THE M

A stylized graphic of a mountain range. The mountains are represented by simple geometric shapes: triangles and trapezoids. The central mountain is the largest and has a dark gray shaded area on its right side. To its left, there are two smaller, similar mountain shapes. Below the main mountain range, there are two horizontal rows of small, dark, irregular shapes, possibly representing a forest or a rocky base. The entire graphic is rendered in shades of gray on a light background.

A photograph of a large green lawn with trees and a building tower in the background under a cloudy sky. The sky is filled with large, white, fluffy clouds against a blue background. In the foreground, there is a wide, green lawn. In the middle ground, there is a dense line of trees, including several tall, thin evergreens and several large, leafy deciduous trees. In the background, a tall, brick building with a tower is visible on the right side. The overall scene is a peaceful, open campus or park area.

If you plan for one year, grow grain;
If you plan for ten years, grow grass;
If you plan for one-hundred years, grow trees;
But if you plan for eternity, grow men.

The U of I Student Grows Through Study . .

Begin with an enthusiastic professor and add a mood designed for learning—a quiet Monday night, a cup of coffee, and soft music . . . Idaho studies.

Through Friendship

The University of Idaho offers abundant opportunity for the formation of deep, varied, and often challenging friendships. Such friendships keep a student going—

Working and playing today, remembering tomorrow.

Through Spiritual

Contacts

Be it a quiet moment in a darkened chapel, a hushed walk across a snowy campus, or a fun-filled picnic with a church youth group, the U of I student will find the one form of contact with God which is of value to him.

Through Wholehearted
Participation

College life is participating, whenever, however, or in whatever you choose. Take your pick. But don't stand still; the campus moves fast. Joining in, then working and helping with all you have. . . . It's a good feeling.

I met a seer,
He held in his hands
The book of wisdom.
"Sir," I addressed him,
"Let me read."
"Child—" he began.
"Sir," I said.
"Think not that I am a child,
For already I know much
Of that which you hold;
Aye, much."

He smiled.
Then he opened the book
And held it before me.
Strange that I should have grown so suddenly blind.

Governor Robert E. Smylie

The continuing interest of Gov. Robert E. Smylie and other state leaders in the University has been greatly appreciated on campus. Gov. Smylie, who completes his 3rd term as Governor in January 1967, has been a frequent guest and lecturer at the University of Idaho.

One of the results of the 1965 Idaho Legislature was the creation of the Idaho Water Resources Board whose responsibility is to develop the state's water resources.

President Ernest W. Hartung

A stranger to the University of Idaho just one year ago, Dr. Ernest Hartung has fully earned the respected position he holds today both in the state and on campus. Dr. Hartung, who maintains a policy of cooperation with student groups, is becoming known for his respect of individual ideas. He has made repeated trips throughout the state to become acquainted with the citizens as well as with statewide University programs. In conjunction with the Alumni Association, Dr. Hartung has begun plans for a performing arts center to be erected on campus within the next few years. The vision and ability of Dr. Hartung promise a bright future for the U of I.

Board of Regents

Co-ordinating and directing University activities, the Board of Regents is the official governing body of the University of Idaho. Since its powers and authorities are delegated by the State Constitution, the Board is directly responsible to the people of the State. Only through the final approval of the Board can new acts or policies be established by the University.

Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs in the new UCC is responsible for the coordination and guidance of student affairs at the University. The services which the personnel provide include: student health; student counseling; advisory services and programs in fraternities, sororities, and residence halls; disciplinary counseling and action; and financial aids counseling, including scholarship programs.

College of Agriculture

The College of Agriculture offers curricula in agricultural phases of education, engineering science, and management. In addition to work in the classroom and laboratory, the College engages in such activities as the maintenance of greenhouses and farms and the holding of land acreage for the purposes of instruction and research. Of great importance to the public is the dynamic program of research projects conducted by the six branches of the Agricultural Experiment Station.

Aggie Honor Roll

Required to keep a 3.5 grade point average, members of the Aggie Honor Roll represent the "scholastic cream of the College of Agriculture's crop."

College of Agriculture

Dr. Ross Christian, Associate Professor of Animal Science, has been selected for this year's outstanding teacher from the College of Agriculture. Dr. Christian received his degrees from Pennsylvania State University, B.S. Animal Husbandry, and the University of Wisconsin, M.S. Genetics. In addition he is faculty advisor for Alpha Zeta, an agriculture honorary; and in 1964 he was made a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Dr. Christian participates actively in Block and Bridle Club, Animal Science student group, which he initially organized. In the community he belongs to the Lions Club, Elks Club, and the Presbyterian Church. His varied hobbies include fishing, golf, hunting, bridge, and woodworking.

College of Business

The College of Business selects as its primary goal the assured success of men and women in the growing world of business. The positions held by many graduates in the extensive fields of accounting, insurance, economics, finance, and other business enterprise are ample evidence of the success of the business program. Perhaps there is a direct relationship between this excellence and the high attainments of faculty, most of whom have doctorate degrees or C.P.A. certificates.

David D. Kendrick
Dean
College of Business

The accounting lab, familiar to all students of the College of Business, is a necessary supplement to the learning of accounting theory and practice.

Mrs. Geraldine Dacres observes the progress of a student who is using the new tape-recording machines for shorthand speed development.

Alpha Kappa Psi

Alpha Kappa Psi, the national professional fraternity for businessmen, is one of the most active professional fraternities on campus. By maintaining a 2.2 any student of business or economics is eligible for membership. The organization offers leadership experience in business dealings by giving students opportunity to assist the University Administration. Members are: Row One: David Allred, Richard W. Jackson, Richard O. DeAtley, Jeff Anderson, Howard Foley, David Kendrick, David McCanta, Rube Junes, Tom R. Kendrick, Skip Oppenheimer. Row Two: Don Lopez, Phil Stettler, Rich Tluczek, Gary Reber, Phil Peterson, Garth Reid, Bob Pene, Ken Reagan. Row Three: Kent Taylor—President, Pat Rhodes, Steve Ayers, John Wales, Howard Shaver, Jerry Decker, Dale R. Stephens, Bob Swisher.

College of Business

In addition to the bookwork of business theory and management, students in the College of Business learn basic skills in the operation of office machines.

Donald W. Seelye, Associate Professor of Business Administration and Labor Economics, was selected this year as the outstanding teacher from the College of Business. He graduated with a degree in economics from Indiana University, where he later taught. He also taught at Notre Dame before coming to the U of I seven years ago. He is currently working on his dissertation for a doctorate degree in business at Indiana University. In addition, he serves as director of the Public Utilities Executives' Course, which is a summer program held for executives of the public utilities industry. Among other things, his interests include extensive reading and family activities.

Everett V. Samuelson
Dean
College of Education

The College of Education consists of the departments of Education, Psychology, Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, with special units of work in Music Education, Business Education, Industrial Arts Education and Library Science. The College provides a broad, general educational program in addition to substantial preparation in the major and minor fields. It is fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

SIEA

The purpose of the Student Education Association is to acquaint education majors with the teaching profession and to cultivate the personal qualities of good teaching. All education majors are eligible for membership.

College of Education

Dr. Francis Maib was elected as the outstanding teacher from the College of Education. Dr. Maib has had extensive learning and experience in her field. Having attended several colleges, she received her B.S. degree from the Central Washington College of Education in Ellensburg and her M.A. and Doctor of Education degrees at the University of Washington in Seattle. In addition she has taught alternate grades, second through eighth, in several Washington cities. In 1951 she taught at the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma. Dr. Maib came to the University of Idaho in the fall of 1951 and has been teaching here ever since. Dr. Maib's interests include reading, teaching an adult Bible class, and caring for a Pekingese dog of which she is very fond.

College of Education

Mike Bosse and Gene Harris perform an experiment in psychology lab with the memory drum. The subject memorizes lists of nonsense words while his partner records the speed and accuracy of his performance.

As a part of the curriculum of the College of Education, Dianne Green receives first-hand teaching experience in the Moscow elementary schools.

Students in this women's physical education class are instructed in the fundamentals and techniques of dancing and rhythmic expression.

The College of Engineering offers a wide range of study for those interested in the practical and economic application of science. Its outstanding faculty endeavors to educate students to promote the improvement of industry and commerce and the utilization of forces and materials of nature. Courses of study are pursued in six departments: agricultural engineering, chemical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, and metallurgy, mechanical engineering, and electrical engineering.

Pat Eller cuts a 2-inch piece of steel pipe with an oxy-acetylene cutting torch in engineering lab.

Dr. Robert R. Furgason received his B.S. and his M.S. degrees in Chemical Engineering from the University of Idaho and his doctorate degree from Northwestern University.

He joined the staff in 1957 as an instructor and is now an Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Chemical Engineering. His research interests include heat transfer in chemical reacting systems, photometric property measurements, utilization and disposal of potato waste products, and automatic control applications. He is the author of a number of papers on the above subjects and is completing work under a $10,000 National Science Foundation grant. Dr. Furgason also holds membership in several professional and honorary societies. In addition, he is a person of varied interests; he is an enthusiastic skier, has a private pilot's license, and enjoys bird hunting, fishing, and boating. He is the alumni advisor for the Kappa Sigma fraternity, faculty advisor of the Vandal Flying Club, and past faculty advisor of Sigma Tau.

College of Forestry

Earnest Wohletz
Dean
College of Forestry

The College of Forestry offers curricula in forest, range, and game management and in wood utilization. Wood products of all types, abundant wildlife and game fishes, and nurseries supplement classroom and laboratory instruction in students' training.

Xi Sigma Pi

On the basis of high scholastic achievement, these students were chosen for the national forestry honorary, Xi Sigma Pi. By featuring guest speakers at meetings, Xi Sigma Pi strives to promote interest in professional fields among its members.

Row One: Mike Wright, Dean Johnson, Gil Lanco, Ed Golding, Larry Drew, Keith Johnson, Earl Hutchison, Donald Alexander, James Gosz, Ed Schlatterer, Russell Moore, John Howe. Row Two: James Villcitis, Loring Jones, A. D. Hofstrand, Gerald Perez, Patrick Costales, Paul Gravelle, David Van Lear. Row Three: Craig MacPhee, George Ames, Louis Kuennen, R. H. Seale, Jess Daniels, Merrill Deters, Allan Kyle, Marvin Queen, William Parr, Duane Andrews, Gary Evans, James Kasper, John Mooney.

Frederick Duane Johnson represents the College of Forestry as its outstanding teacher for this year. Professor Johnson received his B.A. from North Park College in Chicago. In addition, he has a B.S. in Botany from Oregon State College.

In this wood technology class, students study woody-plant anatomy, identification of woods, and the physical properties and commercial uses of woods.

College of Letters and

Established in 1900, the College of Letters and Science provides opportunities for a liberal education as well as for specialization in many areas. The academic departments of the college include Art and Architecture, Biological Sciences, Communications, Home Economics, Humanities, Mathematics, Music, Physical Sciences, and Social Sciences. In addition, the College offers an Honors Program to superior students to provide more advanced and individual training.

Dr. Boyd A. Martin
Dean
College of Letters and Science

Mrs. Virginia S. Wall, instructor in language for the College of Letters and Science, was selected as the outstanding teacher of her college. Mrs. Wall has an excellent background in French, having received her B.A. from Sarah Lawrence College in Bronxville, New York, and her M.A.T. at Harvard Graduate School of Education. Mrs. Wall came to the U. of I. in September 1963. In addition to her scholastic interests, Mrs. Wall enjoys camping, fishing, hunting, and hiking in her leisure time.

The Home Management House is one of the newest additions to the University campus. Here, girls majoring in Home Economics spend nine weeks during their senior year learning and practicing the useful arts of better living.

Students obtain a knowledge of earth sciences, geological processes, and interpretation of geological data in the geology lab.

The College of Mines, created in 1917, offers a curriculum leading to degrees in Mining, Metallurgical, and Geological Engineering and, also, in Geology and Geography. The ideal location of this college permits field observation, which supplements the work of the classroom and laboratory. The Idaho Bureau of Mines and Geology, which has its headquarters and research facilities at the University of Idaho, works with the College of Mines.

Mr. Spear attended the University of Utah where he received his B.S. degree with honors, and later his Ph.D. in Metallurgy. He has received several honors and scholarships among which is the U. of U.'s scholarship from the American Society of Metals. In addition, he has received fellowships for graduate study from the Atomic Energy Commission, the American Chemical Society, and the Petroleum Research Fund. He is a member of several professional societies, including Sigma Xi and Theta Tau, The American Society for Metals, and the Electrochemical Society.

Adult Education and Summer School

The Division of Adult Education and Summer School, consisting of several departments, co-ordinates and directs the non-agricultural extension services and summer school activities of the University.

A complete summer school program held in Moscow each year draws students from many parts of the world, while smaller programs are conducted in Coeur d'Alene and Boise. Correspondence courses in 38 subject matter areas are offered. The fully-staffed central placement service assists students, seniors, and graduates in securing career positions and part-time employment.

These departments work together to provide the people of the State of Idaho with continuous educational opportunities.

Adult Education

Dick Rush presents Lon Atchley the Theophilus Outstanding Senior Award.

CATHERINE JEAN CLINE
Elementary Education

Jean Cline stands before a map of the western states as she plans her coming travels as secretary for her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta. An elementary education major from Moscow, Jean has made a marked contribution in several areas. She served on Election Board and was a member of Vandalettes, Helldivers, and Spurs. She headed several ASUI committees including Parents' Day, Homecoming, Junior-Senior Prom and Loyalty Day. She was Panhellenic Rush Chairman and was elected president of Mortar Board. As a Gamma Phi frosh Jean was chosen pledge of the year, later serving the house as rush chairman and vice-president.

Distinguished Seniors

An active participant in agricultural organizations, Clen Atchley came to the U. of I. from Ashton, Idaho, with a major in plant science. He served as Agronomy Club president, was a member of the Ag Council and was tapped for membership in Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary, and Phi Sigma, biological science honorary, which he served as 1st and 2nd vice-president. Not limiting himself to the area of his major, Clen reorganized the Jazz in the Bucket Committee as its chairman and was selected Social Area Director of Activities Council. He was tapped for Intercollegiate Knights and Blue Key and was active in campus politics, serving CUP in many capacities.

CLEN PRESTON ATCHLEY
Plant Science

ROBERT ERNEST DUTTON
Psychology-English

A member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity from Mountain Home, Idaho, Bob was elected junior class president. He was tapped for Silver Lance, Phi Delta Kappa, education honorary, Blue Key, and Intercollegiate Knights. He served as an I.K. officer, president of the Student Idaho Educational Association, and secretary-treasurer of Blue Key. Bob plans to teach next fall, returning eventually to graduate school for a masters in counseling and guidance.

Distinguished Seniors

FRED FREEMAN
Journalism

Recipient of the Sigma Delta Chi award for the outstanding graduate in journalism, Fred Freeman was the first student in several years to serve as editor of The Idaho Argonaut for an entire academic year. A journalism and political science major from McCall, Idaho, he worked on the Argonaut staff for four years, as a reporter the first year, as assistant news editor during his sophomore year, as managing, news, and sports editors his junior year, and finally as editor, Jason number 76. In addition to his contribution to the Argonaut, Fred served as a house officer for Sigma Chi and was a member of the ASUI Educational Improvement Committee for three years. He was elected to membership in Blue Key, Silver Lance, and Sigma Delta Chi, journalism honorary. Fred served as president and secretary-treasurer of Sigma Delta Chi and held a regional office as well. Between his sophomore and junior years, Fred was a member of the Experiment in International Living exchange group to the United Kingdom.

DONALD DUANE GOFFINET
Political Science

MARY ELIZABETH
BJUSTROM
Mathematics

Mary Bjustrom, a mathematics major from Lewiston, Idaho, managed to accrue a list of activities which belie the "scholarly" tone of her major. "BJ," as she is known on campus, served many U. of I. committees and was tapped for Spurs and Mortar Board. She also holds membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa. A member of Alpha Gamma Delta, Mary served the group three years as treasurer. Future plans include a teaching fellowship at the University of Wisconsin where she will work toward a masters in computer science.

Donald Duane Goffinet, or "Joe" as he is better known, has served the campus in a variety of capacities. He was chairman of the Off Campus Programs Committee, the Kiddies Christmas Party Committee and the Jr.-Sr. Prom Committee. He served as vice chairman of the Social Coordination Board and sub chairman of the Association of College Unions District XIV Convention as well as working on Frosh and Holly Week committees. Active in campus politics, he was elected 2nd vice-president, 1st vice-president, and then president of Campus Union Party. He was also a member of Helldivers. A resident of Upham Hall, he served the group as secretary, social chairman and activities chairman. He was tapped for membership in Iota Delta Pi, Blue Key and Silver Lance. Hailing from Orofino, Joe plans to enter the peace corps.

DIANNE GWEN GREEN
Elementary Education

A cum laude graduate in elementary education, Dianne (DG) Green amassed a varied record of service during her stay at the U. of I. She was Activities Council Recreation Area Director, editor of the AWS handbook, chairman of the Student Government Review and Revision Board, and a member of the presidential Ad Hoc Committee on Student Union management and structural change. She served as CUP president and was elected to ASUI Executive Board. She was the U. of I. regional board member for the Association of College Unions District XIV and served as second vice-president of the organization. Active in Vandaleers for three years, Dianne was tapped for Sigma Alpha Iota, women's music honorary. She was also selected for membership in Iota Delta Phi and Mortar Board. A member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Dianne spent her senior year as student assistant of Pine Hall. She plans to continue her studies next fall on a University of Minnesota fellowship in educational psychology.

Distinguished Seniors

JERRY ALFRED HOWARD
Agriculture

Jerry Howard, a plant science major from Pottlatch, Idaho, successfully combined leadership and scholarship during his undergraduate years at the University of Idaho. Jerry served as vice-president of the senior class, chancellor of Alpha Zeta, agriculture honorary, and president of the Agronomy Club. He was active in the Army ROTC program and was a member of the Association of the United States Army, an Army ROTC professional group. As a member of Farm House Fraternity Jerry served as pledge class president, scholarship chairman, and a delegate to the National Conclave in East Lansing, Michigan, and represented his living group in Interfraternity Council. He was a member of the varsity track team and an active member of the I Club. In 1965, Jerry represented the State of Idaho as an International Farm Youth Exchange student to Korea. Jerry was a member of Phi Sigma, Blue Key, Intercollegiate Knights, and Pi Omicron Sigma. Jerry is currently attending the University of Santa Clara where he is working toward a masters degree in business administration.

CARL DEAN JOHANNESSEN
Business

Carl Dean Johannesen, Emmett, Idaho, better known on campus as "Ingo," began his career of campus service early, serving as general co-chairman of Frosh Week and advancing to the 1963-64 E-Board and presidency of the senior class of '65. He also served as ASUI Public Relations Director. An active member of Campus Union Party, Carl was selected for membership in I.K.s, where he received the Holy Grail and was selected Knight of Knights and Outstanding Page. He was also tapped for Blue Key and Silver Lance. An outstanding Air Force ROTC student, Carl became a member of the Arnold Air Society and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

Distinguished Seniors

KENLON PORTER JOHNSON
Accounting

Ken Johnson, while maintaining a 3.5 GPA, has given generously of his time and talents to the University. He served as a member of the ASUI Executive Board and originated and served as the first chairman of the Student Entertainment Committee. He also was a member of the ASUI Budget Committee, Chairman of Holly Week and Frosh Week committees, and Homecoming Parade chairman for two years. He was tapped for Intercollegiate Knights, Blue Key, and the scholastic honorary, Phi Kappa Phi. A Phi Delta Theta from Idaho Falls, Ken was elected rush chairman, historian, and president of his fraternity. He was also a member of Interfraternity Council and served as the first chairman of Greek Week.

Distinguished Seniors

WILLIAM VERN McCANN
Business

A member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, this marketing major from Lewiston, Idaho, served his University in a variety of ways. Bill served as president of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho, a member of the ASUI Executive Board, and earlier, as freshman class president. He was a member of Intercollegiate Knights, Blue Key, Silver Lance, and Alpha Kappa Psi, a national business honorary. Bill was a regional chairman for the Association of Student Governments, a national association, and also for the Pacific Student Body President's Association. In his fraternity, he served a term as president, previously holding other smaller offices. Bill served on many ASUI committees including Student Faculty Committee, Calendar Committee, Student Union Board, Men's Disciplinary Board, Educational Improvement Committee, Performing Arts Center Committee, and the Ad Hoc Review Committee. Bill also served as the Master of Ceremonies for the 1965 Governor's Prayer Breakfast held in Boise. One of the greatest honors he received at the University was that of speaking at the inauguration of President Hartung. Bill plans to return to the U. of I. in the fall of 1966 to enter the College of Law.

MICHAEL GLENN MORFITT
Pre-Medical

Michael (Mick) Morfitt, a pre-med major from Wilder, Idaho, has been quite active on campus in fraternity affairs and student government. A member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, he served as secretary and president of the Interfraternity Council, president of the Junior I.F.C., and was named the Outstanding Greek Man of 1966. He was elected to the ASUI executive board, and served as general chairman of Parents' Weekend. He is a member of Silver Lance, Blue Key, Intercollegiate Knights, and Mu Epsilon Delta. He served as president of Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary, and of Pi Omicron Sigma, interfraternity honorary. Mick plans to return to the U. of I. next fall to begin work toward a law degree.

JUDITH MANVILLE
Political Science

A political science major with a real interest in her work, Judy Manville, Denver, Colorado, spent the summer of '65 in Washington, D.C. on the staff of Senator Len Jordan. Her campus activities included ASUI Executive Board, several ASUI committees, Young Republicans, and the vice-presidency and then presidency of Panhellenic. Living at Pi Beta Phi, she also found time to serve two years as Pom Pon girl and to participate in several U. of I. beauty contests, where she was selected I.K. Duchess and a Homecoming finalist. She was tapped for membership in Mortar Board and the scholastic honoraries Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Alpha Lambda Delta. Judy plans to continue next fall at the U. of I. toward a M.S. in political science and hopes eventually to teach in a junior college or do government research.

Distinguished Seniors

As a student from Twin Falls, Idaho, majoring in pre-med, Dave was active in many areas of campus life. He served as vice-president of the Associated Students, as a member of the ASUI Executive Board, as chairman of the ASUI Activities Council, as chairman of Election Board, and as Duke of Intercollegiate Knights. He was corresponding secretary of Blue Key, vice-president of the pre-med honorary, Mu Epsilon Delta, a member of Silver Lance and of Alpha Phi Omega. In addition, Dave served on various campus committees: Student Union Board, Educational Improvement Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee on Review of Student Union Organization, and freshman, sophomore, and junior extended boards. As a sophomore, Dave received the Outstanding I.K. Page award and the I.K. Holy Grail. His junior year he was awarded an Executive Board Merit Citation and as a senior a Distinguished Service award. As a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, he served as vice-president, secretary, scholarship chairman, Interfraternity Council representative, and pledge class vice-president.

DAVID ALBERT McCLUSKY
Pre-Medical

PAULA ELIZABETH SPENCE
French

A French major from Boise, Idaho, Paula served the campus first as secretary of the Associated Women Students and then as AWS president. As a sophomore she was elected president of Spurs and served the following year as a Junior Advisor. Her other activities include Helldivers, swimming honorary, Women's Disciplinary Committee, and the Student-Faculty Committee. Paula was also selected as Commander of Angel Flight. A member of Gamma Phi Beta, this active coed held house offices of secretary and standards chairman.

HAROLD DEAN SASAKI
Accounting

This accounting major has demonstrated his accounting ability by being elected treasurer of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity. He was also a member of Blue Key, Phi Eta Sigma, and Intercollegiate Knights. Within the ASUI Harold served as sophomore class vice-president, heading Holly Week activities, and worked on Activities Council as budget area director. In addition he was a member of the Accounting Club and the Vandal Flying Club and was recipient of the Blue Key scholarship and the Regents Endowment scholarship. Harold, a member of Phi Kappa Tau, served his fraternity as Northwest Domain 12 president. He was also the chief delegate to a national Phi Tau convention held at the University of Colorado. Harold came to the University from Weiser, Idaho, and plans to attend graduate school in business administration at Berkeley, California.

Distinguished Seniors

JANE ANNE WATTS
English

Jason number 77, Jane Watts of Moscow began work on The Idaho Argonaut as a reporter and worked her way from social editor, managing editor, news editor, and associate editor to the editorial position. Jane also served as chairman of the ASUI Calendar committee, as a member of Election Board and as a member of Activities Council Publicity Committee. An English major, she served as president of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary. Jane, a resident of Campbell Hall, plans either to teach or to turn to work in public relations.

RICHARD ARTHUR SLAUGHTER
Political Science

As a freshman from Kimberly, Idaho, Dick served on Election Board, on the Gem staff as sports editor, and in ASUI dramatics and intercollegiate debate. He was appointed chairman of the New Student Days Committee for two consecutive years and was elected president of Wesley Foundation, Methodist student group. Doing quite well scholastically, he was tapped for Phi Eta Sigma, Intercollegiate Knights, and Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary. Dick, a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, has received a fellowship to do graduate study at the School of International Studies at the University of Denver.

Distinguished Seniors

DIANE ELIZABETH WILLIAMS
French

A former resident of Forney Hall, Diane moved to the new Wallace Complex in 1963 and undertook the organization of the then fledgling Houston Hall. While serving as president of the new group, Diane was selected secretary of Residence Halls Association and chairman of Mosaic, residence hall honorary. She was later elected president of R.H.A. A French major from Lewiston, Idaho, Diane was secretary of Alpha Lambda Delta and later of Campus Union Party. She also served as co-chairman of a Holly Week committee and led several frosh-faculty discussions.

Senior Officers

The senior class was under the guidance of Penny Gale—Vice President, Betty Ann Bower—Secretary-Treasurer, and Bob Thiessen—President. The class project for the year was the establishment of the "Class of '66 Scholarship Fund."

The Yellow Violet

Oft, in the sunless April day,
Thy early smile has stayed my walk;
But midst the gorgeous blooms of May,
I passed thee on thy humble stalk.

So they, who climb to wealth, forget
The friends in darker fortunes tried.
I copied them—but I regret
That I have aped the ways of pride.

And when again the genial hour
Awakens the painted tribes of light,
I'll not o'erlook the modest flower
That makes the woods of April bright.

IK's—always willing to help

Students Are Here

The U. of I. campus came to life with a start this year as an unexpected influx of students sent officials scurrying for extra dormitory space. Space was found for all, with the Moscow Hotel housing a group of over 60 men. "Re-population" began September 12-13 as students arrived for sorority and fraternity rush. The Idaho Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights found themselves busy helping students move a never-ending stream of luggage into the proper living groups.

Spurs and IK's make arrival a friendly and much easier experience.

"We're here—now what do we do!"

Rush

The hustle-bustle of sorority rush week began September 12, with fraternity rush opening the following day. U. of I. Greek chapters unrolled the red carpet for the many rushees attending tours and parties.

The end of an action-packed week saw a record 185 women and 374 men welcomed to their "home away from home" at the U. of I.

Frosh Orientation

The Class of 1969 saw a round of library tours, conferences, dances, meetings, and leisurely get-acquainted gatherings during their first week at the University of Idaho. It seemed as though all campus thoughts and views were centered on new students as they took their first big step.

Farmhouse president, Bob Haynes, explains rules to some freshman boys.

Registration

Enrollment soared at the U. of I. as new and returning students brought fall registration figures to a record breaking 5,900. This sizable number of students stood in line, struggled through time schedules, and deposited money amidst all the confusion of IBM cards and section changes. The increased enrollment also created problems in classroom facilities and housing, with a new men's "dorm," The Moscow Hotel, holding the overflow.

The long process begins, as students line up in Memorial Gymnasium.

With all the standing in lines, soft floor mats are certainly welcomed.

Conventions

Various groups and state-wide organizations meet on the University of Idaho campus throughout the year. The University's facilities are open to them to ensure a pleasant and profitable stay.

Navy Ball

The crowning of 1965 Navy Color Girl, Ruth McCall, highlighted the Navy Ball held December 3, in the SUB Ballroom. The theme "Ebb Tide" was carried through with colorful decorations and special music provided by the 22-piece 13th Naval District Band. More than 200 couples and special guests attended the dance.

"Ooh, that tickles!" seems to be the thought of ASWSU prexy, Tim Bradbury, during the traditional feet-washing ceremony led by ASU president Bill McCann.

WSU Walk

Hearty Cougar fans tramped the familiar nine-mile road between the WSU and the U. of I. campus for the second year in a row. Arriving tired and hungry, they were greeted by U. of I. president Bill McCann, E-Board, and many Idaho students. The traditional feet-washing ceremony was led by McCann while WSU students were consoled with hot chocolate and donuts. Following the ceremony the Cougars were presented with the loser's traveling plaque and also with the "Butch Plaque" which the neighboring school had lost.

Hot chocolate and donuts make the 9-mile walk worthwhile for both Idaho and Washington students.

Homecoming

The crowning of Kathy Reay at the homecoming dance "Yankee Cotillion" climaxed a week filled with many events. A crowd of 12,500 witnessed the Vandals' 15-7 victory over Idaho State University which fulfilled the homecoming theme, "Idaho Civil War—History Repeats, North Defeats." A pajama parade by the freshman women; a rally complete with fireworks; house decorations; and dedication of the University Classroom Center were all part of the festive weekend. The large crowd attending the dance was entertained by the music of Steve Laughery and his "Many Sounds of Nine" orchestra.

Homecoming

Taking part in the dedication of the University Classroom Center were U.S. Representative Compton I. White, U.S. Senator Len B. Jordan, President Ernest W. Hartung, former University president D. R. Theophilus, Bill McCann, ASUI president, and Curtis T. Eaton, president of the Board of Regents.

The Wallace Complex decorations took the prize with the theme of the famous "Monitor-Merrimac battle of the Civil War."

The music of Steve Laughery and his "Many Sounds of Nine" entertained students and alums at the dance.

Lettermen Make a Hit

A concert by The Lettermen climaxed New Student's Weekend with a variety of songs sung to the accompaniment of the Wilson Brown Trio. A capacity audience was delighted with the casual humor and strong attractive voices of The Lettermen. Old and new songs, folk songs, and campus favorites were all performed in the unique Lettermen style.

Doctor Ernest Hartung, who holds a Bachelors degree from Dartmouth College and Masters and Doctorate degrees from Harvard University, is the second president since 1928 to be honored at a U. of I. presidential inauguration.

The U of I Inaugurates a New President

The twelfth president of the University of Idaho, Dr. Ernest W. Hartung, was officially inaugurated October 30, 1965, at ceremonies honoring him. Greetings were extended by: Governor Robert E. Smylie; English professor, William C. Banks; Idaho Alumni President, Mr. Charles Herndon; and ASUI President, William McCann. The new president was presented with a medal which symbolizes the three major Idaho industries—agriculture, mining and lumbering. The address by the new administrator emphasized the four-way partnership of the state, the students, the faculty, and the administration involved in keeping a university at its best.

Religion in Life emphasis this year was spread throughout the entire academic term with speakers and group sessions discussing pertinent topics. The meaning and relevance of religion were presented in a fresh and exciting way by Norman and Sandra Dietz, a man-and-wife team who performed on campus the week of March 21-25. The couple presented three short plays touching on such diverse subjects as equal rights, the desire to hide, and childbirth—all involving a religious aspect. In another performance the Dietzes gave a reading of "Deux Ex Machinist," did some short improvisations with drama students, and performed "The Last Word."

International Student Week

The first International Student Week at the University of Idaho was held very successfully April 22-24. Opening the week's activities was a bazaar displaying articles from many countries, followed throughout the week by various events including an international talent program, a mock U.N. session, a dance and a buffet banquet. The week's activities provided an excellent opportunity for getting to know students from other countries and to learn about talents and customs observed throughout the world.

Engineers' Ball

Engineers and their dates enjoy dancing at the annual Engineers' Ball. Exhibits of each branch of engineering were presented with the Civil Engineers taking the prize for the best display.

Foresters' Ball

Foresterettes provide entertainment for the many couples attending the annual Foresters' Ball. Pine trees and forestry displays carried through the rustic theme.

Muckers' Ball

"Games of chance" were a main attraction at the Muckers' Ball as these couples show. The evening of dancing and gambling was sponsored by the associated miners.

Block and Bridle

George Wells may be having a rough time managing the bronco at the Block and Bridle dance but Sherry Clark doesn't seem to mind. The Block and Bridle dance is sponsored by the Block and Bridle club, a group of animal husbandry majors.

Military Ball

"Stairway To The Stars" was the theme of the Military Ball held in the SUB Ballroom February 19. The crowning of the 1966 Queen, Carol Anderson, highlighted the evening. A large crowd danced to the music of the "Moonlighters" and viewed the exhibits of the Army, Navy, and Air Force departments.

The "Bloodiest Campus" Scores Again

A record total of 1000 pints of blood was donated by University students this year with many donations reserved for those in the armed services overseas. Living group competition winners for largest percentage turn out went to L.D.S., Ethel Steel, Phi Tau, and Tri Delta.

Donators receive a glass of juice and then are given the pint bottle which will later contain their blood donation.

"I guess this really isn't such a bad way to relax before my next class!"

Campus Chest

Campus Chest, under the direction of Terry Gough, sophomore class president, collected well over $3,000 for various charities this year. Karl Kleinkopf reigned as "Ugly Man 1966." The Theta's won the dance contest and successful house auctions were held. Living groups showed good participation in all activities of the week which made this year's Campus Chest one of the best yet!

It's Prom Night at the U of I!

Glenn Yarbrough highlighted Prom night this year with a concert presented prior to the dance. He sang some of his latest releases such as "Time to Move On" and "Baby the Rain Must Fall" plus old favorites. Also appearing was comedian, Don Sherman. The Stanyon Street Quartet provided the accompaniment for Yarbrough's "folk flavor." The theme for the Prom, which was held April 2, was Yarbrough's "Honey Wind Blows." Music for the many couples attending the dance was provided by the Moonlighters.

Entertainer, singer and adventurer, Glen Yarbrough provided pre-prom entertainment.

Big Entertainment

The largest audience ever seated in the Memorial Gymnasium (approximately 4300 people) attended the Bill Cosby show May 14. The entertainment began with music by the We Phi's, a University of Idaho group. Bill Cosby presented familiar cuts from his albums, signed many autographs, and was exuberantly applauded by a laughing crowd.

Bill Cosby, television and recording star, is a former Temple University football player. He has appeared in numerous night clubs during his show business career.

Campus Elections

Class, AWS, and ASUI elections highlighted the political area of campus life. Dick Rush was elected ASUI president for '66-'67 with Art Crane selected vice-president. Joe McCollum, Jim England, Gary Vest, Lois Grieve, Stan Smith, Mark Smith, Phil Peterson, Tom Shields, and Stewart Sprenger were chosen to serve on E-Board.

Students will remember some of the lively and original campaigns by the candidates. Here Mike Wetherell, presidential candidate, states his views on an election issue.

Mock Political Convention

Students from the various living groups gathered at the ICEP Mock Political Convention May 15 to represent Idaho counties in selecting candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. Candidates for first and second district representatives and for two U.S. senators were also nominated. Election candidates attending the convention spoke to their party members during party caucuses held prior to the convention. Keynote addresses were given by state Young Democrats and Young Republicans chairmen. After committee reports and the election of a chairman, actual nominations and voting were completed.

Blue Key Talent Show

The annual Blue Key Talent Show, held March 25 and mc'd by Mick Morfitt and Ken Johnson, proved to be a howling success. Various talents, ranging from baton twirling to Hawaiian dancing to gymnastics were presented. Bob Bushnell was the individual division winner, the We Phi's took the group trophy, and the Pi Phi's won the all-house act. Forney, Hays and Delta Gamma also participated in the house division.

Excitement soars as the winning turtle Chug-a-lug crosses the finish line.

The Phi Delta Theta Turtle Derby, held May 8 at Turtle Downs, captured the interest of the campus and visiting mothers with the race of some of the fastest turtles to be found. The Phi Deltas presented each women's residence with a turtle which was then trained and cared for by a "turtle trainer." The turtles were checked over several times during the week prior to the race and they were clocked as to distance and speed. Campus betting was held on the individual turtles with $700.00 being collected for the Crippled Childrens School in Jamestown, North Dakota. Campbell Hall's turtle, Chug-a-lug was chosen as the best-decorated turtle as well as being the over-all winner. The Alpha Chi cheering section was rewarded for its noise and enthusiasm in support of its turtle.

Graduation

Over 1200 graduates filed across the stage of Memorial Gymnasium Sunday morning, June 12, to receive Bachelors, Masters, and Doctorate degrees. In an unprecedented and much appreciated move the name of each graduate was called as he moved forward to accept his diploma, yet the proceedings were not lengthened. Ninety-two men were commissioned into United States Regular or Reserve Armed Forces, Citations of Merit Upon Retirement were presented to twenty-one faculty members, and three honorary degrees were awarded.

Graduation

Dr. Ernest W. Hartung, president of the University presented the main address, speaking on the topic "The Complete Man—1966." He discussed the educational capacities of individuals, stressing the continuing necessity of an open mind and an interest in learning. As he stated "You're not a human educational baggage car fully loaded. . . . You can be active in its (knowledge) pursuit, but remember you can never fully corner it." The ceremony closed with the Alma Mater "Here We Have Idaho" and the recessional.

Vandaleers

Vandaleer activities this year included tours, concerts, and performances at banquets. Northern Idaho enjoyed the music of the Vandaleers during their tour December 8, 9, 10. The annual Christmas concert was held December 12, with traditional seasonal music presented along with numbers from Bach, Ralph Vaughn Williams, and Vincent Perscheeti. The spring tour covered southern Idaho and included the numbers presented at the concert May 3. This concert was highlighted by a male chorus singing "Sea Shanty's" and the chorus and orchestra in selections from Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss.

University Singers present Schubert's "Little Mass in G" and several individual pieces for their fall concert

Mr. Norman Logan, popular director for University Singers, has held this position for nineteen years.

University Singers

University Singers, open to all interested University students, enjoyed a busy year. A fall concert featuring a mass, "The Sound of Music," and other selections was presented January 13. The spring concert, performed May 12, included several religious numbers, poems by Robert Frost, and a medley of popular songs by Vincent Youman. The group also performed at May Fete.

Mr. Logan rehearses with the tenors and basses in preparation for the spring concert.

University Bands

One of two complete University bands, the University Wind Ensemble, presented several concerts, took a week's tour through southern Idaho, and played at May Fete. The Concert Band, the larger of the two groups, presented concerts throughout the school year. Representatives from both bands were members of the Inauguration and Commencement Bands and the basketball Pep Band. All band personnel formed the Marching Band, which presented half-time entertainment at football games and helped cheer the team.

The Wind Ensemble poses after a concert. Row One: Betty Green, Kay Hostetler, Woody Bausch, Pat Merrill, Susan Norell, Mary Jane Horton. Row Two: Gary Clark, Dave Wells, Karol King, Bill Dugger, Gary Jackson, Tom Beck, George Dilley, Diane Stroschein, John Lind, Rodney Winther. Row Three: Mr. Warren Bellis—Director, Dale Sanders, Wanda Sorensen, Jerry Smith, Bruce Thomas, Larry Seale, Tom Parnell, Winston Cook. Row Four: Jeff Grimm, Fritz Sprute, Jerry Martin, Joanne Gunther, Jim Hunt, Leslie Snyder, Jim Detchman, Daryl Hatch, Gary Nyberg, Dale Bening. Row Five: Bill Kennedy, Alan Taylor, Mike Fuehrer, Stuart Smith, Garry Walker, Jim Rogers, Clive Chipman, Larry Ratts.

The University Marching Band traditionally plays "Go, Vandals" as they enter the field.

The University Stage Band entertains during Mother's Day Weekend as part of the TGIF entertainment.

Symphony orchestra members are: Violin I—G. Skramstad, N. Croot, P. McDowell, P. Jones, G. Silha, L. Lyon, A. Ankcorn, A. Westerland; Violin II—J. Satre, J. Napoli, A. Wells, D. Tucker, R. Bauer, M. University Symphony Orchestra

The University Orchestras enjoyed an active year under the direction of LeRoy Bauer. The complete orchestra presented fall, winter, and spring concerts and a senior soloist concert with all music department seniors presenting solos. The Little Symphony is a select group from the complete orchestra and is composed mainly of stringed instruments. This group presented one concert and toured southern Idaho with the band.

LeRoy Bauer, left, who acts as director for the Symphony Orchestras, often presents musical programs with other music faculty members.

Campus Contributions

Campus contributions appear in all activities of the University—ranging from portraits to king and queen contests. Much time, effort, and thought went into all phases of campus activity this year.

And what about this contribution! Dick Nelson and Judy Vincent smile after being chosen Mr. and Miss Legs of the Class of 1969.

Students and Moscow citizens attend an art auction held in the SUB lounge.

Campus Contributions

Students strive for a well-rounded education which includes a fair share of both academic and outside activities. They devote a great deal of work and effort to present programs at their best and to perfect their individual talents and techniques, thus adding to their own experience as well as to the cultural atmosphere of the campus.

Donna Meacham, accompanied by Jean Crowley, presents her senior vocal recital.

The Pi Phi and Delts hold rehearsal of the songs they will present in the Spur Song Fest, held annually during Mother's Day weekend.

Byron E. Eshelman, former chaplain at San Quentin prison and author of "Death Row Chaplain," spoke in Memorial Gymnasium, November 1, on the "Myth of the Law-Abiding Citizen."

A member of the West German Embassy in Washington D.C., Dr. Herbert Baron von Stackelberg, delivered a lecture, October 14, concerning Germany, German politics, and general world politics.

Psychology of advertising and the motivations of the mind which direct our society were the topics of Vance Packard who spoke to students and faculty, January 10. Packard is a well-known author of three best selling books on the American society and an expert in motivational research.

Karin Hurdstrom, world famed soprano, opened the 1965-1966 Moscow Community Concert series. A graduate of Moscow schools and the University of Idaho, Miss Hurdstrom now makes her home in Salzburg, Austria, from where she tours Europe as an opera and a concert artist.

Edward P. Morgan, news executive and commentator for the American Broadcasting Co, called the United States the "least informed nation in the world," and said that those in the communications field must try harder to know the whole story and relate it truthfully to the public. Morgan spoke on the "Crisis of Credibility of News," in a public events lecture, March 18.

Events

Noted director, actor, and writer, Philip Burton, spoke February 14, on the magic of poetry. He stated that poetry is the answer to the desire of man to talk about things which cannot be explained.

Frank Church, one of two lecturers to visit the campus this year under the sponsorship of the Borah Foundation, spoke to students and faculty October 21 in Memorial Gymnasium. Church, Idaho's senior senator, discussed the United Nations and its current strengths and weaknesses. "We should have emphasized that the United Nations was not in any sense a world government," he asserted, "and could not substitute for our own Armed Forces, nuclear deterrents and mutual assistance programs abroad." He also stated that though the United Nations has not performed its intended role as policeman for the victors, it has served as a mediator, helping to keep the cold war from becoming hot. The first Borah speaker of the year was British socioeconomicist Robert Theobald who discussed the current world situation.

Throughout the year speakers and performers visit the campus to discuss and inform the students of national and international affairs as well as to display talent which is seen on a nationwide level. Much is added to campus life and knowledge through these varied public events.

The American program of foreign aid was included in the topics discussed in "An African Looks at America" by public events speaker George Enninful. Being the first African United Nations journalist, Enninful has toured the United States since 1961 witnessing southern racial disputes and the 1964 political convention.

Miss Liane Dayde, one of the four stars of the Grand Ballet Classique de France, performed in the program presented the evening of November 10 in Memorial Gymnasium.

The box-social square dance provides a chance for the guests to "show their stuff."

"Oklahoma"

"Oklahoma," the first musical staged on the Idaho campus in five years, was performed before a sell-out crowd November 4, 5, 6, in the Administration Building Auditorium. "Oklahoma" shows the colorful life of Oklahoma and its early settlers. The well-known plot revolves about the duo romances of Curley and Laury, Will and Ado Annie. Special lighting, colorful costumes, and fine singing and dancing greatly added to the production.

Directors of the production were: Jean Colette, professor of dramatics; Charles Walton, music director; Fred Scheibe, choreographer; Leroy Bauer, orchestra director; and Edmund M. Chavez, designer and assistant professor of dramatics. The show, of near-professional caliber, received standing ovations for all three performances.

Top picture: In the peaceful woods, Laury (Dorothy Nueur) and companion spend a few moments in song.

Bottom picture: Expounding on the marvelous conveniences to be found in Kansas City, Will (Dave Knutson) amazes his friends with such news.

The wooing of Laury by Curley is hindered by Jud's (Fred Petrich's) attention to Laury, almost prompting a hanging. In Jud's shack, Curley (Steve Scott) suggests an effective method of suicide.

Robin Hood

The delightful ballad of Robin Hood was presented December 10 and 11 to an audience of both young and old. Sherwood Forest provided the setting for the perpetual battle between Robin Hood and the Sheriff of Nottingham. The sheriff is forced to make vows which are soon broken when Little John is captured and sentenced to hang. In a daring effort, Robin and his band save Little John and again put the wicked sheriff to shame.

In merchant disguise Robin is paraded around by his men after winning the tournament for the golden arrow.

Vyrl Alcorn as Robin, center, and Merry Men Charles Hinds, Wayne Marshall, Steve Fields and John McMahon prepare a letter telling the sheriff that Robin is the true winner of the tournament. Little John, Steve Fields, holds the arrow which will carry the message.

Market day has added excitement as plans are related for a forthcoming archery tournament.

The sheriff and his wife are startled as an arrow hits the table with a message stating that Robin Hood has won the golden arrow.

Madrigal singers help create the medieval mood before the play begins.

"Andorra"

Citizens of Andorra discuss the coming of a woman, supposedly a spy, from across the border.

"Andorra"—one of the more controversial stage hits of this decade was presented by the drama department, March 17, 18, 19 under the direction of Miss Jean Colette, drama professor. It is the story of a young boy wrongly identified as a Jew and thus persecuted by the well meaning but prejudiced residents of Andorra. This play by Max Frisch, one of the most distinguished dramatists writing for the German stage today, exposes modern man's subconscious prejudices in a purposeful plot involving believable people in a mythical land.

Vyrl Alcorn, a braggart soldier, beats Andri, played by John Daley, for his supposed Jewish affiliations.

Top: Andri asks his father, Walter Brennen, for his permission to marry Barblin, Vicki Haight. Julie Martineau, his mother, looks on.

Bottom: Kandy Kemp, the Senora from across the border, finds Andri after the beating.

"An Inspector Calls"

The spring drama production "An Inspector Calls" was presented May 3-8 in the U-hut Arena Theatre with the final production included in the Mother's Day activities. The 3-act play, written by John B. Priestley, portrayed an upper-class British family in 1912 which becomes emotionally involved in the death of a young working girl. The play skillfully showed the social mores of the period.

Inspector Goode (Walter Brennen) questions Sheila Birling (Joan Throop) concerning the death of the working girl.

Members of the Birling family, central characters of the play, are left to right: Judi Fisher and Joan Throop, Steve Scott, Mike Wetherell and John Breden.

The maid, Leslie Leek, introduces the inspector to Mr. Birling, Mike Wetheroll.

The Birling family toasts Sheila Birling and her fiancé, John Breden, center.

Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis, modern dance honoraries, promote modern dance on the University of Idaho campus. Freshmen are tapped annually for Pre-Orchesis and after their freshman year can be tapped for Orchesis. Two programs are presented during the year, showing the talent and ability of those active in the two organizations.

Folk dancing takes place at the spring Orchesis concert presented Mother's Day Weekend.

Pre-Orchesis members, Jane Wilson, Nancy Larson, Sue Dunlap, Kerstin Soderholm, Susan Reed, and Paula Dunlap practice for their fall program.

Helldivers

The University of Idaho Helldivers Swimming Club had an eventful year under the direction of Tom Kirkland, president; Phyllis Rathbun, vice president; and Miss Laura Tuttle, advisor. They spent many hours in practice for their annual Mother's Day show and enjoyed a picnic at the end of the year to round out the year's activities.

Row Four: Barry Barnes, Pat Bergman, Frank Burlison, Mike Malcom, Pam Ponozzo, Tom Kirkland, Kris Kirkland, Jerry Spencer.

Campus Contributions

Faculty and students contributed a great deal to Idaho campus life. Students' recitals, plays, and art exhibits all expanded the cultural outlook.

Rhys Cort, a graduate student in fine art, shows his painting entitled "Wheat," which received the Grand Prize from the Moscow Fine Arts Association.

Russell Crockett pauses between numbers in his graduate recital

It's Vandal Country!

Vandals Claim Big Sky All-Sports Title

For the first time in the history of the University of Idaho, the Vandals won the All-Sports Big Sky Title. This all came about with powerful Gunderic-Gizeric gridironers, a nationally ranked basketball team by points, a great baseball team, a championship tennis team, sound competition in track, and a well-rounded minor sports division. The Vandals edged their nearest rival, Montana, by just four points. YEP, IT'S VANDAL COUNTRY!

Coach Steve Musseau's Vandals opened the 1965 gridiron season in Seattle, losing 14-9 to the University of Washington Huskies. The Vandals battled hard through the first three quarters to hold a 9-7 lead only to have the Huskies pull out a win with a last-quarter touchdown. Despite the opening loss, the Vandals displayed themselves well by gaining more yardage than the Huskies both on the ground and in the air.

The Idaho Vandals came up with their second win of the season by defeating the W.S.U. Cougars 17-13. Idaho's "Gizeric's" made the difference with alert defense. By capitalizing a W.S.U. fumble, the Vandals ended the first half with a field goal booted by Darrell Danielson. Fumbles plagued both teams. Early in the third quarter the Vandals got their first touchdown of the day as John Foruria rolled out a keeper and romped the 12 yards to pay-dirt. Jerry Cambell kicked the extra point. In the fourth quarter W.S.U. took advantage of an Idaho fumble and scored, making 10-7. The Vandals took the kickoff and pushed 63 yards in 13 plays to score. final effort came on an 8-yard run by Pat Daily; Campbell again kicked the point. With another Idaho fumble, the Cougars got their second touchdown game, making the score 17-13.

Oregon State 16

A field goal was the deciding factor, and the Idaho Vandals were handed their third loss of the gridiron season by the Oregon State University Beavers. The Vandals scored their first touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Ray McDonald; Jerry Campbell kicked the extra point. Later in the second quarter, the Beavers scored a questionable T.D. against a great goal line stand by the Gizerics. The try for extra point was successful, tying the score 7-7. Just before the end of the half, O.S.U. booted a 36 yard field goal, closing the first half with a 10-7 lead. In the third quarter Idaho took advantage of an Oregon State fumble to set up their second and final touchdown of the day. Joe Rodriguez marched the Gunderics from his own 30 yard line to the 6 yard line, then carried the ball in himself. Campbell kicked the extra point. The Beavers then drove in for a second touchdown. The try for extra point failed, making the score 16-14 Oregon State.

Through the teamwork of Joe Dobson and Ray McDonald, the Idaho Vandals tromped the Montana Grizzlies 35-7. Idaho scored first on a 41-yard field goal, booted by Darrell Danielson after a Gunderics' drive was cut short by a penalty. In the second quarter Idaho's big tackle Joe Dobson lead the blocking and McDonald ran 13 yards for Idaho's first touchdown of the day. The Gizerics then got in the act when Byron Strickland snagged a Montana bomb and trotted 40 yards for another Vandal T.D. By halftime McDonald had scored again on a one yard plunge and the Vandals led 22-0. The third quarter brought another touchdown, with the Dobson-McDonald team. The fourth quarter saw McDonald gallop 58 yards to his final T.D. of the day and his longest run of his collegiate career. Montana finally got on the scoreboard when McDonald fumbled the ball on his own 5 yard line, and it bounced into the end zone. Montana's Doug McDonald pounced on it, making the final score 35-7.

The Vandals were plagued with fumbles and injuries and were downed by Weber State 14-7. The first quarter was scoreless; but in the second, Idaho began to drive and scored their one and only touchdown on a pitchout from Rodriguez to McDonald. Jerry Campbell kicked the extra point. Weber State then got into the act and scored on a quarterback sneak. At halftime the score stood 7-7. During the third quarter, both quarterback Joe Rodriguez and deepback Ray McDonald were injured. McDonald did get back into the game but was used only as a decoy. Fumbles stopped the Vandals during the remainder of the game. Weber State scored their second touchdown on a 7-yard end sweep. The attempt for the extra point was good, making the final score 14-7.

It took the Idaho Vandals three quarters, but they finally came through with a come-from-behind Homecoming victory. Idaho State scored their lone touchdown with a 3-yard pass in the second quarter and held the Vandals to a 7-0 halftime score. Throughout the third quarter it was a seesaw battle with neither side being able to capitalize on the other's mistakes. Finally, in the fourth quarter the Vandals came to life. Idaho's first T.D. came when Ray McDonald plunged into the end zone. Rodriguez rolled out on a keeper and ran the ball over for the 2-point conversion, giving the Vandals an 8-7 lead. Idaho finished it when Rodriguez rolled to his left and pitched to McDonald, who ran 66 yards to wrap up a 15-7 victory for the Vandals.

Montana State - - - - 0

Idaho ended its football season on a good note by stomping the Montana State University Bobcats 54-0. The day was right for the slaughter, too, with heavy rain, mud, and cold. The Vandals scored 27 points in the first quarter. The first touchdown came when Tim Lavens ran over left end and into the end zone on an 8-yard run. Jerry Campbell booted the extra point. The Bobcats then fumbled on their own 15 yard line and Idaho took advantage of it. Joe Rodriguez ran the final 3 yards for the Vandals' second touchdown of the day. Again, Campbell put the pigskin through the uprights for the extra point. Another Montana State fumble and "Big" Ray made the first of his three first-half touchdowns. By halftime the score stood 34-0. The second half was much the same as the first with Idaho scoring 20 more points, bringing the final score to 54-0.

Cross-Country Team Wins Big Sky Crown

Although the Idaho cross-country team dropped every one of their dual meets, they staged an upset and won the Big Sky Championship. Coach Doug MacFarland was named Big Sky Cross-County Coach of the year. In the final standings of the championship meet, Idaho had four men in the top twelve: Ted Quirk, fourth; Mike Anderson, sixth; Rod Winther, eighth; and Ken Hann, twelfth.

4 VANDALS QUALIFY FOR NCAA MEET

The Idaho Ski Team began its season soon after school started with workouts and soccer games. The first meet, U. of W. the host, (Vandals placed third) was well remembered as our cross-country team was pushed off a bridge into a creek during the race. The NCAA Qualifying Meet was sponsored by the Idaho team with the help of McCall-area Vandal Boosters and Brundage Mountain. The Vandals placed second with Jon Seetin, Ole Bergset, Bjorn Juvet, and Mike Rowles eligible for the NCAA Championships. The Vandal team finished the season in the best form of the year, winning first in the alpine and second in the nordic events at the Big Sky Ski Championships in Bozeman, Montana.

The Run-'N'-Shoot Vandals

Coach Jim Goddard and his Vandals fought to a 12-14 record this year. Jerry Skaife, team captain, became the new all-time leading scorer with 17.1, sixth on the total scorers list, and fifth for field goals. Ed Haskins matched the one-game field goal record of 16, captured the one-game free throw mark, and had a game average of 11. John Rucker was the Vandals' leading rebounder with 246. Rod Bohman posted a season field goal average of .530. Three Idaho cagers were named to the Big Sky Conference teams: Jerry Skaife, John Rucker, and Bob Pipkin.

Season's Record

This season the University of Idaho Vandal basketball team fought to a record of 12-14, the best in three years. The Vandal cagers placed second in two tournaments, the K of C Tourney and the Lobo Tourney. Six Vandals averaged over ten points per game: Jerry Skaife with 18.4; Bob Pipkin with 16.9; John Rucker, 13; Dave Schlotthauer, 13.3; Ed Haskins, 12.1; and Rod Bohman, 11.6. Three cagers were named to the Big Sky All-Conference Team; Jerry Skaife was placed as a first-team guard and both John Rucker and Bob Pipkin were given honorable mentions. In the rebound department, John Rucker led the field with 264.

Big Sky Conference

The Vandals' Big Sky record for the 1965-66 season was 2-8. Many of these games were squeakers. Idaho's biggest problem came in controlling the boards, while their greatest defense was the run-and-shoot method. Idaho won the King Spud Trophy by defeating Idaho State two out of three times.

Baseball

The Idaho Vandals had their most successful season in the history of baseball at Idaho. They finished the season with a record of 34-9, the title of Big Sky Champions, and the glory of District Seven NCAA Runners-up. Coach Wayne Anderson was named Big Sky Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons. And to top it off, 13 Vandals were named to at least one All-Star, All-Conference, or All-Tournament team during the season.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

The University of Idaho is unique in the fact that it offers its students many opportunities that are not readily available at most universities. One of these opportunities is that of allowing its students to participate in many of the decision-making processes that mean so much to the operation of our school. This process is known as student government. Student government gives every student the opportunity to broaden his education and to better prepare himself for the paths of life that lie ahead. Whether a student is an active participant or not, he has in some way during his time at the University benefited from some of its functions. It may be anything from attending an athletic event that students helped schedule, to attending a performance of a big name entertainer, to filling out a class evaluation form; he can not escape the range of student government's activities.

Let all of us remember that a University's value is measured in part by the accomplishments of the alumni. It is because of the loyalty and ambition of our alumni that the University has achieved its present standards. As each of us goes out into the world, let us not forget the spark that kindled the flame of our success, our Alma Mater, the University of Idaho.

William Vern McCann, Jr.
A.S.U.I. President
1965-1966

Executive Board

This year's Executive Board was one to initiate new projects and ideas. The main topic of the year was the Student Government Review and Revision Board Report. Board members did detailed research on the current ASUI structure and problems in its efficiency. They also came up with some proposals concerning necessary changes to improve communications and to delineate the lines of authority. Some other changes suggested from this report included the separation of the executive-legislative branch of the government from the stronger judicial system. The off-campus housing situation was an issue of importance this year also. Work was started with city officials on the adoption of city ordinances governing minimum health and safety standards. The formation of an inspection board is in the offing. Under the direction of the Education Improvement Committee, the ground work was done for both teacher and course evaluation next year.

The Board held a luncheon for high school student body presidents before the Boise game. This was followed by discussion groups and an informal orientation session on the University of Idaho and the ASUI. They also met with the Moscow Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups on behalf of the students.

The 1965-66 ASUI Executive Board was one of both accomplishment and service to the University of Idaho and the state.

The University of Idaho's newspaper, The Idaho Argonaut, underwent changes this year which will help improve future publications. Under the direction of Jane Watts, first-semester Jason, and Leo Jeffres, second-semester Jason, the Arg printed more pages in its issues twice a week to cover campus activities. The editorial page was emphasized and many new issues were discussed: off-campus housing, junior and senior keys, teacher evaluation sheets, the SCRUB Report (Student Government Review and Revision Board), and demonstrations on Viet Nam. The Mother's Day and "Oklahoma" issues featured color pictures. The Arg received an All-American rating from the Associated Collegiate Press, placing it in the top 10 or 15 per cent of their class.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same:

.....

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you,
But none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Wallace

Several Wallace coeds add the final touches to the Complex's prize-winning Homecoming decoration.

What—no occupants?!

A group of coeds and guests are served in one of the Complex's several dining rooms.

The Wallace Complex, composed of Campbell, Carter, and Houston Halls for women and Borah, Graham, Lindley, and Snow Halls for men, currently houses 784 U. of I. students. The completion of fourth wing, now under construction, will add three halls and 336 students to this total. The complex also includes a large kitchen, several dining halls and lounges, and the offices of student and family housing.

The Lindley Hall bowling champs pose with their trophy.

LDS House

It was an enjoyable year for the men of LDS House despite the setback which occurred when a fire swept one of the buildings occupied by the group . . . members were active in intramurals . . . and several were selected for the Dean's Lists of their respective colleges. A fall dance and a spring formal completed the year for the LDS men.

It was a booming year off-campus. TMA members worked on the off-campus housing board . . . were active in ICEP mock political convention . . . participated in intramurals . . . "Woof" represented us on Executive Board . . . registration functions were a success . . . a good year for the over 100 members of TMA.

Editors' Thank You

As we finish the 1966 GEM OF THE MOUNTAINS, we think back over the past year; and a quote by Gale Mix comes to mind, "God Bless America. It's hard to believe." Sometimes the completion of our goal looked doubtful; most times we were confident.

It's been a great year filled with hard work, joy, fun, and at times—frustration. This GEM is truly a staff production, and many thanks go to the students involved. The group's cooperation and unity were greatly appreciated.

Special thanks go to:

Our staff heads—Janice, Kathy, Lyn, June, Jane, Ruth Ann, Eva, and Linda.

The Photo Center and our photographer, Arden Literal.

Gale Mix, our ever-cheerful ASUI General Manager.

Jim Gipson of Caxtons.

Publications staff, Frank McCreary and Leo Ames.

Ethel Steel girls for their patience in answering the phone and running errands.

Dorothy's Fabric Shop for the still-life backdrop.

And the members of the student body for their cooperation.

Best of luck goes to:

Jane Miesbach and June Lay for next year's book.
