The Salt Works at Salton have begun operations again.

The steamer Keweenaw, 154 days from New York, has reached San Diego.

The Portland Smelting Works are to be run to their full capacity.

Sacramento's freeholders to form a charter have organized for work.

A most important find has been made in the Old Abe gold mine at White Oaks, N. M.

California will have 460,000 tons of wheat for export between now and the first of next June.

The closing of the Candler mines has considerably affected traffic on the Carson and Colorado roads.

So far $8,300 have been paid out as two weeks wages in an effort to raise the steamship San Pedro, on the rocks off Victoria, B. C.

A new evening paper is contemplated for Virginia City, "to be run independent of the mining companies and in the interest of the stockholders."

The violators of the game law in Oregon are many, and an association has been organized at Portland which offers a reward of $25 for the arrest and conviction of each offender.

The celebrated mining suit of Gilpin vs. The Sierra Nevada Company, has ended in favor of the defendants at Boise City, Idaho. Gilpin, by an injunction, has kept the mine closed three years.

Harry Gathall, a well-known saloon proprietor of Astoria, is under arrest for running away with his sister-in-law's diamonds and jewelry and a negotiable note for $500. He was caught in Portland.

The chapel car Evangel is traveling through the Northwest in the service of Gospel Army. It has been turned over to the American Baptist Sunday School Association, under whose charge it will be while on this coast.

The newspapers and people of What-com county are strongly advocating the construction of new and improvement of existing highways into the regions surrounding cities and towns. Mass meetings have been held in different places and the County Commissioners have been fully advised of the desires of the people.

The first full cargo of American tin ever produced from an American tin mine was received at San Diego last week from the Temescal mines. The shipment consisted of 420 pigs, or 36, 800 pounds. The output of the Temes-cal mines is being rapidly increased, and American tin will be regularly put on market in car load lots.

Mrs. Delaguerra, the widow of Don Pablo Delaguerra, who was a prominent character in the early history of California, is suing for the plaza on which the city hall of Santa Barbara now stands, a valuable piece of property in the center of the business portion, claiming the land by virtue of a grant made by the Ayuntamiento of the town in the 40's, and confirmed in 1851 by the City Council.

Whistling Dick is respected at Truckee as the luckiest man who ever entered the town. He has been shot at nine times by men who meant business, and has escaped the slightest injury. The other day he got in a dispute with a bartender, and was ordered to leave the house. Dick refused, and called the bartender a bad name. The latter pulled his revolver and fired at Dick point blank. Although hardly six feet separated the men, the bullet struck the door three inches from Dick's body.
Dick turned and walked out of the door.

All the compositors on the Oakland Times went out on a strike the other night. They state that about three weeks ago the proprietor of the paper left notes on the cases of several printers, saying that their services were no longer desired and warning them not to come around the office again. The men walked out quietly. A committee had an ineffective conference with the Times manager afterwards. It is understood that the printers asked for reinstatement of the discharged men and the manager refused.

Officers are in search of John Sargent, a well-known business man of Tolt. He is wanted for deceiving a young girl named Ferguson several months ago.
He proposed to the girl, was accepted and she believed she was married to him. He gave her what purported to be a marriage certificate, which she still has in her keeping. A few days ago he left home, and while away he wrote a letter to the girl. She noticed the similarity of handwriting in the letter to that on the marriage certificate. She became apprehensive and had the matter investigated. It was shown that no marriage license had ever been issued for the couple, and the certificate was forged for the purpose of deceiving the girl. She swore out a warrant for his arrest but he took alarm and evaded the Constable of Tolt by escaping through a rear window of his residence, and he

To Purchase the Collection of "Historical Information Concerning the Western Half of America."

The office of Assistant Chief of the Weather bureau has been filled by the appointment by Secretary Rusk of S. S.
Rockwood, Chief Clerk of the Department of Agriculture. Henry Casson, Private Secretary to Secretary Rusk, was appointed Chief Clerk.

The President has issued an order for the removal of Samuel D. Warmcastle, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, and designating Deputy Collector Mitchell to perform his duties temporarily. Warmcastle is charged with neglect of duty.

Senator Frye has introduced a bill appropriating $500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to purchase the collection of "Historical Information Concerning the Western Half of America," consisting of books, pamphlets, maps, manuscripts, etc., about 10,000 in number, and known as the Bancroft Library, and situated on Valencia street, San Francisco.

Senator Hansbrough has introduced a bill in the Senate authorizing the Postmaster-General to extend, when practicable, the free delivery system to the rural and farming districts. The bill authorizes the Postmaster-General to expand such portion of the amount that may hereafter be appropriated for the compensation of postmasters and for the Star Route transportation as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the act.

Representative Wilson says he feels perfectly assured of getting through one public building for Washington. Representative Sweet, of Idaho, who is on the committee, says that he observes that the Washington Senators have introduced bills for four cities and that he does not think more than one will pass.
In that event he naturally feels interested in Spokane, as it is the city nearest his home, and one which his people would naturally expect him to favor.

The Treasury Department has received applications of late from bankers who wished to have the 4% per cent.
bonds continued at 2 per cent. for the purpose of increasing their basis of circulation. The applications have all been refused, as Secretary Foster holds that to permit it after his circular, naming the date when such 4% could be presented for continuance, would not be just. In effect, it would be to revive dead bonds, as under the law the 4% per cent. bonds do not now bear interest, and cannot, therefore, be used as a basis of bank circulation.

The Postoffice Department has commenced to issue at the larger postoffices the two new series of postal cards. The small card is the same width as the present one, but about one-third of an inch shorter, and is of much finer quality than the old card, and of a light gray color, very strong and hard to tear.
The large card is an inch longer and about three-fourths of an inch wider than the present one. It is of commercial yellow color and of excellent quality. The stamp on these cards is the portrait of General Grant.

Texas learning has been made the target for many a shaft, yet the State has a school fund of $100,000,000.

In Ecuador and several other South American nations, primary education, at least, is compulsory.

The University of Michigan had last year 168 more students than Harvard University. This year Harvard has 118 more than Michigan.

Washington, Kas., is to have a Quaker college. When $25,000 shall have been raised a start will be made on the foundation.

At Harvard 210 courses are offered in the liberal arts and sciences. It would take a student forty years to pursue all these courses.

Mrs. M. H. Hotchkiss of Lakeville, Conn., has given seventy-five acres of land and $275,000 to found a preparatory school for Yale College.

That is a pleasant innovation of the trustees of Columbia College whereby the public is to be allowed to attend many of the courses of lectures.

Prussia.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Coal Palace to Be Erected—Estimated That the Fair Will Cost
All of $31,000,000.

It has been figured out that the World's Fair will cost $31,000,000.

Ludwig Wieler, a member of the Lower House, has been appointed Commissioner of the Chicago World's Fair by the Cape Colony.

Scranton, Pa., coal operators are going to build a Palace at the World's Fair out of anthracite coal.

The Pennsylvania display at the Chicago exposition will cost $200,000. The State appropriated $300,000.

The Latin-American department of the World's Columbian Exposition has received information at Washington that the Republic of Columbia has issued a decree appointing a commission to take special charge of its display at Chicago. The members are all well-known, influential persons. Carlos Martinez, the president, and the other members are Vincent Restero, Gonzales Ruse, Nicholas E. J. Faza, Carlos Calderon and A. Decumuil.

The special High Commissioner of the Chinese Empire has arrived at New York from France. He is Chu Yow
Sing, atache of the Legation in Paris, and comes by direct appointment of the Peking Government to investigate the question of the Chinese exhibition at the World's Fair. To a World reporter Chu Yow Sing said it was his first visit to this country. "I do not know the intentions of the Chinese Government," he said, "concerning the exhibit at the World's Fair. I understand the Government declined to exhibit, but my instructions are to make searching inquiry into the conduct and probabilities of the exposition. I suppose the Government's decision would be influenced by my report. I want to see what preparations have been made, and above all, to try to learn just what interest the American people take in the fair. If China makes any exhibit I think it will be a creditable one."

Scarcely anything has yet been done toward securing an adequate representation of Austro-Hungary at the Chicago World's Fair, says a Vienna dispatch. The Reichsrath has voted 65,000 florins, but the people at large seem apathetic on the subject. Delegates representing the Vienna Chamber of Commerce, the Industrial Association, the Export Society, the Arts and Craft Society, the Museum of Triple Arts and the Merchants' Syndicate, have had a conference, at which the subject of the amount to be appropriated by the government for the Austro-Hungary exhibit was discussed. Herr Hardt announced that the government would ask the Reichsrath for an additional 85,000 florins, but the delegates were unanimous in declaring that at least 300,000 would be required. Very strong doubt was expressed of the Reichsrath's listening to the suggestion of so large an amount. A commission will probably be appointed early in January to take charge of the Austro-Hungarian section of the fair. It is expected that the post of President will be offered to the Austrian Consul-General in New York, Herr Faltschek.

AMMONIANTS IN BAKING POW- DER.

Ammonia and Alum Are the Principal Adulterants Used.

To prove the presence of ammonia in a baking powder, a very simple, but quite satisfactory test may be made by anyone over his own cooking-stove.
Take a tablespoonful of the powder to be tested and dissolve it in a tablespoonful of water, place the solution over the fire and stir it while heating.
Then introduce your nose into the cup.
The resemblance to a bottle of aqua ammonia will, in many instances, be very impressive. To detect the presence of alum would require a more critical analysis.

Probably the most nearly perfect baking powder would be that composed of pure cream of tartar, bicarbonate of soda and starch. The starch is a food, the other two ingredients when united chemically in the dough, would liberate carbonic acid gas and leave no objectionable residue.

We might appropriately introduce here some remarks on dyspepsia and outline what, in our opinion, constitutes one of its prominent causes.

The extensive hold which disorders of the stomach have secured upon the people of America has become proverbial; so much so, that dyspepsia has been designated by some as the American Disease. It may be met with all over our great country, in almost every household, and is becoming more prevalent day by day. It is a disease of civilization, and largely of modern civilization.

The etiological factors which might enter into a treatise on the subject are numerous, but the actual effects of many of them are indefinite. No one, in fact, has yet satisfactorily accounted for the great prevalence of dyspepsia in America.

But while numerically these causes may be great, it is at the same time true, that those exerting any significant influence are comparatively few. Without attempting to mention them all, there is one particularly which has been slowly, insidiously, yet none the less dangerously, exerting its influence, and to which the attention of the medical profession has not yet been carefully drawn. We refer to the constant introduction through the food, into the stomach, of ammonia.

If any one will take the pains to study the modern history of dyspepsia, he will soon discover that its march of progress has been contemporaneous with the introduction and use of baking powders. The consumption of this article has become enormous. No pantry to-day is without it. Not every brand however is impure. There are one or two worthy exceptions, but many of them are contaminated, and the most deleterious substance to be found in any is ammonia.

This ammonia introduced into the dough is not all set free by heating.
According to Prof. Hilgard, University of California, "The ammonia may not assume the gaseous state further than does the water itself, of which it slightly lowers the boiling point; when present in large proportion, the ammonia gas itself will aid in the inflation of the dough. A biscuit hastily baked may have lost only from ten to twenty per cent. of the total amount introduced into the baking powder. After cooling, the carbonic gas contained in the bread cells gradually diffuses and is replaced by air in the course of time, while the ammonia remains in absorption or solution in the water of the bread, recombined into carbonate."

So much for the presence of ammonia in some of the popular brands of baking powders now on the market, and for its retention in the bread. Now, what are some of its effects? Bartholow, classing it among the agents that increase waste, says: "The long-continued use of ammonia impairs digestion by neutralizing the gastric juice. Increased waste of tissue is also one result of its administration, manifested by pallor, emaciation and feebleness. When introduced into the blood in sufficient quantity, it damages the structure of the red blood globules, and in this way also effects the nutrition of the body, besides the action which it has in common with the other articles, of increasing the rate of waste or retrograde metamorphosis." This

The President's list of farm animals considered from the local returns of January indicate an increase of each kind from 2 to 4 per cent of sheep, swine and horses; 1 per cent, in cattle.

The Secretary of the Interior has appointed A. G. Connor, appointment commissioner for the Territory of Nevada, Evans, discharging office, to examine into the condition of the work of the central office and to ascertain the views of the local inspectors on the Foreman tract, it is understood, will be compelled to vacate it.

The House Committee on the Election of President and Vice-President and Representatives further discussed the resolution to prohibit the election of Senators by a direct vote of the people. The committee is in favor of the resolution and is seriously looking forward to preparing its report, as it is its desire that it shall meet the general approval of the House.

The Commercial Exchange of Kansas City objects to the grain inspection bill, as it is a factory bill built at Anderson, Ind., to employ 1,000 hands and to employ 1,000 hands and to employ 1,000 hands.

Philadelphia's death rate is slowly decreasing, but it still remains one of the highest in the world. The University of Michigan is to have a school of music. Sufficient subscriptions have been made to secure it.

There are at present maintained in Michigan 1,229 public schools, which employ 10,000 teachers. The Ohio Legislature is struggling with a bill providing for a two-cent railroad fare for the poor.

FOOLED BY MOSBY. The Confederate Guerilla Got the Federal Password and a Raid. "The man with the coolest nerve I ever met," said Colonel A. E. Seifer, who was in a reminiscent mood.

There were about three hundred of them in the morning, and in the afternoon they were only two. I was walking my post almost on the double quick, trying to keep warm, when I heard a troop of cavalry coming down the Warren road as a quick trot.

THE RECORDER. PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT GENEESE, IDAHO. C. M. POOR, Editor and Proprietor. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, One copy one year, $2.00. One copy six months, $1.00. THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1892.

The civil marriage of Miss Mattie Mitchell, daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, and the duke de Rocheffoucauld was celebrated in Paris on Feb. 10, 1892, and witnessed by a large gathering of American and French officials.

C. C. Carpenter, chairman of the board of county commissioners, has issued a call for a special meeting of the board for next Monday, for the purpose of filling the vacancy in the office of clerk of the district court and ex-officio auditor and recorder of Latah county, caused by the recent death of W. B. Kille.

Some merchants send east for their printing. They order in 5,000 or 10,000 lots. Sometimes they run short and then come to the home printing office and order 150 or 200 impressions and expect to get them at the 10,000 ratio. The local printer can not do it, and is at once dubbed exorbitant in price. It looks as though business men would know better than this, but many of them either don't or don't want to.—Ez.

The date of the June meeting of the Latah county Agricultural Fair Association has been set. It will commence on Tuesday, June 21st, and continue until Friday, June 24th. These dates will bring the meeting in the direct northwest circuit, and will make it convenient for all horsemen who are campaigning the circuit to attend.

This meeting, on account of the amounts of the purses offered, aggregating $4,200, is attracting a great deal of attention, and is reported frequently in the leading newspapers of the northwest, as well as all sporting papers of the east.

Moscow will derive a great benefit from it, not only as there will probably be a very large body of outsiders here, but also as the advertising that the city is given in the newspapers of the country.

Let the Good Work go on. Editor Recorder.—The letter in your last issue from Mr. T. E. Miller has the right ring. To feel that the interests of country and town folks are one will be to the interest of both. The town of Genesee has grown up because the country has demanded it and since it is largely dependent upon the farmers for its support, it is theirs to make it what they will. Thrice-welcome then this voice of a farmer, declaring for no Sunday business, save that of absolute necessity. If it could be made to appear that the majority of the farmers held the same sentiment, Sunday business would be banished to the same limbo which now shields the town cow.

One thing is certain, the merchants and clerks do not labor seven days in the week for mere love of work. Six days would satisfy them. They realize that one day of rest to six days of labor is the right proportion from a mere physical standpoint and to that to trespass on the seventh is to do a wrong to themselves. They would like a release on Sunday from business to enjoy the day with their families, to take a look at their books and papers and to occupy their peace in the public worship of God from which business has long been keeping them.

The majority of the merchants too are perfectly willing to pledge themselves to close, but not all of them; and so long as these exceptions exist the reform cannot come by this voluntary agreement. What we need then is an ordinance on the subject which shall make it unlawful for the doors, front or back, of our stores to be thrown open on Sunday for business as it is now for the streets to be thrown open any day and the cows turned loose upon the streets. Surely the farmer's boys and girls, which he may bring to town, (as well as those in town), are of as much importance as the straw and grain which may lie in the bottom of his wagon. Let us show them all that we do believe in keeping Sunday. A few more "Good Suggestions" like that of Mr. Miller will surely have a good effect in convincing our worthy town fathers (1) that we are not in danger of losing our farmers trade by omitting to do six days and (2) that it is time to move in this matter.

Truly Yours, E. L. S.

LOCAL CLIPPINGS. (Please Give.) The near approach of the Great Northern railway to Spokane has stirred up a great deal of interest among Palouseites, who are anxiously waiting for a third transcontinental railroad to help carry away the products of their farms. The most interest is centered on speculation concerning the route of that railway through Whitman. A delegation of Colfax citizens went to Spokane a few days ago to confer with president Hill on the subject, but he informed them that he would be ready to recede their proposition within two or three years after the completion of his main line, not before. It is the general impression that the Great Northern company has funds enough to construct and equip the trunk line first of all and that branches are to be provided from the earnings of the road. Everything considered, there doesn't seem to be much prospect of securing the Great Northern in the Palouse before 1894.

Mrs. Susan Boone McMahon, who died at her home near Guy, recently, was born in Harrison county, Ind., April 11, 1818, and was a direct descendant of the noteworthy Daniel Boone of Kentucky. In 1838 she was married to Richard McMahon. Eleven years later she crossed the plains with her husband to Oregon, and settled in Polk county. She removed to Whitman county in 1872, where she resided until her death. Her husband, two sons and one daughter survive her. She has been a faithful member of the Christian church since 1847.

The examination of witnesses in the Manning trial will be concluded tomorrow, and the jury will be argued Monday and will go to the jury Monday evening.

Too Much to Eat. A Victoria, B. C., Chinaman recently married "a Melian woman." But he soon wanted a divorce. In his plea he complains that she has "too much talk with neighbors, too much plat face and eye-brows, too much Yulepan blandly, too much fight, too much snore, too much boss, too much clean, too much say killian husband, and too much no good." But the court held the Chinaman to his contract.

Pronounced Hopeless, yet Saved. From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Ford, of Groton, S. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my angel ones alone. LOCAL CLIPPINGS. (Please Give.) Uncle Dave Gorman brought to our office last Sunday a twig from a plum tree twelve inches long that had grown this season. There is no question about the climatic condition here. All kinds of fruit grow in the valley while the snow is a foot deep in the adjacent hills.

Spokane Review. Colfax, Wash., Feb. 26.—[Special.]—J. E. Neesly, editor of the Alliance Advocate at Oakesdale, brought suit to-day against the Palouse Gazette Publishing Company for $10,000 damages. Three weeks ago there appeared an editorial in the Gazette which accused the Advocate of making a proposal to the chairman of the republican state committee that if he would furnish a certain amount of money the Advocate would swing into the line for the republican party. The proposition was refused by the chairman, and the same proposition was made to the democratic chairman and was accepted. This article Mr. Neesly claims has injured him to the extent of $10,000.

The Genesee Hardware & Merchandise company have awarded the contract for preparing plans for their $20,000 2-story brick building as soon as the weather will permit, and on Tuesday they installed the mill; having sunk it to the depth of 40 feet. There is now over thirty feet of good water in the well.

Levis, Hannah and Bueler, of Moscow have been engaged by the city council, to establish the street grade of Genesee. They commenced work the latter part of last week. The grade, when established, will be about three feet above the sidewalk on the south side of Walnut street, and in front of the postoffice building.

We are informed that the water in the Potlatch creek covers the rail track does not run any farther than that place, and that the mill is taken out to Julianna on a hand car. A little more rain in the water, will be apt to flood the town of Kendrick, so says our informant.

A carpenter named Woodbury while scuffling in the brewery saloon Sunday night, was broken and next day was made a county charge, having no money to support himself. This man, meeting in some barnyard saloon, was taken to the Genesee jail summer and was considered a very good carpenter.

THE RECORDER, PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT GENESSEE, IDAHO. C. M. POOR, Editor and Proprietor. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, One copy one year, $2.00 One copy six months, $1.00 THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1892.

LOCAL CLIPPINGS. (Lewiston Teller.) George E. Erb has opened his saloon near Genessee and opened another in Tammany this week. George is a live, wild awake young man, that, judging from his energy and grit, will come to the front rapidly.

It is too muddy to plow in Tammany a thing that has not happened now these five years. It will take two railroads to carry off the present year's grain crop. The Odd Fellows, instead of putting up a two story frame building—as was first intended—have concluded to build a two story brick and the contract for the same will soon be let.

The spring time is almost here and the streets and alleys should receive the attention of the city authorities, as also should the back yards receive the owner's first attention. As a preventative of disease the cleanliness of the streets, alleys, back yards and outhouses is of the utmost importance. People are apt to put this matter off too long, or until they have more time, or the mud is all dried-up. This is wrong, as every day's delay will be the means of deteriorating from the general health of the town. The streets should be cleaned, and especially the carcasses of the dead dogs and cats found in the alleys and under the sidewalks should be removed. The time to clean-up is now, delays are dangerous, an epidemic of fever is not a pleasant thing to contemplate. If there is not some move made ere long, it will not be surprising to here of more than one case of sickness from malaria.

COMMUNICATED. GENESSEE, March 5.—[Ed. Recorder.]—Kind words are the forerunners of good. Where is there a man that does not like to see a clean, well-kept garden, flourishing with profit and pleasure? Where is there a man or woman that does not like to step into a well and neatly-arranged room, clean, tasteful and home-like? Where is the man that does not judge a family by their surroundings, or the worth of the citizens from the appearance of the city, and if we wish to be respected it is not becoming to respect ourselves first?

But in keeping a clean garden, no man is so foolish as to hang up his hose and say, "Oh well I won't bother with two or three thistles, they will not injure the crop much." No, he will take more pains to prevent his garden from becoming seeded with foul weeds than that, and in removing the hurtful plant he will take much pains to prevent injury to the useful ones, into whose roots the bad plant has already become entangled.

What housewife will take a left club and bang things right and left to destroy the ingrate that has crept into her premises to confuse her order, or destroy her comfort, now by destroying good work. Now friends, it is not my aim to destroy, not even the friendship of a good dog, much less to merit the hatred of a bad one. My aim and desire is to counsel to improvement, encourage order, dispel indifference, create a love for the good, the true and the beautiful, until kindness and fellowfeeling shall grow into love to God, to fellowmen and to our little lovely Genessee; and while this is my aim, I find, to my sorrow, that some obnoxious weeds must be pulled and pulled carefully and thoroughly, weeds that have long been passed by and have become entangled with some valuable plants. If the housewife and the mother finds that a few great spiders are creeping into the family, do not take a club to settle their destructive tendencies with, but take justice, commonsense and love.

Then, as the council must be the faithful gardener of the city, looking to the interests of all inhabitants, like a parent to his family, I believe it would be wise for the fathers to take proper steps to weed out those great disorders, of breaking the Sabbath, and housing and protecting shame, before the people living around us are forced to go to the humiliating act of petitioning. Short weights, bad measure, high prices and musty flour will by no means, hurt our people and drive them elsewhere as the poisoning of our young men and children will. Yours Truly, CHAS. W. DEBOE.

passing through Palouse City. Oscar Travis is foreman, with fifteen men under his charge. It is expected that the boom will be in full force within two weeks. Codd Bros. will begin their drive next week. Each firm is making its own drive, the arrangements for a double boom having been broken. There will be 6,000,000 feet of logs in both booms.

(Moscow Mirror.) Taylor & Lander are burning a large kiln of brick. This is the first kiln burned in Idaho, or eastern Washington in 1892 and is a large one. This firm is the best equipped and most experienced brick makers in the northwest and are making it a big success. The farmers at Cornwell have organized for the purpose of building a warehouse at Joel. Already the necessary stock has been subscribed and the building will be commenced at an early day.

The Moscow Fair Association will hold one day's racing, free for all in the 2:30 class on May 30. A suitable purse will be hung in the race. The racing will probably be interesting as there will be a large number of horses present to participate. The track will be kept in its former splendid shape, and there will be a large number of horses in training during the season.

(Asotin Sentinel.) The citizens in sections of this county cannot understand why the hordes of Indians are left to roam at will in their neighborhood. They assert they actually believe there were more of this worthless element in Asotin county this winter than were on the reservation where the Indians properly belong. The white settlers received orders to quit the reservation and has been made to take his stock off, still the Indian is left to wander about with his whole herd of ponies, destroying the winter range that would otherwise be reserved for the hundreds of cattle and horses belonging to the people that support this county.

(Palouse Gazette.) Mr. G. E. Potter, of the firm of Potter & Condit sold his farm of 160 acres on American Ridge, to Chas. B. Kyle, of Vollmer, the consideration being $4,000. Mr. Potter purchased the Barnett property upon which the Kendrick hotel stands for $3,000.

The sale has been consummated of W. E. Slaes's interest in the Kendrick Roller Mill. Mr. M. S. Freeman is the purchaser. The new firm will be known as Wallace & Freeman and the standard quality of flour will be maintained.

It makes the devil mad for his children to find out that they look like their father.—Ram's Horn. Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used electric bitters sing the song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed that it is claimed. LOCAL BRIEVITIES. Read the business locals. Streets drying off very fast the past few days. Old papers for sale, 50 cents per hundred at this office. What has become of the Genessee Fair Association? Read the new ad of the S. & P. saloon, elsewhere in this issue. The city marshal should remember that the cow ordinance took effect March 1, 1892, and govern himself accordingly. Married.—Near Colfax, Wash., March 6, 1892, E. K. Howard and Cora, both of this city, by Rev. W. H. Hollister, to Miss Hespia Bean, of Whitman county, Wash. Johnny Stainton of the Lewiston-Moscow stock line reports a great improvement in the road between here and Moscow the past week. W. A. DeBoe the past week purchased a five-acre tract of land from Judge Back of the Farmers' Alliance elevator and intends to build thereon in the near future. The county commissioners, at their special meeting on Monday last, appointed E. C. Cone auditor and recorder, and the unexpired term of W. B. Kile, deceased. Survivors have been busy the past week laying off an addition to the west end of E. C. Cone and adding a room to the addition. Lots in this addition are to be 50x140 feet with streets 50 feet wide. Attention. Co. L.—All members of company L are invited to meet at Elletts hall for monthly drill, March 12, at 7 o'clock. By order of company commander, A. A. HAYMOND, Capt. Several farmers in the eastern part of the valley commenced plowing Monday last. Judging from what the farmers say there will be a large yield of grain this year, as the soil was never in a better condition. G. N. Hollister, the past week, sold his 240 acre farm, two miles east of town to Chris. Baldus, of Wallace for the sum of $8,500. Mr. Baldus will move onto his farm and make his home there in the future. We have been asked to correct an error, made by Whistler, of the Kim Rock, in our last issue, in the matter of the marriage of Miss Akin to Mr. Godfrey, as our correspondent was mistaken. We gladly correct the error. Considerable complaint is heard about the poor light furnished by the electric light plant. Citizens must remember that the plant is new, just a month or two and then want to complain. It does better, as yet they are green in the business. Our town council at its meeting last Monday evening appointed a committee to see to the planting of trees in our public park and to see that they are properly protected. This is a step in the right direction. This is the best seed time. As we sow so shall we reap. Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Idaho Mining, Agricultural and Stock Journal published at Boise City, Idaho, is on our table, it is a 8-page, scintillating weekly published by T. M. Smith. A stock journal is something that Idaho is in need of and we predict for the Journal a prosperous future. Mr. Patrick Kinner, purchased three resident lots in West addition last Wednesday. As our facilities for schools and churches increases the demand for houses in this vicinity look to Genessee for winter homes. While we do not expect to have a boom, real estate in town is changing hands frequently at a good profit. On Tuesday forenoon last the youngest son of J. C. Hanson, who lives about two miles east of town, accidentally shot the fleshy part of his right hand off while playing with a cartridge. Dr. Williams was called and dressed the wounded hand and the young man is now doing as well as could be expected. The Recorder office has been moved from its old stand in the rear of Krum & Scroggie's hardware store to the lot just west of the artesian well, so we ask you to pardon all mistakes and give us credit for the poor excuse offered this week. In the future we will be pleased to see you in our new quarters. We learn that on Monday last, at about 10 o'clock in the morning, the dwelling house on what is known as the DeWitt Ranch, near Lewiston, and occupied by Messrs. Billow and Kilmelhart, took fire in the roof and burned to the ground with all its contents. The men, Volmer and his wife, were away at the time and were busy washing outside. When the fire was discovered by the women it had gained such headway that they could do nothing, and nearly everything was burned, except the clothes they had on.

PERSONALS. D. Spurlin and wife, who have been spending the past two months in California, for the benefit of Mrs. Spurlin's health, returned home last Thursday evening. R. S. Woodley, of this valley, who has been in Yolo county, Cal., for the past few months, returned home the early part of last week. Rev. E. L. Smith, of the Congregational church, is absent this week at Paluata City, on business and will not return in Genessee until next Sunday. The pulpit will be filled by Rev. Walters who has been at the Congregational church here, during the past winter.

THE RECORDER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT GENESSEE, IDAHO. O. M. POOR, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One copy one year, $2.00 One copy six months, $1.00

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1902.

Great is the American heart. Ship number two has sailed for Russia with a full cargo of provisions for the starving citizens of that country.

At a meeting of the regents of the Idaho university held in Boise City, Feb. 26, it was determined to establish agricultural experiments stations at Idaho Falls, Grangeville and Nampa.

The withdrawal of Mr. Blaine as a presidential candidate, or rather his announcement that he will in no event be a candidate for president, has left the field open to new aspirants.

The Dakota and Minnesota experienced one of their old-time blizzards during the week. The mercury fell fifty degrees in a few hours and in some instances dropped out of the bottom of the tube.

The Supreme Court holds a session in Lewiston, beginning on the 21st inst. It is wondered by many whether or not the court will have a session in Idaho.

The boy in Kansas who read the following "Essay on Pants" was suspended from the public school: "Pants are made for men and not for women."

The Swisher Rain Company "will make the small rain to descend upon Adams county and likewise the great rain to descend upon the mountains."

The town of Genessee has been excluded from society, and the citizens feel proud that they have been another step toward civilization.

Mr. J. R. Baker, who lives a few miles northeast of Moscow, was seen yesterday and reported that his fifty acre field of winter wheat had been totally ruined by the ravages of wire worms.

The potato farmers are busy preparing to raise another big crop. The earth is well and with moisture and if mother earth makes good her usual promise the farming community of that vicinity will be looser instead of borrowers.

Harry Dowd has returned from the Salmon river country and reports that snow is most all gone and the cattle on the range are doing well.

Bert Riggs, formerly a citizen of Lewiston, but who has resided in California for the past two years, returned to this place last Wednesday and will remain permanently.

Miss Mattie Wiggins' school in the Hatwai district, will close on Friday of this week. This is Miss Mattie's first attempt at teaching, but from all reports she has given the best of satisfaction both to her scholars and patrons of the school.

The I. O. O. F. lodge has decided upon a brick building and have the contract for the same with Harry Madgwick for $9,000. The building as now planned will be two stories with a seven foot basement.

Poison in the Kitchen.

No article entering so generally into the food of every household is so generally and villainously adulterated as baking powder. These adulterated powders are shoved upon the public with the greatest persistency.

Amid all this fraud and deceit Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder stands almost alone battling for pure food and continues to furnish a pure cream of tartar powder at almost the same cost to the people as the ammonia and alum powders are sold at, yet it costs much more to manufacture.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is of the highest strength. It produces the largest amount of leavening power obtainable in a pure baking powder. It is free from ammonia or any other adulteration. No powder does such work so wisely who have tested all use Dr. Prices only.

Some day it will come to be understood that regarding a woody irritability of the lungs, a cough which may or may not be attended with temporary hoarseness, is with some temperance, the sure result of long continued and incessant irritation.

Every few days the crime columns of the newspapers contain accounts of persons going from such a cough, a revolver or knife seems more tormentor to his account, and the real victim goes to prison for life or is hanged.

It's a cruel, cowardly instinct which prompts a combination against one who is guilty of a crime. It is generally in the case of a man who is not responsible for his action. He needs imprisonment under conditions which will change his nature and teach him wisdom and self control.

A little more of the milk of human kindness and a little more of self control and the millions of hours of human torture, would save many a man from injury and death, and many another from a prison cell or the gallows.

Before the cause of consumption was known (that was only a few years ago) we did not know how Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil did so much good in consumption and in the conditions that lead to consumption.

The explanation is interesting. We send it free in a book on CAREFUL LIVING.

THE LIME KILN CLUB.

Brother Gardner explains himself and the lime kiln club. When the meeting had been called to order Brother Gardner arose and said: "The lime kiln club, which was organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the lime kiln industry in this county, has the honor to announce that it has been organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the lime kiln industry in this county."

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1902.
The supreme court, on the 6th inst., decided that ex-Governor Thayer could not file a reply to Governor Boyd. This disposes of the case.

W. S. Mack, late warden of the Idaho penitentiary, is $550 short in his accounts. His bondsmen are uneasy and are insisting that a settlement be made.

Geo. Miller, the man who killed Landlord Kraus at Okaderade, appeared before Justice Patton on the 7th inst. for a preliminary examination and was bound over without bail to the action of the superior court. Miller did not deny killing Kraus, nor did he make any excuse for the cold-blooded murder, other than that the landlord would not pay for some beef, delivered by Miller.

Judge Milton Kelly, an old-timer of Boise City, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Joseph Perrault, early last Saturday morning. He was born in New York in 1818 and came to California in 1861, and to Boise in 1868. In 1865 he was appointed one of the associate justices of the supreme court by President Lincoln. In 1872 he purchased the Idaho Statesman and continued to publish that paper until 1887. About a year ago he had a paralytic stroke which left both his body and mind in a feeble condition. Since then he has been an invalid. He took to his bed only a few days ago and died Saturday morning. Judge Kelly was among the strong and able men of Idaho. He had a wide grasp of all public questions and his pen was vigorous in the defense of all that was just and honorable.

Every week we are in receipt of letters of inquiry regarding the resources of this portion of the Palouse country. We can but reiterate what we have before said in the Recorder, that the resources of the Genesee valley and a vast country are unlimited. There is a vast field for a man with capital to operate any one of a great number of manufacturing industries here in Genesee. Among which we will mention the manufacture of lined oil, paper and starch, in fact there are but few articles that can be manufactured from the product of the farm, but what can be manufactured here at a large profit to the manufacturer, as all these articles are shipped to this country from the east at great expense. There is no more eligible point in Idaho for all these and other industries than Genesee. With the advent of a starch factory would come a home market for the thousands of tons of potatoes, raised in this valley and sold at a very small margin to commission merchants in Spokane and other cities. A paper factory could be supplied with tons of straw, for the manufacture of paper, that is each fall either burnt or left on the ground to rot, and with a mill for the manufacture of lined oil here at home would save many dollars in the way of freight on the raw material, to the farmer. These and other commodities could be manufactured here at a less cost than be shipped here from other points and at a good profit to the manufacturer.

Branch Line to Lewiston.
A special to the Spokesman dated Lewiston April 5 says:—Considerable interest is taken here in the plan proposed by the Pullman people to induce the Union Pacific railroad to build a line from this point to Uniontown, thence to Pullman through Palouse via Viola, and on to a junction with their present system at Gardiner. It is thought that the people of Uniontown, Pullman and Palouse will heartily co-operate with the business men of this city in securing the above desired line.

If the Union Pacific can be induced to take hold of this project the Northern will be forced to extend to Lewiston.

The only difficulty in the way of building the proposed line will be to find a feasible route from Lewiston to Uniontown. The engineers of the Spokane & Palouse road spent considerable time trying to locate such a route and failed. Parties well acquainted with the locality, however, state positively that there is one canyon through which a much better grade could be secured than the Union has into Colfax.
The people of Palouse and Pullman are preparing for a conference at which the matter will be fully discussed.

LOCAL CLIPPINGS.
[Moscow News.]
"Over $400 is cash was subscribed by Moscow merchants recently to help defray the cost of building a road from the Boulder creek mining camp to Vollmer. The entire cost of building will amount to nearly $300. Work on the road will commence immediately. The news will be received by the miners at Boulder creek with considerable pleasure.

[Lewiston Teller.]
Men who are considered to be experts have examined the buds of the many different kinds of the more tender fruits raised here, and declare that they are not damaged in the least, and that we may reasonably expect a fruit yield as large as that of last year or even larger.

On April 26th the I. O. O. F. lodge of this city will render the usual ceremonies in the laying of the corner stone of their new lodge building. That occasion celebrates not only the 11th anniversary of their organization, but the 75th anniversary of the order as well. It is understood that quite extensive and imposing ceremonies will be observed on the occasion.

The glorious rainfall of the past week is a source of comment and pleasure. The amount of moisture now exceeds anything known in this section for years. From present indications the coming crop will exceed that of the past few years by a half million of bushels. For the first time in years the farmers are stopped from work on account of the rain and mud. The land is thoroughly soaked and with only the average supply during the summer months, the surrounding country will yield the largest crop ever known in its history. The hills and range everywhere are springing up in grass and summer grazing will be excellent. The stockman and farmer may well rejoice at the prospects of the coming season.

Specimens Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Casco, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite was lost, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spoker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Several local items crowded out this week.
Old papers for sale, 50 cents per hundred at this office.

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday. To-morrow April 15, will be Good Friday. City council met Tuesday evening and canvassed the vote of the late city election.

A. N. Hill, yesterday commenced the erection of a residence on the lots recently secured from the Methodist church. The dining room of the Owen house has been re-papered and otherwise brightened up and it now presents a beautiful appearance.

School commenced in the Daggett Miss Cain, recently from the east, as teacher.

A heavy frost covered the ground Tuesday morning and leaves are entertained for the fruit crop on the Snake river and parts of this county.

Miss Minta Metrew, a teacher in the Genesee public school last term, has accepted a like position at the Genesee school in the Jain district last Monday morning.

Seven head of blooded race horses have arrived at the track in this city, the past week, for training purposes. About 20 head more are expected as soon as the stalls can be fitted up for them.

Nagel & Bunker, Genesee's butchers, the past week brought ten head of the finest best cattle ever sold in this market, from Hank Tremble, of Lewiston, the average weight of the cattle was 1,350 pounds.

Dr. Williams reports that a baby girl was born to the wife of Mr. Magie, living east of town, last Saturday morning and in the afternoon of the same day a girl was born to the wife of Mr. McLaughlin, of this city.

Allison Bros., butchers of Spokane who have a contract for furnishing beef to the Great Northern railroad purchased a car load of best cattle from Hank Tremble, of Lewiston, the past week and shipped the same to Spokane yesterday.

Services will be held in the Elliot hall next Sunday, morning at 10 o'clock, for the usual hours. Morning service will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Harris, the service in the evening will be by Rev. J. M. Burger. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The trustees of the Methodist church have traded their lot west of Mr. Harris' residence on which they intended to build a new church building to A. N. Hill, for the lots formerly owned by Dr. Williams and will build the new church on the Dr. Williams' lots.

Last Monday quite a number of residents of this valley attended the sale of school land in Moscow. We understand that the school section northeast of town was purchased by residents of this valley and that the major part of it will be broken this spring.

The latest addition to the way of decoration in the military department of J. P. Vollmer's store here, is a ship suspended over the counter in front part of the store made entirely of ribbons and other material in the military department, by Geo. Hobson, one of the ablest and most interesting appearance to one entering the store.

W. A. Craig, living on the reservation southeast of town reports that he has completed his spring work, with the exception of the breaking of 40 acres, and that he will have nearly 300 acres to harvest this fall. With the present favorable weather the yield of this valley will be larger than at any previous time, and with the increased number of acres in cultivation, Genesee will be able to ship several thousand more bushels of grain this fall than last.

The Messrs. Free brothers, who have been at work boring for artesian water in this place, for the past six months, and who have had a great deal of luck in the way of getting the drills fastened in the hole, and which are now fast at the bottom of the well, have moved their drills, which they extricate in the usual way, to the well here and as soon as the boring tools arrive these gentlemen will return and resume work.

PERSONALS.
J. W. Hopp, of the Sunnas, Wash, News, was visiting in Genesee Thursday and Friday last. Mr. Hopp is a newspaper man of several years' experience and has been visiting through the Palouse country looking for a suitable location for a newspaper.

Chas. Sampson, left for Portland, Oregon, on Monday morning's train to be gone two or three weeks.

City Clerk Mark Pickering was in Moscow attending the sale of school land last Monday. He reports a large attendance at the sale.

While on his way to Lewiston Tuesday W. H. Thomas met with what might be termed a "lucky accident," while driving over the new road between here and the town of Viola, one of the horses led by the driver stepped in a squirrel hole and fell across the tongue of the buggy breaking it and throwing Mr. Thomas and his buggy. Otherwise there was no damage done.

Butter Milk Hollow.
April 10, 1902.
We understand that Robert and W. W. Gray, J. H. H. and others, who are known as the Butter Milk Hollow, are taking up the sale of school land in Moscow, and the intention of buying the same is to make a large tract of land, on account of too much rain.

The suit between Mr. Williams and Mr. Williams ended in a victory for the latter.

At a private meeting the other night it was resolved that Joe ought to get married and that it is Berke's solemn duty to get him so. That will ought to cross the Clearwater officer if he wants to win. That old hatercher has a hard row to hoe. He will have to get a good woman to beget him. That a good woman is a human being. That a good woman is a human being. That a good woman is a human being.

Indications are that Cleveland is away in the lead of the procession of democratic candidates for the presidential nomination.

The Union Pacific company has put in a dried fruit rate from Snake river points to Spokane. The new rate is 41 cents per 100 on carload lots, and 75 cents for less than carload lots. A reduction in rate on ripe fruits will probably be made also.—Spokesman.

William Kilde, a well-to-do farmer, was dragged last Saturday night at Moscow, and robbed of $500. Mr. Kilde sold his flax, receiving in payment some $1,200. He paid off a note of $500 and a few small bills, leaving a balance of about $600. Sunday morning he was found in the gutter without a cent on his person. The police are foretelling out the matter and are trying to find the robbers, but so far they have been unsuccessful.

The telegraphic news from South Dakota, Missouri, Mississippi and Iowa, reports that great damage was done by a heavy rain storm last Thursday and Friday. At Charleston, Mo., a large amount of stock perished and much damage was done to growing crops. At Jackson, Miss., 250 negroes are said to have drowned in the flooded district and over 3,000 families made homeless.

Winter Wheat Crop.
Tokelo, April 16.—During the past four days a Boston firm has received two thousand reports from grain dealers in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and Missouri, which raise two-thirds of the winter wheat crop in the United States.

The reports show that the present prospects are for the average crop. Michigan reports the best prospects being above the average, while Indiana and Illinois show nearly equal. Ohio promises to be below the average as are also Kansas and Missouri.

LOCAL CLIPPINGS.
[Lewiston, Idaho.]
The rain fall for this month exceeds anything recorded here in many a year. Up till date there has already fallen one and one-half inches. The ground is thoroughly wet. Everywhere the hills are green and the grass is springing up. The outlook for a large crop of all our products was never better.

J. W. Whitcomb, of Tammany, brought to town yesterday morning a bunch of volunteer wheat, standing more than twenty-eight inches in height, and can be seen by calling at this office. This, more than ever, strengthens our belief that this section will turn out nearly a million bushels of wheat this year.

[Kendrick Gazette.]
Men and provisions have gone into the Boulder Creek district for a vigorous summers work on the valuable claims of the Boulder Creek Mining Company, the majority of whose stockholders are residents of Kendrick.

The Gazette reports in conversation with the Weippe mail carrier learned that there were twenty men and teams busily engaged on the Weippe end of the road, and that they expect to reach the river by May 1st. He further said that the contract had been let to W. H. Colton for the building of the ferry boat and towers for the cable. The cable itself is now on the way. Mr. William Wheeler having ordered the same through the enterprising young hardware men, Messrs Lincoln Brothers. The work on this end is being rapidly completed. The present fine weather is just what the contractors wished for and if it continues the road will be completed in short order.

The Union Pacific Railroad Co., having secured and paid for a right-of-way through this city, and a report is current that the company talk some of constructing a line which will run from Palouse to Colton. All towns along the proposed line seem to manifest much interest in the matter, and Colton will certainly do her share.

County Commissioners.
The county commissioners met in regular session at the courthouse on Monday, April 14th, with all the members present. On account of the court room being used for the sale of school lands the board adjourned until 10 o'clock a. m., on Tuesday.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.
It was ordered by the board that the clerk notify the administratrix of the estate of W. B. Kyle, deceased, and also each of the sureties on the official bond to appear before the board on the 23rd day of April, 1892, when an adjustment and settlement between Latah county and said estate would be made.

Retail liquor licenses were granted to the following named persons for the quarter ending June 30, 1892: C. F. Hamlin & Co., Kendrick; H. Hamilton, M. W. Thompson, M. C. Brandt, J. Weidner, Schober & Weidner, W. H. Cain & Co., Moscow; B. Rohenkohl, R. Jackson, J. K. Bell, Geiger & Kamblitch, Genesee; I. Peterson and Julietta Brewing Co., Julietta; Christie & Tolleman, Valluer; J. Frederick, Cornwall.

In the matter of the petition of W. F. Little et al of road district No. 12 it was ordered that said road as described be declared a county road.

In the matter of the petition of J. E. Blabock et al of road district No. 25 for a new road, no non-consenting owners appearing, the viewers' report was accepted, and the road described declared a public highway.

James Keane, Jesse Randall and E. T. Tammis were appointed viewers to meet at the residence of S. P. Sullivan on May 9, 1892, and view and survey a proposed new road as petitioned for by Brattan & Morris et al.

Ingwall Smith, Samuel Johnson and E. T. Tammis were appointed viewers to meet at the residence of C. C. Swenson, on May 11, 1892, and view and survey a proposed new road as petitioned for by C. C. Swenson et al of road district Nos. 5 and 25.

The petition of T. O. Swenson et al of road district No. 28, for a new road was dismissed through non-conformity to law.

The petition of R. C. Swenson et al of road district No. 28, for abandonment of public road was dismissed through non-conformity to law.

The bid of the Moscow Building and Improvement Co., to furnish the county with fifty election booths was opened, but no action taken.

WEDNESDAY SESSION.
It was ordered that the tax levy for the year of 1892 be made as follows: The sum of $2.50 upon each $100 of assessed valuation, to be applied as follows: State general fund, 85 cents; county school fund, 60 cents; road fund, 20 cents; general county fund, 85 cents.

Also a commutation fee of $4 for the road poll tax of 1892 and a per capita tax of $3, as provided by law. The salary of road overseers was fixed at $3 for each day service for the year 1892.

The official bond of M. L. Johnson as justice of the peace for Cornwall precinct was received and approved.

The official bond of H. E. Bundy as constable for Cornwall precinct was received and approved.

The report of J. C. Morris, overseer of road district No. 11, was examined and approved.

Retail liquor licenses were granted for the quarter ending June 30, 1902, to Wm. Plummer, Vollmer; Davis & Suce, Moser; F. A. Robinson, Genesee.

The official bonds of the following named road overseers were examined and approved: John Watson, district No. 28; F. Warren, district No. 36; J. W. Ellis, district No. 10; W. H. Kitley, district No. 30; W. M. Kincaid, district No. 14; J. R. McLean, district No. 35; T. S. Foidtner, district No. 19; W. A. Sheridan, district No. 7; Barnhart Gardner, district No. 4; R. Ling district No. 33; J. I. Anderson, district No. 1; Ulrich Lienhard, district No. 3.

G. H. Sheldon of Starner was appointed overseer of road district No. 11, John Morris, the former failing to qualify.

AND SUSPENSORY FOR WEAK MEN

WHO ARE DEBILITATED, AND SUFFERING FROM NERVOUS DEBILITY, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, LOSS OF VIGOR, IMPOTENCY OR LOST MANHOOD, RHEUMATISM, LAME BACK, KIDNEY TROUBLES, NERVOUSNESS, SLEEPLESSNESS, POOR MEMORY & GENERAL ILL HEALTH

the effects of abuses, excesses, worry and exposure. For such sufferers our marvelous invention, which requires but a trial to convince the most skeptical, or by excess, or exposure, you may have unduly drained your system of nerve force, and thus caused your weakness or lack of force. If you replace into your drained, which are required for vigorous strength, you will remove the cause, and health, low at once and in a natural way. This is our plan, and treatment, and we guarantee a cure.

Belt is no experiment, as we have restored thousands to robust health and vigor, failed, as can be shown by hundreds of cases throughout this State, who would gladly give us their names and letters bearing testimony to their recovery after using our Belt.

DR. SANDEN ELECTRIC BELT is a complete galvanic battery, made into a belt so as to be easily worn during work or at rest, and it gives soothing, prolonged currents which are instantly felt throughout all weak parts, and we forfeit $5,000. It has an Improved Electric Suspensory, which has been given every weak man, and we warrant it to cure any of the above weaknesses, and to entice shrunken limbs, or parts, or money refunded. They are graded in strength to meet all stages of weakness in young, middle-aged or old men, and will cure the worst cases in two or three months. Address

The governor has issued a proclamation designating May 9, as a day of prayer, fasting and thanksgiving for the people of Idaho.

The new city officers have all assumed the duties of their respective offices.

The tax levy for this year has been fixed at the same rate as last, viz: 25 mills.

Joe B. Raitan will please call at this office and learn something of interest to him.

T. J. Johnston was chosen chairman of the new town council at its meeting last Monday night.

Miss Hodges of Uniontown, was the guest of the Misses Taft, of this city, several days the past week.

J. T. Geor, formerly proprietor of the McGee Hotel of Moscow, was the guest of L. W. Taft and family the first part of the week. Mr. Geor has just returned from the west where he has spent the past winter. He says that Latah county beats anything he saw out for farming and climate.

J. P. Vollmer was visiting here Sunday and Monday. He left Monday morning on a special train for Moscow.

Geo. H. Baehler, of Uniontown, was looking after business interests in Genesee Tuesday last.

J. Rosensteln, returned from Portland, on Tuesday evening's train, accompanied by his family who have been spending the winter in that city.

M. A. Means of this place, spent a part of last week in Valluer.

Dial.
Once again the Recorder is compelled to chronicle the death of one of the favorite and loving daughters of this valley, the time of Miss Carrie Jain, aged 16 years and 20 days, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Jain, who departed this life between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock Tuesday forenoon, April 19, at the residence of her parents about three miles east of town. Miss Carrie has been suffering with a spinal disease for the past month she has been confined to her bed and as the days came and went there was no relief. Everything that medical aid could do was done for her. The funeral is to take place from the Congregational church at 10 o'clock this morning.

Rev. E. L. Smith will deliver the funeral sermon.

The Ideal Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

For more than fifty years Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda have been used for leavening purposes with sufficient food added to preserve the strength of the powder unimpaired, and this with the addition of whites eggs comprises this pure and wholesome leavening agent that has been the standard for 40 years. In its use pure, wholesome and delicious food is always assured. Makes cake and biscuit that retain their moisture, and while they are flaky and extremely light they are fine grained, not coarse and full of holes as made with ammonia baking powders, latter dries up quickly. Alum powders leave a bitter taste in the bread or cake.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder once used, always used.

SPLIT STONES OF SAHARA.

A Scientific Explanation of the Notable Rocks of the Great Desert.

Those parts of the great desert of Sahara called the Hamadas, which are among the most desolate parts of the region, are strewn with innumerable siliceous pebbles which are literally broken into thousands of fragments, presenting sharp edges and clearly defined angles, as though recently broken with a hammer. Sometimes fragments of these pebbles and bowlders can be found lying together with their fractured sides facing each other, fitting perfectly when brought in contact. For centuries the split stones of Sahara baffled the scientists, who were at a loss for an explanation of the phenomenon. At last the long looked for explanation has come.

M. J. Brun read an elaborate article before the Scientific Society of Gisors, in which he stated and proved that the stones were actually split by a curious combination of chemical and mechanical actions. He found by analysis that the sand of the desert was composed of quartz, gypsum and marl, with traces of salt. The quartz grains acted under the influence of the sun's rays as burning lenses upon the gypsum, rendering it hydrous. The sand and fine siliceous gypsum dust was driven about by winds and cover all the stones, large and small; the dust penetrates the little cracks in the stones, whereupon it is wet by the dew, which causes it to swell. With continuous expansion and contraction, the heavy dew the accumulation of plaster goes on increasing, the cracks enlarge, and in time the stones split asunder.

Jenekyns writes "Try to Ye Burning Sunning of Africa" is among the oldest English narratives of adventures in the great desert, also noticed the split-stone phenomenon. Translated into modern English his account, under heading of "Another God's Wonder" is as follows: "For many days we traveled nine days due west over the same monotonous stretch of sand and pebbles. The natives of these parts say that it once rained small stones for eleven days and nights, covering many towns and much fertile ground; that afterward the wretched came riding jockals, and that they pounded the pebbles with white flint mallets or small mauls until they became smooth."

"Even now the heat draws out pebbles from underneath the sand, but these lie but a short time on the surface until they, too, are pulverized by the creatures of the night (wildcats). I myself have seen wags (leaves of frayed bowlders far out in the desert that must have been broken by some other than human agency." The 18th explanation of Brun will doubtless find more believers than that of Jenekyns, which was given in 1548.—St. Louis Republic.

SAFETY IN THE MIDST OF DANGER.

This would seem a contradiction—is so, in fact, to the eye. But experience has proved it possible. Take the case of the individual who is in a certain predicament against the odds. He is in a predicament against the odds. He is in a predicament against the odds. He is in a predicament against the odds.

VOL. 1. GENESEE, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1892. NO. 52.

THE CHICAGO EXPOSITION.

Model Hospital Conducted Entirely by Women to be One of the Illinois Exhibits.

The World's Fair Directory has reduced its President's salary from $12,000 to $8,000 a year.

The Chicago street-car companies say they will take no part in the World's Fair Sunday-closing controversy.

The Directors of the Columbian Exposition have received to date $5,122,770.67 and expended about $4,800,000.

The Silk Association of America and the Silk Industry Association have decided to combine in making the finest possible exhibit of silk goods and products.

The New South Wales World's Fair Commission is contemplating sending for exhibition at the exposition the aboriginal cave inscriptions of North Australia, and also a whole tribe of aborigines.

Little Denmark, the smallest country in Europe, with an area of 14,789 square miles, has a population of 217,200 and a national debt of $1,000,000. It is estimated to pay $1,000,000.

The two men who kidnaped Norman St. Clair at Laguna Hills, Cal., in 1891, recently returned to the United States and are being held in custody by the United States marshal at Santa Monica, Cal., where they are being held in custody.

Chinese are being smuggled into the Southern Pacific now and then and are being guarded by very long lines of Southern Pacific guards.

Operations are being pushed on the Southern Pacific now and then and are being guarded by very long lines of Southern Pacific guards.

The exhibit which Illinois women will model for the exposition will be a model of the woman's building which will be modeled by the women of the State and the Illinois Training School for Nurses will manage the matter. Three rooms in the women's building have been assigned for the exhibit.

The Consolidated Wyoming has begun suit against the Champion Mining Company at Nevada City. The claim is that the latter has been working on a vein that belongs to the former.

The new municipal authorities at San Jose have inaugurated a vigorous policy of cleaning up the city, and are endeavoring to get rid of all the places where the garbage is dumped.

The Southern Pacific is running a line for branch from the Palms on the Santa Monica road to Carson Canyon, and work has commenced on the Santa Monica extension from Inglewood to Santa Monica. The new line will be running by June 1.

Dick Bender and Captain Jim, both of the Washoe Indians, have left Carson for the purpose of returning to the Indian Commissioners in the establishment of a reservation in Carson Valley, or if that cannot be obtained, a home for the aged and needy Indians.

Millions of wild geese, ducks, sandhill cranes and snipe will remain in the Lower Colorado and on New River. Parties from that section say that they never saw so many of these birds as they are this spring nor to remain so late before migrating north.

A California company has been organized in Westminster, Oregon, for the purpose of growing vegetable products. It is an extensive vegetable factory. Eighty acres of land have been rented for the company, and it is now in the process of planting.

The post land blizzard crop promises to be a very heavy one.

A thriving business is being done by smugglers who carry liquor from British Columbia into Alaska. The liquor is sold to the Indians in small quantities, and the business is very profitable.

The United States is still defrauded of a large amount of revenue. Captain Topeka thinks that the only way to stop the fraud is to stop the sale of liquor to the Indians.

Thomas J. Tallman, the manager of a local drug store at Sacramento, applied for a certificate of registration as a practicing pharmacist, but was refused on the ground that he was not a resident of California. He was simply conducting a business in California.

The steamer Thompson, which met Slough the other day, has arrived at Portland without trouble, and was at once put in the Skokowaka wharf. She is bound for the Sound between Seattle and Tacoma, and is expected to arrive in Seattle on the 10th inst.

The San Francisco Examiner publishes an article stating that the Western Milk and Cream Association has been organized, and that the association is the outgrowth of the Occidental Self-Endowment Association, which collapsed in 1887.

Major Henderson of Sacramento, who represents a number of the members, is about to commence civil and criminal proceedings against the managers of the firm.

Reports from Michigan show a highly increased lumber cut.

The disagreeable operation of forcing liquids into the head and the use of exciting snuffs are being superseded by Ely's Cream Balm, a cure for catarrh and colitis in the head.

There has been a great sufferer from catarrh for ten years; could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm, and am using it freely; it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I think God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

Apply Balm into each nostril. It is quickly absorbed, and its action is felt at once. Price, 50 cents at druggists' or by mail. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren Street, New York.

Tramps are now selecting their early summer outfits.

DEAFNESS CAN'T BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed, it swells and the air cannot enter, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of the ear, the hearing will be destroyed forever. The cause of deafness is catarrh, and catarrh, being nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube, will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for free to all who send for it. J. C. HALL, 153 N. 2nd St., Toledo, O.

THE RECORDER.

J. W. HOFF, Editor and Proprietor.

Everybody

Attend the meeting to decide whether or not Genesee celebrates this year, at Elliott hall, Monday eve, June 6, at 7:30. Turn out!

The Californian Illustrated Magazine of San Francisco, for June, illustrates the fact that a magazine of the first class can be produced and successfully published on the Pacific Coast. No success in so short a time has been recorded in this country, and the publishers are responding to the support the Magazine has received in making each issue better than the last. The issue of June is a remarkable one in a typographical, literary and pictorial sense.

Attention, Pioneers.

The first annual reunion of the Latah County Pioneer Association will be held on Wednesday, June 8th, 1892, in the grove on school section No. 28, six miles east of Moscow, near the old saw mill site of Barton, Langdon & Epperly. Good speakers will be in attendance. Bring your baskets well filled. The procession will form at G. A. R. hall Moscow, at 8:30 o'clock, a. m., headed by the Moscow Band and will march to the grounds. Everybody invited!

G. W. TOMES, Secretary.

For Prosecuting Attorney—F. J. Moore. For Auditor—J. H. Green. For Treasurer—G. H. LaRue. For Superintendent of Schools—W. W. Brand. For Assessor—J. E. Bishop. For Surveyor—Charles Parks. For Coroner—Dr. G. A. Miller. For County Commissioners—Henry Esser, Michael Byrnes and W. H. Stewart.

Blaine Again.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—The Enquirer prints this morning a dispatch from its Washington correspondent. In view of the warm relations existing between Blaine and John R. McLean the dispatch may be considered as quite significant. The dispatch reads as follows: "The convention to be held at Minneapolis on the 7th of June will nominate James G. Blaine for the office of president of the United States. The situation has reached a crisis. Blaine has spoken to this extent: 'I will do nothing to prevent my nomination. I have made my last denial.' And I can say likewise that if nominated Blaine will make the race. Yielding every consideration to the party's welfare, he is in the hands of the delegates. He will neither seek the nomination nor run away from it. If called upon to lead, he throws the magic of his name and fame to the foremost front."

A DISPATCH states that the visit of the governor to the Court of Appeals has unfortunately failed to bring about a compromise between the miners and mine owners, and the owners have held a meeting and resolved to continue the strike until New Year's day. No further effort at arbitration or compromise is to be made.

A special from Butte of the same date says:

A large crowd of miners gathered at Union Pacific depot Sunday morning to bid an affectionate farewell to fourteen of Joe Warren's Palouse braves who had come down from the Union mine. It was soon rumored they were on their way to Bozeman, Mont., to meet another train load of non-union miners, but later authentic news is that they were returning to their homes. Five more came down this morning and proceeded to Wallace, where they were arrested for carrying concealed weapons and put under $200 bonds each. There is no doubt that the Union mine is pending with the services of these high priced guards.

PLUNDERED HOMESTEAD

An Extract From the Speech of Congressman Dooliver, of Iowa.

My young friend from Nebraska the other day took one of his young farmer constituents down from the cannibal tree long enough to use him for the purpose of pointing the moral and adorning the tale of the "Plundered Homestead, or the Adventures of a Young Married Couple." You remember that he represents a young man in the act of selecting "a young woman who will be willing to trust her future to a strong right arm," and beginning to build a home which is the unit of society.

The picture represents that he robbed by the tariff on lumber, paint, on furniture, on table-cloth, on knives, forks, dishes, spoons, everything that enters into the construction and operation of a home." And to make the picture all the more pathetic and absorbingly true, the artist gives the happy couple no sign of defense except the lung capacity of the democratic party yelling at the top of its voice, "Hands off!"

Now, without stopping to point out that the actual price of the article that enters into the construction and operation of a home has been reduced in price by the republican policy of making them in the United States, instead of buying them in Europe, I want to ask my friend, or any other man in this house, to name to me a man in the Old World where a man without money can get a strong right arm around a girl's waist and take her to his home of his own, or give her the prospect of a home, which is the unit of society.

I have talked to hundreds of people from Ireland, from Denmark, from the mountains of Norway, Sweden, and they all tell me of the work in the United States goes further than anywhere else in the world toward putting a roof over the heads of a family, paint on a cottage, music in the parlors, newspapers on the stand, carpets on the floor, dishes on the table, something to eat in the dishes, and the divine light of love and joy in the sweet faces of wife and children.

"They have come into my office again and again, husband and wife together, speaking in broken English, the language of the thrifft countries in Europe, to ask my help and advice in mailing a little American money to the Old World for father or mother or brother or sister or sweetheart, living in lands where the labor of a lifetime is not enough, after paying the passage to pay their passage upon an ocean steamer. I have seen their tears falling upon the paper as they write prints this morning of hope and courage from the only country on earth where human life is lifted above the level of hopeless drudgery for the poor."

I have often stood in Castle Garden, at the gateway of the republic, watching that restless throng of evildoers, knaves and tribe of people. I have seen young men standing there holding in their hands a suit of clothes, a hat, a pair of shoes, for a brother arriving on these shores out of the very country where clothes are the cheapest. I have seen young women thrifftly hiding under a taxed American cloak the bright colors of a new hat for a sister who had just come from a land where everything was so cheap that nobody can buy anything.

Nor could I keep out of my heart words of welcome to those who have loved our flag over afar off, and have come hither to better their condition and open the pathway of fortune to themselves and to their children. And the day is coming, is nearer than the democratic leaders of to-day may think, when these fugitives from the hard conditions of the Old World and their children will be other than a unit with the republican party to keep the shield of the American law before the cottages of American labor.

Pronounced Helpless, yet Saved from a letter written by Mrs. A. E. Dooliver, of Iowa, to me, who was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, caught set in and finally terminated in pneumonia. I had written to me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's new discovery for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc., and I tried it, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and I thank God I am now a well man, better, stronger, and more vigorous than I have been for many months. Regular size bottles, 50c. and 25c.

Splendid Tribute

URGES THE USE OF THE Royal Baking Powder.

The magnificent tribute of the San Francisco Board of Health to the great purity and wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder greatly disturbs the manufacturers of the lower grade powders. Their envious publications, however, cannot break the force of this unsolicited and unbiased, high medical endorsement. Attached is a certified copy of their original report, with the signatures of the members of the Board in fac-simile:

We, the members of The Board of Health of the City and County of San Francisco, cordially approve and recommend the Royal Baking Powder. It is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients of the highest strength and character.

In our judgment it is impossible to make a purer or stronger Baking Powder than the "Royal."

Wartime...
The above conversation occurred in the court of the Babylon Hotel.

Mr. William Giesman, a well-known attorney and manager of the Hawaiian Trust, was found at his office in the Phelan Building. When asked if he had been notified by the use of Warner's Safe Cure he cheerfully and enthusiastically told the remedy had done for him.

Dr. M. M. Gibson is the pastor of the United Methodist Church. Some years ago, while traveling in Europe, he contracted renal calculus, or stone in the kidney. He tried various remedies but to no avail. Speaking of the way he finally was cured, the doctor said:

When I was afflicted with the disease, I was in a very bad way. I was unable to do any work, and my health was rapidly declining. I had tried many remedies, but to no avail. I was then advised to try Warner's Safe Cure, and I did so. I took the medicine according to the directions, and in a few days I began to feel better. In a few more days I was completely cured, and I have since remained in perfect health.

Mr. C. W. Hopkins, with J. Houston & Co., 1484 Market street, in reply to the inquiry of the writer, says: "I was afflicted with the disease, and I was in a very bad way. I was unable to do any work, and my health was rapidly declining. I had tried many remedies, but to no avail. I was then advised to try Warner's Safe Cure, and I did so. I took the medicine according to the directions, and in a few days I began to feel better. In a few more days I was completely cured, and I have since remained in perfect health."

Dr. H. M. Fiske, whose office is in the Honolulu Dispensary, says: "I was afflicted with the disease, and I was in a very bad way. I was unable to do any work, and my health was rapidly declining. I had tried many remedies, but to no avail. I was then advised to try Warner's Safe Cure, and I did so. I took the medicine according to the directions, and in a few days I began to feel better. In a few more days I was completely cured, and I have since remained in perfect health."

Often the Bulgarian peasant undergoes lengthened tribulations, of mental distress and unkind disappointments, between her betrothal and marriage. If her lover is poor and unable to consummate the stipulated price upon her head, and which must be paid before she can become a bride, the wedding is sometimes postponed for several months, and until their "ship comes in," the daughter is a considerate father, and in case the whole amount cannot be raised in a portion, and gives the young couple to pay the balance by their united exertions.

PACIFIC COAST.

Thousands of Men Idle in the Cœur d'Alenes.

TOWN OF POLLASKY, CAL.

Prospectors Follow an Exploring Party Into the Navajo Country—Etc.

The Carson river is booming. The Sacramento river is falling slowly. The Boise river in Idaho is very high. Truckee, Cal., is working for a high school.

Los Angeles is systematically worked by burglars. Vegetable trains from Southern California to Chicago are projected.

Numbers of prospectors are following the McCook exploring party into the Navajo country. The situation in the Cœur d'Alene country is still unsettled. The mines are closed, and thousands of men are idle.

It is stated at Nogales, A. T., that a small sized Mexican revolution is being hatched in that neighborhood. Horse-stealing on a large scale is said to be one of the leading features.

The Southern Pacific Company by the decision of a referee will not be compelled to accept the freight schedule adopted by the Oregon Board of Railroad Commissioners.

Southern Pacific surveyors are working their way eastward from Copperopolis, Cal. It is believed that this is an effort to secure the Big Tree route and head off the Salt Lake railroad.

The crop outlook in the Salt River Valley in the Cœur d'Alene, and the prices expected to be realized are satisfactory to the farmers. The alfalfa crop one-half larger than last year.

It is confidently stated by those who have studied the matter that in three years the production in prunes and raisins in California will be enough to supply America and preclude importations altogether.

Advices from Apache country, A. T., say the estimated cattle shipment this season will not fall short of 25,000 head, but even this enormous sale will not be sufficient to relieve the ranges unless more rain falls this summer than has been usual for the past five years.

James Deviney of Troop E Cavalry died at Fort Lowell four years ago, and the parties now engaged in disinterring the soldiers' bodies, so that they can be moved in the National cemetery, discovered on opening the coffin every indication that Deviney had been buried alive.

Evidence is accumulating that the Algonquians grant, which embraces the choicest lands along the Colorado river below Yuma, is a forgery, and the prospect that the land will before long be thrown open to settlement is causing worry to locators to prepare for the result.

Mrs. Sarah Althes Terry is growing wiser mentally. Physically her condition is improved. She talks to herself, and sings a great deal, and is careless about her appearance. She is not violent, but noisy, and is permitted liberty in the asylum grounds at Stockton with other patients.

A highbinder's war broke out at Sacramento the other night, and the pistol shots sounded like a rifle in the distance. A passing electric car was in the line of the bullets, and was quickly vacated by passengers and abandoned by the conductor and motor man. Two dead Chinamen and a wounded one were found after the battle.

The fact is stated at Fresno that a new route for a flume has been surveyed to the San Joaquin. The terminus of the new flume will be at Pollasky on the line of the Mountain Pacific on the terraces in the river. It is said extensive mills and factories are planned for that place, to be run by water power. The flume is to be forty-five miles long.

A report from Phoenix, A. T., states that 300 men have been put to work on the Wolfley canal, and it will be completed as soon as possible. It will be 70 miles in length and the largest irrigation canal in America, opening up and irrigating 300,000 acres of desert lands. The water will be supplied from a dam in the Gila river, and for miles the canal will run in the bed of the old Aztec canal, to much written of.

General Manager E. Lyons of the Northern Terminal Company has had funds placed at his command and been ordered to go ahead with a twenty-stall roundhouse and a freight house 800 feet long for the Northern Pacific on the terminal grounds at Portland, Or. The roundhouse is filling the lake for these grounds at a rapid rate, and work on the grand un'on passenger station, the finest west of Chicago, will be resumed in a short time.

The killing of Dr. Sheldon Jackson is discredited at Fort Townsend. It is believed that Jackson's name has been substituted for Rev. Charles H. Edwards, the missionary, who was killed some two months ago, and the cause of whose death is now being officially investigated. The reported circumstances leading to the death of Jackson are almost identical with those which surrounded Edwards' killing. It is also stated by parties from the far North that Jackson could not have been near the place where the murder was committed at the date mentioned.

The Oregon Improvement Company is making a survey for a new branch of the Columbia and Puget Sound road to leave the present line at Maple Valley and extend about six miles east to a section where valuable mineral discoveries are reported to have been made. The land in question is said to contain large deposits of coal, fire clay and graptolites.

The Cedar Valley Coal Company has been organized to work the coal veins, which are bituminous of the same general character as that in the Green River field, and are three in number, ranging from six feet thick down. The fire clay has been examined by representatives of the Denny Clay Company, which may develop it. The graptolites is said to be a pure, very hard sandstone.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Eight European Countries Accept Our Invitation to Participate in the Bimetallite Conference.

A joint resolution has been passed authorizing and directing the President to proclaim a general holiday commemorating the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America on October 12, 1892.

James E. Young has been acquitted by the corps of Washington correspondents of the charge upon which the Senate dismissed him from the position of executive clerk. Young's removal from office carried with it the imputation he had communicated to newspaper correspondents information about the transactions of the Senate while in executive session.

Attorney F. A. Orr of San Francisco was at the State Department recently, and had an audience with Solicitor Partridge in regard to the claims of the sailors of the cruiser Baltimore against the Chilean government for damages by the assault upon them in Valparaiso last October. He was informed the claims had been brought to the attention of the Chilean government by United States Minister Egan. The claims number thirty-eight, and amount to more than $2,000,000.

A bulletin just issued by the census bureau shows the assessed valuation of all property in the United States in 1890, except the railroad property, increased from $16,093,933,543 in 1880 to $24,551,555,865 in 1890, an increase during the decade of $7,748,622,322 or 48.84 per cent. Should the same relations be found to exist between the assessed valuation in 1890 and the valuation as it existed in 1880 the absolute wealth of the United States may be estimated at $34,648,000,000 or more than $200 per capita, as against $14 in 1860, $730 in 1870 and $870 in 1880.

Representative Hermann has been before the Committee on Public Lands regarding his resolution of inquiry as to the action of the Interior Department in rejecting various contests in swamp-land claims in Eastern Oregon, which have been previously authorized by the department and Mr. Hermann's request final approval of selections has been suspended until the right of settlers to continue their contests shall be inquired into by Congress or allowed by the department. These lands are chiefly in the Harney Valley land district. Mr. Hermann is receiving a large number of petitions from needy settlers on the lands, who ask for the right of a hearing in the land office.

Acting Secretary Spaulding has issued a circular to customs officers in regard to locomotives used in traffic with adjacent countries, in which he says: "Every foreign locomotive on a continuous route crossing the boundary into the United States is allowed to take a train directly to and from a customs port on the route or to and from the termination in the United States of what is technically known as the 'run' of the locomotive, if it is beyond the limits of such port; but no foreign made locomotive shall be employed for a continuous inland trip, unless such locomotive shall have been duly entered for duty in the United States. Officers of customs are directed to seize any locomotive found to be used in violation of the above rules."

Representative Wilson, who is a member of the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, made a strong speech against the arbitrary action of the department in suspending statistics showing the service would surely be crippled unless the government increased the amount appropriated to a reasonable figure. Wilson has had an opportunity to see how lack of funds in the Postoffice Department has prevented the development of the mail facilities in his State, and his talk was in the direction of securing better facilities and larger distribution of mail routes throughout the West and so bring the mail services in this rapidly developing country up to something like what is all right in the East. But all the talk a man might do in this connection if he line would be of no avail, as parsimony is the watchword of the hour.

Representative Hermann has been endeavoring to hasten the work of opening the Siletz Indian reservation to settlement. Officers of the department stated recently the allotments will be completed soon, not later than this summer, when negotiations will at once commence for the release of the surplus lands to settlement. This reservation contains 225,000 acres, and there are being 120 Indians to whom allotments are being made, in addition to which the State becomes entitled to about twenty-two school sections. There will remain a surplus of about 162,470 acres for settlers. Mr. Hermann stated to the Secretary that his surplus is capable of sustaining a large body of people, and that many of his constituents are anxious for the early adjustment of allotments and the subsequent proceedings that people seeking homes in his State may have this further opportunity to acquire them.

It is officially stated acceptance has been received by the United States government from eight countries of Europe of the invitation to participate in the bimetallic conference. The countries having accepted are England, Italy, Germany, France, Austria, the Netherlands, Spain, and Portugal. The conference will probably be held in Brussels. The members of the conference who will represent the United States are said to be Judge Lambert Tree of Chicago, Henry W. Cannon, President of the Chase National Bank of New York, formerly Comptroller of Currency, and Senator Jones of Nevada, who is a member of the former international monetary conference. Cannon is a well-known financier, who has had experience not only as head of one of the largest banks of the country, but also as the official head of the national banking system of the United States. Senator Jones is one of the best posted authorities on bimetallicism in the country and a pronounced free-silver man. He has studied the silver question from the days when he swung a pick as a pioneer silver miner in Nevada down to the present time, when his senatorial associates accord him a foremost place in the speech on free silver. Senator Jones' authority on free silver in the "Sixty-first Congress is regarded as one of the most valuable contributions of the silver question from a free-coinage standpoint in recent years. Judge Tree being a Democrat, the delegation received from the political parties, of the two Republican Mr. Cannon, represents the gold sentiment of the East, while Jones, of course, represents the silver sentiment of the West and Southwest.

According to the Liverpool Journal of Commerce the English railways will carry World's Fair exhibits at half rates from any station to the port of embarkation, and most of the Atlantic steamship lines will transport them at a uniform rate of 11 shillings ($2.67) per ton.

An association has been formed in Germany to organize excursion parties to visit the World's Fair and incidentally Niagara Falls and a number of the cities. It is proposed to accommodate this within a period of sixty days at an expense of between $250 and $300.

The State Board of Commerce of Idaho has assumed the responsibility of raising $100,000 with which to supplement the New York State appropriation of $100,000. It is reported that the people of the State are greatly interested in having it well represented at the exposition, and that it is believed that the money will be easily raised.

The 400,000 World's Fair appropriation which Greece has made will be devoted in large part to the preparation of exhibits to show the progress of the many famous specimens of ancient Greece, now owned by the government. These exhibits, it is announced, will be presented to one or more American museums after the fair closes.

W. H. H. Lewellyn, Executive Commissioner for New Mexico, has been in Chicago securing space in the various buildings for exhibits from the territory. "We expect to show the people who visit the World's Fair," he said, "that New Mexico can raise something else besides cactus and sagebrush. One exhibit will be 100 watermelons, the minimum weight of each of which will be 100 pounds."

At the special request of the Empress of Germany the Princess Frederick Karl, aunt of the Emperor, has accepted the President's invitation to represent the women of Germany at the fair. The committee which has charge of the women's work in Germany includes a number of women of the highest social position, and will prove a most valuable auxiliary.

The exposition probably will not have an Eifel tower or anything approximately in height over the grounds in which the captive balloons will ascend. There will be, however, three observation towers about 300 feet high for the accommodation of visitors who want to take a bird's eye view of the grounds and buildings. These towers will be of elaborate design and beautiful in appearance, and will cost about $200,000 each.

The aggregate production of pig iron in Belgium in the first three months of this year was 480,000 tons, as compared with 170,572 tons in the corresponding period of 1891.

The mice plague in the south of Scotland shows no sign of abatement. The Board of Agriculture has sent out circulars requesting full information about the affected districts.

The Cobden Club blandly cautions the British colonies that the only practical fiscal federation of the Empire must be based on their adopting the free-trade policy of Great Britain.

Herr Siegle, a merchant at Stuttgart, Germany, has been fined 120,000 marks for representing to the tax authorities that his income was much smaller than it proved to be really.

The underground electric railway proposed for Paris is in progress. The direction of its greatest length, which will cause it to approximately follow the course of the Seine.

The British government has placed in the hands of Messrs. Yarrow, the well-known torpedo-boat builders, the contracts for the construction of two steel gunboats for the Victoria Nyansa.

Advices from Guatemala state that 12,000 citizens have signed an accusation against ex-President Barillas. It is stated that President Barillas is under a sworn obligation to save General Barillas.

In a wax-work show in Glasgow the great attraction is "a realistic drawing-room scene" illustrating the baccaart scandal of Tranny Croft. It is said to contain a "life-like group of all the characters of the game."

There is more tonnage laid up on the river Tyne and in the northeast coast ports of England at the present time than ever before in the history of shipping, there being no less than 400 idle vessels, representing about 3,000,000 tons.

The Glasgow Cremation Society has received subscriptions to the amount of $1,500 for the erection of a crematorium. The society urges upon the city authorities the adoption of cremation as the best means of disposing of unclaimed bodies.

His Lordship Earl Clancarty, better known to Americans as Lord Dunlop, the title he held before his father's death, is advertised in the London Gazette as a debtor who will not pay his bill. The advertiser is Sam Lewis, a famous bill broker.

The physicians of the mad King Otto of Bavaria had an audience last week with the Bavarian Regent to report on the condition of their patient. His condition is that of great feebleness, and if he does not die soon, he will be dethroned.

After reviewing the connection between home rule and the labor cause, Michael Davitt says: "We demand home rule for Ireland to insure that the people of that country shall be able to elect their own representatives to obtain for British trade by taxing foreign products."

In Paymago, Spain, a band of women robbers has been discovered by the police. They had their den in a cave on the outskirts of the town, where the men met on the first night of every month to plan burglaries. They had in the cave a full stock of burglars' tools and also 15,000 francs worth of plunder.

General Booth announces a great need of funds to carry on the Salvation Army. He recalls his announcement that $500,000 given for his darkest England scheme would require $150,000 annually for maintenance, as only $20,000 of that had been furnished so far. So the scheme is almost at a standstill.

Paris Anarchists are now diligently cultivating the art of dining for nothing. Bands of them, it is said, now enter eating houses, call for substantial repasts, dispatch them and then refuse to pay the bill. When the landlord remonstrates these "free diners-out" threaten to blow up his establishment with dynamite.

Emile Zola may secure a seat among the Immortals of France after all. At the last session of the French Academy Camille Doucet read a letter from the popular novelist, announcing his candidature for the seat made vacant by the death of Adolphe de la Graviere. Pierre Loti being out of the way, Zola, it is said, believes that his election will be certain.

DECISIVE Baking Powder Tests The United States Official Investigation of Baking Powders, made by authority of Congress, in the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., furnishes the highest authoritative information as to which powder is the best. The Official Report Shows the ROYAL to be a cream of tartar baking powder, superior to all others in leavening power (U. S. Dept. Agriculture, Bulletin 15, p. 59.)

The French Detective. Every good detective has to some extent his own way of working, and varied, of course, according to the circumstances. We may say, however, that as a rule the Parisian agent has a free hand and works in a somewhat bold manner. He is not so much a detective as a man of letters, and he is not so much a man of letters as a man of letters.

A BIG STRIKE

IN THE COEUR D'ALENES

National Guards and U.S. Troops

Now on the Scene.

Genesee people were startled Monday evening when it was learned that Capt. Haymond had received telegram from Gov. Willey directing him to hold Company L in readiness for duty as trouble was brewing in the Coeur d'Alene mines between mine-owners and union men. The little dreaming they would be called out for action, and made considerable able sport of the matter. But late in the night when another telegram came announcing that they must proceed to the battle fields of Coeur d'Alene, the boys looked at differently. They thought it was an Irish trick. Then they were they had paid their poll-tax and the blarsted militia alone! But braves went on the six a. m.

and you can rest assured they will do their full share in restoring peace

From dispatches sent out from the seat of war we learn that the trouble originated in a saloon brawl at Gem on Saturday night in which a non-union combatant was wor-so badly that it was necessary to take him to the hospital. Upon the turn of the men from the hotel

they were met by a party of men and another set to and a dispatch says:

This little fracas served as a spark for a big scrap. The union men under the leadership of O'Brien and began arming themselves. The situation became very threatening to the men in the

All Sunday night there were rumors of war and fights, but nothing transpired until Monday morning at 6:30. The union men had rounded themselves in various positions of advantage during the night and when morning dawned they had sharpshooters in every nook in the side of the canyon. At 8 o'clock the men in the Gem mine went to breakfast in the hotel directly across from the mill.

While crossing the creek on their return a bullet shot rang out from the hill side. One of the men fell from the bridge into the creek beneath. The remainder made a dash for life into the mill and entrenched themselves behind the walls. A fusillade rang out from the hillside and was promptly returned from the non-union side. For a few minutes the firing became general on every side. The union men had the best of it, however, and at 10 the Gem surrendered. An armistice was made and it was agreed that the mine should be vacated and turned over to the attacking party.

In the mean time a similar state of affairs was going on at the Helena and Frisco properties. The employees there to the number of 80 had concentrated their forces in the mill and made preparations for a vigorous siege. A fusillade of bullets was rained down from the mountain side upon the building and was promptly answered by those inside. The non-union men resorted to strategy. They wrenched off the couplings between the flume and the penstock and inserted a dynamite bomb in the pipe. The bomb shot down the pipe, and, coming in contact with the water wheel, exploded.

The mill was a mass of ruins. Many of those inside were wounded and buried in the debris.

Those who escaped threw up their arms at once and made prisoners and marched to Wallace.

JAMES OLIVER, H. E. No. 258

Land Office at Lewiston, Idaho, June 17, 1902

Notice is hereby given that the following settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before U. S. Land

Lewiston vs. Genesee.

Yes, we met the enemy, gave them a good wallop and sent them home with instructions to play "two-old-od" a while longer before tackling a club that can play ball. Why, the Lewistons couldn't hold a balloon! The cheek of them wanting to play ball with Hollister's Pets! The game came off last Sunday afternoon as follows: The Lewiston aggregation of ball players came down in force Sunday morning, bringing their friends and admirers by the dozen to see them wipe Genesee in the Palouse dust. They were confident their combination would 'do' Genesee and they were flushed with the anticipation of a glorious victory. But the Genesecites did not have it put down that way. "Fits just like the baper on the wall!" The Teller's stone wall infield proved to be made of wind and straw. Well, Lewiston went to bat first and pounded out three scores, and how their backers did yell, and swing money. And they found takers too. The Genesees then took up the wagon tongue and hammered out four scores. And still the visiting betterers showed more money than sense and did not cease betting until they had up in the neighborhood of $500. Sides changed and the Lewistons were retired in one, two three order, sucking a very fine goose egg handed them on a silver platter. Now, here is where blood was discernible on the eye, of those bold, bad Genesee chaps. They went to bat, played a continual tattoo on the ball, and the single and two-base hits rolled out in profusion. "Lapwal," the noted pitcher, perspired and foamed, likewise the balance of the team, and when eight scores were brought around, the visitors came in and had a big chunk of ice put down their backs. K. Thompson, the Teller man, and Bob, Conter could stand such punishment no longer and slunk off to the shade of the barley field over south. Now it was a horse of another color. The neat case of rattles now in possession of the Lewistons clung to them throughout the game. Ed. Hammond did pretty work in the box and elsewhere, and so did Moore behind the bat, and what they did the others tried hard to imitate. The contest from the third inning was a little one sided, but aside from that it was a model contest, in which the Pets brought almost every point of base ball science into play. They moved down the enemy's curves with comparative ease. The Harris boys always play good ball, but when they captured a couple of difficult flies they were cheered to the echo. All playing ball when it was necessary. Following is the score by innings: Genesee.....4 8 7 3 2 2 0 —28 Lewiston.....3 3 0 2 2 2 0 1—15 CUTS FROM THE DIAMOND. It made 'em tired. Our sports wear diamonds now! Spalding was there in all his glory. Harry Thatcher's lungs are all right. Everybody yelled themselves hoarse. Even the ladies geyed the backers of Lewiston. Our people are still playing the game over again. Umpire Bressler still lives to tell how it all happened. Did Shanks get rattled or miff a ball? Hardly. He's one of the Pet's. "What's the matter with Lewiston's team? They can't play ball a little bit." Wonder if the ferry man got stood off or was asked if he had change for a big bill Sunday eve? Did Beechler make expenses up here? Sorry, George. Stay by Genesee, you'll wear diamonds; with Lewiston, you know. Was Eddie Jacobs there? Methinks he was. Though the smallest man on the ball grounds, he was observed by all observers. He played even and more too, with compound interest at 3-per-cent-a-minute. Think the boys would play a better game if they would stay here long enough to get acclimated. This northern air is decidedly chilly for southerners. One of the Lewiston's hit the air three times in the same place, but the rules were suspended and he was given another trial. But he never touched it. Manager Hollister, like a successful politician, began to swell up with pride when his boys dished up that goose egg, and how his vest buttons did fly from that on. The show man, Frank Hewett, got even with the Lewistons in great shape. They tried to catch his show the day previous for an outrageous license, but he gave them the slip and came here. He got even by winning $56 of their money and yelled for Genesee. The Howett's Muscets performed in Genesee Saturday and Monday nights to appreciative audiences. A nice little band and will always have the good will of Genesee people. May Howett created considerable laughter when she wound up a favorite ballad thusly: Once there was a game of ball, The parties you well know, The Lewistons were the Genesees, The Lewistons were the Genesees. They came here to do the town As it was never done before; But they got locked and sneaked back home To the burg they'll never leave more. CHORUS. They'll never come back, They'll never come back To play with your club any more, For they can't at any time Do up the Genesee side, Till they meet on that beautiful shore.

Peaches are coming into market. Real estate was on the rise last Saturday. Joe Richards now has charge of the dining room at the Owen House. Quite a number of hogs have been marketed in Genesee the past ten days at good figures. We have our weather eye on the park, and a diagram of how it will appear in 1903 in our desk. Kendrick is to have a new school house, a new bank, new church and other new establishments. A. W. Severance and wife are now keeping house in their new dwelling just north of the school house. The Genesee Hardware Co. have in a large supply of new furniture, bedding, etc., and will sell it cheap to make room for more. Miss Clydo Parker came over from Lewiston last week for a ten days' visit with the Ruddy, Larrabee and other families and acquaintances. The News has a man at the front in the war with a musket on his shoulder and "hard-tack" in his haversack. Look out for war stories in this paper. Fewer schools and better, fewer books and better, fewer sermons and better, fewer newspapers and better, are all in the direction of intelligent progress. Mr. C. Christopherson is building a hardware store at Juliette, 32x50 two stories high. Mr. C. is a hustler and ought to meet with success. He has considerable property here which he is gradually disposing of before he leaves. If the little ladies who took part in the 4th-of-July parade will leave their badges, hats, etc., at the stores of the Genesee Mercantile Co. they will confer a favor upon the committee. B. O. Winslow came down from the Cour d'Alone last Friday, stepped in the next day and ordered the News sent to him at Kendrick, where he will operate the Cheatham & Baker grain warehouse the coming season. H. A. Thomas, over northeast six miles, was a Saturday visitor, and enlisted for the News. He reported the wheat crop in his locality looking very good but not up to last year's stand. The late cool weather will help it out amazingly. Genesee will have another lively stable, making three in all. Houghton & Edwards is the new firm and the barn is to be 60x60 with 24 ft. posts, located just north of the depot on the Hodgins lots. The boys expect to be ready for business by September 1st. And Lo! the poor Indian lies in the shade of a barb wire fence and reflects upon his financial standing as follows: "Sequaw cutten hav one moon, $20, pixon barley one moon, $20, two moon, $40. Heap nappies, heap fire water, heap poker," says Pocatello Tribune. The Genesee News, by Hopp & Power, from Genesee, Idaho, is with us. It is a good paper, carefully edited and well printed. The boys sent us a celebration bill, with imprint "Genesee News Power Print." Suppose that means Chas. Power print! Good luck, boys.—De Smet (Dakota) News. Dedrick Scharnhorst was up from Uniontown way Monday after lumber for a new barn. He built a large barn last year and is now building a smaller one, fifty feet square and making other improvements. He dropped two dollars in our exchequer while making the rounds of the city. Mr. Chas. Stine, a merchant of Castle Rock, Washington, visited at the Grimes household a few days last week and this. Mr. Stine was looking over the country with a view of going into business. He and Mr. Grimes visited Juliette Sunday, and left a day or two later for other points. The second game of the Lewiston-Genesee series will be played Sunday. Genesee it is reported is out for blood, but Lewiston will take up an aggregation of ball players that cannot be beaten by amateurs.—Lewiston Teller. Eh, what did you say? Tell (or) over again. Judging from the above our boys must be professionals! Did you witness the bucking exhibition on main street last Friday? The poor cayuse was roughly handled, even worse than the Lewiston ball players! The last we saw of the animal it was nearly broke—in two in the back—for it could scarcely stand up. Our only colored gentleman was doing the riding act. Lewiston had an ice cream panic the night of the Fourth. Many who ate of the ice cream flavored with pine apple were taken deathly sick. The doctors had a lively time for an hour or two. More than a dozen cases were reported in an hour. Fortunately, however, none of them were serious. The trouble arose from the acid formed on the tin vessel in which the cream was allowed to stand for so long. So the Teller tells. We have received a copy of the Genesee, Idaho, News, with the name of J. W. Hopp flying at the masthead as one of the proprietors. It is a seven column folio, with subscription price of $2 per year. J. W. is one of three or four brothers, whose parental roof tree is on the county line, between here and Brush Creek. Whenever we see the name of Hopp it is usually at the top of the first column in some good looking paper.—Strawberry Point (La) Press. The Fourth Annual Session of the Latah County Teacher's Institute will be held in Moscow commencing on the 25th and continuing until August 3d. The instructors are T. N. Creekmur, J. C. Muerman and E. H. Thompson. Mr. Creekmur has been assigned the department of school law, records and reports, Mr. Thompson arithmetic, grammar, geography and penmanship and Mr. Muerman reading, school government, physiology and history. A series of lectures on educational topics will be arranged for each evening during the institute. All the teachers in the county under the law are required to be present.

—The Jamison blacksmith shop is up, painted and newly ready for business. —Yesterday was the liveliest day in Genesee for a long time. A circus will bring the people to town when everything else fails. —The Genesee Roller Mill is undergoing repairs, the capacity will be doubled and new machinery added. Glad to see it. Full particulars later. —Wm. Wallis arrived here this week from Darlington, Wis. He is a friend of Wagon-maker Anderson and will run the shop while Anderson is off warring. —We received a pleasant call from Mr. John Lohow, press agent of Robinson's show. He is well pleased with the treatment his circus is receiving in the Palouse country and may come again. —Our rustling well diggers dug wells for H. B. Hodgins, Judge Buck and Mr. Sampson, 41, 65 and 60 feet deep respectively, since our last issue. Kolzer & Stacker are the chaps to see if want a well on short notice and easy terms. See advertisement. —Robinson's show yesterday was the most stupendous affair of the kind ever in the west, without a doubt. The circus bill generally advertises more than is in the performances, but that is not the case with Robinson's layout. The parade in the morning was unprecedented in its wealth of pageantry and the performances that followed pleased everybody. Hundreds of people attended and all were happily surprised to find such a great show. The large 75 year old elephant, the $30,000 Giraffe, the tapir, a species of hippopotamus, the Kuesia will bear, the ostrich and other animals were features most attractive. The show contained numerous other desirable attractions which cannot be seen in no other circus in the west. The grand spectacle of Solomon, his Temple and the Queen of Sheba is a marvelous, pagantic and scenic production that is worthy of note. All in all it is a show well worth going miles to see. The crowd in attendance in the afternoon is estimated at over 3,000. Come again, Mr. Robinson. —The strike at the seat of the great Carnegie iron works, at Homestead, Pa., has quieted down, and the Pinkertons got the worst of it. The riot was the culmination of troubles which have been brewing for a month. The Carnegie Co. submitted a scale that was to govern the workman, which was followed by a preemptory refusal on the part of the company to recognize the amalgamated association. The fight commenced and after the skirmish this dispatch was sent out: The sun rose on a quadron of barges manned by Pinkerton men, moving up the Monongahela. The sun on a river stained with mingled blood of Pinkerton and strikers, and a triumphal procession of Carnegie strikers through the streets with the vanquished invaders as captives compelled to doff their hats and make obeisance while passing the headquarters of the amalgamated industrial societies. It is a victory for labor, it is a triumph for the 6,000 men, women and children; who gathered on the banks, and with cannon, rifles, revolvers, clubs, stones, and scraps of iron, kept back the flotilla of invaders, but it is a triumph won at the price of bloody sacrifice, and in the midst of the industrial rejoicing tonight in Homestead and Pittsburg, is the weeping of widows and orphans. For more than thirteen hours today the battle raged between the strikers and Pinkerton's men, and just before the sun went down the latter surrendered. With a shout of triumph the strikers marched their natural enemies through the streets, literally compelling them to run a gauntlet. An angry mob lined both sides of the streets, and as the men passed by, each in charge of two men, they were subjected to all manner of abuse, kicked, cuffed, stoned, and one had an eye poked out with an umbrella in the hands of infuriated workman. Fully thirty were injured. Strikers interested in their railroad iron fort on the Carnegie property were on the quiver all the time. It was the greatest battle ever waged on the continent. 300 Pinkerton detectives in steel lined barges were moored in the river the whole day. On both sides of the river an infuriated mob numbering thousands bombarded them with cannon balls, dynamite bombs drenched the barges with oil, floated fire boats to them to set them on fire, while sharpshooters with Winchesters from points of vantage on the shore kept watch on the boats, and whenever a Pinkerton head appeared it was greeted with a shower of bullets. Everything is quiet now and the difficulties are being adjusted. —A number of our business men have been visiting the surrounding wheat fields the past week and all declare that the crop is looking very fine. The hot weather may have hurt the grain in localities where the soil is lightest, but on the whole it is in excellent condition, and the yield will be enormous. Viewing the country as a whole, they say, the grain which will be marketed here this year will surprise the most of us, and will hustle the railroads to carry it out in any reasonable length of time. Think of a wheat blockade. We really like to see one. Go to the Genesee Drug Co. for the Finest Perfumes.

—The Genesee Recorder has been enlarged and the name changed to THE GENESEE NEWS, under the management of Hopp & Power. It presents a handsome appearance and reflects credit on publishers and patrons as well. The condition of a town as well as the enterprise of the business is shown by the local and advertising columns of a newspaper.—Sumas News. —Here is a list of the brave soldier lads that went from here to put down the rebellion in the mines: Capt. Haymond, Lieut. Craig, Sergeants, Krum, Hough, Hayes; Corporals Manning, Near, Bell, Anderson; high privates C. Jones, Fred. Jones, P. and Chas. Steltz, Arthur and Fred. Harris, Chas. Power, Bert Easterbrook, Joe Bowman, C. and F. Ebel, Henry Hough, E. T. Platt, G. N. Hollister, Dan McLaughlin, Seal Nelson, Victor Hasfurther, C. E. Hibbs, W. D. Page, Joe Cunningham, Sam'l Patterson, Francis Hanson—32 in all. Look out for great stories on their return! —Walking along one of our back streets on Monday when night had spread her mantle o'er the scene, leaving the romantic youth and the lovely maiden to swing upon the garden gate at will, our reporter was privileged to hear the following conversation: "Laura, dear, I must go to war, and I will show to you that I am brave and true." "Gwoze, dear Gwoze, don't go; I fear I'll n'er see you more. Boo-o-o-o-o!" "I must go willingly or be forced to go by that mean old Cap. Haymond." Just then the reported yelled, "Out of sight," and slid around the corner. The young man is now in the front ranks in the mines shooting—craps! —The people in this section are prosperous, industrious and full of pluck. One of the principal secrets of success is pluck. Where that is lacking, other qualifications are of different service. The habit of giving up, often makes poor people, where perseverance would put them on the road to fortune. At this day of our generation booms and schemes don't count, but perseverance, pluck and good, hard common sense are the stepping stones to independence. In the present stage of life every man has his ups and downs, trials and tribulations, and when he meets with reverses, must not despair, but take renewed courage and push on. A resolute adherence to the idea that victory is a matter of surmounting one obstacle after another, of rectifying mistakes and avoiding making any more, will finally land one in safety and comfort. Of course you must be saving, but not miserly. What good is it to receive a lucrative income when the money is spent freely for useless things. Many a young man has thrown away his chance because he was allowed to have full swing when a boy. Learn to be saving, and when you meet with failure, try again; the man of success accepts the situation, and tightens his armor for further conflict.

THE GENESSEE NEWS.

Interest at the Post Office at Genesee, Idaho. Published weekly, except on Wednesdays. Price, 10 cents. Editor and Proprietor, Geo. W. Harris.

An honorable member within party lines is commendable. It is but natural that there should be rivalry. It is the outgrowth of ambition and the man without ambition is not worth a red. But there is a time to halt.

The nomination of W. J. McConnell for governor of Idaho is considered a very strong one—the very best that could have been made at this time. His home county—Latah—will give him a good margin.

Judge Beck at one time U. S. Attorney for Idaho Territory, and well known to the people of these parts, received the republican nomination for superior judge at Spokane last week. He is an old and able attorney, and is undoubtedly called to serve the people.

The republicans of Idaho unanimously by acclamation renominated Hon. Willis Sweet for congress. This unusual compliment was well bestowed. Though young in years, he is old in experience, and will make a most valuable member in Washington for Idaho. He has faithfully carried out the wishes of the people irrespective of parties. He is worthy of another term. That he will be returned by an increased majority no one denies. He is the next congressman, WILLIS SWEET.

JAMES REUBEN, the Indian scout who fought with the whites against the Nez Perces, in the summer of 1877 outbreak here, was a visitor at this shop last week. He showed us a few scars which were given him during the war. He thinks he is badly treated by Uncle Sam when he is not allowed a pension. He shouldered the market, donated a blue suit and was always to the front doing good work. Says the allotment of land on the reservation will soon be finished, patent given and the Indian who is entitled to vote, and they propose to right some of the wrongs now being perpetrated on the reservation. There are many things on the statute books that will have to be blotted out or accounted for. The party that wants their support will have to make amends. Mr. Reuben says there will be six hundred voters of them and if they had a vote this fall Mr. Weaver would get every one of them.

POLITICS warm up as the day advances, and in public matters there is always room for differences of opinion. We cannot all think alike. That is natural and right. We have no recourse to remedy and express our views and that is at the head of the parade. We are defeated at the ballot box we should let the matter drop there until the next term, and not resort to abuse and misrepresentation. It is always easy to find fault about matters which looked at through unfriendly eyes appear important, when they are really so. The wisest and most patriotic plan always is to support all measures which appear fair and reasonable, especially when endorsed by the people. How to the will of the majority. Do not run on a tangent, but investigate thoroughly. All acts of remorse will now be lying about the man and that being bribed, bought his nomination, etc. It is just because one man's appetite have a few more friends or is a little more able in securing votes, is no reason that he is dishonest and unfit for office. Whenever you go into a caucus or meeting abide by the consequences. Let the past be buried. We are now looking to the future and writing in reference to the coming election. Let the campaign be fair and honestly conducted.

A STRONG TICKET. The men for whom the republicans of Idaho cast their votes next November were named at Moscow last week. They constitute collectively a ticket that is probably the best that could be named now. The offices were judiciously distributed geographically. If a section failed to get what it wanted, that spot was handsomely recognized in the past. That the ticket will be elected the democrats frankly admit. The party presents a solid front, is organized as it has never been before and the leaders are preparing for the battle before them with a confidence born of knowledge of the situation. There will be three tickets in the field this year and while the republican party may not have a majority it will have a good plurality. These are the gentlemen who will carry salaries for the next two years: Congressman... WILLIS SWEET; U. S. Attorney... W. J. McCONNELL; Lieutenant Governor... J. W. WILLIS; Attorney General... G. W. HARRIS; Treasurer... W. C. HILL; Superintendent of Public Instruction... J. H. WATERS; President electors... J. H. WATERS; J. H. WATERS.

The convention contained some able men and the principle fight was on the government side. The last three aspirants in the race. W. J. McConnell, of Moscow, had the lead from the start and his nomination was secured by a vote of 100. McConnell defeated for senator two years ago. He asked nothing for himself and would be satisfied with either of the other candidates—anything to defeat his political foe. Claggett is an able man and had things much his own way in the campaign but he could not overcome the heavy odds against him when it came to voting, as the following shows: The first ballot gave McConnell 60, G. short of a victory, Willey 45, Moss 25, Wells 2. A motion to adjourn until 9 a. m. was made but lost, 63 yeas and 65 nays. An assistant secretary was then appointed and a motion made to adjourn until 9:30 a. m. Ayes 77, nays 73. Second ballot, McConnell 65, Willey 35, Moss 25, Wells 1. This was just enough for a nomination.

The result of the ballot was received with tremendous cheering and on motion of Heburn of Shoshone the nomination was made unanimous. Though at midnight, the firing of guns continued until a great was the noise and excitement that followed.

Willis Sweet was renominated for congress by acclamation and with cheers. A deserved compliment, and he will be re-elected by an increased majority. District made nominations as follows: The second senatorial district, consisting of Kootenai and Latah, named Fred L. Morgan of Idaho county, Nez Perce and Idaho, J. L. Morgan of Idaho county, Nez Perce and Idaho, C. G. Giam of Blaine, Idaho and Nez Perce, W. L. Thompson of Blaine, Idaho, H. Hopper of Blaine, Idaho and AT, A. A. Caldwell of Pocatello.

All hail the new congress. The second senatorial district, consisting of Kootenai and Latah, named Fred L. Morgan of Idaho county, Nez Perce and Idaho, J. L. Morgan of Idaho county, Nez Perce and Idaho, C. G. Giam of Blaine, Idaho and Nez Perce, W. L. Thompson of Blaine, Idaho, H. Hopper of Blaine, Idaho and AT, A. A. Caldwell of Pocatello.

Among the new resolutions and planks we quote: We congratulate the Mormon church on its recent declaration, abandoning polygamy and on the divorce of many of its members. We congratulate the Mormon church on its recent declaration, abandoning polygamy and on the divorce of many of its members. We congratulate the Mormon church on its recent declaration, abandoning polygamy and on the divorce of many of its members.

AMMONIA OR ALUM. How to Detect Them. Ammonia and alum are the most common adulterants used in the manufacture of baking powder. The government report shows that a large percentage of the baking powder on the market contains either one or the other, or both these pernicious drugs. Ammonia particularly is in very general use. This white powder is an article of daily food, one of the most injurious poisons is simply criminal. Slow ammonium poisoning produces disease of the stomach and is particularly injurious to the complexion. The presence of ammonia or alum in a baking powder, however, can easily be detected.

To Detect Ammonia. Mix one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder with one teaspoonful of water in a tin cup, boil thoroughly for a few moments, stir to prevent burning and if ammonia is present you can smell it to the rising steam. Or place a can of the suspected powder top down on a hot stove for a minute or two, then take off the cover and smell.

To Detect Alum. Alum powder can be tested by putting a teaspoonful of suspected powder in a glass of water. If no effervescence (that is, bubbling or simmering) takes place, condemn the powder. If it bubbles or simmers, take one-half teaspoonful of baking powder in lid of say half pound can, char thoroughly over a strong alcohol lamp, a good glass of water, and if you see a white residue (that is, burning until the whole mass is black) pour a little vinegar into the lid and mix it with the residue. The residue of sulphurated hydrogen, which may be detected by its foul odor.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from alum, ammonia, or any other adulterant.

People's Party State Convention

The third party of Idaho assembled in convention at Boise last Friday and nominated the following ticket: Governor, A. J. Cronk, Custer; Lieutenant Gov., J. B. Wright, Caldwell; Secretary, B. F. Chaney, Latah; Atty Gen., J. R. West, Boise; Treasurer, T. J. Sutton, Boise; Auditor, J. H. Anderson, Washington county; Superintendent, L. L. Shearer, of Washington county; Conf. Sec., Captain Jas. Gunn, editor Bellevue Herald; Presidential Electors, Alex. Warmally of Alturas; J. S. McCann of Ada; S. D. Strong, of Nez Perce.

Great enthusiasm prevailed during the session and the convention went wild when Capt. Gunn was nominated for congress. A platform was adopted unanimously. It endorses the platform and nominees of the Omaha national convention; favors the establishment of a continental board of arbitration to settle all differences between capital and labor; demands better state lien laws; the free and untaxed coinage of silver at the value of 16 to 1, and favors the owning of waters of the state by the people thereof in perpetuity.

THE GENESEE NEWS.
Published at the Post Office at Genesee, Idaho, as second-class mail matter.
Genesee, Idaho. Editors and Proprietors:
W. HARRIS, Proprietor.
It's Burke for governor and a pre-emptive strike on the part of McConnell will out distance his competitor with perfect ease.
After the Washington democrats nominated Snider for governor and voted down the canal project, Chairman Gilman stated the party would lose the state by 10,000.
Will Burke resign? For the Spokane papers we learn he was studied for a gambling debt last Saturday by Corwell & Co. of Montana for $2,000. John will not let hard sledding to run for governor when in the toils of law.
The Moscow Democrat is scoring its party leaders in the county and warns them to do better or the party will be buried beyond resurrection this fall. The county convention takes place in Genesee on the 20th and demands fair play and justice to all. That's the stuff, Harvey, sail into 'em, and purify the party.
From the Boise Sentinel, the new third party paper just started, we learn that Weaver expects to carry in this fall's election the states of Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Colorado, Idaho, West Virginia, Nevada and Oregon, with a good fighting chance for California, Indiana, Washington, Missouri, Iowa and Mississippi, and it further says Cleveland may be called off before November 8th. Why not make the claim for Weaver unmaking, Bro.
Sutton? Mr. Weaver's name is near being elected president as well as treasurer of Idaho.
The strike of the switchmen has been declared off again. They are get the worst of it, the same as they in the Homestead and Coeur d'Alene strikes. They will always be beaten when they resort to illegal and al-lhornt measures. The railroads and mines are in operation and the strikers are thousands of dollars poorer in pocket, and are confronted with a period of idleness and the loss of comfortable homes. If the strikers had carried on a peaceful contention for what they believed to be their right, they would have been much better for them, and public sentiment would have been with them. As it is they have lost public sympathy, their cause is a lost object, all. They are now out of employment and we are sorry for them; and the best thing they can do is to look the situation squarely in the face, make terms with the management and return to the employment of the highest wages paid anywhere in the world for the work they do.
The democratic state convention at Boise last week nominated the following ticket:
Governor, John M. Burke.
Congressman, E. B. True.
Lieut. Gov., Frank Harris.
Secretary, J. H. Wickham.
Genesee Phil. Reagan.
Auditor, W. J. McClure.
Att. Gen., T. W. Reeves.
Supt. Schools, J. W. Farris.
Supreme Judge, F. E. Ensign.
Prof. Electors, G. V. Bryan, J. W.
Eden and J. W. Reid.
The principal fight was on governorship, Mr. Burke receiving the majority of the tenth ballot. Ed Stevenson was nominated the democrats would have been able to make a strong fight, but with Burke on the ticket it is impossible. When the best general will poll the highest vote. On the tenth ballot Burke's home county only gave him 2 of the 15 votes, and it is a mine owner it is he will not get a single laboring man's vote.
State Central Committee consists of:
J. H. Wickham, Adm.; G. V.
Bryan, Atty. Gen.; E. F. Taylor, Bingham; J. R. Brennan, Bear Lake; S.
T. Davis, Boise; J. M. Pierce, Cassia;
C. C. Clawson, Custer; G. W. Hill,
Front; W. W. Talking, Genesee; P. H.
W. B. McFarland, Kootenai; P. H.
Linghast, Latah; A. J. McNeil, Lem-hi; W. B. George, Logan; P. M. Davis, Nez Perce; J. M. Morgan, Owyhee; A. H. Hyde, Owyhee; Adam Albach, Shoshone; Frank Harris, Washington; C. B. Hilliard, J. W. Reid, J. N. Costin, G. W. Lane, M. Bennett, Blaine, Benewah, and Boise.
The platform endorses Cleveland and Stevenson, and declares for the unlimited culture of silver; favors the improvement of Snake and Columbia rivers by national government; denounces the republican administration for its failure to survey and allot the Nez Perce Indian Reservation lands under Cleveland's order; favors an eight hour system of labor; demands the repeal of the law which now prevents northern men from voting in the democratic party in Idaho; the leving and collecting of low taxes; an honest and economical administration; favors thorough and efficient schools; the sacred and inviolable and prudent and lawful investment of the public school fund; opposes the actions of the present administration in the Coeur d'Alene trouble, and arraigns the republican party in general.

FRUIT CULTURE.
Mr. H. D. Smith, in a paper read before the Whitman County Horticultural Society, gave his experience in the culture of different varieties of fruit. As the conditions of Latah are the same as in Whitman county, we want a good fruiting variety, namely; daily, $10, weekly $3 per year.
The Post Oregonian states that many of the Utahella Indians are leaving the reservation to spend their annual summer pilgrimages. Some go to the Walla Walla valley to fish and hunt, but the majority will travel to Huntington in accordance with an agreement to meet the Bannock Indians half way, trade horses and goods, and smoke the pipe of peace.
The tribes were in open enmity in war of 1878, but emigrants have been lately sent over by the Ban-nocks, and friendly terms restored.
The September Californian is a striking issue. It contains a sensational expose of spirit photography, from the pen of the well-known scientist, Dr. Elliott Coues of Smithsonian Institute. It also has an interesting article on reform in the Sins and one on India on "How to Secure Good Municipal Government." "Fishes Art in Hawaii" by Dr. Fisher, a former missionary.
There are other articles, reviews, poems, sketches equally as interesting and altogether the Californian is a very entertaining publication.
Published in San Francisco at $2 a year.
OLYMPIA was the rival place in the state in Washington last week.
The democrats had a great fight in their convention. The two leading and brilliant men of the party, Duke Lewis and Dr. DeBlaine, were cast aside for inferior men,
"Seattle was knocked down and jumped on, but finally permitted to get up," says the N. The fight was on the canal, and when it was settled several candidates with their names. Here is the ticket

Dr. Ignatz Mayer,

Consulting and Operating Surgeon for Deafness, Blindness, Deformities of the EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT.

Doctor Mayer pays particular attention to this important branch of medicine, and is prepared with the finest modern instruments to operate for the relief of CATARACT, CROSS EYE,

Clouds of the Lens, Lachrymation and Prolapse of the Pupil, Staphylococci, Pterygium, and the removal of Tumors and morbid growths of every description. Artificial Eyes and Ear-drugs inserted without pain. GRANULATED SYLINDER PERMANENTLY AND RADI-

ATED The Ear, its Diseases and Deformities Are much better understood now than in former years, and of several years standing.

NASAL CATARRH Is a disease of mucous membrane of the nasal chamber, and if not arrested in time the air may become seriously affected through the ostium tube, which connects the throat and ear, producing inflammation and purulent discharge, often destroying the drumhead, and finally deafness sets in. If you are afflicted with this disease be sure and consult the Doctor at once.

No matter how long standing your catarrh should be the doctor will speedily give you relief and cure the catarrh permanently with the aid of inhalers, local applications of medicine and with other appliances, and effectively medicate the Pharynx. A few treatments will show you that your catarrh can be cured, even if chronic and of several years standing. Dr. Mayer has made the adaptation of Spectacles and Eye Glasses

A life-long study and corrects the most difficult cases of Hyperopia (far sight), Myopia (near sight), Presbyopia (old sight), simple, compound and mixed astigmatism (blurred sight), asthenopia (weak sight), diplopia (double sight) etc.

HEADACHE If often times caused by error of refraction and accommodation, and can only be relieved and cured by the scientific adaptation of glasses.

ARTIFICIAL EYES Inserted without pain, which will move and look like the natural.

Call and examine his credentials and numerous testimonials. A regular graduate of leading medical and optician institutions. Limiting his practice to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

OFFICE AT Moscow, IDAHO, HOTEL - MOSCOW, Reception Room: Parlor and Room 3. CONSULTATION FREE. Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Will visit GENESEE SEPTEMBER 19, ONE DAY ONLY.

IDAHO REFERENCES. I experienced a great deal of trouble in finding glasses which suited my eyes accurately. There is a difference in the focal power of the two eyes. I consulted Dr. Mayer and received glasses which are perfectly easy; I can see with them the length of time by day or artificial light, and therefore take pleasure in recommending this gentleman to my friends and the citizens of Halley. J. B. WINTERS.

I suffered with Nasal Catarrh and enlarged tonsils; my health failed more and more; I lost nearly 25 pounds in 15 months; began to cough every morning; I was treated for four months every day but without getting cured. Upon the arrival of Dr. Mayer in this city, I consulted him; he removed the tonsils very skillfully, causing almost no pain, and in a short time produced a wonderful change in my condition. I am getting better every day. He is a thorough specialist, very painstaking, and I feel that I can not say too much in his behalf. The doctor preserved the tonsils in alcohol, and any of my friends who wish to see it can call on him, or on me for further information. D. M. CARSON. Halley, August 1, 1922.

From Halley Times, August 6, 1922. Dr. Ignatz Mayer performed a very delicate operation last week upon Miss Della Bradley's eyes. The young lady, whose eyes were crossed, is much pleased with the result. Her eyes are now straight, and her uncle, John Gordon, feels grateful to the doctor.

Republican Ticket. For President of the United States, BENJAMIN HARRISON, (of Indiana.) For Vice-President of the United States, WHITELEW REID, (of New York.)

Republican State Ticket. For Congressman, WILLIS SWETT. For Presidential Electors, W. B. Heyburn, J. H. Richards and J. S. Waters. For Justice of the Supreme Court, L. N. SULLIVAN.

For Governor, W. J. MCCONNELL. For Lieutenant Governor, Frank H. Willis. For Secretary of State, JAMES F. CURTIS. For Attorney General, GEORGE M. PARSONS.

For Treasurer, W. C. HILL. For Auditor, FRANK HANNAH. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, B. BYRON LOWERY.

Now, republicans, buckle your armor on and hustle manfully for your ticket. Just because you have a strong team it is no reason it will win on a canter gait. The democrats are close behind with a snorting team, so look out. And there's the spanking new third party team strapping around and may get a few steps farther along than is comfortable for some.

The democratic county convention took place last Saturday and was a very harmonious affair throughout. J. H. Forney was made chairman. All the nominations were made by acclamation except sheriff, and our Mr. Bundy walked off with the nomination on the first formal ballot. Here is the ticket put out:

For sheriff, H. J. Bundy. For assessor, L. D. Martin. For coroner, C. E. Worthington. For surveyor, W. P. Nichols. For probate judge, W. G. Culbertson.

For auditor, W. G. Payne. For treasurer, I. C. Hattabaugh. For senator, J. M. Walker. For representatives, J. G. Bratton, C. W. Wilton, W. J. Seate.

For commissioners, W. Cram, J. R. Baker and D. C. Tibbets. Messrs. Bundy, Martin and Hattabaugh are considered strong men and if any of the ticket is elected these gentlemen will be the lucky ones.

Four state tickets in the field up to date and Miss Belva Lockwood cranks are yet to be heard from. The prohibition ticket was put up last week and here it is:

For governor—John A. Clark, of Bingham county. For lieutenant governor—Moses F. Fowler, of Ada county. For congressman—E. R. Hedley, of Latah county.

For secretary of state—Rev. I. S. Hicks, of Ada county. For auditor—J. W. Post, of Kootenai county. For superintendent—S. D. Condit, of Cassia county.

Attorney general—Nobody. For treasurer—C. W. Ramsey, of Bingham county. For supreme court justice—T. M. Stewart, of Bingham.

For presidential electors—W. P. Holly, of Ada; N. P. Price, of Bingham; and W. L. Pearson, of Cassia county.

The county of Bingham is well represented on the above ticket. Here's to the water party!

As THE main fight is to be on the state ticket the News desires to see a good clean canvas made the next two months. As the office of governor is the highest, it is no more than right for the people to know something about the candidates up for that high office. This week we will give something of Hon. W. H. McConnell, the republican nominee, and later on will follow with the democratic and people's nominees. Mr. McConnell is well known by all in this section so there is no need of giving a sketch of his life; all know he is pushing, energetic and well qualified for the high position he has been called to fill. In Idaho the silver question is an important one and will do its share in shaping the future of the state. The candidates will have to define their position on this question, and we believe Mr. McConnell's past record on the silver issue will greatly strengthen him before the sober, industrious working people. During his short term of four months as senator he made a most creditable record, and especially on the silver question. In his speech delivered before the senate Jan. 13, 1891, Mr. McConnell took very strong grounds in favor of the proposition to throw the mints open to the coinage of silver on the same terms as gold. He reviewed the conditions of the country during the preceding 15 years and said suffering existed where plenty should prevail, and continued:

Mr. President, I believe that this condition is caused by a scarcity of money, which creates the low to control what there is to the detriment of the many. This being so, what is the remedy? We believe that it is the making of more money. Gold and silver has always been money. But they are only money when some government puts its stamp upon them and says this piece of gold and that piece of silver shall have a certain value, the gold and silver as it comes from the mine or the assay office is simply a commodity like wheat or cotton or beef. It is not money. When the government takes any specific amount of it and says, this is $10 that is $10 it becomes money; and neither of these metals has ever been or will be money until some government does that. The shiekahs of the Abrahamson gold for his burying ground had the value of each stamped upon it. The "penny" with which the Pharaohs attempted to trap the Divine Master had the stamp of imperial Caesar upon it.

The first movement for the relief of the people must be the restoration of silver as money. Silver is the money of the people. It is the money of trade. It permeates every section, every town, every hamlet, every household. Gold is the money of the bankers and speculators and money lenders. And it is these classes, and these alone, who oppose the re-coinage of silver.

The position on this side of the chamber who are opposing this measure must not treat us of the west as strangers from a strange land. "We are of your own kin and kindred." We are the sons and brothers of your constituents, who have battled with mountain and desert savage, as your fathers, who were our fathers, did to build up new states where your inheritance is now. You have not the same respect for a constitution of alliances; we are striving for it. Everything that you have asked for we have reported.

The west has been loyal to you and to your ideas. It is loyal to you now—not only loyal, but we are proud of you as well; proud of the statesmanship that you have shown in the past; proud of the grand and heroic deeds you have accomplished. It is not the silver kings that are now asking for the free coinage of silver. It is the people who need more money with which to transact their business—more money, because more money will make prices better; more money, because more money will rescue them from the hands of the usurer and the land shark.

Mr. President, I suppose, Sir, I ought to apologize for having taken so much time in this discussion, when so many able men and older senators than myself desire to be heard. And I do, Sir, because I know it is a violation of the customs of this body; but Shakspeare said "Nice customs must courtesy to great kings." Every American citizen is a sovereign in his own right, and I am here as the representative of a number of American sovereigns—these "great kings"—and so I have brushed "nice customs" aside, that the voice of the people of Idaho, the youngest and fairest of the sisterhood of states, could be heard in behalf of free coinage, as it will always be heard in favor of everything that tends to the benefit of the people and the growth and glory of our country.

Mr. McConnell's silver record is good enough for our people—sound enough for all, and as to his ability to look after Idaho's interests no one will question, not even his political opponents. More at some future time.

The Coeur d'Alone American is a new paper, bright, and full of spicy reading. It is printed up where John M. Burke, the democratic nominee for governor hails from. After reading several columns devoted to Burke we have come to the conclusion that Editor Brown must be pretty well acquainted with that gentleman. Hear him: "J. Burke lives in Spokane; he patronizes Spokane faro banks, does his dissipating in Spokane, and honors Idaho with nothing but an occasional flying nip. We are confronted with this portentous question: Is this candidate of the democracy a friend of home industries? Does he respect the feelings and interests of his own people? Surely not, and we most earnestly call upon the democracy to induce their candidate for governor to patronize our home faro-banks and our home whisky barrels."

The democratic papers of the whole country are worked up over Labor Commissioner Peck's official report upon the effect of McKinley's bill upon the wage earners, who comes to the conclusion that the law is a beneficial one to the whole country. Mr. Peck is a sound democrat and speaks his mind thusly:

I rather expected my report would cause some comment, but it is all unexpected to call it a political document. I started this inquiry in December, 1891, so you see there was no thought of the present campaign in laying out the work. The tariff question was taken up because it has come to be one of the greatest moments to the workingmen, in whose interest my bureau was established. Now, I am a democrat, a Hill Democrat, if you will—and I began this inquiry with the belief that the result would vindicate the Democratic tariff position. The first returns came from the silk industry and were very pleasing to my way of thinking. But I am free to admit that the report as a whole is not in harmony with the Democratic platform so far as the tariff is concerned. However, my duty as a state official is to report things as I find them, not as a reckless partisan would like to have them construed. There is no political bias about any of my report, nor do I believe there is in the reports of any labor bureau in the country. All I can say is that the statements of my report are based on actual confidential letters received from 6000 representatives of wholesale manufacturers of New York state. The result shows me that leading Democratic speakers are in error as to the effect of the McKinley bill. The figures of my report speak for themselves, and there is no getting away from them.

Mr. Peck is creating a "peck of trouble" for his party, not only in New York, but in all the northern states. But let us have the truth, no matter who it cuts. David Hill says he's sorry the report was published and winks the other eye, while Cleveland says nothing and winks both eyes.

Ordinance No. 44. An Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 38, entitled "An Ordinance defining and establishing the grade lines on Walnut street, between Spruce and Thine streets, in the town of Genesee, Idaho." Both were badly rattled, but bruin recovered first, stood straight up, held out his paws for one "fond embrace," but Bob slid no and raised his gun and blazed away. His bearship was not phased a bit and made for Bob double quick. Bob was so rattled that he forgot to get off the second barrel, but smashed the gun over bruin's head and ran. He never halted to take breath until he reach home. He got some of the boys and returned to the scene of conflict, expecting of course, to find bruin dead. But no, bruin had decamped. Bob's gun is worthless.

NEWS SUPPLEMENT.

Vol. 2.

Genesee, Idaho, September 9, 1892,

No. 18.

Idaho's Incomparable Climate.

Chief of the varied resources of Idaho is her climate. The ham-shaped state boasts mines rich in gold and silver, lead and copper; valleys of wide expanse, deep-soiled and splendidly watered; mountains grass-covered and timber-clad; lakes and streams spring-fed and trout-invested; canyons and plains fowl-flecked and game-fretted. She is profuse in promise to the prospector and plethoric in performance to the miner; returns full store to the farmer, the gardner and the fruit-grower; assures the stock-raiser steadiness of increase and wealth of grazing; offers to the miller perfect grain, to the sawyer abundant timber, and to both good markets; tenders the manufacturer power from her rapid rivers, with neither stint nor price; invites the angler to fly-shot beyond compare, the wing-shot to gunning unexcelled and the hardier hunter to pursuit of fleet and savage game. She has the "supreme resources" of mines, soil, water, grass and timber in great degree, but above and beyond them all is her climate.

COMPARISONS THAT MAY BE ODIUS.

Idaho does not afford the contentment and the luxuriance which mark and make delightful the states of Florida and California; does not impress with the fragrance and beauty of the Sandwich island; does not offer easy and peaceful decent to lassitude and death. On the contrary she revives and encourages, strengthens and upbuilds. One has but to leave the dreary sagebrush plain, the monotonous desert of the Snake river valley, through which the Oregon Short Line runs, take the Wood river branch at Shoshone and penetrate the central part of the state, to learn that Idaho is rugged, bold and picturesque. To an invalid afflicted with throat or lung trouble her mountain air is bracing and invigorating; its sweetness and delicacy appeal even to the sense of taste; it is appetizing and hunger making. One feels ready to eat the very air. But, of course, he wants something more substantial, and he may proceed to make a meal on trout or venison or prairie chicken at any restaurant or hotel. If he be a sportsman and is at Hailey, Bellevue, Ketchum, Challis, or Clayton, or any of the cities or resorts, he may hook the fish himself in the crystal torrents that scurry past the near-by towns, or perchance kill the fowl or deer on the adjacent hills.

RESTFUL NIGHTS, STRENGTHENING DAYS

Let the invalid worn with bronchial troubles go to Idaho in summer. During the day the mercury will range from 70 to 100 in the shade; yet in the light, dry air he can stroll or ride or work in the bright sunshine, his face bronzing and his muscles quickening in the mountain breeze, with never a tho't of discomfort, the while there bends over him a monochrome of sky whose shade and density of blue were never seen in a humid climate, and every breath he draws is an inspiration. At sunset he will need warm covering, for the mercury will drop 30 to 50 degrees, and soundly, peacefully he will sleep the cool night long. With rest and appetite he loses lassitude; the languid feeling which he was waiting for death to relieve begins to go. He no longer wants to be let alone to die as easily as may be. "Divine discontent" seizes him; he grows combative and regains ambition; in short is on the return to health and usefulness. He has simply availed himself of the greatest of Idaho's resources, her matchless climate.—Oregonian.

—Prof. Scohey of the Pullman experiment station has twenty-eight different varieties of corn growing on the college farm. The earliest sown stands eight feet high and is still growing. This is proof that corn can be grown in the Palouse with profit.

—Lee Taylor and Miss Dolly Kirk were married in Vollmer last week, and as the knot was being tied, the Vedette warbled: Wilt thou take her for thy pard for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes; make the fire up every day, and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou give her all the "stuff" her little purse will pack; buy a monkey boa and muff, a little sealskin saque? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and her mother, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, thirteen sisters and a brother? and his face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as through the chapel floor he sank, he sadly said, "I wilt."

—It is hard to suit some women. A friend dropped in yesterday to tell us that he was completely discouraged and did not care how soon he passed in his checks. We asked him what was the trouble and said: "Well, the other day I told my wife that I had seen Mrs. Mc. on the street and she asked me what she had on and I couldn't tell her. She called me a fool and said I never took notice of anything. I met Mrs. Mc. again next day and begged that she would give me a description of her costume, as my wife wanted to know what she had on. She very kindly did so, and I wrote it down and took it home and read it to my wife. She asked me where I got it and I told her I asked Mrs. Mc. for her satisfaction. She at once flew into a passion and began to pack up her things, saying she would never live with such a fool of a man as I am. I tell you it is mighty hard to please a woman. She called me a fool because I could not describe Mrs. Mc's dress and after I went to the trouble of getting a description at first hand I was more of a fool than ever. It's pretty hard, I tell you." To Secure a Year's Subscription to a Popular Home and Farm Journal. Read Our Great Offer Given Below.

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangements by which we are prepared to supply FREE to each of our subscribers a year's subscription to that well-known monthly Home and Farm Journal, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Springfield and Cleveland, Ohio. We make this offer to each of our subscribers who will pay up all arrearages on subscription and one year in advance, and to all new subscribers paying one year in advance. The American Farmer is strictly National in its character. It is a high-class illustrated journal filled with entertaining and instructive reading matter, containing each month much information that is invaluable to agriculturists and of special interest to each member of every home. It is not a class publication and is suited to all localities, being National in its make-up and character, thus meeting with favor in all localities. It is strictly non-political and non-sectarian. It has a trained corps of contributors and is carefully edited. The various departments of Farm, Horticulture, Sheep and Swine, The Home, The Horse, and the Dairy, are filled with bright and useful matter. The readers of the American Farmer are universal in its praise and look for its monthly visits with keen anticipation. The regular subscription price to the American Farmer is $1.00 per year, but by this agreement it costs you nothing to receive that great publication for one year. Do not delay in taking advantage of this offer, but call at once and send in your subscription. Sample copy of the American Farmer can be seen at this office or will be supplied direct by the publishers.

NEWS SUPPLEMENT.

Vol. 2.

Genesee, Idaho, September 9, 1892,

No. 18.

Idaho's Incomparable Climate.

Chief of the varied resources of Idaho is her climate. The ham-shaped state boasts mines rich in gold and silver, lead and copper; valleys of wide expanse, deep-soiled and splendidly watered; mountains grass-covered and timber-clad; lakes and streams spring-fed and trout-invested; canyons and plains fowl-flecked and game-fretted. She is profuse in promise to the prospector and plethoric in performance to the miner; returns full store to the farmer, the gardner and the fruit-grower; assures the stock-raiser steadiness of increase and wealth of grazing; offers to the miller perfect grain, to the sawyer abundant timber, and to both good markets; tenders the manufacturer power from her rapid rivers, with neither stint nor price; invites the angler to fly fishing beyond compare, the wing-shot to gunning unexcelled and the harder hunter to pursuit of fleet and savage game. She has the "supreme resources" of mines, soil, water, grass and timber in great degree, but above and beyond them all is her climate.

COMPARISONS THAT MAY BE ODIUS.

Idaho does not afford the contentment and the luxuriance which mark and make delightful the states of Florida and California; does not impress with the fragrance and beauty of the Sanwich island; does not offer easy and peaceful decent to lassitude and death. On the contrary she revives and encourages, strengthens and upbuilds. One has but to leave the dreary sagebrush plain, the monotonous desert of the Snake river valley, through which the Oregon Short Line runs, take the Wood river branch at Shoshone and penetrate the central part of the state, to learn that Idaho is rugged, bold and picturesque. To an invalid afflicted with throat or lung trouble her mountain air is bracing and invigorating; its sweetness and delicacy appeal even to the sense of taste; it is appetizing and hunger making. One feels ready to eat the very air. But, of course, he wants something more substantial, and he may proceed to make a meal on trout or venison or prairie chicken at any restaurant or hotel. If he be a sportsman and is at Hailey, Bellevue, Ketchum, Challis, or Clayton, or any of the cities or resorts, he may hook the fish himself in the crystal torrents that scurry past the near-by towns, or perchance kill the fowl or deer on the adjacent hills.

RESTFUL NIGHTS, STRENGTHENING DAYS

Let the invalid worn with bronchial troubles go to Idaho in summer. During the day the mercury will range from 70 to 100 in the shade; yet in the light, dry air he can stroll or ride or work in the bright sunshine, his face bronzing and his muscles quickening in the mountain breeze, with never a thot of discomfort, the while there bends over him a monochrome of sky whose shade and density of blue were never seen in a humid climate, and every breath he draws is an inspiration. At sunset he will need warm covering, for the mercury will drop 30 to 50 degrees, and soundly, peacefully he will sleep the cool night long. With rest and appetite he loses lassitude; the languid feeling which he was waiting for death to relieve begins to go. He no longer wants to be let alone to die as easily as may be. "Divine discontent" siezes him; he grows combative and regains ambition; in short is on the return to health and usefulness. He has simply availed himself of the greatest of Idaho's resources, her matchless climate.—Oregonian.

—Only $1 for the Daily Miner. Butte, untill after the election. Cheap reading, and the Miner is the liveliest and best democratic paper that comes to Genesee. Step in and look it over.

—Prof. Scobery of the Pullman experiment station has twenty-eight different varieties of corn growing on the college farm. The earliest sown stands eight feet high and is still growing. This is proof that corn can be grown in the Palouse with profit.

—Lee Taylor and Miss Dolly Kirk were married in Vollmer last week, and as the knot was being tied, the Vedette warbled: Wilt thou take her for thy pard for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes; make the fire up every day, and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou give her all the "stuff" her little purse will pack; buy a monkey box and muff, a little sealskin saque? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and her mother, Aunt Jemime, Uncle John, thirteen sisters and a brother? and his face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as through the chapel floor he sank, he sadly said, "I wilt."

EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT,

Doctor Mayer pays particular attention to this important branch of medicine, and is prepared with the finest modern instruments to operate for the relief of CATARACT, CROSS EYE, Closure of Tear-duct, Lachrymal Fistula, Closure of the Nasal, Staphylococci, Herpes, and the removal of Tumors and morbid growths of every description. Artificial Eyes and Ear-drums inserted with skill. GRANULAR EYE-LIDS PERMANENTLY AND RADICALLY CURED.

The Ear, its Diseases and Deformities Are much better understood now than in former years, and yield more readily to proper treatment.

NASAL CATARRH Is a disease of mucous membrane of the nasal pharyngeal space, and if not arrested in time the ear may become seriously affected through the Eustachian tube, which connects the throat and ear, producing inflammation and suppuration of the middle ear, destroying the drumhead, and finally deafness sets in. If you are afflicted with this disease be sure and consult the Doctor at once.

No matter how long standing your catarrh should be, the Doctor will speedily give you relief and cure the same permanently with the aid of inhalers, local applications of medicine and with other appliances, and effectively mediate the Pharmacy. A few treatments will show you that your catarrh can be cured, even if chronic and of several years standing.

Dr. Mayer has made the adoption of Spectacles and Eye Glasses a life-long study and corrects the most difficult cases of Hyperopia (far sight), Myopia (near sight), Presbyopia (old sight), simple, compound and astigmatism, (blurred night vision), asthenopia (weak sight), diplopia (double sight) etc.

HEADACHE It often times causes a great deal of suffering and discomfort and can only be relieved and cured by the scientific adaptation of glasses.

ARTIFICIAL EYES Inserted without pain, which will more and more look like the natural. Call and examine his ophthalmic and numerous testimonials. A regular graduate of leading medical and ophthalmic institutions. Limiting his practice to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

IDAHO REFERENCES.
I experienced a great deal of trouble in finding glasses which suited my eyes accurately. There is a difference in the focal power of the two eyes, and I consulted Dr. Mayer and received glasses which are perfectly correct. I can see with them any length of time by day or artificial light, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending his oculist to my friends and the citizens of Halley.

J. B. WINTERS,
Halley, July 20, 1902.
I suffered with nasal catarrh and enlarged tonsils; my health failed more and more; I lost nearly 25 pounds in 18 months; began to cough every morning; I was treated for four months every day but without getting cured. Upon the arrival of Dr. Mayer in this city, I consulted him; he removed the tonsils very skillfully, causing almost no pain, and in a short time produced a wonderful change in my condition. I am getting better every day. He is a thorough specialist, very painstaking, and I feel that I can not say too much in his behalf. The doctor preserved the tonsils in alcohol, and any of my friends who wish to see it can call on him, or on me for further information.

From Halley Times, August 6, 1902.
Dr. Ignatz Mayer performed a very delicate operation last week upon Miss Beala Donnelly's eyes. The young lady, whose eyes were crossed, is much pleased with the result. Her eyes are now straight, and her uncle, John Condon, feels grateful to the doctor.

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION.
Submitted for Adoption or Rejection.

The following copy of a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state of Idaho is of vital interest to every citizen in the state:

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION.
Proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Idaho, to be submitted to the electors for adoption or rejection, at the next annual election in November, 1902, as provided in Senate Resolution No. 9 of its Legislature.

Passed the Senate December 15, 1901. Passed the House of Representatives December 17, 1901.

That Section 1, of Article 18, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 7. The officers as provided by Section 6 of this Article, shall receive annually as compensation for their services such salaries or fees, or both, as may be prescribed by law. Provided, That the sheriff, county commissioners, justices of the peace and constables in addition to such fees or salaries, or both, that they shall be allowed such mileage as may be prescribed by law.

Article 20, Section 1, of the constitution provides that proposed amendments shall be published in one newspaper of general circulation in each county at least six successive weeks prior to the next general election, and as this is such an important point especial attention is called thereto. For the benefit of those who are without copies of the constitution we print in full section 7 of article 18, as passed by the last session of the legislature.

Sec. 7. The officers provided by section six of this article shall receive annually as compensation for their services as follows: Sheriff, not more than four thousand dollars and not less than one thousand dollars, together with such mileage as may be prescribed by law; clerk of the district court, who is ex-officio auditor and recorder, not more than three thousand dollars, and not less than five hundred dollars; probate judge, who is ex-officio county superintendent of public instruction, not more than two thousand dollars and not less than five hundred dollars; county treasurer, who is ex-officio public administrator, not more than one thousand dollars, and not less than three hundred dollars; county assessor, who is ex-officio tax collector, not more than three thousand dollars and not less than five hundred dollars; coronor, not more than five hundred dollars; county surveyor, not more than one thousand dollars; county commissioners, such mileage and per diem as may be prescribed by law; and justices of the peace and constables such fees as may be prescribed by law.—Mirror.

—Geo. Spurbek rode to town Wednesday morning shouting, "she's a girl, and Mrs. Spurbek is as smart as you please." You ought to see the smile on grandpa Spurbek; certainly it should be quarantined!

—H. F. Burleigh, of Lewiston, is in the city in the interest of THE TUNA HEDGE, which for utility, economy and beauty, is said, has not an equal. The picture at this office shows a fine fence, and we believe it to be a good thing for this country. Read the advertisement on the supplement and look into this new deal.

—The school bell chimes again after a rest of three months, and how sweet the sound! The children are as anxious to take up their studies now as they were to drop them at the close. Over a hundred children are in attendance and nearly as many more will join later on. We have an excellent corps of teachers and parents should extend all the aid possible and give the instructors a chance to show themselves.

—An extra freight train Monday.

—Miss Edith Hollister is on the sick list.

—Gold watches given away at the postoffice.

—A. Bakke is the new clerk at the Jacobson cash store.

—The frame is going up for the Miss Brennan dwelling out west.

—Thomas Ingalls, Moscow, has been taking in a live town the past few days.

—Subscribe for the Butte Miner, our leading democratic daily. Only $1 till after election.

—We get trade from near other towns and will be increased right along if we work for it.

—L. G. Karzell, of Bloomington, Ill., arrived here this week and is the guest of J. H. Evans.

—John Fine and J. B. Bell visited their brother and brother-in-law here Wednesday, J. K. Bell.

—Col. Vollmer spent a day or two looking over things here this week. Everything is working.

—Nagel & Bomberg, our hustling butchers, brought in a fine bunch of beef cattle the first of the week.

—Hotel business is pretty good when parties visiting the town have to telegraph ahead to get a room.

—Northern Pacific R'y officials have granted a favorable schedule of wages to its telegraphic employees. Particulars next week.

—J. A. Craig is a gentleman of leisure now, he having sold his shop this week to Mr. A. W. Severance, who will carry on blacksmithing at the old stand.

—The Owen House has been raised up to grade and stands eight feet above ground. Dining room and kitchen will probably be put in below and more sleeping rooms added above.

—A night watch will probably be put on next week for a while. Then there will be less noise about town and the people will get more sleep. Later: Mr. Martin was put on Wednesday night.

—Mr. Davidson at the postoffice store is no slouch at slinging type, as we can testify from a few hours labor this week. Come again, mister, and set all the type you please, as long as it comes free!

—Let us try to keep all strangers looking for honest employment with us; talk up Genesee and encourage, and do not discourage. We have the country to back up our talk, and there is always "room for one more."

—W. J. Herman has the goods in his new brick pretty well arranged and invites all to come in and see him in the new store. He has been getting in new hardware and some fine furniture and altogether the interior is quite nicely fixed up. Step in and look him over.

—Shakespeare says "What's in a name?" We think could he but see the October number of TOILETTES, the quotation would have been changed, as no name but the one chosen by the publishers of that superb Fashion Magazine, could ever express or imply so much and with such sweet enjoyment to the eyes and minds of our fair mothers, wives and daughters as the grand and only TOILETTES. For sale by all book and news dealers at the low price of 15 cents, or $1.50 for a year.

—As we were wending our way down street, one day last week, we discovered that a great deal of hilarity was manifested in the bank building, and being of an inquisitive turn of mind, stepped in and investigated the reason for all this. Reason enough, indeed. The stockholders of the institution had just concluded their annual meeting and found a round dividend for their year's investments. The old officers of the bank gave such good service that they were all retained in their respective positions. The stockholders were all present and here is the roll call: H. A. Tucker, E. T. Platt, D. B. Grant, C. F. Burr, Geo. Daggett, Frank, Clayton and Fred. Jones, O. V. Porter, Pat Kinney, Joe Gieger. The books and records were thoroughly inspected as well as the safeguards and everything found in the very best condition. We took a peep in the vault and safe and indeed a more secure place for documents and money a person need not wish for. And everything is kept in its place. The time-lock is a handsome and secure piece of mechanism and a burglar might try a whole week without effecting an entrance. No better lock made. A great deal of credit is due Mr. D. B. Grant, the gentlemanly and courteous cashier, and Mr. H. A. Tucker, for the security of funds and the popularity of the bank, and the institution is one that all Genesee may be proud of. It is a solid little bank and our most influential farmers and business men are interested in its welfare. The News congratulates the stockholders on the very flattering showing they make for the year just closed, and bespeak for them a bright and prosperous future. Here's to the BANK OF GENESEE.

Moscow, Ida., Sept. 13, '02.
Hopp & Power, Pubs. GENESEE NEWS, Gentlemen:—I am so crowded with business that I will not be able to make a professional visit to your city the 19th, as stated before, but will be there without fail Tuesday, Sept. 27th, and remain one day. Yours truly,
JOHN HAYES, M. D.

—Thousands of acres of wheat can be seen standing awaiting the header.

And how nice the crops look. Every field presents an inspiring scene; every farmer is happy and contented, every merchant is happy and every day adds to the confidence and cheer. A farmer told us the other day, "I tell you this is the best country in the world. We can always have good crops if we do our farming as it should be done; yes, and get forty bushels to the acre without much trouble. Many more of our farmers would get forty bushels if they farmed it right. So it goes. Every farmer speaks well of the Palouse. He feels that he has chosen the garden spot of the earth for his abiding place. Latah will have an immense crop this year, and the result will be not only the building of railroads and establishing of industries, but an influx of immigration equally as large as this section has had the past year. Other sections meeting with failures shows this up to better advantage.

Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 1, 1892.
To whom it may concern:—
I have suffered with Chronic Granulation of the eyes for twenty years, and have never received a permanent cure, and I now desire to state that I have been under Dr. Ignatz Mayer's treatment only one week, but I can see a wonderful improvement in my eyes, and am confident of being permanently cured by his treatment, and I cheerfully recommend him to any one needing his service.

Yours truly, GEO. N. HINCKLEY.
P. S. Dr. Mayer will visit Genesee Sept. 27th, one day. At Palace Hotel.

NEWS SUPPLEMENT.

Vol. 2.

Genesee, Idaho, September 16, 1892,

No. 19.

—Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, they say, but that is hardly true with Sullivan.

—Charlie Power, the GENESSEE NEWS man, was in the city and told war stories with the Press gang Saturday night.—Pullman Press.

—Hundreds of immigrants recently arrived in New York harbor wish they had never left their native shores. They escaped cholera only to be forced to take a bath.

—Genesee is more fortunately situated than most towns. The town is surrounded with more rich farming country than any town in the Palouse and is hemmed in by mountains so the trade must come here. Our neighbors know it only to well and eye us with jealousy.

—A humble boy with a shining pail went gaily singing down the dale to where the cow with the brindle tail on the clover did regale. A bumble bee did gaily sail over the soft and shady vale to where the boy with the shining pail was milking the cow with the brindle tail. The bee lit down on the cow's left ear, her heels flew through the atmosphere and thro' the leaves of the chestnut tree the boy soared on to eternity.—Ex.

—St. Peter (on a summer vacation, but looking after business on the side)—See here! why haven't you been up my way?

Surprised Denizen of Earth—Why, I'm not dead yet!

St. Peter—You deceive yourself; you've been dead some time, and you are very much in the way here.

Surprised Denizen—I'll call in the neighbors to prove I'm alive and in business.

St. Peter—That's too much trouble. Here's your local paper; show me your advertisement.—Exchange.

—Telephone Palson paid his respects to this office last week and among the pointers he dropped were these: "Ven en follers ved en bad breath traes tew yif jew gude advaes, be korful abote et, for yenerally von ees yust so gude es det oder—Ef jew ken breng smailes on en face vore dere vos tears and frowns, jew kan baet your botom dolars dot jour liver ees not ote of plomp—Kolera morpis vos lake gedding morried, et dopples peeples oop—Planty tames et ees saefer to troest en follers ved beg renkles een haes naek, den det fuller vots got en smoed tong.—Ay vould redders ho en naeny dag noet kem doo es to tek koers ef en baebey een naet tames ved bel la aek—Ef jour wife faends en haerpins stok een jour veeskens ven jew kem hem to sopper, en hae yets raed haeded, gow done tew Depo Hus, en fer elf doler en femty sant, buy en forst klass ticket over det quikest tran to Spok Ann ofer North Pacifik roat, den ho planty tame to enjoy a naes naites slaep een Pullman Westibule tran en een momings ho jour veeskens skaved off." —The famous Whaleback Wet-more is more wet than anything else now. She has gone down and is a total loss.

—When you market your grain just step in and visit the News. We want the news, want more subscribers and more cash.

—A cholera rebellion is on. U. S. troops have been called out in New York to prevent people coming over from the old country to land. Much suffering on board the ships and exciting times are looked for.

—The Boise Sentinel, the leading alliance paper of the state, says: "J. M. Burke, of Spokane, Washington, is the Democratic nominee for governor. This is straight, Mr. Burke's home and family are at Spokane, his mines are in Idaho."

—The city herd law is hardly the right thing, but how can it be remedied? Stock is driven in the pound and after they are kept there twenty-four hours a printed notice is stuck up giving five days notice and then the stock is sold at auction. It does not give outsiders much show to get the stock before sold and when once sold cannot be redeemed. Of course the person losing the stock gets the money after all the costs are paid, but most invariably the stock is knocked off at less than half value.

—The rat editor of the the Palouse Gazette was out on a lark the other night and saw a dead hen. Presently a rat ran up, sniffed at the defunct fowl with much satisfaction, and went away in some haste. The onlooker, who is a student in natural history, knew what that meant, and removed the hen from the spot. In a minute or two the rat came back with half a dozen friends, with the evident intention of removing the carcass for future use. Arriving at the spot where the fowl had lain, the rat raised a loud squeak of astonishment at its absence. In a trice the other rats fell upon him so savagely that they left him dead on the field as a warning not to play practical jokes on his friends.

—The Wallace American, printed in the heart of the late Coeur d'Alene mining troubles, does not want the martial law removed. Says there are yet a great many men there who are daily threatening that they will "get even" when the troops are taken away. Hid somewhere in the hills, and within convenient reach of lawless men, are not less than five hundred shot-guns and rifles. There is an undercurrent of hatred and murderous malice in our bordering county, evident to any mind of ordinary discernment, which is liable to break out in another insurrection. It is a daily boast by them that the "scabs" will have to go. The hand of the Butte miner's union is plainly discernable, it is claimed, and to entirely withdraw the troops would afford the opportunity for another riot much more disastrous than the former. We understand two companies will remain until spring; it is hoped they will remain at least until a hundred or so insurrectionists are tried at Coeur d'Alene City and put where they belong.

—The printer's strike at Butte resulted in their favor and now the Miner pays 55 cents per thousand.

—Senator Hill must be quarantined as we hear nothing from him anymore. Still he is a good democrat!

—Dry good boxes as large as claim shanties have been unloaded at the Vollmer store this week. Now for business.

—Wheat has commenced to pour in in earnest, but the greater portion of it will be held for higher prices. Farmers, as a general rule, are out of debt and do not need to sell at present. What a happy and contented lot of farmers the Palouse contains. Can a more contented lot be found on the globe? Hardly.

Ghost of a Departed Boom.
Idaho Falls Register.

Bingham county has a ghost, a genuine live, dead—or in some other condition—phantom ghost. They say this light spirited freak of some unknown things hold forth on Butler's island, north of here in the forks of the Snake river. It makes nightly visits to the island, and its appearance has caused a couple of families to move away from the locality.

The Tuna Hedge.

The Fence of the Future.

ESPECIALLY adapted to this climate, soil and demands of the people.

The advantages of the Tuna Hedge are.

FIRST: In two years it makes a fence that will turn rabbits, sheep and hogs, and in three years it turns everything.

SECOND: It is the cheapest fencing ever used, as it supplies the material for all time to come.

THIRD: It does not sap or impoverish the ground, being strictly an atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots, and hence will not spread.

FOURTH: It grows only from cuttings, and will grow in the driest ground, drawing its sustenance from the air.

FIFTH: It requires no trimming, growing in perfect shape and height for a fence.

SIXTH: It has been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested in climates more rigorous than ours, and does not winter-kill, having been successfully grown in Ohio, Kansas, Texas and Colorado for the last nine years for fencing purposes.

We respectfully solicit investigation, and invite you to call and ascertain fully in regard to its merits, as this is an opportunity to secure fencing material that has never before been equalled. It does away with the mutilating barbed wire, gives the old posts and rails for firewood, and supplies fencing material on the farm. Address,

H. F. BURLEIGH,
LEWISTON, IDAHO.

It Costs You Nothing

To Secure a Year's Subscription to a Popular Home and Farm Journal. Read
Our Great Offer Given Below.

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangements by which we are prepared to supply FREE to each of our subscribers a year's subscription to that well-known monthly Home and Farm Journal, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Springfield and Cleveland, Ohio. We make this offer to each of our subscribers who will pay up all arrearages on subscription and one year in advance, and to all new subscribers paying one year in advance. The American Farmer is strictly National in its character. It is a high-class illustrated journal filled with entertaining and instructive reading matter, containing each month much information that is invaluable to agriculturists and of special interest to each member of every home. It is not a class publication and is suited to all localities, being National in its make-up and character, thus meeting with favor in all localities. It is strictly non-political and non-sectarian. It has a trained corps of contributors and is carefully edited. The various departments of Farm, Horticulture, Sheep and Swine, The Home, The Horse, and the Dairy, are filled with bright and useful matter. The readers of the American Farmer are universal in its praise and look for its monthly visits with keen anticipation. The regular subscription price to the American Farmer is $1.00 per year, but by this agreement it costs you nothing to receive that great publication for one year. Do not delay in taking advantage of this offer, but call at once and send in your subscription. Sample copy of the American Farmer can be seen at this office or will be supplied direct by the publishers.

Drummers are as numerous as flies around a molasses barrel in June. Fruit, fruit, fruit. The market is loaded down with the delicious crop.

Mrs. Larrabee has had quite a siege with cholera morbus the past two weeks. Musettes, to-morrow (Saturday) eve. "They'll never come back" will have to be changed.

J. W. Thompson, of the Pullman Bottling Works, was round yesterday drumming up business. W. S. Mervin's tread can hardly be heard when he passes by now, since the arrival of a boy last Sunday.

J. T. Ingalls was in town Monday and sold land to the amount of $13,000, a brother and W. J. Mervin being purchasers.

The Methodist people are building a substantial parsonage, and it will not be long before Rev. Roberts and family will occupy it.

The firm of Nelson, Gilmour & Co. is about to dissolve. They will divide up and make more firms and continue the building business.

A gentleman was around this week saying he would put in a saw mill if he could rent a house. At last accounts he was unable to secure one.

Very few deaths occur in this country. Geo. Steltz, the undertaker has only sold two coffins since last Christmas, which is good evidence of the above statement.

Landlord Stinson has filled all the vacant rooms up stairs in the iron building with beds and still he has not room enough. Now he is putting cots in his sample room.

The finest peaches that we have set our teeth in this year were those presented us this week by Mr. Hibbs, raised by his uncle Martin, near town. Juicy and very fine.

The 300 notch was reached this week in the registration of votes for this precinct. Genesee is getting to be of some importance, politically at least, and our neighbors are taking more notice of us lately. This well.

We understand district court will convene to-morrow (Saturday, 17th) at Moscow. All those who wish to have their naturalization papers should secure them then as without them they cannot vote at the coming election.

Chas. Sampson, on the Rim Rock, favored this office with some fine specimens of fruit this week which were relished by the News family. Plums! well yes, as large as your fist and apples as large as your head. A cluster of the latter is fine enough for the world's fair. You have our thanks for this gift.

Postmaster Burr circulated a petition Monday, and everybody signed it freely, to have the mail leave on the Northern Pacific at 8 a. m. and arrive at 3 p. m. Understand we are quite likely to get this, and it is the earnest wish of all that a change be made, as at present a great deal of inconvenience is experienced.

Boise City has a hot water artesian well. It comes out of the ground at a pressure of fifty pounds to the square inch at a temperature of 170 degrees, and the flow is a million and a half gallons per day. A large supply of this water will be used by the denizens of that city by piping the water into the buildings for heating purposes.

We never did relish stale eggs, and if our farmers would bring them in while fresh they would get less "cussing" and have the good will of the Genesee housekeepers. Often we buy two or three dozen at a time and not find a quarter of them fit to eat, and besides it isn't just honest business to sell decayed eggs for fresh when you know them to be so.

Harvest Festival at Elliott Hall, Saturday Sept. 24. Remember the date and don't try to get your supper at home but come with all your family and have a good chicken dinner at 6 o'clock—chickens warranted to hold out until 8:30. Fine display of fruit from all the country round, all to be sold, together with tides, onions, etc., and anything and everything imaginable. Get your winter stock of vegetables. Great contest expected between the different wheat buyers for the grain offered for sale. A program of music, recitations and tableaux that may cause a smile. Admission tickets including supper will be sold for 50 cents; children 25 cents. Under the auspices of the Congregational church.

Another new industry for Genesee and we all can give it a hearty welcome. It is a new flouring mill with a capacity of 50 barrels per day. The projectors are Chas. H. Hough and Fred Spencer, both practical and reliable men. Plans will be here in a few days and work of construction will soon begin. A fifty horse power engine will be put in and the building will be fully as large as the Genesee Roller Mill. The mill will not encroach on the business of Thomas & Johnson in the least as there is enough wheat raised in this vicinity to keep four such mills going day and night. Any enterprise that will help Genesee and surrounding country should receive a hearty welcome by one and all. Hurrah for the new enterprise.

L. A. Boucher, the painter, has gone to farming.

Some talk of starting a good templars lodge. It should be encouraged. The Boise Sentinel has the diphtheria! And is not admitted to the mails.

Several new enterprises are under way for Genesee. Fine openings here for them all. John Loring bids up serenely with a smile as long as your arm. It's a boy, born last Friday.

Do you want to buy a house in the best portion of town at a bargain? It's a snap! Enquire at this office. A little Sullivan-Corbett encounter took place the first of the week. "The big fellow" lost and the city gained two fellows.

The weather for a few days back has been somewhat warm in the middle of the day, with cool mornings and evenings. John Murphy, an old Dakotan, whom we have not seen for a long time, was in last week to swap lies. No place like the Palouse for him.

The excavation of the Vollmer block has at least done some good; it has greatly benefitted our main thoroughfare and has not cost the city a cent.

John Murphy, an old Dakotan, whom we have not seen for a long time, was in last week to swap lies. No place like the Palouse for him.

The excavation of the Vollmer block has at least done some good; it has greatly benefitted our main thoroughfare and has not cost the city a cent.

Miss Wigg resumed her position in the Moscow schools last week. She is a fine teacher and the people over there are fortunate in securing her services.

That clever and fleshy looking gentleman at Vollmer's is Mr. Free, a late arrival from Pennsylvania, who will do the book-keeping act for that institution.

Let's organize a building and loan association and continue the building boom through the winter. An association of this kind would do Genesee more good than a little.

Dr. Williams amputated a finger for O. S. Payne the other day. Mr. Payne, seeing our doctors had nothing to do, stuck his hand in the cylinder of a threshing machine with the above result.

Among the visiting Masons in town from Pullman we noticed Messrs. A. B. Baker, J. L. Powell, J. V. Welch, D. C. Monroe, Hammond, Miller and Downing. They reported Pullman doing very nicely in the building line.

C. A. S. Howard, candidate for sheriff on the peoples ticket, was in these parts the first of the week getting acquainted with the people. He is a very pleasant, genial gentleman, and makes friends wherever he goes. He will give his competitors a lively race, to say the least.

L. S. Wynn, the affable and courteous hustler for the Colton Mercantile Co., was in Genesee end of last week and of course paid his respects to this office. He represents one of the best and largest mercantile houses this side of Spokane, and the firm is getting ready to do an enormous business this fall again as usual.

The heaviest firm of merchandise in Latah county, McConnell, McGuire Co., Moscow, owe their success to printer's ink. A quarter section in the News is good enough for them and they have planted an attractive ad. accordingly. "A word to the wise is sufficient." They have an elegant line of goods, none better in the state.

J. J. Shephard overseer of the new Vollmer brick block, is putting in a broad substantial stone foundation and expects to get to laying brick in the course of another week. He says the home made brick is of the very best, durable, but a little rough which does not hurt the quality any. Says the next kiln of brick will have a smoother surface.

Foreman Shephard will move his family to Genesee if he can secure a suitable dwelling and then may become a permanent citizen. Several families have been turned away on account of there not being a house to rent. Let a few more dwellings be put up. A good fair house at $10 per month is big interest on money invested and is enough.

Frank C. Loring has returned from a trip through the Ruby, Swamp and Burnt Creek mining districts, which are supposed to be in Latah county and whose mining locations are all recorded in that county. Mr. Loring reports that surveys made by him show that there is a great probability that these claims, and of course all the voters in the vicinity, are in reality in Shoshone county—Wallace American.

L. B. Richards, alias "California Dick," perhaps the oldest tramp printer on the western coast, called into our office last week; "he'd a large red nose and was out at the heel, his face seemed to say he could go a square meal." He got outside of a couple of square meals at our expense and shassayed off with a new silver piece in his jeans. He has seen every spot of this country—on foot—and was in this section before Spokane saw daylight. He is familiar with all the old land marks and is an interesting subject to the new comer to talk with. Dick is going to build a railroad from Genesee through Camas prairie into the mining districts, making this point division headquarters.

E. J. Marvin, whose illness was mentioned in these columns last week, died Sunday morning, after and illness of only three or four days. He was seventy-eight years of age and quite smart up to the time he was taken down. He resided in Genesee about a year coming here from New Whatcom, Wash. He formerly lived in different towns in South Dakota and very little is known of his past history. It is not known yet whether he has people living or not but an effort is being made to find them if possible. He was a peaceable old gentleman and could always be found at his shoe shop. Being an old member of the Masonic lodge, Mr. Marvin's body was followed to its last resting place by a number of that order from Pullman, Moscow and elsewhere. May he rest in peace.

D. Spurbeck is putting up a good-sized lumber shed for his company.

Jeweler Andrews has in a line of new watches, chains, etc., and more coming. Our wagon maker and blacksmiths are busy, and Jameson is very much so.

J. M. Edwards is the new salesman at Vollmer's, and he hails from Walla Walla. The school board fixed up another room and purchased and placed twenty-five new seats for same last week.

Mrs. Ada Beard, of Portland, spent a couple of days in town this week, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Harry A. Thatcher. Mrs. C. D. Flemming returned to her Yakima home Wednesday morning, her mother being well enough to permit her to return.

The sheriff of Shoshone county gives notice to loafers, lums and worthless characters to leave that section or they will be arrested and dealt with accordingly to law.

The children went to school Monday morning with light hearts, and glad another term had opened. They have had a good long play spell, and will do some hard studying from now on.

"A coon's nest" at our very door! Let's have some law, aldermen, move it back a pace or two. There are proper bounds for all things and now is a good time to administer remedies.

F. W. Whipple has purchased lot 1 block 13 in North addition, from Tom Platt, and will at once build a residence for Attorney Denning. The location is just opposite the Sampson residence.

J. C. Hanson has threshed his wheat and he receives 6,600 bushels for this year's troubles. Very little expense he has been in raising this crop and he has a nice pot to hover around until another one is brought forward.

Nels Johnson, living near Genesee, was taken to Moscow last week, examined and adjudged insane, but not dangerously so. It is certainly unfortunate for anyone to meet with such a calamity, and it is hoped that Mr. Johnson may fully recover.

The Methodist church building is assuming a more substantial and finished look, and when completed will be a structure to be proud of by the members and the town as well. Painter Cann is swinging the brush and doing his part in beautifying the edifice.

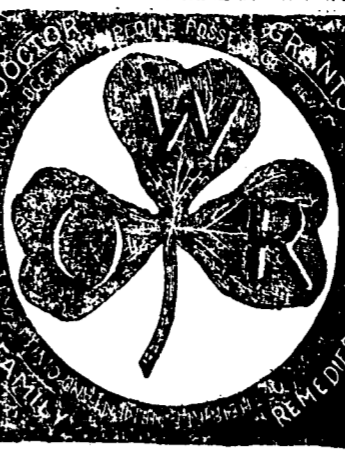

Another big strike was made in the Independent mine at Mullan last week, and the American says much excitement prevails. A ledge containing, so far as exploited, seven feet of fine concentrating ore was encountered, and development work continues. It is claimed to be the best strike made in the Ceur d'Alenes this year. The owners are all poor, hard-working men.

Our devil has struck a "poetic" vein. Listen to what he has been grinding out: Oh, the dust, the beautiful dust, so ceaselessly busy—so fervently cussed! Spilling our clothes when we're out on the street; filling our homes and the grub that we eat; plugging our noses, our eyes and our ears, regardless alike of our oaths and our tears. Soon must we bid thee a mournful farewell—for the rain of the autumn thy reign will dispel; soon wilt thou settle, and stay there—oh! Land! Then, brethren, we shall be stuck in the mud!

A pleasant surprise was perpetrated on Francy Hanson last Friday evening, it being his twenty-first birthday. Visiting, games, etc., held away for a while when the younger ones could stand it no longer and commenced to trip the light fantastic in which some of the older joined, and this was kept up until ice cream and cake was served. The large spacious new house was well lighted and showed off to fine advantage. All in all it was a very pleasant gathering.

The action of the Lewiston people in causing Fred. Moore's arrest, at the close of the late game of ball, shows how contemptible some people can be. Lewiston has the name of being a place where you can receive anything but fair treatment, and this act proves it. Hear what an outsider, the Uniontown Journal has to say of the affair: "Everything was done to intimidate the players, the Lewistonites even arresting Fred. Moore and bound him over in the sum of $5! Such unprofessional acts will do more to estrange rival communities and social intercourse than any other known act."

What a grand prosperous spot Idaho is. If a prophet ten years ago had foretold that in the year 1902 such a vast empire would have been opened up as it is now, he would have been set down as a fool or as having a weak spot in the upper story of his head. People in all sections regard this as the most prosperous spot in all the Northwest. We have nice people here—the cream of the world. We are bound to climb to the top of the ladder and overlook our neighbors. Surely we are only at the beginning of a development that no man today can appreciate or measure.

The Quaker poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, died last week.

Pullman has a case of leprosy—a Chinaman being the victim.

Tramps and other nuisances are getting too promiscuous hereabouts.

Miller Thomas has been somewhat indisposed this week—the prevailing disease, loss of appetite and general debility.

Oakesdale and Pullman are up in arms against "toughs" and gamblers who make night hideous with fights and loud noise.

Merchant T. Jacobson was in Spokane a day or two this week on business. Says the railroad fight makes the people talk and smile.

Ed. McConville, superintendent of the Indian school at Lapwai, stayed over night at the Latah Sunday and took the train next morning for Spokane, where his wife is quite ill.

Mrs. Stevens was over from Lewiston last week and decided to locate here permanently. She will erect a good building and operate a restaurant opposite the Herman brick.

D. L. Bugbee, an attorney of considerable experience and ability, arrived here from Seattle, Wednesday evening, looking for a healthful climate and location. Both can be found right here.

The usually busy streets of Genesee have been a little quiet of late owing to farmers being so busy harvesting and threshing. Politicians find the merchants good company now but soon they will be busy tying up goods, and farmer will then have time to talk.

Our sister town of Tekoa was nearly wiped off the face of the earth Tuesday by fire, which is supposed to have been set by worthless hobos. It was a great fire but as all were insured the loss will not be so heavy. The water works were completed the day before, but the engine had not yet come, hence they were of no use.

"There is blood on the moon." The Great Northern Ry is playing havoc with the transcontinental railroads and a fight is on between all the lines touching the coast. The Northern Pacific has announced that it would withdraw from the transcontinental association which is an indication that a rate war will soon be waged, not only on freight but passenger business. Business men and farmers will watch the fight with interest.

Mr. Edwin London, a gentleman of means, is here from Dayton, Wash., and will make Genesee his future home. He purchased 75-foot frontage next to the postoffice this week Thursday including the iron building. The building will be moved up snug to the Owen House and a new store building erected between it and the postoffice in which a general stock of merchandise will be kept. And this is the way our town grows. Well, here is luck to Mr. London, and we hope he will never have cause to regret the step he has taken. He will do his share to build up Genesee and we should treat him well.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF GENESEE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

TEACHERS.—RULE I.
The teachers of this school shall follow the prescribed course of study and enforce the rules and regulations of the board of trustees; shall keep records, use blanks and make reports according to instructions.

RULE II.
Teachers should take good care of all school property entrusted to their care; should inspect daily the stoves and other school property, and report promptly to the proper authority any damage done.

RULE III.
Teachers shall prepare a program of daily exercises, a copy of which shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the room.

RULE IV.
Teachers shall exercise a watchful care and oversight over the habits and conduct of the pupils, not only during school hours, but also at recesses, intermissions and while going to and from school.

RULE V.
Teachers shall maintain strict order and discipline in their schools at all times. Any neglect of this requirement will be considered good cause for dismissal. Corporal punishment may be resorted to when it becomes necessary to the preservation of proper discipline. Any cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no teacher shall administer punishment on or about the head.

RULE VI.
In case of misconduct or insubordination, when the teacher deems it necessary for the good of the school, he may suspend a pupil and shall immediately notify the trustees thereof for further action.

RULE VII.
Teachers shall give vigilant attention to the temperature and ventilation of their school-rooms, airing them at each intermission.

RULE VIII.
Teachers shall have a right, and it shall be their duty to direct and control within reasonable limits the studies of their pupils; provided, that all pupils shall receive instruction in the branches included in the course of study.

RULE IX.
The use of tobacco in any form or place is discontinued and the use of alcoholic stimulants in any form or place as a leverage is prohibited.

At the close of each term of school teachers shall thoroughly examine their pupils in the studies of the term, using written questions and requiring written answers, and the standing properly recorded and preserved.

RULE X.
Teachers shall require excuses from parents or guardians of pupils, either in person or written note, in all cases of absence, tardiness or dismissal before the close of school and no excuse shall be deemed valid except that of sickness or necessary employment. The teacher shall be the judge of sufficiency of excuses, subject to an appeal to the trustees.

RULE XI.
Whenever the unexcused absence of any pupil during any term (3 mo.) shall amount in the aggregate to five days he shall be reported to the trustees and the teachers shall suspend him until the opinion of the directors shall be given. For this purpose an excused tardiness or absence for one half day or less shall be deemed one half day's absence.

RULE XII.
Every pupil shall be punctual and regular in attendance, conform promptly to all rules of the school, be diligent in study, be respectful and obedient to teachers and kind and obliging to school mates.

RULE XIII.
Willful disobedience, habitual truancy, vulgarity or profanity, the use of tobacco on or about the school premises, stealing, the carrying of deadly weapons or dangerous play things, shall constitute good cause for suspension or expulsion from school.

RULE XIV.
Any pupil who shall in any way cut, deface or otherwise injure the school house furniture, fence or out-buildings thereof, or shall make obscene pictures or characters on the school premises, shall be liable to expulsion or other punishment, and the parents or guardians of such pupils shall be liable for damages.

RULE XV.
As soon as dismissed, pupils shall leave the school premises and go directly to their homes. Loitering on the way to or from school is positively forbidden.

RULE XVI.
Pupils shall give attention to personal neatness and cleanliness and any who fail in this respect shall be sent home to be properly prepared for school.

RULE XVII.
No teacher or pupil shall be permitted to attend school from any house in which any contagious or loathsome disease is prevalent; nor shall either be permitted to return to school from any house where such disease has prevailed till three weeks after the beginning of convalescence of the patient.

RULE XVIII.
The law requires that every pupil of school age (between the years 8 and 14) in the state of Idaho shall be in attendance at the public school not less than 12 weeks (2 of which shall be consecutive) of each school year unless the child be excused from attendance by the board of school directors. A violation of this provision is subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

RULE XIX.
People should remember they can get The Little Red School House Shoe no place except of us, and there is no other school shoe in town which will wear more than half so long.

RULE XX.
C. Allger, at Uniontown, does dyeing, cleaning and scouring.

Moscow, Ida., Sept. 13, '92.
HOPP & POWER, Pubs. GENESEE NEWS. Gentlemen:—I am so crowded with business that I will not be able to make a professional visit to your city the 10th, as stated before, but will be there without fail Tuesday, Sept. 27th, and remain one day. My office will be at Palace Hotel, and office hours from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Yours truly,
IGNATZ MAYER, M. D.

Town Council.

Board met pursuant to adjournment Sept. 19, in regular session and was called to order by H. Thatcher, chairman pro tem. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Treasurer's report, covering from May 6 to Sept. 17, was read.

Following bills from the finance com. read and warrants issued:

J. P. Steltz labor, $15 00
McLaughlin Bros Impound of stock 11 75
J. L. Hayes salary 45 00
Geo Cummins labor 5 00
R. Pickering sundries 50 02

Bill of W. D. Stinson for boarding Edmundson being deemed exorbitant, was laid over for further consideration.

Following bill were read and referred to finance committee:
A. Harris books and sundries $55 05
Genesee Hardware Co sundries 9 10

The marshal was instructed to advise the night watch to restrain the small boys from running the streets at unreasonable hours.

The matter of appointment of night watch and salary for same was taken under consideration. Upon motion the appointment of Elisha Martin as such officer was confirmed and the compensation fixed at $55 per month.

It was moved that any person or persons running a house of suspicious character, north of Chestnut St., shall be notified to discontinue same at once. Motion carried. Marshal was instructed to carry out the provisions of the said motion and have such objectionable houses closed at once.

A motion was read that the marshal be instructed to notify the saloon keepers to keep orderly houses during church hours on Sundays.

Meeting adjourned.

I wish to say to my friends of Genesee and vicinity that having been appointed state manager of the World's Nursery Co. for Idaho, Oregon and Washington, that I have arranged to have shipped me here in November 4,000 fruit trees of different varieties which I propose, in order to introduce our stock, sell cheaper than you can get them elsewhere. Call and see me. Don't be afraid the stock will be exhausted. Will sell you any number. If you will let me know how many trees you would like if they are suitable and prices right, I will send your order in. At my place one block north of Farmers Elevator.

The Ear, its Diseases and Deformities

Are much better understood now than in former years, and yield more readily to proper treatment.

NASAL CATARRH

Is a disease of mucous membrane of the nasal pharyngeal space, and if not arrested in time the ear may become seriously affected through the continuation of the infection to the ear, the throat and ear, producing inflammation and suppuration of the middle ear, often destroying the drumhead, and finally deafness sets in. If you are afflicted with this disease be sure you consult the Doctor at once.

No matter how long standing your catarrh should be, the Doctor will speedily give you relief and cure the catarrh permanently with the aid of Inhalers, local application of medicine and with other appliances, and effectively relieve the Pharynx. A few treatments will show you that your catarrh can be cured, even if chronic and of several years standing. Dr. Mayer has made the adaptation of A.

IDAHO REFERENCES.

I experienced a great deal of trouble in finding relief for my eyes, and finally I was cured by the use of Dr. Mayer's artificial eyes. I can see now as well as I ever did, and I feel that I am not sorry to have my eyes cured. I can see now as well as I ever did, and I feel that I am not sorry to have my eyes cured. I can see now as well as I ever did, and I feel that I am not sorry to have my eyes cured.

Halley, July 20, 1892. J. D. WINTERS.

I suffered with Nasal Catarrh and enlarged tonsils, my health failed more and more; I lost nearly 20 pounds in 12 months; began to cough every morning; I was treated for four months every day but without getting cured. Upon the arrival of Dr. Mayer in this city, I consulted him; he removed the tonsils very skillfully, producing a wonderful change in my condition. I am getting better every day. He is a thorough Surgeon. Very particular and feel that I am not sorry to have my eyes cured. I can see now as well as I ever did, and I feel that I am not sorry to have my eyes cured.

No. 20

—Miss Fletcher, the Indian allotting agent, has completed her work of assigning the lands, and returned to Washington, D. C., Tuesday. All that remains to be done to open the reservation is to make a treaty with the Indians for the remainder of the lands. Our delegates in congress will no doubt have a bill passed next session to treat for the lands. The opening of the reservation cannot be delayed much longer. Next year at least, will surely see the lands thrown open for settlement.—Teller.

—St. Michael's island, Alaska, is a point of considerable historic interest, says the Port Townsend Leader. On the shores of the harbor a quaint village is gathered beneath low-roofed cottages set indiscriminately among the rocks, but centering in the main around the dilapidated, decaying ruins of an old octagon frame building, which once constituted a Russian fort. Through an ugly, once rectangular aperture in each of the octagon walls there points a sullen looking rusted barrel of an old Russian gun. These guns still rest upon their pedestals, but scattered about the site are a number of guns lying here and there upon the ground, long since dethroned even of their show of power. The inhabitants of the village, about three hundred in number, are mixed breeds of Russians, Americans, Indians and Esquimaux.

There is nothing better than sound wheat for hens.

If you cannot have all of your stock of the best, have the best you can.

A variety of stock gives a chance to feed much that would otherwise be wasted.

Overfeeding weakens the offspring; underfeeding does the same. Here extremes meet.

Three beef animals can be grown and disposed of while one butter animal is being fully developed.

Nothing short of persistent care and scrupulous cleanliness will eradicate that wretched and insidious disease—thrush.

A hog, when properly fed, makes more meat in proportion to the food consumed, and more, also, in proportion to the waste material, than any other animal.

Fallen and imperfect apples, especially sweet ones, can be disposed of much better by being fed to the hogs than by leaving them to rot and breed vermin in the orchard.

Gentleness in a cow implies a well balanced nervous system; a brutal manager never possesses a gentle beast long. He soon changes her disposition and her value for the worse.

Blinds on the bridle are about as unnecessary as overhead check reins. The damage they do more than counter balance the good. With horses that have always worn them perhaps it is just as well to leave the blinds on, but the colt ought to be broken with open bridles.

When a Spaniard eats a peach or a pear by the roadside, wherever he is, he digs a hole in the ground with his foot and covers the seed. Consequently, all over Spain, by the roadside and elsewhere, fruit grows in the greatest abundance, and may be picked and eaten by anybody.

—Farmers in Asotin county, Wash., have been suffering from the depredations of a bear that would occasionally make a successful raid upon the young stock feeding in the Asotin district. A correspondent to the Sentinel says: "Carl Kreshler was one of the farmers who was one of the losers in one of bruin's incursions and at once commenced studying plans for his capture, in which it appears he was successful. He built a regular frontier bear pen and arranged a shot gun with set trigger, that when the intruder meddled with the bait, he would receive the contents of both barrels of the gun in his body. Friday morning when farmer Kreshler went out to inspect the workings of his trap, he found the gun had done fatal work for there lay a two-year old grizzly, shot through the heart. It is safe to say there is considerable joy among the farmers in this vicinity over his capture.

—The Port Townsend Leader says the steamer City of Topeka, which arrived lately, brought a mammoth skeleton that was the center of attraction to a large number of sight seers. The skeleton is that of a rhamphoretes, or whale lizard, only the second one known to be in existence. The other, a much smaller specimen than this, was found some years ago near Oxford, Eng., and is one of the most valued specimens now on exhibition in the British museum. Mr. Buck of Everett claims the honor of having brought this valuable relic to light, although it was discovered over four years ago by a prospector named Frank Willoughby. The spot where the skeleton was found by Buck, who went north for that purpose, was nearly a mile from where the original location was reported. The skeleton was finally located by Buck and his Indian assistant on top of the celebrated Muir glacier, six miles inland and 500 feet above the sea level, securely imbedded in a large cake of ice, requiring the service of the entire party for two days to dislodge it. At some time during its existence the skeleton was badly shattered, presumably by a fall or by being crushed, and was somewhat damaged when taken out. The rhamphoretes, or whale-lizard, has been extinct for over five centuries and is described in natural history as the "king of the land and the sea," this eggnomon being undoubtedly based on the fact that it was equally at home in the water, on land or in the air. In the first instance the rate of speed was something terrific, the momentum being produced with the legs, while the enormous wings served to keep the body out of the water, the operation bordering upon the impossible feat of walking on the water. The great size of the whale lizard can be judged from the fact that a single bone weighed 794 pounds, while the entire skeleton tipped the scales at 2,400 pounds. The bones will be put together by Buck at his home in Everett, and after being exhibited will be sent to the Smithsonian institute for exhibition at the world's fair. The specimen is valued at $30,000.

The Tuna Hedge.

The Fence of the Future.

ESPECIALLY adapted to this climate, soil and demands of the people.

The advantages of the Tuna Hedge are.

FIRST: In two years it makes a fence that will turn rabbits, sheep and hogs, and in three years it turns everything.

SECOND: It is the cheapest fencing ever used, as it supplies the material for all time to come.

THIRD: It does not sap or impoverish the ground, being strictly an atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots, and hence will not spread.

FOURTH: It grows only from cuttings, and will grow in the driest ground, drawing its sustenance from the air.

FIFTH: It requires no trimming, growing in perfect shape and height for a fence.

SIXTH: It has been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested in climates more rigorous than ours, and does not winter-kill, having been successfully grown in Ohio, Kansas, Texas and Colorado for the last nine years for fencing purposes.

We respectfully solicit investigation, and invite you to call and ascertain fully in regard to its merits, as this is an opportunity to secure fencing material that has never before been equalled. It does away with the mutilating barbed wire, gives the old posts and rails for firewood, and supplies fencing material on the farm. Address,

H. F. BURLEIGH,
LEWISTON, IDAHO.

To Secure a Year's Subscription to a Popular Home and Farm Journal. Read Our Great Offer Given Below.

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangements by which we are prepared to supply FREE to each of our subscribers a year's subscription to that well-known monthly Home and Farm Journal, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Springfield and Cleveland, Ohio. We make this offer to each of our subscribers who will pay up all arrearages on subscription and one year in advance, and to all new subscribers paying one year in advance. The American Farmer is strictly National in its character. It is a high-class illustrated journal filled with entertaining and instructive reading matter, containing each month much information that is invaluable to agriculturists and of special interest to each member of every home. It is not a class publication and is suited to all localities, being National in its make-up and character, thus meeting with favor in all localities. It is strictly non-political and non-sectarian. It has a trained corps of contributors and is carefully edited. The various departments of Farm, Horticulture, Sheep and Swine, The Home, The Horse, and the Dairy, are filled with bright and useful matter. The readers of the American Farmer are universal in its praise and look for its monthly visits with keen anticipation. The regular subscription price to the American Farmer is $1.00 per year, but by this agreement it costs you nothing to receive that great publication for one year. Do not delay in taking advantage of this offer, but call at once and send in your subscription. Sample copy of the American Farmer can be seen at this office or will be supplied direct by the publishers.

I will give to my Customers and the people in and out of Genesee the Benefit of Cash Prices as it will only be a short time until fall payments come in.

You must register if you wish to vote for president this fall.

J. W. McCawley, Dayton, registered at the Latah Monday.

Attend the dance at Elliott hall, Friday night, Sept. 30.

A large band of cattle passed through here Saturday northward bound.

L. W. S. Freeman and wife, Spokane, were guests at the Latah Monday.

Elisha Martin is night-watch and will keep the hobos and others out of mischief after dark.

Chris. Anderson was a visitor at nearly all our neighboring towns last of last and first of this week.

The N. P. elevator is about filled up, and the Farmers want to send out forty car loads of wheat this week.

Adolph Nelson, of the Chicago Auction Co., was over from Moscow Tuesday arranging for his store opening.

J. L. Manly, of Chicago, representing the American Hotel Guide, was soliciting Genesee advertisements Monday.

The Mussetts failed to show up Saturday as advertised and the rain kept our people at home, so none were fooled out.

Thos. Haskins of the N. P. R'y, now carries a broad smile. Mrs. Haskins and kids arrived from Pasco, Wash., the other day to live here permanently.

Rev. H. T. Berger, who went to the Alberta, B. C. country last June, has purchased some land near Westuscon and is now erecting a house for himself.

Wheat is coming at the rate of about 8,000 bushels per day, and a very small portion of it is sold, showing our farmers to be in independent circumstances.

Farmers tell us the poorest yield of wheat in the Little Potlatch threshed so far is 30 bushels per acre and the largest 45. No reason for complaint, gentlemen.

From a slightly part of Genesee, Sunday, a News man counted about twenty new buildings about town, all of which have been started or completed within the past three months.

On Camas Prairie last week a fire was built near a big tree which burned down during the night falling over a bed and killing a woman and seriously wounded two children, who were camping out.

A. H. Christopher arrived here last week from Olympia, coming nearly all the way, excepting a short distance over the Cascades, on a Columbia bicycle. Another gentleman came as far as Pullman.

J. M. Turner, the live wheat buyer, of Colfax, is here after a few thousand bushels of our grain. He is buying through the Farmers' warehouse. He is an old Dakotan hailing from the county that bears his name.

The Teller says Lewiston needs more enterprise than capital now. The council have at last come to the same conclusion and will give the people a chance to vote bonds for the purpose of fixing up the thoroughfares of that city.

Will Gregory departed for the new Alberta country Tuesday expecting to remain. Several others have the fever and expect to take their departure some time this fall. It must be a fine section if it is as good as the Palouse. The 43 lands seem to be the greatest drawing card.

Trade with merchants here and you will do justice to yourself. They guarantee to duplicate prices on everything they line that you can buy elsewhere and defy as low figures in many things. People at a distance are coming here now to buy their goods and others will follow.

J. N. Walby of Old Town was in last week and took advantage of our double offer—two papers for the price of one. He presented us with a sack of choice eating apples which have kept our chops moving ever since. We are right at home when it comes to eating fruit and we have yet to refuse the first offer.

At the late democratic county convention for Nez Perce the following ticket was put out: For representative, D. F. Mahana; for sheriff, Eben Mounce; for treasurer, David S. Dent; for assessor, S. O. Tanahill; for probate judge and school superintendent, George Erb; for surveyor, H. M. Stalnaker; for coroner, Kay L. Thompson. For commissioners, 1st Dist., Dr. M. A. Kelly; 2d Dist., C. A. Leeper; 3d Dist., O. L. Phillips.

Soren P. Soby was yesterday appointed guardian for Neils Johnson, and his bonds fixed at $2,000, which were furnished and approved by the probate judge. For two or three years past Johnson has acted strangely and allowed his property to be sold for taxes, asserting that God would help him out. His farm was sold for taxes and a suit for ejectment has been commenced to put him out of possession. His friends took the steps as above in order to save his property, says the Mirror.

J. H. Evans, at one time a resident of Genesee but now fruit rancher over Lewiston way, did the proper thing last week by presenting the News with a box of choice, finely flavored peaches. They were the finest lot we ever saw, each one of them weighing nearly a pound. Five or six of them would fill a two quart jar and they were as luscious and fine as they looked. Mr. Evans comes here every few days and has no trouble in disposing of his fruit. You have our thanks for the elegant present.

One can go in most any direction now and find orchards with trees heavily laden with fine, delicious ripe fruit. What a vast amount of fruit will be raised here in five years from now. It will hurry the wheat crop in dollars and cents. The reputation of the Palouse as a fruit growing country is extending gradually. It was only a short time ago when it was thought that peaches could not be raised here successfully as the seasons were considered too cold and unfavorable. But this idea has been fully exploded, and finer peaches than grow here one need not wish for. Fruit trees are loaded until the limbs are breaking. The Palouse is all right for fruit growing.

Stockholders of the First National Bank of Genesee met this week Wednesday and transacted some important business. After affecting an organization the following officers were elected:

Directors: H. B. Hogins, M. A. Means, E. A. McKenna, Dr. H. S. Williams, Jno. P. Vollmer.

Officers: Jno. P. Vollmer, President, M. A. Means, Vice-President, E. A. McKenna, Cashier.

The list of stockholders consist of substantial business men and farmers which is a guarantee that the bank will be carried on systematically and in a business like manner. President Vollmer informs us that the First National will start up in about sixty days under the most flattering conditions. It begins with the bank will have Mr. Vollmer's accounts in this section amounting to $150,000 and will enjoy the same resources and prestige as the Lewiston National. Success to the stockholders of the new enterprise.

Miller Thomas has been quite sick.

Harvest Dance, Friday, Sept. 30th. Tickets, $1.

The Rounds people have departed for their eastern home.

Several items of interest crowded out. More room next week.

Our police officers report business quite brisk now. Look out for raids.

Have you paid your city taxes? They are payable and draw interest.

The hotels are crowded from cellar to garret. Getting to be a great business center.

The supper and entertainment at Elliott hall, Saturday eve, promise to be interesting.

October 17th is the date when court will be ready to issue second papers to those wanting them.

Please read our school article from beginning to end. It is interesting to all who believe in education.

It is stated that 40,000,000 of Queen Victoria's subjects in India never know what it is to get enough to eat.

J. L. Lamphar was made happy by the arrival of Mrs. Lamphar and daughter from Michigan Tuesday evening.

Substantial crossings have been put in above the new grade which improves the walking in the heart of the town.

Misses Anna and Mary Clark returned to Lewiston this week after a month's stay with their sister, Mrs. Means.

Nagel & Bomber, supplied our people with fine fresh salmon from the Columbia river, last week, and we all should have more brains as a result.

Don't forget we execute fine job work at this office and do not take a back seat for any shop along the line. And our prices are as low as the lowest.

The stereoscopic exhibition at the Cong'l church Thursday evening of last week was well attended and the entertainment gave entire satisfaction.

There will be a Harvest Dance at Elliott hall, Friday night, Sept. 30, to which all are invited. Good music will be furnished and a fine time is guaranteed.

Sunday was an elegant day for riding through the country. The weather was perfect, and the shower of rain the night before laid the dust nicely. The lively rigs were all out.

The cholera scare has even extended to the Palouse, and all of the most enterprising towns are cleaning up in consequence. When it comes right down to tumbling off into eternity there are few that are anxious to go at present. The scare has done some good at least.

H. Nobelsieck's new dwelling has been nicely painted and everything surrounding it has the appearance of newness and thrift. The family now occupy their new quarters and another family added to the long list of additions to our fair city of Genesee. A fine home has Mr. Nobelsieck.

The past week we made way with a portion of the fruit raised in the L. Jain orchard. Apples, pines and plums of the finest varieties, and it would have done your soul good to have looked on a couple of branches of the latter for one could scarcely see the limb, so heavily loaded with the fruit.

Geo. Spurbeck, while going home on horseback from town Tuesday, was thrown off and quite badly shaken up, but Dr. Williams says he is not seriously hurt. The horse was going on a canter and in some manner stumbled breaking both ankles and had to be killed. Geo. is in luck to escape without broken bones.

D. L. Bugbee, attorney at law, is the way a sign reads next door west of the News office. Mr. Bugbee has had several years experience at law in Minnesota and at Seattle, and after carefully looking over the famous Palouse for health and business, decided to cast his lot with us. If he receives the proper encouragement in a business way he will build a dwelling and move his family here. Now we have two good attorneys, let the fights open up!

Jeweler Andrews has received the finest stock of jewelry ever in Genesee. It consists of ladies gold watches, and handsome gold chain, scarf pins, cuff-buttons, car-rings, etc., etc., for men as well as ladies. He also has a handsome opal pin and pretty agate and stone jewelry. Ladies first remark on seeing the goods, "Oh, what lovely things!" The prices Mr. Andrews guarantees to be as low as any house west of Chicago. Step in and look his stock over.

W. G. Calbertson and wife are here from Moscow visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Harris. Mr. Calbertson lived here a year ago and was much surprised and pleased to see Genesee growing so nicely. He is the democratic nominee for probate judge and school superintendent and from present signs he will poll a heavy vote, and if elected will undoubtedly make a good officer as he has had seven years practice at law and several years at teaching school. Mr. C. was reared on a farm and is now a prominent member of the bar. He will run well here, being related to the Harrises, Joneses, and others. We acknowledge a brief visit from the gentleman yesterday and found him to be a pleasant and interesting talker.

Mart Williams, who lives over on the reservation and who has been in this country ever since '71, was a visitor at this shop last Monday and deposited two dollars and fifty cents as a guarantee that he believes in the News sayings. Mr. Williams was a captain in the Indian outbreak of '77, and related to us some startling incidents during the early days. He served as captain of the Lewiston Scouts under Col. Ed. McCowillie now superintendent of the Latah school. Said that many Indians enlisted on the side of the whites against their own people, and one day while he was carrying off one of the wounded reds, Abraham by name and still living, he thought his time had come, as his own troops opened fire on him supposing him to be one of the enemy. The bullets went whizzing by him "thick and fast" and not until he dropped the wounded man and turned about and faced his men did the sound of the musket cease. He said at the close of his visit, that the allotment plan does not give satisfaction and thinks it will be some time before the reservation is opened to settlement. The lady in charge is censured on all sides.

THE STANDARD LIFE & ACCIDENT INSURANCE CO. R. PICKERING, Agt.

The Wallace Democrat is a new paper seeking public patronage. It is newsy and wide-awake.

The Wallace American is pouring some hot shots into John Burke, the democratic nominee for governor. They must be truths or John would put the editor where the dogs couldn't bite him. That's right, out with the facts and let the voter know about these high aspiring moguls.

We have not heard any complaint, nor do we wish to, about hard times in the Genesee valley. If any complaint is made it will come from those that imbibe too freely of fire-water, or from those handling pasteboards and chips. If you must drink get it and go home about your business and not lay around until you have spent your last cent and lost all self-respect. People soon find you out. We are always blessed with excellent crops and there is no need of any one being "hard up" unless by sickness or some such misfortune.

Following is the program of exercises at the Harvest Festival to-morrow evening:

Music by band. Solo by Rev. E. L. Smith. Tableau.

Recitation by Mrs. Keiser. Quartette Misses Debbie and May Nelson, Rev. E. L. Smith, Mr. E. London. Mrs. Jarley's Wax Figures. Music by band.

Recitation by Miss Camp. Song by Paul and Lettie Follett. Tableau.

Solo by Miss Pebbie Nelson. Recitation by George McMahon. Duet by Fannie and Addie Tait. Tableau.

Instrumental music by Stena Miller. Music by Band.

Notwithstanding the allotment is said to have been completed on the Nez Perce Indian reservation, it is believed by many that it will not be opened for years to come owing to the dissatisfaction of the allotment plan has created among the inhabitants. The Indians wish to retain all of the reservation claiming it is none too much for the young and rising generation. It is also claimed that many Indians were left out of the allotment scheme, while others claim that they were given lands and afterwards taken away and inferior tracts thrust upon them by the allotting agent. It is thought a new treaty and action by congress is necessary for the speedy settlement of this question.

"The rich grow richer and the poor grow poorer" is the common cry among the howlers in northwestern states, but have they cause or reason for it? We believe not. It is not true in the Palouse at any rate. The poor are growing richer year by year. Dare any of our poorer classes, farmers or town people, deny it? No. It is too true that our working people are gradually gaining in wealth. The people in the Genesee valley are all prosperous and many of our farmers—perhaps one-half of them—are worth from six to ten thousand dollars, and many of them are worth twenty-five to thirty-five, and all this was accumulated in the past five to eight years, without any cash capital, but lots of pluck and muscle. These are facts and cannot be successfully contradicted. The same conditions prevail elsewhere as well as here. Has the rich man grown richer in proportion? Certainly not. The rich man who invested his money in bonds fifteen years ago at six and a half per cent. interest, is glad today to get from 3 to 4 per cent, and even less. Banks that loaned money six years ago at 12 per cent, are today anxious and glad to take six. Interest is gradually dropping and moneyed men in New York are satisfied now to be able to get anything over 2 per cent. Money is cheaper and the rich man's chances to get rich are gradually growing slimmer; but our farmers are gradually growing richer. We of the Palouse do not wish to hear the calamity howlers howl: "The rich are growing richer and the poor poorer." It won't wash down our people, they know different.

GIVE us free raw materials from foreign shores for our eastern factories, say our free traders, while the same is rotting here. We say give us factories to work up our own raw material. Let us care for our own raw materials before looking after those of our neighbors.

OUR democratic exchanges say we want free trade with the whole world. Yes, we do in a horn. Do we want reciprocity with England, on iron, steel, wool, clothing, boots and shoes, hardware, or wheat? We produce these articles in America; what do we want reciprocity on them for? We want reciprocity with other countries which raise things that we do not.

It looks very much as though Hon. W. J. McConnell would be elected governor by a large majority. Many democrats are supporting him. Bro. Herman, of the democratic Uniontown Journal, is doing what he can to swell Mr. McConnell's majority. He winds up a column article in this fashion:

"The high character of Mr. McConnell, his honorable record and unswerving devotion to principle, his personal integrity and admitted ability stamp him as a candidate beneath whose leadership the republicans of Idaho will march to victory."

From Lewiston.

Ed. News: The valley of the Clearwater is the fruit paradise of the northwest. Even California cannot excel this little sheltered land of promise in quality of grapes, berries and peaches. Grapes are prolific to a degree that is wonderful on vines four years old; the yield this season is 100 pounds to the vine and perfect. This yield in our broad field for a market is encouraging to the grower. The great Palouse prairie needs our small fruits and we need our market for our product. The farmers in the vicinity of Lewiston, like the dirty town, have physical derangements that are incurable. They sleep and lot great opportunities go by. The country around Lewiston is very healthy, but in town considerable sickness prevails. This is surely due to shiftlessness and accumulation of filth. The visitor from the north coming to Lewiston is greeted with a smell that would make a hog. Health officers and citizens should do their duty. We certainly have a healthful climate and there is no use of so much negligence. KICKER.

—Take the News and be one of the people. With increasing patronage and facilities the News is liable to launch out at any time into a nice large six page paper, the equal of any sheet in the west. This is our aim. We propose to keep abreast of the town and Genesee valley.

—There is considerable confusion and discussion over the state in regard to the legal right of voting for one or three county commissioners. There does not seem to be much question but the people will vote for three, one for each of the three districts, though the new law meant the opposite. The following from the attorney general is self-explanatory: Sec. 7 of the general election law (page 59 1st Sess. Laws) provides that there shall be three county commissioners elected in every county of the state at the general election, A. D. 1892. While section 181 repeals "all acts and parts of acts enacted by any territorial legislature relating to elections," it does not repeal sections 1746 Rev. Statutes, which provides that "each member of a board of commissioners must be an elector of the district he represents." "The election is general throughout the county. That is, every elector in the county may vote for each of the three members of the board, although each commissioner must be an elector of the district he represents."

—See Vollmer's new ad on this page.
—Have you noticed the weather-cock on the M. E. church steeple. The hand-work of Tinner Krum is discernable.

—Our city schools will celebrate Columbus Day, Oct. 21; let all join in this grand undertaking; watch for program.

—Some of the back yards and alleys should be cleaned up before sickness overtakes us. We have "ours" cleaned!

—We hooked up our nag Sunday and drove out to the orchards of Hans Kundson and L. Jain and were very fortunate—fortunate for us but unfortunate for the owners of the orchards. They were away and we filled up! Very fine orchards, but the fruit was much finer. We'll try it again, some day.

—The order of Oddfellows at this place is gradually growing and is one of the best and healthiest in Idaho or in the Palouse, and that is saying a great deal. Our leading men belong to the three-links which is a guarantee that the lodge is managed properly. Several new converts were made at the last meeting and others are about to become members. The News is pleased to note the prosperous condition of the I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 20, of Genesee.

—Pocket map of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming—five states in one cover—handsomer, handier, better, than any $1 map yet made; 7 colors; in strong cover; all counties, rivers, railroads, postoffices. Correct to date. Also maps of all states in same style. Agents wanted. Even boys and girls make money fast. We mail agents any samples wanted on receipt of 25 cts. each. Address The Mathews-Northrup Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

—We hear nothing but words of praise for our teachers. We certainly have good instructors, but we need more care and anxiety on the part of parents. Children, to be raised well and to receive the education to which they are entitled, should be well fathered and mothered. A day at school and a day out, and no thought of anything at home but work and a delve for another dollar, will not make good scholars of our children, and on account of it, they will not grow to be happy men and women. Though it may make of them good working machines. Take an interest in the schools and look after your children properly. Help the teacher.

The Democrats of Latah county have placed upon their county ticket for probate judge and ex-officio county superintendent, a gentleman who should receive the support of every citizen regardless of party. W. L. Culbertson; the nominee for this office, is a young man of sterling qualities, wide-awake, enterprising, and a rustler from the word go. He has been a successful farmer and an able instructor, and as a young lawyer is spoken of very highly by members of the bar, as one of great legal attainments, a close student, and of sound judgment, well qualified to fill the position of probate judge to which he aspires, and if elected, will serve the people faithfully and well. This office should be non-partisan and the best man nominated should be elected. We believe that in the person of Mr. Culbertson, the democracy of Latah county have added strength to their ticket and that the voters irrespective of party or politics, will give him a rousing majority at the polls in November.—Moscow Democrat.

—Travel is on the increase.

—Let everybody register—it does not cost a cent—and everybody should vote this fall.

—Everything hereabouts has a thrifty appearance. It is no wonder this section is put at the top of the list—it belongs there when it comes to wealth and everything nice.

—Herman Nebelseick will spend the coming winter at Banicia Barracks, Cal., where he has been connected with Uncle Sam's military for a number of years. He will end his connection with them before returning next spring. In his absence Mr. Pickering will have charge of his business here. Mr. N. departed Wednesday.

—We like apple pie! Thanks.
—Mercantile Co. has a good trade.
—Merchant Roestem is getting in piles of new goods.

—J. F. Kane is here in the interest of that valuable publication, the Northwest Magazine, published at St. Paul. It is reliable and full of good reading.

—Democrats will have speakers here Monday night. Messrs. Culbertson, Miller and others will expound democratic principles to which all are cordially invited to attend.

Ordinance No. 45.

An Ordinance to prevent, suppress and restrain lewdly houses within the corporate limits of the town of Genesee, state of Idaho.

The town of Genesee does ordain: Section I. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep, maintain or assist in maintaining any lewdly house within the corporate limits of the town of Genesee, state of Idaho.

Sec. II. That any place which is kept or maintained within the corporate limits of the town of Genesee, state of Idaho, for the purpose of prostitution shall be deemed to be a lewdly house within the meaning of this ordinance.

Sec. III. That any person or persons who shall be found to be imprisoned in the town of Genesee, state of Idaho, for a violation of this ordinance and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum of not less than $100 and not more than $500 together with the costs of the proceeding and as a further judgment the court may adjudge that the defendant shall be imprisoned in the town of Genesee, state of Idaho, until the fine and costs are paid. Provided, that the term of imprisonment shall not exceed one day for every two ($2) dollars of the fine and costs.

Sec. IV. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its publication once in the Genesee News, a weekly newspaper published in the town of Genesee, state of Idaho.

Passed this 23rd day of September A. D. 1892. Attest: T. J. JOHNSTON, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Genesee, Idaho.

Approved this 28th day of September, A. D. 1892. Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Genesee, State of Idaho.

Ordinance No. 46.

An Ordinance to regulate amusements by prohibiting the use of music in the same during the hours of school.

The town of Genesee does ordain: Section I. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to play any musical instrument or instrument within such school on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, between the hours of half past ten o'clock in the forenoon and half past eight o'clock p. m. of the said day.

Sec. II. That any person who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined in the sum of $25 together with the costs of the proceeding.

Sec. III. If the fine and costs are not paid immediately on the rendition of the judgment, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the board of trustees of the town of Genesee to order action to be commenced for the recovery of the same and to cause the same to be levied upon the property of the defendant in behalf of the state of Idaho on the issuance of the license to sell liquor in the saloons of the defendant.

Sec. IV. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its publication once in the Genesee News, a weekly newspaper published in the town of Genesee, Idaho.

Attest: T. J. JOHNSTON, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Genesee, Idaho. Approved this 28th day of September, A. D. 1892. Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Genesee, State of Idaho.

Homestead Proof.

FRANK GRIEBNER—H. E. No. 1705, Land Office at Lewiston, Idaho.

September 25, 1892. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed with me his intention to make final proof in support of his claim and that said proof will be made before U. S. Land Office at Lewiston, Idaho, on November 7, 1892, viz: FRANK GRIEBNER, for the NE 1/4 sec. 29, Twp. 38, Range 5 W. B. M. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land: Ole Svold, Christian Admanson, Joseph Geiger, Four January all of Genesee, Idaho. C. M. DAY, Register.

Dissolution of Co-Partnership.

The firm heretofore existing under the name and style of Nelson, Gilmore & Co., doing business in the town of Genesee, Idaho, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Henry Nelson having purchased the entire interest in the concern of George Nelson and John Gilmore, and assumes all debts owing by said firm, and all bills due said firm are to be paid to him. Dated Sept. 1, 1892. HENRY NELSON, JOHN GILMORE, GEORGE NELSON.

CALIFORNIA SUGAR BEETS.
Samples of What Might Be Grown in the Palouse Section.
 Pacific Agriculturalist.

The Chino beet sugar factory, Los Angeles Co., has turned out this year 2,870,059 pounds of sugar. Of this quantity, 516,000 pounds was from the syrups of 1861, and the balance was from this year's beet crop, 2,352,059 pounds. About one half of the entire quantity is crude sugar, which will run between 80 and 90 per cent sugar. Upon this the government pays 14 cents per pound bounty. The other one half is raw sugar that has gone through a centrifugal machine. From present indications, this year's beet crop will amount to about 50,000 tons. For every ton the grower will receive on an average $40.50. This year 40,000 acres have been planted to sugar beets, as against 2700 last year. This year the beets run about 15 per cent sugar, as against 13 last year.

POINTS FOR DEMOCRATS.
 If Cleveland is Elected He Will Help British Tin Industries.
 Portland Oregonian.

The Industrial World, organ of the tin plate makers at Swanson, Wales, assert that if the democrats are unsuccessful in the United States, 80 per cent of the tin plate export trade to this country will be lost. Something, it says, was gained by the Welch tin plate makers through the democratic victory in 1890, since, but for that victory and its discouraging effects on American manufacture, the spread of the tin plate industry in the United States would have been still more rapid; and it argues, further, that the way for the Welch makers to hold the American market in spite of the adverse circumstances of the present time is to put down the price of tin plate still further and wait for a democratic victory. To get this result, it urges the owners to forego all profits and the workmen to work for half pay for a season. It seems that British manufacturers are fixing their hopes on our democratic party, just as much as the confederates of the south did thirty years ago.

From the Cour d'Alene.

GEM. Ida., Sep. 27.

The Frisco mine is again resuming work. The mill is now running trying its new machinery; some of the old shafting is used.

Esler has all available means to have the mill rebuilt as fast as possible, and probably never in the history of a mining camp has a 225 ton mill been built or rebuilt in such a short time as was the Frisco. The windows are not yet put in, the roof is not finished but still the mill runs and dozens of carpenters are seen swarming about.

Your reporter spoke to the First Sergeant Warner, who said: "Part of Company D, Fourth Inf., of Fort Sherman, is stationed here. We have rations enough to do us all till after the election, and will probably have to remain here that long. Everything is quiet and peaceable. No disturbance of any kind has occurred." But there is no telling how soon trouble would commence if the military boys were taken away.

The Mine Owners' association is doing all in their power to have the troops kept here some time longer.

—Again we will mention the fact that somebody should build more houses for rent. Not a single week passes by but we hear of from one to three families wanting a building to move into. A $600 or $700 house at $10 per month is good big interest on money invested.

—Stick to the farm; the farm is, after all, the nation's sheet anchor. The time is near at hand when all will realize their dependence on that anchor, and all will devote themselves to making it strong and steadfast. Boys, get you a chunk of land and stick to it, you will come out on top just as sure as the sun rises in the east. You can't help but prosper if you are industrious, honest and faithful.

—Several marriageable ladies could obtain hard working and industrious farmers, with good homes and well to do, if they would but come to this part of God's country. The ranchers in the Bald Butte settlement will thank us for this item.

—Uniontown Journal. The same state of affairs exists up in these woods, neighbor; let's ship in a car load from the over-supply regions—Pennsylvania. Good "Dutch" girls would go like wild fire.

Hon. W. J. McConnell, in his opening campaign speech at Sand Point, advanced his interests very much. There is a ring of true American ideas in the following and will make him many votes: While it is true that political controversies often engender those who have heretofore been friends, yet I venture to predict that in this first national campaign in which the citizens of Idaho will be allowed to take part as voters, there will be a strict adherence to the truly republican idea abuse is not argument, that on the broad platform of American citizenship we all stand upon an equality. It is right, it is proper, that before performing such an important duty as that of casting an American ballot you should listen to the different speakers who will appear before you from time to time in advocacy of each particular line of policy, and determine for yourselves as free men what will subserve the interests of this government. Try to relieve your minds of the delusion which seems to haunt the waking visions of some of our people, that this government consists of a certain individual or a few individuals who live in Washington. You are the government. You are the people who are to cast the ballots on November 8, and you are the ones to be either benefitted or damaged by the policy you adopt. Hence, the great importance of being correctly informed regarding the true issues of the day.

—Genesee is gradually climbing to the front. Another year will see a marked change for the better in the business portion of the town.

—Hope, Idaho, comes to the front with a silver mine excitement. It is claimed to be the best find made in the state in recent years, the ore assaying 1.716 ounces in silver and $8.40 in gold. Great excitement prevails.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mervin's baby has been quite ill.
—Old gentleman Edwards has been quite feeble of late.
—Little Miss Marguerite Means has been quite sick the past few days.
—Mr. and Mrs. E. Baumister of Astoria visited Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Williams Sun.

—Merchant Lestoe was over from Volmer this week, at the Owen. Ditto Mr. Viunergierholz.
—Joe Richards has purchased the lot between Harris and Hill. Now for a house and a bird.
—The Woman's Missionary Association will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. L. W. Taft.
—Unless all signs fail a very pleasant time will be had at the public dance tonight at Elliott hall. You are invited.
—Ex-Editor Poor came in from the Astoria country Wednesday and departed the next day for California to live. Luck.
—Herman Haring, of Pullman, has opened a shoe shop in the Genesee Hardware Co's building. New work and repairing done on short notice. Prices reasonable.

—The hour for evening service at the Cong'l church has been changed for the winter to 7:30. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30.
—Look at our hill of corn measuring nearly 11 feet high. J. Blume has a field of it. Fine, and you have to look twice to see to the top; and ears as large as ours!
—The brick walls of the Vollmer building have nearly reached the second floor and by another week they will be within sight of the roof. The Vollmer force will be tickled out when they get inside the new structure.
—Paul Cann, who was called to Janesville on account of the illness of his wife two weeks ago, returned to Genesee last Sunday and reported his wife getting along nicely. Next day or two he was on the sick list, but is on his taps again.

—There will be a meeting Saturday eve at the hall to consider the advisability of starting a club room. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to come out and give their views on the subject and if thought best an organization will be perfected.
—The Chautauque circle will meet for organization next week Friday evening. The course of study for this year will be unusually interesting as it will relate especially to the coming World's Fair. Books will be ordered at once so that those desiring to take the course are invited to leave their names at this office with Mr. Power today or tomorrow, or hand them to Mr. Smith.

—The Parker Bros. will give a grand entertainment at the fair grounds, on Sunday, October 2nd, consisting of a bicycle race, foot race, a free-for-all cayuse race, also grand wrestling exhibition by the athletes young Jack Burko and Billy Caly. The whole to conclude with a balloon ascension and parachute jump from an altitude of 5,000 feet by the Parker Bros., the kings of all aeronauts.
—Genesee will do some tall scrambling toward citydom next season if the cholera misses us. Those that are sure to erect brick blocks are:

Genesee Hardware Co.,
Nagel & Bomberg,
First National Bank of Genesee,
W. J. Herman,
C. A. Christopher & Co.
C. F. Burr,
Edwin London,
A. N. Hill,
And others.

The News would like to be included in the list. We propose to issue a larger sheet and a better paper before many months if we have to take out doors for it—the back end of Grimes' lots. Genesee will make a rattling good town and can support one good paper, and she'll get it. A very bright future has Genesee.
—This office was honored with a call from Mr. H. R. Smith, republican nominee for county superintendent and probate judge, last Wednesday. In his canvass he gives the people a plain, sensible talk and is easily understood. He carries a large number of state and county certificates and recommends which show him to be amply qualified for superintendent, which is the most important office in the county. The fact that the greater portion of the bar favor his election is evidence enough that he will make a good officer as probate judge. The News can heartily support him. We can do no better than to append the following which speaks for itself:
TO THE VERGES OF LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO.
The following recommendation was given H. R. Smith after fifteen years experience in the schools of Wisconsin:
Office of State Superintendent, Madison, Wis.
To whom it may concern: This certifies that I am personally acquainted with Prof. H. R. Smith, former principal of schools at Richland Center, Wis. He is an experienced and successful principal and superintendent of schools and a man of excellent character and habits. He has that enthusiasm for his work, and a happy faculty of interesting pupils which will insure the success of his school management. I do not hesitate to commend him to the attention of school boards who desire to employ a thoroughly competent principal and superintendent.
Very respectfully,
J. H. THAYER, State Supt.

Prof. Smith holds certificates granted by examination for primary, intermediate, district, grammar and high schools, besides three state certificates, one of which is a life. He was trained in the largest of the five normal schools of the state; did three seasons work as state institute conductor; was principal of two high schools eleven years; taught primary, district, intermediate and grammar grades four years; has been four years in active business. While not a lawyer he has read law preparatory for teaching commercial classes, and business law. Prof. Smith will gladly give references substantiating any of the above statements, and will also give references to his former principal and superintendent.

—Strangers are numerous.
—Reciprocity is in the interest of the western farmer.
—Night-watch Martin has moved his family to town.
—Geo. Ralph has been taking in the sights at Spokane this week.
—The dry season is past for this year and our people are glad of it.
—Mrs. Fred. Bressler is visiting friends and relatives in Moscow this week.
—Painter Russell has been beautifying the new Thomas building this week.
—R. Pickering visited Moscow Tuesday and says things have commenced to smolder politically.
—A boy is the latest addition to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Houghton, born September 27th.
—Services will be held in the new M. E. church, Sunday morning, October 2nd, at 11 o'clock a. m.
—Jim Cann has been ornamenting the roofs of his buildings with a couple of chimneys the past week.
—J. J. Shepard has rented the Christian tower residence and will move his family over from Lewiston in a few days.
—C. A. Christopher has been spending several days here this week. Says Julietta is moving to the front in nice shape.
—The Woman's Missionary Association have an entertainment in preparation which will be given at Thanksgiving time.
—J. S. Larrabee is now installed as deputy postmaster. Mr. Larrabee is a good honest man and will make Mr. Burr a faithful official.
—Joe Geiger has purchased the Jackson saloon building and in all probability will put up a handsome structure in its place another spring.
—The postoffice building has been raised to grade and a new walk put down in front. The iron building will also soon be in position next to the postoffice.
—No Brommeling's fourth heir is a boy born last week Wednesday and uncle Joe Hufstader is astounded over the event as a little boy with his first pair of suspenders.
—The war horses of the three parties are skirmishing around trying to find out how things are simmering down in the minds of the people. There will be a great explosion if the campaign is not soon opened.
—We omitted last week to make mention of the wedding that occurred on the previous Sunday in Lewiston. The contracting parties were Mr. Ed. Mullaly and Miss Jessie Kirk, both of this vicinity. Here's best wishes.
—E. R. Follett has a very fine lot of goods in his harness shop. The robes and blankets just added are elegant and in keeping with the balance of his goods. He sells cheaper than any house in the county, Spokane not excepted.
—The equinoctial wind and rain storm of last week was a blessing. The dust was laid nicely and just enough rain fell to refresh gardens, grass, the air and things generally, and the weather following has been perfect up to date. Roads have been much improved for hauling.
—On our "swing around the circle" for news Tuesday, we counted thirty-four wagon loads of grain waiting to be unloaded and several more could be seen at a distance coming. The grain buyers say it has been this way for several days, only a great deal more so. Stacking the sacks up on the outside has commenced and will continue until snow flies.
—David Fairburn, the next assessor for Latah county, was in Genesee a couple of days this week making the acquaintance of our people. Mr. Fairburn was raised on a farm and knows much of farming life. He worked for nearly two years as deputy auditor for W. B. Kyle, and at the last election was almost unanimously elected city assessor of Moscow. He is a quiet, industrious man and his past record is open to all who wish to inspect. Ability and knowledge of affairs is what is needed in the make-up of a county assessor. It is the most important office in the county. Mr. Fairburn is the republican candidate, has many friends among the democrats and is known to be competent. Let us elect him.
—The harvest festival for the benefit of the Congregational church which was held last Saturday evening in the Elliott hall was a pleasant affair and a success financially, socially and otherwise. Trouble commenced at six p. m. and ended at 10:30. Dinner was the first thing on the programme and it was a caution the way the good things disappeared! It looked as though people ate more than they desired, but they did not wish to say "no" to the pretty waiters. It was nip and tuck between our marshal, Jumbo and McKenna as to who should receive the leather medal, but it was finally given to a News man for being the smallest eater. The tables fairly groaned under the weight of good things, and certainly the vanity of the cooks about town must have been gratified with the unqualified praises on all sides—the greatest compliment to the supper being the rapidly with which the many things disappeared. Then followed the inspection of fruits, vegetables and ladies' kick-knacks. The fruit, the finest in the land, were donated by Messrs. Follett, Jain, Knudson, and Brigham. Our eyes bulged out to such an extent that they nearly impeded progress for several minutes, when the band was instructed to "go ahead" after which Mrs. Jarley's wax figure were oiled up and set in motion with Miss Kane as instructor. The selections by Mrs. Keiser, Miss Camp, Miss Debbie Nelson, Miss Owen, with Miss Taft at the organ, gave excellent satisfaction. The sale of the various articles were cried off by Landlord Nelson and the bidding was quite spirited at times. Stinson got the big punkin and his boarders are devouring it. The society cleared over $1.00 which is a nice little sum. It was a happy time and a success for all.

—Contractor Hill will look over Alberta.
—Mrs. D. B. Grant is assisting in the Bank of Genesee.
—T. C. Platt and Edwin London drove to Moscow Saturday.
—You can get a free lunch if you attend the Notland auction sale Oct. 20.
—Mrs. Dr. Reese had the misfortune to run a nail through a foot causing much pain.
—Old gentleman Stoltz has rented the Bullwinkle farm and has leased his house to Mr. L. N. B. Anderson.
—Mr. Cole was down from the north Wednesday with a drove of cattle for Barringer, Harris and Loring.
—A. W. Severance was doing Pullman the first of the week. Says Pullman is all right but Genesee is more so.
—Mr. T. P. Johnson is here from the far east with a view of locating. He and Mr. Tucker took a drive to Pullman Tuesday.
—Parker Bros. will give a balloon ascension and parachute jump, wrestling match, foot racing, bicycle tournament, etc. at the fair ground Sunday Oct. 2nd. Admission 50 cts.
—The lawsuit of Sam Henry vs. John Murphy, with J. L. Bugbee attorney for the former and S. S. Denning attorney for the latter, before Judge Burr, the jury decided in favor of Mr. Murphy.
—The council this week appointed S. S. Denning as city attorney this week. A nice move. Some of our ordinances need overhauling and Mr. Denning is the boy that can put them in proper legal form.
—If any one should be anxious to know why Grimes is making such a stir in the store these days, it may be attributed to the fact that a coterie of his friends are in the habit of whistling that good old tune, "Old Grimes is Dead," and he wants to disprove the allegation.
—M. C. Harris has purchased the residence of Mr. Seal Nelson, consideration being $2,000. Mr. Harris will rent them both and build a new dwelling for himself. Mr. Nelson departed early in the week for the Alberta country with a view of locating on the Queen's domain.
—18,000 bushels of wheat and 3,000 bushels of barley is not bad for one farmer to raise. That is what Sanford Evans gets for this year's troubles. He is now hauling the grain to the Genesee market with five teams. He informed us Tuesday that his spring sown crop yielded much better than the fall sown.
—Severance & Jamison is the style of the new blacksmith firm. A week or two back Mr. Severance bought out J. A. Craig and this week Mr. Jamison has consolidated his shop with that of Mr. Severance. They will add new and expensive machinery and either build a new or remodel the old shop. Don't be surprised if a fine brick starts up before long.
—The boys are talking of getting up a series of dances and games for the fall and winter. There should be some place of amusement for the young besides the saloon. Card parties or dancing, when not carried to excess, are not harmful according to our way of thinking. If some of our people were a little more socially inclined, it would not hurt them any. Particular new comers should be made to feel at home in Genesee. That is the way to build up a town and give it a good name abroad as well as at home.
—J. L. Naylor, the republican nominee for sheriff visited Genesee this week to "beard the lion in his den." Mr. Naylor is too well known over the county to need any thing from our pen. He has been a resident of Latah county for many years, and served four years as county commissioner, handling the affairs in that capacity judiciously and in the interest of the masses. Mr. Naylor is a man of good habits and by economy and lots of hard work has secured a good home. He has a half-section of land and tills it well. His chances for election are bright, and he feels confident that he will secure a nice round majority.

—Dance to-night. Pig time.
—Threshing is being vigorously pushed all over the country and as a rule grain is turning out well.
—Messrs. Pickering and Geiger made Lewiston a visit last week, and report things a little quiet over that way.
—Geo. Follett got 1,400 bushels of wheat from 43 acres, averaging 45 per acre. He thinks this a good average for crops.
—C. Swin, a printer, called Monday while on his way to Colfax from Lewiston where he had been to give the new paper a boost.
—Lewiston people have decided to "brace up" and are now fixing up their streets to the tune of $10,000. Glad to see our neighbor waking up.
—Driving down nails in our sidewalks is against the interests of our shoe dealers, but it might save the average man at least a V during the year.
—M. E. C. Boyeson, of Moscow, was a Wednesday caller. He and Mr. Smith will expound their party gospel in Genesee on eve of Oct. 4 and in Blaine Oct. 11. All are invited, men and women.
—M. C. Harris will have a supply of good coal in soon and proposes to sell it out at a small margin—cheaper than ever before in Genesee. Glad to hear it.
—J. L. O'Connor, the good looking editor of the Kalispell, Mont., Graphic, was sizing up this section of Wonderland last Saturday, and held down our ink keg for a few minutes.
—A large number of farmers were in town Saturday from all parts of this fertile section of ours, and business generally was good. The trade coming to Genesee is increasing every week. Low prices tells the tale.
—We are pleased to learn that our band boys have about enough cash to purchase a fine tuba for H. A. Thatcher. We all should do what we can to assist the band in equipping the members, for a band is a necessity to any live town.
—Mr. and Mrs. Kane and son Edward Kane, parents and brother of Miss Kane, arrived in Genesee last Saturday evening from Wisconsin to make this their future home. They were five days on the road and old gentleman Kane thinks Genesee livelier and as thrifty looking—barring Spokane—as any town they passed thro' on the road.
—At no time within the history of Genesee has there been a more healthy state of affairs. Enquiries for lots and buildings to rent are numerous. And many of these come from farmers who expect to sell or lease their farms and retire from active life and enjoy more fully the few years of life that remain. Genesee extends to them a hand of welcome and fellowship.

PROTECT OUR BREAD.
The machinery of the law has not been put to work too speedily against the fraudulent use of ammonia and alum in Baking Powders. Both health and the pocket of the people are demanding protection. The legislatures of New York, Illinois and Minnesota have taken this matter of adulteration up, and especially that of Baking Powders. It will be in the interest of public health when their sale is made a misdemeanor in every State in the UNION, and the penalties of the law are rigidly enforced. There is no article of human food more wickedly adulterated than that of Baking Powder.
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder having a general sale that is free from ammonia, alum or taint of any kind of impurity. It makes the sweetest and lightest bread, biscuit and cake that are perfectly digestible whether hot or cold. It costs more to manufacture Dr. Price's than any other baking powder. It is superior to every other known and the standard for forty years.
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

Protect our Bread.
The machinery of the law has not been put to work too speedily against the fraudulent use of ammonia and alum in Baking Powders. Both health and the pocket of the people are demanding protection. The legislatures of New York, Illinois and Minnesota have taken this matter of adulteration up, and especially that of Baking Powders. It will be in the interest of public health when their sale is made a misdemeanor in every State in the UNION, and the penalties of the law are rigidly enforced. There is no article of human food more wickedly adulterated than that of Baking Powder.
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder having a general sale that is free from ammonia, alum or taint of any kind of impurity. It makes the sweetest and lightest bread, biscuit and cake that are perfectly digestible whether hot or cold. It costs more to manufacture Dr. Price's than any other baking powder. It is superior to every other known and the standard for forty years.

The Lewiston Tribune is a new democratic paper and sings Lewiston praises in grand shape. It starts out well and we x with pleasure.

The Spokane Review is now printed every day in the year and for fifty cents a month! It is the best daily for this section by long odds.

Hox. W. H. McCONNELL's presence is desired in every part of the state. This certainly is encouraging to him and gratifying to the loyal and law-abiding people of the state of Idaho. This is not wholly because the people love him so, but because they love his opponent less. From present indications Mr. Burke will not have a corporal's guard to help him up Salt River in November. His home county papers are showing him up in bad light, and people here that know him will not vote for him. It is altogether different with Senator McConnell. He ought to be and will be elected by a good majority. This is the status of affairs as they exist to-day. We do not wish to misrepresent things in the least, for whatever we might say would not change five votes one way or the other. We simply wish to give facts as we find them.

There is a class of freshly imported American citizens who, have learned their lessons orally from Vorhees, Mills and their satellites, who every now and then have something in the way of defense by a quotation from that old American patriot Thomas Jefferson. Just now the books and records are being ransacked by English emissaries to find some encouraging word in behalf of free tradeism, that some trusted leader of American people has uttered in times gone by. The search will be in vain. Thomas Jefferson would have set his dog on these gentry who are making such a vile use of his name and reputation: Jefferson did say this:

"If particular nations grasp at undue shares of our commerce and carrying, defensive and protective measures become necessary on the part of that nation whose marine resources are thus invaded, or it will be disarmed of its defense, its productions will be at the mercy of the nation which has possessed itself of the means of carrying them, and its politics may be influenced by those who command its commerce."

The political cauldron in Idaho is bubbling away in a right lively manner and bids fair to soon boil with even more than its accustomed vigor. Congressman Willis Sweet will undoubtedly be elected by a very large majority. It is everywhere admitted that he is the best representative that Idaho has ever had at Washington. His thorough knowledge of Idaho's needs and his extensive experience in and thorough knowledge of congressional business pre-eminently fits him for the important position he so ably and creditably fills, and the people of this state are in earnest in their determination to consult their own best interests and return him to Washington. Hence The News considers his re-election assured, although, there are two others running against him. Mr. Sweet's silver record is excellent. His experience and ability combined will enable him to serve the people better than any new man possibly could, however good a new man's intentions might be, and wisdom, patriotism and self interest all demand Hox. Willis Sweet's return to congress. Many democrats and third party people will vote for him, and his home county—Latah—will roll up a rousing majority for him. That is right, his past record is spotless.

COMMUNICATED.

To all good citizens of Idaho regardless of party or creed: About three years since while looking over the report of the Nez Perce county treasurer, I noticed the following item: "Received for gambling licenses $350." Thus what is considered not only a vice, but a criminal offense in nearly every state of our Union, is in Idaho legalized by statutory legislation. I can account for its being on the territorial statute as the first interests were mining, freighting and stockraising. As mining camps are generally infested with gamblers, and it needed some cash to oil the machinery of the Territory a resort was had to a tax or license on gambling to raise funds, etc. I supposed our first state legislature would remove this foul blot on our reputation, by repealing the Territorial law, and enacting a vigorous law for its suppression. I consider gambling one of the worst vices that can be inflicted on any community. We invite men of ample means, and all good citizens, to come and help us build up a grand state. Will not a man with a family of sons hesitate about locating in a state where gambling dens, and robber roosts are protected by law? I wish every man who has a thought or care for our youth, will express his ideas on this subject. In scanning the reports of the old party conventions, both state and county, not a whimper is made about this disgraceful vice, or the law that upholds it. What was the trouble? Would an anti-gambling plank be so narrow that the candidates could not walk on it without straddling with both feet? Suppose we question these wise men who go about advising the dear people how to vote, how they stand? Hoping to hear from others who wield abler pens than mine, I remain

Yours for the right,
H. F. KRUM.

We return the liar's belt, which was so kindly accorded us by the Caldwell Tribune a short time ago, to these pugilistic editors. Hear the Trib: "We have just received a letter from Grover Cleveland thanking us very much for our kind advice and suggestions in relation to his letter of acceptance." He adds as a postscript that Frankie and baby Ruth are enjoying good health, and that they just couldn't keep house without the Tribune. We want to inform Grover right here that he is two months in arrears on our books and unless he remits at once we shall strike his name from the immortal scroll."

The fights along the line will be decidedly hot from this on. But while things may wax warm, let the contest be a clean one. Relegate enmity, suppress acrimony—don't lie about your neighbors. Keep within honorable bounds.

The democrats are active, and as far as we know, are carrying on an honest, live, straightforward fight, which the News is pleased to see. And we are sure many of them will have the manhood to vote for Harrison electors instead for Weaver electors. When we come to vote let us be fair. Shall we wire to the world that Idaho is for Weaver, or Harrison, which? Let it be Harrison, by all means.

The democratic political meeting last Monday night was quite well attended—a goodly number from all parties being present. The tariff was the main topic discussed, and, as the greater portion of the audience were democrats, they were highly pleased with the talks. Speakers were Hous. G. W. Wilton, W. L. Culbertson, T. F. Nelson and Capt. J. W. Walker. The captain is a very fair talker and would have done better had he had more time to speak. The same may be said of Mr. Culbertson, the nominee for probate judge. Mr. G.'s talk was good from a democratic stand point.

There will be more than one democrat in Idaho that will vote for Harrison for president and McConnell for governor. The withdrawal of the democratic electoral ticket will drive many democrats into the republican camp. Anything to get office Weaver can't be thrust down the intelligent thinking class. It was only last Tuesday a prominent democrat running for a high office in this county, told us that he knew Weaver well for the past twenty years and he did not know one good trait of him; it was one party than another, anything to get office. Think twice before you vote.

The News contains some politics now, but no more than is necessary. Our sayings are fair, readers of all parties will admit, and as long as they are such, no one will object. We aim to treat all parties fair, though we are true republicans. Why the News is republican is because we believe in protection to American industries and to American people. We honestly believe that free trade now will ruin our infant industries, lower wages and put America on the level with starving England and other foreign sections. What free trade nation is as prosperous as protection America? None. Then why not continue with the present administration of affairs.

IDAHO REFERENCES.

I experienced a great deal of trouble in finding glasses which suited my eyes accurately. There is a difference in the focal power of the two eyes. I consulted Dr. Mayer and received glasses which are perfectly easy; I can see with them any length of time by day, or artificial light, and without fatigue. I measure in recommending this gentleman to my friends and the citizens of Halley.

Halley, July 20, 1892. J. B. WINTERS.

I suffered with Nasal Catarrh and enlarged tonsils; my health failed more and more; I lost nearly 25 pounds in 12 months; began to cough every morning; I was treated for four months every day but without success. Upon the arrival of Dr. Mayer in this city, I consulted him; he removed the tonsils very skillfully, and after a few days of rest and treatment produced a wonderful change in my condition. I am getting better every day. He is a thorough specialist, very reliable, and I feel that I can not say too much in his behalf. The doctor preserved the tonsils in alcohol, and any of my friends who wish to see it can call on him, or on me for further information.

1877 Indian War.

Hon. F. A. Fenn, speaker of the House of Representatives of this State took an active part in the Nez Perce Indian war of 1877, and was a witness to many of the exciting events of that conflict with the redskins which was the most terrible Idaho has ever witnessed, either before or since.

On July 5th, 1877, Mr. Fenn in company with 16 other volunteers under the command of Captain D. B. Randall was dispatched to reinforce a body of Captain Perry which were surrounded by Indians at Cottonwood station, about 20 miles from Grangeville, Idaho county. The previous day the redskins had killed 13 of Perry's men.

"When within sight of Cottonwood," said Mr. Fenn to a Statesman reporter yesterday, "we were attacked by 138 Indians. Many of our horses were shot down before the men could dismount and before we could fairly return the fire 11 horses were lying dead at our feet. The animals were formed in a semicircle for breast works and the fight commenced in earnest.

"Fortunately for us the reds did not charge. The bullets flew fast and thick. We stood those Indians off for one hour and a half, however, and they finally retreated. Perry and his men witnessed the conflict, but did not offer to assist us until we sent to him one of our men on one of the best of the six horses that were still alive, who begged that the regulars be sent to relieve us.

The Indians were over 1000 yards away from us, however, and on the retreat when the soldiers started to our assistance. Captain Perry was afterwards court martialed for not rendering us aid more promptly, but was exonerated."

To give an idea of how fierce the battle was waged and how narrow was his escape, Mr. Fenn said bullets cut four holes in his pantaloons without drawing blood, and one burned both his lips and loosened a front tooth. His horse was hit with 13 different bullets.

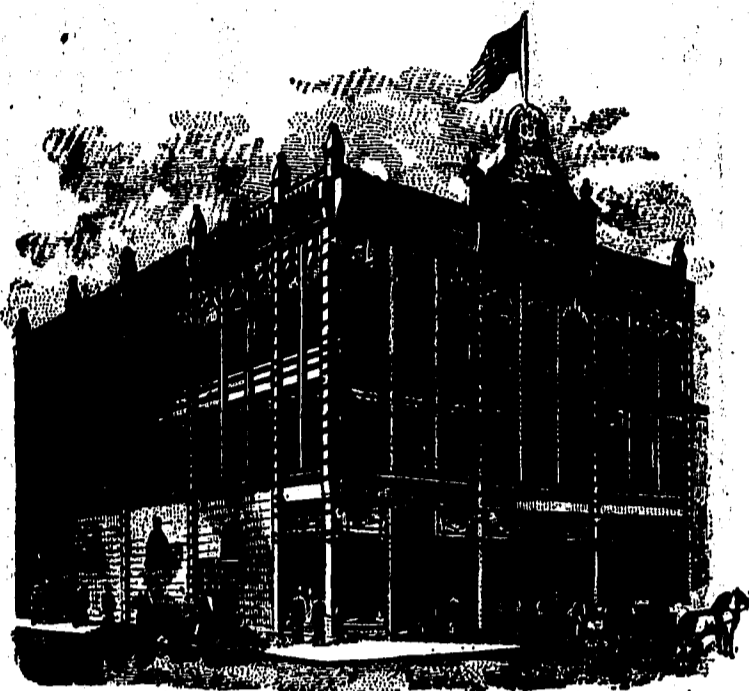

During the engagement Captain Randall and Privates Houser and Evans were killed and four others wounded. It was never ascertained how many Indians were killed and wounded but one grave was discovered the next day that contained the bodies of nine redskins who were evidently killed in the Cottonwood fight.—Statesman.

Republican Rally!

Hon. W. E. Borah and Hon. J. H. Richards, two leading orators of Idaho, will address the citizens of this place and surrounding country, at Elliott Hall

THIS EVENING.

The tariff issue and the reason why the industries of the United States should be protected, will be fully explained. All are invited.

—J. Dermott is in this section.
—R. Jackson visited Moscow, Monday.

—Postmaster Burr visited Moscow a day or so this week.

—An addition is being built to the Miss Brennan residence.

—Thirty-five thousand bushels of wheat was sold in Genesee Tuesday, at 50c.

—Severance and Jameson have all the blacksmithing they can do these days.

—Miss May Nelson departed Monday for a visit with friends in Sprague and Spokane.

—Hardware Scroggins has purchased the lots just west of Fred. Bressler's. Now for another residence.

—Friend Gage has built a large two story house—of wheat—the past week and is a sight to newcomers.

—Almost everybody hereabouts votes for E. T. Platt for commissioner which is right; it is to our interest.

—Miss Emma Sager arrived here last week from Winlock and will spend the winter with her relatives, the Steltz.

—John Helger, the great tall plaster, has returned from his Warm Springs trip much strengthened and now carries a big appetite.

—J. J. Owen is building him commodious living quarters just west of the Mat. Kamboch's residence. Contractor Hill is doing the work.

—Mr. Spottwood, proprietor of Denver, took a square meal at the Latah on Wednesday; likewise Pullman Bottling Works Thompson and D. C. Heise, 'Frisco.

—Craig & Oliver are erecting a new blacksmith and machine shop just west of the Deer King livery. This makes a hustling team and the boys will get plenty to do.

—The Genesee Roller Mills are turning out about 40 barrels per day, notwithstanding Miller Thomas is not yet able to labor. The mill makes excellent brand of flour and orders must be filled.

—Auditor Anderson is kept very busy these days. To give an idea what Cheatham & Baker are doing along the line, we are informed that they purchased 2,000,000 bushels of wheat Saturday and Monday. This is decidedly a wheat country.

—Local politics is beginning to take shape. The rappings of the ghosts of ancient factions are occasionally heard. This is to be deplored in a year when the success of the party should impress every republican as being paramount to any individual or factional interest.

—C. A. Christopher and Rev. Smith drove to Moscow Monday in a one-horse rig. A couple members of the News went same day by train. Finding the train at Moscow too late to catch the homeward at Pullman, Mr. Christopher kindly bro't them back for which he has the thanks of the News.

—That is a wise woman who can smile when she gets up, and who can go to sleep with a smile, for in this way she greets the coming day, and at the end of it she has blotted out all of the disagreeables. That is a wise woman who can smile for her friends and her enemies; it will keep the first and it is the best weapon against the last.

—The balloon ascension last Sunday drew out a very large crowd—that is, the surrounding hills and buildings were well decorated with people watching for Parker to ascend to the sky. The crowd that passed through the toll gate was not so large, and those held free tickets on the hill-tops were the most pleased. Parker went up about 500 feet, cut loose and made the parachute jump o. k.

—Friend Hodgins, accompanied by Captain J. M. Walker, of Kendrick, honored this office with a call Tuesday morning. Mr. Walker is the nominee for senator on the democratic ticket and it said stands a good show of election. He gave our people a good sensible talk the previous evening and left a good impression. The captain is an old soldier, a pleasant visitor and makes friends wherever he goes. In the Kendrick country, says the Gazette, he "will have a walk-over in his senatorial race," notwithstanding his opponent hails from the same place. Well, captain, here's best wishes, and if you win you will do good to Latah county.

—It is a cold day when Genesee don't stand up above every other town of its size in this section. It has a live, wide awake class of citizens, who are always on hand to aid in any enterprise that will retound to the good of the town or its people. It is in need of factories. A paper mill or twine factory, either one, would pay handsomely. Such an institution would give employment to not less eight or ten men and increase our payroll $10,000 or $12,000 a year, a thing in itself that is worth working for. Let every citizen be on the lookout for enterprises that increase the cash income of the town, for when we get waterworks will then be able to furnish these small manufacturing interests with all necessary power. A machine shop, a creamery, a wagon and buggy manufactory, and other small interests that will each contribute a little to the weekly cash income of our business men, and draw outside trade that will be so much clear gain, that would not otherwise come to our city at all. One or two such enterprises will open the way to other improvements that will increase our population, our business interest and wealth, and will always make Genesee a desirable town in which to live and do business.

—Register!
—Some warm weather
—Republican rally to-night.
—Realstate matters seem to be on the active list.

—Genesee merchants are a happy lot now and likewise the farmers that trade with them.

—The Auction Store has started up, and Manager Nelson says he may locate here permanently.

—Take out your second papers Oct. 17 at Moscow if you desire to vote at the coming election.

—Mrs. J. J. Shepard and the children moved over from Lewiston this week and will live with us a while.

—Don't fail to attend the auction sale at Knotland & Linsie's, four miles north, Oct. 20. Free lunch for everybody.

—Mrs. Wm. McMahon fainted away at the church Sunday evening and has been quite ill ever since. Heart trouble.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Daggett, Omaha, Neb., relatives of our Geo. Daggett, are here to make Idaho their home. Welcome.

—Artist Hasfurther is turning out some fine work, the latest being a view of Genesee from the south and a threshing crew. See them.

—Don't fail to hear the silver-tongued orator of the state, Hon. W. E. Borah, and Hon. J. H. Richards, to-night, in Genesee. Everybody invited.

—J. F. Dearing yesterday took possession of his old livery outfit and once more becomes a Genesee business man. His many friends will be glad to hear of this.

—Mr. Edward Kane arrived on Saturday from Wisconsin and commenced Monday morning to teach school in the Jain neighborhood. That chap lets no grass grow under his feet.

—The dance last Friday night was a nice, quiet, orderly affair. Just enough people were present to keep the floor filled and all danced their fill. The supper at the Owen House was excellent.

—E. T. Platt sold three lots this week to W. J. Herman which are situated east of the new Jones residence. Mr. Herman will erect a fine residence in the spring and let some one else occupy the old one.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Howard arrived here from Kansas City and Iowa a few days since and will make this their home. Mrs. Howard is a sister of Mr. W. F. Morrison. We are pleased to see another family locate in Genesee.

—The Cour d'Alone conspiracy case ended last week in the finding Geo. Pettibone, John Murphy, M. J. Devine and C. Sinclair guilty. They received two years, 18 and 16 months respectively. Our militia boys arrested these chaps.

—The third party speakers that held forth in Genesee Tuesday night will now have to change their tactics since the fusion this week on the electoral ticket. Their main argument was abuse of the democratic party. Revise your speeches and change front.

—Contractor Strickland has commenced building operations for J. W. Hopp's new dwelling which will be 24x28 with a wing, 12x14, story and a half. It is so near the Cong'l meeting house that we will be able to hear Bro. Smith from our veranda! It's handy, you see, and we escape the collection box.

—Spuds! Well we have a few in our office that took two men to place them there with crowbars! They were raised by J. Blume, four miles south and hauled to town by two span of horses. We would like to send them to the world's fair but they are too large for shipment. Come in and see them if you doubt our word. They are world beaters.

—W. L. Payne, nominee for clerk of court and auditor, was a Genesee visitor Tuesday last. There is a mighty fine young man, unassuming, enterprising—and it's a pity that he is a democrat! He is quite well known, popular and makes friends wherever he goes. His friends, who are legion, speak in the highest terms of him as a gentleman and he is worthy and capable to hold the offices he seeks. He was head book-keeper for the mammoth U. S. Store at Moscow for a number of years and will prove to be a strong candidate at the polls. Mr. Payne is carrying on a good clean fight which is commendable.

—Spencer & Hough, the new mill men, visited Vollmer early in the week to inspect the new flouring mill there. They claim the machinery is the most perfect made and is capable of turning out the very best brand of flour. It is the kind they propose to get for their new mill here if our people will give them the proper encouragement. Now let us put our shoulder to the wheel and help these loads. They are well and favorably known to all and if we can get the best mill in the country by donating a little we should improve the opportunity. We have grain enough here for several mills, and by donating a little more we can get something extra we should do what we can. The more and better industries we can get the better it will be for all of us. Let us push Genesee ahead.

—The gambling dens are getting too numerous. Since our neighboring towns have rid themselves of gamblers, heeled and capped, Genesee has a small army of these worthless scamps. New recruits arrive almost daily, and not a few of them, it is believed, should be behind the bars for past depredations committed here and elsewhere. Drunken brawls and fights are of frequent occurrence and people passing along the streets at night time are in danger. We came near being run over by a fighting mob Monday morning and do not want a repetition. Councilmen and people, let us have some action before mischief is done. Cheaper and easier to drive this lawless element out now than it will be later. We must do this or increase the police force. A gambler or two would not be so bad, but now we have a dozen or more. When people get so they must bolt their doors at night time and lay in a supply of firearms it is high time that something was done. The proper officials will please show their metal. Close the gambling dens!

—Everybody is on the jump.
—More new goods at Rosenstein's.
—Landlord Stinson was at Vollmer yesterday.

—Miss Cora Dermott, of Moscow, is the guest of Miss Edith Hollister.

—Joe Pierce fell headlong out of his wagon Monday. He still lives.

—Barber Gray was up from Uniontown this week sizing up our live burg.

—If we are a little short of news lay it to a rush of work and bear with us a short time.

—Vollmer is offering some bargains; some goods must go before moving into the brick block.

—H. A. Thatcher went over on Camas Prairie this week, Mrs. T. accompanying him as far as Lewiston.

—Contractor Strickland has purchased residence lot adjoining Dr. Hayes and will put up a building soon.

—It does us much good to learn that the Genesee people appreciate our efforts. It pleases us to please our readers.

—Contractor Steltz is pushing the work on the Fred Jones residence at the fair grounds and is now ready for the plaster.

—The Steltz delivery team took a spin around several blocks, Monday, but the steeds were stopped before doing any damage.

—Miss Minnie Yockey, niece of Mrs. McGrew, living over Lenville way, was thrown from a horse and sprained one of her ankles.

—Frank Robinson has decided to build a brick residence 24x28 this fall, just east of Mr. Dewing's place. Good enough; let Genesee continue to grow.

—Whitman Co. Agricultural Society meets in Colton school house Sat. Oct. 16 when interesting papers will be read and prominent horticulturalists speak. All are cordially invited.

—The Genesee Mercantile Co. had a big trade Monday, and mostly with parties who do their trading in other towns. The people will come again and bring others with them; prices talk.

—T. J. Sampson and A. O. Christensen remembered the poor printer the past week. Also, W. H. Gage, J. A. Craig, H. K. Kram, A. A. Haymone, C. Spurbeck, P. H. Linsie and others.

—The U. S. Store, Moscow, takes a 1/4 section of the News to tell people about the bargains they are offering. Space in this is getting to be valuable. Opposite page contains their startling speech.

—Jeweler Andrews has moved his stock of jewelry in the south east corner of the Christopher & Co's store and is now better prepared to serve the public. Jewelry at half price the next thirty days.

DEMOCRATS!

Attention. There will be a meeting of the Democratic Club Saturday eve, Oct. 8, at Elliott's Hall. All come out, important business on hand. Com.

—Columbus Day is drawing near—two weeks from today—and our citizens should participate in the school exercises. The program is not yet complete for publication, but will appear in our next issue.

—Last Sunday week at Cottonwood, on Camas prairie, Idaho, Price Yandell shot and killed W. C. Chambers. It was the result of an old feud. The verdict of the coroners jury was that Yandell killed Chambers in self-defense.

—The Wymann's Missionary Association will meet next week with Mrs. C. H. Hough. They will do plain family sewing for any one desiring it. Work may be left at any time with Mrs. Hibbs or sent to the place of meeting.

—Mr. Lamphear and family occupy a portion of the D. Spurbeck residence until other quarters can be had. Mr. Lamphear will open a meat market about the middle of next month. The News welcomes these good people to Genesee.

—Dr. Ignatz Mayer, the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, spent one day in Genesee last week and had about all he could do to wait on his numerous customers. As far as we have been able to learn he has given entire satisfaction. He is in Moscow now.

—There will be a Sunday school social at the Elliott Hall next Wednesday evening from seven until nine for the members of the Sunday school and all the young friends. Games, a short program and light refreshments with no charge. All children invited.

—Mr. C. S. A. Howard, People's party candidate for sheriff, was looking over Genesee this week. Mr. Howard is well known over the county, having lived here for nineteen years. He is a quiet, honest man, and this is his first run for office, which he consented to run for at the urgent request of his many friends. He will make a good run and no mistake, and if elected will serve the people well. He is making a quiet, peaceable canvass and if he should slip in under the wires ahead of his competitors it would not be the greatest surprise we have met with.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sampson, Sr., brought into this office last Friday a collection of fruit for us to devour. A very choice collection and good enough for the worlds fair. We have samples in the show window for strangers and Daubing Thomases to feast their eyes over. Fine looking apples do not grow, and some of them must be of the "Maiden Blush" variety as they look so dainty, blushing and pretty. Good people, we return many thanks for this very generous gift and hope some day to be able to get even. Mr. Sampson's orchard, though young yet, is about as fine looking as any in this section.

—George Raymond presented us with a box of fruit from the Pollett ranch. Do so again, neighbor.

—Kolzer & Stacker went almost to China this week while drilling a well for J. W. Hopp. One hundred and twenty four feet is all.

—Ed Reyson, late of Minneapolis, has opened up a restaurant and eating house in the Dr. Reese building. Board by the week or single meals. Ice cream twice a week.

—Billy Swank, waiter at the Owen, received a telegram Sunday, from Spokane, telling him of the death of his brother. He was kicked by a horse, dying from injuries received.

—It does us good to see the wheat roll in. Every day our grain elevators take in from fifteen to twenty-five thousand bushels of grain and the Roller Mill does a big business. Each of the houses have a large force of men at work from sunrise until dark storing the grain away, and Genesee resembles much like a great manufacturing city. Our pay roll is large.

REPORTS from all parts of Idaho show that the republicans of the new state are warming up to the importance of the campaign. Reports show beyond a question that the state is safely republican. The democrats are becoming daily more and more disgusted with fusion, and many will not go to the polls at all, or if they do will vote for Harrison or vote blank, while many of the populists are disgusted with themselves for sacrificing principle in their greed for office. The average voter of today is posted on the various topics and cannot be led around by the nose at the will of a few unscrupulous office seekers. The third party was not organized as a tender to the democratic party. It was not the intention of those who met at St. Louis and adopted the platform of principles which afterward, with slight modification, became the platform of the populist party, to become simply the tail of the democratic kite. They had a higher and grander purpose in view. They intended to organize a third party, which should be antagonistic to the evils in both of the old parties—which should present pure and clean men for the suffrage of the people, standing for principles distinctively their own, but under fusion they become simply a band of soreheads, office-seekers seeking for crumbs. Principles and decency have been relegated to the rear. Spoils to the front. In all candor and fairness we ask all those who are opposed to republican principles, what are they fighting for? It cannot be for principles, since the fusion on the state ticket. What then? Spoils! Let us look at the situation as it exists. Let us be honest with ourselves. The News does not wish to misrepresent things in the least, but it desires fair play. The Populists have a mission, of course, but not in the role of assisting democrats. As long as they stood out alone and for themselves the News did not raise a murmur and believed they were honest in their doings and sayings, but when they—a few of the ring leaders—take down a portion of their state ticket and place democrats in their stead, they step off their platform and surrender up their principles. Had they stood out, as was the original intention, as the opponent of both the old parties and for principles distinctively their own, they would carry conviction. Nothing can be better expected from Weaver whom we have known for years in Iowa. He has tried to get office in five or six different parties during the past 20 years and always failed. Look at his reception in his former home state of Georgia. Three of his political meetings have been broken up with decayed eggs hurled at him, and by democrats. And out here these two parties are fusing. Voters, think of this, before you cast your ballot. Let us be true to ourselves and true to the interests of the state. Of course Weaver stands no show of election, that much is conceded on all sides. But suppose this mongrel fusion state ticket was elected, and the election of the national ticket was thrown in the House and Cleveland elected, where would Idaho's influence be? Answer it. The democrats would not be in a position to ask any favors because they had no electoral ticket; and the Populists could not ask for recognition because Weaver is their man. We appeal to you, honest thinking voters, to give the fusion deal a thorough study, and then cast your ballot for principle, right and for America.

WILLIE the southern democracy is hurling ancient eggs at Weaver the Idaho democracy is trying to deliver a part of its vote to his cause. —Spokane Review.

We would earnestly call especial attention to the qualifications of Jno. N. Naylor for the office of Sheriff. This is no trial movement; the trial has taken place in the years gone by. He has been placed in the scales and not found wanting. Whatever he has undertaken has been met with success; as a business man, as a farmer, as a citizen, success has followed his footsteps, and no better gauge of a man's qualifications for office exists, than his career in private life. His political history and career has been that of an unwavering republican, not fanatical or extreme, but liberal towards all. In the office of sheriff his fine executive ability, of which he is possessed in good degree, will have an opportunity of being exercised for the benefit of his constituents.

THE urbane and ever obliging B. F. Cone, the present county clerk or auditor, who received a nomination by acclamation from the republicans, is well qualified for the position. He is thoroughly familiar with the details of the office. The auditor's office is an important one, an error in filing a deed or instrument, might entail a heavy loss on the individual who had business with him. Mr. Cone is known as careful, attentive, obliging and ever willing to answer questions connected with his office. Mr. Cone recognizes the fact that he is the people's servant, and this courtesy has insured his election. Republicans and democrats, whoever had any business with him, will vote for him.

THE old line democrats all over the state of Idaho are indignant over the fusion business. A mass meeting was held at Murray last week and resolutions passed censuring Chairman Tillinghast's actions in withdrawing their electoral ticket. Democrats who have lived here for twenty years were anxious to vote for Cleveland this year but are now disfranchised. They must vote for Weaver the gentleman who is now denouncing their party in the south. Among the 400 at the meeting were Barney N. Hillard, member of the Dem. State Executive Com., A. Aulbach, Mem. State Dem. Cen. Com., J. Holleman, Judge Dis. Court and other prominent men.

R. S. BROWNE will be the next treasurer of Latah county if we are not greatly mistaken. It is surprising to see the sentiment changing in his favor. His record as an officer of finance is excellent and open to honest investigation by anybody. He is active, energetic, willing to answer questions relating to the office, and has hosts of friends in all parties. Mr. Brown, here is hoping you will win by 500 majority.

On account of the strike the Cour d'Alene country will go overwhelmingly republican, says Col. Carlin, who inspected the Genesee militia company the past week. Burke has very little following up there.

We respect any party that has principles, but without principles what is there to fight for? Nothing but spoils, and on that line the nation would soon go to the dogs.

You can almost knock a democrat or populist dumb by asking him if he is working for principles. When it comes to principles they are not in it since the fusion.

A STATEMENT.
Having frequently heard the statement repeated that my Democratic friends are circulating, that in case of the election of Prof. H. R. Smith to the office of Probate Judge, that I am to have the appointment of a deputyship, I deem it but justice to him and the Republican party to say that the story is unqualifiedly a falsehood, and further that Mr. Smith has never mentioned the matter to me, neither have I had the audacity, as my Democratic friends would make believe, to ask such a favor of Mr. Smith, or any other person, and further any person, either Democrat or Republican, who repeats such a statement, takes upon himself the responsibility of repeating something that is absolutely a falsehood. I can further say that I have known Prof. Smith for the two years last past, and held correspondence with many of the leading educators of the state of Wisconsin, where he formerly resided, and can say that from such information that there is no person in Latah county who stands higher in educational circles than Prof. H. R. Smith, who is an eminent educator in the true sense of the term, and well qualified to fill the office of Probate Judge. Yours respectfully,
T. N. CAREKUMR.

LENNVILLE.—The people's party meeting on the evening of the 8th inst., at Lennville, was well attended. A glee club was formed in which the ladies took an active part. Speaking by Messrs. M. L. Smith, T. L. Childers, John Chenoweth and B. F. Chaney. They all claim to have the old parties down on their backs and are going to win on the 8th of November next. (Give them a belt on the snoot just for luck. CORRESPONDENT.)

FREETRADERS MAY REPLY

A List of Questions Submitted by the Republican Party.

American Economist.

If protection makes millionaires, why have nine in ten of the large fortunes in America been amassed in the so-called non-protected industries?

If protection does not maintain American wages, why are they about twice as high as in any other country under the sun?

If protection is an absurdity, how does it happen that it has converted to its doctrines the greatest statesmen and countries in Europe and the world?

If free trade would benefit American agriculture, why has it impoverished the farmers in England, Ireland, India, and wherever it has been tried?

If free trade would help this country generally, why did it plunge us into bankruptcy and misery every single time it has been tried here?

If protection oppresses the common people, why was George Washington a protectionist?

If free trade elevates labor, why were the slave holders free traders?

If reciprocity is a humbug, why are free traders so anxious to make the point that "It is only another name for free trade, anyhow?"

If the adoption of Cleveland's tariff policy in this country would not benefit England, why are the English press and public so earnest in their advocacy of his election?

If Cleveland is brave and honest, why did he try to straddle the tariff issue, which he himself raised, in 1888 and again in 1892?

If the McKinley act raises prices of manufactures, why are they lower now than before it became a law?

If it lowers wages, why are wages higher now than before it passed?

If protection is unjust, why was Abraham Lincoln a protectionist?

If it oppresses farmers, why were they the ones to vote its inauguration, and why have they more steadfastly than any other class of citizens vote to maintain it?

If a nation must buy in order to sell, why was the balance of trade in our favor more than $120,000,000 in the past year?

If strikes are due to the tariff, why are there two strikes in free trade England to every one in the United States?

If protection is unconstitutional, why were the framers of the constitution protectionist?

If free traders are really friends of the farmers, why did they abolish the duty on the farmer's wool?

If free raw materials would give us the "market of the world," why are our imports of cotton goods far in excess of our exports?

If the protected United States is not prosperous, why are we the only nation in the wide world that has no emigrants?

If the tariff is a "tax" why can you buy numberless articles for less than the very duty which is imposed on them?

If protection is opposed on the ground that our industries are no longer "infants" why doesn't the Cobdenite support the tin plate duty?

If our higher wages are due to the greater efficiency of American workmen, why do foreigners who come here receive two and three times as much as is paid for the same work in their own country?

If the democratic house of representatives was not laboring in the interests of the British Cordage trust, why did it pass the free binding twine bill?

If a revenue tariff does not cause pauperism, why were there more paupers in New York during the revenue tariff of '40 than ever before or ever after?

If free trade is patriotic, why do free traders always sneer at everything American?

—News has been received from Alaska of a volcanic eruption in the Aleutian islands, which is believed to be from the black peak between the Chignik canneries and Ounangashik. About 6 o'clock on the morning of August 28th a beautiful blue cloud was seen from Chignik bay to ascend behind the mountains. About 11 o'clock an earthquake occurred, accompanied by thunder and lightning, the latter of which lasted all day. In the afternoon the cloud turned black. The next morning the air was full of sulphur smoke, and the deck of the schooner Clara, lying in Chignik bay, was covered two inches deep with black sand. Everything on land and sea was black from the same cause. Flocks of wild geese flew from the northeast, screaming with terror. Burning rocks thrown into the air were seen from Vossnessenski. That afternoon a shower of dust like burned paper fell at Chignik bay, and the next day another light shower fell. The dust showers were seen far at sea. Water in all the streams and bays was muddy.

THE United States Investor has decided to offer $1,000 in prizes for essays of one column each respecting American cities and towns.

We take pleasure in announcing that the following distinguished gentlemen have consented to act as judges to award these prizes:

Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts.

Hon. Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia.

Hon. Julius C. Burrows, of Michigan.

The prizes will be subdivided as follows:

For the best essay respecting any American city or town, $500; for the second best essay respecting any American city or town, $300; for the third best essay respecting any American city or town, $200.

Each essay is to deal with the merits of the city or town chosen as its subject, either as a desirable place of residence; as affording opportunities for investments; as a place of peculiar location; as a place of unusual rapid growth; as a place in which an unusually large amount of capital and labor is employed in any particular industry; as a place possessed of great undeveloped resources, such as water power, coal and iron, etc., which is peculiar because it has long escaped attention; as a place of great historical interest; or as possessing any other claim to unique interest or special distinction. All the essays which are intended for competition should be marked as such and forwarded to either of the offices of the United States Investor, 19 Pearl street, Boston; 335 Broadway, New York; 241 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Market Report. (Corrected every Thursday.) Wheat—No. 1—milled... $ 53 Barley... 47 Oats—per cwt... 1.05

Register!—The laugh is on the Bundy people!—One or two extra freights every day now.

—Mr. Herman has in a nice line of new furniture. —The Genesee brick makes a nice wall as the Vollmer brick proves.

—The music of the saw and hammer is heard in all parts of the city. —R. H. Condon has been selling a few organs in this section of late.

—Sovereign snow storms are reported in the east. Good weather here. —Our legal lights find something to do to busy themselves right along.

—A parassol, found in the road near town awaits an owner at this office. —The Oliver family is spending a few days with relatives at Pomeroy, Wash.

—Some needed improvements have been made on the school premises of late. —Conductor Jack Crowley, after a lay-off of several weeks, is again on duty on this branch.

—Let us give the M. E. people a send-off by taking supper with them next Wednesday evening. —The new sidewalk in front of the Herman brick is appreciated by the pedestrians over that way.

—Lou Martin has been in town the past week looking for votes, and thinks he is going to get there Nov. 8. —George Davidson is erecting a new house close by his present quarters in the western portion of town 22 feet square.

—The Columbus Day program has not been handed in, hence we omit it. A big time next Friday afternoon, all same. —Will R. Rutter, painter, is here from Moscow and talks of staying permanently. And this is the way Genesee grows.

—Postmaster Burr departed Saturday as a delegate to the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. which is in session at Pocatello this week. —Don't fail to attend the auction sale at Knottland & Liane's, four miles north, next Thursday. A big crowd, big lunch and a big time.

—Miss Erickson, of Denver, is a guest at the Palace, and may become a permanent settler here. She is a sister to our electricity manipulator. —The Steltz Bros. own the coal yard. A good quantity of coal arrived this week but it did not stay long. More on the way. Price delivered, $8.50 per ton.

—Cheatham-Baker Co. have leased the Frank Bros. machinery depot and are using it as a grain warehouse. This company is taking in great quantities of wheat. —Contractor Strickland will build a residence for Mr. Porter 18x24 with an "L" 12x14 opposite Dressler's place. The building will be for rent. Let more of them be constructed.

—Since the new plank sidewalk has been laid down between the Owen House and Krum & Scroggin's corner, the travel along that block has been greatly increased. Let the sidewalk improvements continue on. —The "wheat rustlers" of the Cheatham-Baker warehouse challenge the crew of any other grain house in Genesee to a game of ball for wheat, money, marbles or chalk. They would rather play for wheat as they have lots of it.

—Weigher Bynum informs us that the Farmer's Elevator now has over ninety thousand bushels of grain stored away for higher prices, and says it is coming in at the rate of 4,500 to 5,000 bushels per day. They manage to ship from three to five cars each day. —John McMartin, Joe Wells and others from Moscow, left early in the week for the Alberta, B. C., country to look for homes. They go overland taking with them several head of horses, and will hunt and fish on the way. Here's hoping you will strike it rich, boys.

—Hardware Scroggin has purchased residence lots from M. C. Harris in the western portion of town and is contemplating the erection of a fine dwelling thereon this fall yet. Plans are now being drawn and estimates made for same. Good for friend Scroggin. On with the building boom. —C. W. McClure would put in a broom factory here if he could be assured that the material could be raised here without much trouble. Those that are posted should look into this matter and if a factory of this kind can be made to pay let us have it. Such industries are worth looking after.

—The democrats of Genesee got together last Saturday evening and organized a club. The officers are, Fred. Bressler president, J. L. Hayes vice-president, Ed. Spaulding secretary, Chas. Hough treasurer. A good live set of officers and they will see to it that the untrifled are kept in toe. Well, boys, be men, and now that you cannot vote for Cleveland put a vote in for Harrison and against Weaver. We understand that Attorney Denning will address the club on the political issues next Saturday evening, and we venture the assertion that he will not sing Weaver praises, for he knows the gentleman too well, having lived in Iowa a number of years.

—The first republican rally, last Friday evening, was a success in every way. That was a large crowd that greeted Hon. W. E. Borah, many ladies graced the occasion with their presence. Mr. Borah's was the best address delivered here thus far, notwithstanding he was nearly down sick. He could not do himself justice and informed us that he would return home the following Sunday if he was not better then. His speech was free from abuse, sound, sensible and to the point. Although he had to cut his speech short, Mr. Borah left a good impression, and if ever he returns will be greeted with a rousing house.

—Lawyer Bugbee has his office cozily fixed up now.

—Geo. Beechler was up from Uniontown Tuesday. —Base Ball dance to-night and supper at the Palace. —Use plenty of paint now before the wet season commences. —Palouse grapes laid Barler Brown up for a day or two this week.

—Miss Ella Walby is now a student in the University at Moscow. —Local democrats are more active than the republicans. Go it, boys. —Genesee Mercantile Co. make some astonishingly low figures now.

—Dan Emerson is having a residence erected east of the Deer Ring livery. —Plenty of teams on our streets now which gives the town a lively appearance. —Some fall seeding has been done. A little more rain is needed to make plowing good.

—Chas. Ebel is now installed as clerk in the Herman Hardware and Furniture emporium. —C. E. DeBow, John Lorang and M. M. Darby can read their "title clear" to the News now.

—The builders are getting a hustle on them to get the new buildings out of the way of bad weather. —Thos. Warden, the famous building mover, is hoisting the Mastin dwelling several feet skyward.

—Buy your flour at home, buy your goods from Genesee merchants, and help build up home enterprises. —Frank Driscoll, one of our well-to-do ranchers, has leased his farm and will try city life awhile. May build soon.

—Miss May Hollister went to Lewiston Sunday to commence a course of study and music in the Sister's School. —Mrs. David, of Moscow, is here visiting the Platt household. Her son has an interest in the McConnell & Maguire's store.

—Rev. E. B. Sutton will hold forth in the Elliott hall next Monday evening on temperance. All are invited to come out and hear him. —Attorney Denning went to Lewiston, Monday, and was admitted before the supreme court which gives him power to practice in all our courts.

—Mr. Totterdell is about ready to burn his third kiln of brick. Buy Genesee brick, save money and help build up home industries. See advt. —Steamer Premier went down to the bottom of the sea near Port Townsend and four lives were lost. The News family has several rides on that vehicle.

—Gringly, who had one of his arms put out of shape the other day, is getting along "swimmingly". Leave "Tanglefoot" alone and you will avoid accidents. —Mrs. G. N. Hollister and sister, Mrs. A. J. Favor, of Moscow, who was visiting here, were called to Watsburg, Wash., Monday, by the illness of their mother.

—Deering Livery takes a small portion of the News which is the proper thing to do to let the people know he is doing business at the old stand. Give Deer Ring a trial. —A very pleasant evening was spent at Elliott's Hall, Wednesday evening by the children and young people. Games, recitations and lunch made the evening pass off pleasantly.

—Rolin Hodgins was over from Moscow last week, and he assured us he was not here on any political deal so we felt much easier. He will make a trip to the Sound in a short time. —John Armstrong, of Centerburg, Ohio, is a very nice man. He has read this paper for the past 18 months and now stops it without paying for it. His name will grace our black-list hereafter.

—The schools are growing right along and if the children continue to come the board will be compelled to add another department. The teachers have more now than they can handle rightly. —Mrs. Edward Edwards arrived here from Kendrick a few days ago and Edward is happy. Another nice family for Genesee and the News extends them a hearty welcome.

—If you don't believe that millet can be grown here just step in and see our bundle on exhibition, grown by Ed. Kempf. 5 1/2 feet tall and heads eleven inches long. Ed. also has a nice field of corn. —The M. E. ladies will give a fine supper, some singing, music, etc., next Wednesday evening in Elliott's Hall. 75 cts. per couple, children 25 cts. Everybody cordially invited to come out. Supper from 6 to 8 p. m.

—Gen. James F. Curtis was here Sunday and inspected Co. L. After a thorough overhauling he pronounced the boys in good trim and well up in tactics, and especially did he compliment them from Capt. Raymond down on their orderly demeanor. Said the company badly needed better clothing and other equipments and on his return to Boise would make a recommendation for same. Speaking of our boys in the late mining trouble, he said: "While there was no fighting required, the spirit displayed by your boys showed plainly that they were fully equal to the emergency and would have defended the honor of the flag in a contest with insurgents and rioters with as much courage as if they had been a foreign foe. Your boys are all right."

—Lost, a bay colt with strip in face. A liberal reward will be given for its return to the S. P. Livery, Genesee, or for information leading to its recovery. CHAS. EHLK.

Republicans, Democrats and Populists Coming.

LET'S HEAR 'EM. Hon. W. J. McConnell, Republican nominee for Governor, Hon. WILLIS SWERT, present Delegate to Congress.

Hon. W. B. HERRON, Presidential Elector. Legislative and county nominees will be in GENESSEE Oct. 22, 26, Nov. 1, 5 and 7, in the evening. Everybody come and bring your ladies. Watch for other announcements.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING. Hon. JOHN M. BURKE, Democratic candidate for Governor, Hon. E. B. TRUE, Democratic candidate for Congress, Hon. JAS. W. REID, and the Democratic nominees for the legislature and county offices will address the people in ELLIOTT'S HALL, GENESSEE, OCT. 21, At 7:30 P. M., on the present issues. Everybody invited.

Populist Speakers. —Hon. A. J. Crook, candidate for governor, and Capt. James Gunn, candidate for congress on the people's party ticket, will speak in Genesee on October 19, at Elliott's Hall. Everybody come out and hear these prominent speakers.

—The Jones building is being plastered by Easterbrook & Co. —Just watch Genesee grow. How pleasing it is to the eye. —Don't miss the M. E. supper and singing next Wednesday evening.

—Two or three weeks more and then we will drop politics altogether. How glad we will be. —The new Porter residence has been neatly painted by Cann & Kelly and is now ready for occupancy.

—A stray printer, at least he said he was a printer, was escorted about town by Marshal Hayes Tuesday. —M. C. Harris has decided to build a fine residence in the western portion of town. The dimensions are 14x26, 14x22, 12x14, 6x8, 6x8, or in other words, the structure is similar to that of Frank Jones. A nice class of residences Genesee is getting this year. Geo. Steltz has the contract for its construction.

—Freddie, son of W. B. Martin, living south of town, was thrown from a horse Sunday evening and seriously injured. His right arm was broken just below the elbow, complicated with a dislocation of the same. The lower end of upper bone (or humerus) protruded several inches through a large contusion. Dr. Reese was called, and seeing the seriousness of the injury called in consultation Dr. Morris, of Lewiston. They are trying to save the arm without amputation. Fred. is doing well, considering.

Testing the Baking Powders. Comparative Worth Illustrated, BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DE. PRICE'S... Pure Cream Tartar. BOTAL... UNRIVALED... Taylor's 1 Spoonful... MONARCH... KNOW BALL... CALUMET... HOTEL... YARNALL'S... MILK... SHEPARD'S... BON BON... FOREST CITY... OHIO GAO YEAST... CROWN... SILVER STAR... DODSON & HILL'S

Above diagram was drawn and verified in all its details, by Prof. Peter Collier, who is pre-eminent as a Chemist, and Scientist. The illustration is made in accordance with his chemical tests of each brand enumerated. The Carbonic acid gas was calculated to get the leavening strength and the quantitative analysis to ascertain the comparative wholesomeness, purity, and general usefulness of the leading Powders. The result of Prof. Collier's examination and test, reveals the fact, that with but one exception, every brand tested contained either Ammonia or Alum, and a number both. Not one woman in ten thousand would use an Ammonia or Alum Baking Powder if she knew it. Such Powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia imparts a sallow or blotched complexion. NOTE.—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, as shown by Prof. Collier's examinations, is the only pure Cream Tartar Powder found free from adulteration and the highest in strength. All authorities report Dr. Price's free from Ammonia, Alum, Lime, or any other adulterant. The purity of this ideal Powder has never been questioned. * Indicates the Powder containing either Ammonia or Alum. * Indicates the Powder containing both Ammonia and Alum. While the diagram shows some of these Ammonia or Alum Powders to be of higher strength than others classed below them, it must not be taken that they possess any value. All Ammonia or Alum powders should be avoided as dangerous, no matter how high their strength.

REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Saturday eve, Nov. 5th

the people of Genesee and vicinity will have an opportunity of listening to WILLIS SWEET, on the issues of this campaign.

Other speakers will take part. Bring the ladies.

—Strangers have been numerous. —Vote for PLATT FOR COMMISSIONER!

—Let every voter get to the polls next Tuesday. —Attorney Denning looks for his people here soon.

—E. A. Peterson and wife were over from Volmer last Sunday. —Mrs. McGrew was visiting in Moscow last week and returned Sunday.

—Harry Thatcher is spending a few days over on the Potlatch. Business. —Miss Cora Demott, of Moscow, was in attendance at the base ball dance.

—Mr. H. P. Decker was over from Moscow Sunday and reports that berg quiet. —Wood will be taken in on subscription, likewise potatoes, apples, hay, etc.

—B. F. Morris, Denver, Ida., and C. A. Strong, Lewiston, were in the city early in the week. —Felix Warren was in Genesee, Sunday, while on his way home from the races at Moscow.

—Place an x after the man's name you wish to vote for, for any other way will count for the opposition. —Work on the Volmer building is progressing nicely. The handsome front is now being placed in position.

—A good whip at this office awaits its owner. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this item. —A great fire visited Milwaukee last week and swept millions of dollars worth of property away. Four lives were lost.

—Genesee Mercantile Co. take a new ad., and for the next 30 days propose to deal out bargains never before offered. —Look out for "roobacks" on election day. These are sent out to fool the country people. Vote against the men responsible for such acts.

—Merchant Rosenstein is getting in piles of new goods which is evidence that he is having his share of business. He always gives good, honest measure. —C. E. Andrews, the jeweler, departed for his old Vermont home last Tuesday morning. Sorry to have him leave Genesee, but wish him well in Rochester.

—The council has ordered a new sidewalk put down from Walnut (main) St. to the M. E. church. Crossings will also be put in across the R. R. opposite the Latah Hotel. —C. A. Stine, of Boise, and Henry Chev, Moscow, were here this week in the interest of the New York Life Insurance Company. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

—As a rule the various candidates for the prominent offices are quite well known by our people, so that roobacks and lies will have but little effect when circulated on election day. —Houghton, Lyle & Co. is the style of the new firm at the P. of G. livery stable, Charlie Edwards retiring. The new firm will aim to please the public and ask for a fair share of your patronage.

—The republicans hope for fine weather next Tuesday. Fine weather means republican success every where because, as a rule, the larger portion of farmers are republicans, and city people are democrats. —Think of it! an egg famine in Genesee. This does not speak well for our farmers to say the least. In this grand wheat empire chickens and eggs should be plentiful. A good hennerly would pay better than a bank.

—Merchant Rosenstein is almost giving away goods now. Great slaughter in prices. He is going to remodel and lower his building to grade and says goods must go at some price. Good time to lay in your winter's supply. —Several items left out; a long letter from Kendrick seeking Mr. Walker and Mr. Burke and their methods, and another from Jas. Stuart, on the reservation, in which he says the republican ticket is good enough for him. Our correspondents are numerous this week; keep it up.

—There are in Genesee candidates who are sure of election, and at the same time care little of the general results. They are candidates, not for office, but for matrimony, and their election is made sure, as they have the necessary documents to make them safe beyond any opposing influences. They have the immortal sinch. To the voters of LATAH COUNTY:

I wish to say that the article published in the Moscow Mirror of the 28th inst. entitled "Bundy's Porfidity" is a willful, malicious lie and published for no other purpose than to injure me in the coming election. As for buying votes I do not approve of that method of securing office; neither am I able to buy my way into office should I approve of it. So should I not have friends enough to elect me I will take my defeat like a little man. Yours truly, H. J. BUNDY.

—The other day Senator Dulles wired the department asking whether there was any truth in the statement made on the stump in this state that there was no intention on the part of the Indian office to appoint the commission to negotiate with the Nez Perce Indians for the cession of a part of the reservation. The Indian officer immediately telegraphed that the appointment of commissioners has already been made, but action was deferred on account of the unfortunate events in the president's family; also that the commission would soon be sent out.

—Hay ten dollars per ton. —Dance next Friday night. —Mrs. Phebe Rogers visited Julietta the past week. —Frank Harris was over from Lewiston Sunday last. —Craig & Oliver are now doing work in their new shop. —Eggs 35 cents per dozen, stale and hard to get at that. —This is the last issue on politics; now for news and business. —Joe Foster is in from the Ruby Creek country for a short stay. —Miss May Nelson is back from her visit to Spokane and Spangle. —Vote for Tom Platt for Commissioner and help build up this section. —Considerable seeding is being done now, but fall plowing is slow. —Merchant Rosenstein says he is bound to sell goods if he has to give them away. —Our enterprising butchers have put down a plank walk in front of their shop. —Aggie Stevens went to Moscow Tuesday to take part in the teacher's institute. —A 11 pound girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Craig Oct. 27, and Al. is 11 feet tall now. —The Curtis boys have been reinforced the past week by the arrival of a brother and family from Ohio. —Friend L. D. Martin called yesterday and says he is going to "get there" next Tuesday. All right, Lou. —The Kane family is happy. Another Mr. Kane, wife and children arrived from Wisconsin Saturday and will remain. —Grant and Homer Maguire, of Woodburn, Or., on the coast, acquaintances of Cashier Grant, visited here this week. —Our people have arranged to secure full election returns on election night. A full report will be given in our next issue. —David Fairburn, republican nominee for assessor, was a pleasant caller yesterday. He feels confident of victory for himself and the entire ticket. —Attend the republican rally in the hall tomorrow evening and hear the best speech of the season. Hon. Willis Sweet speaks, and he is the ablest silver man in Idaho. —The third of the series of the base ball dances will be given next Friday eve, at Elliott hall. Good music and a good time. A fine supper will be served at the Owen house. —Friend Smoltz's cigar manufacturing business is gradually increasing and he is in need of more help. Glad to see this as he is industrious and deserving of a liberal patronage. —The Northern time table was changed last Tuesday and now the passenger arrives at 4:20 p. m. and leaves 7 a. m. Accommodation arrives 11:40 a. m. and departs 12:30 p. m. —Our local republicans that intend to vote for Bundy should see to it that the democrats return the compliment for Mr. Platt for commissioner. Keep an eye on this and see how it works. —Hon. M. L. Smith, candidate for senator, and Hon. A. T. Lane, candidate for representative, will speak in Genesee tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the hall on the popular issues. All come out. —The telephone does a land office business these days. Burr is kept busy talking with people in nearly all the leading towns of Idaho, Washington and Oregon. There will be less business after election. —Wheat still continues to pour into the different warehouses in Genesee, or rather is being piled up outside the built raths, with very little signs of abatement. As the price lowers the less is sold, but is kept for higher prices. —If you believe in better schools and higher education vote for H. R. Smith for superintendent. He is by all odds the best man up for that position, and if elected will conduct the office himself and Mr. Creekmur will have to walk. Smith is in every way capable and worthy. —C. A. S. Howard, candidate for sheriff on the populist ticket, was a caller on Wednesday. Mr. Howard has been in nearly every nook of the county and thinks his prospects for election flattering. His strength lies in the fact that his party is not making any noise and on election day will show considerable of a following. Go it old boy, if you win, all right. —From the Spokane Review we learn that Mr. Jas. G. Woodworth, for several years past the assistant western freight agent of the Union Pacific at Portland, has gone to Omaha to accept the position of assistant freight agent of the same road. We have known "Jimmy" ever since he was "knee high to a grasshopper," and a finer young man is not to be found. He is still a young man, but well up in railroad circles, and this promotion is exceptionally well deserved. Luck, old boy; may you ever keep on the upward trend; is the wish of the News. —Having noticed an false, unjust and malicious attack upon our recent employer H. R. Smith, nominee for probate judge, it is but justice to him and his many friends, as well as a pleasure for us to say that he was kind, obliging, of strict integrity and prompt pay, and except that sleep herder George Clewley whose only friend about the mill was Mr. Smith and who kept him in his employ through sympathy for his condition. He had the confidence and respect of his men, and so far as we can learn, irrespective of party will have their support at the polls. Sawyer and foreman, Ed. RAWSON. Employee, JOHN CRUMMAN.

GOLD WATCH GIVEN AWAY! at POST OFFICE STORE. STATIONERY, CONFECTIONERY, TOBACCO AND CIGARS. G. H. DAVIDSON.

—Vote for Platt. —Base Ball Dance. Friday eve, November 11. —Carpenters and masons are crowded with work these days. —The base ball dance was well attended and all had a jolly good time. —B. M. Easterbrook and Chas. Power visited Moscow early in the week. —The Social Club had a nice little time at its session Monday evening. —Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Howard occupy the house east of the Ingammell restaurant. —Mr. H. P. Glass was out Sunday for a long pleasant ride and taking in the country. —Now we may look for more disagreeable weather to offset the delightful autumn up to Monday. —Rev. W. A. Sample, of Moscow, delivered a good sermon in the Cong'l church last Sunday. —Though the price of wheat is on the decline, we hope and believe it will go considerably higher before spring. —Editor Feron of the Kendrick Gazette was a pleasant visitor Sunday last. Come again, neighbor, and stay longer. —Chas. Thomas and wife of Moscow visited the C. H. Spurbek people the other Sunday. A newly married couple. —The number of votes registered in Latah county is 3,500 and two years ago it was 1,704. This is an excellent showing. —Protection railings will be put in along the dangerous places on main street. Of course we are in favor of protection! —Let no trickery sway you from right and justice on election day. The party that allows it should be buried out of sight by your vote. —The large dwellings of Mr. Scroggin and Mr. Harris loom up magnificently from a distance. These are among the finest residences in Genesee. —A. H. Maguire, rustler for the Spokane Chronicle, was a Tuesday visitor in Genesee. Managed to gobble several new subscribers for his bright daily. —Mrs. J. W. Cudlice presented us with fine samples of apples of their own raising. Some of them measured nearly fifteen inches around and have a very healthy look. —A year's subscription to the News will be given free to the one sending us the nearest guess as to the national and county election. This offer is good until morning of Nov. 8. Try your hand at guessing. —A big fight is on in New York State and it is hard to foretell which of the old parties will be successful. Both are confident. Hill is supporting Cleveland now, Workman Powderly and the G. A. R. are out for Harrison. —Frank Jones and wife will occupy their new residence in another week. Frank, you have an elegant residence, none finer in this section, and we hope you will live long to enjoy it. We welcome you to our midst. —Several people about town were inquiring Tuesday morning, "Where was the night watch last night?" Boys cut up all sorts of capers, turning over wagons, buggies, outhouses, etc., and were not molested. Hallow'een. —J. H. Gaffney, merchant of Uniontown, was in the city Monday and purchased a quarter section of the News in which to tell the people that his store was recently visited by fire and his firm is offering damaged goods at most nothing. —Watch for political handbills containing falsehoods; VOTE AGAINST THE MAN IN WHOSE INTEREST THEY ARE CIRCULATED. WE DESPISE SUCH CONTENTIBLE WORK ON EITHER SIDE. They are never circulated until the last day, after the newspapers have been printed. —It is said that the Hon. Willis Sweet, who is always eloquent and entertaining, delivered one of the best speeches of his life and stirred the audience to a pitch of enthusiasm rarely equalled and never surpassed, at Moscow last Saturday night. That is a mighty fine man. Vote for him. —Look out for falsehoods and yarns that will be sent broadcast at election time to deceive voters. Lies are generally circulated after the newspapers have been published. Vote against all candidates in whose favor they may be told, be he republican, democrat or populist. The News desires to see an honest campaign and men win on their merits. —Brakeman Elliott met with a slight accident Monday while coupling cars. The index finger was broken and he received other bruises, but he thinks he is in great luck, as he narrowly escaped losing the whole hand. If the couplings were all of the same make he would have had no trouble at all, but sometimes it is almost impossible to make a decent coupling where they are not of the same make. He will be obliged to lay off for a month and will take in Spokane in the meantime. —Messrs. E. T. Platt, E. A. Morrison, H. A. Thatcher and others were in attendance at the republican demonstration at Moscow last Saturday and say it was the most imposing and enthusiastic political meeting ever held in Latah county. Hon. Willis Sweet, Hon. W. J. McConnell, Hon. W. H. Heyburn and Hon. F. DuBois were the prominent speakers. It was a rally in all the terms implied. The two former fairly out did themselves on this occasion. The torch light procession and parade was an immense affair. The crowd was so large that two halls were engaged and then all could not get to hear the orators. A whirlwind of applause greeted the name of Willis Sweet, and McConnell was not far behind. As a result of this grand showing the republicans feel confident of electing the whole ticket, from Congressman Sweet down to countable Morrison.

—Strangers have been numerous. —Vote for PLATT FOR COMMISSIONER!

—Let every voter get to the polls next Tuesday. —Attorney Denning looks for his people here soon.

—E. A. Peterson and wife were over from Volmer last Sunday. —Mrs. McGrew was visiting in Moscow last week and returned Sunday.

—Harry Thatcher is spending a few days over on the Potlatch. Business. —Miss Cora Demott, of Moscow, was in attendance at the base ball dance.

—Mr. H. P. Decker was over from Moscow Sunday and reports that berg quiet. —Wood will be taken in on subscription, likewise potatoes, apples, hay, etc.

—B. F. Morris, Denver, Ida., and C. A. Strong, Lewiston, were in the city early in the week. —Felix Warren was in Genesee, Sunday, while on his way home from the races at Moscow.

—Place an x after the man's name you wish to vote for, for any other way will count for the opposition. —Work on the Volmer building is progressing nicely. The handsome front is now being placed in position.

—A good whip at this office awaits its owner. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this item. —A great fire visited Milwaukee last week and swept millions of dollars worth of property away. Four lives were lost.

—Genesee Mercantile Co. take a new ad., and for the next 30 days propose to deal out bargains never before offered. —Look out for "roobacks" on election day. These are sent out to fool the country people. Vote against the men responsible for such acts.

—Merchant Rosenstein is getting in piles of new goods which is evidence that he is having his share of business. He always gives good, honest measure. —C. E. Andrews, the jeweler, departed for his old Vermont home last Tuesday morning. Sorry to have him leave Genesee, but wish him well in Rochester.

—The council has ordered a new sidewalk put down from Walnut (main) St. to the M. E. church. Crossings will also be put in across the R. R. opposite the Latah Hotel. —C. A. Stine, of Boise, and Henry Chev, Moscow, were here this week in the interest of the New York Life Insurance Company. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

—As a rule the various candidates for the prominent offices are quite well known by our people, so that roobacks and lies will have but little effect when circulated on election day. —Houghton, Lyle & Co. is the style of the new firm at the P. of G. livery stable, Charlie Edwards retiring. The new firm will aim to please the public and ask for a fair share of your patronage.

—The republicans hope for fine weather next Tuesday. Fine weather means republican success every where because, as a rule, the larger portion of farmers are republicans, and city people are democrats. —Think of it! an egg famine in Genesee. This does not speak well for our farmers to say the least. In this grand wheat empire chickens and eggs should be plentiful. A good hennerly would pay better than a bank.

—Merchant Rosenstein is almost giving away goods now. Great slaughter in prices. He is going to remodel and lower his building to grade and says goods must go at some price. Good time to lay in your winter's supply. —Several items left out; a long letter from Kendrick seeking Mr. Walker and Mr. Burke and their methods, and another from Jas. Stuart, on the reservation, in which he says the republican ticket is good enough for him. Our correspondents are numerous this week; keep it up.

—There are in Genesee candidates who are sure of election, and at the same time care little of the general results. CLEVELAND IS THE BOY.

BIG DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

New York Gives Cleveland 44,000 Majority.

People's Party Weaver Carries Five States.

The weather generally was good throughout the states, but at night time the greatest storm known for thirty years occurred—to the republicans! A big democratic triumph and the back precincts not yet heard from. Below are pointers:

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATIC.

Chicago, Nov. 9—Indications are that Illinois goes for Cleveland by 5,000 majority and most of the state ticket elected. Chicago and Cook county will go democratic by 15,000 and one-half of the 20 congressional districts go same way.

PENNSYLVANIA SOLID.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—Count is progressing slowly but it is conceded that the state has gone republican by a handsome majority though reduced somewhat. Sam Randall's district, though heavily democratic, is conceded to go independent republican.

NEBRASKA FOR WEAVER.

Omaha, Nov. 9—A much heavier vote was cast in the state than was anticipated by the leaders. Fully three-quarters of the democratic vote was thrown for Weaver electors but republican hold state officers. Byron, democrat, returned to congress.

SOUTH DAKOTA, REP.

Huron, Nov. 9—Cold but clear weather brought out a full vote. Republicans won over fusion by a very small majority. State ticket safe.

KANSAS GOES WEAVER.

Topeka, Nov. 8—Meager returns give electoral ticket to Weaver, but republicans elect state officers. A heavy vote, but many democrats refrained from voting.

NEVADA FOR WEAVER.

Reno, Nov. 8—It is conceded by all parties that Weaver has carried the state by 1,500. Newland of the silver party elected to congress, and it is believed the silver party will have a majority in the legislature and will elect Stewart for senator.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Nov. 8—A sweeping democratic victory on state and national ticket. Third party candidate by Alexander, democrat.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 8—The democratic victory in this state is a sweeping one, getting everything but one congressman. 35,000 is the estimate for Cleveland.

MONTANA, REP.

Helena, Nov. 8—The Australian system makes the count slow, but Harrison electors probably elected. Republicans claim the election of most of the state ticket and the legislature. People's party claim the election of the attorney general, Miss Ella Knowles. Later—Republican state ticket elected.

N. DAKOTA, REP.

Bismarck, Nov. 8—Republicans elected electors and state ticket over fusion. Also the legislature. Cold weather but a big vote was polled.

MAINE.

Portland, Nov. 8—Republicans victorious in this state but by a reduced majority.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 8—Republicans win but democrats make sharp gains. 9 electors for Harrison, 5 for Cleveland.

WYOMING, REP.

Cheyenne, Nov. 8—Returns indicate that Harrison will carry the state and republican state ticket elected.

VERMONT.

White River Junction, Nov. 9—The Green Mountain State goes republican by a decreased majority.

RODY ALL RIGHT.

Providence, Nov. 8—The state did not join the democratic procession. Harrison wins the state.

GEORGIA SOLID.

Augusta, Nov. 8—Richmond Co. will give Black, dem., 9,000 majority over Watson of "Where-am-I-at" celebrity. Third party candidates in every district snowed under, and the state goes Cleveland, 50,000.

MISSISSIPPI.

West Point, Nov. 8—Democrats get everything and Cleveland gets the state by 50,000.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, Nov. 8—The populists drew as heavy from one party as the other, but Cleveland wins.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Nov. 8—Meager dispatches indicate a good majority for Cleveland as usual.

TEXAS STILL DEMOCRATIC!

Houston, Nov. 8—Beyond the fact that Cleveland has carried the state nothing definite will be known until tomorrow.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Charleston, Nov. 8—With the exception of one district the state returns a solid democratic delegation to congress.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Nov. 8—State democratic committee says Cleveland has carried the state by 25,000.

OREGON.

Portland, Nov. 8—Meager returns give Harrison the electoral ticket. Two-thirds of the democrats voted for Weaver.

WASHINGTON.

Reports says Harrison has carried the state by 5,000 majority. Republicans have the best of it, but all parties get something.

IDAHO.

Boise, Nov. 9—The Weaver electors elected. Sweet and McConnell elected, also republican ticket.

OHIO.

Cleveland carries the state by a handsome majority.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 9—Count very slow, and both parties claim the state. A heavy vote polled.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Nov. 9—Democrats made heavy gains and carried the state for Cleveland.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9—The reports are meager and conflicting, the state is undoubtedly for Cleveland by a small majority.

CLEVELAND IS IN IT.

TAMMANY is all right, but it has tam many votes!

REPUBLICANS and democrats got the offices in Whitman county.

JUDGE BUOK was elected superior judge at Spokane and his many friends here rejoice.

The best reason we know of why the republicans did not elect Harrison, was the lack of votes.

GOVERNOR McConnell of Idaho congratulates Gov. McGraw of Washington, and both took a drink for luck!

SWEET is all right. He received the largest vote of any man in the county. Willis, we congratulate you on your success.

THAT was a great storm that passed over the United States last Tuesday. It has been quite chilly ever since—for the republicans.

THE republican papers were all full of lies last week. They stated that Harrison would surely be elected but he wasn't. The democratic papers told the truth, Cleveland was elected.

AND still it is said that the Nez Perce will not be opened very soon for settlement owing to the inability of the Indians to comprehend business transactions of magnitude and the dissatisfaction over the allotment as consummated by Miss Fletcher the government agent.
Disputes arose about tracts of land claimed by more than one Indian, and a Lewiston dispatch says:

"Archie Lawyer says it will be impossible to treat with the Nez Perces till the claimants whom Miss Fletcher ejected are satisfactorily provided for. This will not be a very easy matter to accomplish, as it involves a conflict in rights to valuable land. The ejected parties were first to locate land, and the Indians are strong sticklers for squatters' rights."
The principle of priority of settlement is a fundamental element in tribal laws governing ownership of land, and the agent's interference with this is bitterly resented.

There are a million acres of un-allotted land on the Nez Perces reservation. Some of this is very valuable—worth at least $40 an acre, as the state school lands adjoining it sold for that figure. The Indians understand this, and some of them have visions of wealth in store. If this land were even sold at $10 an acre it would amount to $5,000 for every man, woman and child of the tribe.

—We have been turning out a grist of job work for the Bank of Genesee lately. Others should pattern after this institution and secure nicely printed stationery. If you can get better work done than we can turn out we want you to send away for it, but if not we want to do it for you. That's fair.

—Our farmers as a rule have become prosperous from raising wheat, but we believe mixed farming will eventually come to this section the same as in most all grain sections. Growing a variety of crops in intelligent or scientific rotation is good economy. It divides the labor of the year, reduces the amount of teams and help, and has many other advantages. If one crop fails you have others to fall back on. By gradually working into stock, chickens, and the different crops, you will have accumulated considerable property and wealth before you are aware of it.

—The winter is drawing near and it reminds many a young man, what has become of his summer's earnings. The thought comes to him: "I must do better in the future," but he keeps right on in the same old path. Keeps right on visiting the dens, keeping late hours, spending a dollar here and a dollar there and that is the way the money goes. If you want to play a game or two of pool all right, if you must take a glass or two to be "a big man" take it and go home. No one has respect for a man who whiles away his leisure hours where he does not want his sister to be. This writer knows of several young men who should lead a better life. These same young men want to go in better society, little thinking that their carousels are known. Boys you are badly mistaken, and it will dawn upon you some of these fine days. Your every step is known. The first thing you know you will be minus work, money, or friends. You may some day regret your actions. If you do not wish to follow the life of some old toper, beggar and thief, we ask you to break off bad habits now. Don't complain if you are short of money, work or friends. It is your own fault. Keep good hours, do right, be honest, and you will have no trouble in getting along. Every mistake if not rectified will carry you farther from truth. Errors in the commencement of the work are doubly dangerous, for every succeeding step they carry us farther from the true world. We must not attribute our success to blind fortune, or our failures to "bad luck." Good luck, generally speaking, is the result of sound judgment, supported by an honest and stout heart and a ready hand. Boys, do right; keep good hours and the people will respect and help you.

Market Report.

Wheat—No. 1—stock 4.49
Barley 2.75
Oats—per bush 1.06

—Cordwood $4.50.
—Base Ball Dance to-night.
—It will soon be too late for that leap year ball.

—"Where was I at?"—Brown. 'Rah for Hattabaugh!
—Neat fences encircle the new residences of Miller Thomas and Frank Robinson.

—J. N. Oliver and family have moved to town and J. N. is thinking of building a residence this fall.
—Attorney Bugbee, who has been seriously ill the past two weeks, is on the mend and we are pleased to note.

—Our democratic friend J. J. Keane brought the Pollack election returns to Genesee Wednesday morning and helped to hurrah for Cleveland.

—Fred Jones and a hay press had a bout. Fred got worsted but he thinks he played in great luck as he came within an ace of losing one foot.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kane, the late arrivals from Wisconsin, have moved on to the Linsie farm north of Genesee where they will reside for at least a year.

—Saturday was the most disagreeable day of the season. Wind blew 40 knots an hour, the air was full of hoops, skirts, hats, sweaters, etc., etc. No lives lost.

—Do you want a new supply of job work? Inks—all shades of the rainbow and work done in an artistic manner. For nice work we do not take a back seat for any house in the Palouse.

—When it comes to advertising Adolph Nelson is a second Wanemaker. He believes in printer's ink and as a result is knocking the perimmons. Others might emulate Wanemaker with profit if all concerned.

—J. H. Evans was over from Lewiston Tuesday evening to see how "things politically" were "panning" out at these headquarters. The reports hardly struck his fancy but he managed to keep up a smile and look pleasant.

—G. J. Parker and wife, of Moscow, visited Genesee Tuesday and Wednesday. "Gid" has many warm friends here who are sorry to learn that he and his estimable wife are about to leave for Salt Lake City and Portland to reside permanently.

—James Cann and family will go to the Alberta country the first of next month to live awhile. His residences will be rented to other parties. Jim will be coming back in the sweet bye and bye satisfied that Idaho knocks 'em all in every way.

—Jao. Maley, who has been handling the clever in the Nagel & Bomberg butcher shop for the past few months, left for his Pullman home Wednesday. John is one of the boys and his numerous friends regret seeing him go. The News will follow him.

—We suppose the men elected to office last Tuesday were the best men up for the positions, as it is claimed under the new Australian system voters could vote as they pleased without being intimidated in the least. Well, we are satisfied and the majority of the people must be. Majority should and must rule. Of course there are "blue" people on all sides.

—The most mirth provoking entertainment of the season is promised for Thanksgiving eve, November 23, when the Woman's Missionary Association will present the "Deestrick Skule" at Elliott Hall. This will show the district school as it used to appear to some of our most sordid citizens. The program will be presented next week. Make your plans to take this in.

—Two bound volumes of Scribner's Magazine and many single copies of the Century are out of the Reading Room. Will those who have them please put them back in the Room in the Reese building. This is one of our best public institutions—free to everybody and the public are trusted not to take books or papers away. The Room will be lighted each evening and provision made for a fire from this time on.

—The News will drop politics altogether now and devote its entire space in giving the happenings that will be of most interest to the majority of our readers. We have done nothing through the campaign that we are ashamed of. We can look every one square in the face. What we have said was given in all candor and earnestness. Our columns have been open to all parties, and we have aimed to be fair to all. Now let us work for the advancement of Genesee, the prettiest little town in the Palouse.

—Election day passed off nicely in Genesee, though a little exciting in the morning. The democrats and republicans working for certain democratic candidates were the most active and the most numerous the day long and it was evident that they would make serious inroads on the opposition if work went for anything. Their work counted as the vote shows.

—The new Australian system of voting, though tedious, generally well liked. The election officers did not get through with their count until next day noon. The ladies prepared luncheon for the hungry, and as far as we could discern, everything passed off harmoniously. The places where bulletins were posted were congregated with spectators, and as the dispatches came thicker and faster for Cleveland the louder became the yells on one side and the groans on the other. The republicans "had plenty" at twelve o'clock and sneaked quietly home to their beds consoling themselves that the state of Maine was still loyal. Well, boys, the jig is up, let's take something and keep right on sawing wood. The republicans have had a long pull of it and is no more than fair to let the democrats have a twist. We like to see these evenly divided. It is much better for the public, you know. Hurrah for Cleve!

—Dance to-night.
—The social club party and hop Monday evening was an enjoyable affair.
—We turned out a nice glist of job work for the Genesee Roller Mill the past week.

—The new J. J. Owen residence is plastered and will be one of the most substantial in Genesee.

—Fred. Breesler has purchased the Chris. Anderson residence and now has a home of his own.

—Did you vote right, as your conscience dictated? If so you have done your duty and that is enough.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas and Miss Erickson took a drive to Moscow and Vollner on election day.

—Homer Curtis and wife, late arrivals from Ohio, will occupy the new Porter residence north of the Palace.

—We will now get a grand rest from the wily politician for two long years at least. How thankful we should be!

—Chris. Stelz is building a residence on his five acre tract purchased of Mr. Bullwinkle adjoining Genesee on the northwest.

—Mrs. May Keiser took advantage of the excursion rates and made a trip to Sprague and Spokane Saturday returning Monday evening.

—Masterer Whipple has about all the work he can do week days, Sundays, nights and all. Industrious chaps can get all they want to do.

—Dr. Williams and wife were over from Genesee last week on a brief visit to Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Baumcister.—Asotin Sentinel.

—A little more rain is what is needed on our soil to make plowing easier and farmers happier. Fall sown grain as a rule brings the best results.

—November 24th is Thanksgiving, says President Harrison's proclamation, and not a turkey nor chick in sight of our larder! Can anybody take a hint?

—Our enterprising millers, Thomas & Johnston, have acquired a portion of the townsite in the north part of Genesee. It lies conveniently and will be sold as residence property.

—Next Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Harris will celebrate their golden wedding, and all invited persons will please meet at M.E. church at 2 p. m., where a dinner will be served and a general good time had.

—Mrs. C. Nelson and daughter departed this week for Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Canada, to make that their future home. The News will keep them posted on Genesee happenings and trust they will find much enjoyment in their new location.

—The freight trains are numerous and the merchants are having large boxes of goods hauled from the depot which is evidence that Genesee is doing a large volume of business. Our town is lively and we do a larger business than any city our size in the country.

—Remember that Merchant Rosenstein can suit you in prices on fall and winter goods; if he doesn't you make your own price. He must remodel his store and place it on grade, and in order to do all this he must get his goods out of the way. Try him once for luck.

—A number of bundles of fruit trees arrived last week and taken into the country. Some were native trees and some were shipped in from Minneapolis, both shade and fruit trees. Our people cannot be too generous in planting trees around their premises. A few trees beautifies and enhances the value of a home more than any other one thing. And it costs but a trifle to secure the trees and start them growing.

—James Roberts, Frank Douglass and two other scamps were arrested Wednesday afternoon for petty larceny. They were taken before Justice Markham next day but the evidence was such that Mr. Roberts was the only one held. He was given thirty days in the county jail and he was taken to Moscow by Night-watch Martin yesterday. The larceny was committed in Mr. Rosenstein's store. Mr. Rosenstein is selling goods so cheap that tramps cannot afford to steal them!

—Our people receive letters from inquiring friends frequently wanting full information regarding our grand empire. In the near future the News will prepare an issue showing what a grand country we have here, our opportunities and resources, conditions of the soil and climate, etc. This is strictly a grain and fruit country. The whole country is one grand wheat field, and in its history a failure is not known. Many seasons the wheat yields from fifty to eighty bushels per acre, and there is no excuse for farmers to go hungry if they have any management about them whatever. The soil and climatic conditions are all that they could be desired, and it only requires good management to bring handsome returns. Our fruit is the hardest and best grown, so acknowledged by experts. Cultivate the trees and nature will do the rest. You cannot find a better place to make money than the Palouse.

—Gratifying progress is made by our city schools, new scholars coming and the general report is flattering. There are more scholars in attendance now than the teachers can look after properly and there are quite a number more to come. What will be the outcome? It would seem that either the extra room would have to be furnished and another teacher added or, no more children be allowed to come and a portion now in attendance would have to be dismissed. Though we have no children to send to school, we believe in education and we can not get too much of it as long as we keep taxes within reasonable bounds. Genesee is growing and the schools must be kept to the front. The members of the school board have and are doing much, and we hope to see them continue on in the good work so auspiciously begun. Let us look in to the school question and if improvements can be made without too much expense let us have them.

The figures below are the totals each man received in the county, one precinct, Bear Creek, to hear from which it is claimed will not materially change the result. The figures were telephoned over from Moscow last evening, but the News is of the opinion that Mr. Bundy's total is incorrect; he has more votes than credited to him below:

—The Woman's Missionary Association of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. James Hobson Wed. Nov. 16. Every member is desired to be present, by order of the president.

—Mr. Bundy made a grand fight and he may well feel proud of his following, when it is considered that this county is strongly republican. His home town, Genesee, did nobly by him.

—As far as the voters of this county are concerned it is about a stand-off. While the democrats can crow over the presidency and county treasurer, the republicans can crow over state officers and all county officers but treasurer.

Pronounced Hopeless, yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Graton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Try bottles free at Genesee Drug Co., W. Harris, proprietor. IF YOU WISH TO AVOID THE TWIN DRUGS, ALUM AND AMMONIA

Dr. H. Endemann, for twelve years chemist of the New York Board of Health, in his paper read before the American Chemical Society at Washington, in October, 1891, states that an ammonia baking powder acts on the gluten of the flour, altering its chemical properties, and cites numerous high authorities to prove its injurious effect on the stomach and kidneys.

Liebig the great chemist says: "The use of alum in bread is very injurious, and it is very apt to disorder the stomach and occasion acidity and dyspepsia."

The following powders are known to contain either ammonia or alum or both: Royal, Chicago Yeast, Calumet, Bon Bon, Taylor's One Spoon, Unrivaled, Forest City, Snow Ball, Pearl.

THE CELEBRATED

Philadelphia Optician

At The Owen House.

At the urgent solicitation of a number of prominent gentlemen and ladies of Genesee the noted expert Optician, Dr. Salisbury, has prolonged his stay here until Tuesday, Nov. 22d '92. In the adaptation of spectacles, eye glasses, cataract and near sighted lenses, etc., etc., and in the correcting of the most difficult cases of defective and weak eyesight, the Doctor has met with unparalleled success all along this north Pacific Coast. Thousands of defective eyesights have been successfully corrected; and in many cases headaches of years standing have been relieved in a day by glasses alone. The following are a few of the people of Genesee now wearing glasses fixed during the short time while here and would respectfully refer to them for reference: Messrs. C. B. Oliver, Wm. Smolt, R. H. Russell, W. G. Morton, Mrs. J. G. Lamphear, Herman Haring, and many other well known citizens of Moscow, Pullman and Colfax, on the books, will be given to any who desire any further endorsements.

This will be an opportunity of a life time, and those who have weak or defective eyesight should not fail to take advantage of the situation and have their eyesight carefully looked after. The Doctor uses none but the best material in his work. Examination of eyes and consultation free.

Office hours, 8 to 10; 12 to 2, and 4 to 6.
N. B. The Doctor does not treat diseased eyes, and does not use medicines, therefore should not be confounded with traveling "quacks."

THE GENESEE NEWS.

J. W. HOPP, CHAS. POWER, Editors and Props.

—The chairman of the national peoples' party committee says his party has come to stay. Says the election shows that the people are through with protection and are on the right road to prosperity. They have jumped from the fire into the frying pan and at the next turn of the wheel will jump from the frying pan to liberty. We hope the populists' dreams will come true. If the farmer or working man will become more prosperous under their administration of affairs we hope they will soon get control of the machinery. The foundation of this country is made up with this class of people. If they prosper, all will. We were born and reared on a farm and all our associations were with farmers until we drifted into the paper business, and naturally our sympathies are with the farming element. We have learned that farmers are just as honest, but no more so in proportion to their numbers than any other class. We have but little use for the farmer who farms so poorly that he can't make a living and always has time to tell people how the government should be managed. If they cannot manage their own affairs how can they manage the government. Such men are not wanted. They tell how they have been robbed by railroads and money sharks, and are yearly growing poorer, while his more industrious neighbor is steadily growing richer. We heartily sympathize with the demand for a redress of every real grievance, of which the farmers complain, but we have small faith in the promises of men who "perform" so poorly for themselves. Have the farmers a right to expect that a man who has proven a signal failure all his life will prove a glorious success as a political leader? We are willing to aid the populists if they will put their best men to the front. The News is, and always will be a staunch and true friend of the farmer, always doing its utmost to promote the best interests of the farming class as well as the best interests of every other class, but it is the sworn and uncompromising foe of the demagogue.

—The man who lets his farm grow up to weeds while he runs about for office and stirs up strife. If the third party grows it is bound to accomplish some good. May it continue to grow.

—It is now certain that democrats will have control of the United States as well as the House of Representatives, and with Cleveland in the White House, they have full swing. Good. The democrats won fairly. Now let them carry out the promises made before election. We trust their policy will prove as beneficial as the most enthusiastic "reformer" has prophesied or hoped for. The democrats should formulate their policy as soon as possible. Their victory was decisive, they know what the people expect. If their policy proves best for our country then all good citizens should loyally support it. But if democracy fails to keep their word good and their manuevers proves unsatisfactory, the people will have 1896 for a club to knock them out with. Cleveland should have the support of all and a fair chance be given him. Here's luck to Cleveland and the new administration.

It Should be in Every House.
J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cookeport, Pa., claims Dr. King's new discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Genesee Drug Co., W. Harris, proprietor. Large bottles, 50c. and $1. 28-1y —Plenty of society events now.

—Judge Piper was here yesterday.

—Masquerade ball Thanksgiving night. Dance tickets $1.

—The Star finds fault with the management of the Moscow postoffice. Cleve will look after it later on.

—Chief of Police E. M. Martin of Genesee, yesterday brought in the thief and placed him in jail that stole the suit of clothes from the store of Mr. Rosenstein of that city. The prisoner is a tough character and the sentence given him is too light. Penitentiaries are made for just such characters.—Moscow Star.

—Caldwell people go wild over county division; likewise are the people of Payette jubilant, and sing this song: "Good Bye, Old Ada, Good Bye. We Saw the Boat Come Round the Bend, Good Bye, Old Ada, Good Bye. All Loaded Down With Canyon Men, Good Bye Old Ada, Good Bye."

—Edwin London, who has purchased the building that the Cameron's erected at Genesee, proposes to erect a brick next season and will put in a general merchandise stock. He has been assisting the Messrs. Alexander & Gaffney in waiting on customers. Mr. London is a gentleman of pleasant appearance and is a drawing card in himself. There is no patent on this quotation of ours.—Uniontown J.

—The Genesee Roller Mill is buzzing away busily these days. All our people, like ourselves, have tried the different brands of flour made by the different mills in the Palouse, and find none the equal in every particular as the best brand manufactured by Thomas & Johnston. When Mr. Thomas is himself he does not need to take a back seat for anybody in the west when it comes to making FLOUR. The mill is in good trim, in charge of experienced and careful hands and the people are beginning to patronize it exclusively. Genesee should be and is proud of the Mill. It is a gem and is doing its share to advertise the good name of Genesee.

—Another railroad for Genesee. Don't shoot! The man who just pulled his revolver because something was said about the new railroads that will come in the spring, will please wait until he reads the following from the Uniontown Journal before pulling the trigger: "Now that election is over we would like to see the several railroad committees meet together and see what could be done to induce either the U. P. or Great Northern to build to Genesee. We certainly need another road. Jim Hill will reach the Sound by January 1st. and as his road will be ballasted and in operation as he builds, he would be in a position to come this way in time for next harvest. Let us act and get out some workers in time."

—Demorest's Magazine has scored another great triumph in securing the honor of offering to its patrons a superb reproduction, in tints, of the latest authorized portrait of Mrs. Grover Cleveland. The style in which this picture is executed is entirely new, and has never been even attempted before. The magnificently realistic portrait of this beautiful and illustrious lady must be a most valuable acquisition in every household in the country; there being no intimation of politics in this purely artistic production. Mrs. Cleveland, by her personal charm, her high position, her sweetness and sympathy, has made herself beloved by American women at large; and this wonderfully perfect representation, accomplished by the managers of Demorest's Magazine, irrespective of cost, will be welcome wherever the honor, beauty, and intelligence of American womanhood is regarded.

NEWS SUPPLEMENT.

The election returns are nearly all in from the different states and they show well for the democrats. They have elected to seats in congress 88 more than the republicans. The fusionists elected nine and every one of them will act with the democrats, thus assuring them 100 majority. The next house will be Republicans, 120; democrats, 207; fusionists or third party, 9. Of these the south sends 117 democrats, 14 republicans, 1 alliance. Of New England's 27 votes in the next house the republicans get 17 and the democrats six. The four states of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware have 73 votes, of which number the republicans will cast 39 and the democrats 34. 56 congressmen will be returned from the middle western states of Indiana, Ohio and Illinois. Democrats get 32, republicans 23, 1 doubtful. The states this side of the Mississippi in the agricultural northwest, will send 36 republicans, 14 democrats and 5 fusionists, with 2 in doubt, in Nebraska. The states of Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada and Colorado split even on the congressional election, three republicans coming from the first three, and three fusionists from the two latter. The coast states of Washington, Oregon and California are entitled to 11 congressmen, the latter two will each send two republicans, while democrats seem to have the best of it in the former, though the official count will have determine the fate of few of them. Democrats have everything pretty much their own way; now for better times, Grover.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The following is Governor Willey's Thanksgiving proclamation, issued on the 7th inst:

"With each returning year my fellow citizens have abundant cause to congratulate themselves on the material and intellectual prosperity of our state. Our population has increased at an unusual pace and we have within our borders an empire of undeveloped resources. No pestilence or famine has threatened us. Our churches, public schools, and other seminaries of learning have flourished with their accustomed vigor. The patriotic and wise discretion of our citizens has maintained peace at home, and no fear of foreign war invades our breast. Now, therefore, following the time honored usage, and in accordance with the proclamation of the president of the United State. I do hereby designate Thursday, Nov. 24, 1892, a day of thanksgiving and prayer to the great giver of all that is good, and earnestly recommend that the people of our state assemble at suitable and accustomed places and give thanks and praise to the ruler of the universe and supplicate his watchful care and protection for the coming year.

Given under my hand and great seal of the state this 7th day of November, A. D. 1892.

NORMAN B. WILLEY, Governor.

Toledo Weekly Blade.

The most popular and best known weekly newspaper printed in this country is the Toledo Blade. For more than twenty years it has had a circulation of 100,000 to 200,000, going regularly into every state and territory of the Union. From fifteen to twentyfive tons of print paper is consumed in each week's edition, and it is regularly mailed to more than half the postoffices of the United States. It is a peculiar fact that the Blade is the only weekly newspaper published that has regular subscribers in all parts of the United States. It is edited with special reference to the wants of all people in all sections. It is also made to interest every member of the family. Besides all the news of the world, it has Serial and Short Stories, Wit and Humor, Poetry, Campfire, Farm, Sunday School Lessons, Young Folks, Poultry, Puzzles, Household, Answers to Correspondents, Etc., Etc. As a special feature for 1893, Mr. Robinson Locke, editor and proprietor of the Blade, has just sailed for Japan, and will contribute a series of illustrated letters on the manners and customs of that peculiar country and its people. These articles will be commenced some time in February or March, and will be worth to the readers of the Blade many times the subscription price. Every reader of this paper is invited to send for a specimen copy. The publishers of the Blade would be glad to send a specimen copy to every reader in this country. Subscription price of the Blade, one dollar a year. Five dollars in cash will be paid to any person sending in a small club of subscribers. Write for agents' terms, giving particulars. Address "The Blade, Toledo, Ohio." The Blade and News, for one year $2.75.

CHEAP RATES FROM EUROPE!

Now that the harvest is fairly on and the people are getting returns from their wheat crops, it naturally follows that many will be sending to the old country for their friends, and others making a trip to the old country. Before doing this it will pay you to call on or address, A. L. RANSOM, Agent of the Union Pacific System at Moscow, Idaho, as he has the inside to the whole situation, both rail and steamer.

Why Dr. Price's Baking Powder is Superior to all others.

No great efforts are made by other manufacturers to procure and use pure materials.

It is true that one other company has the facilities, but its greed and cupidity induced it in an evil hour to use ammonia, in order to swell its profits. Hence the Price Baking Powder Company stands alone in its fight for a pure baking powder.

No other article of human food receives greater care in its production, or has attained higher perfection. Dr. Price's Cream is surely a perfect baking powder. Free from every taint of impurity. No other article used in the kitchen has so many steadfast friends among the housewives of America.

J. N. Oliver has purchased residence lots near the old brick kiln and will at once erect a dwelling thereon.

A. J. Payne, ruster for the Moscow Nursery, delivered a large lot of trees in Genesee this week. That is right.

A room will be provided for those from the country to change clothing the night of the masquerade at the Owen House.

C. A. Christopher was over from Julietta the first of the week. He has settled down over there and thinks he is in one of the best towns in the Palouse.

The Base Ball and Athletic Association will give a masquerade ball Thanksgiving night. Spectators will be charged 50 cents and dancers $1. Supper at the Owen House.

We are sorry the price of wheat remains so low as it makes the money market rather slow, likewise the trade. Farmers should not raise so much wheat when the price would be up in "g".

A Genesee young gentleman at the supper table not long since was noticed not to be in the best of spirits. When asked what was the matter, with a sigh he answered: "They are going east."

Fred Gaylord, Joe Foster and Joe Page left for the Ruby Creek mining district yesterday to remain during the winter. The boys will do assessment work for other parties and on claims of their own. May they strike it rich.

The Mirror says Mr. Miller, of Palouse City was in Moscow last week looking for his four year old child which was kidnapped a month ago. Miller is of the opinion that a band of gypsies stole the child. He came here in hopes of recovering the child but in vain.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Buckley were down from Pullman in attendance at the Harris golden wedding Tuesday and visited with old Darlington, Wis. people. They liked the appearance of Genesee very much.

Wheat-buyer Anderson was in the city Wednesday. He presides over Cheatham, Baker Co's grain house in Genesee and says more wheat has been marketed in his town this season than at any other point in Idaho.—Pullman Press.

The shoe-guessing contest created some fun and strife and advertised the Auction Store besides. Many guessed. J. H. Moody came within one man and walked off with the shoes; W. S. Bynum Frank Morrison, G. H. Davidson, J. F. Deering following close behind.

"Fulton Market" is the name of the new meat market next door to the Owen House; a neat institution. A full line of choice meats will be kept and a share of your patronage is solicited. Mr. J. L. Lamphier is an experienced butcher and knows how to cut meats. See advertisement elsewhere.

By far the handsomest and loveliest bouquet it has been our good fortune to possess was given the News family by Mrs. Dr. Hayes this week. Beautiful flowers of all shades and varieties, and we appreciate them all the more when we read of snow storms in other sections. A lovely gift for which we return thanks.

Dr. Salisbury, of Philadelphia, is now stopping at the Owen House. The doctor comes highly recommended as an expert optician. Those requiring his service should avail themselves of the opportunity, by calling at once, as the doctor's time in this city is limited to a few days only.

Married, at the residence of Mr. Alfred Brigham east of Genesee, Nov. 13, 1892, Mr. B. Brigham to Miss Minnie Sigler, both of Latah county, Idaho. Rev. J. W. Robertson, officiating. No cards, no cake for the printer! The News extends hearty congratulations to this happy couple and wish them a long and useful life.

The following leaders have been appointed for Y. P. S. C. E. meetings: Nov. 20, Lula Hough, " 27, Mrs. Keiser, Dec. 4, Mattie Walby, " 11, Mrs. McMahon, " 18, Miss Goodie, " 25, Mr. Scatlon.

Meetings Sunday evening at 6:30, and everybody invited.

O. S. Paulson, of Sedro, Washington, on the Sound, was in Genesee, Wednesday, on his way to Lewiston. Mr. Paulson has been traveling over the United States and Europe in quest of his lost health. The Sound is a little too damp for him and he may locate somewhere in the Palouse and embark in the mercantile business which he has followed all his life. Thinks Genesee a pretty place.

Dr. W. A. Sample, of Moscow, was in town and delivered a forceful and eloquent address before the Christian Endeavor convention. Messrs. A. and H. Pyrie, McKenzie, Profs. Cobb and Lansing and Misses Watkins and McCarter, of Moscow, and Mr. Peterson and Misses Woods and Ingles of Lewiston, were also in attendance as delegates. The people of the society wish to extend their thanks to all who assisted in the entertainment of their guests. It is opening our houses to strangers on such occasions that friendly relations with our neighboring towns are to be established.

Several new houses yet to go up. The electric lights are not in the best condition.

Leon Follett went down to Uniontown Saturday.

Prof. F. A. Farris, examiner of bumps, is tarrying in town.

Geo. Caldwell, of Juliatta, has been spending a few days in Genesee.

Rosenstein's crash in prices makes trade. Don't lose sight of his bargains.

Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher have been spending a few days over Lewiston way this week.

Pumpkin pie is rich, and at the same time cheap living. The material is quite cheap in Genesee.

Frank Griser has proved up on his homestead and now has the deed to one of the best farms in the country.

A U. S. Marshal was here from Walla Walla, Monday, and picked up Mr. Matt Fucher for violating the postal laws. He was taken to Walla Walla for hearing.

J. J. Owen makes himself useful during the rush of business at the depot. The N. P. is doing an enormous amount of traffic these days. Conductor Crowley, too, has about all he can manage.

Married, at the Methodist parsonage, in Genesee, Nov. 11, 1892, Mr. Mansford F. Paige to Miss Eva Nutt, both of Latah county, Ida. Rev. J. W. Robertson officiating. The News congratulates.

Union Thanksgiving services at the Cong'l church next Thursday at 11 a. m. Let the dinner be postponed a little and all express their thanks for the multitude of blessings we have enjoyed. The sermon will be by Rev. L. N. B. Anderson.

Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 23, "Deestriet Skule" will be taught under the auspices of the Woman's Miss. Soc'y of the Cong'l church. Proceeds to help out the church. Everybody come. A packed house greeted the skule in Pullman lately.

Pullman is creeping right along toward citydom in a lively manner. It is the making of one of the most substantial little towns in the whole Palouse. Colleges, schools and the several industries going in there is having an excellent effect.

Horace Sampson returned from the Alberta, Canada, country Saturday, and as long as he did not invest up there as he intended, we take it that he is satisfied with the Palouse. Understand he likes the country quite well but thinks it a little too frosty.

Try the McDonald pump just being introduced here by A. V. Severance. They are the pump, for deep or shallow wells. We have one at our new home and know whereof we speak. It is the only pump used in most of the middle states and soon will be to the front here. A test is all that is necessary.

Mr. Ed. London of this place and Mr. Alexander of Lewiston have formed a partnership and will carry on a general mercantile business here. This makes a good strong combination and they expect to carry nearly everything in a general stock except hardware. For the present they will occupy the old iron building and in the spring will erect a fine large building, perhaps something similar to the Vollmer block. Mr. Alexander is well known here having lived in this country for over thirty years and is now doing business with many of our people. This will be a great acquisition to Genesee's business circles. Genesee is forging to the front and it will not be long ere she will be the best town in the Palouse.

From the Mirror we learn of a most distressing accident which occurred four miles south of Moscow at the home of John Johnson. His boy was assisting an employe in hauling some straw, and when the noon hour arrived the team was unhitched and the boy mounted one of the horses to ride to the barn, but as the bridge had been removed the animal became unmanageable and the boy slid off but caught in the harness. The struggle of the boy frightened the horse and it ran some distance until the lifeless form of the boy became entangled from the harness and dropped to the ground. When picked up a few seconds later the spark of life had fled, and the once happy home was deluged with sorrow. Parents should be more careful about letting little boys around horses.

The Christian Endeavor convention last Saturday was well attended, despite the unfavorable weather, and very interesting sessions were held morning, afternoon and evening. This society is not denominational and one of the best features about it is that young people of different denominations may meet and work together. Five societies were reported in this and Nez Perce counties and all these were represented here except the Indian society at Ft. Lapwai. It is expected that the number will be doubled when the union meets in April at Moscow. A permanent organization was made, to be known as the First North Idaho Union of Christian Endeavor, with the following officers: Mr. Adolph Nelson, president; Prof. Cobb, Lansing, Moscow, vice-pres.; Miss Jeanette Woods, Lewiston, sec'y, and Miss Fannie Tait, treas.

Since the election Kansas people take their whiskey straight and above board.

Potatoes will be potatoes before another crop is harvested if the price keeps going up.

The Indians have been numerous in town the past week. Many of them delight in playing poker and fumble the ivory chips.

Traveling men have been numerous the past two weeks which is a pointer that our merchants do a big business. Farmers can get the very best bargains here now.

Lew Krum has decided to build a 30x70 brick building at once on his lots across the street west of the Latah. When completed Mr. Jackson becomes owner of the property and will use the building as a saloon.

Nearly 3,000 acres of reservation breaking has been seeded to wheat and the good work goes on. The same company will turn over another 4,000 acres next year and crop it. At least they have the contract to do it.

B. Rohenkohl has been wearing a smile ever since election and we supposed it was due to Cleveland's election, as he is a democrat, but he has another reason to smile, and that is, a bright girl baby has come to make its home at his house.

J. B. Tottardell has finished burning his third kiln of brick and finds ready sales for them. The quality improves with each kiln burned and now the Genesee brick are of the best. The last kiln burned contains about 170,000 brick.

Geo. Jones, Portland, was here the past week in the interest of the Oregonian Souvenir number. When he gets back home he has an election bet to pay off. He lost on Harrison and he is to wheel a man down the principal street of Portland a wheelbarrow.

J. N. Oliver circulated a petition for signers to raise money for the Dermott road, last week, and succeeded in securing the necessary amount. He went to Moscow Monday and clinched the deal. Since then he has been rustling help and material for the new road, and much credit is due him for time and money expended in bringing about this much desired road. It has taken much money, months of planning and lots of grit and stick-to-it-iveness to accomplish this successful determination. This road means a great deal to Genesee. The steep hill will no longer have to be climbed. The hill is not only out of the way but the new road makes a shorter cut and large heavy loads can now be brought to Genesee from that section. Hurrah for the new road.

A Golden Wedding in Genesee. The most notable event of the season, in fact in the history of our thriving young city, was the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the wedded life of Rev. John M. and Mary A. Harris. It took place at the Methodist church in Genesee Tuesday, November 15th, 1892, at 3 P. M. The ceremony was pronounced by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Robertson, assisted by Rev. E. L. Smith.

A most impressive and appropriate scene followed, which was the consecration, by the ordinance of christian baptism, of four grand children.

A large number of invited guests, with the children and grand children, were present. All seemed to go off happy as a marriage bell. As a social occasion it was all that could be desired. After hearty and appropriate congratulations by the friends present and a few minutes in social conversation, a sumptuous feast was much enjoyed by all. Many valuable presents were received with, last but not least, about $80 in cash.

The ceremony took place, the aged couple standing under an arch of evergreens, a large gilt horse-shoe being suspended in the center immediately over their heads. They were attended by two of their grand-children, Mr. Wm. Harris, Jr., and Mrs. Cora Sampson.

Rev. John M. Harris was born in Cornwall, England, June 29, 1823. Here he was reared and at the early age of 16, joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Miss Mary A. Bally, who afterward became the wife of our brother, was born May 2, 1822. She also joined the Methodists at an early day. They were married Nov. 15, 1842, and came to America in 1854. Here, in America they first attached themselves to the Primitive Methodist, afterward, for the sake of convenience of location, etc., they joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In Genesee they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the only Methodist church in the town.

Mr. Harris is a local minister of his denomination and has served well his generation. His wife is most worthy helpmeet and is a noble example of the womanly dignity and gentleness of those olden days. Our honored brother and sister have won for themselves together the highest esteem of a large circle of acquaintances and friends. Thus, approaches the evening of a happy and useful life, while numberless admiring and loving friends are praying and hoping for them a perfect day beyond life's setting sun.

DO YOU WANT TO ADOPT A BABY?

Maybe you think this is a new business, sending out babies on application; it has been done before, however, but never have those furnished been so near the original sample as this one. Everyone will exclaim, "It is! that's the sweetest baby I ever saw!" This little black-and-white engraving can give you but a faint idea of the exquisite original.

"I'M A BABY."

which we propose to send to you, transportation paid. The little darling rests against a pillow, and is in the act of drawing off its pink sock, the mate of which has been pulled off and hangs aside with a triumphant ooo. The finish is perfect, and the eyes follow you, no matter where you stand. The exquisite reproductions of this greatest painting of the world (the most celebrated of modern painters of baby life) are to be given to those who subscribe to Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893. The reproductions cannot be told from the original, which cost $20, and are the same size (1 1/2 inches). The baby is life size, and absolutely lifelike. We have also in preparation, to present to our subscribers during 1893, other great pictures by such artists as Percy Moran, Grand Humphrey, Louis Demoreux, and others of world-wide renown. Take only two examples of what we did during the past year, "A Yard of Fancie," and "A White House Orchid" by the wife of President Harrison, and you will see what our promises mean.

Those who subscribe for Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893 will possess a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides a Magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep everyone posted on all the topics of the day, and all the facts and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion Magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and we give you, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2, and you will really get over $25 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send 10 cents for a specimen copy

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8, 1892.

The president's annual message to congress, although, owing to the sad and sorrowful conditions under which it was written, it lacked the polish of some of the president's other state papers, rings with patriotism and true republican sound from its beginning to its end, nailing as it figuratively does, the banner inscribed with "Protection to Americans, at home and abroad; Reciprocity, and honest money." to the masthead of the good old republican ship, which still proudly floats notwithstanding the severity of the storm through which she passed last month. Every one should read the message.

The opening of Congress occurred without any specially notable incident. The senate took up, under a resolution adopted at the last session, the anti option bill as the "unfinished business. This bill has brought a strong lobby to Washington, which is plentifully supplied with cash by the speculators whose business as dealers in options on grain, cotton, etc., will be ended if the bill becomes a law, and this lobby has been indulging in a game of brag about how easy this bill will be defeated. Senator Washburn, who is in charge of the bill, is confident that it will be passed and become a law. He says nothing but sharp parliamentary practice on the part of those opposed to the bill can prevent its being passed.

It is hard telling what the democrats are going to do. They are non committal. One member jokingly said, when I spoke to him about it: "Oh, you cannot expect me to express myself until I know what Mr. Cleveland thinks about it; I am not going to spoil my chance for patronage by opposing his wishes." In that joke lies the real cause of democratic reticence. Hear Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky: "The people of this country have not only declared what they wanted done, but they also have declared that they wanted it done by Mr. Cleveland. I think therefore that Cleveland should be premier as well as president, and that he should prepare a tariff bill to be sent to Congress in lieu of a mere message of recommendation." Why not abolish Congress and make Cleveland Czar at once?

Let us give the new administration full swing and wish it success.

—The aggregate wealth of Gould & Co. is estimated at $5,500,000. Whew! What chance is there for a poor newspaper man to get rich with so much wealth tied up? Gosh! There goes the last suspender button.

—About 200 pounds of dried fruit have been collected at Boise for the exposition. Another collection has been made at Lewiston. While the exhibit is not as full as could be desired, yet the only drawback has been a lack of time.

While it is not expected that Idaho can make a big display in coal at the World's Fair, yet the question is one of the deepest interest to the people of this state. So far all the coal used here is imported. But it is not improbable that Idaho will soon obtain her supply from her own coal fields. Around Horseshoe Bend there is a district of more than a 100 square miles underlaid with a fine quality of coal. At Ireton's and other places where it has been uncovered the vein is four feet through. Coal has been discovered at several other points. Excellent coking coal has been found in Bingham county and samples will be on exhibition.

—Stop the leaks, and grow prosperous. As a rule the successful farmer is he who practices a wide economy and carefully stops the leaks that would drain away the substance of his earnings. The elements are at work continually to scatter and destroy the products of industry, and continued care and watchfulness must be exercised to prevent waste in an infinite variety of forms. In feeding stock the prudent farmer will exercise due care that wasteful methods do not rob him of a large share of profits. In winter time machinery should be house carefully. When buying farming tools and household goods too much care and judgment can not be exercised. The thoughtful and economical man will note a thousand little leakages that may be prevented by the exercise of timely care or caution. In fact judicious saving must go hand in hand with industrious earning and producing, to bring a full measure of success. Stop the leaks and you cannot help but prosper.

—Commissioner Wells is now in Chicago to let the contract for the construction of the Idaho building. But five months remain before the great exposition opens. This is an opportunity of a lifetime in the history of the state, and Mr. Wells deeply feels the responsibility resting upon him. It is only when a comparison can be made with other states that criticism will be called forth. Every Idahoan who visits Chicago next year will take great pride in seeing his state take the premium in all she produces. Should it be felt then that the exhibit is not worthy of so grand a state, vain will be the regrets for a chance to try again. The amount of good that it will do will be very many times the cost of the collection, for Idaho has been least advertised of all the western states. Idaho presents many natural opportunities for acquiring wealth which in other states have long ago been appropriated. In the matter of making an exhibit at the Fair, Idaho already has more to show for the money expended than any other state. Let us all contribute our bit to this great undertaking.

—Somebody rises to remark that everything is "in the soup" now except the oyster.

—Louis Kolzer has purchased an interest in the Palace saloon with Mr. B. Kohenkohl.

—Glass in oven doors is a new contrivance. It enables cooks to watch the food without opening the doors.

—We hope the time is not far distant when our people will be enjoying the benefits of more manufacturing enterprises.

—Contractor Hill is pushing the work on the new Dermott dwelling. The residence will be one of the best in the suburbs of Genesee.

—Genesee has grown to such an extent this year that her electric light plant has to be increased to a 2000-candle power.—Pullman Tribune.

—Next week Saturday eve is Christmas eve. Let the children be remembered, and the poor too, if there are any outside of the News family!

—Well, who are going to make and receive New Year calls? Our columns are open for announcements. We also have cards for the occasion.

—The tallest woman in Idaho lives at Boise. She stands 6 feet 5 inches in her stockings, and we think she should be on exhibition at the world's fair.

—At the sale last Tuesday Mogol was sold for the small sum of $175. The horse was worth three times that amount. Billy Gags was the purchaser.

—The new year is approaching, and it reminds us once more about "swearing off." It is much easier to turn over a new leaf than to prevent it blowing back.

—The little children know Old Santa is approaching. Let them all be remembered on Christmas day. Let joy reign supreme on this day above all others.

—If the membership keep increasing as rapidly the next month as during the past month, the Social Club will have to rent another hall to accommodate all the people.

—The citizens of Idaho Falls have purchased a section of school land which they propose to donate for an agricultural college in case the coming legislature awards them Idaho's big school.

—As it will be noticed elsewhere, the Genesee merchants have decided to close their stores on Sundays after the holidays. That has the proper ring. People should have one day's rest in a week at any rate.

—Capt. A. A. Haymond departed Wednesday for Iowa and Nebraska for a visit of a few weeks. We have it on good authority that the captain will return alone and will not tolerate any foolishness while away.

—Genesee is to have electric street lights of two thousand candle power. A stock company to be known as the Genesee Electric Light & Power Co., has been organized and will carry on the enterprise.—Mirror.

—It may not be any of our business, but at the same time we dislike to see the toughs live off from the tillers of the soil. Is there not a remedy for this, if so let it be administered. Farmers, do not let these sharpers swindle you.

—John Helger, "the tall plaster," departed Saturday for an extended trip to Portland, San Francisco, San Diego, Texas, Florida, and may land in Milwaukee before settling down. That man has "the rocks" and can take life easy if he desires to.

—Mr. Henry Chew, State Superintendent New York Life Insurance Co., is at present staying at the Latah House. The company he represents is one of the best, and the policy they now issue is unequalled in liberality. In conjunction with Mr. Pickering Mr. Chew is doing good business here.

—Our merchants are laying in an elegant stock of holiday and winter goods, and each expect to sell nearly all of it in the next few weeks and accordingly are selling at narrow margin. Such bargains were never before offered in Latah county, and people at a distance are taking advantage of them.

—Messrs. A. S. Mastin and Win. B. Ram are now owners of the Kolzer & Stacker well machine, having purchased it last week. They will get in some new machinery and equip themselves thoroughly before starting up. This makes a good team and will be in trim to put down wells on short notice.

—The law-makers this winter could devote some of its time to good advantage in trying to improve the divorce laws of Idaho. There are twelve divorce cases to be tried at this term of court for Latah county and the Moscow Democrat says there are more to follow. The present laws are very loose and a disgrace to the young state.

—In our leisure moments let us devise ways to make the home more attractive and pleasant. Let us secure more trees and have them growing into value. The trees not only enhance the value of the property but beautifies it more than any one thing. The more pleasant the homes the more contented are the people and this better for all concerned.

—I. O. O. F. ball Dec. 30.

—John Mailey hove in sight yesterday.

—The electric light house frame looms.

—It is Justice Krum, the latest returns say.

—Prof. Swidensky and wife, Lewiston, are in the city.

—Otto Johnson contemplates a trip to Alberta before long.

—Miller Johnston visited Oakesdale the first of the week.

—The mail train came in on time Wednesday. Fact!

—Miss Mintz McGrew is visiting friends on American Ridge this week.

—Dr. Reese made a professional visit to Uniontown Monday morning.

—Charley Bomborg was excused from jury duty which fact pleases him.

—Alexander & Co. speak about Christmas gifts elsewhere on this page.

—A marriage in town last evening but we go to press too early to give particulars.

—Don't forget the Methodist Christmas tree doings. An entertaining program is being arranged.

—"Great Marked Down Moving Sale" is the heading of Vollmer's new advt. Read and act accordingly.

—Insurance Jordan is with us again. He reports business good in Colton, but somehow Genesee takes his eye.

—Some talk of flooding a piece of land and using it for skating purposes. This would furnish sport for the skaters.

—W. J. Herman has in a fine line of Christmas goods. Also elegant furniture and hardware and cutlery—useful as well as ornamental.

—Uncle Sam's assistant at this place wants to know how far it is to Portland and return. It depends. Do you want to ride, or walk?

—C. Anderson, the wagon maker, has a large and increasing business and is kept busy early and late. See his advertisement in this paper.

—Arthur Davidson is at his post of duty once more after a week's tussle with the chicken-pox. Keep out of the hen-coops and you'll not get in trouble.

—Insurance Girode of Moscow, is staying right by Genesee. He is a clever gentleman and it would not hurt our feelings if he located here for keeps.

—An item appeared in our last issue stating that Dornham & Kaufman, Moscow, were furnishing flax seed at $2.10 per bushel. The price should have been $1.10.

—Mrs. Thomas and sister, Miss White, returned Tuesday evening from Leland, where they were in attendance at the funeral of their grandfather who died last Friday.

—Have you noticed that grin on Prof. Cummings' face lately? It's a little tiny girl at his home and it was presented to him last Monday as a Christmas present. All are happy at the household.

—The social whirl is in full blast, notwithstanding the wedding is the all-absorbing. Not an evening passes without one or more social event taking place. How can one person attend them all.

—Mark Means enjoyed his visit very much while at Salt Lake City. Says one gets a very faint idea of the doings and beliefs of the Mormons from books. His stay in that handsome city was worth considerable to him.

—Merchant McGrew does the proper act by placing several names upon our subscription books. Others should follow the example and make eastern friends a Christmas present by sending them a copy of the News for a year.

—We understand that A. N. Hill has let the contract for the erection of a two-story brick, 30x60, to be built early in the spring for a party that is anxious to cast his lot in Genesee. It is to be used as a store and a good cellar is to be put underneath.

—The Misses Barringer gave a very pleasant birthday party at their home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Etta's eighteenth birthday. Games and dancing were the features of the evening and about 35 people participated. An elaborate lunch was served and those attending report a fine time.

—Boss Shepard and crew had a delicate job in placing the large lights into position in the Vollmer brick the other day. The lights weigh 300 pounds each and had to be handled with great care, lest somebody would be out of a year's salary. Mr. Shepard is a whole team at anything he undertakes, and thoroughly understands his profession.

—A very large number of farmers were in town from all the surrounding country and business generally was good. Better bargains in store goods are not obtainable than are offered by the Genesee merchants, and the farmers in the surrounding country are finding it out. We have good firms with heavy stocks and the competition is sharp and spirited. This is the best trading point in the whole Palouse country.

—Idaho's exhibit would be incomplete without a specimen of the moose. This animal is becoming almost extinct, and is protected from slaughter in all states. While the commissioner for Idaho could not countenance the breaking of the game laws, yet various suggestions have been made for surmounting the difficulty. It has been said that if some hunter should happen around when some moose died a natural death that no questions would be asked, provided the carcass was in good condition.

—The precipitation of snow last Friday was hailed with delight by the school boys. Nearly two inches fell and the steep places furnish considerable amusement to the young with their sleds. The coasting down the walks is fine and it does not matter if the walks are full of people the lads glide down at break-neck gait just the same. The marshal should give some of 'em a few pointers with his club. The main thoroughfares are slippery and dangerous enough without the kids' polishing touch.

—G. N. Hollister is at Waitsburg.

—J. P. Vollmer is over from Lewiston.

—Cashier McKenna made a trip to Lewiston Tuesday last.

—Square up old accounts and start the new year in right. Let us try to improve on the past.

—The watch at Davidson's news depot will be raffled off December 23rd. Something like 1000 tickets are out.

—J. M. Edwards and family occupy one of the Christopher buildings. Mrs. Edwards' mother is here to remain the winter.

—Justice Burr has had his hands full the past fortnight making out papers, etc. He is generally hard at work till late at night.

—Joe Trisch, who has been assisting in arranging the new Alexander & Co. store here, left Tuesday for Colton where he has accepted a clerkship with the Mercantile Co.

—Henry Stracker purchased a good horse from Mr. Ingles this week and is preparing to start another dry line in Genesee.

—W. D. Stinson left for Vollmer Thursday to reside in the future. He will go into the wood business quite extensively and will make frequent trips over here.

—Commissioner-elect W. A. Nixon, of Nez Perce county, paid his respects to this office this week. Also did W. J. Mervin and S. P. Soby. That is good, start the new year right.

—The Daily Spokesman Spokesman gives the regents of the Pullman Agricultural College a severe but deserved write-up. Nothing too harsh can be said of these gentlemen, they deserve a drubbing if ever a set of rascals did.

—Mr. F. W. Johnson, an old Ohio friend of the Grants, came up from Colton Saturday and remained over until Monday morning. He likes Genesee very much, and the News would be pleased to number him, at an early day, among our population.

—The Oddfellows hold their regular meeting every Saturday evening in their hall. Candidates are being initiated at each meeting, and an increased interest is manifested. The Lodge is banking on having a gay time at their annual ball on December 30th.

—John Suther was in Tuesday, but he was not feeling his best. Mrs. Suther left him on Dec. 3d and John thinks she eloped with another man by the name of Lamstrum. The News will keep an eye hanging out for the fleeing lady and if possible inveigle her to return.

—Frank Jones has accepted a clerkship in the Alexander store and waits on the ladies to perfection. Mrs. Jones had better watch him. Well, there, we have let the cat out of the bag! If we had kept muzz the young ladies would not have discovered that Frank was married.

—Geo. Beechler, the wide awake chap at Uniontown, has accepted the position as book-keeper for the Alexander Company at this place. And still the good people keep coming to Genesee. George, here's looking at you through the bottom of the glass; we welcome you to our pretty town of Genesee.

—Quite a little flurry of excitement was occasioned the past week when it was learned that Mr. Edwin Aiken had mysteriously disappeared from Genesee on Nov. 22 and has not been heard from since. Attorney Denning informs us that attachments to the amount of $2,000 are out against his property.

—If the Owen House undergoes a general overhauling as now seems likely, it will be one of the favorite places along the line for the traveling public. Mr. Owen's desire is to operate a first-class hotel and will spare no pains in bringing his house to the front. Extra fine dinners are served every Sunday.

—A fine specimen of the cougar has been secured from Kootenai county. The mounting was done by a soldier at Fort Sherman and is a work of art. The eye of the visitor lingers admiringly upon this ferocious-looking but beautiful animal. A good mounted specimen of the lynx was also received from the same source as the cougar.

—After the first of January Sec'y Case's time will be occupied at Chicago in classifying and arranging Idaho's exhibit as it arrives. As all exhibits must be in position before the fair opens, the time is not long when the collection must be complete. It is estimated Idaho's exhibit will fill ten cars. This is exclusive of the fifteen carloads of material shipped the first of December for the Idaho building.

—The sociable Tuesday night given by the Ladies Aid of the Cong'l church, at the residence of Mr. Taft, was well attended and a pleasant time could not have been had. Music, recitations, and games of different kinds, among which was the towel game. And oh! what a time it was for some to get that towel, while others got it right in the face. Much is due to Mr. and Mrs. Taft for throwing open the house for this occasion.

—The Sunday School of the Congregational church will have a Christmas entertainment consisting of a special service, "Seeking for the Christ," many new Christmas songs, dialogues, and recitations with a Christmas tree. The public cordially invited to participate in the service which will be held Xmas eve, but the gifts on the tree will be confined to the children and will be provided by the school. All families are urged to make a special celebration of Christmas in their homes besides these public exercises.

From Lenville.

Quite a contrast when the pure white snow is turned under the rich black dirt; such is life on the Potlatch.

Mr. Denis Sweeney has purchased the John A. Johnson ranch near Lenville. Mr. Sweeney is now owner of 640 acres of Potlatch dirt. He will reside on the Lenville ranch.

It is rumored that Pat Kinnier will build and operate a general merchandise store in the suburbs of Lenville in the near future.

Len Nichols boasts of having killed ten cats since he has resided at Lenville. That accounts for sausage being so cheap in these parts.

On the morning of the 11th a little boy called at the house of S. C. Hunters and as he was thinly clad and had no visible means of support, Mr. Hunter kindly took him in and says he intends to learn him to say pa.

Miss Campbell, teacher at the Little Potlatch school, has raised a fund of $23 to furnish and decorate a Christmas tree on Christmas eve.

I know an old Bash who lives on a farm. And his brand new sled it works to a charm. When he rides out with that pretty school marm.

Holdings Beautiful Snow you can do no harm.

But Ed. Brigham sings a different song, for when he was trying to sled a load of straw down a steep hill the stakes in the rack gave way and he slid down between the team and the sled, the team became frightened and ran away dragging the sled over Ed. and hauling him for 50 yards or more over the frozen ground. Fortunately no bones were broken but Ed. was badly bruised.

—A stalk of corn containing six ears, from five inches to a foot in length, is not a monstrosity of Idaho soil but a normal sample of what this county can produce. This stalk of corn is from a field a majority of which had more than two ears to the stalk. Idaho also has corn for the fair eighteen feet in height from roots to tassel, and will lay claim to having the tallest corn in the world. The corn raising industry is on the increase.

—The following is Bill Nye's definition of a newspaper: "It is a library, a dictionary, a poem, a history, an encyclopaedia, a time table, a romance, a guide to political resume, a ground plan of the civilized world, a low priced miltum in parvo. It is a sermon, a song a circus, an obituary, shipwreck, a symphony in so'id brevier, a medley of life and death, a grand aggregation of man's glory and of his shame. It is, in short, a bird's eye view of all the magnanimity and meanness, joys and sorrows, births and deaths, the pride and poverty of the world, all for a few cents.

—Backward, turn backward, O time of your flight, give us a victory just for to-night; wipe from our features the torrent of tears, take up the slack in the rope of the year; turn back the clock till it reads '88, blot out the present unmerciful fate; give us some hope for the nation's concerns, change the returns, mister, change the returns. Backward, flow backward, O stream of the age, seasoned to-night with republican rage; blot from our vision stuffed prophets and crow, choke off democracy's bluster and blow; jerk from despair a few fragments of hope. "keep a good eye" as we roll down the slope, never mind now—it's too late—what a scoup! Bring us the soup, mister, bring us the soup.—Nebraska Journal.

District Court.

The court opened early last week with Judge Piper in the chair. The mill of justice will end its session in a day or two more, and the cases thus far disposed of are:

Case of Maude E. Osborn vs J. E. Osborn, a decree of divorce was granted plaintiff according to the prayer of complaint.

The case of H. P. Hull an insolvent debtor the assignee was ordered to proceed with the sale of the goods and property of the insolvent at public auction, and report to the court.

In the case of Geo. Christie vs Ferdinand Marklin, the attorney for plaintiff withdrew his former appearance and a default was entered and judgment ordered.

In the action for divorce by Ellen C. Reed, a decree was granted the plaintiff.

In the case of J. M. Walker vs H. P. Hull, a judgment was ordered according to the prayer in complaint.

In the case of B. Aberthny vs M. Vandevanter, the defendant's attorney withdrew his former appearance and the plaintiff's offered their evidence to the court and judgment was rendered according to prayer of complaint except that $50 was allowed as attorney fees.

In the case of J. C. Flannigan, a judgment was ordered according to the prayer of the plaintiff's complaint.

In the case of J. C. Wood vs F. E. Mix, the defendant's attorney moved to dissolve the injunction and took the matter under advisement.

Sarah E. Vinson was granted a divorce from her husband, R. E. Vinson.

The case of R. E. Sabin vs W. J. Herman was continued for the term.

Case of Frank Viles vs W. T. Cox was dismissed by consent of both parties, each paying half the costs.

Case of Walter Bros. vs S. J. Pefley was dismissed.

In the case of I. C. Hattabaugh vs Phil Bremer et al, after hearing the evidence in the case the court ordered that the testimony with written briefs be submitted, after which the case was taken under advisement.

In the case of Amanda Freeman vs N. P. Freeman, a decree of divorce was granted plaintiff, also the custody of the child.

In the case of Lizzie Lyon Vs. G. W. Lyon, a default was entered and G. G. Pickett was appointed referee to take and report testimony.

Case of D. C. Fisher vs Wm. Carter et al, for damages, jury gave the verdict for Carter.

Case of State vs W. J. McConnell was dismissed.

Jesse Smith, held on three charges, burglary, larceny and jail breaking, plead guilty to the first charge and the others were dismissed. Since the offense the Mirror says Smith got under a locomotive and lost both legs, and after giving him a lecture the court suspended sentence.

Case of State vs Chas. Murphy was dismissed

Case of J. W. Lewellen vs T. B. Lawrence was dismissed, each party paying his own costs.

The case of Dodson Fisher & Brockman vs Hamley Bros was dismissed.

Roman Catholic Church. Father Hartlieb holds divine services on the first and third Sundays of each month at the Catholic church, Moscow, and on the second and fourth Sundays at Genesee.

Congregational Church. Weekly services as follows: Sunday, 10:30 A. M. preaching service.

Methodist Church. Preaching every Sabbath at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday School at 10 A. M.

I. O. O. F. ball Dec. 30. A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL! Always speak a good word for your town.

Geo. Caldwell, of Julietta, was over Wednesday. Eleven new subscribers this week.

Rosenstein's sign hanging across the street catches the eye of the passer-by. The next two weeks will be great for lovers.

Christmas comes but once a year and with it brings cheer. Let us observe the occasion. Bert Easterbrook bought two lots just west of the new Scroggin residence.

Fred Jones and family have moved into their fine large house. May they live long to enjoy it. If you wish a little instruction in pugilism ask Mac why he carries a large porous plaster on his back.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Hollister are back and will now look after the guests of the Latah in a proper manner. The dine social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Herman, Tuesday evening, was a pleasant affair.

City schools closes to-day for a week's vacation. Children, play hard, so when school opens Jan. 2, you can study hard. M. C. Harris has sold one of his Nelson residences to Chris. Anderson.

The Cong'l church has been finely decorated for Xmas and all who attend will without doubt spend a very pleasant evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bell, of Garfield, arrived early in the week and accompanied Jim Bell and wife to Wallowa, Or., to spend Christmas with parents.

Messrs. Means and Edwards made a trip to Lewiston Monday last. They saw barrels of apples and pears hanging on the trees yet, along the road. Dr. Hayes has purchased one of the small Christopher places including lots 4, 5 and 6, in block 8, for $350.

Prof. Swidensky has been engaged for the winter to instruct the band boys. He is an excellent musician and the boys are in great luck to secure his services. Another family is added to Genesee.

The stores of Rosenstein's, Volmer's, Genesee Mercantile Co., and the Alexander Co., are all excellent places to buy Christmas and winter goods. Each have special lines and are offering special low bargains.

The young people have been busy this week decorating for Xmas. Exercises at the Cong'l church will be of general interest and the public is invited to be present at 7 to hear the carols and recitations and witness the unbending of the tree.

For years we have aimed to send out an extra good paper for the holidays, but this year we shall have to postpone the business for a few weeks. We will endeavor to give our readers and patrons something quite good in January, and all business firms should make it a point to be represented in this number.

Contractor Hill showed us the plans of a dwelling that Rev. Robertson will have erected at his former home in Tennessee. It is a neat looking house but we are sorry to lose these people. Mr. Robertson's health is not very good in this northern climate and will return back in about a month.

It will be a surprise to many residents of Idaho as well as to the outside world to know that cotton can be successfully grown in the Snake river valley. Mr. V. D. Hannah has raised on his ranch, 8 miles above Weiser, as fine cotton as ever grown in Mississippi.

M. E. Lawson does the proper thing by us. He walks in and places four new names upon our subscription books this week. He has great faith in this country, like ourselves, and wants to let other people know about our profitable soil and its results.

The signs for the future of Genesee are indeed bright. Next year our people look for much in the way of substantial improvements. Genesee is not blessed with a great number of business firms but the firms here are all solid and substantial.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cunn left Saturday morning for Canada, Mrs. Cunn going to her former home near Montreal and Mr. Cunn will spend the winter in the Alberta country. The News will follow them. We are promised a letter from Mr. Cunn in the near future.

Mrs. J. J. Owen and Mrs. Davis visited Pullman Wednesday. Press Woodruff was down from Spokane last Friday.

The wedding of Mr. Fred Moore and Miss Debbie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nelson, occurred on Thursday evening last, at the Congregational church, Rev. E. L. Smith officiating.

The church was beautifully arranged and a large crowd gathered to witness the ceremony. A few taps of the bell announced the approaching of the interested party in a carriage and all was quiet within.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March." First came the two ushers, Mr. George Raymond and Mr. Will Harris.

Following them came Mr. Charles Kennedy and Miss Hilma Erickson, as best man and lady, Miss Erickson wearing a handsome dress made of pink nun's veiling.

Then came the bride and groom, the bride looking handsome and was elegantly attired in a shell-pink China silk dress with orange blossoms.

The groom wore a handsome black suit. As they passed down the aisle and took their positions in full view at the altar, the bride and groom standing under a large suspended bell made of evergreens and ferns, the scene was grand and appreciated by the audience.

A death-like stillness prevailed and all that could be heard were the solemn words of the clergyman accompanied by the sweet strains of "Home, Sweet Home."

The people then repaired to the Palace hotel parlors where hearty congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. The newly made pair, after congratulations, joined the friends in making merry the occasion.

A fine supper was served, and after all had feasted on juicy viands, some very fine music was rendered. It was 12 o'clock when the guests bade the happy couple a hearty "good-night."

The couple were recipients of many fine presents and we herewith give a list: Mrs. Knages.....6 China plates.

Miss Nelson.....2 Figures. C. Anderson.....Water set. H. P. Glass.....Card receiver. J. P. Vollmer.....Work basket.

Jack Crowley.....Silver butter dish. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Grimes.....Case silver nut picks and cracker. " " M. A. Means.....Water set.

" " E. T. Platt.....Linen table spread. " " L. N. B. Anderson.....Table cloth. " " G. A. Christopher.....Fan.

" " H. Stangson.....Vase. " " D. B. Grant.....Table spread. " " C. F. Burr.....Fruit dish. " " J. Rosenstain.....12 napkins and towels.

" " J. S. Larrabee.....Cake dish. " " E. A. McKenna.....Fancy butter tin. The Genesee News.....Silver butter dish.

Mrs. M. E. Fisher.....Vase. Miss Mattie Owen.....Perfume case. Miss Edith Hollister.....Paper holder. Miss Lammhear.....Vases.

R. Russell, E. Kane.....Center table. Wm. Brown, Jas. Holston and families.....Chamber set. D. Manning.....12 silver spoons.

Geo. Habald.....Hanging lamp. Miss and Mr. Erickson.....Lamp. Mrs. McMahon.....Jewel case. Nagel & Hoenberg.....Easy chair.

Miss Pinkert and Arthur Harris.....Two napkin rings. Thomas & Johnson.....Bbl. flour, Graham, and corn meal. Lew Krum & Will Harris.....Mirror.

Mrs. Ector.....Silver spoons. Willis Christopher.....Stairway. Leon (Chinaman).....Silk handkerchief & garter.

Fred and Debbie are married; Debbie is a great favorite among her score of friends and admirers. The groom is engaged in the wheat buying business and has many friends.

May the bright sunshine of peace and plenty illumine their pathway through life is the wish of the News and their host of friends. The time for purchasing Christmas presents is upon us, and the leading question now asked of the passer-by on the street is: "Have you bought a Christmas present for your friend yet?"

Mr. Cirado has disappeared. The Mercantile Co. people have in a nice lot of holiday goods. It is now Kennedy & Christopher. Christmas goods almost given away.

The rising young man—the chap who builds a fire at 5 o'clock in the morning. Our sister town of Kendrick will discard oil lamps and lanterns and adopt the electric light scheme.

John Mailey is making himself useful in the Fulton Market this week, while Mr. Lamphear takes an enforced rest.

A 10-pomnd girl baby was born at the Edwards household last Sunday, and Frank is able to be on the streets again as usual.

Joe Wells and John McMartin and party are in camp for the winter at Red Deer, sixty miles this side where Will Nelson is, in B. C.

A dance at John Mattson's Tuesday evening and a couple of bantams went to one side and clawed away at each other until they came to their senses.

Mr. Allison was down from Spokane this week and took out several carloads of beef cattle for the Tacoma Pressed Beef Co. They were a fine lot of stock.

A well-loaded Christmas tree will be reared in the Methodist church to-morrow eve. An appropriate program of exercises will be rendered and a pleasant time is expected.

Our first snow for the juveniles, and oh! listen to the whoops and shouts, and wish yourself a younger again, with your little red mittens and skipping over the snow, the beautiful snow.

Fred Marsh, who we believe is known somewhat here among the knights of the pastboards, was arrested in Milwaukee and taken to San Francisco on a charge of counterfeiting.

W. P. Bird, auditor for the N. P., was in the city a couple of days this week checking up the books. He found to his entire satisfaction that Agent McKenna is the right man for them at this point.

"It snows!" cries the school boy; "What jolly time we'll have sliding down hill." The merry jingle of the sleigh bells fill the air with a melodious sound which takes us back to the days of our childhood.

The Oddfellows hall on Dec. 30 promises to be the event of the season, socially. Great preparations are being made to entertain everybody royally. A fine spread at the Owen House and all should avail themselves of this supper. It will be a feast for the hungry.

Two Christmas trees tomorrow evening; one at the Congregational and the other at the Methodist church. Besides these there will be several family trees about town. None will be missed when the presents are distributed. Care will be for a time forgotten and joy will reign.

Let us all in town and country lend a hand to assist merchants and clerks in getting one day of rest. Remember that by mutual agreement the stores are all closed Sunday beginning with Xmas, and so don't grumble when you find the doors locked next Sunday and don't try to find the merchant to let you in. Help a good move and wait till Monday with your purchase.

Charley Power, of the News, left Tuesday morning for Portland, Seattle and Sumus, to be gone about ten days. The trip is made in the interest of the paper. While away he will purchase more material, secure prices on a power press and other information regarding the enlargement of the News in the early spring, if plans mature now brewing. If the town shoots ahead next season the paper will follow in the wake.

Palouse is a great, rich section, and no country offers better returns to the farmer than Latah county and particularly the section tributary to Genesee. The News receives inquiring letters every week from parties living at a distance wanting to know about this famous country, and we take pleasure in giving answers to the numerous questions. One cannot speak too highly of the Palouse—good water—rich lands—easy terms—good class of people—never failing crops—beautiful climate—in fact, everything to make a fine rich country. Nearly everything can be raised here without much difficulty. The section is bound to be the richest under the sun.

Edwin Aiken will return from San Francisco this week. Mrs. Al. Harris is in Moscow during Al's stay there as jurymen. Do not put anything on the tree that is too large for us to carry home!

Miss Mattie Owen has made herself quite useful at our type cases this week. H. C. Tweed and friend favored us with a call yesterday. Call often, friends. James Hayes, of Umatilla, registered at the Palace this week. He was on his way home from Lapwai Indian convention.

Painter Cunn is a happy man once more, Mrs. Paul having arrived last Monday night. They will live in his mother's house during the winter. Sam Peterson was in to square up with the old year and starts the new year fresh. He has just sold 100 acres of choice land to Kasper Johnson, the consideration being $5,000 or $35 per acre.

There will be a watch meeting at the Congregational church New Year's eve. The first part of the evening will be spent socially and at 9 o'clock there will be a sermon by the pastor with singing and other exercises to occupy the last hours of the year. All are invited. The Idaho exhibit of precious stones will contain opals from the mines recently discovered on Snake river, 15 miles of Caldwell. Reports from the mines vary, but the opals appear to be found in a matrix from four to ten inches in width. Some of them are very fine, and are said to be worth $50 to $60 each.

A sample of rock has been received from Lewiston, the exact character of which has not yet been determined, but which appears to be of the Jasper family. This specimen cuts glass more readily than a diamond, and is so hard that ten minutes grinding on a jeweler's emery wheel produced very little impression. The rock is variegated in colors with pink and green tints. The value of the rock is not yet known.

A new firm has been formed: Chase, Harris and Co., for the purpose of buying and selling live stock for Latah, Nez Perce and Idaho counties. The capital stock is $1,000 each and subject to increase at any time. The object of the company is to afford a reliable market for the producer, and also to enable dealers to find supplies when desired. M. C. Harris is one of the members and the company expects to have a supply of block hogs in the spring. Idaho figs will be one of the surprises that this state has in store for the people at Chicago. Mr. Hannah has two fig trees on his ranch on Mann's creek in Washington county, that are prolific bearers. They require a little care during the winter, but with this fig culture can be made very profitable in this state. That one box of figs, raised at an altitude of nearly 2600 feet above the level of the sea, will do more to illustrate the temperate character of Idaho's winters than volumes of weather bureau reports.

Cakes Without Eggs.

Observing housekeepers quickly learn that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is far superior to other brands in the fact that they never fail to make the finest pastry, and if they wish to be economical they can dispense entirely with eggs and can use a less quantity of butter for shortening purposes. The advantage is not alone in the saving effected but in avoiding the trouble and frequently the great difficulty of securing eggs that are fresh. This is often a serious trouble.

Cakes of various kinds from the informal Griddle Cakes to the stately Bride Cake can be made with Price's Cream Baking Powder, which insures light, sweet and handsome cakes; or when used for Griddle Cakes to be eaten hot enables their production in the shortest space of time, always tender and delicious. Dr. Price's is the only Baking Powder that contains the white of eggs. None so pure! None so wholesome!

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

ROYAL

ABSOLUTELY PURE.
All other baking powders leave traces of alkali or acid in the food. Royal is indispensable where finest, most wholesome food is required.

The Doctor's Sharp Practice.
Dr. Parsons got back home Monday from that great duck hunt at Corpus Christi, but didn't bring us the duck as he promised. All the doctor killed was a goose, a hawk and an owl. The good doctor ate the goose and gave us our choice of the hawk and the owl, but he could not tempt us from our staid diet of bacon and hocks with that kind of "game."—Kerrville (Tex.) Paper.

The accumulations of the Dead Letter office are a constant proof of the lamentable ignorance that prevails relative to the postal laws. The packages of unmailable matter, the documents with short postage, the misdirected letters, the attempts to smuggle goods in the mails, all show how much time, trouble and expense is lost to those who fail to obtain information which can easily be procured.

Nothing Like It.
40 YEARS OF PAIN CURED. THE CASE. N. ALBANY ST., ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 19, 1887.

For over 40 years I have been a victim of rheumatism. I was persuaded to try St. Jacobs Oil. I have used two bottles, and a man more free from rheumatism never walked our streets. My limbs that were once stiff and lame are now as light and limber as in my youth.
JOS. EDELL.

"German Syrup"
My acquaintance with Boschee's German Syrup was made about fourteen years ago. I contracted a cold which resulted in a hoarseness and cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a physician, without obtaining relief I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received quick and permanent help. I never hesitate to tell my experience. Rev. W. H. Haggerty, Martinsville, N. J.

Health has its weight. We cannot go far above or below our healthy weight without disturbing health. We cannot keep health and lose our weight.

It is fat that comes and goes. Too much is burdensome; too little is dangerous. Health requires enough fat for daily use and a little more for reserve and comfort. That keeps us plump. The result is beauty—the beauty of health.

A little book on CAREFUL LIVING shows the importance of keeping your healthy weight. We send it free.

RETRIBUTION.

BY "THE DUOCHES."

"As you will, my pretty cousin." There is a touch of vivacity in the smile he bestows upon her. "I beg pardon, even, you would prefer to neither dance nor go into the garden with me, but spend the half hour—another half hour—here with Mr. Massarene?"

If for a moment he had supposed he could confuse or disconcert her, he finds out his mistake at once. "Yes, I should prefer that," she says. Massarene at this makes a step toward her, but Grant Boyle waves him back with a curious laugh.

"No, no, my friend," he says gently. "You can not have it all your own way. I would not give up this dance with my cousin. He pauses, and then laughs aloud. "Do you know, Miss G., I was very near saying, 'with my wife,' but that would have been unlucky, eh? But really, before the happy time, eh? But really, you know"—turning again to Massarene—"I would not miss this dance with Miss G. for a great deal."

"It is a question how much you can say in a little time," says his niece with an ill disguised sneer, rising with deliberate want of haste from her low seat. "Well, if this thing has got to be danced let us go and do it." She lays her hand upon her cousin's arm, and moves away as if to go to the garden.

Grant Boyle glances back over her shoulder at Massarene, who is looking a little white, and comes to a standstill. "The next is ours," she says in a very sweet voice; "come for me as soon as you can. I shall be glad to see you again." This is as much as she can say to him, when her dance with the man who is her affianced husband has drawn to a close. Grant Boyle, with a smothered imprecation, moves on again, and she performs accompaniment h.—but not to the ball room.

"I'm not going to dance this, nor am I going to the garden," she says, with decision. "I am going to sit in the smaller hall, and criticize the people while they come and go. That will help to pass away the time."

"Until you can with politeness get rid of me." "Don't be rude, my dear Grant. To put me unpleasurably in a glaring color is always a mistake."

"I will be mistaken twice, then, for your benefit, and to prove myself by no means a fool to your eyes. You will sit here and criticize your neighbors until it is time for you to return once more to the garden, I beg pardon—the society of General Massarene."

"You have an excellent wit," she says, with an untroubled smile. "You cannot, however, deny the truth that lies in it?" "Why should I? You are such an extremely clever young man that one must believe you see through the proverbial stone wall."

Mr. Boyle bestows a glance that is not altogether one of affection upon his future wife. "Then you don't deny it?" he says. "Certainly not. I should welcome the advent of any one who would relieve me of the burden of the burden of you—that is my presence."

She laughs as she gives voice to this little impertinence—made all the more pointed by the affectation of modesty that runs through it. Grant frowns openly. If it is a sign of anger, it is one which he might claim this willful lady as his own—if (it seems very improbable at this moment specially so) he will certainly teach her such a lesson in propriety as she will not be likely to forget for the remainder of her days.

"Don't trouble yourself to try to be polite, even in ridicule," he says, with a suggestion of a good deal of hidden wrath beneath the forced calmness of his demeanor. "But even you and Mr. Massarene cannot dance together all night without laying yourselves out to unkindly come out. An effete civilization has no room for such vulgar exhibitions of affection as—indecent."

Miss G. lets her fan drop to her side, and brings her hands together with a sudden sharp movement. "How dare you!" she says, in a low tone. "Hah! At last I have touched you, my pretty cousin!" cries he, gayly. "A little of that revenge, so wisely culled sweet has fallen to my portion to-night. Why, you look positively pale! Come, pull yourself together; call upon that indomitable spirit in which you pride yourself, and give me back my love!"

"What! still no words? no scolding? What! no pointed barb envenomed? Pah! I gave you credit for more go than you possess."

His manner is maddening. Miss G., rising slowly to her feet, with parted lips, through which the parting breath comes hurriedly, surveys him with a glance that would have subdued most men. But not Grant Boyle.

He rises, too, and picking up her fan with a nonchalant grace, hauls it to her with a slight bow full of mockery. "You look charming so," he says, "with that haughty expression on your handsome face. Flattery is not only vulgar, but it is the cruelest of mistakes nowadays; but you will forgive me for it, when you see how feeling has carried me away. I am a devoted admirer of artistic effects. This, of yours, is perfect. I have always considered you pretty, my cousin, but never realized the fact that you could be beautiful until now."

"You run it very well," says Miss G., in a voice so subdued to go almost to a whisper. "You are daring. It would hardly suit you, perhaps, to be thrown over by the heiress of the season."

"The heiress of the season would not scorn a devoted lover," replies he, still with that light, mocking laughter on his sneering lips. "If she had, my night cease to be the heiress of the season."

The American Olive.

The growth of the olive in this country, to me, one of the leading and most permanent industries of southern California. It will give us, what it is nearly impossible to buy now, pure olive oil, in place of the cottonseed and lard mixture in general use. It is a most wholesome and palatable article of food. Those whose chief experience of the olive is the large, coarse and not agreeable Spanish variety, used only as an appetizer, know little of the value of the best varieties as food, nutritious as meat, and always delicious. Good bread and a dish of pickled olives make an excellent meal. The sort known as the Mission olive, planted by the Franciscans a century ago, and generally grown now, and the best fruit is from the older trees.

The most successful attempts in cultivating the olive and putting it on the market have been made by Mr. F. A. Kimball and Mr. Ellwood Cooper. The experiments have gone far enough to show that the industry is very remunerative. The olive oil I have ever tasted anywhere in the world is that produced by Mr. Kimball's orchards; but not enough is produced to supply the local demand. Mr. Cooper has written a careful treatise on olive culture, which will be of great service to all growers. The art of pickling is not yet mastered, and perhaps some other variety will be preferred to the Old Mission for the table.

A mature olive grove in good bearing is a fortune. I feel sure that within twenty-five years this will be one of the most profitable industries in California, and that the demand for pure oil and edible fruit in the United States will drive out the adulterated and inferior present commercial produce. But California can easily raise its reputation by adopting the European systems of adulteration.—Charles Dudley Warner in Harper's.

Cattle in America.
The first cattle that were brought into the American colonies were landed at the Jamez river plantation, in Virginia, in the year 1607. They came from the West Indies, and were descendants of cattle taken to those islands by Columbus on his second voyage, in 1493. In 1610 several cows were landed, and in 1611 about 100 head more were brought to the plantation. This was the origin of the cattle business in America. In order to encourage the cattle industry to the fullest possible extent an order was passed forbidding the slaughter of any animal of the kind under penalty of death. Under this restriction the number of cattle increased to 30,000 in Virginia alone by the end of the year 1630.

The first cattle brought to New England arrived at Plymouth in 1624. They were imported from England by Governor Winslow. Three heifers and a bull made up the party. In color, the old records say, they were black, black and white and brindled. In 1626 twelve cows were sent to Cape Ann; in 1629, thirty more. In 1630 about 100 were imported for the colony of Massachusetts Bay. During the years last mentioned, 100 cattle had been sent from England into New York, so that by the year 1630 there were a good many head of horned cattle in the colonies.

From 1631 to 1633 a large number of cattle for those times were brought into New Hampshire from Denmark. These were large yellow cattle. Taking all of these together they were nearly all from the stock from which all the common native cattle of our country have descended.—St. Louis Republic.

One Way of Making a Living.
There seems to be no limit to the variety of ways in which a dollar can be earned by a sharp witted man. I know one who makes a comfortable living by attending auction sales of furniture. He is not in collusion with the auctioneer; in fact he will only attend such sales as are genuine and unpretentious, where every article is sold for the highest price that the matter how low that may be. My friend is a tradesman on the weakness of human nature, especially of the feminine variety. Many women attend these sales, and are really desirous of securing certain articles, but shrink from the publicity of trying to outbid the highest bidder. My friend, therefore, prefers to give two or three dollars advance on the price paid by the successful bidder. This man secures all he can of the best bargains offered, and then disposes of them at a small advance upon his outlay to one or other of the disappointed bidders. It is not unusual for him to clear from ten to twenty dollars a day. There is no loss, for even if the articles are left on his hands he gets his money back by sending them to a general auction room.—New York Telegram.

A HERALD OF THE INFANT YEAR.

Only the last thirty years or more from the century, and the segment will represent the term of the unbroken popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The opening of the year 1888 will be signified by the appearance of a fresh Almanac of the Bitters, in which the use, derivation and action of this world-famous medicine will be lucidly set forth. Every body should read it. The calculations and astronomical calculations will be found in this brochure are always astonishingly accurate, and the statistics, illustrations and other reading matter rich and interesting and full of profit. The Hostetter Company of Pittsburg, Pa., publish it themselves. They employ more than sixty hands in the mechanical work, and more than eleven months in the year are consumed in its preparation. It can be obtained without cost of all druggists and country dealers, and is printed in English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish.
