and the Michigan law school, he was president of the American Business Law Association in 1939.

Letters and Sciences professors are agile with their pens . . . witness a partial list of their most recent work: C. J. Brosnan on American history; C. W. Chenoweth on philosophy and democracy; C. W. Hammar, treatises on friction in physics papers; R. F. Daubenmire and N. J. Gillette, botany; Henry Wilson and Kenneth Hoag, freshman English; Dr. Dorothy Atkinson, modern language articles; and Geoffery G. Coope and John Beckwith, English biographies.

Dean J. E. Buchanan first leveled his transit for a California contractor, then worked in a Washington mine before his Idaho student days. He was graduated in C.E. in 1927, with grades that made the registrar blink. After irrigation surveys, research engineering, and other experiences, he returned to Idaho as dean in 1938.

The College of Engineering was created in 1907; courses were juggled until the present organization was reached in 1928. Present enrollment is 300. To date a total of 582 bachelor's degrees have been awarded, 30 master's degrees and 11 professional degrees.

Department heads include Prof. Henry F. Gauss, mechanical engineering head and ground instructor for CPT training; Prof. Hobart Beresford, ag engineering head; Prof. L. C. Cady, chemical engineering; and Prof. Hugo Johnson, electrical engineering head. Both he and Prof. Gauss have seen many articles in print.

DEANS

Civil and criminal cases are more than textbook references to Dean Pendleton Howard, who served for eight years as Assistant District Attorney, New York City.

He came here in 1929, has been Dean since '34. Dean Howard took law degrees at Columbia, acted as political science and law lecturer there. He is a member of the American Bar Association, Idaho Bar, and Idaho's Commission on Uniform State Laws.

Established in 1909, the College of Law was admitted to the Association of American Law Schools in 1914. In 1925 it was placed on the approved list of schools by the American Bar Association. It gives scientific legal education to intellectually mature students.

Department members are Edward M. Shealy—he replaces Prof. A. L. Harding, called by the army—Prof. Bert E. Hopkins, and Prof. Elmer M. Million. Shealy holds degrees in engineering and law, practiced in Wisconsin before coming here. Prof. Hopkins took degrees at Wisconsin, Yale, and Columbia. Prof. Million has his LL.B. from Oklahoma, and J.S.D. from Yale.

Dean A. W. Fahrenwald of the School of Mines is justly proud of his instructors. "Right now we have the best staff in the history of our school," he opines. "We published last year more research than any other school in the West."

Created in 1917, the School of Mines finds it hard to supply enough graduates to meet calls of leading firms. Special attention is now being given to research in alloys used in national defense.

Instructors: Prof. Joseph Newton, metallurgist, has authored an outstanding text in "Introduction to Metallurgy." Prof. W. W. Staley's "Introduction to Mine Surveying" is widely accepted. His pamphlets on placer mining are best sellers.

Dr. J. D. Forrester, geologist, acquired extensive experience with Anaconda Copper before coming here. Prof. Vernon E. Scheid serves the U. S. geological survey during summers and is an outstanding instructor nine months of the year.

Dr. John A. Wilson, youngest member of the staff, deals with the "oldest" subject—paleontology.

Tall, dignified Dean Dwight Jeffers directs the Bunyan boys who congregate here from many states. He came here in 1935 from the University of Washington to be dean. He took his doctor's degree from Yale.

Forestry became an independent school in 1917. Idaho ranks among top-notch accredited schools in forestry, and around 50 per cent of forestry's enrollment comes from out of the State.

UNIVERSITY

Faculty: Dr. John Ehrlich, graduate of Cornell, present Forest Pathology head, who coxswained Cornell crews while an undergraduate, took his doctor's degree at Harvard. He spent fourteen months at the Tue Gardens, London.

Dr. Vernon Young and Dr. Henry White are both in professorial infancy, having been here only several years. A graduate of Utah Agricultural College, Dr. Young got his Ph.D. at Minnesota. Dr. White took his doctor's degree from McGill University at Montreal.

Frosh English instructors grade innumerable reviews each year of Dean J. F. Messenger's book, "The Art of Going to College." He finds time to chat freely with his aspiring pedagogues and advises those who are not teaching. He thinks the growth of graduate work "very significant." The dean studied at Kansas, received subsequent degrees at Harvard and Columbia.

Education was established as a school in 1920 and has since grown steadily. Over twenty-eight states sent graduates to the last summer session for work in the School of Education.

Head of the placement bureau is Prof. Bernice McCoy, once a war-time social service worker. Other faculty heads include Prof. Ralph D. Russell, Prof. Wayne Smith, Prof. J. W. Barton, and Allan C. Lemon.

Dean Ralph H. Farmer of the School of Business Administration may not have a lot of money, but he knows his subject. Banking is his pet, and he has served several summers on the faculty of the University of Washington's school for bank officers. Economics was his major at Oberlin.

Business School faculty members have turned publisher. Their "Idaho Economic Bulletin," monthly paper containing Idaho business statistics, also carries each month an article by one of the faculty.

Dr. Erwin Graue, a graduate and Cornell Ph.D. Experience: With leading eastern co-ops and a railroad before going into teaching. His papers in economic journals are widely read.

W. J. Wilde, accounting professor, is a member of the Idaho board of CPA examiners. Utah and California are his schools.

Dr. W. E. Folz, an Illinois Ph.D., worked on statistics for the Rural Resettlement Administration before coming to Moscow.

William Moore, labor authority writes and advises concerning national and local labor organizations.

Versatile Dean C. W. Hungerford directs thirty-five departments in the graduate school; in spare moments he acts as "red cross man" for Idaho farmers' plant ills.

DEANS

Coming here in 1919, as a Wisconsin Ph.D., he served on a committee of research and graduate study until named first dean of the graduate school in 1931. He organized the plant pathology department.

Largest enrollment in the graduate school was 463, in the summer of 1939. For the past two summers more than one-half the total enrollment has been in the graduate school. Founded in 1925, it had no dean until 1931.

The dean is aided by a faculty council of six: Dean J. F. Messenger, School of Education; Dean A. W. Fahrenwald, School of Mines; Prof. L. C. Cady, Chemistry; Dr. John Ehrlich, Forestry; Dr. Erwin Graue, Economics; and Ella Olesen, Registrar.

Dean J. G. Eldridge celebrates this year his fortieth anniversary of teaching on the Idaho campus. He is truly the "Dean" of all Idaho; his warm personality has been known the University over for the entire 40 years. Clear of eye and sprightly as ever, he is good for many more years before having "Emeritus" tacked to his title.

Dean of the University faculty, head of the modern languages department, he delights in varying the academic diet he feeds to his linguists. He reads widely, "more than I should." He loves to cultivate flowers, go to Yale class reunions, explore further into the Gothic, old French, and high German.

Dean of Women Beatrice Olson likes her job, and takes an intense interest in the problems of Idaho's 800-some women. She firmly believes in the modern concept—a counselor rather than a disciplinarian.

She took degrees at North Dakota and Chicago. Among the membership shingles she owns are those of Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, and National Education Association.

Dean Olson takes an active interest in Alpha Lambda Delta, underclasswomen's scholastic society, and sends personal letters of congratulation to parents of women who make the grade.

Herbert J. Wunderlich, personable, aggressive Dean of Men, is emphasizing the "confidant" function of his job. His steady stream of gentleman callers have many problems, chief of which are finances, quitting school, joining the army, girls . . . of course . . . and jobs.

As head of one big campus employment center he sifts out deserving students for the limited N.Y.A. jobs. Eight more committees get a share of his time, including the University Draft Board chairmanship.

From civic bodies, high schools, and other Idaho groups come requests for commencement addresses and after-dinner speeches. The dean speaks extemporaneously and colorfully.

LESLIE McCARTHY
PRESIDENT ASUI

Anne Little, Secretary

Italo Caccia, Vice President

Leslie McCarthy, shiny-domed law student from Bonners Ferry, calls the signals this year as president of the ASUI. Head man of the Independent party, he is a good politician as well as parliamentarian. His "hatchet man" is Dick Greiner, hall ward-boss. McCarthy gives freely of his time to a non-pay job. He's very happy at the way this year's board has to a man put party politics aside when important issues are debated and based its action on principles, not personalities.

BODY OFFICERS

Democracy speaks once a year in the ASUI elections. The result has been for the past two years an evenly divided executive board—five to four—insuring thorough debate and investigation when the board acts on behalf of the student electors. Every function of the ASUI some time or another is under the scrutiny of the hard working executive board.

GRADUATE MANAGER'S

Graduate Manager Gale Mix, the man who holds the ASUI purse strings, has crusaded successfully to wipe out the organization's deficit. He budgets and oversees the expenditures of thirty departments, which cover every phase of student activity.

Stacked together, the $8.50 ASUI fees paid by every student each semester amounts to almost half of the $100,000 budget for the school year. The balance comes from income realized from the various activities. Athletics never pay their way; publications as a whole fare better. The Gem makes about $1,000 a year.

Football receipts last fall were very disappointing, and drew on "the general fund for unbudgeted expenses" quite heavily. Basketball, figured to realize about half of its expenses, did better than anticipated. Baseball and track are practically "on the house." Paid admissions are few.

Community concerts took $1,250—about 50 cents per year per student. The townspeople pay $5.00. The golf course dips into ASUI funds to the tune of $1,000, as does the Pep Band budget—mostly trips with the football team and a little to finance its annual show. The office staff publishes the budget regularly to show the "stockholders" where their money is going.

Gale L. Mix, Graduate Manager

Perry Culp, Director of Publicity for ASUI

Perry Culp, ASUI publicity man, hands out press releases concerning athletic and other events staged by the Associated Students. He supervises all publications—Argonaut, Gem, Handbook, football programs, drama and concert programs. He is the "leg man" who arranges details for important student body events. Bob Snyder, journalism senior, helps in the publicity.

Maria Raphael Smith and Helen Rowley, graduate and student respectively, put their bosses' thoughts into words. Their only vices . . . drinking cokes at tea time.

The ASUI, like many democracies, preserves the fiction that it is run directly by its undergraduate members. In matters of student government this is correct, but in matters of budget, finance, policy, support of activities, the graduate manager says "yes" or "no."

ASSOCIATED

all freshmen and other new women entering for the first time. Stationed at various places over the campus, they render valuable help to neophytes. Freshman orientation is continued after the first week in school, under the direction of AWS.

A pamphlet, "Coed Code," is published each year. The 1940-41 number, under the editorship of Emma Batt, is typical. It includes rules, activities, honoraries, fashion notes, social hints, and the AWS constitution, in a friendly 40-page booklet.

Sample jewels of wisdom from this freshman wiser-upper: "Loyalty to your class is a good trait, but two years in the same class is overdoing it."

"A pressing date requires well-pressed clothes."

"Definition for a campus leader: 'Natural enthusiasm of a freshman plus high ideals and hard work'."

Associated Women Students, governing body for undergraduate women, is their "law." Campus women make their regulations more palatable by enforcing them through this, the organization that includes every girl registered at the University.

Under the direction of smart, active Ann Maguire, president, AWS councilors assist

WOMEN STUDENTS

Women of the AWS stage a bazaar-type carnival every spring. Leading women's organizations of the campus operate concessions and split the proceeds with the Associated Women, who oversee the whole show. Since its revival last year, the carnival seems destined to be an annual affair again. The AWS share of the winnings goes toward the building of a cabin on Moscow mountain that will be a women's recreation center.

Among activities on the educational side was a three-day vocational conference at which Miss Florence Jackson of Boston, lecturer at Wellesley College, was the guest councilor. Patty Berg visited the campus last fall and played an exhibition golf match, sponsored by AWS.

Women promote an annual Mothers' Day weekend in May. Events include the May Fete, at which honorary pledges are named; Taps and Terps, a dance recital; and a tea given for all mothers.

Idaho AWS heads attend national conventions of similar bodies to exchange opinions and new ideas. This year President Ann Maguire and President-elect Mabel Ayres went to Texas Tech, at Lubbock, Texas, for the gathering.

Sweeping class elections without competition, the independents controlled senior class activities for the second consecutive year. Biggest social event of the year was the Senior Ball held on December 7. Lavish decorations turned the S.U.B. ballroom into the frozen north.

After this gala affair the well-behaved seniors and their officers sit tight until June, when they will emerge from behind their books for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

OFFICERS

The Junior Class, collegians who come to a dignified realization of their new upperclass status, have had one-party government for two years straight.

Dormant for the first semester, they break loose with their class week after spring vacation. Their prom is the opening chapter in the spring formal season. The cabaret assembles more people, more noise, and more cokes and favors in the S.U.B. than it sees all year. As with all the other classes, their week includes a talent assembly which combines the talents of the freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. No, the famous parades are still on the censored list.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore class gains recognition every year by setting aside the week previous to Christmas vacation for their special activities. After a big rally, they produced an assembly patterned after the movie industry—Sophomore Associated Productions—giving a prevue for class members only. The campus was admitted as an afterthought, for 10 cents.

They danced at a mixer afterwards. Festivities were culminated on Holly Day. The traditional dance was converted into a kid dance.

Bob Rosenberry must have done well the first semester as vice-president; he was "voted" into the treasurer's office for the second semester.

The freshman class breaks its independent-officered record this year by having its first semester president and vice-president, Don Blackburn and Milton George from the Greeks. This class can be depended upon for promoting projects all year 'round. They started the year by reviving the bonfire tradition on the eve of the first home game. Their annual homecoming eve fireworks started the noisy weekend. It was not the fault of the class of '44 that the rally spirit ended Friday night. Frosh glee week in May gives the yearlings their final fling.

COLLEGE

The Beginning

1. Moscow here we come.
2. Girls, girls everywhere.
3. Annie Lewis is a good salesman—plug for The Gem.
4. Alpha Phi Omega getting the students' fingerprints—just voluntary.
5. More girls—maybe boys don't go to the State U.
6. "Oh, look, Cobina—a man."
7. Go ahead—take it all.
8. Ouch, this hurts—are you sure there is no mistake?
9. Boy, look at them—more girls.
10. Ann Maguire gives her "rush" smile for the girls.
11. Dean Wunderlich is "printed"—it was voluntary, too.
12. Getting the barbecue ready for the men students.

- ### Rallies
1. Oh-h! Ah-h! Homecoming fireworks.
 2. In and out, 'round about—the coed parade.
 3. Chrisman Hall's prophecy.
 4. Betas in the groove.
 5. A real rally and a real fire—music, too.
 6. A little jammin' in the gym.
 7. Forney Hall tries to scare W.S.C.
 8. The Joneses lead the coed parade through Sweet Hall.
 9. Gamma Phi Beta sign.
 10. When does this rally start?
 11. Some more jivin' at the rally.
 12. Tri-Delts' prize winner.

Halftime antics

1. Sadie Hawkins Day—the poor guy hasn't a chance.
2. Commander Taylor came the farthest on Dad's Day—from Norfolk, Virginia.
3. "Marrying Sam McCarthy" gives the prize for best house decoration—sounds like a political deal.
4. The last man—"oh, happy collitch days!"
5. Helen Hillman gets her man—ask him.
6. The band lines up for the half.
7. The W.S.C. band watches the fun—it was better than the game.
8. The majorettes lead the band off—no one saw the band.

On the Gridiron — Halftime

- 1a. Willkie supporters rush the stands during halftime — didn't help.
1. The band forms "UI" on the field.
2. Helen Skjersaa leads the majorettes.
3. Jane Schubert, Gamma Phi, and Jim Rice, Phi Delt. Their houses had most dads back.
4. That W.S.C. Cougar cage is just always running away from Pullman.
5. Well, what are you looking at?
6. Les McCarthy just fired the shot heard around the world—"start of Sadie Hawkins' Day race."
7. What the "well dressed man" wears on Sadie Hawkins' Day.

Let's Dance

1. Black ties, stiff shirts, corsages—it's the Senior Ball.
2. "Bull" Durham and Helen Hillman waiting for the "pennies from Heaven"—they never came.
3. Sweet Hall Cabaret.
4. Betty Lou Braddock and Ed Mueller flash us a smile.
5. Marie Raphael Smith and "Hubby" Lyle at Theta dance.
6. When "Theta lips are smiling"—how true, Gordie says.

Formal or Informal

1. Lindley Hall throws a dance in the Bucket.
2. Dancing in the lounge of Students' Union Building.
3. Senior Ballers waiting for the music to begin.
4. Margaret Rosenheim, Mrs. Scott, Jack Ward sit this one out.
5. Helen Rowley, Chace Anderson, Ann Maguire, Milt Eberhard tell a funny one.
6. The S.A.E. quartet unlimbers at the Bowery dance—that's cider in the bottles.
7. Lindley Hallers again at the Bucket.
8. Delts go Russian a la Idaho.

Pep Band Show

1. La rhumba!
2. Bill Bergeson and Jean Jones jitter for the jits.
3. Two misses who were hits—the Jones Twins.
4. The whole show "on stage."
5. La Conga time.
6. The cast meeting the audience—one at a time.
7. Senor Gugoni relieves the baby.
8. The band—Paul Cawley hot on the trumpet.
9. Leader Hud Nieman takes a solo.
10. The Jitterbugs and "Prof" Bob Riegel.

Night Must Fall

1. 7:20 in the books—guess where?
2. Armour Anderson and Ruth Boyer look guilty. (Ed.—They shouldn't though.)
3. Oh boy! Oh boy! Wow!!
4. Ray Green doesn't want to be late—every minute counts.
5. Censored! But between us, it's the Argonaut's Friday Night club at the Nobby.
6. Gamma Phis "playing" in the fog.
7. "Now, lissen' Chief—you know I'm your best pal."
8. "Can it be the spring" or . . . ?

Assemblies

1. Beechnut Sam gives the audience a break—or at least some gum.
2. Certainly an interested crowd. Hi!
3. The 1940 Junior Assembly lines up for the finals.
4. The "original Floradora Girls"—and the Idaho football team.
5. Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay—The Can Can Girls.
6. A little musing up party—cinnamon and eggs.

Assemblies

1. "The Girl on the cover of the Police Gazette."
2. "Any similarity to persons living or dead is intentional"—part of the 1940 Junior Assembly.
3. Stage Crew at the Sophomore Assembly.
4. Now, lissen here, I have had enough of you!
5. Wow, oh man, what a dream—a bad dream.
6. The 1940 Junior Assembly was so good that they deserved the same picture twice. No mistake, of course.
7. "In My Merry Oldsmobile"—1909 model, no fluid shift.

Women's Page

1. First prize at Coed Ball—Naomi Harshbarger and Edna Roberts, Idaho beauty queens.
2. Evelyn Failor, the "Jenny Lind of the Campus, one swell gal.
3. Anne Marie von Krusenstierna of Stockholm, Sweden—one of the most popular girls at Idaho.
4. Theta "kids"—kind of kiddish, isn't it?
5. Marcia Gwinn—1940 Typical Coed of schools of the Northwest.
6. Ruby Reuter and Helen Rowley "relaxin'."
7. The original Hays Hall barber quartet, moustaches and all.
8. Virginia Erdman, 1941 Idaho Typical Coed.

Sometimes They Study

1. Not the men from Mars, but the Miners taking some breathing exercises.
2. Two-bits the balance is off, Denton.
3. Bob Hamilton gets down to facts when he studies.
4. I would have to see it to believe it—Sammy Kaufman studying.
5. Solinsky booking, too.
6. The T.K.E.'s hard at it.
7. Mixing things up in the Organic Chem Lab.
8. Don't bother me; can't you see I'm studying?

As a Co-ed Lives

1. Last call for breakfast—hurry, hurry. 1. Priming—or putting on some more sex appeal. 3. Heading for the "lib." 4. Oh, darn that garter—it snaps. 5. Frosh stunting. 6. Yep, you guessed it—they are ankle deep in a "bull session." 7. "Hurry, zip it up—he's waited 45 minutes already."

Coedology

1. Body building sport—bridge. 2. Sometimes—yes, sometimes—they study. 3. Getting ready at 8:47 for that 8:45 date. 4. It's the first rule, cleanliness. 5. The room isn't always this bad—6. Amour, Amour—saying goodnight the ol' American way. 7. Sleep, sleep—'tis end of another day.

Just College

1. Blue Key old clothes drive—they have most of them on.
2. Patriotic Bob Cook trying to lose 12 pounds to qualify for the Air Corps. Notice his beautiful brown eyes.
3. "Prof" Edward Michael Riley has his "quiz kids" program at game halftime.
4. Neyva Erickson trying to get her date for the Spinster Skip.
5. Idaho wasn't winning when this picture was taken.
6. Spring brings picnics—enough said.

Let's Dance the Military Way

1. Bob Andrews and Norma Durham flash their smiles for the camera—Dave Thomas isn't interested . . . much.
2. Military Ballers watching the Pershing Rifles drill—cute blonde number, eh?
3. Presentation of the cords—a kiss goes along with it—oh, the life of a soldier.
4. The "official military family" poses at the Military Ball.
5. Pershing Rifles drill at the Military Ball.
6. "There's something about a soldier—that is fine, fine fine."

May Day

1. The procession comes out of the Arboretum.
2. Cardinal Key pledging.
3. Crowning of the Queen—not with a ball bat.
4. May Queen Rachel Braxtan reigns supreme.
5. Maypole dance.
6. Silver Lance pledging—Johnston bellowed.
7. Mortar Board pledging—the girls squealed.

The End

1. Turning them loose after four years. 2. President A. H. Upham of Miami University delivers commencement address. 3. The Commencement parade gets under way at the Ad Building. 4. "There's a long, long trail a-winding." 5. President Dale, Governor Bottolfsen, President A. H. Upham discuss things. 6. Three potentates chinnin' about the weather.

SOCIETIES & CLUBS

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa was founded at William and Mary in 1776, and established at Idaho in 1926. New members are elected each year in the spring from candidates for B.A. and B.S. in Letters and Science. The purpose is not merely recognition of past achievement, but promise of enlistment in the cause of scholarship thereafter. Members are not chosen for fine grades exclusively. The record of every student eligible from that point of view is scrutinized for evidence of serious scholarly purpose and correlation of work. Grades give no prescriptive right to election.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board, national service honorary for outstanding senior women, has been active on the campus since 1923. It is one of those rare organizations, a really active senior honorary, which promotes such functions as student-faculty dinners, Spinster Skips, serenades, mum sales, and alum breakfasts.

SILVER LANCE

Old decrepit activity men go to their "happy hunting ground" in Silver Lance. Seven seniors who have taken an active part in that part of college you don't get grades for, enjoy selection to this strictly honorary honorary. Counterpart of the women's Mortar Board, it was founded on the Idaho campus in 1923.

CARDINAL KEY

Cardinal Key members, female keywearers from the junior and senior classes, are known by their distinctive light-blue uniforms. They promote many friendships between girls of different residences through the medium of their dinner exchanges.

The oft-mentioned and abused "leadership, scholarship, and personality" criterion is used in selecting the doughty dozen.

SPURS

Every year in the spring two freshmen women from each house and hall group are selected by the present Spur organization to serve during their sophomore year.

They usher, sell tickets for this and that, sell apples and candy at football games, attend basketball games in a body, help at rallies, and generally keep in the public eye. The public eye finds them not bad.

INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS

IK's, in their white sweaters, bustle about ushering, working the scoreboard, "barbecuing," and sponsoring mixers.

Marked men from each residence, the frosh pledges work for the many campus functions on a point basis. Newest IK wrinkle: matinee dances for all students at the Bucket, small profit to go to the A.S.U.I.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Alpha Kappa Psi is the business-professional honorary. Its purpose is to stimulate the interest of male business students in accounting, commerce, and general business. Faculty members actively participate in forum meetings.

Alpha Kappa Psi, in conjunction with Phi Chi Theta, annually sponsors the business school banquet. Chief speaker last year was Mr. Donald K. David, a highly successful New York financier.

"I" CLUB

Varsity lettermen, wearers of the "I," speak through their club. They sweat for Alma Mater, and have a well-rounded list of activities throughout the year.

One of Idaho's queen-electing organizations, they select one each year at the "I" Club Ball. The lucky girl is awarded a regulation "I" blanket as a token of esteem.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

Advanced military students' honorary, Scabbard and Blade, keeps busy stimulating interest in "the army"—R.O.T.C. Scabbard and Blade helps spread information about military affairs and creates more interest in military training. They sponsor smokers, all-military balls, inter-chapter banquets, drills, and displays. They administered registration for conscription this year.

PERSHING RIFLES

Basics with a high scholastic standing and a keen interest in military affairs are eligible for Pershing Rifles. For entertainment this group sponsors a dance, a picnic, and a smoker. For work they lead the basics as a drill squad, promote efficiency in military activity, and carry their guns a few extra hours a week.

This year the University of Idaho was the headquarters for the Sixth Regiment.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

Mechanical engineers band together in the club of the same name. They contact outstanding engineers, have twice-monthly meetings, in general promote mechanical engineering on the campus. Once a year they forget the books and have a picnic or a banquet.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is very democratic, to say the least. Every Home Ec student is a member, whether she takes an active part or not. The girls get acquainted, have clambakes, and talk shop. They insist that Home Ec is a profession, not a job. Maybe they're right.

THE IDAHO FORESTER

The Idaho Forester, annual publication of the School of Forestry, appeared on the campus in May in a smaller edition than in previous years. The Foresters' "Gem" blossomed out with more candid shots and forestry life; semi-technical editorials gave way to stories about student foresters. A senior section and alumni directory were added this year, which put the "finish" on an outstanding publication.

AWS HANDBOOK

The A.W.S. Handbook is an annual publication including revised rules, regulations, customs, honoraries, and hints on campus clothes, of the Associated Women Students. This handy little leaflet is distributed to all new women students during registration. It even helps old students to brush up on regulations. Emma Batt was editor of the 1940-1941 edition. The book is cleverly illustrated with cartoons and sketches depicting campus life.

FRESHMAN HANDBOOK

"Frosh Bible" to the students, it is "Freshman Handbook" on the record. It covers all phases of campus activity and includes a sketch of every organization. The Constitution and By-Laws of the A.S.U.I. contained therein are sometimes read by frosh, never by upperclassmen. Photos of a chosen few adorn the book, with their messages.

The 1940-41 Bible was edited by Rene McDermott, helped by Eleanor Axtell and Frances Hardin; cartoons by Frank Kara.

BLUE BUCKET

(Obituary)

After 17 years of varied service to the Idaho student body, the Blue Bucket magazine was "liquidated" as a university institution in an unofficial executive board meeting assembled on the closing day of final quiz week last spring.

Beginning as a "literary" magazine in 1923, the Blue Bucket underwent a gradual transformation into a humor publication between 1927 and 1929. The humor policy continued as the chief concern of the magazine until 1932 when an attempt was made to return it to a literary basis. This effort proved unsatisfactory, and with the magazine's return to humor, its increase in popularity and prestige with the students established its editorial objective.

Although the magazine was provided for in the A.S.U.I. constitution as an official student publication, it did not meet a constitutional demise. It was not voted out of existence by a two-thirds ballot of the student body as required for constitutional amendment. However, it met as effective an end when it was ruled out by an arbitrary majority on the student executive board.

Objection came from Independent party politicians, who saw an opportunity to stifle an imagined political opposition. The Blue Bucket liquidation proved a monumental parting jest for those "great democrats"—Idaho's Olson and Johnston team.

DRAMA & DEBATE

Jean Collette
John Sollers

DRAMATIC STAFF

Drama is on the upgrade at Idaho, with an increase in student interest under the tutelage of Jean Collette and John Sollers. Miss Collette, small, dark, and dynamic, tackles difficult plays and presents near-professional performances. Mr. Sollers designs breath-taking sets and directs on the side. He employs to the full his stage designing experience with the Farragut Players at Rye Beach, New Hampshire, a summer group.

"KIND LADY"

"Kind Lady," the first melodrama to be presented at Idaho for five years, was running on Broadway when it was produced here under the direction of John Sollers. The play tells the story of a middle-aged, kindly art collector who unsuspectingly gives a cup of tea to a beggar on Christmas Eve, and of her efforts to escape the plottings of the befriended beggar.

This production was the debut of two newcomers to the dramatic circle—Adele Clemmer, who depicted the "Kind Lady" like a professional, and John Chrape, as the villain.

"FAMILY PORTRAIT"

At the same time that "Kind Lady" was getting under way, Jean Collette was directing "Family Portrait," which was presented on December 5 and 6. The beauty, color, simplicity, rusticness of the scenes provided a background that was timely for this magnificent play about the life of Christ. Lucille Marshall, with four seasons of college dramatics and two summers with the Farragut Players at Rye Beach, New Hampshire, played Mary. She was supported by a cast including: Mary Lou Sherman, Nancy White, Ned Bowler, Ralph McColm, Denton Darrow, Howard Carpenter, and Gayle Manion. The prop job was terrific—over two hundred separate props had to be made to carry out the simplicity note.

"ALL REASON NOW RESIGNED"

A grand climax to A.S.U.I. dramatic productions of the year was "All Reason Now Resigned," written by Theodore A. Sherman and Geoffrey G. Coope of the English department. It was the first production that has been written and produced by the university faculty since 1934.

The story was a study of human behavior in time of crisis. The setting was in a London air raid shelter where a cross-section of Britain was gathered to escape Nazi bombs. The play was designed to show English people facing their common problem with the calm that characterizes their race. Carrying the principal speaking parts of the cast of 22 were Gayle Manion, Dorothy Peebles, Ned Bowler, and Denton Darrow.

After a year's leave of absence from the University of Idaho campus, Coach A. E. Whitehead returned to instill new life into the Varsity Debaters. On November 14, 1940, Betty Detweiler, Genevieve Willson, Lois Hansen, and Virginia Way competed at Walla Walla in the annual triangular series with Whitman College and Washington State College. The question was on the "Restriction of Agricultural Production."

On December 7, 1940, at Pullman, Keith McCarthy, Milton George, Bernard Favaro, Harry Lewies, Vernon Ravenscroft, and Marc Boles won the Nalder trophy by winning seven out of eight debates. The question was on "The Adoption of a Permanent Union for the Western Hemisphere." These same six men participated in the debate tournaments at Linfield College in February. At the Pacific Forensic League tournament at Stanford in March, Harry Lewies won first place in oratory.

Discussions on propaganda were held with the University of Washington at Seattle.

During the season eight Idaho teams participated in 75 debates in addition to appearing before various civic groups and taking part in roundtable discussions over a Spokane radio station.

PEP BAND

After an exhaustive year of playing for pep rallies, ball games, and civic meetings, the Idaho Pep Band gave its annual song-and-dance show March 12, 13, and 14. Leader Hud Nieman combined the draft theme and a little of the "South American Way" to present a smooth, crazy musical play. Music was precise and swingy; dances designed by Bob Riegel and comedy by Walt Gugnoni rounded out a show that packed the house for all three nights.

Hudson Nieman
 Pep Band Leader

Last October 21, the Don Cossack Choir opened the community concert series. Over twenty splendid male singers made the auditorium rock with their robust harmony.

The world-famous 'cello virtuoso, Gregor Piatigorsky, appeared March 19. A young man, he plays with such fire and dash that he almost falls off his chair.

Alec Templeton, minus the Alka-Seltzer plug that follows him everywhere on the radio, gave the last Moscow concert before 5,300 people. A gifted pianist in spite of his blindness, he made the informal half of his concert something that local concert-goers will remember for years.

JUDGING TEAMS

The University of Idaho four agriculture judging teams are:

The Livestock Judging team, which placed first at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, competing against teams from Montana, Wyoming, Oregon State, Washington State, and Utah. It also won first at the Ogden Livestock Show in competition with Oregon, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, and Montana. This team of six men is coached by Dr. William Beeson.

The Agronomy Judging team, under the coaching of Donald Peterson, took fourth place in the Intercollegiate Crops Contest.

D. L. Fourt coached his Dairy Cattle Judging team to take third place at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland.

The Dairy Products Judging team, coached by Dr. D. R. Theophilus, won third at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland.

The men who compose these teams put to practice what knowledge they have gained from actual experience at annual expositions and contests, making a good showing against teams from other colleges.

SPORTLIGHT REFLECTIONS

By BOB WETHERN

Michael J. Ryan

Leon Green

The dawn of a new and brilliant era of athletic supremacy at Idaho seems near to the threshold of reality. A new crew mans Idaho's Vandal teams and has set the course for winning ways long sought. And if those winning ways come to Idaho with few or no setbacks . . . all will be fine. But if next year's win-loss percentages in either major or minor are not so good . . . if most of the victories are moral in nature . . . what then?

Idaho has long been famous for its Co-ops. Idaho has even longer been infamous for its lack of cooperation. Perhaps the word "Idaho" is too broad a term . . . perhaps one should come right out and say the "alumni," the "faculty," the "students," and even the "coaches" have failed to show signs of true cooperation in the past.

But the new regime seems to have met with state-wide approval. Selection of a big-time coach as grid mentor has already done much to boost morale. Francis A. Schmidt was a wise choice. Coach Schmidt's athletic aides: George Green, athletic director; Walter Price, assistant football coach; Guy Wicks, basketball and baseball coach; J. A. "Babe" Brown, freshman coach, all seem to have state-wide and not just regional support. Everyone seems to be happy . . . happy and confident . . . or at least hopeful.

Just as the new coaching staff seems to be the "right combination," so does the attitude of "Idaho" seem to contain harmony, confidence . . . and hope. That much and even more will be necessary in the future, for in 1942 Idaho becomes a full-fledged member of the Pacific Coast Conference.

Up and down the Gem State there is a feeling that the next few years will be the "now or never" time for Idaho, as far as a big-time athletic program is concerned. The coaching staff seems to be capable of giving the athletes a fair chance and the "factions" seem willing to give the coaches a fair chance. Perhaps they will . . . this is Idaho's last chance.

MINOR COACHES

STUDENT COACHES

Collegiate grid playing careers finished, these four add to their pigskin lore by helping Price develop freshmen gridders into varsity candidates. It's part of their work towards masters' degrees.

SENIOR MANAGERS

Unheralded heroes of the athletic world are the managers. Their ability to take hard work and hard knocks without griping or quitting is a big factor in the spirit and success of the teams. For long nights of hauling equipment onto fields or floors and off again, they get to travel with the teams—to handle gear and equipment. Three years of such service results in black letter sweaters; four years in red. The amount of psychology, human nature, and athletic lore they absorb is terrific, they say.

LEADERS

Idaho's athletic teams' inability to win anything but "moral" victories made the jobs of Yell King Jack Furey and Dukes Ozzie Walsh and Bruce Gordon anything but easy. A feminine element in the persons of Yell Queens Marily Jones and Florence Orme was added to the troupe. It helped.

Four high-stepping baton-twirlers paced off colorful formations in leading Idaho's military band during the half-time at home grid games. Wearing the high Shako hats and the Gulliver-sized boots were Ruby Fleming, Helen Skjersaa, Irene and Leona Tulppa.

FOOTBALL

OREGON STATE

Obviously lacking both experience and coordination, a sadly-fated Idaho eleven was dominated by Oregon State's mighty grid team in the season's opener for both schools. The Vandals failed as a unit and struggled to hold the O.S.C. powerhouse to 41 points while they went scoreless.

Led by Kisselburg, Olson, and Dow, the Beavers scored three minutes after the opening whistle and Idaho's Vandals were unable to stop the Orangemen as they gathered scoring momentum on their home field.

Only bright spot of the game from a Gem Stater's point of view was the play of Sophomores Vic Berllus, Joe Piedmont in the line, and Ray Davis, George Nixon in the back-field.

WASHINGTON

University of Washington Huskies applied soothing balm to a two-year-old wound by nipping the Vandal gridmen 21 to 0 at Seattle before 25,000 spectators. The wound: a 12-all tie shoved down the Husky throat in 1938.

Vastly improved over the previous week, the Vandals opened with a running and passing attack that advanced them to the Washington four-yard stripe. There the attack, led by Sophomores George Nixon and Vic Berllus, faltered, and Washington held the Idahoans at bay for the rest of the afternoon.

All of the Husky touchdowns, scored by Stackpool, Walters, and Younglove, were made on runs of more than 35 yards.

GONZAGA

First home game of the season saw Gonzaga's Grey Ghost, Tony Canadeo, general his Bulldog teammates to a 26 to 0 victory over Idaho on the Neale Stadium turf. Led by silver-haired Canadeo, little All-American triple-threater, the Zags exhibited the most formidable passing attack seen by Vandal fans in many moons. Passes were instrumental in all four Bulldog scores.

Making their first real display of offensive power, the Vandals reeled off several goalward drives—once to the one-yard line—but lacked the punch to cleat pay dirt. Sophomore Ray Davis, Vandal halfback, broke loose for several long scampers and was on the heaving end of a few completed aerials.

UTAH STATE

Vandal grid warriors pushed the Utah Aggie eleven up and down Boise's Public School field, but failed to generate scoring punch at critical moments and the game ended in a scoreless tie. Ankle-deep mud hampered the running attack of both teams.

Idaho drove deep into Aggie territory often only to lose the ball on fumbles and fourth-down plays. Brilliant running and kicking by Aggie Seth Maugham saved the Utah cause. The Vandals rolled up five first downs to the Aggies' none, gained 159 yards to 38 for Utah.

Substitute Halfbacks Bob Smith and Dale Clark, who sparked long second-half drives, were chief ground-gainers for Idaho. Line plays of Vandals Paul Ryan, tackle, and Len Zenkevitch, guard, were outstanding.

Starting fast against their traditional homecoming foes, Washington State, the Vandals dominated first period play, but later succumbed to a smart Cougar aerial attack and were blanked 26 to 0. The Vandals punched their way within the W.S.C. 20-yard stripe four times in the first quarter, only to bog down short of pay dirt each time.

The complexion of the game changed in the second period when Cougars Bill Sewell and Don Greeley starred in a passing attack that netted two quick touchdowns. Sewell renewed his aerial blitz again in the second half of the set-to.

Vandal backs George Nixon and Ray Davis gained much ground for Idaho in midfield but the Cougars stymied all goal-approaches. Mac Beall, quarter, starred at punting until injured early in the game.

MONTANA STATE

Three touchdowns scored by Idaho on Dornblaser field at Missoula seemed enough to win over Montana's Grizzlies until late in the fourth period when Grizzly Regan, dusky half, entered the game and began pitching strikes with a football. In five minutes Regan completed six forwards for two touchdowns enabling Montana to win by a 28 to 18 score.

Speedy Jack Emigh scored first to give Montana an early lead, but the Vandals, led by sophomore backs Nixon, Nichols, and Micklich, crossed Montana's goal-line three times for an 18 to 15 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Vandal Nixon returned a Montana punt 92 yards to the Grizzly two early in the first period, and scored several plays later to end the touchdown drought which had plagued Idaho all season.

NEVADA

Stopping a highly-touted Nevada air and ground attack and scoring early via the air, Idaho's victory-hungry Vandals broke into the win column for the first time since the middle of the 1939 season by downing a favored Wolf Pack eleven 6 to 0 on Dads' Day. Held for no gain three successive times on the Nevada 26, Halfback Nixon faded and passed to End Chace Anderson, who was heading for the end zone. Anderson had to bat the ball into the air before grabbing it and falling over the goal-line to score.

The Vandals turned defensive for the remainder of the game to protect their lead and a hard-charging line, led by Tackle Bill Piedmont and End Vic Berllus stopped the Wolfpack and their Lobo Leader Marion Motley. Nixon, Davis, and Franklin stood out for the Vandals in backfield action.

UTAH

A dark curtain was drawn on Idaho's most disastrous grid season since 1897 when the Vandals dropped their hard-fought final with the Utah Redskins 13 to 6 at Salt Lake City. Playing in a driving snowstorm before a small crowd, the Vandals took an early 6 to 0 lead which they held until late in the contest.

With the game still young, Halfback Nixon started on what seemed an end ramble from deep in Vandal territory, then flipped the wet ball to Rudy Franklin, who squirmed 25 yards to score. Nixon's placement for the extra point was blocked.

Utah's Redskins took to the warpath in the third period, and with Adelt at the spearhead of attack, scalped Idaho for 13 tallies. Idaho took to the air in the last few minutes, but a fumble of a pass that appeared to be a sure touchdown broke up the threat.

Playing Boston College, 1941 Sugar Bowl champions, was anything but sweet for Coach Ted Bank's Vandal gridmen . . . a 60 to 0 loss is no sugar.

Ten thousand fans gathered at Boston's Fenway Park to see Idaho, first Pacific Coast team ever to play in New England, tangle with the Eagles. From the opening whistle to the final gun, the Vandals were dazed by the Boston's deceptiveness and power. While Eagles O'Rouark, Holovack, Montgomery, and Conoley ran Vandal tacklers wild, only Ray Davis, Idaho back, was able to penetrate the Boston line. Only time Idaho crossed the mid-field stripe was when Davis broke loose for 78 yards late in the game.

When the sun dipped low over Old North Church, the Vandals gathered together their wilted Silver and Gold banners; avoided eyeing the scoreboard which recorded their 60 to 0 defeat.

W.S.C. SERIES

W.S.C.'s Western Champion Cougars broke a conference record at the Vandals' expense when they swept the fourth game of the series, 37 to 35, to chalk up 12 straight wins. Initial game of the series was grabbed in the last 15 seconds of play when Jim Zimmerman converted a one-handed push shot to give W.S.C. a 25 to 23 victory. A Vandal rally, late in the second game, threatened but did not avert the Cougar's 40 to 34 win. The Vandals snatched a momentary 24 to 23 lead at halftime of the third contest, but were gradually edged out, 55 to 47.

First conference win in four starts came for the Vandals when they dunked Oregon's invading Ducks on Memorial Gym court, 41 to 30. Idaho maplecourt men edged the Webfeet again 38 to 37 at home, but hit a shooting slump on MacArthur court at Eugene to lose by 45 to 35 and 52 to 28 scores for a split series.

Idaho's five dropped the first two games of the conference season to Washington's Huskies at Seattle by a total of four points in 45 to 33 and 39 to 37 games.

Three field goals, potted in the last six minutes of play by Forward Ron Harris, secured the Vandals a 44 to 37 victory in the third game, here. Husky Norm Dalthrop squeezed in a field goal in the last three seconds of play of the series final to give Washington a 45 to 44 win and cancel Idaho's conference chances.

The Vandals' final chance to "win one" for "Twogie" went askew when a hot Beaver team converted often to win the series and season final on the home court, 41 to 32. Idaho upset Oregon State in the first home game by leading all the way to win 42 to 35. From the floor and foul line, Idaho missed shot after shot with monotonous regularity, while O.S.C. scored freely to win both games at Corvallis by 43 to 19 and 41 to 35 scores.

W.S.C. SERIES

Merle "Doc" Stoddard, senior Idaho hurler, opened the Vandal-Cougar series by pitching Idaho's nine to a 4 to 2 win and stretching his jinx over Washington State batters to a nine-game affair. "Doc's" jinx, which he held over the heads of W.S.C. batsmen for three and fifteen-sixteenths seasons, was broken in the third game when Cougars found the groove for ten hits and eight runs.

Cougar Bill Sewell allowed the Vandals only six hits for two runs. W.S.C. took the second and fourth games to give the Cougars a 3 to 1 edge in the series.

W.S.C. copped the second game by a 6 to 1 score at Pullman. Sophomore Dick Snyder hurled for the Vandals in a tilt that was listless throughout. W.S.C. blanked Idaho 5 to 0 in the final game, but Vandal errors and not Stoddard's pitching accounted for most of the Cougar runs. Cougar Vern Butts' homer was the only earned W.S.C. tally.

Frequent verbal battles between Coach Twogood, Coach Buck Bailey and the hapless umpire, were spiced with violent pantomime. Buck proved adept at bat-booting, Twogie at gesturing—both deserved "oscar" and a co-title as baseball's most colorful coaches for their side-splitting exhibitions.

Two surprise wins on the home field gave Idaho a split series with Oregon. Vandals won 2 to 1 in the third game of the series when Stoddard went the route to upset Oregon's high-flying Ducks. Ramey ended a late Duck threat when he executed an unassisted double play. Snyder hurled to a 9 to 4 win in the final game.

At Eugene, Oregon spurted with six runs in an eighth-inning blitz to win 10 to 6. Linn, Duck pitcher, stymied Idaho by allowing only five hits while the Ducks made every hit a run. Oregon Shortstop Buck Berry, of major league timber, slammed Stoddard for a homer, a double, and three singles in five trips to the plate, while Oregon won 16 to 9 in the final session.

OREGON STATE

One-hit pitching by Vandal Dick Snyder gave Idaho stickmen their first win in six starts in the second game of the O.S.C. series on the Beaver diamond. A Vandal four-hit barrage in the tenth inning broke up the game.

George Elliot, O.S.C. ace, whiffed 13 Idaho batters and allowed only four runs to hand the Vandals a 9 to 4 drubbing in the series opener. Lloyd hurled for Idaho.

On the home diamond, O.S.C. handed Idaho two defeats behind the pitching of Elliot and Shaw. the scores were: 9 to 4 and 9 to 1.

WHITMAN SERIES

A Vandal three-man hurling staff alternated to win four of six games from Whitman College on the Missionaries' field. Idaho won the opener 8 to 2 with Stoddard pitching. Vandals took the second game 4 to 1 behind Snyder's hurling but Whitman broke through Idaho's support to win 5 to 3.

Stoddard and Snyder doubled in the next game to bring Idaho a 7 to 4 win. A 12-inning thriller resulted in the fifth game with the Vandals winning 5 to 4. Lloyd tossed. Final game at Walla Walla ended in an Idaho hitting slump and the Missionaries won 6 to 0.

Whitman College's midget nine invaded the Vandal camp a week later for a double-header which resulted in two Idaho wins. The scores were 5 to 4 and 11 to 1.

WASHINGTON

The Vandal and Husky nines opened the series at Seattle with a double-header in which Washington hitters pounded four Idaho pitchers for 24 hits and 22 runs to win by 16 to 5 and 6 to 3 scores.

Idaho batters clouted Washington into the conference cellar in the first home game by winning 13 to 4 in an eight-inning blitzkrieg. Highlighting the game was a 20-minute argument between Coaches Twogood and Graves and Umpire Clink over the legality of an Idaho home-run ball that bounced over centerfield fence.

Continuing their hitting spree, Idaho batsmen connected for 17 hits and 10 runs to win 10 to 7 over the Huskies in the second home game.

SUMMARY

Outstanding individual victories by Vandal track and field stars took the sting out of team-score defeats handed them by powerful conference squads. Phil Leibowitz, miler, and Al Flechtner, high jumper, gained national recognition as well as points in national inter-collegiate meets.

Both were responsible for breaking four Idaho records along with George Makela, pole vaulter. Leibowitz sped to new lows in the mile and two-mile runs, with Flechtner and Makela hoisting their lanky frames to new highs in the high jump and pole vault respectively.

Idaho thin-clads lost conference meets to W.S.C. and O.S.C.; were defeated by Montana; won from Whitman College and Eastern Washington College; placed second in the Inland Empire Relays; took fourth in the Northern Division meet, with Leibowitz setting a new mark of 4:12.2.

Biggest reason for the season's defeats was the lack of high-calibre sprinters and hurdlers. Milton Holt, star sprinter, was ruled ineligible prior to the Montana meet, while Hurdlers Douglas Busby and Ralph Garst were kept from competition, Garst with a broken foot, Busby with scholastic difficulties.

TRACK

INLAND EMPIRE RELAYS

Winning and setting records in five varsity events, Vandal trackmen took second behind W.S.C. to edge out Montana and Whitman in the third annual meet. Idaho stars took first and set records in the 35-pound hammer throw, pole vault, 1000-yard run, high jump, one and one-half mile run.

PORTLAND HILL RELAYS

A speedy mile-relay foursome composed of James, Leibowitz, Neal, and Young, won the event in 3:24.2. Leibowitz was edged out by Glenn Cunningham in the mile and Makela took third in the pole vault and Dyrvall third in the two-mile behind national stars.

IDAHO-WHITMAN

A first and second in the javelin, last event of the meet, gave Idaho a 64-63 victory over the Missionaries at Walla Walla.

Speedy Maurice "Cap" Young, three-sport Vandal, pulled a leg muscle in the century dash to end his collegiate track career.

IDAHO-W.S.C.

A well-balanced Cougar team dashed and hurdled to a 78-53 victory over the Vandals on McLean field. Cougar stars swept both dash and hurdle events. Leibowitz, Idaho Iron Man, lowered the Vandal mile mark to 4:21.2 and later pushed Cougar Bill Dale to a blistering 1:55.4 half mile.

The Idaho and O.S.C. hurdlers hit their stride on the first one.

TRACK

IDAHO-O.S.C.

Vandal track and field men were downed 75-56 by the Beavers in their second conference meet on McLean field.

Leibowitz lowered the mile mark to 4:19.2 and Holt hit a late-season stride to tie for first in the century, win the broad-jump, and take third in the furlong.

IDAHO-MONTANA

Weakened by the loss of point-getters Makela, Bell, and Holt, the Vandals bowed before the Grizzlies, 70 to 50½ on Dornblaser field.

Vandal Leibowitz set a new field record of 1:57.2 in the half mile as teammates Dwyer, Kerby, Ellison, Anderson, and Neal took firsts in their specialties.

IDAHO-E.W.C.

Vandal scanty-clads won over Cheney by 67-58 as Leibowitz erased Don Cleaver's old two-mile mark from Idaho record books in a 9:25.2 race.

Home fans saw Vic Carpine, Savage sprint star, register 9.7 in the 100-yard dash—fastest century ever run on an Idaho track.

NORTHERN DIVISION

Emory Howard's second place in the discus gave Idaho a total of 21 points and an undisputed fourth place to edge out Oregon State and Montana.

Leibowitz raced to a new Northern District mile record of 4:12.2 and Flechtner tied for first in the high jump while Kerby, McHarg, Makela, Ryan, and Dyrqall scored points.

Members of the P.C.C. team that defeated a Big Ten squad at Evanston, Ill., Leibowitz and Flechtner took third places in the mile and high jump, respectively.

In the N.C.A.A. games at Minneapolis, Leibowitz took sixth in the mile and Flechtner won third in the high jump.

Leibowitz, Flechtner, and Makela also placed in their events to garner seven points in the P.C.C. meet at Los Angeles.

CROSS COUNTRY

W. S. C.

With Sophomore Vic Drygall setting a record-breaking pace, Idaho harriers trimmed Washington State 22 to 37 to avenge last year's defeat.

Dyrvall covered the rugged four and four-tenths mile course in 24:34 to lead teammates Bob White, Phil Leibowitz, and LaMar Chapman to a Vandal win.

MONTANA

Montana's distance plodders gave Mike Ryan's entire seven-man team little opposition as its members crossed the finish line ahead of the first Grizzly to give Idaho a perfect 15 to 50 win.

DUAL MEETS

Chapman, John Thomas, Irv Alterwein, Sted Johnston, Leibowitz, Dyrvall, and White finished in that order ahead of Ole Ueland, Montana's first man.

WHITMAN

Plucky Whitman College harriers faltered before a fast Vandal pace and the Gem Staters raced to a 22 to 33 victory at Walla Walla.

Idahoan White covered the hilly Whitman course in fast time to edge out Missionary Bob Emmick for first place. Vandals Chapman, Alterwein, Johnston, Thomas, and Gary Elder were other Idaho scorers.

P.C.C. AND NATIONAL MEETS

P. C. C.

Old stuff to Idaho's cross country kings was their winning the Pacific coast championship last fall. For the fourth straight year Vandal harriers captured team honors at Portland's Hill Military Academy course.

Oregon State's Don Vailencourt successfully defended his individual laurels but Dyr-gall, Leibowitz, White, Chapman, Dwyer, Thomas, and Johnston pulled down six of the first ten places for the Vandal victory.

NATIONAL

East to the national collegiate cross-country meet at Lansing, Michigan, went Vandals Leibowitz, Dyr-gall, White, and Coach Ryan to mark Idaho as the first school west of the Rockies represented in the meet.

In a field of 90 runners from 22 colleges, Leibowitz finished eighth—seconds behind Ashland College's Gilbert Dodds, winner and record-breaker. Dyr-gall finished thirteenth and White twentieth to rate Idaho with Indiana and Michigan Normal as one of the three schools having a trio finish in the select "upper-twenty" group.

FOOTBALL

Taking a small freshman football squad, claimed to be the weakest in years, Coach Walt Price moulded it into a grid machine that won, lost, and tied during a three-game season. Vandal yearlings met Montana's Grizzly Cubs for the first time in 12 years and won 12 to 0 at Kellogg before a crowd of 2,500 rain-plagued fans. At Spokane, Gonzaga's Bullpups capitalized on a freshman fumble early in the game and won 7 to 0. Most of the game was played in mid-field. Idaho students watched the yearlings battle W.S.C.'s freshmen to a 6 to 6 tie in the final game. The highly-touted Kittens scored first, but Freshman Barnett grabbed a blocked punt and twisted 30 yards for the retaliating score.

TRACK

Almost a carbon copy of its Vandal big brother was the freshman track and field squad which competed in meets with Whitman College, E.W.C., and Inland Empire Relay entrants.

Strong in the distance runs and weight events, the frosh cinder crew starred Bob White, Lamarr Chapman, distance; Herb Woodcock, Al Youngberg, weights; Gordon Scollard, pole vault and high jump; Clifton Mays, broad jump.

MINOR SPORTS

THE SEASON

More miles were covered, more fights were fought, and more laurels were won by Idaho boxers during the past year than in any other season. Vandal knights of the squared-circle traveled over 8,000 miles to participate in seven dual meets in the far corners of the country. Paradoxically, while monopolizing the national crown, Idaho could win only two dual meets, tie three, and lose two. Mainstays and co-captains of the team were National Champions Ted and Frank Kara. Laune Erickson, with one defeat to mar his record, proved himself supreme in the 165-pound class, but often switched weights with Light-heavy Chace Anderson.

The one sport that consistently stays on the black side of Idaho's red-dominated athletic finance ledger, boxing carried Vandal banners far along Fame's highway. Coach Louie August's mitt troupe skipped the Pacific coast tournament to meet Wisconsin's Badgers before 14,500 fans—a record audience for the Vandals.

Helping "Limehouse Lou" with his coaching duties was Assistant Sammy Zingale, who plugged up holes in the Vandals' defense—but—more often plugged Beechnut chewing gum. Voted major awards for representing Idaho at the Nationals were Ted and Frank Kara, Laune Erickson, and Chace Anderson. Anderson, along with Lettermen Norm Jensen, Don Reed, Claude Hansen, and Vic Berllus will bolster next year's team.

Still retaining a minor sports status, though it draws major sports crowds, Idaho boxing has aroused sufficient interest throughout the Northwest to cause other schools to agitate for introduction of the sport. Oregon State College and Gonzaga University have already started, while Oregon and Washington universities' agitators point out the Vandals as "bright examples."

DUAL MEETS

Five thousand Lafayette, La., fight fans waited 40 extra minutes to see Southwestern Institute's Bulldog battlers score a startling upset by gaining a 5-3 victory over the Vandals in the season's opener for both teams. Co-captains Ted and Frank Kara and Laune Erickson came through with wins. "Out of the cabs into the ring," was the motto of the Vandal trouper who sped 250 miles in two taxis.

Idaho boxers continued their trophy-taking ways of past seasons when they fought Louisiana State University fighters to a 4-4 draw in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl fight classic. Net result: A handsome, 24-inch trophy and gold and silver key charms. Veterans Ted and Frank Kara picked up wins for Idaho. Laune Erickson won the 165-pound bout by a forfeit and Light-heavy Chace Anderson outpointed L.S.U.'s Lawrence Bourgeois.

Renewing rivalry with W.S.C. leather-slippers, Idahoans invaded Pullman to win 4-3 in a card that featured two knockouts, two TKO's, one forfeit, two decisions, and one no-decision bout.

In a return meet, W.S.C. battlers fought to a 4-4 tie with the Vandals in a card of which five bouts failed to go the full three rounds. Laune Erickson unleashed a punching barrage which stopped Stan Dilatush, veteran Cougar, and Ted Kara won a three-round decision over Merle Vannoy in feature bouts.

Gonzaga University staged its first collegiate boxing match in five years by taking on Idaho's Vandals at Spokane. With nine bouts on an informal card, Idaho won 4-3. One bout was no-decision. Only knockout was scored by Vandal Vic Berllus over Bulldog Earl McCanna in the first round.

First home fight card for the Idaho mitt men ended in a 4-4 tie when San Jose's ambidextrous Spartans invaded Memorial Gym. Ted and Frank Kara and Norm Jensen won their light-division bouts. Laune Erickson punished Jack Sarkisian in the light-heavy bout to win easily. Spartan heavy-weight Jack Kemper saved San Jose's cause when he decisioned Vic Berllus in a close, three-round battle.

An injury-weakened Beaver boxing squad proved easy pickin's for the Vandals at Corvallis and they hammered out a 6-1 victory before a record crowd. Vandal Vic Berllus floored Beaver Bob Rambo with an early blow in the first round of the heavyweight bout for the only knockout.

At Madison, Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Badgers won over Idaho 5-3 before 14,000 fight fans to maintain their 8-year record of no defeats at home. Two upsets were recorded when Chace Anderson, Idaho light-heavy, decisioned Nick Lee, 1940 National champion; and when 1940-41 National Champion Laune Erickson was defeated by Badger Phil Prather. Ted Kara won over Jack Gibson to keep his collegiate no-defeat record in perfect order.

Winning the N.C.A.A. boxing team championship for the second successive year, Idaho collected more "firsts" than ever before in the tournament's history. Ted Kara became the first three-time winner when he successfully defended his 120-pound title at Penn State College. He had won the 127-pound title in 1938. When Brother Frank won the 127-pound title, he and Ted became the first brothers ever to win titles. Voted the tournament's outstanding boxer and awarded the John S. Larowe trophy, Ted became the second Gem Stater to receive the honor but the first to receive the Larowe trophy. Third national titlist, defending his crown for the second successive year, was Laune Erickson, 165-pound champion. Chace Anderson, light-heavyweight lost out by a close decision in the tournament's early bouts.

The best efforts of a green net team were none too good and Idaho lost to O.S.C., Oregon, Ellensburg Normal, Washington, and Montana while winning from Whitman College and splitting with W.S.C.

Northern division champions, Captain-coach Denny Hess, 145 pounds, and Hank Juran, 165 pounds, traveled to Bethlehem, Pa., for the N.C.A.A. championships—were defeated in quarter-final matches.

When Vandal foils had flailed thin air for the last time during the '40-'41 season, Idaho fencers found themselves possessors of a respectable .500 win-loss average for dual meet competition and a fourth place in the Northern Division meet here.

Jim Dick, captain and student coach, led the Vandal d'Atar-gnans with an average of six wins and three loses in dual meet competition. Acquirement of new equipment brought enthusiasm of Idaho competitors to a record high.

INTRAMURAL

Touch football, initial sport on the intramural calendar, wound up with Chrisman Hall I downing Phi Delta Theta 12 to 0 for the all-university championship plaque.

Willis Sweet Hall I won the volleyball championship by edging Phi Delta Theta 2-15, 15-3, 16-4. A.T.O.'s table tennis champions retained their crown by defeating Lindley Hall 12 to 1.

Riflery made its debut into the intramural calendar with L.D.S. and Lindley Hall teams capturing division honors with 100 points apiece.

L.D.S. triumphed over Idaho Club II, last year's winners, 25 to 21 for the Class A basketball championship. A.T.O. won the Class B crown in defeating L.D.S. II 21 to 19. A.T.O. won the 1941 swimming by a total of 86 points.

Sweet Hall held a substantial lead over A.T.O., 846 to 805, for total intramural points at Gem press time. Close behind were Phi Delta Theta, 790; Idaho Club, 772; and Sigma Chi, 742. Sports yet to be contested were: track, spring golf, and horseshoes.

Alpha Phi Chi officers during the year were Frank Whetsler, president; Gordie Williamson, vice-president; Sam Kaufman, secretary-treasurer.

Phi Delta Theta dethroned Sweet Hall during the 1939-1940 intramural season in amassing a total of 1512.5 points to Sweet's 1475. The two previous years Alpha Phi Chi trophy had rested on Sweet's fireplace mantel. The trophy was founded in 1937.

Sweet's II team won the touch football plaque; Lindley I captured the volley ball plaque; Idaho Club II gathered the Class A basketball plaque; Beta Theta Phi won the swimming plaque; Sweet copped the track award; Deli Tau Delta took the softball plaque; Sweet won the horseshoe award.

W. A. A.

Participation in active sports other than physical education classes is the basis for membership in the Women's Athletic Association. Under a scoring system devised by the association, women earning 100 points in the after-school hour sports are eligible for membership. Women who earn 1250 points are awarded women's "I" sweaters. Soccer, volleyball, basketball, and softball are the high point major sports and the minors are tennis, hiking, bicycle riding, badminton, skiing, archery, and skating. Play days for high schools and neighboring colleges are held each year.

Betty Armstrong is president, Helen Campbell vice-president, Vera Nell James recording secretary, Alta Mae Mullin corresponding secretary, and Ruth Ellen Jackson treasurer.

WOMEN'S "I" CLUB

Leaders in activities of the Women's "I" Club this year were Elsie Mae Stokesberry, president; Helen Campbell, vice-president; and Eleanor Axtell, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the club are Evelyn Quinn, Rachel Swayne, Joyce Kenworthy, Mary Low Fahrenwald, and Lovina Marsh.

An "I" plaque, based on the number of women turning out for sports, the number of team members, and winners of the tournaments, is presented by the club each year to the house or hall winning the inter-house tournament.

Not at all "muscle molls," though they excel in many fields of strenuous sports, W.A.A. participants shake shapely shanks when piling up points for individual and group honors. Class tournament honors for speedball, first sport on the W.A.A. calendar, went to the sophomores when they defeated a freshman team, 9-7. Undefeated freshmen volleyballists copped the title by drubbing the seniors, 58-21. Freshmen basketball stars, undefeated in tourney play, edged the sophomore team, 22-21.

Flame-haired Kay Schneider, junior, won the W.A.A. ping pong title by defeating Lucille Schubert, senior, 4-1. Yet to be contested when the Gem was "put to bed" were badminton, archery, swimming, tennis, and horseshoe events. W.A.A. contestants who place on the first-string teams get 100 points, second-stringers receive 50 counters, and other participants get 10 points—points which are tabulated both for individual sweater and group plaque awards.

Ready Now For Defense

Preparedness, with private electric utilities, is not a newly-discovered need.

For 51 years the Washington Water Power Company has been studying and building to meet the power requirements of the Inland Empire. As a result, we are ready now for any future needs.

1. What manners—oh, it's just a pie-eating contest. 2. Some pretty classy art work—the picture, of course. 3. Just had to get the "T" tank in one. 4. Mike Weyer high above Sun Valley. 5. The Piedmont brothers at the New York Fair. 6. Some Sweet Hall boys gather around the keyboard. 7. Mrs. Wunderlich gives the cameraman the high sign.

IDEAS, good taste, clear pictures.
The story of a year accurately recorded for all time...the essentials of a truly fine annual.

That the hours of labor invested by the editor and his staff... the artists and designers . . . may be enhanced by fine printing and binding... is our desire as the 1941 GEM goes to press.

SPARKLING GEMS in the galaxy of Annuals...modern in theme and technic, Idaho's GEM for the past fourteen years has been among those of first magnitude in the libraries of the Pacific coast universities.

Faithful reproductions of Kodachrome, modern art and typography, craftsmanship in engraving, printing and binding, are the guaranty of success for every Idaho editor.

WHEN DAVID'S STORE was founded, there was written into its policies an inflexible rule concerning the reliability of merchandise. It is not too much to say that our present growth is due entirely to the policy of never selling anything—however small—that we can not fully guarantee. And the most impressive phase of the success that has come to us lies not in its magnitude but in the ever-growing satisfaction, so freely voiced by thousands of our customers, in the reliability of their purchases.

J. C. PENNEY CO., INC.
408 Main St., Moscow, Idaho

1. Art Lewis wasn't wasting any time. 2. Wayne Hudson about to take off for a short one. 3. Bill Johnston heard about the Romans reclining while they ate—so he tries it. 4. Mrs. Bill Johnston and Jason himself on their back-to-nature campaign. 5. Mickey Smith at the Russian Ball. 6. Yep, folks, it's Thune again . . . this time he's trying out for the track team. 7. Doris Johnson and Betsy Ross cooling their feet in the snow. 8. Dean Olson taking a chance on the Miners' gambler machine.

Arm in Arm - - - The VANDALS and OCTONEK

Husky and rough college athletes require quality knitted wear to withstand their rugged every-day life . . . That's where Octonek and the Idaho Vandals strut arm in arm . . . They have given each other the gruelling "weartest" for complete satisfaction and economy . . . Minor Sports men, Spurs, Mortar Board, Intercollegiate Knights and the Idaho Pep Band are Octonek clad, too.
