ndstorm Hits Inland Lash Palouse Area rdest Blow Known

esday night and early Wednesmorning was a period of uneasifor Inland Empire residents and ness operators, although there no major damage reported from frightening and terrific windm which lashed the Pacific Northstarting shortly before 5 p. m. enesee and subsiding shortly afdaybreak Wednesday. Apparently storm, coming in from the Paocean struck farther north first then pushed south to cover the nd Empire. Unofficial wind vey was reported at 70 miles an r in the Pullman-Moscow area. e of the "big blow" was perhaps htly less elsewhere, but it was a ing storm in the Genesee area threatened untold damage.

loyd Ochs, local manager for the shington Water Power company, not available for reports on damto the company's transmission s in this area. His storm duty cova sleepless 20-hour period up to . m. Wednesday, and linemen had been able to completely restore vice up to that time. The 110,000highline between Genesee and rkston went down Tuesday even, but the blackout was relieved by pany linemen when power came r an alternate line. Lights went about 9 p. m. Tuesday and came again about 12 p. m. Numerous atpts were made to engage high switches before the connection reined permanent.

Charred Siding Mystery

ractically all homes in southwest nesee were without electricity from sday evening until Wednesday ning. There a tall tree fell across WP transmission line, causing nding electric arcs until Floyd s cut service on that line.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wernecke who re at Colfax Tuesday evening to end rosary services for a sister of latter who passed away, returned me to find their home in darkness. e many others, they lighted cans or lamps, but they did not know w near their home came to being mass of aches. According to rts the pine tree which fell across electric line near their home used an intermittent arc which arred a considerable space around e meter located on a porch facing e south. They did not notice the rned area Tuesday night, nor did ey see blackened places about the ctrical fixtures in ceilings of sevral rooms. It was reported that much the wiring in the home must be reaced. The burned area around the eter was of such size and depth that r. Wernecke cannot explain why the e did not spread. The porch is enosed, and the fire could not have en extinguished by the wind.

Several Lines Out Of Service

Floyd Ochs, in a moment's time, id Tuesday night's storm was the orst he ever experienced. Calls were numerous and extended over such a ide territory the company did not ave enough men to cover each case trouble. Many lines were out of ervice in the Genesee areas. Homes eated by oil-fired furnaces and oprated by electricity became cold. The rge number of home deep freezers nd storage boxes, now well-filled, aused concern to owners, but it is oubtful if the power was off long nough to cause spoilage of contents. Coal stoker-fired homes were afected as there was no electricity to perate the mechanisms, and just bout everything else was rendered seless by the windstorm.

A 12-foot garage door at the Eli Rice home garage, although closed, was ripped from its rollers. A window t the Pastime, replaced by a piece f pressed wood, was sucked out by he wind and dashed to pieces when t struck the ground. This happened bout 9 p. m. Tuesday. Limbs of trees ying on the ground were spread all ver the town, but except for the ree which fell across the power line etween the H. F. Koster home and he Wernecke home, no falling trees r limbs caused damage.

Telephone Service Hard Hit

Telephone linemen were kept on the move from Tuesday evening on, and heir work was not completed Thursday. No matter how much the interuption locally, it was more severe in he Pullman-Moscow area. At Mosow the large plate glass windows at Matz Motors shattered in the high wind, and a water storage tank atop he Korter Creamery was overturned. There are numerous reports of shatered windows in Pullman and Mosow, and in Spokane the glass breakge was even greater.

Worst Storm Ever

Long-time residents of the Genesee rea report Tuesday night's blow as he worst ever experienced here. Mr. nd Mrs. Andrew Klemm said they ad never witnessed such a windstorm. The barn at their place lost quite a few shingles, and coming to town, Virgil Klemm said he noticed several buildings which lost shingles during the night of anxiety.

Roar Deafening

Those who went to Moscow Tuesday evening to witness the Oregon State-Idaho basketball game, were reminded of the raging storm when the lights went out for about two minutes, but when they stepped outside the gym they found their cars with difficulty keeping their feet in the wind. Hinged signs were whipping in the wind, and there was an occasional blinding electric arc. Genesee people returned at once to their homes. This town was in total darkness except for cars moving around and a few dim lights to be seen in homes. It was a weird night and it was miraculous for the reason that damage did not mount high.

Sister Of Mrs. Sampson Dies

Word was received Tuesday by Mrs. Glenn Sampson from relatives in Seattle telling of the death that day of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Herman, who passed away from a heart attack following a lingering illness. Funeral services were held Thursday.

Beside her husband the deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Don Warring and Mrs. Harold Pirtle of Seattle, and one son, Durell Herman, also of Seattle; three sisters, Mrs. Sampson, Genesee; Mrs. Frank V. Sandin and Mrs. J. H. Victor of Seattle, and four brothers, Peter, Otto and Frank Geltz of Seattle and William Geltz of Alderwood Manor. Also surviving are four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Two Deaths In Family Occur On Same Day

Death came twice Sunday, Dec. 24 to members of the Marcks family. Mrs. Minnie Bockman, 60, Moscow, passed away at the Gritman hospital at 7 a. m., and Herman Bockman, 62, Moscow, a brother-in-law, passed away at the same hospital during the evening of the same day. Mrs. Minnie Bockman was a sister of Albert Marcks and Miss Anna Marcks of Genesee, and Herman Bockman was their brother-in-law.

Mrs. Minnie Bockman, 414 South Jefferson St., Moscow, was born at Wesley, Iowa, March 24, 1890, and came to Genesee with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marcks, both deceased. Her husband, Harry Bockman died of injuries suffered when employed on construction of the Potlatch Forests mill at Lewiston, some 25 years ago. She was well known at Genesee, having attended school here. She entered nurses' training at Spokane, but completed her course at Everett, Wash., and later was on a hospital staff at Spokane. Her sister, Mrs. Herman Bockman, also became a registered nurse, and both were on the staff at the Gritman hospital, the former being on duty to within one day before she became a patient, and underwent an appendectomy. Mrs. Bockman was about to be discharged from the hospital to convalesce at her home when it became necessary for her to receive treatment for a heart illness, presumably a blood clot. The first of two attacks was treated successfully but she did not recover from the second attack.

Mrs. Bockman returned to duties as a registered nurse after her four children were grown. The children are: Mrs. Alex Ray, Dallas, Texas; George Bockman, Pullman, and Mrs. Ted Viera and Mrs. Jack Brannon, both of Moscow. There are eight grandchildren. Also surviving besides the brother and sister here, are: Mrs. Dick Stuart, Juliaetta; Mrs. Charles Brown, Greer, and Mrs. Elsie (Herman) Bockman, Moscow.

All the children and brother and sisters were present for funeral services held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at Our Savior's Lutheran church, Moscow. The Rev. Harold Masted officiated at the services at the church and at the graveside at the family plot in Genesee City Cemetery. Mrs. Masted sang "Abide With Me" and "After."

Pallbearers were: Clarence Johnson, Carl Grendahl, Harold Pierson, Carl Flomer, Joe Adrianson and Gust Benson, all of Moscow.

Funeral services for Herman Bockman were at Short's Chapel at Moscow at 10 a. m. Friday with Rev. Masted officiating, and Mrs. Masted singing "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Burial was at Moscow, with the same men as above serving as pallbearers.

Herman Bockman was born at Oconto, Neb. and before going to Moscow resided at Libby, Mont. Besides his widow he is survived by two sons, Robert, in the army and stationed at Anchorage, Alaska, and Kenneth, attending school in Moscow; three sisters, Minnie Lamey, Eureka, Mont.; Bernadine McMullin, Elma, Wash., and Marie Byrne, San Francisco, Calif., and three brothers, Frank of Bend, Ore.; Leo of Redding, Calif., and Montana of Missoula, Mont.

Utilities Restoring Services Weather Decent After Storm

Washington Water Power company and Interstate Telephone company men are restoring services as fast as possible on all lines around Genesee but it has been a battle against odds, due to the wide area covered by the windstorm of Tuesday night. While residents remained in the shelter of their homes, many fearful of what could happen, those linemen were on duty constantly. Emergencies were attended to first, especially those hazardous to human life. Accompanying the extremely high wind was a driving snow, which at times turned almost to rain. Temperatures remained above freezing until early Wednesday morning. Lineman were handicapped by the wind and snow, it being very difficult to remain on a pole and keep braced against the gale.

Wednesday and Thursday brought calm weather with temperatures well above freezing. Snow fell Wednesday afternoon and evening but was disappearing Thursday. Roads were slippery Wednesday night, and the condition had not improved much at some points between Genesee and Moscow by Wednesday noon. The snow which fell came without a trace of wind and measured around five inches in depth, piling up on electric power and telephone lines, threatening further interruptions. Lines cleared early Thursday morning, but it looked like more snow for Thursday night or Friday.

Mrs. Lester Johnson of Lewiston spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Thor Gilje and family.

The young couple will reside at the Mervyn ranch near Genesee.

License Plates To Be Issued In Order Says New Assessor

Motor vehicle license plates will be issued in order of application, or on a "first come, first served" policy in Latah county, starting this year, according to E. Dan Pederson, who was elected county assessor in November. The same practice is being carried out in many other Idaho counties, including Nez Perce county, according to an announcement by Tom Asbury, assessor. Announcements from the two county assessors mentioned discontinues a practice of reserving certain numbers for persons who apply.

The practice of reserving license on application by vehicle owners is one of long-standing, not only in Idaho, but in many other states. Only a few weeks ago, the Saturday Evening Post carried a story on the expense to counties over the nation in the setting aside of desired numbers. Today's number of motor vehicles has increased tremendously since the time the practice of reserving numbers was first practiced. Some desired low numbers, easily remembered. Some preferred their motor vehicle license number to be the same as their house number, their street number, the year in which they were born, their telephone number, and even the same as their age in the current year.

Assessor Pederson who has been employed by the state commission at Moscow, and who will take office Jan. 8, said he was discontinuing reservation of plates to reduce bookkeeping, confusion, added costs to operation of the office, and avoid favoritism.

Lack Of License Plates

Motor vehicle license plates for Idaho are manufactured at the state penitentiary, and this year there will be an undetermined delay of plates except for new cars, as yet unlicensed, or for cars brought from out-of-state, and requiring Idaho licenses.

R. L. Woesner, the out-going assessor, and who was not a candidate for reelection, has received a small shipment of the new 1951 white and maroon plates, including a few for commercial trailers and farm trailers.

There will be no January rush to purchase 1951 plates because there will probably not be a sufficient number of plates on hand. A sizeable shipment of new plates is not expected until February. License plates for 1950 do not become illegal for use until March 31, it was explained. If necessary temporary permits may be issued cars now licensed for 1950.

Latah county has a problem greater perhaps than any other, owing to the number of out-of-state cars which are owned by students or by employees of contractors engaged in building at the university.

Jerry Had Number 1

Jerry Gelwick of Moscow had Latah county license No. 1 for many years, and undoubtedly would have desired the same number for 1951. No. 1, however, was issued to a new car owner whose vehicle had previously been unnumbered.

Plates Once Hand Made

Going back to 1908 or earlier, car owners in some states, made their license plates. They applied for license, then hiked to their hardware store and procured metal numbers, much like those used by home owners and nailed to their houses. The numbers were attached to a board, piece of metal, or if one had the means, to a piece of heavy patent leather. The number remained constant if the vehicle owner desired. This practice was discontinued when the number of vehicles increased, and state and county governments began issuing uniform license plates.

Silver Star To Sgt. Carter Killed In Action In Korea

Mrs. Joe Carter, who had been visiting here in the home of her father, Charles Schooler, and with other relatives, and also at Coeur d'Alene with her brother, Howard, and family, since her husband, Sgt. Carter left for Korea with the Second Division, had been informed by the adjutant general that her husband was awarded the Silver Star posthumously, and further, that it would be presented in a proper ceremony by a designated officer now stationed at the Presidio, Calif. The presentation would be presented to Mrs. Carter at her convenience and the place named.

Sgt.1/c Carter was killed in action in Korea on September 4, just a few days after his arrival at the battlefront. The Silver Star, awarded for meritorious action beyond the call of duty, was recommended by commanding officer of Sgt. Carter's unit.

Sgt. Carter, veteran of the invasion of Europe through France, also was a member of the famed Second Cavalry Division in the initial occupation of Japan. He met and married the former Miss Pearle Schooler in Tokyo where they weer married. Returning to the States Sgt. Carter had expected continental duty after his long tour of foreign duty, but owing to his experience was assigned to a unit of the Second Division.

Mrs. Schooler received her husband's Purple Heart award several weeks ago, with the Silver Star award and citation reaching here Tuesday, the day before she and her father left for Long Beach, Calif., where she expects to make her home. Mr. Schooler plans to visit with his sister at Long Beach for only a few weeks. When leaving here Mrs. Carter had not decided what her convenience would be to receive the Silver Star award.

Many Veterans Must Renew Or Convert Insurance In 1951

G. I. term insurance policies, which thousands of former servicemen took out during 1943, will come up for renewal or conversion sometime this year, according to the Veterans Administration. These policies are effective for an eight-year period, and must be renewed or converted before their expiration date, if they are to be continued in force without the veteran having to take a physical examination.

Veterans who choose to renew their term insurance for a five-year period will find that their premium will be higher than before, the VA said, depending on their present age. Each succeeding renewal of term insurance will also cost more.

Converting to a permanent policy will cost more than term insurance, but premiums will continue unchanged for the life of the policy. Permanent policies build up a cash value and may be borrowed on at any time after the first year.

Veterans desiring to convert their G. I. insurance to a permanent policy have six plans from which to choose. Full information is available at any VA office.

Carbuhn Reenlists In Navy

Dale Carbuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estil Carbuhn, who was home for a 30-day leave, cut his time short here to proceed to Los Angeles and enter a navy radio school. He was enlisted for three years which was to terminate next May, but he reenlisted to accept the opportunity for advancement as a navy radioman by attending the school. He signed up for an additional two years in the navy.

Receives $250 Scholarship

Alice Aherin, a student in her junior year at Northwest Christian College, Eugene, Ore., was presented a $250 scholarship during her visit here during the holidays. The presentation was made by Rev. Melford Knight on behalf of the Christian Men's association of the district, the first scholarship to be made by the association. Members expect to present an annual scholarship to some worthy student in the district. Miss Aherin was among the first ten in scholastic standing at the college last term.

Margaret Aherin is also a student at Northwest Christian College, and the girls left Sunday for Eugane after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aherin.

F. Cathcart Coming To Explain Social Security

Don Springer, recently elected president of the Genesee Civic Association, has arranged to have Frank J. Cathcart of Lewiston here Wednesday evening, Jan. 31 to explain the ameneded Federal Social Security program as it pertains to farm labor, self-employed, household help and other added features.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1951, about ten million new persons came under provisions of the Federal Social Security Act, according to Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston office of the Social Security Administration.

The bill which was passed by congress and signed by the president last August, Cathcart said, provided that this extension to new coverage groups would begin in 1951. The largest group to be included under the law is the 5,000,000 self-employed persons. Many of these have been paying on their employees for years but have had no protection for themselves. In addition, about 1,000,000 reguarly employed domestic and about 750,000 regularly employed farm workers are covered by the new law.

In Idaho, about 10,500 city, county, state and other political subdivision employees are included. This is a result of a bill passed by the Idaho state legislature sometime ago to provide coverage for these employees if the federal law was amended to allow them to be included. Idaho was the first state in the union to complete arrangements with the Federal Security Agency to bring coverage to its public employees.

The extended coverage also allows employees of non-profit charitable, religious and education institutions to fall within the law if the employee chooses and if two-thirds of the workers are wililng. Other groups affected are non-civil service federal employees, American citizens working outside the continental limits of the United States for American employers, and full time salesmen.

Pamphlets and fact sheets covering the new law are now available at the Lewiston field office which is located in Room 2 of the Post Office Building. Interested persons should write or call for this informational material.

Ericksons Travel 4100 Miles On Trip To South California

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson and family returned Friday from a 4100-mile motor trip to southern California. They were away three weeks, leaving here Dec. 9. Their route south was through Boise to Burley and over the cut-off to Salt Lake City. There was no snow on the trip south except at the northern boundary of Utah, and there highways were good.

Weather permitted them to travel to Brice Canyon and Zion National Park, and although they reached an altitude at one place of 8800 feet the only snow was that seen in sheltered places off the highways.

Hotel accommodations were available at the south rim of Grand Canyon. They continued to Prescott, Phoenix and Yuma, Ariz., then to El Centro in the Imerial Valley. During December the lettuce harvest was on in the Imperial Valley but returns were unsatisfactory owing to the dry and warm growing season.

The family spent a day at San Diego where they visited Balboa Park and the Zoo, then went to Long Beach to remain two days. Included in their stay at Long Beach was a trip to Catalina.

Los Angeles provided a good day's sightseeing before they headed north, up the coast to Santa Barbara, and then to San Francisco to remain three days to visit relatives. They enjoyed Christmas day at Palo Alto with relatives.

The Ericksons chose the Redwood Highway to Eureka, then went to Redding, and at Dunsmuir visited relatives of Mrs. Erickson.. From there their route was through Bend and Klamath Falls and to Biggs, with a detour to Pendleton, and home.

They reported weather very nice, with accommodations for travelers plentiful. Travel was not considered heavy despite the number of automobiles with Oregon and Washington licenses traveling south for the Rose Bowl and East-West football games.

Drainage Main Work Of SCS For Year 1950

Tiling land for drainage and creating diversion and drainage ditches were major projects for engineering and technical advice during the past year, offered by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in the Genesee area, according to Lawrence Sorensen, local conservationist, and J. M. Rabdau, district conservationist.

During the fall season of 1950 approximately 9,550 feet of tile was laid in the Genesee SCS work unit, at an average cost of about 35 cents per foot, plus labor which is supplied by the land owner or operator. Most of the ditch opening was done, however by Wm. Nichols of Palouse, who owns and operates a power shovel which has been much in use for ditching in recent years. The cost of ditching on an hourly basis, usually is done at a cost of around 12 cents per foot. Engineering and technical information is furnished by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service technicians.

Cost of tile (4-inch) was about 20 cents per foot. There was an additional cost of around 3 cents per foot for crushed rock for covering of tile joints and in places where water seepage originated.

About 17 acres of valuable land was drained in 1950 at an estimated cost of $120 per acre, which suggests that use of such land returned to productivity at prevailing prices would pay for the work in two years.

There was a noticeable shortage of tile last fall shortly after harvest when land owners or operators had time to participate in drainage projects. Land reclaimed had not produced crops in recent years, and perhaps some had never been in use except for pasture under certain conditions, and the wet spots drained now promise full use. Results appear to be definite, according to Sorensen, who had been observing the drained areas since work was completed. There was no water standing on lands drained up to the first of the year, even with the generous rainfall. The 17 acres reclaimed on 15 farms are within a radius of 10 miles of Genesee.

Some of the lands have also provided development of springs for livestock watering, and a few small stock ponds were created. The largest area drained by tiling was 3 acres, which required 3200 feet of tiling. This particular area, before draining, was too wet, even for pasture, and was reclaimed for grain growing at a cost of $110 per acre. The cost on smaller areas ran higher, it was pointed out.

Much study has been devoted to drainage by Soil Conservation Service technicians in recent years. In the past it was assumed that tile could be placed in a wet area, and with sufficient fall, the tile would drain the land. Today SCS technicians locate the origin of seepage, which oftentimes finds them high on a hillside or at a point distant from the waterlogged area. Tests are made, and when source of water is determined, tile is laid from that point, then thru the wet area, and sometimes around it, to carry water to a creek or larger drainage ditch, or perhaps to a stock pond. SCS men follow the practice of advising laying tile at the "clay" strata, or perhaps a few inches lower. The average depth for successful tiling for drainage has been approximately four feet.

During 1950 there was a PMA payment of 15 cents per foot for draining farm lands, but on this point, it would be best to consult your PMA committee should you contemplate a drainage project.

Diversion and Drainage Ditches

Diversion and darinage ditches also earn a PMA payment. This work during the fall of 1950 included 7.1 miles and affected approximately 285 acres. Estimates are that lands thus drained will return at least 50 per cent more crop per acre in following years.

Diversion ditches are of the V-type, with a depth of 18 inches to 4 feet, and having a two-to-one slope. This would mean, according to the SCS men, that an 18-inch ditch would be 6 feet across at the top, and a 4-foot ditch would be 16 feet across at the top. Landowners or operators who have created diversion ditches of this type plan to maintain the ditches with a blade or grader while others may plant grass and mow it for hay. Results to be obtained from the latter practice are somewhat doubtful, for with grass the ditches are apt to fill with silt from cultivated areas.

Drainage ditches meeting with approval appear to be a flat-bottom waterway, 20 to 30 feet wide, and capable of carrying more water than a diversion ditch, and should be employed where the grade does not exceed 5 per cent. It is recommended that these ditches be planted to hay or pasture grasses and kept mowed to prevent weed growth which would retard water flow.

Springs Developed

Two springs have been developed during the past fall season in the Genesee area, and three stock ponds have been created. There is a noticeable trend to more livestock on the farm locally, and those who intend to enter livestock production or increase herds are interested in this phase of the Soil Coservation program. Here again, it is advisable that you check with the PMA committee and the SCS for PMA payments.

Stately Evergreen A Victim Of Tuesday Night's Big Wind

Planted between 70 and 75 years ago, a 70-foot tall evergreen tree at the Frank Kambitsch ranch toppled to the ground sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning during the terrific windstorm which blasted the Palouse country, sweeping in from the west, but veering a bit to the south. Members of the Kambitsch family did not hear the tree fall nor heard it break its roots when it became a fatality of the storm. The tree was planted, it is believed, although anyone now living is not certain. It was placed about 15 feet east of the present Kambitsch homesite, and measured about 3 feet thruough at the butt. With the wind blowing from the east, the tree fell on open land, without touching as much as a fence. The tree parted from the soil, although partially protected by the home. Velocity of the wind and disturbance caused was such that the sound of the tree crashing through its limbs to the ground was unheard. Root structure for the tree was said to be not as well developed owing to its nearness to a spring which kept the ground moist and soft.

Mrs. Theresa Grieser, mother of Mrs. Kambitsch, remarked Thanksgiving day about the large tree, remembering it as a fair-sized evergreen 59 years ago.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

This week begins the second half of the century, and what destiny it holds for the nation and the world, only time can tell. There has been many changes in the 50 years—long, red flannels were worn by both men and women, college girls sent their laundry home in a suitcase, now they send it home in a brief case. A man's suit was $10.00, eggs 10 cents a dozen, bread, 5 cents a loaf; coffee, 3 pounds for 25 cents; meat, 6 cents a pound; butter, 12 cents a pound, a big house could be rented for $20 to $25 a month, all of which gives us a laugh. They had saloons in those days but the women didn't go in them. We have seen much progress since 1900—electric lights, telephones, radios, airplanes, and many conveniences and comforts for the home. We improved in many ways except we don't have peace. Just when and at what cost we will have peace, only time can tell. The dollar is worth about 57 cents today but who wants to go back fifty years. We had a beautiful snow storm Tuesday, all day, about six inches so we suppose the new sleds and skiis will get some of the new paint taken off. Several have been ill with intestinal flu lately and one case of mumps is reported.

These days are a good time to cut the stamps from those Christmas cards and send them to the Denver Sanatorium Aid Society, 1600 Stout St., Denver, Colo. They save a life. The sale of these stamps provide free care for tubercular patients who are unable to pay for hospital care. Leave one quarter inch margin around the stamps to protect the perforation. They are worthless if the perforations are damaged. The pictures on the cards will be nice to send to war-torn countries, where habilitation comes to brighten the homes.

Let's Be Fair About Telephone Rates

Telephone business is under the control of the Department of Public Service. This commission has the power, under the law, of fixing rates.

The burden of proving the justice of a rate must be borne by the party applying for it.

In other businesses the price charged for an article can be raised or lowered at the will of the merchant, without control of any regulatory body.

In the telephone business we are allowed to charge only that rate approved by the commission. We cannot charge more or less without approval.

We attempt to use only rates which are fair and non-discriminatory. Fair to the user in that they must be kept as low as possible; fair to the people who work for us in the matter of equitable wages; fair to the present owner in a reasonable return for the use of his money.

Of great importance now is the attraction of new money to our business, to finance the great expansion coming to this area, for in no manner other than paying a fair money wage can we attract new capital.

Revenues of the business are used only for operating expense and not for expansion.

THERE IS NO MAGIC FUND.

Electric Lights Black Out Basketball Game In Doubt

Genesee and Uniontown, playing a basketball game here Tuesday evening in the Lewis-Clark league, town teams, called the encounter because of darkness when the windstorm cut off lights at the Genesee gym. The score was 38 to 35 for Uniontown. According to Anderson, the Genesee manager it has not been decided how the game will enter official records. It could be a loss for Genesee or perhaps the game will be replayed. That is a question for league officials.

Don Johnson had scored 17 points before the blackout to pace the Genesee squad. Jacobs scored 8 points, Peterson 1, Stout 5, Liberg and Nunan, two each. Others in the lineup were Jenkins, Swenson Semmes and Hasfurther. For Uniontown Harvey Jacobs was high with 10 points and Ted Kinzer and Gordon Hattrup had each scored 9 points before they went to the dressing rooms.

Genesee Takes Moscow

Charles Swenson, scoring 10 points in a game with Moscow Dec. 31, led Genesee to a 51-49 victory. Johnson scored 7 points, Jenkins 0, Jacobs 6, Peterson 3, Stout 5, Liberg 9, Nunan 7, and Semmes 4.

Bieren, last year's Moscow ace high school player, scored 15 points for his club and G. Gaiser accounted for 10 points, with Steensman in third spot with 9 points.

Early Genesee Teacher Dies

Miss Ida E. Follett, 81, pioneer of north central Idaho, an early-day graduate of the University of Idaho, and for many years a public school teacher died at 1:34 p. m. Monday at her home in Lewiston.

The deceased was born Sept. 7, 1869, in Newton county, Mo., and moved to Genesee in 1880. She taught school here until 1908 when she moved to Lenore to accept a teaching position. She was on the Orofino faculty from 1916 to 1930, and returned to Genesee from 1930 to 1932. She went to Lewiston in 1932.

Survivors are members of the Gray family, nephews, Bob, Elbert, Cecil and Bill Gray of Genesee, Lester of Culdesac, Charles of San Diego, Jess of Los Angeles, and one niece, Mrs. R. E. Edwards, who with her husband, is spending the winter in California.

Those from Genesee attending funeral services at the Brower-Wann chapel in Lewiston Wednesday morning were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray and Elbert and Cecil Gray. The Rev. Alex McLeod officiated at the services and Mrs. Louetta McLeod, accompanied by Mrs. Pauline Brigham, was the vocalist. Burial was at the Gifford Cemetery. Pallbearers were Leslie Maguire, Emil Lobeck, Cliff Powell, Lonnie Weaver, Hubert Wohlsein and E. Calloway.

Fire At Tom Dresher Home

Fire, starting from an overheated metal stovepipe extending through a false ceiling and into a brick chimney at the home of Tom Dresher was quickly extinguished by the Genesee fire department Saturday noon. The Dresher family lives in the former Freeman property now owned by Frank Jones of Moscow. A stiff breeze was blowing Saturday when the fire alarm was sounded at 12:45. It was the work of a few minutes to bring the smoldering fire under control, although tiny flames were beginning to emerge in a room adjoining the kitchen, over which the fire started.

Damage was slight with only a small amount of chemicals being used by firemen. Cause of fire may have been the soot burning in the chimney or from the extreme heat from the kitchen stovepipe. Mrs. Dresher was at home with the two children and lost no time in placing an alarm.

Tree Down At Broemeling's

During the furious windstorm Tuesday night a large box elder tree at the Wm. Ingle ranch, farmed by Bob Broemeling, split at the two main branches, about ten feet from the ground, with the heavier branch snapping off. Tree branches from other trees fell onto the porch, and one wonders why windows were not broken. A chimney extension, made of galvanized iron, was also snapped off, and caused a downdraft that shot flames into the room where the oil stove was located. The stove blast was witnessed by the Broemeling children, and yet was unheard by the parents at the home, so great was the noise caused by the high wind.

It's True!

The Windstorm of Tuesday night should remind you that you should never be without Extended Coverage. Just think . . . it costs only $1.24 per thousand for 3 years and covers 8 other perils in addition to Wind Damage.

Here is a letter sent to Draft Board 207, Astor Place, New York:

H. F. Koster Place Deforested No Difficulty Felling Trees

H. F. Koster, it is reported, had been considering for some time the removal of a number of the tall evergreen trees at his home here, but the problem of felling trees near power and telephone lines was a known hazard. His problem was solved Tuesday night when one of the large trees was uprooted by the windstorm, to fall into the power and light lines. He lost no time Wednesday, taking the opportunity to fell a number of the big pines while the WWP lines and the Interstate phone lines were off the poles. The project looked like a deforestation program, according to reports. Telephone service had not been restored Thursday morning, and knowing Koster to be a busy man with his lumbering, the above report was not verified in detail, but the above is a brief summary of what happened.

People residing in the southwest part of town said the flashes created by electric arcs Tuesday evening when the electric wires were torn from the poles were blinding, and each contact of the loose wires made loud and sharp reports.

People living on the street north and south from the J. P. Herman place to the Koster place were without electricity until Wednesday evening, leaving some without heat.

Cooks In Fireplace

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hermann resorted to the primitive methods of keeping house or at least preparing meals and keeping warm Tuesday night and Wednesday. Having gone "modern" they were without heat in the kitchen or elsewhere in the home except that supplied by a fireplace which kept them warm. They utilized the fireplace to prepare breakfast Wednesday morning, but Wednesday evening had their meals at the cafe. Mr. Hermann said he learned many years ago how to make good coffee over an open fire, and also to cook meals, but he lacked a rifle to complete the big game hunting picture.

Elected District President

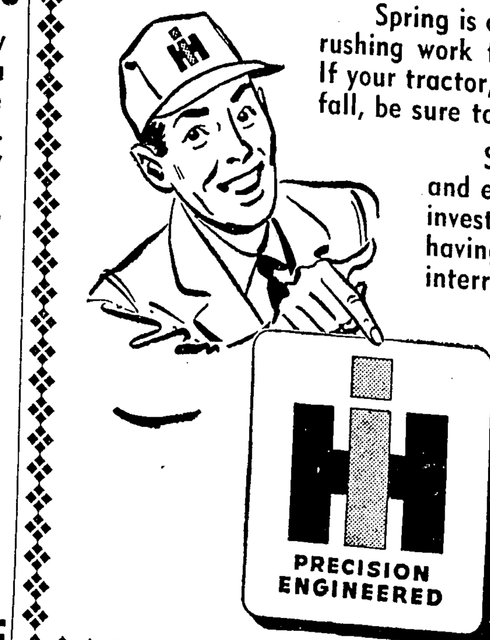
It's later than you think!



Spring is coming . . . it always has . . . and with spring comes rushing work for the farmer, especially in the Palouse country. If your tractor, truck or combine was not quite "up to snuff" last fall, be sure to have them ready to go when needed in 1951.

Should there be a shortage of new farm machinery, and every indication today points to such shortage, your investment in present equipment should be protected by having equipment overhauled before costly breakdowns interrupt your operations and add expenses.

Metal shortages will affect restocking all parts, so we urge early overhauling and check of parts that we will be enabled to obtain them for your convenience, and in time for use. We hope to be able to meet your every demand.

See Us for Overhaul dates and avail yourselves of Genuine IHC parts and trained servicemen.

...v. Jordan's Message ...cks Terrific Punch

Idaho's new governor, Len B. Jor- ..., in his message to the legislature, ... with a straight right and then ...t out a staggering left Tuesday ...almost floor some of the senators ... representatives, not to mention ...ny another Gem State citizen. Per...ps the hardest jolt was aimed at ...t of education which is reflected ...marily from operation of Idaho's ... teachers' training schools, one at ...wiston and one at Albion. Located ...dway between the Northern Idaho ...llege of Education and the Univers... of Idaho, reaction locally to the ...vernor's concise message was one ... sympathy for NICE, perhaps not ... much for the institution itself as ... the opportunity of a greater num... of students to attend college. To...y, anyone who even thinks of re...cing school functions or paring the ...sts of education might as well place ... head on the chopping block. Not ... with Governor Jordan. He definite... laid his cards on the table, and it's ... to the people, through their legis...ture to accept the cost of education ...d like it, or consolidate the state's ...ucational facilities from four to two ...stitutions, and for a time draw the ...ath of those affected. To say the ...ast, Len Jordan has the courage of ...s convictions. He said during his ...mpaign that he would not sanction ...ficit spending, and in his message ... the legislature he further added ...at he was opposed to additional ...xes. Like many others, he stresses ...e value of our present dollar, and ...e ability to pay more taxes gener...lly. Idaho's Educational association ...as an ambitious program for pre...ntation to the legislature now in ...ssion. Perhaps the program is so ...ide in scope and involves so much ...nancially, the program may back...re or at least break out at its weak...st points, notably the extremely ...rge appropriations contemplated for ...ducation outside the universities and ...ormer normal schools.

One wonders, after honestly exam...ng his conscience, if the governor ...as not just about voiced the opinion ...f the majority. Two four-year uni...ersities and two four-year teachers' ...olleges in a state with a population ...f slightly over a half million, pro...ides a huge tax bill. Idaho also has ...wo junior colleges, one at Boise and ...ne at Coeur d'Alene, neither of ...hich is state supported, being oper...ted by funds derived from levies ...within districts created to institute ...nd finance such schools. There is al...o the College of Idaho at Caldwell ...and Rick's College at Rexburg, also ...ot state supported.

Idaho, like many other states, is ...taking education to the students in this age, making it possible for many more to have the advantages of higher learning, and Governor Jordan has stated plainly that to maintain our present facilities, chiefly the Colleges at Lewiston and Albion, we must pay the bill. Naturally there will be opposition, and strong opposition to liquidation of the two teachers' colleges, especially the one located at Lewiston. No doubt the newly-elected governor realizes more than the man on the street what the reaction will be, but it must be granted that he possesses the courage to make the announcement contained in his message to the legislature. He is not alone in the belief that the two teachers' colleges should be abolished.

Half Of School Enrollment Increase Is In Ada County

Idaho's school enrollment has increased from 120,987 students in 1939-40 to 127,031 in 1949-50. Such an increase was expected, however, one county alone shows an increase of 3,540 students, which is more than half of the total state increase. Ada county's school population jumped from 9,385 pupils ten years ago to 12,925 pupils in 1949-50.

Twenty-four counties in Idaho have fewer pupils in 1949-50 than they did in 1939-40. Latah county shows a decrease of 462 pupils, 3,342 for 1949-50 compared to 3,804 in 1939-40. Nez Perce county, on the other hand, has an increase from 3,640 pupils in 1939-40 to 3,721 in 1949-50.

Teachers employed in 1939-40 numbered 4,513.07, compared to 4,902.04 in 1949-50. The fractional teachers are undoubtedly accounted for in part-time employment.

In 1939-40, the average cost per pupil, current expense, was $66.92. For 1949-50 the cost was $151.78 per pupil.

The above figures were taken from the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho current bulletin, and the source of data: Records on file, Department of Education, State of Idaho. Boise Independent School District No. 1.

It's True!

Idaho has an area of 83,557 square miles; ranks 12th in area; 43rd in population.

March Of Dimes Drive Will Start January 15

Mrs. A. Hayden, who has served as local chairman for the "March of Dimes" campaign at Genesee for several years, has accepted the task for 1951. "January 15 is the opening date," she said, and "I have asked all of the churches, lodges and other organizations to assist in the campaign, and make successful the drive for funds at Genesee. This is not one person's job, but a cooperative effort of the entire community to provide funds for treatment of polio, the dreaded disease."

During 1950, Idaho chapters have paid the hospitalization cost for 99 per cent of the patients stricken, it was pointed out by Mrs. Hayden. One Idaho patient, stricken in 1947, and who still requires hospitalization, has cost his local chapter over $25,000. From this you may readily understand that polio is expensive to combat. "We have been lucky here, but our luck may run out," the local chairman said. "No one at Genesee has been afflicted, and that's another reason why we should help put over the campaign, and provide not only the necessary funds for treatment but for research.

"If there is anyone who cannot find time to bring the money in, and want a part in this drive, let me know and I will see that your donation is picked up."

Ferrets Rat Exterminators G. C. Nixon Directs Animals

G. C. Nixon of Troy, with 35 years' experience in handling ferrets to exterminate rats, comes out of Steubenville, Ohio, where he learned the knack of handling the small animals. He will de-rat buildings, or if you wish he will import from the east a pair or more of the small animals for use by an individual. A pair sells at $25, fifteen dollars for the female, the more deadlier of the species, and $10 for a male or bull. The young female carrying her first young are called gilts, according to Nixon. Ferreting to be successful requires about as much training for the handler as the animal, perhaps more, because the ferret is endowed with natural hunting traits. The handler may also have hunting traits, but until he becomes experienced he may easily lose a pair or several of the animals, and never know why he lost them. They may be permitted to remain too long in a heavily infested rat area, and when satisfied in their lust for blood, curl up and go to sleep, and forget to return to their guardian. Where poisons of high potency have been laid out in or around buildings, a ferret may pick up some of the poison directly or through a rat which has eaten a poison and killed by a ferret before the rat's life ended.

Terrible is the panic when a rat is confronted or trailed by a ferret. The action, resulting in certain death for the rat, however, is swift, once the vicious little ferret strikes, and it seems to know no fear. Nixon said a dog will often be bitten by a ferret while hunting, if the dog should have the courage to interfere. Ferrets hunt by smell and sound, so a dog looks no different than a rat to it. Females, according to Nixon, are the best hunters and are somewhat more reliable, which is strange, because with human's it's the made who does most of the hunting and killing. Average age of ferrets is about seven years, and they work the year around. Cost of keep is small for when not living on the blood of rats they require but a few drops of milk and other feed once a day. Nixon feeds his ferrets milk and dog biscuits when not working.

In Genesee Monday evening, after de-ratting a couple places, he showed up at several places with an albino ferret. Sometimes the small animal was in a pocket, up a sleeve, or in the collar of his hunting-type jacket. This ferret worked Monday afternoon and was content to sleep most of the time, but occassionally and unconcerned, made his way about the clothing of his owner, displaying none of its vicious temperament.

Judge Morgan Retires

A. L. Morgan of Moscow, presiding judge of the Second District Court for 12 years, stepped down at year's end to be succeeded by Jack McQuade of Moscow. Judge Morgan, admitted to the bar in 1898, started reading law in the office of his brother, Wm. Morgan, also of Moscow, and a former justice of the supreme court. "Al" came from Kansas where he attended school, not as a law student, to continue with his brother. It was common back before the turn of the century for young men to study law, not in a college or university, but in the office of an established attorney, and when proficient, take the bar examination and become a lawyer.

Judge Morgan, who was in Genesee Tuesday, has been an active man during his years, and although retired from the bench, plans to remain in Moscow where he has many life-long friends. He said he would not consider taking up residence in the sunny south for it would be too strange a land without friends.

Jack McQuade was sworn in as district judge for Latah and Clearwater counties Monday, the same day on which all other state officers took their oaths of office.

Called By Father's Death

Becker Family At Pasadena To Witness Rose Bowl Game

Traveling approximately 4,000 miles in 12 days, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Becker and children, Don, Dale and Ann enjoyed a Christmas and New Year's vacation which took them to Mexico and return. Included in the vacation was the opportunity to witness the Tournament of Roses and the Rose Bowl game.

Leaving Genesee Dec. 23 they made Mt. Shasta the first day, then took time the following morning to look over the mammoth Mt. Shasta Dam. They were in San Francisco Christmas eve, and were dinner guests on Christmas day at the home of Mr. Becker's aunt, Mrs. Ed McLean, and family.

On the flying trip, limited by time when children could be out of school, they went to Yosemite and Sequoia National Parks, with Ventura, Calif., a stopping place before going to Camp Cooke to meet Norman Flerchinger, stationed there. Flerchinger went to Santa Barbara Dec. 29 and there met the Beckers for the trip to Glendora and out to see the Mt. Palomar Observatory. Visitors may view the observatory's latest equipment through glass partitions, as no one except operators of the equipment and technicians are permitted in the room where the new giant telescope is located.

Down to San Diego and over to Tiajuana went the Beckers and Flerchinger, then back to San Clementine. On Sunday, Dec. 31 they were at San Capistrano and while there attended mass at the historic mission.

They reached Pasadena at 1:30 Sunday to find all hotels filled, but luck intervened and they were rewarded with rooms at a private home.

Good Fortune Continues

Not only were they fortunate in finding accommodations at 530 N. Holliston, but the home owner was able to obtain tickets for the Rose Bowl game. Beckers, through their son, Don, U. of I. student, purchased two tickets before leaving Moscow. Flerchinger was unable to remain away from camp, so three tickets were needed for the Beckers. Tickets under prevailing circumstances were $22.00 per pair, and sold only by the pair, so Mrs. Becker said she would gladly witness the game over television at the home where they stayed. Had they purchased the second pair of tickets, the family would have been more widely scattered than they were, so Mrs. Becker said she considered the crowd, and felt somewhat relieved to remain at the home.

Good fortune pursued them at all times. They were able to purchase breakfast at the Holliston street home and further avoid the confusion at restaurants.

Dame fortune seemed to be at their elbows all the way. Seats to witness the parade were obtained for the entire party. Seats were on bleachers only three blocks from the starting point of the parade. They were reserved, and could be taken a short time before the parade started. Some people were on streets traveresed by the parade as early as 4 a. m. and waited all the time. Their reserved seats also included parking for their automobile nearby. Their seats were on Colorado street, selling at $5 each, but it was reasoned that Dame Fortune was accompanied by her financial agent. Space and words are lacking to describe the beauty and gigantic proportions of the parade. They saw it before the flowers were affected the least by weather, and the girls were fresh as the flowers.

The football game, perhaps one of the best in recent years, was a thriller, except for California rooters who were taken back in the final quarter. The two Becker boys who sat together are certain they saw Ray Edwards of Genesee, seated six or seven rows from them. They were on about the 30-yard line. Mr. Becker and Ann were seated together.

Rush Home

The Beckers said good bye to Flerchinger shortly after the parade. He did not have time to see the game. Early on the morning of Jan. 2 the Genesee people were on their way home, going to Winnemucca the first day. They encountered a terrific dust and sandstorm, which blew in about the same time that the big windstorm hit Genesee Jan. 2. At times the road was barely visible, but they could follow the white line. The windshield of the Becker car bears marks of the storm. The glass has the appearance of being mildly sandblasted. They arrived home Jan. 3.

At the game Don Becker saw one of his fellow students at the University of Idaho whose home is at Santa Rosa, Calif.

Pasadena was beautiful for the Tournament of Roses, the mile-long street of lighted Christmas trees was gorgeous, and as thousands of cars with only parking lights on, moved along the street, the scene was one of wonderland.

Genesee Bulldogs Rate After Beating The Best

Conceded that Central Valley is the best basketball club in the Inland Empire Class A league, and that Genesee lost and won from the Spokane entry, and later took the measure of West Valley, another Spokane team in the Class A circuit, the question is now being asked: "Where does Genesee rate?" Moscow defeated Lewiston. Lewiston was victor over West Valley. Orofino, a Class B team, soon to become a Class A team (this season), trimmed Moscow 40 to 35. Genesee had no trouble with Orofino. Clarkston trails Central Valley and Moscow, now tied for first place in the "big" league.

Genesee's Class B team, which has not seen much action, is at Orofino this Thursday evening. The outcome of this game should be an answer to the status of the Bulldogs.

Lewiston and Moscow high schools, both Class A, have no games with Genesee this season, although it is understood the Genesee boys would welcome a meeting with either.

In the Class B circuit Kendrick defeated the Lapwai club, which was somewhat of a surprise. Grangeville has not been beaten in their circuit, but they have lost to Kendrick, so with Orofino out of Class B competition soon, to move up with Moscow and Lewiston almost anything can happen after Orofino dumped Moscow and Moscow beat Lewiston.

Genesee Bulldogs have been on a starvation diet as far as playing any of the better clubs since meeting Central Valley and West Valley.

Genesee Town Team Divides Honors In Two Close Games

Genesee's town basketball team defeated the Lapwai town team at Lapwai last Thursday evening 57 to 55. Monday evening the Genesee club lost to Asotin at Genesee 31 to 34.

Johnson for Genesee sent 7 shots through the hoop from the field and counted on three foul shots for a total of 17 points to have top spot in scoring. Jacobs scored 6 field goals for 12 points. Others in the game and their scores: Jenkins, 6; Swenson, 7; Peterson, 0; Stout, 4; Liberg, 11, and Nunan and Hasfurther, 0.

Hitting with most accuracy for Lapwai was Scott, who tied Johnon with 17 points. In second place was Davis with 11 points.

The game at Lauwai was an overtime event, with the score at the first quarter, 13-16 for Lapwai; 23-23 at the half; 41-42 for Lapwai at the third quarter, and 52-all at the fourth quarter. The final 57-55 for Genesee.

Asotin Wins By 3 Points

Asotin town team, playing at Genesee Monday evening, managed to keep ahead most of the game, with a score of 10-8 at the first quarter; 16-16 at the half, and 25-23 at the third quarter. The final count was 34-31 for the visitors.

For Genese Johnson made 4 points, Jenkins, 1; Jacobs, 8; Swenson, 6; Peterson, 5; Stout, 5; Liberg, 6, and Nunan, Hasfurther and Semmes, 0.

For Asotin Kelly hit for 12 points, Maiers, 8; Aussman, 0; E. Bly, 2; Jungert, 2; Hollenback, 4; Appleford, 6 and Kimble and D. Aussman, 0.

Troubles Bothering Lewiston New Paper Mill Odoriferous

Odoriferous is not exactly the word to use should one mention the scent noticeable in the banana belt this winter. A person may be reluctant to say "stinks," but gosh, Lewiston and Clarkston blast away at the valley's newest enterprise, the paper mill, located on the Clearwater river near Potlatch Forests lumber mill. Well, industry sometimes is a smelly proposition, but the "country" agent, Joe Thometz, says the fumes or whatever causes the smell are beneficial to vegetation. Lewiston may be somewhat warmer during the winter months than the Palouse country, and during the summer months, decidedly hotter, but they don't have any more sunshine than Genesee where the air is so invigorating and clean.

Wait a minute. Some say Genesee will get more than a whiff of the Lewiston paper mill when the clouds lift from Lewiston and the air wafts the stink up on the hill. One may not have to wait, for the smell to be noticeable here. On New Year's eve several persons reported getting a whiff of the Lewiston atmosphere.

Other Lewiston Trouble

Lewiston is confronted with other difficulties. Governor Jordan, in his message to the legislature, advised merging the Northern Idaho College of Education with the University of Idaho. Quite a few Genesee people expected Lewistonians to voice opposition, and they were not mistaken. One fellow thought the banana belters would raise such a stink that the paper mill odor would be forgotten. Well, one thing didn't offset the other, like two poisons sometimes counteracting one another, such as a bit of Scotch or Bourbon for snake bite, the most pleasant of examples.

Lewiston people generally, just do not like the paper mill smell, and they are not going to like Governor Jordan until the present crisis passes.

Patient Doing Well

Lewiston, with all its troubles, having lost two trains, then a basketball game to Moscow, and NICE having difficulty getting steered into the win column, not to mention again the troubles above, is doing exceptionally well as a patient. The fever seems to be away up, but there is a good pulse, plenty blood, and determination to recover. It's just too darn bad everything had to happen at once. It's almost certain the legislature won't relieve Lewiston of its teachers' college, and there's not much chance, if any, that anyone may be able to provide relief from the paper mill odor until the weather changes and the "prevailing" westerly winds carries the smell upriver.

Northwestern Seed Growers Merge With Grain Growers

Directors of the Northwestern Seed Growers of Moscow would merge with the Latah County Grain Growers, also of Moscow, according to John Luedke, president of the N. W. Seed Growers. Reason for the merger, it was stated, was "the inadvantageous conflict of the two campanies in dealing with the same products and the common membership of many of the stockholders."

Fred Cann, manager of the Latah County Growers would be manager of the consolidated firm which will be known as the Latah County Grain Growers. Northwestern was organized to handle seeds exclusively, and one of its first managers was Wendell Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith of Rathdrum, and former residents of Genesee. In later years the Northwestern company entered the pea and lentil business, continuing and expanding its seed business for members and others. The company would sell to the Latah County Grain Growers for around $100,000, which includes facilities, including equipment of latest type and design installed in recent years. The merger will ulitimately be established as a cooperative with more than 550 members, the manager said. Northwestern had a membership of 380, with 250 of these also members of the Latah County Grain Growers.

Sister Of Mrs. Wernecke Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wernecke and daughters, Henrietta and Ethel, attended funeral services for Mrs. Jessie B. Fisher, sister of Mrs. Wernecke, held at St. Patrick Catholic church at Colfax Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Fisher, whose home was at Lancaster, Wash., passed away on December 31 following a month's illness. Besides her son, George, the deceased is survived by five sisters, Mrs. Wernecke at Genesee, Mrs. Art Tilden of Lewiston, Mrs. G. H. Brady of Tugerton, Wisc., Mrs. Fred Steltzer of Eland, Wisc. ,Mrs. Abe Segeter of Whittenberg, Wisc., and two brothers, Melvin Brumm of Birnamwood, Wisc., and Leonard Brumm of Marquette, Wisc., and many nieces and nephews. Two sisters, besides Mrs. Wernecke, Mrs. Tilden and Mrs. Brady, were able to attend the rosary and funeral services.

Rich Broemeling On Leave

Rich Broemeling, son of Joe Broemeling, now at Camp Pendleton, Calif., who served with the U. S. Marines and entered combat action with the invasion of Iwo Jima, was granted a ten-day leave which gave him five days to divide between Genesee and Lewiston, the home town of Mrs. Broemeling, and the place where Rich was employed before being called back into service a few months ago.

Rich and his family spent some of his leave at Genesee, but was busy too, having their household furniture moved here. Mrs. Broemeling and infant son have been in California to live near Camp Pendleton and returned a few days after Christmas.

Potlatch Loses Games To Genesee Bulldogs

Genesee high school reserves, its second platoon or second starting five, plus five boys from the second team got off to a slow start against Potlatch Tuesday evening, but once in motion ran up 15 points in the first quarter to 1 for the visiting Loggers. Genesee scored but two points in the first three and one-half minutes of play, and the first seven points were scored by Nelson, who hit for another two points in the final quarter. Bob Bennett scored 10 points on five field goals for high-point man. Coach Hammond used ten men, with five from the first team, and five from the second team, yet Potlatch was able to score only 21 points to 39 for the Bulldogs. After the first quarter 15-1 count, Genesee moved to 22-8 at the half, and were in front 28-14 at the end of the game. Roberts for the Loggers, with 9 points hit for three field goals and sunk three out of four from the gift toss stripe. Other Potlatch players were: Risteen, 2 points; Hanson, 6; Yanbrskick, 0; Rumberg, 1; Lang, 3, and Crumley, 0.

For Genesee Bennett scored 10 points; Nelson, 9; Magee, 3; Liberg, 6; Don Dennler, 1; Myers, 4; Lanphner, 2; Stout, 0 ;Nordby, 4.

Potlatch hit for 6 field goals, but made good on 9 of its 14 foul shots. Genesee made 18 field goals, but made only 3 of its 9 foul shots.

Rabdau, Gehrke, Bennett, Sprenger and Sather did not suit up for the game.

Freshmen Win 43 To 20

In the preliminary of the doubleheader Tuesday evening Genesee high school freshmen or freshmen and sophomores, walked away with a 43-20 win over the Potlatch B team.

Fourteen Genesee boys entered the game for Genesee, G. Sather, Tiechmer, Jacobs, Parks, Krier, Wardrobe, Luvaas, Dennler, Uhre, Kinzer, Anderson, Esser, Erickson and Stout.

It was a 14-6 score at the quarter and 19-9 at the half, with Genesee in the lead. The third-quarter count was 33-17 for the younger Bulldogs. Potlatch used Zimmerman, Eason, Youman, Goetz, Hanson, Gormsen, Nagle and Hash. Parks led in the scoring for Genesee with 8 points, and Kinzer was second with 7 points. Zimmerman with 7 points was high for Potlatch.

Dan Pederson of Genesee, as country assessor, elected in November; L. G. Peterson as probate judge, reelected, and H. R. Short as coroner. Mrs. Nell P. LaFollette, county superintndent of public instruction will be employed in a similar capacity under direction of the county school board, now operating according to the state school reorgaization program. The office of county superintendent was abolished in Idaho by a change in the constitution two years ago last November.

Thiessen Expects Discharge

John Thiessen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thiessen, expects to receive his discharge from the U. S. Marine Carps Saturday, according to a telephone communication Tuesday with his parents. Serving for a long time with the Marines during World War II in the South Pacific, Thiessen was called back into service, and reported to Camp Pendleton, Calif., some time ago. Mrs. Thiessen and their two children went to Oceanside, Calif., to be near Mr. Thiessen. They are expected to return to Lewiston, perhaps next week some time. They made their home in Lewiston before Mr. Thiessen was called up as a reserve.

Make Flying Trip By Car

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Green, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tobin of Lewiston returned Tuesday a week ago from Fort Ord, Calif., where they visited Jim Tobin. The party of four left early the morning of December 26 and traveled to Reno, Nevada that day, and then made Fort Ord the second day. Jim Tobin left Saturday morning for Ft. Benning, Ga., there to become a replacement for the 4th Division, alerted for foreign duty.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The nice winter weather continues—the ground is covered with snow and it is cold enough to keep it from melting. The roads are dry except for the mile of "super" highway that has been a mess since last fall. The snow cannot be scraped off like on the oiled road and it is slick and also full of chock holes. More cases of mumps are reported this week. The social calendar is rather quiet with folks resting up after the holiday festivities. We heard a bit of homely philosophy on the radio the other day and for the benefit of those who did not hear it, we repeat it: "If you are downhearted or blue, think about the teakettle, it gets up to its neck in hot water but still it sings."

Friendship—Four Thousand Miles Apart

Never quite got the hang of how to play chess myself, but I'll say this for the game—it started one of the strongest friendships I know of: between Dad Wilson in our town and a fellow in Sudbury, England.

The two of them have never met or seen each other—but for eight or nine years they've been playing chess by mail together. Dad puzzles over the Englishman's latest letter, takes a couple of days to think it over, and then airmails a chart of his next move.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard. And the fellow in England writes that he does the same. "Almost as if we were in the same room," says Dad contentedly.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often little friendly things—like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding . . . between people of different nations, between folks here at home!

The New Plymouth Cranbrook Four-Door Sedan

Featuring improvements which produce unprecedented roadability and riding qualities, the beautifully redesigned 1951 line of Plymouth cars have numerous mechanical improvements and have retained their traditional roominess. Shown above is Plymouth's Four-door Cranbrook sedan.

New Plymouth Combines Beauty and Riding Ease

Detroit, Mich.—Spectacular new qualities which produce driving and riding ease heretofore unknown in automobiles of any price feature the new line of Plymouth cars. Combining smart new body lines with unprecedented interior luxury, the new Plymouth will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the United States Saturday, Jan. 13.

Designers have given the Plymouth a striking new silhouette, and refinements in the interior are innovations in the lowest price field. The styling improvements retain the traditional roominess of the cars.

Easier to drive and more comfortable, the new cars have greater beauty, more safety features and broader ranges of vision than ever before.

Engineers say the new "Safety-Flow ride" takes the bounce and wallop out of bumps. A new application of hydraulic flow control in the shock absorbers provides a more gradual change of resistance during spring deflections and thus a softer ride when driving on average roads. It also exerts extra resistance on rough roads to a degree where driver and passengers are almost completely freed of the discomfort of being jolted around.

The "Safety-Flow ride" is one of the greatest contributions to driving comfort and safety in recent years, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth Motor Corp.

"The new Plymouth gives you roadability never before offered in any car," he said. "There is no necessity for steering wheel fatigue to control the car on difficult roads. The driver is no longer required to focus full attention on the condition of the road. He may be more watchful of oncoming traffic, pedestrians, curves, crossroads and other potential hazards."

Eddins called the new development a major step toward restful motoring. More confidence is gained by driving or riding in a new Plymouth with the "Safety-Flow ride," and as a result there is less driver and passenger fatigue, he said.

The lines of the new Plymouth have been beautified. An appearance of massiveness combined with smart streamlining is induced by a new grille, beautifully redesigned front fenders and hood, a wider windshield and a larger rear window. Narrower windshield pillars together with the wider windshield provide additional lateral vision. To utilize fully the greater vision through the new rear window, the rear view mirror is two inches wider. The chair-height front seat and the new design of hood and front fenders permit the driver to see the road nearer the car.

There are numerous mechanical improvements. Windshield wipers are electrically operated, and are of the single-speed, self-parking type.

A unique pressure-vent radiator cap, which has been added as standard equipment, permits the cooling system to be operated at atmospheric pressure during normal driving conditions. Under high-load, high-temperature driving conditions, the new radiator cap provides a pressurized cooling system to allow high coolant temperature without boiling or loss of anti-freeze.

All Plymouth engines now have a built-in by-pass cooling system permitting water circulation and resulting in more uniform temperature throughout the engine during the warm-up period. The new system consists of a passage in the cylinder head and block providing direct access to the water pump, and a choke-type thermostat to regulate coolant flow to the radiator.

The generator output has been raised to 45 amperes, an increase of five amperes, providing greater electrical capacity for the operation of car accessories. The new hand brake "T" control handle is more accessible, and, as on former models, it operates independently of the foot brake as an added safety measure.

In the convertible club coupe, the spare tire is mounted vertically as in other coupe and sedan models, rather than on the trunk floor.

The new Plymouth interiors offer the finest selection of upholstery and trim and the most harmonious color schemes in the company's history. The colors which have been chosen provide throughout the interior a pleasing combination of shades in harmony with the car's exterior color. Designers say the interior is an unparalleled achievement in combining practicality with luxury. Always noted for spaciousness, Plymouth now has even more head room and more room to stretch out in comfort in the rear seat.

To go with the high quality of the upholstery, there is a handsome new instrument panel which features a more convenient grouping of controls, newly shaped instruments and improved coloring and lettering for easier checking while driving.

The wide, deep chair-height seats, the ease of entrance and exit, and all the other traditional Plymouth features for driver and passenger comfort have been retained.

There are nine body-types in the new Plymouth line: the Concord series includes a two-door sedan and a three-passenger coupe as well as the two all-metal utility models, the Suburban and the Savoy; the Cambridge series has a four-door sedan and a club coupe; and the Cranbrook series includes a four-door sedan, a club coupe, and a convertible club coupe.

The Suburban and the Savoy, with their smart, distinctive lines are all-purpose vehicles. They have the beauty and comfort of a sedan, and by simply lowering the rear seat flush with the floor they become sturdy cargo carriers for farmers, salesmen, sportsmen, tourists or others who require large cargo capacity. The Savoy, called the "country club companion" of the Suburban, provides a greater variety of luxurious interior appointments and more exterior refinements to enhance the car's striking appearance.

Among the "high-priced car" features which are retained are six-cylinder, 97-horsepower engine with a 7 to 1 compression ratio, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, safe-guard hydraulic brakes, and safety-rim wheels.

apwai Takes Genesee n A Surprising Upset

Lapwai's Wildcats upset the Gene- e Bulldogs' "applecart" Tuesday ening in a cross-league basketball me played at Lapwai. It was a pho- finish 32-31 encounter, with the lley conference club leading all the y, although at times the tremen- us roar from the two cheering sec- ons and from the voices of ardent d loyal fans seemed to engulf the ayers in an impenetrable denseness an ocean of noise. Followers of the me from Genesee braved a blizzard r the trip to Lapwai, and as the two ams moved up and down the floor, ey did so with almost the velocity the hill-top storm.

It was a hard-earned victory for e Wildcats, an up-and-down club in e Valley conference, which put out erything to take the Bulldogs, a hite Pine league entry, and winner er some of the better teams in the land Empire. Tuesday night, Lapwai as up, away up, and Genesee was frigid as possibly could be. Ortho- x basketball was practically forgot- n in the low-scoring game. Too often ayers were scrambling about the oor, banging into the end walls or ed up in a life-or-death struggle for e ball, but Lapwai kept pouring on e heat and Genesee matching the ce. Lapwai fans were expecting the enesee team to forge ahead at any me, but the Bulldogs couldn't hit the op. Checking was close. Seldom did player on either team have a set ot. The slam-bang event saw Gene- e on the very short end of a 10-6 unt at the first quarter. The score t the half was 17-10 for Lapwai and e third-quarter score was 27 to 21 r the Wildcats.

Bennett Warms Up

Jim Bennett, Genesee guard, put on one-man scoring demonstration in e final quarter with 5 field goals to ull his team up to one point of a tie. ith seconds to go, Jim Sprenger, hile taking a shot, was boomed off e playing floor, and suffered an in- ured foot. His place was taken by ob Bennett, freshman, whose job it as to make the two foul shots for prenger. It was a crucial spot and me for the youngest of the Genesee lub to walk to the foul line. Appar- ntly unmindful of the roaring noise, ob cast off, missed the first by inches nd then missed the second. It was a ough assignment.

Jim Bennett, top scorer for both eams, with 15 points, 14 marked up n the second half, went the entire oute without a single foul. Fifteen ouls were called on Genesee to 13 on apwai. The Wildcats made good on of their 15 chances and Genesee hit or only 6 of its 13 opportunities from he foul line.

Monks High for Lapwai

Monks, Lapwai center, who matched ny of the Genesee boys for height, cored 11 points, on three field goals nd a deadly eye from the foul line or five out of six gift shots. He was eld to one lone point in the second alf. Madison, second high scorer for he Wildcats, notched 10 points on ive field goals.

Bees Come Behind To Win

Genesee's Bee team, tied with Lapwai's Bee club, 9-9 at the first quarter, was five points behind at the half, 14-9. The third period score was 27-22 for Lapwai, and it was not until the waning seconds of the fourth period that Genesee broke ahead by one point, to win 34 to 33.

The junior clubs operated on about the same basketball level as the older boys, lots of running with play fast but loose, and not much good basketball. Don Dennler whipped up the most points for his Genesee team, and was also high for both clubs with 12 points, ten of which poured through the hoop in the second half, six of them in the final quarter. He even took one shot lying on his back to the floor, and missed only by inches. Similar to the big boys game in another respect was the time players spent on the floor or all tied up.

For Genesee Magee counted 10 points as second high man. Parks made 6, Dave Dennler 5, Kinzer 1, and Sather, Lanphier, Krier, Borgen and Erickson had no luck. For Lapwai Wheeler made 9 points, Gibbs 4, Ellenwood 0, McFarland 6, Eggers 5, Davis 4 and Miller 1. Author and Redheart 0.

Man Reported Missing Found Works Nears Headquarters

Albert Gardner, reported missing, with a reward offered by his father for information relating to him, has been located at a woods camps of Potlatch Forests near Headquarters.

The Lewiston Tribune erred in its reports concering the young man. He was not at Lewiston but at Genesee when heard of. Gardner came to Genesee to become an employee of the Kuney Construction company, engaged in highway work, and having been previously known by Don Springer while in business at Headquarters, it was arranged that Gardner could have a place to stay in the basement of the Art Springer home. Gardner accepted the hospitality of the Springer home Aug. 29, and in mid-September employment with the construction company was terminated. He left Genesee and was away until about Oct. 1, when he returned with another man to pick up some clothing. The basement room at the Springer home has a private entrance and Gardner was not seen often, but when he returned it was stated that he was to accompany his companion on a big game hunting trip.

Members of the Springer family became somewhat alarmed when the young man did not return, and recently they received word from his mother. Young Gardner remarked when leaving for the hunting trip that he would return. After the report in the Tribune, which followed requests from the parents, Don Springer contacted friends and officials of the Forest Service at Headquarters, which undobtedly resulted in locating Gardner.

Hammers Receive Thanks For Gift Of Violin To Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Hammer have received heartfelt thanks for the gift of a fine violin to a blind girl, Vee Warner, aged 11, who is studying music at a school for blind at Seattle. Through Don Jain. Mr. and Mrs. Hammer learned of the girl's need. The violin belonged to Dorothy Hammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hammer, who passed away at the age of 18, and a talented musician.

The letter of thanks was written by Vee's grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Warner, 317 E. Bridgeport, Spokane. Mrs. Warner wrote in part: "Your gift is going to make a lovely child very happy, and I hope she will be able to play it. Her younger sister also wants to learn. My dear, I know what you went through when you lost your own dear girl. Two years ago Jan. 5 I took a plane to San Francisco to see my daughter. She passed away Jan. 8. She taught school for nine years and was never sick in her life until three years before death. They say there is a reason for everything. At the time we can't see it but maybe some day we will both know. Don't know why this had to happen to Vee. Operations started four years ago to save the girl's sight. We pray that some day she may be able to see in one eye. She is a lovely girl and wish you could see her."

Genesee March Of Dimes Dance At Memorial Building Jan. 20

The Genesee American Legion Post is cooperating with Mrs. Alzina Hayden in staging the annual March of Dimes dance this year, to be held at Legion Memorial building the evening of Saturday, January 20. This is also the date of the Genesee-Grangeville high school basketball games, so it may a be a double event. While you have on your "good clothes" for the games, drop down to the Memorial building to participate in the dance, which is part of the local campaign to raise Genesee's quota for the polio fund. Remember the slogan, "Play or dance that others may walk," offers you the opportunity to help the unforunate but also provide funds to carry on research and control of the dread disease, infantile paralysis, respecter of none, and a cause of affliction for too many.

Ticket Campaign On

Members of the Legion Post at a meeting Wednesday evening, became one big committee to sell tickets. It will be nearly imposible for members to contact every person in the community before Saturday evening, so you will be conferring a favor by asking for tickets. The tickets bear a receipt for donations if you do not desire to dance. You thereby save the 20 cents tax, but of course if you wish to dance, Uncle Sam wants 20 cents or a total of $1.20.

The Legion is donating its hall for the dance and meeting other expenses except music, with all net proceeds going to the polio fund.

Idaho is one of the states suffering greatly from infantile paralysis, and in recent years, expenditures have exceeded receipts .The goal again is set at $1.00 per person. All are not able to pay, so some will pay more. It's the generosity of unselfish people which is providing hospitalization for a large number of polio patients. If you wish to assist in this worthwhile effort, you may contact Legion members or call Mrs. Hayden and you may obtain tickets, or make a direct donation to the polio fund.

Income Tax Men At Genesee To Help Farmers January 25

This service is given to the taxpayers free of charge. According to the announcement the one or two deputies will be at Genesee from 9 a. m. to 3:30 Jan. 25.

Mild Blizzard Hits Palouse Snow Turns Into Light Rain

A gentle reminder that winter may be lurking somewhere in the months of January and February, came Tuesday afternoon when snow began blowing around with an east wind, that finally shifted to the south. The mercury dropped to around freezing at sundown, but at 11 p. m. rain was falling and drifting ended. Instead of snow Wednesday morning there was slush with temperatures well up in the 40's. Warm weather continued Wednesday afternoon, but by 8 p. m. the mercury was dropping but not rapidly to hit the freezing point.

Blizzard or no blizzard, basketball fans poured out of Genesee Tuesday night, traveling the Coyote grade to save 20 miles to Lapwai. There was a glare of packed snow, almost ice to the rimrock, and from there no snow had fallen. Most of the cars returned by way of the Lewiston hill where snow reached only about a mile below the summit.

Genesee and Uniontown town basketball teams will meet in a game at Uniontown Thursday, Jan 25, when the entire proceeds will go into the "March of Dimes" fund. There will be no regular admission charge, but fans may donate whatever they desire to assist in the polio drive.

The January 25 game is a regularly scheduled event, a return game between the two clubs. Later Genesee and Uniontown will meet to decide the winner of the game "blown out" at Genesee Jan. 2, the night of the big wind when lights went out at a time when Uniontown was ahead 3 points.

The Uniontown team and management would like to see a sizeable attendance from Genesee to witness the game, and have a part in making a contribution to the polio fund.

Grangeville Here Saturday

Genesee high school Bulldogs will be hosts to the Grangeville Bulldogs Saturday evening. This is another basketball game of interest to central Idaho fans. The defeat suffered by Genesee by the hands of the Lapwai Wildcats has caused stock of several school teams to soar, with the accompanying hopes that schools other than Lapwai may hang a loss on the Genesee basket tossers. The game between the two Bulldog teams should be one of interest.

Leon Follett Dies At Age 80 Pioneer Genesee Merchant

Leon Follett, one of seven brothers, to come to Genesee in the early days, passed away at his home in Los Angeles Friday, Jan. 12, at 4 a. m. He had been failing in health for some time. He attained the age of 80 years and seven months, and was the last of the brothers to pass away. He was born in Minnesota, and after being at Genesee for a few years he entered the Mercantile business here with his brother, Fred. In the late 1920's, after his brother's death, his partners were Mahlon Follett and Harry Hanson, a firm which continued until about 1932, when the late deceased sold his interests here and moved to Los Angeles. He is survived by his widow, Minta, and one daughter, Mrs. Walter Heubner, of Los Angeles. Mahlon Follett was a nephew of the deceased.

Qualeys Visit In California And With Men At Fort Ord

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Qualey who left Dec. 19 for Watsonville, Calif., returned home Sunday afternoon. They visited Friday at Spokane with Mrs. Qualey's mother, and Saturday they visited relatives at Pullman.

Their trip to California was made primarily to visit Mrs. Qualey's son, Wayne, and his wife, who reside at Watsonville while Wayne is stationed at Fort Ord, some 20 miles distant.

Mr. and Mrs. Qualey had the pleasure also of meeting and visiting with Don Hermann, Ralph Kluss, Jim Tobin and Ray Broenneke, Genesee men now in the service and stationed at Ford Ord, with the exception of Tobin who has joined the 4th Division at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Qualey also spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwenne of Watsonville. Christmas dinner was enjoyed at the Schwenne home by Mr. and Mrs. Qualey, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schwenne and Ray Broenneke.

During their stay at Watsonville they made numerous trips of interest. Mr. Qualey became interested in the metods of farming and crops produced in the Watsonville area. He was impressed by the tremendous acreages to the many crops grown, became familiar with land preparation, planting, cultivation, fertilization of soil and harvesting, but also became acquainted with the costs and risks. Comparing the Palouse country with the Watsonville area, he prefers the local conditions where perishable crops are not grown. Lettuce planting was in progress in the Watsonville country in late December and early January. The profits are great if the crop is normal and demand is steady, but with adverse conditions, the growers of that crop may "lose their shirts" two out of three years and still be on top with a good year.

Ankle Dislocated In Fall

Mahlon Follett was taken to the Gritman hospital at Moscow last Friday morning after suffering a painful dislocation of his right ankle. He slipped on an icy sidewalk adjacent to the Matt Baumgartner residence, falling with his right ankle beneath him and was unable to regain his feet. Jerry Pederson, on his way to work, heard the request for assistance, and went to the Follett home nearby to summon a doctor. Dr. Genstler was at the Moscow hospital, so Pederson, with the assistance of L. E. Brown, helped the injured man into the Follett car for the trip to Moscow, being further assisted by Floyd Ochs.

The men were certain the ankle was fractured, as the bone at the joint protruded. Examination showed the ankle badly dislocated. Mr. Follett returned to the store Tuesday afternoon, but remained at home Wednesday. The ankle is in a cast.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Genstler are the parents of a son born Friday, Jan. 12 at the Gritman hospital in Moscow. The baby has been named Darrell Eugene. Mother and baby returned home Wednesday.

Odor From Pulp Plant Reaches Genesee Area

Residents of Lewiston and Clarkston are not exclusive in being able to smell the new paper and pulp plant on the Clearwater river. Saturday evening and night the odor was too noticeable in the Genesee area to go unmentioned. The odor was strong in the Rimrock, unpleasant at Genesee and pretty "stinky" in the Genesee Valley, but not as noticeable east and west. One fellow remarked that he expected to plow the smell under if it got much stronger, following the advice of Joe Thometz of Lewiston, that the odors were good for vegetation.

Having a good "smeller" today is nothing to brag about. If you are riding in a car you can't go fast enough to get away from the odor of the pulp plant. It seeps in through ventilation system, through car heaters, and if you leave your car standing where the odor prevails, you get a good whiff when doors are opened.

Some are of the belief that Lewiston and Clarkston people and others who notice the odors will gradually become accustomed to the smell and not notice it. Others believe that operators are not fully acquainted with the paper making processes as yet, and later will have better control of the offensive odors. There are some too, who guess that warmer weather will carry the fumes higher and cause them to dissipate. Paper and pulp plants are located in many of the "timber states" and seldom, if ever, do they close up or quit making paper. Industry is a "smelly' business', and perhaps paper making is not the worst. How about a big tannery, or if you prefer, the back yard of a beet sugar mill after the sugar campaign is well advanced, and the pulp starts going to livestock for feed. How about an oil refinery, a coking plant, a chemical plant or a young Chicago stockyards to provide a mixture of smells for olfactory excitement.

Two More Cougar Downed By Jones Duo And Powell

Bud Jones, Genesee, joined his father, Frank (Cougar) Jones and Harry Powell, both of Moscow on New Years days for a "cat" hunt in the Port Hill area, north of Bonners Ferry. They received word from Bill Leslie of Bonners Ferry that cougar had been seen, and invited them to make their headquarters at his place.

The three men came across cougar tracks Jan. 2, and that day they shot one at a point about 15 miles east of Port Hill, and on the day following they got another cat five miles east of Port Hill. A Spokane party shot a third cougar in the Port Hill country on Jan. 8.

Working with the Jones' hounds, the first cougar was treed on Miller Creek and was shot by Powell, a novice hunter, who is fast gaining proficiency as a cat hunter. The second cougar was not as easily killed, for it required several shots from the three hunters to dislodge the animal. The two cougar weighed approximately 135 pounds each, with the male measuring 7 feet and 3 inches.

Female Carrying Kittens

Frank Jones, veteran cougar hunter, who has kept no record of the number of cougar he has killed, said it was the first time he ever saw a female cougar carrying four kittens. The usual number is two or three. He has been in on the kill of between 75 and 80 cougar. With a bounty of $50 per animal, the hunters are now wondering if they will receive credit for the four kittens as well as the two aged animals.

Jones reported about a foot of snow on Miller and Smith creeks where big game is faring well during a mild winter and light snowfall.

Harlem Globe Trotterettes To Meet Genesee Town Club

Genesee's town basketball team under sponsorship of the Fire Department, has been given the date of Friday, Jan. 26 for a game here with the Harlem Globe Trotterettes, a traveling colored women's club. According to publicity forwarded the club is the outgrowth of the famous Harlem Queen's softball club. During the winter all the players who have been tops in basketball are kept busy playing basketball until baseball season rolls around. The club was formerly the Oberlin A. C. club, formerly CAAU champions. It was originated by Sol Butler, former Olympic track and field star of the early 1920's. The club, since its first year, has been defeated in colored circles only 15 times in the past ten years. They went undefeated in colored circles for the past three years. They travel in a nine-passenger bus, and besides the players there is a chaperon, driver and manager.

Members of the team are: Bernice Marshall, Othie Wells, Jo Nichols, Bertha "Slim" Dodds, June Simmons, Helen Barr and Ruth Mason.

No Red Heads This Year

Last year the Genesee town team met the Red Heads, a traveling squad. They are coming into this area this winter. It is presumed the "Ettes" will play men's rules, and what a "tough" evening the towners have in store for them.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We had a week of fairly good weather until Monday afternoon when we had a heap, big wind which took off most of the remaining snow. On Tuesday a blizzard started about noon with the wind increasing toward evening, that piled drifts for the first time this winter. The snow turned to rain during the night and settled the drifts and the power and telephone facilities were not disturbed. Rain is predicted for later in the week, so we probably will not have to dig out this time. Folks who travel to Moscow every day will appreciate the grading and filling of holes on the new stretch of highway, done by the regular highway crew this week. This is National Thrift and Saving Week. We don't know who started the idea but we are sure it didn't originate in Washington, D. C. We would like to send the idea back there as a reminder that money still doesn't grow on the bushes in the USA in spite of all our achievements in science. Lewiston seems to have a million-dollar baby that she can't pin a diaper on. We don't blame the folks down there for protesting about the smell for we can smell it up here when the wind is just right, and we are glad we have 25 miles of fresh air between us and the pulp plant. Lewiston stands to lose a lot of her population as well as NICE, as it is now established. She will probably get a junior college. The governor is to be commended for a combination of letters, unknown to the Fair Deal—S-A-V-E. With the population of the state much less than a large city and so much land not taxable there has to be a line drawn somewhere, no matter how it hurts.

Farmers are scratching their heads over income tax returns and wondering if it will be worth while to plant anything this year if it all has to go for expenses and taxes.

Genesee, on the other hand onverted but ten times in 23 tries rom the foul line. Hosley's total of 0 points, 10 of them on field goals, made him the top Grangeville buc-eteer. Jones, a Grangeville forward, lso hit for five field goals and made ood on three foul shots for 13 points. Genesee lost four men on fouls, Rabdau, Nelson, Gehrke and Spreng-and the prairie club lost three men, Hosley, Johnson and Wright.

Jim Sprenger burned up the boards n the opening quarter when he went round the opposition for four field oals. Jim Bennett made two field oals and sunk two from the foul ine, which, with Rabdau's two-pointer nd a foul, gave Genesee a slight edge t the first quarter, 17 to 15 for the isitors. In the second quarter Gene-ee scored four field goals, one each y Rabdau, Nordby, Sprenger and Lee Liberg. The half-time score was 25-4 for Genesee.

Coach Hammond used his second latoon in the third quarter. They whipped up a swift and dazzling of-ense which caught Grangeville off balance, holding the visiting starting five while bringing the Genesee ad-vantage to 5 points. Sprenger, going back into the game with Jim Benentt, scored 6 points, with Bennett getting 4 and Liberg 3. The count at the third quarter was 38 for Genesee and 36 for Grangeville.

In the fourth quarter Sprenger ad-ded 4 more points to bring his total to 20 points which was high for the local Bulldogs. Bob Bennett went around his man for a 2-point lay-in. Bob Bennett scored a field goal, and Liberg counted three points on a field goal and a foul. It seemed to be Nord-by's shot from about eight feet out from the circle that brought Genesee to its scoring punch in the fourth quarter, when Grangeville led for the first time in the game. The lead how-ever changed hands several times in the last few minutes of the regular time and in the extra periods.

Sather On Bench

Jim Sather, one of Hammond's first platoon, was on the bench Sat-urday evening, being an infirmary case. He will be back for the Ken-drick game tonight, but one or two other boys of the A team may be sit-ting it out owing to mild illness.

First Overtime

Bobby Bennett, freshman guard, packed the best scoring punch in the overtime periods. After Jones for Grangeville set up a two-pointer, Bob was seen going around his man for a field goal to tie up the game. Then Johnson for Grangeville dropped one through the hoop and back came Bob for a second field goal to knot the count, 55-55.

Second Overtime

Asker for Grangeville hit the hoop for two field goals in the second extra period and Jones sunk one from the foul line, after Genesee had scored its seven points. Myers, for Genesee, went up for a much-needed two-point shot. Jim Bennett swished in a field goal from the side and tossed in one from the gift line. Then came Bob Ben-nett again, to thrill the large crowd with his field goal.

Orofino Game Overlooked

Everything which happened last week was eclipsed by the Genesee-Lapwai game. The News completely overlooked the game played with Orofino at Orofino. Genesee was the victor Jan. 11 by a score of 57 to 41. The Genesee Bulldogs were never behind, with a first quarter count of 22-12, 38-27 at the half and 48-34 at the end of the third quarter.

Social Security Agent Civic Meeting Speaker

Don Springer and Gene Woodruff, president and secretary, respectively, of the Genesee Civic Association, are arranging for an interesting dinner meeting at Evan's Cafe, Wednesday evening, January 31. The dinner at 7:00 will precede the meeting.

NICE and Social Security

"We are fortunate in being able to secure Frank J. Cathcart manager of the Lewiston office of the Social Security Administration," Springer said Wednesday, after confirming the date of his appearance here.

Cathcart will discuss the various phases of the amended Social Security program relative to agricultural employees, retirement, insurance benefits, self-employed participation and the participation of domestic workers.

He is particularly anxious to explain the provisions of the amended act, and to answer questions. There are several liberalized elegibility requirements for persons now 65 years old and over. For example, anyone now 65 who was paid at least $50 for work in covered employment during as few as six calendar quarters since 1936 may be eligible. Payments may be retroactive to the month of September, 1950, if an application is filed now. These payments will continue for life with the exception of those months in which the worker earns more than $50 in covered employment.

The foregoing is not the principal reason for coming to Genesee next Wednesday evening, but the example serves to show how the Social Security program has been expanded.

There will also be present several representatives from Northern Idaho College of Education at the meeting Jan. 31, to speak on behalf of retaining the state school at Lewiston. The legislature, now in session, will soon be considering elimination of the two Idaho state teachers' colleges, or as a compromise, making changes in the two institutions.

Please Notify Secretary

Cards are being sent out by the secretary of the Civic Association, notifying members of the meeting. You are asked to notify Gene Woodruff before Tuesday noon, otherwise it will be assumed you will not attend.

Others Welcome

Everyone in the community may attend the interesting meeting for Jan. 31, but to arrange for the dinner the secretary should be advised of your intentions to attend.

White Pine B. B. Tournament At Deary's New Gymnasium

Kenneth Primus, Genesee, manager of the Second District basketball tournament said Wednesday the dates have been set for the White Pine sub-district basketball tournament, to be played Feb. 12 through Feb. 17, at Deary's new school gymnasium. Robert Meserve, Deary school principal, is manager of the sub-district playoff, which will be a double elimination for the five teams competing, Potlatch, Deary, Troy, Elk River and Genesee. Two teams, those finishing first and second at Deary, will represent the White Pine circuit at the district tournament.

The new Deary gymnasium which will be ready for tournament play has a large playing floor, about 44x84 feet, if dimensions are remembered correctly. It is believed that Deary is holding its first sub-district tournament next month.

Primus also said the date for the big Second District tournament at NICE gymnasium, will be run off Feb. 26, 27 and 28, and March 1, 2, 3. Drawings have already been made for this tournament, not on basis of team representation but as first and second place clubs in the district.

Genesee Pioneer Honored

Lewiston Tribune: William A. Nixon, pioneer of the Genesee area in 1880, observed his 94th birthday quietly at his home at 10th and Libby Sunday and Monday. A large, decorated cake was served to friends and neighbors who called Sunday and the nonagenerian was presented with cards and gifts.

Born Jan. 15, 1857, Nixon came west to Genese as a young man and farmed in that area until his retirement in 1918, when he moved to Clarkston.

Nixon has been confined to his wheel chair most of the time since he suffered a broken hip in a fall about two years ago.

The Nixon place south of Genesee is now farmed by Thor Gilje.

Legislative Score Board

Don Springer has arranged a bulletin board at his office where may be found the numerous bills being presented for consideration by the state legislature. Everyone is invited to look over the bills now in and those yet to come. Fred Hove, former Idaho legislator, is assisting Mr. Springer in checking the "score board" for all bills which affect this part of Idaho or which are of special interest. They are acting as a committee for the Genesee Civic Association.

Legion Earns Net Of $231.08 For March Of Dimes Drive

Bielenberg-Schooler Post, American Legion, sponsor of the March of Dimes dance Saturday evening at the Memorial Building, netted $231.08 for the polio fund, accordinig to John Hickman, commander, who attended to arrangements. Members of the Legion Post conducted a ticket selling campaign, with Harold Haymond leading those selling the tickets. He disposed of over one hundred of the tickets, which included receipts for donations and admission to the dance. Use of the building and some of the other expenses except music were footed by the Legion Post.

Campaign Continues

Mrs. A. Hayden, local March of Dimes chairman, wishes to remind people here that at a number of business houses will be seen miniature "iron lungs" in which money may be placed as donations to the polio fund. To date coins placed in the containers have been short in number. If anyone desires to contribute to the March of Dimes campaign you may see Mrs. Hayden. The net proceeds from the dance is less than half the amount expected to be raised locally.

Auxiliary Contributes

Members of the Legion Auxiliary who served lunch at the dance Saturday night, have also made a contribution to the March of Dimes campaign in the amount of $10.00.

Genesee At Kendrick Tonight

Genesee's high school Bulldogs take on the Kendrick Tigers in their own lair this evening, Friday. It is a interconference game, Kendrick being a strong contender in the Valley circuit, and Genesee a similar contender in the White Pine loop. Genesee, in its last invasion of the Valley league territory, came off second best against Lapwai. Genesee may be somewhat shorthanded for the Kendrick game as several members of the A string have been taking turns on the infirmary list. However, it's always a game when the two clubs meet, this year a test of pre-district strength.

The half-time accumulation of points showed Genesee head, 35-20. The third-quarter count was 55 to 35 for Genesee.

Hitting the hoop with best results for Colton was Wilson with 16 points. Kramer made 13, D. Heitstuman 7, Bishop 1, Bacon 0, and B. Heistuman 11. N. Druffel and Weber, 0 each.

Idaho Teachers' Retirement And Education Taking Time

State Senator William C. Moore of Latah county, in a letter dated Jan. 17 stated the legislature is approximately two weeks ahead of schedule. "This is because Governor Jordan came down early and did a lot of preliminary work on his own. As you know, most of the work of the legislature is done in committees, and the actual voting on bills requires only about one percent of our time. All of the committees are working and getting bills in shape. Two of the major problems, Eduction and Teachers' Retirement are receiving a good deal of attention. I should like to comment briefly in these two as a good deal of misinformation has been circulated in regard to the governor's proposal."

"I find that an actual reading of the governor's speech is quite different from various versions which I have read. May I therefore quote to you from the actual text of the governor's speech?

"After referring to public assistance as having a priority in our budget, providing the laws are justly and fairly administered, the Governor then says, 'Education stands next in priority, and in that category public schools have the right to prior consideration.' I have heard the governor in private conversation, and never at any time have I been under the impression that he was against doing everything he could for our educational system.

"I should also like to comment on the Teachers' Retirement. I have read a good many accounts from our section of the country. I feel that many of them are at complete variance with what the governor has actually recommended. I have also spent part of this morning with Mr. Willmorth, head of the Teachers' Retirement Fund. Under the present system, contributions run somewhere between six and ten percent of their salary, depending upon their age. This is a very high cost. It is being met by an equal contribution of the school district, the county and the state. Under the requested amount for the state, it would have taken between ten and twelve percent of the entire state budget. This would indicate that, somewhere along the line, things have gotten out of control when a teacher must make an average of about an eight percent contribution out of her wages and the state would have to put up ten percent of its budget. This is approximately five times greater than Social Security, yet the benefits are not very much greater. On the basis of these rough figures which I have presented to you, the governor has felt that the legislature should appoint a committee to study and reexamine the present retirement system. As you know, under the present laws, the teachers are fully protected in all of their contributions.

"I want to assure you that no hasty legislation modifying the present Teachers' Retirement Plan will be made. A special committee, of which I am a member, has been appointed to start studying the matter. In our three meetings which we have held so far, I find the problem to be very complex and involved. We are just starting to get into the 'meat'. Within two weeks we will be calling actuaries to testify. I doubt whether it will be possible for our committee to come to any definite conclusions. Probably we will recommend an interim committee to study the entire question. I assure you that nothing will be done in haste and that we are giving the question our best thought as it is certainly not the intention of Governor Jordan nor of the legislature to harm the teaching profession of which many, such as myself, have been past members."

OFFER TO DONATE BLOOD

200 Blood Donors Required to Request Visit of Red Cross Mobile Unit

I wish to "Give a Pint of Blood and Save a Life," and thereby participate in the Blood Donation program, realizing the need by our armed forces in Korea, assist in guaranteeing free blood and blood derivatives for patients in hospitals, and to prepare our country for emergencies should there be an invasion or sudden bombing attack by an enemy.

I or we can be in Genesee on the day of the visit of the Idaho Mobile Red Cross Unit, February 20, 1951.

Number in Family to Give Blood..........................

I or we prefer to visit Mobile Uunit at........................ o'clock

Please Use this Coupon to Signify Your Intention of Donating Blood. Mail it to Mrs. Dick Vandenburg or Mrs. A. Hayden, Genesee.

Blood Donors Sought Bring R. C. Unit Here

Demand for blood and blood derivatives is building up fast in the United States. Latah Chapter of the American Red Cross has applied for membership in the Regional Blood Bank at Boise. Arrangements have been made for the Mobile Unit, recently acquired by this state, to visit Moscow February 20, 21 and 22. The unit demands that 200 pints of blood must be obtained for one day's visit. The reequest is for 600 pints for the three-day visit at Moscow. Last October the Mobile Unit was at the University where students gave 498 pints of blood. The unit will go to any community where there are sufficient donors to give them a day's run, or approximately 200 pints.

Will Genesee Give 200 Pints?

Johin Luedke, Genesee, has talked with Reuben Bauer of Moscow, county director, and it has been decided to make a survey of the Genesee community to ascertain the number who wil donate blood. You can assist in the program by mailing the coupon at the bottom of this page to Mrs. Dick Vandenburg or Mrs. A. Hayden who are the representatives for this locality. If the names of 200 are obtained the Mobile Unit will come to Genesee to receive the blood.

County-Wide Participation

If a sufficient number are not willing to give blood, people here are invited to cooperate in the county-wide collection to be made at Moscow, Feb. 20, 21 and 22.

Korea Demand Heavy

Demands from Korea for blood are increasing. The blood bank at Boise, collecting from the entire state, will retain and supply blood to counties becoming members, and further, the demand for blood, should there be an attempted invasion or severe bombing attack would exceed all supplies, and deplete the bank immediately.

Armed Forces Supplied Blood

During World War II, when there were millions of men in uniform, the blood banks for military use were maintained in large measure by the men and women of the several arms of the armed forces. Today there are not very many men and women in service, but casualties are running high in Korea, not to mention the demands for civilians in the United States, and presumably for civilians of South Korea, our allies.

It takes no stretch of the imagination to visualize what could happen here in the Pacific Northwest should there be an attempted invasion or bombing attack. Giving a pint of blood now and then will not impair one's health, yet it could mean the saving of a life, perhaps a member of your own family, whether he or she be in the armed forces, in a hospital at home, or it is hoped never, in your own place of residence.

Anyone between the ages of 21 and 60 is eligible to participate. Those between the ages of 18 and 20, inclusive, are eligible with parents' consent.

Return Cards by Feb. 7

Cards will be supplied to everyone desiring to participate. These cards are self-addressed and must be returned for times of appointment.

Fill Out Coupon

The coupon at the bottom of this page pertains only to the survey for the Genesee community, and has no relation to the county campaign, except that blood donated will be credited to Latah county. The effort locally is made to further guarantee a sufficent amount of blood and justify the visit here of the Mobile Unit.

Genesee Takes Deary 51-41 Reserves Bear The Burden

The first quarter count, 11-10 for Genesee was close, but Genesee outdistanced Deary 28-21 at the half, and moved further ahead at the third quarter, 39-28.

In this conference tilt, Nordby was top scorer for Genesee with 14 points and high man for Deary was T. Turpin with 16 points.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We could just about make a carbon copy of the weather for the past week—wind, snow, rain. The ground is still white with snow. A half inch fell Sunday evening, followed by a big wind which would have piled up plenty drifts if there had been more snow. The school bus did get stuck in drifts on the Berger road Monday morning. Some of the younger men are hunting coyotes as there seems to be a few around. Two new cases of mumps and more expected soon. We are about ready to recommend that the U. N. close its doors and send the delegates home to do something useful. We don't believe in crawling in a hole and pulling the hole in after us. The time has come when we must assert our independence gained, and stop playing rich uncle and sacrificing American lives for a cause that is futile as long as so-called friends knife us in the back at every turn and send supplies to keep the war going on against us. It was wishful thinking in the first place that over 50 nations with different languages, background, political ideas, religion, and most of them bankrupt, could agree on problems affecting them as a whole. Human nature would have to be changed before that would be possible and it hasn't changed in 2,000 years. Greed, selfishness, a get - there - first - and - fastest idea has cost us valuable lives, tons of money and supplies and gotten us nowhere fast. It is time to paddle our own canoe and not take orders from Britain, Canada, India, or any other country. Let's keep our independence and save our own nation. We are not isolationists by that theory either—it is a survival of the fittest. We think Hoover's ideas were not too far wrong in his recent speech. We cannot long survive as a nation unless there is a drastic change, and soon. There have been wars in Europe since the beginning of history, and we didn't participate in them. The world is closer by transportation means but no closer in ideals than before. We have participated in two terrible wars and now in the third one, in a little over a quarter of a century, and we haven't gained anything by it.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Right Under Our Nose!

Sometime back, we got word from the Governor, asking if we wanted to use the State Fire Inspection Team—a group of experts they send around to communities to inspect public buildings.

We sent a letter saying: "Okay! Give us the once-over!" They came down, all right—last week.

After the inspection, we got their report. Came out pretty well, all told. Town Hall and the School were O.K. Post Office just needed more sandbuckets. In fact, everything got a clean bill of health, except—the Fire Station!

From where I sit, we volunteer firemen had just been too blamed busy keeping everyone else on the ball—and not realizing our own firehouse was not up to snuff. Like the man who worries so much about his neighbors—about whether they work hard enough, about whether they can really afford their new car, about their enjoying a temperate glass of beer—that he forgets to take a good critical look at himself now and then.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION NEARS COMPLETION

Rapid extension of electric lines in rural areas during 1949 and 1950 has brought the goal of complete rural electrification close to realization, according to figures compiled by the Edison Electric Institute.

By the end of 1950, an estimated 90% of farm dwellings of the nation had been electrified, and 95% of rural non-farm dwellings had electric service available (the rural non-farm classification includes dwellings in communities of less than 2500 population). The total percentage of both farm and non-farm rural dwellings wired for electricity had increased from 86% at the end of 1948 to an estimated 93% on December 30, 1950. The small group of rural dwellings (only 7%) not yet reached by electric lines is just about the same in number as that to which electricity was made available in the past two years. Largely, the remaining non-electrified rural dwellings are in very sparsely populated areas geographically isolated from sources of power

Pacific Northwest Ranks High in Rural Electrification

The state of Washington had more than 96% of its rural dwellings electrified by the end of 1949, and Idaho had completed electrification of nearly 98%. Additional rural line extensions were made during 1950 in both states, bringing rural electrification very close to 100%.

Business Managed Electric Companies Serve Vast Majority

Latest authoritative figures indicate that business managed electric companies serve some 80% of electrified rural dwellings, REA cooperatives 18%, and various municipal and other governmental agencies about 2%

W.W.P. a Pioneer in Rural Field and Continues Line Extensions

Shortly after the turn of the century, the Washington Water Power Company extended service to several Inland Empire rural communities, and has continued extensions of rural lines ever since. During the two-year period 1949-50, W.W.P. completed lines into remote mountain country in northern Idaho. Only a small fraction of the rural population in the W.W.P. service area remains without the facilities for modern living at low cost made possible by electricity.

Social Security Details Civic Assn. Discussion

Sixty-five attended the dinner meeting of the Genesee Civic Association Wednesday evening at Evan's Cafe, and heard a timely explanation of the amended Social Security program, and a plea to retain the Northern Idaho College of Education. Don Springer, newly-elected president of the Civic group, quickly dispensed with business to permit the discussions, taking time, however to announce his committees for the year as follows:

Membership, Stanley Rosenau, Wm. Haxton, Frank Wilson, David Kuehl. Program, Wayne Hampton, Rev. Melford Knight. Agriculture, Marion Holben, Don Linehan, James Cameron, Francis Uhre. Roads, Oscar Danielson, Jess Johnson, E. D. Pederson. Recreation, LeRoy Harris, Floyd Ochs, Kenneth Aherin. Education, Kenneth Primus, James Riggs, G. R. Hammond. Community affairs, J. P. Hermann, Forrest Durbin, Warren Downing.

Ask Support For NICE

Dr. Francis J. Haines, head of the political science department of Northern Idaho College of Education, introduced members of the party from Lewiston accompanying him to Genesee. They were Miss Patsy Esser of Genesee, freshman at the school, who briefly asked that people consider the importance of the school; Paul Vick, member of the public relations committee, who outlined the reasons for their visit and continuance of the Teachers' College; and Harry Bradley, head of the NICE public relations committee, who assisted the two men in answering questions invited.

Paul Vick, referring to NICE as "Old Ironsides," made a strong plea for retention of the school on its present four-year status, urging those in favor to write letters immediately to state legislators. He said the austerity program laid down in Governor Len Jordan's message as it pertained to education in Idaho was not in the best interests of the state. In absorbtion of Northern Idaho College by the University of Idaho, as advised by the governor, Vick said it would be like, a "steel mill absorbing a silk mill." He referred to the atmosphere of teaching which prevails at a strictly teachers' college, where none of the complications of a college of letters and science exists. He placed emphasis on the direct instruction for teachers at NICE where production of teachers is not confused by studies for those working towards degrees in engineering, medicine and so forth. He pointed to the teaching laboratory at Northern Idaho College of Education where some 250 pupils provide NICE students with actual teaching problems.

Vick brought to attention the proposed appropriations for the biennium for the Universities at Moscow and Pocatello, which is $18,766.40 more than was appropriated for Idaho's four schools during the past two years, the other school being the teachers' college at Albion.

Northern Idaho College of Education has supplied an average of 150 teachers for Idaho during the past 25 years Vick said. It provided 70 per cent of the teachers for northern Idaho, and 30 per cent of the teachers for the entire state.

Referring to the teacher shortage in Idaho the speaker said, "Maintaining Northern Idaho College of Education is the answer to this shortage."

Some of the questions asked included: Courses now taught at NICE with the answer, only teaching. Dr. Haines said there were 432 students at NICE now employed by Lewiston business firms and homes, and these jobs could not be provided in Moscow if NICE was absorbed by the University of Idaho. Asked about the teacher turnover in Idaho, Dr. Haines said the number was around 800 per year. Asked if NICE could be returned to its two-year status, it was stated, "Teachers cannot be made in two years." Reference was also made during Mr. Vick's talk, that there were altogether too many teachers now employed on emergency status, that of not having required studies for Idaho's teaching standards.

Social Security Complex

Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston office of the Social Security Administration, scheduled as the principal speaker for the meeting, explained in detail the amended Social Security program, going into all the complex angles, but more explicitly talked on coverage of people employed on farms and coverage for self-employed. Of the three phases of Social Security, public assistance, unemployment insurance, and old-age and survivors insurance, the latter combination receiving the most attention from the speaker and those attending the meeting. The law, amended in August, 1950, liberalized payments to those already in the program, and the Social Security Act today, has brought under its "influence" 10 million more persons, such as self-employed, farm workers and domestic help. Beginning Jan. 1, all self-employed persons became covered under a compulsory status. The first payment to be made will be assessed at the time a self-employed person completes his federal income return in 1952.

Average Farm Worker Out

Practically all professional people, such as doctors, lawyers, accountants, engineers and so forth, and those in public service having an established retirement plan, are not included in the Social Security program. Unless a farm worker is employed in a qualifying calender quarter and 60 days in a subsequent calender quarter, he or she does not come under previsions of the Social Security law. With the exception of those who are employed on an annual basis, few farm workers will be affected locally. For example: If a man or woman worked on a farm during January, February and March, he or she would have to work 60 days during April, May and June. Should a man be employed during July, August and September, or during harvest, and was not employed 60 days during October, November and December, he would not be covered.

World War II Vets Covered

Mr. Cathcart, who was never lost for a correct answer to questions and presented a clear picture of the Social Security program, said Veterans of World War II were covered for 26 months at $150 per month, if serving during the emergency period, dates of which are specified.

Qualify in Six Quarters

A person approaching the age of retirement, 65, need only be in the program for six calendar quarters immeditely before retirement to qualify for old age insurance in the maximum amount for his wage or earning bracket. For instance, a man 63½ years of age need pay only for 18 months to become eligible for payments. The young man, starting at age 21, would pay throughout his life to age 65 to become entitled to benefits based on his average earnings.

A man, now past 65 and still self-employed need work only six quarters to qualify for retirement benefits, and he may continue to earn and receive benefits if his income from self-employment does not exceed $50 per month. Earnings from other sources, such as interest and rentals, however great the amount, does not affect his Social Security benefits.

Best To Consult Manager

As Cathcart pointed out when he passed out printed information on Social Security, it is advisable for everyone interested to consult the Social Security Administration through its managers.

Blood Donors Lacking For Mobile Unit Visit

Response to the proposal that Genesee attempt to supply 200 pints of blood and thereby justify a visit here of the Idaho Mobile Red Cross Unit, is lagging, according to Mrs. R. L. Vandenburg and Mrs. A. Hayden, local campaign supervisors to obtain blood and blood derivatives to stock the Idaho Blood Bank.

The Mobile Unit is due in Moscow February 20, 21 and 22. Some Genesee people who have offered to donate blood, have said they would go to Moscow and participate in the county campaign if not enough were signed up for a visit of the Mobile Unit here. Mrs. Vandenburg said the number up to Thursday afternoon was disappointing. Several have made inquiry and plan to donate blood if a doctor's decision to give blood is satisfactory.

Latah county is being asked for 700 pints of blood for the three days in February, but 600 pints will justify a three-day visit.

Residents of Idaho are being reminded of the urgent need for blood for men of the armed forces now in Korea, for civilian use in the United States, and for storage should there be an attempted invasion or a surprise bombing attack.

Blood stored in the Idaho bank at Boise and at several places in the state is furnished to those in need without cost, except for hospitalization of patients and medical fees.

It is not too late if you wish to join others in attempting to furnish 200 pints of blood at Genesee, and if the number is not sufficient, and indications are the number of donors will fall far short of that required, arrangements can be made to go to Moscow on one of the three days mentioned. Self-addressed cards have been distributed on which donors may state the date and time they will be able to go to the Mobile Unit.

On March Of Dimes Program

Taking part in the March of Dimes talent show in Moscow Monday evening at which approximately $500 was realized, were the Genesee high school trio, Joyce and Shirley Danielson and John Eikum. Strip Cropping Is Suggested To Control Erosion Of Soil

By J. M. Rabdau

The subject of strip-crop farming has been batted around a lot, and a good way to start an argument has been just to suggest it. Everyone has been doing a lot of thinking about this practice, and this appears to be some of the results of such thinking:

(1) Breaking the slopes into different crops certainly will cut down on erosion.

(2) A great deal of good, towards erosion control, would be done by breaking all of our Genesee slopes into two crops with the dividing line a marker for contour cultivation. Many farmers have some of their fields so divided now.

(3) On most of the true Palouse land around Genesee three strips are all that would be necesary. (a) Strip from the top of backlash up and over the hilltop. (b) The Backlashed area. (c) From the bottom of backlash to the draw. In the fall of year many stubble fields are so plowed out. When the backlash is plowed three strips are distinctly seen on many slopes, then the stubble below and above are plowed and the strips disappear.

(4) The now popular 3-year clover and grass rotation would fit properly on the three strips.

(5.) Clean cultivated slopes for weed control need to be strip cropped to cut down on excess soil and fertility loss through erosion and leaching.

Lapwai Here Friday Evening Orofino Coming February 6

Two good games are on the docket for Genesee fans and visitors, with Lapwai here this evening, Friday, and Orofino at Genesee February 6. Genesee lost to Lapwai at Lapwai 31-32 in a previous game, for one of the surprises of the current season, but then Lapwai later won from Grangeville, a club which worked Genesee into an overtime game here Jan. 20, a game won by Genesee 62-60. Lapwai and Genesee are certain to meet in the Second District tournament at Lewiston, so the game Friday night offers further comparison of contenders in the big tournament.

Genesee won from Orofino in two games already played this season, 61-29 in the Lewiston meeting, and 57-41 in a game at Orofino.

Temperatures Hit Toboggan Entire Country In Icy Grip

The Palouse country which has been basking in sunshine and getting a trifle damp at times, was caught in a cold wave, the same as the rest of the United States. Although not as cold as some places, Genesee felt below-zero weather, starting Saturday night and continuing until Thursday. Monday night was perhaps the coldest, with an unofficial deep-freeze coldness of around five degrees below zero. Some have reported 8 to 10 degrees below zero, which signifies that some areas are colder than others. The average reading for the coldest of the five-day period was somewhere around a minus 4 degrees.

At this time the Palouse hills of the Genesee area are without snow protection. Some experts say the winter wheat crop is being damaged by the cold wave. Others believe there is sufficient moisture to help winter grains pull through. It is true, however, that all fall-seeded grain was growing at the time the cold wave swept in, and the grain was tender.

Genesee Nips Kendrick Troy Defeats Reserves

Genesee high school Bulldogs, back on familiar grounds to meet Kendrick high school on its home floor Friday evening, experienced a tough race to the finish line with only three points to spare. It was a 43-40 win for the Genesee club, playing without Gehrke and Spuenger, both out because of illness.

The two teams drew up for a brief rest at the first quarter with the score 12-11 for Genesee. Two points separated the Bulldogs and Tigers at the half, 26-24 for Genesee. The ball game was locked in a tie at the third quarter 33-33. Genesee, scoring only 11 field goals to 17 for Kendrick, managed to win at the foul line. The Bulldogs hit for 21 points from the foul stripe, with 9 being made by Sather in his 14 tries. Kendrick converted on foul shots for 6 points.

With a knotted third-quarter score Genesee made only two field goals, one each by Sather and Jim Bennett. Sather made three foul points and Liberg and Bob Bennett, one each. Kendrick, on the other hand, hit three times from the field, twice by Thornton and once by Smith, and McCreary made one good from the foul line.

Smith for Kendrick, working at a forward spot, canned ten field goals for 20 points. Sather was high for the Bulldogs with 17 points, and the Bennetts, Bob and Jim were in second and third places with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Brenner Home Lost In Fire Owner Considers Rebuilding

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Jacob Brenner home in Uniontown Sunday. The blaze was first noticed at about 12:30 noon after it had spread in upstairs rooms where the fire originated. There will be some salvage, according to George Brenner, son of the owner. A few belongings, protected by being in dresser drawers or other furniture was not completely damaged. Timbers and some flooring on the first floor may be used in rebuilding, but otherwise the structure was a complete loss.

Mr. Brenner, 77, was at the Broemeling home next door, to get a Sunday paper when the fire was noticed. With the temperature around zero Uniontown firemen were handicapped for a few minutes, it was reported, but they kept the blaze under control despite the brisk east wind which carried embers across the street west to the Catholic church and the large fir trees in front of the church.

Mr. Brenner is the father of Mrs. H. P. Flerchinger of Genesee, with whom he has been staying since Monday. He spent Sunday afternoon and night with his son, J. K. Brenner.

The Genesee Fire Department was called for the fire Sunday by George Brenner, who wishes to extend his thanks to the men who responded with one of the trucks.

The third quarter saw Lapwai in command by 10 points, 40-30, but in the final spasm Genesee garnerned 24 points to Lapwai's 14, for the tie count and an overtime. Genesee lost Ochs and W. Jacobs in the closing minutes of play, but Lapwai had Reuben, Williams, Rickett, Scott and Greene gracing the player's bench before the game ended. They were there by virtue of five personals each.

For Genesee Johnson counted 12 points for first place. Other players and scores were: Stout 5, Liberg 11, Peterson 3, Swenson 10, Jenkins 2, Ochs 7, Jacobs 4, and D. Bennett 3. For Lapwai Davis 12, Reuben 8, Williams 2, Rickett 12, Mitchell 7, Scott 4, Jackson 4, Greene 11, Chapman 0.

Stalin's propaganda peddlers would never tell their Iron Curtain customers about the Independent telephone industry in the United States. They couldn't explain how 6,000 individual companies work together with the large systems to serve America's 42 million telephones.

That alone is reason enough why we're proud to be a part of the great free and Independent telephone industry.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather was unchanged until Thursday with rain and heavy winds taking off snow except the drifts on north slopes. Saturday night the weatherman decided to go along with government wage-price freeze, and freeze the weather to sub zero temperatures, Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights temperatures to 10 degrees below were reported in the Valley. It is not too good on the bare wheat fields, and it is hoped there won't be any more cold snaps on bare ground. We heard that Lewiston had many frozen water pipes to add to their worries. We send our thanks to Boise to the legislature for passing the two-term presidential bill. As far as we are concerned it could have been one term. This is Sauerkraut and Frankfurther week. Pretty good eating, both of them, as long as you live in America, but they would have to split the hot dogs in England with their vitamin-deficient ration of meat. We are lucky to live in the wide open spaces where there is lots of pasture for meat production.

the Railroads RESPECT...

the Labor Unions seek to REPUDIATE...

this agreement!

What is the TRUTH?

At various states in the present dispute with the brotherhoods of railroad operating employees . . . the railroads agreed to arbitrate. The union leaders refused.

. . . the railroads accepted the recommendations of President Truman's Emergency Board. The union leaders refused.

. . . the railroads accepted the White House proposal of August 19, 1950. The union leaders refused.

Finally an Agreement was signed at the White House on December 21, 1950. Now the union leaders seek to repudiate the Agreement.

The railroads stand ready to put the terms of this Agreement into effect immediately, with back pay at the rates and date indicated.

The Agreement is given in full below.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk to you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

EASTERN SOUTHEASTERN WESTERN RAILROADS

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Washington, D. C.
December 21, 1950

1. Establish 40 hour week for yardmen with increase of 23 cents effective October 1, 1950, and additional 2 cents effective January 1, 1951.

2. Set aside 40 hour week agreement until January 1, 1952, and establish 6 day work week for yardmen. Effective with the first pay roll period after 30 days from the date of execution of the formal agreement, yardmen required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be paid overtime rates except engineers who shall receive straight time rates for the 7th day. This does not create guarantees where they do not now exist. On and after October 1, 1951, three months' notice to be given of desire to go on 40 hour week. Provide for consideration of availability of manpower and 4 cents per hour if and when the 40 hour week actually becomes effective.

3. Settle rules for 40 hour week and 6 day week, such as daily earnings minimum, car retarder operators and footboard yardmasters as recommended by Emergency Board No. 81.

5. Settle following rules:
Initial Terminal Delay (Conductors and Trainmen)
Interdivisional Runs
Pooling Cabooses (Conductors and Trainmen)
Reporting for Duty
More than One Class of Service
Switching Limits
Air Hose (Conductors and Trainmen)
Western Differential and Double Header and Tonnage Limitation (Conductors and Trainmen, all Territories)

6. Road men to receive 5 cents per hour increase effective October 1, 1950 and additional 5 cents per hour increase effective January 1, 1951.

7. Quarterly adjustment of wages on basis of cost of living index (1 point to equal 1¢ per hour. First adjustment April 1, 1951. Base to be 176).

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.

9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate.

Effective February 1, 1951, overtime at time and one-half shall accrue after 220 hours have been worked. The basic monthly salary to be paid for the 205-hour month shall be the same as that now paid for the 225-hour month. Except that four dollars and ten cents ($4.10) shall be added to the present monthly rate effective January 1, 1951.

10. In consideration of above, this agreement to be effective until October 1, 1953, and thereafter until changed or modified under provisions of Railway Labor Act. Moratorium on proposals for changes in wages or rules until October 1, 1953, as follows:

No proposals for changes in rates of pay, rules or working conditions will be initiated or progressed by the employees against any carrier or by any carrier against its employees, parties hereto, within a period of three years from October 1, 1950, except such proposals for changes in rules or working conditions which may have been initiated prior to June 1, 1950. Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet with Doctor Steelman on or after July 1, 1952, to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified

they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote, the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote. ** ¶

11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.

The usual protections for arbitraries, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.

 The foregoing will not debar management and committees on individual railroads from mutually agreeing upon changes in rates, rules and working conditions of employees covered by this agreement.

Deary high school, host to the White Pine sub-district basketball tournament, Feb. 12 through Feb. 17, will have available for use its new, large gymnasium, capable of seating about 800 or more spectators. The floor is a trifle larger than that at Genesee high school.

Genesee, one of the five teams in the White Pine circuit, drew Elk River for its first game, to be played Monday evening, Feb. 12. Troy meets Potlatch the same evening, while the fifth team, Deary, drew a bye.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 13, the winner of the Genesee-Elk River game plays Deary. Loser of the Genesee-Elk River game plays loser of the Troy-Potlatch game, with the winner of the Troy-Potlatch game drawing a bye. The District Class A tournament is also being held at Lewiston on the above dates. Lewiston meets Moscow Wednesday evening, with Orofino getting the bye. There will be 11 schools participating in the Lewiston tournament, including the three Class A teams. Each team will receive $12 per day for lodging and $24 for meals. Included with each team is the coach and manager, or 12 persons in all. Genesee is planning to return home each night of the tournament.

Kenneth Primus will also be tournament manager of the Class A playoff at Moscow.

Idaho is divided into six districts, the same for both A and B classes. This year there will be two teams each from the fifth and sixth districts and one team each from the other four districts at the state Class B tournament. In the Class A tournament there will be two teams each from Districts 1 and 2 and one team each from the other districts.

Final Home Game Of Season Kendrick Here Friday Night

Kendrick versus Genesee means rivalry in high school circles "athletically" speaking. This fine dish of basketball for Friday evening will be served as the final course, sort of a dessert for the current season, as it's the final game for Genesee on the home court. Genesee wormed out of a tight spot at Kendrick Jan. 26 when the Tigers all but took the Bulldogs into their den. It was a 43-40 ball game, it is remembered, and if Genesee hadn't been fairly accurate on the foul line, the Tigers would have been picking their teeth after a meal of Bulldog meat.

Locals fans have seen Lapwai in two games and some have seen Kendrick in one game. The game here this evening should furnish some comparison of teams in the Valley circuit in which Kendrick and Lapwai abide. If Genesee gets by in the White Pine conference the Bulldogs may meet Kendrick or Lapwai at Lewiston in the district playoff.

Gary Sather Wins Hoop Shoot And A Free Trip To Seattle

Gary Sather, age 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sather, and a freshman in Genesee high school represented Genesee when 12 schools were in competition in basket shooting at Moscow Saturday afternoon at the university gym. Each boy was allowed 20 shots. Genesee, Kendrick, Troy and Deary made the best records of the 12 schools. Gary tied with Ronald Craig of Kendrick, last year's winner, both making 13 out of 20 shots.

In the evening at the half-time of the Oregon-Idaho basketball game each boy was given 10 shots for competition with three warm-up shots. Gary missed all three of his warm-up shots and his first two for score, then went straight for eight. The Kendrick boy made 5 out of 10; Troy, 5 out of 10 and Deary, 4 out of 10.

As reward Gary gets a free trip to Seattle with the Idaho Vandals who leave Feb. 14., to meet the University of Washington Friday and Saturday of next week.

Jim Sather, brother of this year's winner, and Wayne Borgen have represented Genesee before but lost out in the finals. Bob Bennett is a previous winner from Genesee and enjoyed a trip to Seattle with the Vandals.

The event is sponsored by the Moscow Idahonian.

Genesee Bees Win 2 Games Defeat Orofino And Lapwai

Genesee high school's Bee string, like the older Bulldogs, found Lapwai a strictly competitive customer last Friday evening. The Genesee club won 39 to 30. At the first quarter Genesee led, 8-6, made it 16-12 at the half and 27-23 at the third period. It was a game, well handled by Perry Williams and Ed Williams, officials, who also called the first-team game with a quick whistle and had complete charge of both games.

Genesee scored 18 field goals to 11 for Lapwai. From the foul line Genesee made good on 3 out of 14 tries while Lapwai had a higher percentage with 8 out of 15 foul shots.

Eggers topped the Lapwai boys on his 11 points. For Genesee Don Dennler was high with 11 points. Gary Sather made 4 points, Haxton 2, Lanphier 8, Erickson 0, Dave Dennler 1, Stout 0, Borgen 6, Kinzer 5, Eikum 2 and Anderson 0.

Orofino Dumped 43-14

Orofino's second team found the basket but three times in the entire game while playing the Genesee Bee club here Tuesday evening. Genesee coasted to a 43-14 win, having a 15-3 advantage at the first quarter, 23-8 at the half and 30-11 at the end of the third quarter. Jim Berry made two of Orofino's field goals and Clark made the other one.

For Genesee, using 12 men, Gary Sather was high with 8 points. Parks made 6, Krier 2, Don Dennler 7, Eikum 2, Stout 2, Lanphier 7, Dave Dennler 5, Magee 4, Anderson 0, Kinzer 0 and Borgen 0.

Pat Nunan At Fort Lewis Now Assigned To Ordnance

Pat Nunan, employed at the bank in Genesee, now in the army, is stationed at Fort Lewis. He writes:

"I will be stationed here at Fort Lewis for at least the next six weeks for basic training. I have been assigned to the 46th Ordnance Group, so unless the Korean situation becomes worse rapidly I am out of the infantry. We start basic tomorrow, Jan. 30, which may change my views on army life considerably. I took an OCS test but haven't heard how I came out on it yet. It didn't amount to more than a knowledge of high school subjects. On the basis of aptitude tests given us, I was recommeneded for a cryptograph school. That would lead to detecting, analyzing and decoding communications. I certainly hope I get the chance to go to school, but that will depend very much on the status of the present crisis at the time we complete basic.

"Heard you were having near-zero weather there. It isn't that cold here yet, but we are having temperatures from 10 to 15 degrees above. It is a very moist cold and makes it seem much colder.

"Would like to have you send my paper to this address: Pvt. Patrick J. Nunan, US 56-089-813, 24th Ordnance M. M. Co., Fort Lewis, Wash."

Mrs. Frank Wilson Recovering From Car Accident Injuries

Mrs. Frank Wilson, who has been in a cast for nine weeks, will soon be relieved of it, as the fractured vertebra suffered when the Wilson car left the road to avoid a head-on collision with a car and trailer Nov. 30, is healing nicely As a substitute for the cast there will be back brace, ordered some time ago and which is expected here today. It is not known how long she will have to wear the brace.

On the night of the accident Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were enroute to Lewiston when they met a car and trailer near the highway junction, which was having difficulty remaining on the right side of the road. Mr. Wilson sustained numerous minor injuries, and Mrs. Wilson suffered bruises and shock. She was taken to the Gritman hospital and after a few days was placed in the cast. She returned home Dec. 17, to remain in bed until the last of December when she was permitted to move about her home, and even ventured down town on one occasion. Since returning from the hospital Mrs. Wilson suffered two attacks of influenza which retarded her recovery somewhat.

Bulldogs Win 3 Games Lapwai Real Opponent

Genesee high school Bulldogs were unable to buy, beg or steal a basket in the first five minutes of their game with Lapwai high school here last Friday evening, and looked at a 10-5 lead for the visitors at the first quarter. For the first four and a half minutes Lapwai was unable to hit the hoop, but hit six times from the foul line and managed to connect twice from the field. Genesee's first five points came on a field goal each by Jim Bennett and Jim Sather, and a foul toss by Bennett.

Lapwai picked up seven additional points in the second quarter for a total of 17 at the half. Genesee, with 11 points in the second quarter, drew to one point of a 17-16 tie. Rabdau hit for two field shots, and Gehrke, Sather and Jim Bennett made one each with Sather good for one foul shot.

Genesee came back in the third period to score 12 points on three field goals by Jim Bennett, two by Gehrke and one by Bob Bennett, to gain a two-point margin, 28-26.

Monks for Lapwai, playing a nice game on offense and defense, kept his team in the running in the third quarter with 7 points, after making 7 points in the first half.

In the final period Genesee scored 16 points to Lapwai's 12, which provided a 44-38 win for the Bulldogs.

Lapwai, furnishing the toughest Class B competition the Genesee club has had this season racked up 14 field goals to 18 for Genesee, with Monks getting 18 points.

Rabdau scored 4 points in the last quarter for a total of 8. Gehrke sent up a two-pointer for a total of 8. Sather scored 7 points in the last period to bring his total to 10 points. Jim Bennett, high-point man, added 8 points for a total of 14, and Bob Bennett scored 4 points. Liberg and Myers, only other men in action for the Bulldogs did not score.

Grangeville Loses 38-53

Gather around boys and girls and listen to this: Genesee scored but one lone point in the first quarter of its game with Grangeville at Grangeville Saturday night. Jim Bennett was sent to the foul line after the buzzer had sounded and he made the foul shot which kept the Bulldogs from having a "goose egg."

Genesee couldn't tromp in a field goal with their feet if they had been standing on the hoop and the ball had been handed to them, yet the Bulldogs raced to a decisive 53-38 win over Grangeville.

Genesee scored 17 points in the second quarter, but there were only 4 field goals, one each by Rabdau, Gehrke, Sather and Nelson. Sather converted on four foul shots, Jim Bennett three and Myers and Bob Bennett 1 each.

Grangeville scored 12 points in the second period which gave that team a 22-18 lead at the half.

Genesee "souped up" for the third stanza to score 13 points on one field goal each by Rabdau, Liberg, Sather, Jim Bennett and Bob Bennett, with Rabdau hitting once from the foul line and Bennett making good on two gift tosses.

Grangeville found its basket well plugged in the third quarter, and managed to score but three points, all on foul shots.

Twenty-two points went to Genesee in the final quarter and Grangeville scored 13 points. For the Genesee Bulldogs Liberg hit for 5 points, Gehrke 4, Nelson 2, Sather 6, Jim Bennett 2, Nordby 2 and Parks 1. Parks moved up to the first squad owing to illness of Jim Sprenger.

Sather was high for Genesee with 14 points and Jim Bennett was in second place with 10 points. For Grangeville Johnson made 11 points, and Hosley who was so hot on the foul line in a game at Genesee tied with Bowles for 8 points each.

Orofino Loses 21 To 63

Coach Hammond used all of his first team Bulldogs against Orofino Tuesday night in a game played here but couldn't find a combination that would permit the visitors to show up in the scoring. The Maniacs located the basket for only one field goal in the first half, and a foul shot comprised the total scoring for the initial eight minutes. Genesee barged to a 13-point score with Jim Sprenger hitting for three field goals, and one each by Gehrke, Sather and Jim Bennett. Bennett made the score uneven with his foul toss.

Orofino found another five points in the second period, but Genesee picked up 17 points on two field goals each by Sather and Jim Bennett, one field goal each by Gehrke and Nelson. Gehrke and Jim Bennett made two each from the foul line and Sather made one.

Orofino made 9 points in the third quarter, but Genesee made 19. Myers for Genesee went up for three field goals and Jim Sather 2 field goals. Rabdau, Gehrke, Liberg and Bob Bennett made one field goal each and Jim Bennett made good on a foul shot.

Orofino scored only 4 points in the final quarter while the Bulldogs hit for 14 points for a total of 63 points to 21 for the Maniacs. In the final period Myers and Liberg each scored two field goals and it was one each for Rabdau, Nordby and Nelson. Jim Sprenger saw little action owing to having just returned to the lineup after being ill and also recovering from a foot injury.

Gilmer for Orofino, who scored 10 points, was the only familiar player from last year's state championship team. He scored four of the six field goals for his club.

Genesee played some brilliant ball at times, especially during the third quarter. It was a rather listless engagement, somewhat like a dreary rainy summer night with occasionaly flashes of lightning. Coach Hammond worked his boys easily, giving them all a chance.

In scoring Sather made 11 points. Myers, coming along fine and working as a center, tied with Jim Bennett for second-high scorer with 10 points. Gehrke twisted in a couple fine shots and scored a total of 8. Rabdau made 4, Nordby 2, Nelson 4, Liberg 6, Sprenger 6 and Bob Bennett 2. Genesee sent up 28 field goals to 6 for Orofino. Orofino committed only 8 fouls and Genesee kept its fouls to 16. Not a single man went out of the game on personals.

Genesee Takes Asotin 46-27 Could Tie For Third Place

Genesee's town team, meeting Uniontown this Thursday evening for its final regular game of the season can go into a three-club tie for third spot in the Valley Division of the Lewis-Clark league. Genesee and Uniontown are replaying a game called by darkness when lights went off here during a severe windstorm. Genesee won from Uniontown 66-56 on Jan. 25.

Genesee moved into position for a possible chance to play in the tournament when it defeated Asotin 46-27 Feb. 1. The Valley Division will send four teams to the tournament to be played at Lapwai. The Prairie Division sends five teams and the City league sends three teams.

Asotin now leads the division with Culdesac in second place. Lapwai and Kendrick are tied for third place and Genesee, with a win over Uniontown can tie with Kendrick and Lapwai and Kendrick, necessitating a play-off with Kendrick, as Lapwai is conceded a berth in tournament play by being host club.

Asotin Humbled

Asotin, ruling the roost in the Valley Division, was humbled Feb. 1 when Genesee took a 46-27 game from the Washington players. Genesee was out front 13-2 at the first quarter and had a 27-9 lead at the half. At the third quarter Genesee had piled up 41 points to 21 for Asotin. In a previous game Asotin won from Genesee 34 to 31.

Anderson, who manages the town team, used ten men in the Asotin game when Don Bennett scored 9 points, Don Johnson 8, R. Stout 5, Hasfurther 2, Semmes 0, Peterson 6, Swenson 6, Jenkins 0, Ochs 7, and W. Jacobs 3. High man for Asotin was Maiers with 5 points.

Error On Trotterettes

The News writer isn't qualified to handle sports. He doesn't know a Moose from a Trotterette. Fine guy to send out for a Moose. It happened this way: The Genesee town club played the traveling Globe Trotterettes, and won 50-36. The score book sheets were turned to the wrong place and the Moscow Moose game was reported as the Trotterette game. In correction the Genesee town team won from the traveling colored women's club 50-36. Those in the game for Genesee and their scoring: J. Jacobs 2, Stout 8, Hasfurther 8, Semmes 2, Liberg 8, Peterson 0, Swenson 6, Jenkins 10, Ochs 2, W. Jacobs 12, Johnson 0, Bennett 0.

Frank "Cougar" Jones Dies On Hunting Trip

Funeral services will be conducted at Short's Chapel in Moscow Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for Frank B. Jones of Moscow, who until a few years ago was a resident of Lenville community near Genesee.

Frank Jones was born at North Platte, Neb., and would have been 69 years of age in March. He came to the Lenville community at the age of three years with his parents, and resided there until about four years ago when he and Mrs. Jones moved to Moscow.

"Cougar" Jones as he was well known throughout central and northern Idaho, died Wednesday from a heart attack while on a cougar hunting trip 35 miles east of Grangeville. He was in company with his sons, Don and Glenn, Louis Olson of Genesee and Merle Williams of Tekoa.

According to a report from Grangeville Frank Jones and son, Glenn left the camp together and went several miles along a creek seeking cougar tracks. About 1:30 p. m. the elder Jones announced to his son that he was feeling tired and started back to camp alone.

Jones walked until he arrived at a Potlatch Forests, Inc., log-loading zone about 16 miles east of Grangeville. There he asked a truck driver, Howard Spets for a ride toward the Jones camp. Spets told Deputy Sheriff Dick Seay of Idaho county that when he agreed to take Jones with him, Jones got into the cab of the truck and waited while Spets completed loading his truck. Spets said he climbed into the cab of his truck and noticed that Jones was slumped in a corner with his hat over his eyes.

Spets said he concluded the man was resting and did not disturb him until he had driven four miles and reached a place where Jones wished to go afoot again. When Spets attempted to rouse Jones he found he was dead.

Spets then drove to PFI camp 58, 16 miles farther east and notified the sheriff's office at Grangeville. Deputy Seay went to the scene and returned with the body to the Robertson Funeral Home. An examination, Coroner Jess Robertson said, revealed Jones had died of a heart attack.

Other members of the hunting party came to Genesee after learning of Mr. Jones' death. They arrived home about 11 p. m. Wednesday. The body was shipped to Short's Funeral Home at Moscow.

The trip made to the Grangeville area was the third major cougar hunting expedition Mr. Jones participated in this winter. He recently counted up the number of cougar taken by hunting parties of which he was a member at between 75 and 80. A veteran big game and "cat" hunter, Jones remarked only two weeks ago that he was unable to keep up with younger men.

He was married to Nellie Young in 1908, and besides his widow he is survived by two sons, Don and Glenn of Genesee; two daughters, Mrs. Orlan Hannah of Spokane and Mrs. Donald Dunning of Shelton, Wash., and by five grandchildren.

Mr. Jones farmed extensively in the Lenville area before he retired to live in Moscow.

Three Ducks Hatch Early

Mrs. H. B. Jones who has raised ducks for about 30 years said Thursday she had just witnessed the unusual, three newly-hatched Muscovy ducks which emerged from their shells February 8. Thirty-five days is the time required for duck eggs to hatch, accordinig to Mrs. Jones, and usually the first ducklings appear around May 1. The hen duck is still setting on other unhatched eggs.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have had a variety of weather again, one snow that made a few drifts, but not cold like last week. There is still some flu but no new cases of mumps. This is Boy Scout Week and we salute them and the leaders who give so generously of their time to train the boys in good American ways. We would diagnose the unnamed railroad sickness, as "Chronic Un-Americanitis," and suggest as a cure, a free trip to a rest camp in Russia for the union leaders and a hitch at the front line in Korea for those who refuse to work in a time of crisis. They might forget about 48 hours' pay for 40 hours' work over there. The unions have done a lot for the working man and could be a useful means of helping them but they are carrying things too far and are liable to lose all they have gained.

Lenten Thought

Another year has rolled around and finds us entering the Lenten season this week, when Christians receive the call to prayer and meditation. The problems of the world today are overwhelming and they prove that human resources are inadequate. It is said that "Man's extremity is God's opportunity," and Christians should join in a daily fellowship of prayer. Let us pour out a great volume of prayer for the leaders of our country and the other countries of the world that they may be guided by God in their leadership. Let us pray for those who are making sacrifices of life and of service that they may feel Christ's presence very near to them. Let us pray for missionaries and Christian leaders in war-torn lands that God will give them wisdom and courage to do His will. Let us prayer for ourselves that the desire to comfort and help others will be instilled in our hearts. Let us pray that the glory of our Heavenly Father may shine thru a confused world and bring peace in His own good time. "Love thy neighbor as thyself," means to pray for others as much as for yourself.

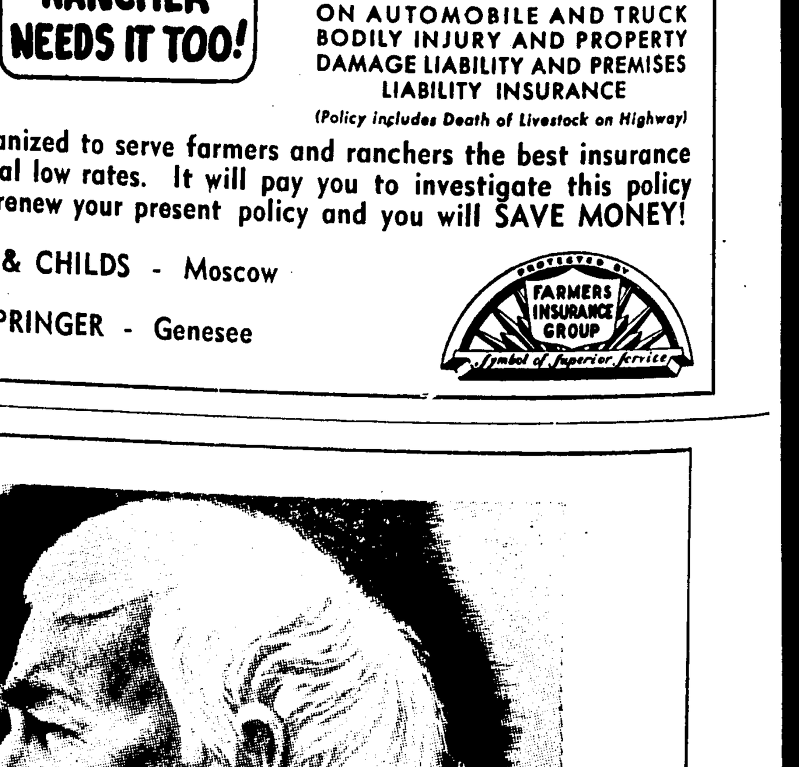
"THERE IS FAR MORE DANGER

in public monopoly than there is in private monopoly, for when the government goes into business it can always shift its losses to the taxpayers. If it goes into the power business it can pretend to sell cheap power and then cover up its losses.

"The government never really goes into business, for it never makes ends meet. And that is the first requisite of business. It just mixes a little business with a lot of politics and no one ever gets a chance to find out what is actually going on. I feel so strongly on the government keeping out of business that if I had my way . . . all the government should have is an efficient inspection bureau."



—THOMAS A. EDISON

EDISON was more than a great scientist and inventor—he was a great American citizen, revered for his wise understanding of the ways of men . . . and the quotation above clearly expresses his deep distrust of public ownership.

"B" Tournament City May Not Be Pocatello

Genesee high school Bulldogs who ...ve the hurdles of the Second District basketball tournament at Lewiston staring them in the face are concerned about the state Class B tournament, the same as other schools of the area. Scheduled for Pocatello the Idaho high school interscholastic activities association, as represented by Homer Williams of Grace is following the policy of charging radio stations for broadcasts. Williams has said $25 a game is suggested because Class A tournaments are used to make up deficits in Class B deficits.

The Pocatello radio station through Jon Burden, its commercial manager, said the charges would make the radio broadcasts prohibitive. This applies also to stations at Idaho Falls, Caldwell and Nampa.

E. F. Grider, executive secretary of the Idaho high school interscholastic activities association has said the tournament committee had adopted a policy that tournament games could be broadcast without charge if radio stations did it as a public service with no commercials. Otherwise, the tournament committee felt that a $25 charge was a reasonable fee.

The state association is sponsoring the tournament. Only the facilities are being made available by the Pocatello school board, Grider is reported to have stated.

Primus Not Notified

Kenneth Primus, Genesee, manager of the Second District tournament at Lewiston and the Class A tournament at Moscow, is a member of the state board of control for high school athletics. Thursday afternoon he said a call was expected from Mr. Grider on disposition of the Pocatello matter. It is certain the tournament cannot be moved to Lewiston, which is the only city in the state which had come near meeting expenses of teams participating. The tournament was held in Lewiston last year and goes to southern Idaho this year. Primus rather hopes the tournament may be moved to Boise, an opinion shared by local basketball fans, the players and others who would like to attend one or more of the sessions should Genesee draw a berth in the state Class B playoff. Primus also said Idaho Falls was being considered by the state board for the Class B tournament.

Idaho Class A and Class B tournaments are dated for March 14 to 17, the former at Moscow.

The Second District tournament, in which Genesee is an entry starts Feb. 26 and ends March 3 at Lewiston. If Genesee takes first place in the White Pine sub-district, and it should, the Bulldogs will be playing the No. 2 team from the Prairie circuit. in the first game the evening of Feb. 26 at 7 o'clock.

Mary Currin In NICE Choir Tour Is Planned For Group

Lewiston—Northern Idaho College of Education's 45-member choir will conduct a statewide tour starting Feb. 19 at Orofino high school. The southern swing of the choir will include 16 appearances and end Feb. 28 at Weiser high school. The second part of the tour will include 10 appearances before northern Idaho and eastern Washington audiences beginning April 1 and ending April 4.

Grant E. Mathews, head of the music department at NICE, has arranged a program to appeal to all ages and musical tastes. Numbers vary from the 'Lesser Doxology" to the ever-popular "Deaf Old Woman," in the lighter vein.

Wow! What a basketball team this village has got! Seems like the best high school team these two eyes have seen for years (and I formerly lived at Orofino.) Congratulations to a fine group of boys and a great coach for the job they are doing.

Blood Bank Campaign Lacks Interest Locally

Response to the plea for blood donations at Genesee is lacking to such extent that it may be difficult to obtain a sufficient number of donors to fill the quota assigned this community. It was proposed a few weeks ago that Genesee people attempt to sign up for a special visit here of the Idaho Red Cross Mobile Unit. Such a visit would require 200 pints of blood, one pint per person

Today Red Cross workers are attempting to sign up 40 or more persons who will donate a pint of blood at Moscow when the Mobile Unit is there on February 20, 21 and 22. So many are reluctant to supply blood, it is understood, that Latah county may fail to make its quota of 600 pints of blood for the three-day visit at Moscow. It has also been reported that the most satisfactory response to the plea for blood has come from Kendrick where the number of donors may reach 200.

Leo Heppner left Thursday for Maryland where he has a position at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds in the photographic measurements laboratory as a physicist, under Civil Service. Leo graduated from the University of Idaho in 1948, receiving his BS degree in physics, after which he continued his studies in physics and mathematics at the University of Washington for a year and a half.

A farewell dinner was given Sunday for Leo by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heppner. With a background as a physics major at Idaho and having taken post-graduate work at the University of Seattle, in addition to a course in photography and acting as instructor in photographic subjects at Madigan Hospital near Tacoma, under government sponsorship, he selected the opening at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Parsons, Magee, Schooler Return From Sunny South

Earl Parsons, Fred Magee and Chas. Schooler returned from southern California Monday evening. Parsons and Magee left here January 16, going by way of Boise and Reno to Los Angeles and later locating Schooler who left here January 3 for Long Beach. They also contacted Ray Edwards who is sojourning in southern California this winter. The four were together much of the time, with one excursion taking them to Imperial Valley and down to Old Mexico at Mexicalli. They also spent a couple Sundays at Tiajuana.

They visited in San Diego at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray. Parsons, Magee and Schooler headquartered at San Diego for about a week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edwards are visiting their son, Levern, and Mrs. Edwards' brother, Jess Gray, both at Los Angeles, and with her brother, Chas. Gray, and wife at San Diego.

Mrs. Pearle Carter who was accompanied to California by her father, Chas. Schooler, is now employed in the offices at March Field near Riverside. She was with the airforce in Japan, and the work she is now doing also comes under Civil Service.

Enroute south Mrs. Carter and her father visited three days with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fields at Sacramento, and in San Francisco Mrs. Carter had an enjoyable three-day visit with Mrs. Chas. Bennett, a former Civil Service employee of the army in Japan. Mr. Bennett, in the army, suffered injuries while in action in Korea, and is now convalescing at the hospital at The Presidio.

At Long Beach Mrs. Carter and Mr. Schooler visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lent, and while there the latter called on Miss Margaret Magee, former Genesee resident.

After giving southern California a good looking over, Parsons, Magee and Schooler headed north to San Francisco, and through the Redwoods to Crescent City, and on to Grants Pass, Ore. They encountered rain in northern California, but weather was warm and dry while they were in the southern part of California.

The four men took in a few races at Santa Anita and in Tiajuana, and were joined at times by Chas. Gray.

Genesee Bulldogs Win Place In Tournament

Genesee high school Bulldogs assured themselves of a berth in the Second District basketball tournament to be held at Lewiston Feb. 26, 27 and 28 and March 1, 2 and 3, when they let the Troy Trojans down with a 52-38 defeat at the sub-district tournament at Deary Wednesday evening. The Genesee club won in previous games from Elk River and Deary. In games played Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Deary and Potlatch have been eliminated. Frost-Softened Highways Causes Load Restrictions

Zero weather, which prevailed late in January and early February, although of short duration, about five days, has caused roads in the Genesee-Rimrock Highway District to soften up when temperatures suddenly became warmer. Deep ruts have been cut in roads in all highway districts and load limits have become necessary for state highways. The local highway in placing load restrictions asks road users to confine hauling to absolute necessities and keep within the posted limits.

Smith Family In Germany Witness Bavarian Ski Jump

Sgt. Herbert Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith of Genesee, who has been in Germany for almost two years and residing at Bremerhaven with his wife and children Charlotte, Starweista and Dwight, wrote the following of a recent trip to Baviria:

"Edie (Mrs. Smith) and I took the whole family to a mountain resort in Bavaria the week of Jan 14 through Jan. 20. The mountains were a glorious sight after living in these flat lands for almost two years. We had two very nice connecting compartments on the train with two lowers and two upper berts. Charlotte and I had the uppers while Star had one of the lowers and Edie and Dwight had the other one. We left Bremerhaven in the evening and arrived in Frankfurt the next morning at 7 a. m., when we changed trains. With my hands full of luggage and Edie carrying Dwight, I started to run off and leave Star in the railroad station until Edie said, 'Well, get Star.' The conductor had her and she didn't seem to mind staying with him at all. It was raining so hard down through the bomb-shattered roof which has never been repaired since the war ended.

"When we arrived at Garmish, the town at the foothills of the Bavarian Alps, we started gathering up all the luggage and before we could even get off of the silly train, it started pulling off with us. It made me so mad I felt like pulling the emergency ripcord to stop the ungrateful engineer. He finally stopped way out in the sticks somewhere and we had to get a taxi to get back to town. To make things more lovely it had to be pouring down rain. We finally arrived at our mountain retreat hotel, which is situated on the highest lake in Germany, three or four thousand feet (I think). It took our bus about an hour much of it in compound low, in order to make the steep climb up the snow-capped mountain grade.

"The international sports week was on the same week we were there but the weather was absolutely terrible. If it wasn't pouring down rain there was a blizzard of snow. I think in the whole week we were there we had three hours of good weather. We only went out for one of the sports events which was the night ski jumps. The best tickets I could buy didn't get us out of the downpour of rain. Even though we were both soaked we enjoyed the jumps immensely. To come off such a high place and land on such a steep slope down below a man must have nerves of steel. So graceful and so smoothly executed as they sail through the air with those two slats of boards on the bottom of their feet. When the first one came off of that precipice both of our hearts stood still. It's unbelieveable how a human being can perform such a feat. There is only one way I would ever come off the end of that death runway and that is with a parachute. We were located right at the start of the jump and when they went by us you could only see a blur and hear a swish. Their bodies, so stiff, as they leaned forward into the air with their arms straight out in front of them, made them look like statues. When they hit the lightning runway they were flexible as foam rubber. We saw at least 20 fly without wings and not one was seen to spill when he hit.

"Not considering the weather and the children the trip was really beautiful."

Pipe Pulp Smell To Hill Top Aim Of A Lewiston Doctor

Lewistonians, especially a Dr. Eastwood, who suggest piping the odor of the pulp and paper mill of Lewiston to the top of the hill, have come up with a "scientific" means of disposing of the smell, Doc Eastwood may be a wizard in disguise, so people atop the hill have a suggestion for him, and that is to change his name to "Eastwind," become a "big blow" and purify the banana belt by dissipating the fumes over the Pacific. Betcha he can't do it. Should he be successful in piping the smell up the hill, why can't the "Doc" be more generous and give us the pulp plant.

Mervyn Advance Man

W. H. Mervyn of Lewiston, formerly of the Genesee area, was here Tuesday on business. You guessed it. He was looking for a feasible location for the Doc Eastwood pipeline, and his findings are discouraging for Rimrockers. He selected as a location for the pipeline, the easy grade up Hatwai canyon, with the outlet on the Roy Evans place. Bill surveyed the pipeline location without the use of instruments, making calculations on the inside of a paper matchbook. It was an open-and-closed proposition, so to speak. Evans will be contacted for a right-of-way soon, unless East wind decides to forego the formalities, and starts piping at once.

Blue Wins This "Hunt"

Cappy Miller's coon dogs—except for one of them, Old Blue—are about the finest hounds in the county. Blue's too friendly and easy-going to care much about hunting. He doesn't act the way we think a good dog should, so we figured he'd never amount to much.

But a fellow comes around Saturday looking for a good dog to photograph for some advertising. And the dog he picks is Blue! Says Blue's happy, friendly face is just the one to attract people's attention. So Cappy gets more money for that picture than his other dogs will ever take in hunt prizes.

From where I sit, that should teach us not to look down on humans, when they act differently than we think they should. For instance, maybe you think ten goes best with food. O.K.—but don't size up wrong the man who enjoys a bottle of beer at mealtime.

Like Blue, I guess we're all "different" in one way or another—but that doesn't mean we don't have our good points, too!

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Those planets that mixed the other day must have made some commotion in the skies the way the water came down for a few days. Sidetoads are getting soft and it is hard to travel in some places. The snow is gone now, robins are here and maybe spring is just around the corner. This month is famous for birthdays and special days. Ash Wednesday, World Day of Prayer, Lincoln's birthday, Valentine Day, Washington's birthday, etc. Lincoln said, "Nowhere in the world is presented a government of so much liberty and equality, and this government must be preserved in spite of the acts of any man, or set of men. This country with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it." "I know that the Lord is always on the side of right and it is my constant anxiety and prayer that I and this nation should be on the Lord's side. For 30 years I have been a temperance man, and I am too old to change." It would be a fine thing for our country if we had more Abe Lincolns in government places today. We are in favor of sending wheat to India if the people of that country get it but if it is just a roundabout way to China—mix. Residents of this area who are interested in the state accepting the 2,000-acre tract on Moscow mountain with its skyline drive, a free gift from Virgil McCroskey, with a promise of 10 or more years of maintenance, if necessary, should write to our solons at Boise and urge them to vote for acceptance. Getting something free is a novelty these times and the ground is the last frontier in this area—a picnic ground away from crowds, a game preserve—a fine gesture on Mr. McCroskey's part and we hope the state will accept it for future generations to enjoy.

Lenten Thought

Prayer is the mightiest force in the world. While there is still a world to save, we cannot delay for any length of time, using the force of prayer. We must pray now. If we do not pray, we do no prayer of man that moves God more than in the time of severe need. Gone then is our pride and selfish desire and in its place is humility which makes us willing to take God's way for our lives. It may be a desperate humility but it opens the gates to His power. "Nothing is beyond the reach of prayer, except that which lies outside the will of God." In humbling ourselves before God, He gives us the peace that passes all understanding.

Anniversary Banquet

After the dinner games and cards will be indulged in. Star Lodge is placing special emphasis on its anniversary of the founding of the order in 1864, and urge all members to attend in view of present conditions being somewhat similar to those prevailing when the order was instituted.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION NEARS COMPLETION

Rapid extension of electric lines in rural areas during 1949 and 1950 has brought the goal of complete rural electrification close to realization, according to figures compiled by the Edison Electric Institute.

By the end of 1950, an estimated 90% of farm dwellings of the nation had been electrified, and 95% of rural non-farm dwellings had electric service available (the rural non-farm classification includes dwellings in communities of less than 2500 population). The total percentage of both farm and non-farm rural dwellings wired for electricity had increased from 86% at the end of 1948 to an estimated 93% on December 30, 1950. The small group of rural dwellings (only 7%) not yet reached by electric lines is just about the same in number as that to which electricity was made available in the past two years. Largely, the remaining non-electrified rural dwellings are in very sparsely populated areas geographically isolated from sources of power

The state of Washington had more than 96% of its rural dwellings electrified by the end of 1949, and Idaho had completed electrification of nearly 98%. Additional rural line extensions were made during 1950 in both states, bringing rural electrification very close to 100%

Business Managed Electric Companies Serve Vast Majority

Latest authoritative figures indicate that business managed electric companies serve some 80% of electrified rural dwellings, REA cooperatives 18%, and various municipal and other governmental agencies about 2%

W.W.P. a Pioneer in Rural Field and Continues Line Extensions

Shortly after the turn of the century, the Washington Water Power Company extended service to several Inland Empire rural communities, and has continued extensions of rural lines ever since. During the two-year period 1949-50, W.W.P. completed lines into remote mountain country in northern Idaho. Only a small fraction of the rural population in the W.W.P. service area remains without the facilities for modern living at low cost made possible by electricity.

Genesee Trio On Research Compare Smog To Pulp Odor

Earl Parsons and Fred Magee were sent to California, it is reported, to study smog conditions at Los Angeles and compare it with the smelly condition in the bannana belt below Genesee. They consulted Ray Edwards who had been contacted by Bob Broemeling, asking for a machine that would plow down the Lewiston odor should it become thick enough in the Rimrock area. While conducting their research, Parsons, Magee and Edwards went into a huddle with Charles Schooler, who has invented several machines and has ideas for more. The four turned southern California, presumably to further their study of a piece of equipment for Broemeling. At Santa Anita near Los Angeles they viewed the beautiful flowers and foliage which seems to thrive under smog conditions. The three men who have returned to Genesee refuse to divulge their findings, except to state that a racing track similar to Santa Anita with its flowers and foliage should be promoted for Lewiston. The track, it has been reported, could also be used for horse racing.

Craigmont Vs. Genesee In District Tournament Monday Evening At 7

Genesee basketball fans increase in number when the district tournament time rolls around. This season's district finals starts Monday afternoon and ends Saturday night at Northern Idaho College of Education gymnasium. All participants have a week of rest after clashing for the district title, and the opportunity to place in the state tournament. Genesee Bulldogs gate tournament again after a year's absence, but be back in the tournament again next week, starting Monday evening, giving their best to repeat their performance of last year, except that only one team will represent the district in the state playoffs. Last year Orofino and Genesee represented the Second District, hotbed of basketball in Class B competition, and it must be remembered that the central Idaho district has been rather dominating the picture in recent years, proving that competition in these parts is keen. Tournament play at Lewiston, starting Monday will not be a push-over for any of the clubs, and there always that chance of some dub club being really hot.

Genesee has met four of the teams entered in tournament play, Lapwai, Kendrick, Grangeville and Elk River, the latter being the companion club to Genesee from the White Pine circuit and a runner-up from the district tourney scheduled at Deary last Saturday. The Genesee Bulldogs lost by one point to Lapwai, but came back to win a return engagement by six points. Genesee won both the games from Kendrick and won two from Grangeville, but it took two overtime periods for Genesee to win the first one from the Prairie boys.

Genesee Plays Craigmont

Kenneth Priums, tournament manager announces that Craigmont will meet Genesee for the first game Monday afternoon with Grangeville meeting Weippe in the second afternoon game. Genesee, first-place team winners combined meeting winners and losers meetings losers until each club has dropped two games.

Members of the Genesee high school club appear to be in good condition. The cheer leaders, Misses Heinrich, Rabdau and Moser are ready, and certainly the parents of players and a fine bunch of local fans are practically standing before the closed doors of NICE gym, ready for the game to start Monday evening at 7.

Wheat Condition Uncertain Too Early To Decide Damage

Fall-seeded wheat which attained unusual growth and continued to grow until the "cold snap" a few weeks ago is today a topic for discussion as to damage by winter kill. Reports vary from expected spotted losses to serious damage, yet there are some who believe damage is slight owing to the ample moisture in fields during the low temperature period. Generally, it's a guess as to condition of fall-seeded grain, although in some fields the plants are becoming green again after being browned by the freeze.

Wheat in the Palouse country went into the cold weather without benefit of snow covering, although later while ground was thawing a light snow which fell may have aided in drawing frost more gradually and thereby saving crops from serious damage. As one man said today, it's too early to estimate the damage, if any.

Local News

Francis Fisher of Craigmont was an overnight visitor Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Woodruff.

Perry Shirrod of Clarkston was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Lewiston Wednesday of last week where he is receiving medical care.

Genesee First-Round Winner At AAU Meet

Genesee's town basketball team was a first-round winner in the AAU playoff at Lapwai Sunday afternoon, taking the highly praised Albertson club of Lewiston 62 to 45. The Lewiston club took a somewhat depressing lead over Genesee in the first few minutes of the game, but after a time-out with their Coach, Kenneth Anderson, the Genesee club picked up points rapidly to post a 9-12 count at the first quarter, with the Lewiston club on the long end. Genesee wrapped up 15 points in the second quarter for a 24-19 count, with Albertson's having the deficit. Only two points separated the two clubs at the third quarter, 36-34 for Genesee, but with Genesee's 10 points in the final quarter, good for a total of 51, Albertson's fell far behind on the 5 points scored by the Lewiston basketeers whose grand total was 39, a count which cast the Albertson club into the loss column. Genesee, with three players in on the final quarter was checked all over the floor, but rather than attempt a shell drill, broke past the defense for three quick field goals.

Genesee is now playing with two men from Kendrick, Easterbrook and Millard. Two Genesee men, Johnson and Swenson have reported for naval training, and rules permit selection of replacements to bring the club roster to full strength. Easterbrook and Liberg warmed up the hoop with 11 points each, and Millard hit for 9 points. Don Bennett made 4 points, Stout 5, Anderson 5, Jenkins 0, Ochs 7 and Jacobs 5.

Cargill, Albertson ace, was pretty well covered during the game, but he hit for 13 points. Triggs made 6, Birdsell 8, D. Beach 6, J. Becker 4, T. Becker 2, and Bergstrom 0.

It's Lapwai Thursday Night

Genesee, winner over Lapwai twice this season, with both games decided in overtime periods, tangle this Thursday evening in a crucial engagement for both. The loser leaves the tournament. Winner of the Genesee-Lapwai game will meet the winner of the Asotin-Craigmont game Friday night. The championship game will be run off at Lapwai Saturday night.

Morkens Scan Legislature And Drive Into California

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moroken returned Tuesday evening from a ten-day motor trip into which they crowded a busy four days looking over Boise, attending legislative sessions, the Lincoln Day banquet, and other gatherings, and included a trip to California. They left Genesee Sunday, Feb. 11, and after the visit in Boise they stopped a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strate at Caldwell. Mr. and Mrs. Strate formerly lived in the Genesee Valley, and they send greetings to friends here.

Traveling through Nevada, they went west into California to Santa Rosa and turned north to take the coast route or Highway No. 1 to near Cummings, then to Highway 101 to Portland. Their last night away from home was spent with friends in Pendleton.

In Boise they were guests of Rep. and Mrs. Elvon Hampton, who, with their three children, have comfortable apartments during the legislative sessions at Boise Hills Village. At the Lincoln Day banquet the visitors and their hosts were among the 900 or more present to hear U. S. Senator Everett Dirkson of Illinois, who, the Morkens said, was an excellent speaker and was enthusiastically received by his audience. Among those from the Latah county in Boise to attend the Lincoln Day affairs were Mrs. Doyle Loehr, Mrs. Irving Jolley and Abe Goff of Moscow. Mrs. Morken also attended a republican women's tea with Mrs. Hampton and a luncheon for the League of Women Voters with Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Kenneth Dean. The latter with her husband Dean. The latter, with her husband and two sons of Sandpoint, are in Boise during the legislative session. The Morkens also visited Rep. and Mrs. W. L. Mills, and said that from all reports, Mills was doing a fine job as speaker of the house.

While Mr. and Mrs. Morken were away the former's sister, Mrs. Ricka Nicholas, of Parkland, Wash., was with the Morken family here.

Outcome PUD-SEC Meeting Could Affect Northern Idaho

Northern Idaho could be seriously affected should Public Utilities Districts of Washington state be permitted to purchase properties of the Washington Water Power company. Hearing now being held in Spokane with the Securities and Exchange Commission participating, will determine legality of the sale by American Power and Light, a New York holding company, which owns over 90 per cent of the WWP common stock. Every town and city in northern Idaho is hoping that the PUD will be restrained from buying the electric service company's properties, and terming them into use for public power. Spokane and other Washington cities are opposing the sale, Spokane chiefly, because that area has turned down the proposal of creation of a public utility district.

The Idaho legislature has passed an act prohibiting a PUD from acquiring private electric power properties in this state. Idaho has no law permitting public utility districts such as Washington. The PUD districts in Washington pushing the contemplated purchase are distant from Spokane, and without a vote of the people in the Spokane area, the Washington law is said to permit condemnation of private properties and purchase at a price far in excess of actual values.

PUD counsel asserts the proposed purchase is not controlled by SEC, yet the public utility districts, according to Washington statues would be allowed to purchase the properties on earnings claimed can be made. Public utility districts pay no taxes and are not subject to all regulations imposed on private companies. Loss of tax from WWP properties in northern Idaho would seriously affect county and state budgets, not to mention the budgets of almost every taxing unit.

If Public Utility Districts in Washington are permitted to grab off private electric service facilities, such as faced now by the Washington Water Power company, this country is not facing a Salmisite procedure, it is already in the grip of a communistic power. Some might say that public utility districts provide cheaper power, but this apparently is untrue.

Idaho Assessed Value Unchanged Since 1921

Lloyd Fenn, Kooskia, member of the Idaho Tax Commission, speaking to more than eighty persons attending the Latah County Chamber of Commerce meeting at Legion Memorial building Tuesday evening, said four basic industries comprise the state's chief taxpayers. They are agriculture, lumbering, mining and public utilities. He mentioned Idaho as being a debt-free state, but emphasized the fact that the assessed valuation has not increased in 30 years. Values established in 1921 for taxation amounted to $500 million, and the same figures apply today despite the greatly increased actual values of industries, business firms and homes.

The speaker pointed out that the Tax Commission is not a dictatorial body, although it assesses about one-fourth of the property in the state, which includes public utilities. He reported Latah county as being one of the most cooperative in the state, where land evaluation is now approximately 85 per cent completed. Latah county is among 37 of 44 counties in the state now preparing to employ the commission's approved method of assessments. Seven counties have finished revaluation. Latah county's value for taxation of approximately $17 million is slightly less than ten years ago, but he brought out that values do not determine tax levies, and he urged that taxing units ask for specified amounts rather than a certain millage for operation.

Mr. Fenn, who said he was dealing with a matter as serious as it was spiced his talk with comparisons made in taxable values of property in Idaho. In southeastern Idaho the commission found a ratio of one to three linotypes and other equipment in proportion, an investment which appeared on the tax rolls with assessed valuation of only $300. Today that plant has an assessed valuation of ten times that much. A sheep outfitted owning a few hundred head, while actually the number was 17 times as many. Migratory livestock, often missing from the tax rolls is not alone in the evasion category. He mentioned machinery of construction companies and other owners, and even homes which grow, and sometimes fail to appear on tax rolls.

The Tax Commission members told of the constant values as shown on assessment statement, the same year after year. He said some counties budgeted for such small amounts the assessor's office was unable to properly canvass the county, and in one county the assessor's salary was so small, he was compelled to live on and operate his farm to make ends meet. These were points he emphasized as defeating proper equalization of values, and he further stated that various sections of Idaho must harmonize in evaluating property. He urged taxpayers to visit the office of the county commissioners and the office of the county assessor to determine assessed values of neighbors' properties. The speaker said improvements are necessary, and there are two methods of paying for them. One is to pay directly, and the other is to place improvements on the tax rolls and make neighbors pay too. "There will not be improvements without taxes," Fenn concluded.

Eighty-six For Dinner

Dinner at 7, prepared by Evan's Cafe, was served to 86 persons, including several visitors.

Unusual Entertainment

Marilyn Alexander, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Lewiston, and granddaughter of J. O. Broyles, Potlatch, president of the Latah County Chamber of Commerce, appeared in three exceptionally fine dance numbers. The Lewiston high school freshman entertained first with two tap dances, then a rhumba and lastly a soft-shoe number. She was accompanied at the piano by Mary Sweeney, a junior at Lewiston high school. The two young ladies were accompanied to Genesee by Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Alexander, parents of Marilyn. They were guests at the dinner.

Favor Skyline Drive

R. E. Nordby, member of the board of county commissioners reported the offer of a considerable acreage of land in Latah and Benewah counties by Virgil McCroskey as a state park, the donor agreeing to continue construction and maintenance of roads for at least ten years if the state would accept the land over which would traverse a "Skyline Drive." Nordby, who said the commissioners had upheld in favor of McCroskey's offer, said Latah county would lose $261.00 in taxes if the land was taken over by the state for the purpose intended. The Latah County Chamber of Commerve voted in favor of the state accepting the grant of land to the state.

Short Civic Meeting

Don Springer, president of the Genesee Civic Association, conducted a brief meeting of that group before turning the session over to I. O. Broyles, County Chamber of Commerce president.

J. P. Hermann, reporting for the committee on projects for the Civic Association suggested more parking facilities at the high school, further improvements at the ball park, and possibility of a lighted field.

LeRoy Harris, on behalf of the Merchants Association called attention to the District Basketball tournament at Lewiston starting Monday, and said many of the business houses planned to close at 5 o'clock each evening Genesee high school would be playing.

Facts About National Guard Outlined By Dick Armstrong

Dick Armstrong, formerly of Genesee, now athletics coach at Coeur d'Alene, and administration officer for the National Guard, was in Genesee Tuesday with Major Pavdue. The following was prepared by Armstrong outlining facts relative to the National Guard and its opportunities:

"The 148th Field Artillery Battalion of the Idaho National Guard which was reorganized following World War II now has units located in Moscow and Lewiston. These units are made up of men from these communities and the non-commissioned officers and officers are civilians from the immediate vicinity of each city and are men who receieved military training during World War II.

"The advantages of belonging to the National Guard are many, and they are particularly important to men of draft age. The current policy of the Department of Defense is to leave Guard units intact, which means specifically that members of the National Guard are not subject to the draft regardless of their selective service classification. Men who belong to the National Guard are able to continue in their civilian capacity while still consciously contributing to the National Defense effort. Other advantages to be considered are army drill pay, ranging from $1.25 to $3.50 per hour, retirement benefits, disability compensation, not to mention the training which is of paramount importance.

"Men belonging to the National Guard are taken into active service only if their unit is mobilized. This means that whether or not a man's unit is mobilized he is serving with home-town friends. It is apparent that the morale factor involved here is vitally important to the men and also is comforting to those at home, since he is serving among people who have a personal interest in his welfare.

"B Battery of the 148th Field Artillery Battalion drills each Tuesday night from 7 to 9 in Moscow, while C Battery of the 148th drills each Monday night from 7:30 to 9:30 at Lewiston. The training conducted is both basic and specialized and is comparable to that received by personnel of the regular army. Both batteries have numerous non-commissioned officer ratings open in such fields as administration, communications, radio, motor mechanics, cooking, and survey work. Much emphasis is also placed on the care, maintenance, and safety precautions involved in the use of small arms, such as the 30 calibre M1 rifle, 45 calibre pistol, and 30 calibre carbine. In addition, members of the National Guard are eligible to attend nearly all specialized service schools which are established for the training of regular army personnel. While in attendance at these schools Guardsmen receive full pay and allowances and first-class transportation to and from the school furnished by the National Guard.

For additional information contact Warrant Officer Ron Huffman, phone 2661, Genesee, or Warrant Officer Carl Thiessen, phone 2351, at the National Guard Armory, Moscow.

K. Of C. Memorial Service

Sunday evening following church services Genesee Council, Knights of Columbus held a memorial service for deceased members who passed on since April, 1925, when the last memorial service was held. The principal speaker for the meeting was the chaplain of the state Knights of Columbus organization, Rev. Fr. Urban Schmidt, of Moscow who gave a very impressive talk on "Our Order and It's Dead." Fr. Schmidt brought home the fact that death is a great equalizer—no matter how hard we try to avoid it, it overtakes all of us, although we know not where, nor how, nor when.

Florent Moser gave the eulogy.

Other state officers present were Harold Jacobs, deputy, of Moscow; Andrew Vassar, Lewiston, secretary, and John Gaiser, Moscow, past state deputy. A number of members from Moscow and Lewiston also attended.

Music for the occasion was furnished by a quintet of local members, Steve Johann, Elmer Krier, Florent Moser, Bill Broemeling, and Ray Johann, the latter as leader. Broemeling was the soloist, and Harold Jacobs of Moscow was the accompanist.

Sometimes Good Intentions Aren't Enough

That fire at the Griffin place didn't do much damage last week, but Volunteer Chief Murphy was pretty angry about it. Spoke to some of us over dinner and a bottle of beer.

"Griffin's farm is a good mile from town," he said. "And by the time we'd dodged all the people on the highway who were going to watch, we hadn't a minute to waste.

"Then blamed if those sightseers hadn't parked cars right in Griffin's driveway and there was a mob of people milling around the house—just gawking. Joe, tell folks a fire's no sideshow. Ask 'em to think of the other fellow!"

From where I sit, some of us need to be reminded occasionally that even though our intentions are good we may be unfairly interfering. Whether it's blocking the right-of-way of fire equipment or criticizing a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer now and then—the American Way is to give way, and give the other fellow his fair "share of the road!"

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather is beginning to show more signs of spring. Squalls of wind and snow, even cold enough to freeze at night which isn't too good. Wheat looks brown on top but the roots may be alive. It is too early to predict the damage to fall wheat. The birds are not bothered by wind or weather. They are singing merrily and building their nests. It would seem that it would be cheaper to keep a checking station now on the soft roads now than to rebuild them after the load limits are taken off. Some people sneak through with heavy loads in the night. They seem to have no regard for laws or the rights of others. Just to get through before they are caught, is their motto. We would suggest that the Lewiston pulp mill might soften the attitude of Lewiston folks by sticking a few paper sacks for the merchants, since paper bags are so scarce down there. We heard some folks volunteer to plug the pipe line from the pulp mill whenever they decide to run it up the Lewiston hill. We hope that someone will buy Idaho's interests in the W. W. P. so we won't have to hunt up the coal oil lamps and lanterns again. We would like to suggest to the powers that be, that the 18-year-olds could get a lot of training in schools instead of buildinig big camps to take care of them. They would be under home influence and with the athletic programs they could continue their studies and preparedness at the same time, and could still be available to Uncle Sam if an emergency arises.

Lenten Thought

Sometimes our burdens seems too heavy to bear, everything seems to go wrong. We get upset over little things. Experience tells us that we cannot face life's tasks alone. The scripture tells us, "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." Burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." There is joyous strength in Christian fellowship. The Psalmist understood that when he said, "Cast thy burdens on the Lord and He shall sustain thee." Only when he have Christ-like love in our hearts, do we live without fear. "Lord, for tomorrow and its needs, I do not pray. Still keep me, beside me, love me Lord, through each today."

✓A BIG JOB DONE!
FARM ELECTRIFICATION
Practically COMPLETED!

Sixty years ago, rural America had no electric service, or paved roads either. Cities were mere frontiers, and rural areas were considered desolate. Bringing electric service to all of America's cities and then to farms has been a slow but positive program.

The Washington Water Power Company started to pioneer rural electrification in the Inland Empire back in 1906, when electricity was in its infancy.

Today, thanks to private business and the REA, the Inland Empire is 95% electrified. The job of rural electrification is almost done.

Grangeville First Team To Leave Tournament Elk River Surprising

Grangeville, considered one of the top teams in Class B Second District basketball was the first team to bow out of the picture, losing by one point to Weippe and later to Elk River, the surprise team of the play-off 40-42. It will be remembered that Grangeville made Genesee go two over times to win here a few weeks ago. Elk River, smallest school in the district was defeated by Lapwai 48-42 and also lost to Kendrick 58-43.

Idaho's Second District basketball tournament, usually the most successful in the state, is meeting all expectations from exceptionally good play to satisfactory gate receipts. Kenneth Primus, Genesee, tournament manager, said gate receipts were abreast of any other year up to Thursday, and the large crowds attest to the popularity of the tournament. Fans were actually hanging from the steel rafters Wednesday evening, and a large number found the doors of NICE gymnasium closed when the building was filled, including all the standing room available. Only a few managed to get outdoors Wednesday evening for a smoke because people before the doors were wanting to get in.

Jim Rabdau of the Genesee Bulldogs made the first basket for his club, a long shot from the side, which had the Craigmont Cougars giving him more attention. Jim Sather put up the first foul shot and made it good for the Bulldogs.

The Genesee school rooting section saw two men come into unpopular prominence Tuesday night when they took the seats of two of Genesee's cheer leaders, and refused to relinquish them when asked to give the girls consideration as leaders of the cheering section. To those two males, so-called men, the distinction of being the meanest in the tournament.

Officials at the district play-off are credited with doing a pretty good job. One, however, got the raspberry aplenty when a foul was called on Jim Sather under the east goal Tuesday evening. Sather was going along the baseline when a checker moved into his path and brought Sather to the floor. For those who can't refrain from assisting with the officiating, there is a demand by fans for a bolt of striped material to make officials' shirt. Several of the unofficial officials have suits with stripes running horizontally that could be remade so the stripes would extend vertically.

Uncle Sam is getting a nice cut out of the tournament, over two hundred bucks per night session; less for the afternoon games.

Genesee fans still can't understand why Jim Rabdau's nice long shot did not go through the hoop Wednesday night after it had such a good start. An Irishman should never use reverse English, we are told.

Someone hollered "Shoot Jim," and three Genesee players "cast off" without a ball in their hands. The fourth Genesee "Jim" went around the foul circle and passed off to Ray, who in turn passed it back to Jim. Genesee has four "Jims" on its starting five.

The state highway department has set up a checking machine on the Lewiston hill to determine use of the spiral highway. Genesee alone, can boost the highway count during the week-long tournament. When figures are presented to the federal bureau of the highways, the scenic drive may soon be widened.

Basketball fans are all for retaining Northern Idaho College of Education. Where would the district tournament be played if NICE closed its doors?

Woodley Returns To Cooke

Harold Woodley, home on a convalescent furlough, granted after he underwent a hernia operation, returned to Camp Cooke Tuesday. His brother, Donald, is also at Camp Cooke, and may draw a furlough soon.

ANNOUNCE SON'S BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis of Friday Harbor, Wash., are the parents of a son born Feb. 24. The baby has been named Craig. Mrs. Davis is the former Maxine Rosenau of Genesee.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Hampton entertained for dinner and cards Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Dick Green, Mr. and Mrs. Carlie Grieser, Mr. and Mrs. Elmor Kraut and Mr. and Mrs. Estil Carbuhn. At pinochle played during the evening, Mrs. Green won high award for the ladies and Elmor Kraut, high for the men. Mr. and Mrs. Grieser received the consolation awards.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Mona Rosenau were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bottjer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bottjer and daughter, Bonnie, all of Moscow, Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, Jr., Miss Maggie Bottjer and Jess Myers.

Tommy Ochs, who played with the Genesee club, and Easterbrook who played with Kendrick and Genesee, have joined with Lapwai for the Spokane tournament. AAU rules permit teams to add two men to their rosters for tournament play.

Genesee Bulldogs Go Into Finals With Three Straight Victories

Genesee Wins Its First Game Craigmont Held To 23 Points

Genesee Bulldogs and Craigmont's Cougars opened up in their game Monday evening at Lewiston in the District play-off with what appeared to provide a stiff tussle between two clubs strange to each other during the season. Craigmont tied up the game in the first quarter 7-7, but Genesee was ahead 12-7 at the quarter, and made it 25-12 at the half. The third quarter count was 44-23 for Genesee, and the final count was 51-23.

Coach Hammond worked his entire crew which dunked 21 field goals to 8 for Craigmont, and made good on 9 out of 12 free throws. Craigmont hit for 7 out of 19 free tosses.

Sather was top man in the scoring for both clubs with 11 points, but he was closely paced by Myers, who accounted for 10 points. For Craigmont Collins and Paul, with 7 points each, were high for the Cougars.

Craigmont, it is believed, was somewhat affected by the pre-tournament dope, that of Genesee having a well-drilled club and a scoring machine that could be "up" for tournament play. Craigmont was not the same club against Genesee that it was when meeting the Kamiah club and winning 60-31, and Kamiah was a strong club to defeat.

Genesee Team Upsets Lapwai 58-40 After Defeating Craigmont and Kendrick. Finals Set For Saturday Night

Genesee high school Bulldogs conceded as the strongest Class B basketball club appearing at the Second District tournament in Lewiston this week, went into Saturday evening's final and championship game by three straight wins over Craigmont, 51-23; Kendrick, 62-45, and Lapwai, 58-40.

Coach Gary Hammond's boys in their three successive victories, posted notice Wednesday evening that they were determined to cinch the district title. Lapwai, without a loss in tournament play, and a club which hung the only Idaho loss on the Bulldogs this season, a one-point win at Lapwai, pressed hard in the opening quarter to draw up for a rest with a 12-13 count in favor of Genesee. Field goals, one each by Rabdau, Sather, Gehrke, Jim Bennett and Sprenger, and gift tosses by Sather, Gehrke and Jim Bennett, provided the Bulldogs with their 13 points. Madsen, Ellenwood, Monks and Wilson hit for one field goal each, while Madsen and Ellenwood with a foul shot each and two by Monks, gave Lapwai its 12 points.

In the second quarter Sprenger set the hoop afire with three field goals. Gehrke and Jim Bennett hit from the field with two-pointers. Gehrke upped two free shots and Myers, going in for Gehrke laid up a free toss, good for 13 points, and a total of 26 points for the Bulldogs at the half. Lapwai was on a basket-starvation diet in the second period, scoring one field goal by Monks and a free shot by Madsen, for 3 points for the Wildcats.

Genesee ran up 15 points in the third quarter while Lapwai was picking up 12, and in the final quarter the victorious Bulldogs counted 17 points to 13 for the hard-fighting but tiring Lapwai Wildcats.

Murray Myers, Genesee junior, employed at the center position, stole the show in the second half by ringing up four field goals and counting seven from the free-toss line. His total for the evening was 16 points, making him the high-point player for both teams.

In the second-half scoring Sather hit for two field goals and three foul shots. Gehrke added two points on a twisting field goal. Jim Bennett was on the score board for three field goals.

For Lapwai Madsen, a Lapwai first-year man, scored two field goals. Ellenwood and Rickett put up one field goal each, and Monks and Wilson each sunk two field goals apiece. Lapwai was at the foul line often, with Jack Sabotta making one good, Ellenwood, three; Monks two, and Wilson three.

Genesee Bulldogs, practically coasting into the District tournament, set up an early lead against the Lapwai Wildcats Wednesday evening, but saw it fade to a one-point advantage, 13-12 at the first quarter. At the half Genesee, tuning up for the finals, pulled out all the stops to score 13 points in the second quarter to only 3 for Lapwai. The Wildcats came back in the third period, pouring on the coal for 12 points, but were unable to pull up on the Bulldogs who scored 15 points for a 41-27 count. In the final quarter Lapwai fell further behind as the Bulldogs rolled up 17 points to 13 for the Wildcats. Lapwai earned rounds of applause in the third-quarter stand, but the drive they made took much of their strength. Coach Hammond used but two of his second platoon, Myers and Bob Bennett. In some previous games, it has been the second five which ran away with scoring after taking over.

Fans generally, felt sorry for the Lapwai lad who entered the game in the fourth quarter and found himself hanging on to Sather, a foul which could easily have been misjudged by the officials.

Both Lapwai and Genesee kept the overflow crowd keyed up during the entire game with their long shots and unusually good brand of basketball. Genesee showed the best array of scoring plays, not counting the long shot which Rabdau for Genesee made. The ball was well into the hoop on a long shot. It rimmed the hoop several times, dipped down a bit, and then like a flying saucer leaped from steel circle. So certain were some of the players that the shot would count two points, they started down floor. Sprenger brought the fans up sharply on two of his shots. Gehrke, on his twisting shots, looked like he was going to unscrew himself from his shoes. Sather was deadly under the baskets and late in the game tossed in a hook shot with both feet off the floor just as he went under the basket. Jim Bennett, who potted three long shots for swishers, and underhanded two on a foray under the basket. On a Lapwai pass in from out of bounds, he grabbed the ball and sunk it for two points, a play that not too many saw. Murray Myers had the crowd with him while he was scoring his 16 points on four field goals and eight points from the foul line.

Lapwai was not without its share of applause and despite the score the Wildcats played a brand of ball which has earned them a way into the semi-finals Friday evening.

Mr. And Mrs. Edwards Home From Winter In California

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Edwards, who spent the winter in California arrived Monday evening, in time to look in on the first games of the District basketball tournament at Lewiston.

While in California they divided their time between Los Angeles and San Diego. In the former city they visited their son, Levern, and brother of Mrs. Edwards, Jess Gray. At San Diego they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray.

Returning home they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wood Gash at Bakersfield and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edgar at their ranch near Santa Marguerita. Mrs. Edgar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gash. At Fresno they spent one night with Mrs. Edward Tabler (Vonnie Densow) whose husband is in the service and stationed in the east. Mrs. Tabler said Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were the only Genesee residents with the exceptions of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Densow, now of Craigmont, and sisters, Mary Frances and Connie, she had seen since leaving Idaho. The Densow family was in California in July of last year to attend her wedding.

Arriving in Walla Walla Sunday, the Edwards remained overnight to visit Lester Gray, who is very ill at the Veterans hospital.

Announces Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest White of near Moscow announce the engagement of their daughter, Vivien, to Robert Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herman of Genesee. Miss White is employed at the publications department at the University of Idaho. Mr. Herman is farming the former Dr. T. A. Elliot ranch, now property of the Herman family. The young people plan a June wedding.

Kendrick Still In The Running Only Loss To Genesee 62-45

Kendrick Tigers, meeting Weippe Thursday evening for the chance at Lapwai Wildcats and the semi-finals, suffered its only defeat in tournament play at Lewiston to the Genesee Bulldogs. The Tigers, always strong contenders for district honors, and a former state champion club, is coming up the hard way this season, being the second team from the Valley conference, with Lapwai the first-place unit from that circuit. Weippe, who has surprised tournament followers by its wins from Craigmont and the Grangeville Bulldogs, and losing by 10 points to Lapwai, may have a difficult time with Kendrick, the Dennis Racicot coached team making alarming sounds for the 1952 season.

Genesee and Kendrick, last Tuesday evening, went to a 62-45 count, with Genesee wiping out regular seasons close score games. It happened that both Kendrick and Genesee were good on their long shots, and strong under the boards. Genesee had a 7-point lead at the first quarter, 17-10, and made it 38-19 at the half. The Bulldogs jumped the score to 51-38 at the third quarter.

Sather, Gehrke and Sprenger for Genesee, had a fine evening, scoring 20, 14 and 10 points, respectively, while Smith for Kendrick was credited with 15 points and Halseth 9. Genesee was more accurate on field goals, hitting for 23 and Kendrick made good on 16 from the field.

For long shots the Kendrick and Genesee game undoubtedly leads all other games of the tournament thus far. Genesee may have connected for more in another game, but in none were teams so closely matched.

Returned Missionary Convention Speaker

Church H. Smiley, a missionary to India since 1921, is in the United States for furlough this year with his wife and family, and is the speaker for the Christian church convention to be held here March 14. He is supported through the United Christian Missionary Society, national board of Christian missions and education for Disciples of Christ.

For most of the years the Smileys have been stationed at Bilaspur, in Central Provinces, India. He has had charge of the evangelistic work in that city and in the surrounding villages. Working with a corps of trained Indian evangelists, preaching is done in villages, churches are established, schools are opened for children and adults, an attempt is made to improve the economic life of the people, and medical aid is secured when necessary.

For four years the Smileys were at the Damoh station, where he supervised the evangelistic work in an area approximately eight by forty miles. Twelve hundred villages could be reached by all-weather roads. The population numbered nearly half a million persons. More recently, however, they have again been located at Bilaspur. Mr. Smiley has had charge of both the evangelistic work and the boys' school ,with an efficient staff of Indian Christian teachers. The first two classes of a new boys' school were started in this time and the school has made rapid progress.

Mr. Smiley is a graduate of Cotner College, Lincoln, Neb., and of the College of Missions, Indianapolis. He has the M. A. degree from the University of Chicago and has done further graduate work there during furlough at other times.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Old Man Winter staged a comeback after a week of fairly good weather. Snow Saturday evening and Sunday was followed by low temperatures when the mercury went to 10 to 14 degrees above zero. The snow protected the wheat. The wild ducks evidently don't like the smell down in the valley and camp here in large numbers, pulling the wheat up by the roots and causing considerable damage. Valley folks will join Genesee rooters to attend the tournament basketball games at Lewiston this week, which will lend a little excitment for a change. Not much chance of spring work for some time.

Usual church services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Hove returned Saturday from a several weeks' stay in Calif., where Kermit took a course in amphibious landing which he enjoyed very much. Lapwai Presses Genesee During Final Quarter But Bulldogs Post Final 54-49 Count

Genesee high school Bulldogs won their berth in the Idaho state Class B tournament Saturday evening by rolling over the fast Lapwai Wildcats 54 to 49. Genesee enters the tournament at Pocatello as the lone representative from the Second District after winning four straight games, the first from Craigmont 51-23, the second from Kendrick 62-45, the third from Lapwai 58-40, and finally the championship from Lapwai 54-49. The Lapwai boys finished as runners-up for the district title, and in doing so, staged a thrill-packed encounter with the Genesee boys in the final game.

Saturday night's championship encounter, which looked like a runaway for the Bulldogs in the first half, developed into a basketball game in the final quarter, and a situation which was none too comfortable for followers of the Genesee entry. Lapwai, sensing near victory or a possible tie, was hard to handle. The Wildcats in their bid for a Monday night playoff, teamed up with the Bulldogs for an exciting and breath-taking climax to a successful tournament.

Lapwai took the initial tip-off but the shot was missed. Jim Bennett for Genesee cast off with a 20-footer to put the Bulldogs ahead. Lapwai was motioned to the foul line and made the shot good. Genesee soon ran the count to 6-1, but Monks and Wilson for Lapwai tied up the game on two field goals and a foul shot. The two teams matched field goals for an 8-8 score. Lapwai was stopped cold for the rest of the first period, but Genesee ran the count to 16-8. Gehrke and Jim Bennett with three field goals each and Jim Sprenger with one field goal, gave the Bulldogs 14 points and foul shots by Gehrke and Myers brought the score to 16. For Lapwai Monks and Wilson each made a field goal in the first quarter, but team members made good on four foul shots for a total of 8 points. Cal Wilson for Lapwai found his long shots rimming the basket at least three times in the opening period. The Bulldogs were controlling the boards during the last two and one-half minutes of the first period, and in that time scored 8 points.

Sprenger opened the second quarter with a swisher from 25 feet out, and in three minutes the Bulldogs ran up 8 points to 3 points for Lapwai. The two clubs staged a fast-breaking game, with Lapwai having a two-point advantage during the speeded-up dash for a 30-19 count for Genesee. In an exchange of field goals which brought plenty of noise from cheering sections the finalist team raced to a 36-25 half-time score, Genesee having the lead. During this quarter the Bulldogs had Sather shooting over a screen set up either by Gehrke or Myers, and he sunk three field goals. Gehrke went up for two field goals, Myers two and Sprenger two. For Lapwai field goals in the second quarter were made by Madsen and Monks, one each, while Wilson was hitting for four field goals. His rimmers became swishers. Gehrke, just as the horn sounded for the half had the ball in the air for a two-pointer.

Genesee started strong in the third quarter when Sprenger opened with a lay-up for two points, and in three minutes the Bulldogs went out in front by 17 points, 42-25. Putting up the field goals were Sather, two; Myers, one, and Sprenger, two. Spotting the basket for the Wildcats were Ellenwood, Monks and Wilson, with one field goal each.

Genesee's Bulldogs began picking up fouls. Sather had his fourth personal with three and a half minutes gone in the third quarter, and Gehrke, who it is believed was given another player's foul, left the game on

Class "A" Tournament At Moscow Mar. 14-17

While Idaho's Class B schools are in a tournament at Pocatello, Moscow will be host to the Class A teams. In the first night's pairings, March 14, Nampa will meet Sandpoint, and Idaho Falls will meet Lewiston. For the second night Kellogg meets Preston, and Burley meets Moscow.

In the fifth district the winner was not decided until Tuesday evening, when Preston edged out Blackfoot for the trip to Moscow.

Both tournaments in Idaho, starting next Wednesday should be just about best ever run off. Genesee fans are more than strong for their home club, so no comparison will be attempted. In the Moscow tournament to be run off at the University of Idaho Memorial gymnasium, local basketball enthusiasts will be permitted to see plenty of action and stiff competition. Moscow and Lewiston, in their game at Lewiston Saturday showed what can happen in tournament play, when the Moscow club, underdogs, rose to unbelieveable heights to practically run Lewiston off the floor in the first half, then play even in the third quarter, for a photo finish in the final period.

Nampa is coming north as defending state champions. This is a Babe Brown team which lost but one conflict this season, and that to Boise, a team which was eliminated from Third District tournament play. To say the Third District is the hottest in Class A ball cannot be taken with offense by any other district, because Nampa had a winning streak of over sixty games broken by Boise. Twin Falls, one of the big-six of south Idaho ran well in the cellar all season, and that team is in the Fourth District. Burley represents that district at Moscow.

Little is known of the Fifth and Sixth Districts, but plenty has been heard from the First District, where Coeur d'Alene has roosted high until Sandpoint knocked over the Vikings a couple times this season. The Lakesiders were practically conceded a tournament berth even after Sandpoint's first victory. Kellogg also comes down to the University of Idaho for the Class A meet.

Kenneth Primus, who managed the Lewiston tournament, is in charge of the State Class A tourney at Moscow. He is a member of the Board of Control for the State Athletic association, and he stoutly praises the efforts being made by the University of Idaho and Moscow to make the tournament a success. State basketball tournaments are sponsored by the Idaho High School Interscholastic Activities association, and cannot be underwritten by any school, individual or group. Even the trophies are supplied by the state athletic association. There is no limit, however, to the cooperation organizations may lend to success of tournaments, such as providing facilities and hospitality, and that is what is being done at Moscow. The Lewiston tournament, Primus said, owes it success to the fine cooperation of faculty and students and their organizations and by Lewiston people.

After all is said and done, it's basketball that counts with the paid attendance, and it looks like they are going to get their money's worth at the Class A playoff. There will be two games each of the four nights, with a doubleheader Friday afternoon when the consolation bracket clubs go into action. Tickets will be on sale at Memorial gymnasium, $1 per session for adults and 50 cents per session for all students. Doors open at 5:45 for night games and 1:00 p. m. for the Friday double bill.

Wilson Drug Bowlers Place Second In Spokane Tourney

Frank Wilson's bowling team, entered in the Lewiston Commercial league as Genesee Drug keglers, took second place in class C competition last Sunday at Spokane with a score of 3,010. Wilson said Thursday there was another week-end of bowling at Spokane, which might change position of the Genese team.

Going to Spokane Saturday were Wilson, Stan Green, Ewald Lettenmaier, Pete Kinyon and Alfred Isaksen. Bob Schooler is another member of the team. Members alternate for the five-man combination each week. Placing high in the team score Sunday was Pete Kinyon. Mrs. Isaksen and Mrs. Green accompanied their husbands to Spokane.

Green and Wilson entered the tournament in men's class B doubles and rolled a 1,256 count to place third in the division.

A person don't have to be crazy to enjoy basketball, but it helps.

All Join Hands In Big Send-off

Show Starts At 7:30 at Gym. No Admission Charge. Give Whatever Sum You Desire

Saturday night, starting at 7:30, everyone in the community, or in the world for that matter, is invited to a rousing send-off for the Genesee high school basketball team, entered as one of the eight teams in the state basketball tournament at Pocatello.

Bound for Pocatello Sunday morning will be the Genesee Bulldogs, their coach, Gary Hammond, and the three cheer leaders, Nancy Rabdau, Dawn Heinrich and Norma Lee Moser. Mrs. Hammond will chaperone the girls, and according to plans now outlined the Genesee delegation to the state basketball tournament will travel in private cars belonging to Hammond, Bob Morken and H. E. Bennett. Parents of some players and others plan to make the trip but may not leave until later.

U. of I. Tumblers Coming

Dick Smith, coach of the University of Idaho tumbling team, is bringing his precision-drilled organization to Genesee Saturday night for the big farewell party for the Bulldogs. Those who have witnessed the Idaho tumblers in action this winter, have seen but a few of the acts performed by Coach Smith's team.

Nine acts, including gymnastics, tumbling, specialty numbers, high-flying trampoline acts, and a few clown numbers, will provide a show never before witnessed. The high ceiling at the Genesee school gymnasium affords the minimum of vertical space required for some of the acts.

The entire evening's entertainment will take place at the gymnasium with the stage reserved for two bands, the regular high school unit and the German band, both under direction of Jim Riggs, music instructor. There will also be a few vocal numbers if time permits, and during the tumbling performances there will be music.

Genesee Backs Its Athletes

Genesee basketball supporters who flocked to the district tournament at Lewiston to see the Bulldogs win three straight games and then take the championship in the thrilling finals with Lapwai will certainly welcome Saturday night's chance to send the Bulldogs on their long trip with best wishes for continued success. It should become an evening replete with pleasant memories for seven of the boys are seniors. The entertainment to be provided will be the best obtainable, with Dick Smith and his team of tumblers evidently pleased to join in the farewell to the Bulldogs who will be competing for the Idaho class B championship.

There's A Matter Of Funds

Don't be frightened by financial aspects of the tournament trip. Genesee will be expending nearly a thousand dollars in its quest for a state title. Remember, the boys, their manager and coach saved every cent possible at the district tournament. They were entitled to board and lodging while at the Lewiston tournament. None of the allowances have been expended as the team and coach traveled back and forth each night they played. Genesee will receive a dividend from the Lewiston tournament in addition to allowances. Kenneth Primus, manager of the district tournament said Wednesday that none of the money will be available before the Pocatello trip is made. Money is being advanced, however, based on anticipated revenue from the Lewiston tournament. It is to be expected that some money will be given to all participating teams in the state tournament, yet no team has ever made the trip to south Idaho without a large deficit. Orofino is reported having made up a deficit of approximately $700 two years ago, and Kendrick is said to have been confronted with a shortage of $500 in meeting expenses. Both of those towns put up the money. Now it's Genesee's turn, and this community is faced with a necessity of raising between $450 and $500 in addition to funds accumulated or to be accumulated from all sources. Transportation is being held to an extremely low minimum by generosity of the above-mentioned car owners. Some of the boys intimated they could take sleeping bags along. Well, Genesee fans don't want their Bulldogs sleeping under the stars or half-fed. They gave us a real season of basketball and a lot of reason for being proud of them at Lewiston.

Easy Job For Many People

Committees which have been almost self-appointed, are going ahead with plans for the big send-off. The University tumblers are coming here without cost. There will be only slight expenses connected with the show. No admission will be charged Saturday for the event. Those attending, however, may donate what they desire. If all those who have been ardent followers of the Bulldogs will be present, the task of making up the deficit will be easy, with no one expected to contribute a large sum.

Cooperation Splendid

Cooperation in staging the send-off for the Bulldogs is splendid, as evidenced today. Men of the community are going to sell refreshments in an effort to raise the money, and several ladies are arranging a lunch for the visiting Idaho tumblers. There is a plea for funds, and there is no dodging the issue, but many hands can make the job light, so the welcome sign is out for Saturday night at 7:30 at the gym.

Buttercups In December

Gus Gamble picked buttercups in the Wahl canyon east of Genesee on December 28, and again, on Saturday he picked quite a few and brought them to The News office. Speaking of the canyon, Gamble said, "That's buttercup country, and here's flowers to prove it." Seventy-five head of cattle of the Wahl-Gamble interests are doing well in the canyon this mild winter.

Gloria Jutte Honor Student

Glorie Jutte of Genesee is on the honor roll for the fall semester at Pacific Lutheran college, it was announced this week by Dr. Philip E. Hauge, college registrar. Seventy-six students, 48 men and 28 women, received grade point averages of 3.50 or above to get on the honor roll. This figure represents 10.3 per cent of the full-time enrollment.

Sweetheart Candidate

Latricia Comnick, freshman at the University of Idaho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Comnick, is among 22 coeds selected as a candidate for the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

B. B. Tournament Oddities

Bus Bennett, scorekeeper for the Genesee Bulldogs for several seasons, comes up with a tournament oddity: Jim Sprenger, who saw much action in the district play-off in four games, did not step to the foul line a single time Another oddity Bus may have overlooked is the fact that Jim Bennett did not commit a single foul in the torrid Lapwai-Genesee game, although he fouled out in a previous Lapwai-Genesee tournament game.

Bennett's books show that Genesee Bulldogs scored 225 points to their opponents 157 points in four games. That's 56.25 points per game in tournament competition.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We really have winter now with ten inches of snow and colder weather. Fortunately, there was not much wind but a few roads were drifted badly so two school buses and the mail carrier could not get through Monday morning. The temperature dropped to 10 degrees above Sunday night. Folks are resting up after a strenuous week of basketball at Lewiston. There are a few cases of influenza. The Valley Aid will have some nice thing to sell at their rummage sale in Moscow Friday at the W. W. P. rooms. It looks like American housewives are doing a better job of controlling food prices than the high-salaried government men are doing. The boys are dying in Korea while Harry swims with specs on. Wonder if he is looking for more suckers.

Usual church services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tegland went to Kennewick Saturday for the funeral of the former's 95-year-old cousin, Ben Borgen, once a Valley resident who lived on the farm now owned by Ben Johnson. They returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jack Lavery and Michael of Philadelphia arrived by plane Tuesday morning and finding her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Linehan ill, she went to the home of her brother, Don Linehan, and family, to visit this week.

Jack Magee and family are moving to Genesee this week to the home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hove and Delores attended the basketball games in Lewiston Saturday and hearing the Lewiston hill was treacherous, they remained overnight with Mrs. Hove's father, Fred Tesch.

Mrs. Don Linehan gave a birthday party Wednesday afternoon in honor of Greg's fifth birthday. Guests were Jerry Linehan, Jilene McDowell, Mrs. James McDowell, Judy Krier, Mrs. Elmer Krier, Patty and Miki Magee, Mrs. Jack Magee. A birthday cake and nice gifts made the occasion a happy one for Greg.

Lenten Thought

Christ is not only the Saviour of all men, the one giver of life, but our example. While on earth in the form of man, He had an atmosphere of light, love, purity and all the ennobling virtues. Paul could truly say, "For to me to live is Christ." Paul carried this atmosphere of Christ and so does every genuine Christian. As people took knowledge of Peter and John, that they had been with Jesus, so people take knowledge of Christians today. Business institutions conducted by Christians assure right dealing, character building as well as teaching is the result of Christian teachers. The atmosphere of a Christian home is so beautiful in love, cooperation, and other Christian virtues. Only as individual Christians live Christ, will be have a Christian world.

Genesee Wins District Title Goes To Pocatello State Meet

five personals shortly after Sather was given a substitute when his dangerous fourth personal was assessed. Sather returned. Genesee plays began clicking and the Bulldogs counted 5 points in the last three minutes of the third quarter for a 50-34 score. Ellenwood for Lapwai was the big shot for his club and played a strong defensive and offensive game, but Genesee had Monks well under control.

With Gehrke out and Sather treading water, Lapwai caught afire. Jack Sabotta for the Wildcats sent up one from the floor for two points. Monks, picking up a loose ball upped a field goal. The Lapwai center, Monks, drew two fouls, made both good, and it was six quick points for Lapwai, and a count of 40-50. Rabdau for Genesee, counted two points on a long shot from the corner. Wilson for Lapwai, retaliated to make the score 42-52. Genesee switched to "control" ball after three minutes of play in the final quarter to spare its players. The Bulldogs passed around for a full minute. Lapwai scored another field goal to make the count 44-52, and then Sather was waved to the bench on his fifth personal.

With a minute and a half to go in the game, fans remained glued to their seats. Not a person moved or showed any intent of moving toward an exit. Lapwai went into a full-floor defense, stole a Genesee pass to score 2 points and make the count 47-52. Monks for Lapwai pushed up a two-pointer and Genesee made a foul shot for a 53-49 count for Genesee. Genesee drew the whistle several times for "charging" but Lapwai was unable to hit from the foul line. Bob Bennett made good on a foul for his Genesee club, to bring the count to 49-54, and just as the game ended Jim Bennett laid up a two-pointer but the officials said "no count."

In the final quarter Genesee scored but 4 points while Lapwai was hitting the hoop for 15 points. Genesee's points came on Rabdau's field goal and two foul shots by B. Bennett. For Lapwai Madsen, Sabotta and Monks each hit for two field goals, and foul shots were made by Monks, Ellenwood and Wilson, one each.

High man for Genesee was Gehrke with 13 points, and for Lapwai Monks was high with 14 points.

Bulldog Pocatello Trip Financed By Donations Saturday Net $849.81

Genesee high school Bulldogs, their coach and manager, and the three cheer leaders left Genesee at 4 o'clock Sunday morning for Pocatello where the Bulldogs are entered in the state Class B basketball tournament, as representatives of the Second Idaho District. They arrived at Pocatello Sunday evening at 8 o'clock mountain time, or 7 o'clock Pacific time. Coach Hammond said before leaving, the delegation would stop over at some town where those making the trip could attend church services. The team and cheer leaders traveled in cars belonging to Coach Gary Hammond, H. Bennett and Bob Morken.

Financing an entry in a state basketball tournament, especially when distance to be traveled is as great as that from Genese to Pocatello, always requires extra financing. Last year at Lewiston the Class B tournament paid nearly paid all expenses because the Second District had two entries, Orofino and Genesee and two teams from the First District. Another reason for success at Lewiston is that the Valley is a red hot basketball center, and with Orofino and Genesee going into the finals the climax brought together two local clubs.

Genesee Travels 600 Miles

The Genesee Bulldogs with only a few fair "gates" during the season, found their treasury depleted at the end of the regular season. Rather than remain at Lewiston where the team, coach and manager were entitled to board and lodging, they returned home each evening they were engaged in tournament play. Kenneth Primus of Genesee, who managed the Lewiston tournament, said the boys, coach and manager earned $206 as expenses, all of which went into the fund for the Pocatello trip. Since they left Primus said Genesee would receive $110 as a dividend from the Second District tournament. It was estimated the Pocatello trip would cost more than $900. Uncertain of the amount coming to Genesee from the Pocatello tournament, estimated, however, to be small, left no alternative except extra financing. Members of the school board and men of the faculty sent out an appeal for assistance. The final contributions for the Pocatello trip amounted to $849.81. Approximately $160 was donated by business firms in Lewiston and Moscow, with the balance coming from local supporters. Letters of thanks are being mailed to out-of-town contributors.

Thanks To Everyone

It was a happy group of boys, a cheerful coach and manager, and delighted trio of cheer leaders when they were advised Saturday evening that the deficit had been erased by generosity of those contributing.

The amount donated Saturday night at the rally at the gymnasium was in excess of the amount necessary for the Pocatello trip. It must be stated, however, that the school activity fund is overdrawn with $170 due on the new warm-up suits worn by the Genesee Bulldogs in recent games. This item can be marked off as paid, and there should be a neat balance to continue spring school sports.

Sincere thanks have been extended in words and actions, and the Bulldogs left knowing their home community was backing them with money and every wish for success.

U. Of Idaho Tumblers Help

Dick Smith, coach of the University of Idaho tumblers presented his organization in an hour of various gymnastics and tumbling, which was a treat to the crowd gathered for the Bulldogs' send-off. Jim Riggs presented the two high school bands. Fred Magee was master of ceremonies, and he thanked the contributors for their generous gifts. He also introduced Kenneth Primus who told of tournaments being played, and how the basketball play-offs were financed. He announced the Class A basketball tournament being played at Moscow this week, starting March 14.

Coach Gary Hammond presented his Bulldogs and manager, and later Magee introduced the three cheer leaders.

Following the entertainment wives of school board members and clerk, Mmes. Adrian Nelson, Henry Koster, Jess Johnson, Paul Parks Ed Morken and Mahlon Follett, served lunch for the tumbling team and others who assisted with the event.

SEVERE WIND STORM

Wind, Thursday afternoon, said to have been of higher velocity than wind storms of the past few months, disrupted power in the Palouse area from 1:30 p. m. to about 4:30 p. m. Several trees were blown down, but the most severe damage was that to the Genesee Motors building. Most of the east wall collapsed outwardly as if caused by a vacuum. The portion of the wall which fell extends from the rear of the Follett store south towards the alley. Several telephone lines were down north of Genesee. The Genesee Motors' loss is reported covered by insurance. Damage is running high.

Trip To California Permits Florent Mosers To Visit Son

Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in California with their son, Gene, at Long Beach. Gene's ship, the USS Toledo, was in dock there, and besides having a week end with his parents, he had each evening with them during their stay with the exception of one evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Moser were accompanied on the trip by Bud Scharbach, Mrs. Ferd Bruegeman and Mrs. Chris Broenneke. Mrs. Bruegeman visited her daughter, Pat, a nurse at the Veterans Hospital at Long Beach, and Mrs. Broenneke visited with her son, Ray, stationed at Fort Ord. The five travelers were fortunate during their stay to have use of the apartment of Miss Bruegeman and two other nurses. One nurse was on vacation, and the other was on night duty. Needless to say, Miss Bruegeman and the nurse on night duty, enjoyed the home cooking supplied by their guests.

Highlights of the trip was a visit to Old Mexico, Capistrano and Knox Berry Farm.

Returning they visited with relatives in San Francisco and spent a day and two nights at Mt. Angel, Ore., with Mrs. Louise Welton and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Scharbach. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner at Mt. Angel, former Genesee residents, who send regards to their friends here.

Traveling to southern California they stopped the first night at Klamath Falls and the second night at Fresno. Roads were excellent. Returning the coast route and crossing over to Eugene, travel was slow with restricted speeds owing to slides. They traveled 3800 miles on the trip.

Alice Mortensen Bride Of Donald L. Huffman

The marriage of Joyce Alice Mortensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Mortensen, and Donald L. Huffman of Seattle, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Lough, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, March 3 at the Presbyterian church in Moscow.

The Rev. Donald Clayton read the double ring ceremony in a setting of white stock, pink carnations and yellow snapdragons in large baskets and white candles in the standing candelabra. Center aisle pews were marked by bows of white satin ribbon combined with pastel shades of sweet peas.

David Sampson, organist, played the Lohengrin processional and background music during the ceremony, with the Mendelssohn recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon marquisette with lace insets and ruffles at the sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and full length skirt extending into a train. Her fingertip veil of net was edged in lace and held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. The dress was the same one worn by the bride's twin sister, Mrs. Douglas McNeilly, at her wedding two years ago. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white roses and stephanotis with removable corsage.

Mrs. McNeilly, matron of honor, wore pink nylon organza with headdress of pink lace and stephanotis, and matching lace mitts. Her flowers, in cascade arrangements, were pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Dawn Lynn Huffman of Genesee, niece of the bridegroom, wore pink organza made in the same style as the matron of honor's dress, a similar headdress and she carried a white basket of rose petals.

Miss Shirley Mortensen, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore deep pink taffeta with wristlet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Ronald Huffman, Genesee, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering were Robert Huffman, brother of the bridegroom from Genesee, and Paul Osmundson of Seattle.

The bride's mother wore navy blue, matching accessories and pink rose corsage. The bridegroom's grandmother wore a gray suit with pink and black accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the little chapel at the church. The three-tier cake was surrounded by a garland of smilax and pink roses. A combination of spring flowers decorated the serving tables. Assisting after the bridal couple had cut the first piece from their cake were: Mrs. H. Robert Mortensen, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. W. A. Mortensen, Moscow, and Mrs. W. O. Hughes, Pullman, aunts of the bride. Others were Mrs. Ralph Walters, Mrs. L. C. Cornwall, Mrs. Forrest Williams, Mrs. Vern Miller and Miss Shirley Mortensen. Miss Lucille Semler of Spokane was in charge of the guest book.

The bride receieved her degree in business administration in 1949 from the University of Idaho. She was president of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, national business girls' organization, and treasurer of the state council. She has been employed at Schnell Tractor Co. at Moscow. Her husband, a veteran of four years in World War II with the army in the South Pacific, is employed in Seattle where the couple will live.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue suit with gray accessories, bag and shoes of ring-tailed lizard, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.—Moscow Idahonian.

With 199 other workers at the Water Power who have served you from 20 to 30 years, these men and women are the active members* of the Company's honored Trailblazers.

'Way back in horse-and-wagon days, many of this group helped to construct dams, power plants, and transmission lines to bring you dependable low-cost electricity for better living . . . AND, with their younger comrades at the Water Power, THEY ARE STILL BLAZING TRAILS OF SERVICE FOR YOU!

PIONEERING ALWAYS, Washington Water Power has started construction of a $40,000,000 dam and power plant at Cabinet Gorge, on the Clark Fork River near Sandpoint. When completed, this new source of electricity for Inland Empire homes, farms, and industries will contribute 200,000 kilowatts to the Northwest Power Pool, of which the Company is a charter member.

Genesee Wins District Title Goes To Pocatello State Meet

five personals shortly after Sather was given a substitute when his dangerous fourth personal was assessed. Sather returned. Genesee plays began clicking and the Bulldogs counted 5 points in the last three minutes of the third quarter for a 50-34 score. Ellenwood for Lapwai was the big shot for his club and played a strong defensive and offensive game, but Genesee had Monks well under control.

With Gehrke out and Sather treading water, Lapwai caught afire. Jack Sabotta for the Wildcats sent up one from the floor for two points. Monks, picking up a loose ball upped a field goal. The Lapwai center, Monks, drew two fouls, made both good, and it was six quick points for Lapwai, and a count of 40-50. Rabdau for Genesee, counted two points on a long shot from the corner. Wilson for Lapwai, retaliated to make the score 42-52. Genesee switched to "control" ball after three minutes of play in the final quarter to spare its players. The Bulldogs passed around for a full minute. Lapwai scored another field goal to make the count 44-52, and then Sather was waved to the bench on his fifth personal.

With a minute and a half to go in the game, fans remained glued to their seats. Not a person moved or showed any intent of moving toward an exit. Lapwai went into a full-floor defense, stole a Genesee pass to score 2 points and make the count 47-52. Monks for Lapwai pushed up a two-pointer and Genesee made a foul shot for a 53-49 count for Genesee. Genesee drew the whistle several times for "charging" but Lapwai was unable to hit from the foul line. Bob Bennett made good on a foul for his Genesee club, to bring the count to 49-54, and just as the game ended Jim Bennett laid up a two-pointer but the officials said "no count."

In the final quarter Genesee scored but 4 points while Lapwai was hitting the hoop for 15 points. Genesee's points came on Rabdau's field goal and two foul shots by B. Bennett. For Lapwai Madsen, Sabotta and Monks each hit for two field goals, and foul shots were made by Monks, Ellenwood and Wilson, one each.

High man for Genesee was Gehrke with 13 points, and for Lapwai Monks was high with 14 points.

Bulldog Pocatello Trip Financed By Donations Saturday Net $849.81

Genesee high school Bulldogs, their coach and manager, and the three cheer leaders left Genesee at 4 o'clock Sunday morning for Pocatello where the Bulldogs are entered in the state Class B basketball tournament, as representatives of the Second Idaho District. They arrived at Pocatello Sunday evening at 8 o'clock mountain time, or 7 o'clock Pacific time. Coach Hammond said before leaving, the delegation would stop over at some town where those making the trip could attend church services. The team and cheer leaders traveled in cars belonging to Coach Gary Hammond, H. E. Bennett and Bob Morken.

Financing an entry in a state basketball tournament, especially when distance to be traveled is as great as that from Genese to Pocatello, always requires extra financing. Last year at Lewiston the Class B tournament paid nearly paid all expenses because the Second District had two entries, Orofino and Genesee and two teams from the First District. Another reason for success at Lewiston is that the Valley is a red hot basketball center, and with Orofino and Genesee going into the finals the climax brought together two local clubs.

Genesee Travels 600 Miles

The Genesee Bulldogs with only a few fair "gates" during the season, found their treasury depleted at the end of the regular season. Rather than remain at Lewiston where the team, coach and manager were entitled to board and lodging, they returned home each evening they were engaged in tournament play. Kenneth Primus of Genesee, who managed the Lewiston tournament, said the boys, coach and manager earned $206 as expenses, all of which went into the fund for the Pocatello trip. Since they left Primus said Genesee would receive $110 as a dividend from the Second District tournament. It was estimated the Pocatello trip would cost more than $900. Uncertain of the amount coming to Genesee from the Pocatello tournament, estimated, however, to be small, left no alternative except extra financing. Members of the school board and men of the faculty sent out an appeal for assistance. The final contributions for the Pocatello trip amounted to $849.81. Approximately $160 was donated by business firms in Lewiston and Moscow, with the balance coming from local supporters. Letters of thanks are being mailed to out-of-town contributors.

Thanks To Everyone

It was a happy group of boys, a cheerful coach and manager, and delighted trio of cheer leaders when they were advised Saturday evening that the deficit had been erased by generosity of those contributing.

The amount donated Saturday night at the rally at the gymnasium was in exsess of the amount necessary for the Pocatello trip. It must be stated, however, that the school activity fund is overdrawn with $170 due on the new warm-up suits worn by the Genesee Bulldogs in recent games. This item can be marked off as paid, and there should be a neat balance to continue spring school sports.

Sincere thanks have been extended in words and actions, and the Bulldogs left knowing their home community was backing them with money and every wish for success.

U. Of Idaho Tumblers Help

Dick Smith, coach of the University of Idaho tumblers presented his organization in an hour of various gymnastics and tumbling, which was a treat to the crowd gathered for the Bulldogs' send-off. Jim Riggs presented the two high school bands. Fred Magee was master of ceremonies, and he thanked the contributors for their generous gifts. He also introduced Kenneth Primus who told of tournaments being played, and how the basketball play-offs were financed. He announced the Class A basketball tournament being played at Moscow this week, starting March 14.

Coach Gary Hammond presented his Bulldogs and manager, and later Magee introduced the three cheer leaders.

Following the entertainment wives of school board members and clerk, Mmes. Adrian Nelson, Henry Koster, Jess Johnson, Paul Parks Ed Morken and Mahlon Follett, served lunch for the tumbling team and others who assisted with the event.

Trip To California Permits Florent Mosers To Visit Son

Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in California with their son, Gene, at Long Beach. Gene's ship, the USS Toledo, was in dock there, and besides having a week end with his parents, he had each evening with them during their stay with the exception of one evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Moser were accompanied on the trip by Bud Scharbach, Mrs. Ferd Bruegeman and Mrs. Chris Broenneke. Mrs. Bruegeman visited her daughter, Pat, a nurse at the Veterans Hospital at Long Beach, and Mrs. Broenneke visited with her son, Ray, stationed at Fort Ord. The five travelers were fortunate during their stay to have use of the apartment of Miss Bruegeman and two other nurses. One nurse was on vacation, and the other was on night duty. Needless to say, Miss Bruegeman and the nurse on night duty, enjoyed the home cooking supplied by their guests.

Highlights of the trip was a visit to Old Mexico, Capistrano and Knox Berry Farm.

Returning they visited with relatives in San Francisco and spent a day and two nights at Mt. Angel, Ore., with Mrs. Louise Welton and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Scharbach. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner at Mt. Angel, former Genesee residents, who send regards to their friends here.

Traveling to southern California they stopped the first night at Klamath Falls and the second night at Fresno. Roads were excellent. Returning the coast route and crossing over to Eugene, travel was slow with restricted speeds owing to slides. They traveled 3800 miles on the trip.

Alice Mortensen Bride Of Donald L. Huffman

The marriage of Joyce Alice Mortensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Mortensen, and Donald L. Huffman of Seattle, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Lough, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, March 3 at the Presbyterian church in Moscow.

The Rev. Donald Clayton read the double ring ceremony in a setting of white stock, pink carnations and yellow snapdragons in large baskets and white candles in the standing candelabra. Center aisle pews were marked by bows of white satin ribbon combined with pastel shades of sweet peas.

David Sampson, organist, played the Lohengrin processional and background music during the ceremony, with the Mendelssohn recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon marquisette with lace insets and ruffles at the sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and full length skirt extending into a train. Her fingertip veil of net was edged in lace and held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. The dress was the same one worn by the bride's twin sister, Mrs. Douglas McNeilly, at her wedding two years ago. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white roses and stephanotis with removable corsage.

Mrs. McNeilly, matron of honor, wore pink nylon organza with headdress of pink lace and stephanotis, and matching lace mitts. Her flowers, in cascade arrangements, were pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Dawn Lynn Huffman of Genesee, niece of the bridegroom, wore pink organza made in the same style as the matron of honor's dress, a similar headdress and she carried a white basket of rose petals.

Miss Shirley Mortensen, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore deep pink taffeta with wristlet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Ronald Huffman, Genesee, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering were Robert Huffman, brother of the bridegroom from Genesee, and Paul Osmundson of Seattle.

The bride's mother wore navy blue, matching accessories and pink rose corsage. The bridegroom's grandmother wore a gray suit with pink and black accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the little chapel at the church. The three-tier cake was surrounded by a garland of smilax and pink roses. A combination of spring flowers decorated the serving tables. Assisting after the bridal couple had cut the first piece from their cake were: Mrs. H. Robert Mortensen, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. W. A. Mortensen, Moscow, and Mrs. W. O. Hughes, Pullman, aunts of the bride. Others were Mrs. Ralph Walters, Mrs. L. C. Cornwall, Mrs. Forrest Williams, Mrs. Vern Miller and Miss Shirley Mortensen. Miss Lucille Semler of Spokane was in charge of the guest book.

The bride receieved her degree in business administration in 1949 from the University of Idaho. She was president of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, national business girls' organization, and treasurer of the state council. She has been employed at Schnell Tractor Co. at Moscow. Her husband, a veteran of four years in World War II with the army in the South Pacific, is employed in Seattle where the couple will live.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue suit with gray accessories, bag and shoes of ring-tailed lizard, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.—Moscow Idahonian.

Lenten Thought

Amidst the pulsadts of the multitude, Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday on a borrowed colt. He thus suggests to us that to live a triumphant and dignified life, we do not require much of this world's goods. Our need is not an outward style but inward majesty of character. Jesus knew, as no one else, what lay just ahead in His life and in the lives of His disciples. He was within a few minutes of Gethsemane and a few hours of Cabray, yet He sang. Perhaps the songs were from the Psalms because He was about to fulfil His Father's purpose, to give His life for the redemption of the world. Service, not selfishness, creates music and a desire to sing. The soul sings best who so loves that he gives his all. Jesus prayed that His joy might be in His followers.

Letter To The Editor

"Is Genesee to lose its theatre? Not too long ago our town was without a movie, and everyone was wishing that we had one, a place for entertainment for the children as well as the adults. It is very probable that we will be in the same situation again unless we all support our theatre more. Mr. Campbell has employed us to manage it, and we are making every effort to improve conditions so it will be a quiet, enjoyable place to spend an evening. If attendance justifies a much better line of pictures will be shown. We would appreciate your patronage very much.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kalafus,

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an oversized cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in there?" I asked him. "That's my 'blind-spot' reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept one in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then.

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grew and grew—now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences ... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

High Taxes And Assessments Lessen Tournament Income

Basketball tournaments, especially those conducted to determine winners in state class A and B competition are usually disappointing to schools entered. One may witness huge crowds jamming gymnasiums in Idaho and other states for the big playoffs, but seldom does one stop to consider that Uncle Sam takes 20 per cent of the gate. In this state, Kenneth Primus, who managed the successful Lewiston district tournament, said the state ath-letic association comes in for a 5 per cent cut, and another 5 per cent goes to the state athletic accident and ben-efit fund. That's a total slash of 30 per cent. Then there's the officials and other expenses such as advertising and tickets. Trophies are rather ex-pensive. Primus said the cost of tro-phies at Lewiston this year amount-ed to $116.91.

Eleven teams participated in the Lewiston district tournament, includ-ing 8 class B teams and three class A teams. Tournaments pay expenses of board and lodging for players as long as they remain in competition.

From the recent Lewiston tourna-ment Genesee received $206 for board and lodging and drew a cut of $110.

Gross income at the Lewiston tour-nament this year was $5837, or about $500 less than last year. Receipts would probably have been larger had Grangeville remained in the tourna-ment longer, and had Orofino been entered as a class B team, that town would have turned out in a larger number.

Genesee's Bulldogs Win Idaho Class 'B' Title

The Genesee News

Established 1888 — Genesee, Latah County, Idaho, Friday, March 23, 1951 — Vol. 65 No. 39

IDAHO 1951 CLASS B BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Heyburn Favored To Win Downed In Finals 62-51

Genesee high school Bulldogs, coached by Garold Hammond, were crowned Class "B" basketball champions of Idaho for 1951 at the conclusion of tournament play at Pocatello Saturday evening. Genesee Bulldog backers who provided a direct broadcast of the game over Station KRLC, Lewiston from Pocatello heard their favorite team race to a thrilling victory over the favored Heyburn team 62 to 51. Hammond's team, granted an "outside chance" to win the state title, crossed up the "experts" but rewarded the Genesee community for its confidence in the team. Genesee, hoping for the spot of "underdog" came through with flying colors. The Bulldogs let Riric down 69 to 50, and defeated Grace 59 to 54, before meeting the vaunted Heyburn club in the finals. Both Heyburn and Aberdeen were considered equal to or better than Class A teams in southeastern Idaho. Genesee divided with Central Valley of Spokane in two games. The Spokane club trampled Class A teams of north Idaho. Heyburn squeaked by Aberdeen 60 to 59 and by Middleton 55 to 54. Genesee clipped Heyburn by 11 points in winning the state championship, and leaving in doubt the comparative strength of Genesee and Idaho Falls, the latter defeating Nampa in an upset 37-36 for the Class A title.

Genesee high school, representing the Second District or central Idaho section, joins Kendrick and Orofino as Class B title holders, which suggests that basketball teams from this district have dominated the picture in recent years. Kendrick was a state champion and also a north Idaho title holder, while Orofino went south to win the flag in 1949, and repeated at Lewiston in 1950, when Genesee was the runner-up club.

At Pocatello Saturday night, the Genesee Bulldogs, who "played under wraps" against Ririe and Grace, lowered the boom on the highly favored Heyburn team. Heyburn edged Aberdeen out of the championship bracket last Wednesday evening, winning by one lone point. Heyburn had another narrow escape against Middleton but won 55 to 54. Genesee, given a nod as a "darkhorse" team went along with the sport scribes, and didn't count their chickens before they were fully hatched. The Bulldogs, however, and as planned, turned on the heat to incubate the eggs laid by quite a few coaches and sportswriters, and that was the way Coach Hammond and the ten boys from Genesee made up their tournament blueprints.

If the Genesee Bulldogs were unimpressive in their 69-50 win over Ririe in their first game, it must be remembered that 19 points is not a poor margin of victory. Then against the Grace team, the Bulldogs kept their playing mediocre, intending to keep ahead without disclosing their ability to work from planned formations.

Genesee Bulldogs and the large number of fans did not approve the title of "lumbering" Bulldogs, nor did they especially like the phrase, "physical insanity," but they threw everything back into the sportswriters' faces when the chips were down, and it was planned that way One newspaper was the exception, and that was the Deseret News of Salt Lake City. The Pocatello paper just couldn't see the Bulldogs, and reports from there to other papers having Associated Press service took what was offered and printed it.

Rathdrum from District No. 1 made the mistake of waiting late to make the long trip to Pocatello, whereas Gary Hammond packed his boys off to the Gate City or "Smoky Pokey" March 11, four days before they were to play in the tournament. Time was provided to accustom the team to the higher altitude and get the feel of the tournament floor. The latter was reported as not easy as time on the Pocatello high school court was denied to a great extent. The Bulldogs turned out once at the Idaho State College gymnasium.

Heyburn Surprised

Heyburn, conceded by southeastern Idaho coaches and writers as the 1951 championship team after managing to get by Aberdeen by one point, in what was referred to as the championship game, was "ran into the boards" during the second half of the finals Saturday night. A nip-and-tuck first half kept Heyburn's hopes alive, but bewilderment marked the faces of the south Idaho favorites. Starting off with four minutes gone in the classy championship game, and with Heyburn's count appearing first, the fast-moving score was as follows: 9-8, 10-8, 10-10, 12-10, 12-12, 12-14; first quarter, 14-14. 15-14, 17-14, 19-14, 19-16, 19-18, 21-18, 21-20, 21-21, 21-23, 22-23; end of first half, 23-23

Genesee went ahead in the second half and was never headed: 23-25, 23-26, 25-26, 25-28, 25-30, 27-30, 27-32, 28-32, 29-32. 29-34, 31-34, 31-36, 33-36, 33-38, 33-40, 35-40, 37-40, 37-42; end of third quarter, 39-42.

In the final quarter the count ran as follows: 39-44, 39-46, 39-48, 41-48, 41-49, 43-49, 43-51, 43-53, 43-55, 44-55, 44-57, 46-57, 48-57, 50-57, 50-59, 50-61, 50-62, and the final count 51-62. Genesee had one foul shot coming as the buzzer sounded to end the game, but that shot was never taken, and then Genesee fans, about 60 swarmed onto the floor to almost smother the Bulldogs with their embraces and a demonstration of victory. There was one unhappy scene, the Heyburn boys, who had prepared well for the tournament but who had not been advised of the Bulldogs scoring punch. Genesee may be credited with being a second-half ball club, for several times during the season the Bulldogs came from behind to win. For instance, the Grangeville game at Grangeville when Genesee scored but one point in the first quarter and finished ahead of the host Prairie club by about 20 points.

Hammond Turns 'Em Loose

Coach Hammond benefited by pretournament scouting of Heyburn and Aberdeen. He sent in his boys to run with Heyburn in the opening quarter,

Royal Welcome For Champions

Basketball fans of the Genesee community drummed up a welcome for their Idaho Class B champions Monday evening, which was not only noisy and fully expressive of their pent-up emotion, but developed into a beautiful parade from the scenic spot at the top of Lewiston hill into Genesee. There were no elaborate preparations. Gary Hammond called from Grangeville that his victorious team was expected in Genesee shortly after 6:30 p. m. Monday. His team, the cheer leaders and one car of tournament boosters wound slowly up the grade. There were four cars in the evacuation of Pocatello, driven by Hammond, Bob Morken, H. E. Bennett and Walt Gehrke. It was expected that perhaps 20 cars from Genesee would be waiting at the summit. There were 20 to start with, all lined up back to the guard rail. More cars lined up, then there was a second row, and yet more cars came. All lights were out as the four automobiles from south Idaho wound tediously slow up the long spiral highway. Evenly spaced the returning vehicles turned loop after loop, and then as they approached the viewpoint pandemonium broke loose. Coach Hammond had not advised the team members and cheer leaders of the reception. Coach, players, cheer leaders, manager and drivers poured out of the cars. Arms went around necks, hands clasped, hands landed on backs. Time passed and when ready to proceed it was noticed there was a rear flat tire on the Morken car, the only one for the four cars to and from Pocatello. Excited fans said they would hold the car up while the tire was changed, but finally a jack was used. Eager hands went to work but one never saw so so many thumbs.

Winding over the Palouse hills and around curves the caravan increased in length, until it is safe to state, the lighted cars stretched more than a mile and a half. More cars waited along the road, and one of the fire trucks was at the town limits.

Horns were sounding as the cars aproached town, the fire siren was wailing, and then the climax, when the returning victors were showered with shredded paper. Firecrackers were flashing, flash bulbs were going off, and then a shotgun split the air with three blasts.

The fire siren, sounded about 6:20 for a minute or two when cars began going to the hilltop. It was sounded long and furiously again when the long caravan wound its way into town. Finally it stopped. The starting or relay switch burned out.

There was rejoicing aplenty. The boys and girls seemed pleased to be home, and when the demonstration at last started to break up students were gathering in small groups, and going to familiar places for their favorite refreshments.

Yup, Genesee won the state Class B tournament, and people here just didn't care how much noise they made in welcoming the Bulldogs.

Coach Gary Hammand was boosted onto a car. He paid tribute to his boys, praised them for their teamwork and ability, but he did not forget Heyburn, a great ball club.

University of Idaho: Mrs. W. J. Mervyn (Patricia Nelson) and Mrs. Ellis Odberg Jr., (Lois Winner) University of Idaho seniors, were among 14 seniors on the campus to be initiated Friday evening in the Idaho Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the two being from Genesee who qualified due to superior scholastic standings. Dr. Phillip W. Buck, professor of political science at Stanford University was guest speaker for the annual event. Following the initiation at the Moscow hotel a banquet was served the honored group. Mrs. Mervyn is taking her few remaining credits by correspondence this semester. Mrs. Odberg completed her studies at the close of the first semester. Both will receive their degrees in June.

Genesee Moves In On Pocatello To See Bulldogs Win State Title

Genesee basketball fans moved in on Pocatello for the state Class B basketball tournament, with about 65 being at "Smoky Pokey" to witness the Bulldogs grab the title. The basketball squad, coach, manager, three cheer leaders, H. E. Bennett and Ed Morken, car drivers, left here early Sunday morning, March 11, and created a subdivision for fans following by car later in the week. At first the large number of fans were quartered at three motels, but finally they were grouped in the large Sunset Motor Court. Included in the migration to southeastern Idaho were parents of players, mothers, a grandmother and friends. Tournament visitors took with them plenty to eat, even to cookies and cakes, various steak cuts, and even one took along a large hunk of stew meat for a big mulligan. It was a most hospitable group of Genesee people. After each game when the boys were bedded down the others held talk sessions at night, gathered for boards of strategy during the day, and did just about everything they would do as if at home. The Motor Court operator may have lost a few lodgers, but as soon as they moved out Genesee people moved in, and apparently that was the way the operators wished it. Two restaurants nearby did a land office business, and was plasered with Genesee booster signs.

Birthdays Celebrated

A big St. Patrick's Day party was a birthday event, at which Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Estil Carbuhn and Murray Myers were honored. Donna Danielson had a birthday on March 15, and Rev. Melford Knight, whose birthdate was March 10 were included. One large cake was taken south by a mother, but the really large cake was constructed at a Pocatello bakery. Coffee percolators were on the flame at all times, food was free and it mattered not who furnished it, others were welcome to it. That sounds just like Genesee, whether the people are in Bannock or Latah county.

Pick Up Supporters

It may have been discomforting to scouting coaches from southeastern Idaho to watch the Bulldogs in their two first games, and tournament spectators may not have been satisfied. The tide turned Saturday night. Genesee began picking up support while the Bulldogs went through their complete warmup. The Aberdeen delegation was large Wednesday night when their team lost to Heyburn, and it was just as large Saturday night. They rolled up the sidewalks in their home town, brought their school band, and went all-out in cheering for the Bulldogs. Genesee also gathered some support from other towns represented at the playoff, and before the game was well along the "lumbering Bulldogs" were matching Heyburn point for point, and then surging ahead, never to be headed.

Borgen Car Takes The Ditch To Avoid Serious Collision

One mishap marred the otherwise safe journey of Genesee fans to Pocatello and return. Sunday while traveling Highway 30 into Boise from Mountain Home, the Wm. Borgen car went into the ditch to avoid a collision with a car which stopped suddenly and well over toward the center highway stripe. Traffic was heavy and the driver was watching cars approaching as they broke over a hill. Unable to stop, the car was pulled sharply to the right and into a ditch. The vehicle turned completely over and landed on its wheels. After applying chains and with help of a few passing motorists the car was back on the road. The body and fenders were badly crumpled, but the fenders were bent to give wheel allowance so the vehicle could be driven into Boise where Ed Weber located the passengers and brought Irene Carbuhn, Donna Danielson and Kenneth Kinzer to Genesee. Mr. Borgen, his son, Wayne, and Estil Carbuhn drove the car to Genesee without repairs being necessary. Donna Danielson received a slight scalp wound for the only injury. Mr. Borgen said his car, a new Frazier, was fully covered by insurance.

Bennett Enlists In Navy

Don Bennett left Lewiston Wednesday afternoon of last week with other young men for Seattle to take physicals to enter the navy. The men were sent to San Diego where they will undergo boot training. Don was accompanied to Lewiston by his mother, Mrs. H. E. Bennett and grandmother, Mrs. F. I. Bennett, who were enroute to Pocatello to attend the state basketball tournament with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Gehrke and Mrs. R. E. Nordby. Mr. and Mrs. Gehrke and party traveled to Mountain Home Wednesday.

Strong Believer In Brother

Little Yvonne Rabdau, sister of the stalwart Jim Rabdau, Bulldogs forward, was walking down the street Monday. She was asked: "Who won the tournament?" She quickly answered: "Jim."

Shoots "H" Out Of Neon Sign Hammer Goes Straight Again

Gunder Hammer former Kellogg and Lewiston trapshooter, now member of the Aspendale Gun Club went "straight" again. He shot a perfect three out of three Monday evening when he joined in making noise for the welcome staged for the victorious Bulldogs, Idaho state Class B basketball champions. To increase the noise he picked up one of his trap guns, placed three shells in the magazine, stepped a few feet from the entrance of his place of business, Hammer's Bar, pumped one shell into the chamber, pulled the trigger. Wham went the charge, then two more shells were pumped and all three shots blasted the neon sign which hung above the entrance. He made three direct hits, shattering the neon tubing, One hole about 2 inches and another about 4 inches in diameter showed in the bottom of the metal sign. The charges at close range, tore much larger holes in the side of the sign.

Hammer, strong supporter of the Bulldogs carefully surveyed the situation to be certain he wouldn't sever the telephone cable or blast the street light, but had no concern for his neon sign. He just pointed the gun upward and started shooting. He surely knocked the "H" out of his sign, but maintained his reputation as a sure-shot. Don't think the marksman hasn't been reminded every few minutes of his "scatter gun" ability.

One of the shell cases, an innocent, green tube with a brass cap attached, bearing the lettering, "REM-UMC, No. 12 Shurshot," remains the property of this writer who intends to present it to his gun club, or it may be presented to the Bulldogs for their new trophy case as a reminder of the "shot heard around the world."

If anyone wants a neon sign shot down consult Gunder Hammer at Genesee. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Hasfurther At Oakland

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther were advised by radio today that the USS Randall, on which their son, Cpl. Maurice Hasfurther is traveling from Korea, had arrived at Oakland. He is one of many U. S. Marines receiving leave on the rotation plan. Mr. and Mrs. Hasfurther hoped to hear from their son within a day or two, and may motor to Portland to meet him. They expected he would travel to Portland by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones visited Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Edmund Reisenauer, and family at Colton.

Genesee State Champ In Early Days Of 1912

With no intention of detracting from the glory of the Genesee Bulldogs in their thrilling upset in winning the Idaho Class B championship for 1951, The News would like to present another great Genesee team in Charles Gray and Andrew Wardrobe, forwards; John Wardrobe, center; James Keane and Melvin Wardrobe, guards, and Herbert Martinson, manager. Incidentally this is the team with which E. W. Vanouck was affiliated in the earllier days, and which brings back pleasant memories to him and many others here.

"Genesee 18-Rathdrum 16

"'Tis done. We have met the enemy and they are ours. After striving for the championship for the past two years, Genesee came into her own last Friday night, when they met and defeated the splendid Rathdrum team on the University of Idaho court. And such a game has never before been witnessed in that gymnasium where the best college teams have shown their strength.

"Two hundred twenty-five, accompanied by a fife and drum corps, in a special train of four coaches, was the wav Genesee turned out to the game, and although the U. of I. students who composed the majority of the crowd at the gym, were decidedly in favor of Rathdrum's winning, if the rooting on the sidelines may be taken as a criterion, Genesee's pluck and the star guarding of James Keane in the latter part of the game, brought victory to our side.

"In the practice before the game, it was seen that Rathdrum had a team almost, if not equal of ours and the playing bore out this conclusion, for it was the concensus of opinion among those who saw it that the teams were quite evenly matched, although for some reason the Genesee boys played in hard luck when it came to throwing goals. In her usual form Genesee would easily have outclassed the Panhandlers. The game was called promptly at 8:15 before a crowded house of from 650 to 700 people. Wardrobe secured the first tip and Genesee took the first score with a field goal. The excitment was intense on the Genesee side until Rathdrum secured a field goal and then a foul goal. Five hundred lusty-lunged U. of I. students cheered these latter plays, while a sigh went up from the Genesee fans. Then Genesee secured another field goal, then a foul goal, while Rathdrum came in for another field goal. Back and forth the advantage shifted, first with Genesee, then with Rathdrum, and at no time during the game was either team more than two points ahead, and when the timekeeper's gun was fired at the end of the half, the score stood 9 to 8 in favor of Rathdrum.

"The team and Genesee fans now realized keenly that here was the strongest team they had ever been up against, and this does not bar the Spokane High team, which the Spokane papers have always given credit of being the superior team of the three. Spokane High never played such a game as was waged in Moscow last Friday night. That quintet lacks considerable of being equal to either of these teams.

"The boys came on the floor in the second half after the brief rest with grim determination marked on their faces, likewise the Rathdrum quintet. This part of the game was replica of the first half; first one side ahead and then the other, while the crowd of excited and nerve-strung fans gave one frenzied cheer after another, as the beautiful team work was exhibited and field and foul goal thrown.

"Then the timekeeper's gun fired again and a deep hush spread over the gym. The score was tied 16 to 16, and the teams must play off the tie.

"Seven hundred enthusiastic fans saw the two teams called back to play for two points, and the game was on the knee of the gods. They saw Genesee fumble the ball, and the baldheaded veteran, Mitchell, get it; saw Rathdrum pass the ball across the floor to the star, McNett; saw him throw for a field goal and the ball went true (?) it circled around the rim of the basket once, started to describe its second circumfernce, and fell outside the basket.

"The excitment was awful, the suspense was heart-rending. Rathdrum fouled. Gray threw the basket and

GENESEE BULLDOGS WIN IDAHO CLASS "B" TITLE

and knowing that the south Idaho team would employ "sleepers" he had one or two men down court fast after a Genesee shot at the bucket. Heyburn found this practice unprofitable. The Bulldogs also used the long pass down court, not for scoring, but in an effort to mislead Heyburn. Genesee had one of its long passes intercepted, for the only loss in "going along" with Heyburn. Genesee fast broke with the worthy opponent, but for success the Bulldogs began setting up their screen plays, and working off a pivot, with a second man moving in to brush off Heyburn's attempt at checking. Strategy paid off. South and southeastern Idaho teams, accustomed to running, jumping and shooting and placing no emphasis on defense were "setting ducks" for the Bulldogs in the final quarter. If Heyburn came out to pick up Genesee players, the Bulldogs were in for lay-ins, and if they elected to stay back, the Bulldogs shot over the screen. Heyburn players and their coach just couldn't solve the situation.

Hammond said he expected some difficulty in playing straight basketball in the Ririe and Grace games, but his boys never once violated orders. In the second half of the final game when the coach "shot the works" the Bulldogs were ready and willing, and in went the two-pointers with regularity. Genesee scored 20 points in the last quarter. while holding the opposition to 12 points.

Hammond saw Heyburn against the Aberdeen team last Wednesday night but the Bulldogs remained away from the gymnasium, to see the opposition for the first time Saturday night. Heyburn saw Genesee against Ririe and Grace, and may have been a trifle over-confident, although this opinion has never been expressed. Heyburn ran, jumped and shot, much as that club did last year against Orofino at Lewiston, employing a head and shoulder fake before shooting. Conner and Uscola of Heyburn were picked up at the center line each time by Bennett and Gehrke respectively. Sather was on Simpson, Sprenger on Lee and Rabdau was on Warner, in Genesee's man-to-man defense. Genesee was handling the ball superbly, and Heyburn was doing a nice job too, but the Bulldogs out-ran and checked too closely for the Heyburn club. Genesee, having a simple but effective out-of-bounds play, caught Heyburn headed in the wrong direction on two occasions to prevent neat lay-ins. Gehrke, Rabdau and Sather were strong men under the Genesee board, and coming out with the ball so often was either Jim Bennett or Jim Sprenger. Gehrke wasn't shooting at the moon when he racked up his 17 points, and Jim Bennett, with 16 points, was popping the ball in over his two-man screen close under the basket. Sprenger electrified the situation when he raced right through the Heyburn team for a left-handed lay-in. He counted 8 points in the game. Rabdau, playing a wonderful team game, and sinking four field goals from every direction, including a sharp lay-in, counted 10 points. Jim Sather, working through the mass of hands and bodies under the opponent's basket, found time to count 11 points and play a stellar all-around game.

Report From Pocatello

Bob Paulos, Idaho State Journal, Pocatello, luke-warm sports editor, ran the following about the Genesee-Heyburn game:

Tiny Genesee high school out of the north is Idaho's Class B basketball champion for 1951. Genesee traded baskets with Heyburn for a half Saturday night before pushing all-out in the third and fourth quarters to take what turned out to be a comparatively eash 62-51 victory.

After Genesee and Heyburn had tied 14-14 at the end of the first quarter then 23-23 at the half, Genesee came back to take a 42-39 lead at the end of the third period. A duel between Jim Bennett of Genesee and Daron Connor in the third period left Bennett and the Bulldogs on the long end. Genesee set a torrid shooting pace in the final period.

Genesee had moved into the finals with a 59-54 victory over a crippled Grace team Friday night while Heyburn was rescuing the verdict from Middleton 55-54 late in the contest.

Idaho Basketball Comment Genesee Players Rate High

Genesee basketball fans are no different than elsewhere, especially if their home team turns in a truly championship club. Sportswriters, if they express opinions, cannot please everyone. Americans don't want a cut-and-dried verdict. Following are some comments printed in Idaho:

Radbau On First Team

Pocatello—One player from the championship Genesee team and two from runnerup Heyburn won first team berths in the Class B tornament all-star team chosen for the Idaho Journal by visiting coaches, officials and newsmen.

First team choices were Jim Rabdau of Genesee, Daron Conner and Keith Uscola of Heyburn, David Stone of Middleton and Leon Henderson of Aberdeen. The six boys named to the second team were Jim Sather of Genesee, Stan Lee of Heyburn, Lamar Inskeep of Aberdeen, Dick Matsumoto of Middleton, Bill Hollingsworth of Grace, and Jerry Purrington of Rathdrum.

Uscola of Heyburn won a close race for honors as the tournament's outstanding player. Votes also went to Conner, Rabdau, Sather and Stone.

Sather On First Team

The Deseret News, Salt Lake City, made the following selections for all-state class B team: Forwards, Doran Conner, Heyburn, and Bill Hollingsworth, Grace. Center, Jim Sather of Genesee. Guards, Lamar Inskeep of Aberdeen and David Stone, Middleton. Second team: Forwards, Leon Henderson, Aberdeen and Keith Uscola, Heyburn. Center, Gary Egan, Ririe. Guards, Jim Bennett, Genesee, and Mel Pfost, Middleton. The Salt Lake sheet also placed Jim Radbau and Ray Gehrke of Genesee on the honorable mention list.

The Deseret News also stated: "No team has a monopoly on the pick of players. Among the first all-state Deseret News five are three centers, but they earned this spot by playing ball and not spending their time tending goal or sleeping under the basket while their fellows fed them the ball. Everyone of them got out and rustled and played on the floor.

Winning the official center spot was big Jim Sather of the Genesee Bulldogs, who was the main factor in his team's coming through to the finals to meet Heyburn, who placed perhaps the outstanding man in the tournament, if there was such, in the stellar Doran Conner, forward. (Recall the two-man battle staged by Conner and Bennett in the finals?)

Small Men Given Break

Hoyt Palmer of the Deseret News said: "These teams send some of the best players in the state to battle for the greatly desired championship trophy, and this year is no exception." In running down the players for comparson the following lines were read: "And big Jim Sather with his diminutive teammates, Jim Bennett and Jim Sprenger (a lot of Jims), and there's even one more, of the Genesee team, to name but a few who stood out in the first round of play."

MRS. E. B. CONKLIN

Company Seeing Double Has Two Sets Of Twins

From the paper published at Camp Lewis is taken the following:

Two sets of twins are included in the roster of the 22nd QM Sub Sup Co. Pvts. Peter and Paul Zenner of Nezperce, Idaho, were inducted into the army Jan. 19 and arrived at Fort Lewis the next day. The other twins are Pvts. Jerome and John Oman, from Seattle, inducted Nov. 24.

* * * * *

The Zenner twins are former residents of the Genese community. This area has furnished another set of twins, Don and Harold Woodley for the present emergency. In World War II another set of twins left from Genesee, Don and Ron Huffman.

Attend Dunham Funeral

At Nezperce Wednesday to attend funeral services for E. C. Dunham, 57, who died Saturday at his home near Nezperce, were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Green, Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron and Chas. Ingle. The deceased came to the Genesee community at the age of one year, and spent his childhood here. The family lived in the Gray Eagle neighborhood.

Recent Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Armstrong are the parents of a son, Dick W., born March 11. The father, Capt. Armstrong, formerly lived at Genesee and is now with the 148th Field Artillery and also coaching at NIJC, Coeur d'Alene.

Friends have also received word of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson of Pullman. The father is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Wilson of Lewiston, formerly of Genesee.

Sudden Blasts Confusing

When Gunder Hammer shot his neon sign full of holes Monday evening, the immediate reaction was noted, and again it was proven that such suddenness is often confusing. Some say two shots were fired. Some say the metal strip which was attached to the top of the sign fell to the sidewalk, and it was even said the sign fell to the sidewalk. The true report is that Hammer fired three shots, all three hit the sign, the metal strip was at the paint shop for new lettering, and the battered and tattered sign still hangs from the cables much like a wounded goose caught in a windmill.

Legion Birthday Party

Sharing in the celebration of the 32nd birthday of the American Legion Sunday evening at the Legion Memorial building were Legionnaires and their wives and Auxiliary members and husbands numbering 100. The Auxiliary planned the dinner with Mrs. David Kuehl, activity chairman in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Kuehl also acted as toastmistress. Mrs. Ed Carlson, president of the Auxiliary, and John Hickman, Legion commander, welcomed the guests and cut the first slice of the beautifully decorated birthday cake. Dinner speakers were Mrs. C. R. Stillinger of Moscow, department president, and Dale Michael, Second District commander.

Working on committees for the dinner were Mrs. Homer Schooler, Mrs. Ronald Geltz, and Mrs. John Hickman, decorations; Mrs. Mahlon Follett, Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. O. V. Johnson, Mrs. Kuehl, Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Jack Nebelsieck and Mrs. Virgil Post, dinner, and Mrs. Frank Hoorman and Mrs. Jack Nebelsieck, program.

Cards were played following the dinner with prizes going to Mrs. Joe Schooler and Mrs. Post for the ladies and to Fred Shirrod and Ed Carlson for the men.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Genesee Parent-Teacher association was held Monday evening at the home ec building. Two cancer films were shown with Dr. Paul Genstler as the speaker. Serving luncheon after the meeting were Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. Homer Schooler, Mrs. John Eikum and Mrs. R. E. Berger.

ST. JOHN SOCIETY

St. John Lutheran Church Society met Thursday afternoon of last week at the church parlors with Mrs. Harry Emerson as program leader. Rev. H. Cronrath spoke on the first commandment. Winner in a quiz game was Miss Frieda Hermann. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Henry Halverson and Miss Maggie Bottjer.

City Dump Grounds Open

Chas. Mauch, marshal, said Thursday evening the dump grounds are now open. It is necessary to travel the round-about route as the road leading west from town is not open.

Sorry For The Small Sheet

The News wishes to apologize for the small inserted sheet in this week's paper. There was just too much basketball, and the large force was unable to coordinate for extra pages. To the business houses of Genesee who requested space to welcome the Bulldogs, we must offer apologies also. We were not equal to the occasion.

Sidelights To Championship

Garold Hammond, who coached the starting five Bulldogs, and Nordby and Liberg as eighth graders had a promise from them they would win the state Class B championship in 1951. Hammond came here in 1946 to teach and coach, and taking the boys at their word, the pact paid off last week in Pocatello.

With 45 second to go in the finals Ray Gehrke called time to consult Hammond. Often wondering what actually transpires in a time-out, the following was learned. Gehrke said, "Have we got it won?" With his fists tense and demanding an answer, Gerry Hammond finally said, "Yes." Out went the team onto the floor. Jim Bennett was nearest to Gehrke who planted a big kiss on his teammate.

Bob Bennett, sitting next to Hammond, and like the second five, well pleased with prograss of the game in the hands of the starting five, was not anxious to go into the game. He nudged, elbowed and punched the coach while exhorting his brother, Jim, "Pick him up Jim, pick him up or he'll make two points. He was referring to the older Bennett's job of guarding Heyburn's Conner.

Murray Myers, who fell victim to a cold before the finals, sat behind the coach. In the final minutes he looped him arm over Bob Bennett continually to punch Hammond and say "Think we got it, Coach. Think we got it?" Liberg and Nordby just couldn't say anything as the Bulldogs raced to the championship. Hammond said he was unmindful of the pounding he took until after the game.

In the Grace-Genesee game, Jim Bennett suffered a punctured lower lip when he came in contact with an elbow. Although his lower lip would not hold water he played throughout the game with a patch covering his lower jaw.

Here are some excepts from the Pocatello Idaho State Journal:

"Genesee's lumbering Bulldogs continued their bid for the B title with a 69-50 triumph over Ririe."

"With all teams having shown their wares by Thursday night, Heyburn still remained a top-heavy favorite for the tournament championship, with the Middleton game Friday night probably presenting the toughest challenge for the Panthers."

"Heyburn was expected to get by Middleton and Grace, injury riddled again, still was a slight favorite to beat Genesee."

"Genesee never seemed to get fully under way although they easily outdistanced a loose Ririe team. Coach Gary Hammond of Genesee pulled his first string for the early minutes of the second quarter, after having taken an 18-7 lead. He ran them back in after three minutes and by halftime led 28-23. Genesee rebounding was almost wholly invested in Rabdau. He hit for eight points, all in the first quarter. Top man in Genesee scoring was Sprenger with 14. The Genesee offense picked up steam in the third period and by the intermission the Bulldogs were in front 43-31."

"Genesee moved into the finals with a 59-54 victory over a crippled Grace team Friday night."

* * * *

That's the way Genesee wanted it. The Genesee News is reluctant to call anyone a "sucker," but Pocatello took Hammond's strategy, hook, line and sinker. Genesee fans who witnessed the games, said the Grace "cripples" were faster than lightning once they got the ball. Imagine a boy called a cripple who could dribble and out-distance young Bob Bennett. Jim Sprenger or Jim Bennett. Grace had them. Then Heyburn lost because the favored south Idaho club had played two hard games before meeting the Genesee Bulldogs who covered about 600 miles to make the tournament at Pocatello. This writer is not casting any reflections on players, but a little light on the Pocatello sports writers shows up their poor judgement.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Lenten Thought

Our christian churches are filled with symbols of many kinds. A symbol is an object that speaks without words. Most common and most important of these is the cross because it is the symbol of our christian faith. We find it on steeples, altars, communion tables, hymn books, prayer books, Bible, etc. The cross reminds us that pepole who are good and who try to do good things will be opposed by people who are evil. Jesus wished only to do good but enemies finally brought about His death on the cross. In our day it is the same way. If someone starts a campaign to get rid of drinking, gambling or something wrong, soon evil forces try to defeat it. The cross with its two arms crossing each other, reminds us that the forces of life cross each other, that evil is always trying to crucify good. The cross tells us that God loved us enough to let his Son suffer and die for us. The cross reminds us that Christianity is more than something to believe. It is a way of life. It is a way of service. There is a lot of work to be done in this world. Jesus needs workers in His kingdom, not just lookers on. He needs people to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick. He needs teachers to teach the ignorant and preachers to proclaim the gospel. He needs people in every area of life who will work for the sake of the good they can do, and not for just what they can get out of it. The way of the cross is a way of great joy, because Christ walks it with us. He helps us over the rough places and through the hard spots, and like the disciples of old, our hearts rejoice as He walks with us on the way.

Genesee had one of the two points. Rathdrum fouled again. Gray missed the throw. Rathdrum persisted in fouling. They attempted to run across the floor carrying the ball. Gray poised for the throw. On it rested the whole championship. He calmly measured the distance with his eyes, and threw the sphere. True as a die it spun through the basket, spelling the biggest victory Genesee ever won, and carrying with it the distinguished honor, the championship of the Inland Empire and the State of Idaho. Genesee brought home that ball with them. Field goals: M. Wardrobe, 2; J. Wardrobe, 1; A. Wardrobe, 1; Gray, 2. Foul goals, Gray, 6. Players for Rathdrum were Sylvester, A. Mitchell, R. Mitchell, McNett and Bourne.

"The game marks the close of the season, and the eventual disbanding of the team, for three of the quintet are in this year's graduating class. The boys have worked hard to win the great credit which they have at last achieved, and every citizen of Genesee is proud of them. Three of this famous team will go next year to some college, and The News wants to say that the college that is successful in landing these young men can lay claim to the strongest college team ever known in the history of the Northwest. With the proper coaching along the line of passing, etc., such as could be given by Bohler and other well-known northwest college coaches, these boys would make a team that would simply be invincible.

"This quintet which is about to disband, has been defeated but by one high school in its two years of playing. That was Spokane, over a year ago under adverse curcumstances. It had administered severe drubbings to strong college teams, and was only defeated by the strong W. S. C. star team, composed of such well-known players as Coach Bohler, Anderson, Putnam, etc. Following is the list of games played this year and the score of each game:

Genesee 60 - U. of I. Preps 3.
Genesee 27 - W. S. C. Frosh 21.
Genesee 24 - Spokane 20.
Genesee 17 - U. of I. 11.
Genesee 40 - Pullman 11.
Genesee 24 - Lewiston 9.
Genesee 25 - Pullman 12.
Genesee 80 - Lapwai 16.
Genesee 56 - Colfax 23.
Genesee 18 - Rathdrum 16.

* * * * *

Looking back over the years 1912 seems like yesterday, yet three of the team mentioned above have passed away, John and Andrew Wardrobe and James Keane. Charles Gray is with the Veterans' Administration at San Diego, while Mel Wardrobe continues to reside here, and Martinson operates his farm between Genesee and Moscow.

Gehrke High Genesee Scorer

Ray Gehrke, credited with inspirational playing for the Genesee Bulldogs, scored 41 points in the three games at Pocatello. In the rundown with scoring against Ririe, Grace and Heyburn in that order, Gehrke counted 10, 14 and 17; total 41. Rabdau, 8, 9 and 10; total 27. Sather, 8, 16 and 11; total 35. J. Bennett, 13, 7 and 16; total 36. Sprenger, 14, 6 and 8; total 28. Only the starting five and Myers appeared in three games.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB

The Progressive Club was entertained for luncheon and a pleasant social afternoon by Mrs. Jess Johnson on Wednesday. Guests besides members were Mrs. Ruth Perkins of Moscow and Betsy Morken.

Hollingsworth, Grace Ace Scores 22 Points On Genesee

Southeastern Idaho basketball followers were certain that Grace would bounce Genesee from the championship bracket last Friday evening at Pocatello. Genesee, however, was reluctant to give up the lead at any time, but the Bulldogs saw Hollingsworth, a small Grace player score 22 points on eight field goals and six out of eight from the foul line. Hollingsworth, a small man, perhaps weighing around 135 or 140 pounds was like a bee in one's bonnet, a dead-eye from the field and he made foul shots look like taking cookies from the jar at grandma's. The diminutive player was lost to his team by five personals in the final period, but at that time he had just about ran his limit in scoring. Genesee, in the last quarter, was playing with Gehrke and Sather, both having accumulated the limit of five personals.

Like the Ririe game, Hammond employed most of his men, and again he kept them under wraps, playing only straight basketball, with no plays for offense, and not stressing too much the Bulldogs' defensive strength while Heyburn was looking on.

Sather and Gehrke for Genesee, with 16 and 14 points, respectively, kept the baskets warm. Gehrke hit seven times from the field while Sather plunked in five from the field and five from the gift-toss stripe.

Every Genesee player in the lineup put marks in the scoring column with Rabdau canning four field goals, Myers 1, J. Bennett 3 and Sprenger 2 field goals.

Could Make Same Time By Air

Rev. Melford Knight, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Iris and Phyllis Wilson, Evelyn Simons and Arlies Isaksen, of Genesee left Wednesday night after the Christian church convention, or about 10:30, and were in Pocatello in plenty time to get accommodations and see Genesee meet Ririe Thursday evening. They saw Genesee against Grace, and remained for the title game Saturday night. They left immediately after the championship was decided in favor of Genesee, and were back in the old home town at 10:10 a. m. Sunday. They could have made nearly as good time traveling by air.

Genesee Defeats Ririe 69-50 For First Tournament Win

Genesee high school Bulldogs, appearing in their second state Class B state basketball tournament, last year at Lewiston and last week at Pocatello, started their campaign for the title against Ririe last Thursday evening. Finding the hoop for eight field goals and two foul shots in the first quarter, the Bulldogs were ahead 18 to 7 to start the second period. Ririe counted three from the field and put up one from the gift toss line for seven points. Genesee added 11 more points in the second quarter, with the second platoon taking over. Ririe put up its best battle in the second period with 16 points going their way.

Genesee's 13 points in the third period was in contrast to 8 for Ririe. In the fourth quarter Coach Hammond saw his boys count 23 points, with all of the Bulldogs going into the lineup. During the last period Ririe hit for 19 points. Genesee was accurate from the field with 29 two-pointers, while Ririe hit for 19 shots from the floor.

Jim Sprenger was high with 14 points for Genesee and staged a scoring demonstration in the final period with his four quick field goals. The Genesee guard who never stepped to the foul line in district tournament play, was fouled twice in the Ririe game, and made both tosses good. He was fouled four times in the Grace game, but not once in the thrilling Homedale state title match.

Nield for Ririe was high for his club with 20 points, made on eight from the floor and four from the foul line. In second place was Egan with 12 points.

Murray Myers for Genesee, who marked up 11 points in the Ririe contracted a cold following the Ririe game, and was used sparingly in the Grace game.

Hammond, in using all of his ten men, held them to straight basketball throughout the game, stressing defense, but not really opening up for all scoring possibilities.

Feel Like Bar Sign Looks

Should some Genesee people feel like Hammer's sign looks, the cause may be traced directly to basketball. Basketball followers of this great grain-producing area of Idaho have been through three tournaments, one at Deary, one at Lewiston and finally one at Pocatello. It has been a strenuous three weeks, and it looks like it may extend into a full month or more. Quite a few experienced attacks of influenza, but they managed recovery in time to participate in the royal welcome for the "champs".

Genesee people have not been shot with pellets of lead. They have been pierced, punctured, riddled, maimed and practically unmobilized for the past week. It's true, business has suffered, prospects of a good winter crop of wheat have been discussed but slightly, and dried pea contractors have found inattentive ears.

There will be errors in The News this week as usual, perhaps more so. Corrections next week please.

ATTEND MOTHERS' CLUB

The Alpha Phi Mothers' Club was entertained Wednesday evening by the Alpha Phi Alumnae Club with Mrs. V. A. Cherrington of Moscow and Mrs. John Luedke as hostesses. The party was given at the Luedke home with 22 in attendance, coming from Troy, Moscow and Genesee. Present from Genesee were Mrs. Adrian Nelson, Mrs. R. E. Berger, Mrs. Fred Comnick and Mrs. W. J. Mervyn.

Recently I asked for help from my local Water Power office in solving a lighting problem in our home. It was a pleasant experience to discover how interested they were in assisting me without cost in planning the lighting for my home. Both at the Water Power office and from the Lighting Service Representative that promptly called at our home, I received friendly courtesy as well as competent assistance.

It is testimony such as this that pleases Water Power and its employes most . . . At the Washington Water Power Company, courtesy is as much a part of a tradition of fine service as are efficiency, dependability, and low rates.

Idaho Champs Saluted At Big Victory Banquet

One hundred twenty attended the Civic Association "victory" banquet at Legion Memorial building Wednesday evening to honor the 1951 Idaho state championship Class B basketball team, the Genesee high school Bulldogs, their coach, manager and the three cheer leaders. The dinner was served by Evan's cafe.

Rebroadcast Of Final Game

Next best to watching the game from Hepburn, was the "rebroadcast" of the final game at Pocatello, about 25 minutes of pure, unadulterated fun, and gates of a remarkable piece of script writing and announcing, with sound effects, and a take-off on the original broadcast of March 17 that had everyone laughing from start to finish.

Credit for the 'surprise of the evening" goes entirely to Don Springer, script and advertising writer, who almost announced the game; Bill Emerson, station-break announcer, who read the "ads", and Rev. Melford Knight and Mrs. Bill Emerson, sound effects. At the opening of the "rebroadcast" a few reasoned a recording had been made of the orginal, as the wording, the voices heard, and opening remarks so closely paralleled the broadcast heard over KRLC direct from the tournament held at Pocatello. Wirerecorded, the "rebroadcast" was so well received, so entertaining, and so unmindful of the happy occasion. Rev. Knight, owner of the recorder should be prevailed upon to retain it forever.

Bulldogs Introduced

Don Springer introduced the parents of Coach Hammond of Denry who were here for the victory banquet, and then presented all members of the team, the manager and cheer leaders. Winning the state Class B title, a happy occasion for this community, will long be remembered in the remarks about each person introduced by Coach Hammond Wednesday evening, for he recalled an interesting part of each player's participation in school sports.

Hammond recalled there were only two Idaho clubs able to defeat Genesee during the past two years, One was Filmo who left the Bulldogs as runners-up in the state tournament last year, and the upset loss to Lapwai at Lapwai this year. The Bulldogs' average score for the season was 57.8 per game, and the defensive average score for all games was 35 points.

Cups To Bennett And Morken

Coach Hammond, on behalf of the Bulldogs, presented engraved cups to H. E. Bennett and Bob Morken. Both men were generous in their praise for the cooperation players during the past two years. The former was also official scorer, and the latter became "official" photographer for the Bulldogs at Pocatello. He furnished pictures taken during the state tournament to all players, cheer leaders, manager, coach, scorer, and presented a full set to The News which will be made up into an album.

Hammond also thanked the community for its interest in the team and for the cheerful financial cooperation in providing funds for the trip to Pocatello, and also sufficient funds to clear up all outstanding obligations, with some money remaining to finance spring school sports.

Outlines Tournament Costs

Kenneth Primus, high school principal, and member of the state board of control for high school athletics, and who was manager of the Second District and State Class A tournaments, told of the costs of staging championship play-offs.. Taking the Lewiston tournament as an example, he said total receipts amounted to $5,913.50. Federal taxes took $921.14; 10 per cent of the remaining amount went to the state athletic association; advertising cost $156.10; trophies, $146.91; officials, $432.00; help for the tournament, $359.00; $469.26 went to the Second District association for tournament expenses and to provide supervision, trophies and other necessities for spring sports. Genesee high school received $316.00 as first-place team. There were 11 teams in the play-offs. There were other expenses, including laundry, telephone, board and room for district officials, and insurance.

No financial statement of the Pocatello tournament has been received by Primus, but the amount to be divided between teams will be small.

Speakers Welcomed

Don Springer, president of the Genesee Civic association, who conducted the meeting, joined with others in extending thanks to the American Legion for use of the building.

Sam Jenkins, captain of the University of Idaho basketball team, was present for the dinner. He brought congratulations to the coach and team from the University and from members of the Vandals. He stated the eligibility rules which permit freshman to play with varsity teams in the next few years, and brought an invitation from the University to the

Qualey Calls From Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Qualey were happy to hear the voice of their son, Sgt. Raymond Qualey, by telephone Friday evening from Japan, although the connection was broken several times and the conversation proved as carried the great distance was somewhat unsatisfactory. The call came from Sendai, Japan, the time there being 1:15 p. m. Saturday when it was 8:15 p. m. Friday at Genesee.

Mr. and Mrs. Qualey have not seen their son since Jan. 2, 1949, when he was home on furlough. He saw service there until the present time when he was granted a five-day furlough to Japan, under a rotation plan for the army. Sgt. Qualey, who was 20 years of age November last, is with Co. B, 13th Engineers, a unit of the Seventh Division.

Hour Of Fun Tonight P-TA Staging Program

Friday evening, March 30, you may expect almost anything if you attend the Parent-Teacher talent program at the high school gymnasium, starting at 8 o'clock. The school district has been divided into seven sections, each responsible for providing a number or numbers on the program. Members of the school faculty compose the eighth group, and they have arranged two numbers.

Everyone in the community is invited and urged to attend, at an admission price, of course. The money accumulated Friday evening will be used to provide new dictionaries for the school ,a project being undertaken by the Parent-Teacher association.

Drawing on the imagination, it is certain there will be some melodrama or "stage acting." Directors of some acts refuse to disclose the nature of entertainment planned, so they may expect almost anything from the audience. If the villain is "hissed" or the heroine is cheered, they can't blame those attending. Actors have not issued the announcement that spectators leave over-ripe fruit and vegetables in corridors, but perhaps everyone should give the "amateurs" a "break" Friday evening. Their efforts are being expended in a worthy cause, and some consideration should be given to proper conduct, that children may not be misguided. Of course the affair is all in fun, and one fellow has said, "it better be funny."

Friday evening's "stunt night" extravaganza will include all of the top-flight entertainers in the entire Genesee community who have banded together for the collossal and stupendous, not to mention the supreme effort of providing dictionaries for all of the rooms. If the program doesn't cast a spell over the audience, the children will at least become more proficient in orthography. Attend the big show and become spell-bound.

Stork In A Rush These Days Presents Baby In Automobile

Peggy Lee Hermann, born at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning caused a wave of excitement to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hermann, and to Dr. Paul Genstler. The three were preparing for the trip to Gritman hospital in Moscow at the early morning hour, and as the father paced the walk in front of the Medical Building, little Peggy Lee was born in the family automobile. Dr. Genstler, presiding at the happy occasion under rather unusual circumstances, was equally surprised as the parents. The mother and baby are reported doing nicely at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aherin, parents of Mrs. Hermann. Father's condition reported as fair, and attending physician's condition, surprising. Peggy Lee has a sister, Christine Ann.

Compliments State Champs Admires Neon Sign Shooter

"Colton, Wash., March 23, 1951

"Mr. E. D. Pederson, Publisher
The Genesee News
Genesee, Idaho

"Dear Pete:

"As a former citizen of Genesee and an ardent admirer of its people, I too want to join the many neighbors who offer congratulations to the Genesee people upon the fine accomplishments of the young men of the Genesee high school. I mean specifically, the winning of the Idaho Class "B" basketball title. Genesee has every reason to rejoice. But, too, Genesee has reason to rejoice because it is made up of such fine people, which gives us all the more reason to be glad when they win in any endeavor.

"Now another success of much interest to your neighbors, merits praise. Here too, we find this success to result from continued training and hard work on the part of the person involved. Encouragement from admiring fellow citizens too, has been a factor in developing this individual's skill. You may find this hard to believe, Pete, but I have a very great interest in history. I like to read about the great deeds of my forebears. I used to read and re-read about the encounter of David and Goliath. I thrilled to the very core of men when I read of the battle fought by Ivan Skavinski Skvar. Then later, the battle between Frankie and Johnnie raised my blood pressure. And how I envied the steady nerve of William Tell. Always I found myself impressed with the fact that the person endowed with the most skill came out winner. History's latest record, the encounter of Gunder Hammer and the Neon sign has done nothing to alter my findings. Skill won again.

"True, the outcome may have been different had the Neon sign trained itself to resist the effect of shot-gun shot, but even then the Neon sign would not have won over Gunder's prowess with the shot-gun. The best the Neon sign could reasonably expect would be a stalemate. Then we would have a situation in which an irresistable force met an immovable object.

"I congratulate Gunder and I congratulate Genesee for having such a loyal booster of Genesee young folks. Not every man will take three shots at his Neon sign to help welcome home his town's winning team. I bet that Gunder got as big a thrill as any one else did when the shattered glass began to fall on the sidewalk.

"I am sending Gunder a Neon sign to replace the one he lost.

"With good wishes to all, I am

Genesee Man Gives Alarm For Lewiston Elevator Fire

Rev. Melford Knight, who was in Lewiston Monday evening with friends from Nezperce, and were parking near the Prairie Flour Mill company plant, was the unidentified person who turned in the fire alarm when flames were seen in the upper portion of the milling company building. Rev. Knight tried to find a fire alarm box, but saw none. He then rushed to the fire station, saw no one around and had no answer to his call. He then went to the police station, and finally went to the city council chambers where he located the fire chief. Damage to the milling plant by fire and water is reported as serious, but operations are expected to resume within a short time.

Harold Haymond Dies Interment At Moscow

Funeral services were conducted at Short's Chapel in Moscow Thursday morning at 10 for Harold "Cap" Haymond, Genesee postmaster, who died at 4:30 Monday morning, a patient at Gritman Memorial hospital, Moscow. The deceased suffered a fractured pelvis about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon when he fell from a ladder in the rear room of the postoffice building. The lobby of the office being open at that time the injured man was able to attract the attention of John Kambitsch who was calling for mail. Mr. Kambitsch contacted Roger Bvoemeling who immediately called his daughter, Mrs. Robert Huffman, assistant at the postoffice. Dr. Paul Genstler was summoned, and after examination, Mr. Haymond was taken to the hospital by ambulance. Cause of death was heart failure due to shock from the fractured pelvis.

Services were read by the Rev. Fr. Waldman of Moscow, with interment in the Moscow cemetery in a grave near that of Mr. Haymond's parents. The deceased, a member of Bielenberg-Schooler Post, American Legion of Genesee was accorded final military honors by members of his home post. Jim Riggs sounded taps and J. D. While at the University he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. After attending the university he returned to Genesee to farm the Haymond ranch, and in 1937 was appointed postmaster. On December 20, 1925, he was married to Miss June Judd of Boise. They met while both were students at Idaho.

Dedication On Sunday For Community Church

Many from a distance and nearby towns, former residents of Genesee will attend dedicatory services Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Genesee Community church, when the recently-completed edifice will be formally presented to the congregation by the supervising builder, Charles Schooler, and the board of trustees. Rev. Melford Knight, pastor, issues a most cordial welcome to everyone in the community to witness the dedication. In May, 1948, excavation of the church basment was made, and that fall the concrete was poured for the basement walls and foundation. The cornerstone was laid Oct. 30, 1949, with construction resumed the following spring. With a great amount of the labor donated, especially by members of the congregation living on farms, it was necessary to suspend building during the busy seasons. The building is now finished during the winter of 1949-50, and on Feb. 19, 1950, Miss Marilyn Heinrich and William Emerson were married, the first couple to be united in the new church. Work was rushed after harvest in 1950, and by Dec. 15, last year, the sanctuary was ready for the wedding of Miss Patricia Nelson and William Mervyn, Jr.

The church, with new pews, recently installed, has been in use for several weeks. Principal speaker for the dedication Sunday will be the Rev. Lawrin L. Whisler of Central Christian church, Spokane. Other ministers on the afternoon program will be the Rev. Donald Clayton of the First Presbyterian church, Moscow; the Rev. F. William Westwood, a former pastor of the Genesee Congregational church, now of Hillyard Congregational church, Hillyard, Wash.; the Rev. C. Wallace Patrick of the Christian church, Nezperce; the Rev. James Christian church, Orofino, and the Rev. Ralph Helseth, Christian church, Clarkston. There will be special music. Following the dedication, a reception will be given in the church parlors.

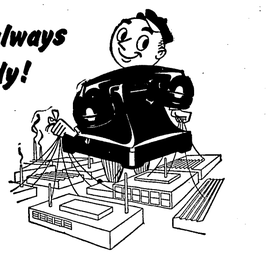
We're always ready!



During the war, the American telephone industry believed it had met its greatest challenge. Yet the years which followed saw even greater demands being made—and being met. Now our job will be even bigger because of the increased defense program.

We're always ready to tackle a big job. Maybe that's why American telephone service remains the world's best.

Bulldogs to register at Idaho. Having seen the State Class A tournament at Moscow, Jenkins said the Genesee team compared with any teams he saw at the state-play-offs.

Guy Wicks of the University of Idaho, who gave Heyburn "a slight nod" to win the state title, explained his reasons for such judgment. He saw Heyburn and Aberdeen in action, and knew they were good teams. Genesee, having to travel approximately 600 miles to Pocatello, would have to be at least ten points better than the two southeasern Idaho clubs to win, and he assumed that was too much. Wicks coached at Genesee back in 1925. On behalf of Coach Chuck Finley and the University of Idaho the Bulldogs and coach were congratulated. Wicks recalled collection of funds while he was at Genesee, to purchase the old armory building for a gym, and then went on to compare present facilities with the old. He also mentioned the former Genesee state championship team of 1912. "It did south Idaho a lot of good to have Genesee win," Wicks said, undoubtedly referring to the assurance in that part of the state that Heyburn or Aberdeen would be state champions.

Wicks followed with a showing of moving pictures of the Long Island-Idaho basketball game played at Madison Square Gardens in New York City at the start of the season. This was a game in which the "gamblers" and players "fixed" the event, and became part of the "scandal of the current collegiate season." Wicks, in complimenting the team and coach, said he hoped the "Bulldogs would be good champions."

Brief Civic Meeting

Don Sorinzer and Gene Woodruff conducted a brief business meeting of the Civic group, brief in business, but long on the discussion of disposition of excess funds obtained for the radio broadcast of the final game at Pocatello. Nearly $100 is floating around with no takers, or possibly no givers, as the surplus was accepted in view of doing something for the "team." No one desires to make awards to the team which could possibly disqualify any member fro mparticipation in high school sports, yet many feel the excess money should not lose its identity by comingling it with other money. The matter was left pretty much in the hands of Kenneth Primus who will contact E. F. Grider, chairman of the state high school athletic board.

Dogs Must Be Tied Up

Chas. Schooler, mayor, said he had been advised that precautionary measures are necessary to control rabies. Latah county is under quarantine, according to R. E. Nordby, chairman of the board of county commissioners, and this means that all dogs, for at least 90 days should be restrained from roaming about town. They must be tied or chained. This does not apply directly to dogs in rural areas, but extreme caution should be taken in case of a rabies condition. Mr. Nordby said dogs could be vaccinated at a cost of around $1.00 per head if a sufficient number could be treated at one time.

Emerson On Civilian Defense

Walter Emerson, who has been appointed Civilian Defense director for Genesee, asked everyone's cooperation in providing a skeleton organization which could act immediately should action be necessary.

Slim And His "Ali Species"

Slim Baker, who's always doing something crazy, had a lot of people smiling last week because his entry won a ribbon in the Women's Club Annual Pet Show.

Seems as though Slim saw a strange-colored alley cat with no tail over at Central City and brought it home. He washed, combed, and brushed it and put a collar on it with a card reading "Ali Species." Then he enters it in the show.

Hanged if the ladies didn't think it was some rare kind of cat and gave it a special award! When one of them asked Slim where she could get one like it, he said, "It's all yours, M'am—I can get an 'Alley Cat' anytime I want!"

From where I sit, some of us are pretty easily "taken in" just because someone else says it's so. Whether it's awarding prizes or passing judgment on a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer—let's take a good look from stem to stern, and learn what it's all about before making up our minds.

Letter From Engel Swenson

The following note has been received from Engel Swenson, Route 1, Box 413, Patterson, Calif.:

"I'm sending check for The News. It is my only contact with old friends, so look forward to receiving it each week. I have just returned to Patterson from San Francisco where I went for treatment for an eye condition called glacoma. They were not able to save the eye, so now I'm out one eye and one leg. I'm fortunate to have a very kind lady here who cares for me so get along very well.

"California has had an unusual amount of rain, but all badly needed to bring up water levels. The blossoms here are starting to come out so guess spring is around the corner. I have had some nice auto rides around the country and find it a very rich section of the state. I hope crops will be good again this year, and with good wishes, I am, very truly yours,

"Engel Swenson."

New Church Dedicated At Sunday Ceremony

More than 300 were present Sunday afternoon to witness dedication of the new Community church at Genesee. In addition to the program there were letters of congratulations read from Rev. and Mrs. O. S. Barnum of Chelan, Wash ;Rev. L. A. Crown of Bloomington, Ill.; Rev. Marvin Smith of Stockton, Calif.; Rev. F. William Westwood, Spokane, who was on the program, but unable to attend because of illness; Rev. Pendleton, Toppenish, Wash.; Rev. and Mrs. Russel Myers of Milton, Ore.; Rev. W. F. Turner of Seattle; Rev. Earl Van Doren of Seattle, and Rev. H. Cronrath and St. John congregation, Genesee.

The building, started in May, 1948, was recently completed. The cornerstone was placed Oct. 30, 1949.

Construction of the structure was in charge of Chas. Schooler, and Mrs. Wm. Mortensen, Moscow, was the architect. Cost of the building and fixtures is estimated at $34,627, but owing to the great amount of volunteer labor, the building has an insurable value in excess of $64,000.

Opening the dedicatory service Sunday was an organ and piano prelude by Mrs. Wayne Hampton and Mrs. Don Jain. Call to Worship was by Rev. James Farrell of Orofino, and the invocation was by Rev. C. Wallace Patrick of Nezperce. Rev. Donald W. Clayton of the Moscow Presbyterian church conducted the scripture reading, with those attending responding. Rev. Edwin L. Whisler of Central Christian church, Spokane, gave the dedication sermon.

The new building was presented to the congregation by Chas. Schooler, through Lloyd Wilson, chairman of the building committee, and Adrian Nelson, chairman of the church board.

Rev. Melford Knight, pastor of the Community church, acted for Rev. F. William Westwood of Spokane in The Act of Dedication and the responsive reading. Rev. Knight also had the dedicatory prayer. Elvon Hampton, vocalist, sang "Bless This House," and was accompanied by Mrs. Hampton at the organ. The benediction was by Rev. Ralph Helseth of Clarkston, and the postlude, "Postlude in D Major," was played by Hall McIntyre Macklin of the University of Idaho.

Excellent weather prevailed during dedication day, with many people coming a long distance for the event. Following the service there was a reception in the church parlors, which offered the opportunity for a joyful reunion of friends.

Mothers Of Idaho "Champs" Entertain At Turkey Dinner

Mothers of the Genesee high school Bulldogs, the manager and the three cheer leaders entertained at a turkey dinner at the Community church parlors Wednesday evening, when 61 enjoyed a really spendid banquet, complete with entertainment. The 61 persons were seated at the tables arranged in U-shape, with the players and manager seated at the end table. Favors for players and manager were miniature "flexible" basketball players, each with a small basketball, and for the cheer leaders there were miniature yell queens. To each miniature was attached a thumb-nail picture of the honored students. Flowers and place cards were other table decorations. Rev. Melford Knight was the toastmaster, who undoubtedly had a "lead" into the lives of all introduced, including the entertainers.

On the program Shirley Danielson appeared as a piano soloist. Donna Danielson and Jean Luedke sang a duet, and they were accompanied by Shirley. Dale Becker equaled the "rebroadcast" with his reading of a paper, "Ten Years From Now," a number which placed players and others introduced in peculiar situations. Rev. Knight introduced and called on Coach Gary Hammond, Supt. H. W. Downing, Principal Kenneth Primus, and music director, Jim Riggs, all of whom made short talks.

Present for the enjoyable affair, which was indeed a fine tribute to the Idaho Class B champions were the players: Jim Rabdau, Ray Gehrke, Jim Sather, Jim Springer, Jim Bennett, Dave Nordby, Jay Nelson, Murray Myers, Lee Liberg and Bob Bennett; manager, Dale Becker, and the cheer leaders, Norma Lee Moser, Nancy Rabdau and Dawn Heinrich; Coach and Mrs. Gary Hammond, Supt. and Mrs. Warren Downing, Prnicipal and Mrs. Kenenth Primus, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carbuhn, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pederson, Bob Morken, Mrs. F. I. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. R E. Nordby, Mr and Mrs. J. M. Rabdau, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Liberg, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. James Myers, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sather, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gehrke, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sprenger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heinrich, Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser and Rev. Melford Knight.

Assisting the mothers by waiting on tables were Donna Danielson, Peggy Taufen, Jean Luedke, Shirley Danielson, Alice Jain, Darlene Heinrich, and Irene Carbuhn, with Mrs. T. A. Papineau in charge.

It was practically definitely decided by remarks of the toastmaster and Dale Becker that Bob Morken will move to Pocatello or a certain person from the Gate City will change her address to Genesee.

State Tournament Pictures

Pictures taken by Bob Morken at the state Class B basketball tournament are available for purchase and are being printed by the senior class of Genesee high school. The committee in charge of sales for the seniors are Jim Bennett and Jim Sprenger. The prints, 5 x 7 inches sell at 25 cents each. Members of the senior class, in providing pictures will appreciate having orders placed as soon as possible.

JCJ's ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Howard Blume was hostess to the JCJ club Thursday evening of last week when Mrs. Bob Schooler was included with members. At cards Mrs. Marion Holben won high award; Mrs. Wilson Esser, second high, and Mrs. Bob Schooler, traveling prize.

Waste Paper Compaign

Donna Danielson, member of the Genesee Valley Luther League announces a waste paper campaign in the Genesee area, to start soon. Paper collected will be pooled with old paper collected in Moscow by other young people. This waste will be sold, with returns to be used for Korean relief. The young people will appreciate the saving of old newspapers and magazines until the drive gets under way. They will call for the waste, which has been decided upon only as newspapers and magazines, as they have no facilities for handling other old paper.

New Idaho X-Ray Unit Coming North In July

Lloyd Gilmore, director of public relations for the Idaho Tuberculosis Association, Boise, was in Genesee Monday to arrange for a meeting here on May 21 at 8 o'clock. He asks that representatives of all organizations in the community send a representative to this meeting to assist in arrangements for the visit of Idaho's new mobile X-ray unit. Idaho, according to Mr. Gilmore, is the last state in the Union to procure a mobile unit. The meeting here on May 21, is preliminary to the visit of the unit at Genesee during the latter part of July.

X-ray examinations will be free to the public for everyone 15 years of age and over, and have proven highly satisfactory in disclosing tuberculosis of the lungs, bronchitis, enlarged heart conditions, cancer of the lungs and tumors. When the examinations bv X-ray are made the film is forwarded to Boise. After development of film, the person examined will receive a personal report of findings by mail in an enclosed envelope. There is absolutely no charge. The mobile unit, the attendants and other expenses are paid for by your purchases of Christmas seals, and funds appropriated by the state, for the control of tuberculosis and other conditions of the lungs and heart.

Idaho's new mobile X-ray unit was delivered to the association in February. Mr. Gilmore said Tuesday the unit would cover each town and city in Idaho every three years. Genesee is fortunate in having an early visit of the unit, in July, which permits a second visit in 1954.

Only a few minutes time is required of each one passing through the mobile unit, yet the findings of X-ray examinations provide satisfactory findings for further diagnosis and treatment, should tuberculosis, cancer or tumors exist. All reports are strictly confidential.

Barbara Jean Wieber Becomes Bride Of Eugene Scharnhorst

(Uniontown Journal March 30)

Miss Barbara Jean Wieber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wieber, became the bride of Eugene Scharnhorst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Scharnhorst, Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at St. Boniface church.

The Rev. Fr. J. Queen of Yakima, cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a nuptial high mass by the Rev. Fr. Anton Flour, pastor of St. Boniface parish.

The altar was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and daffodils. St. Boniface high school choir sang the high mass and "Panis Angelicus" during the offertory and while the choir sang "On This Day O' Beautiful Mother," the bride placed her bouquet at the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a nylon marquisette yoke, fitted bodice and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of oange blossoms which was worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried a nosegay of red roses and white sweet peas and a crystal rosary, gift of the groom.

The bride's sister, Patricia Wieber, was maid of honor and wore a blue taffeta gown. Ruth Anne Scharnhorst, niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a gown of light blue taffeta. Both gowns were fashioned after the bride's, with fitted bodice and nylon yokes and each wore halos of blue flowers and carried nosegays of pink roses and white sweet peas.

Cletus Scharnhorst served as best man. Charles and Clarence Scharnhorst were ushers. All are brothers of the groom.

The ceremony was followed by a dinner at the home of the bride's parents, after which the bridal couple left on their honeymoon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wieber chose a navy blue dress with pink accessories and wore a corsage of ping carnations. Mrs. Scharnhorst wore a black dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of St. Boniface high school. The groom attended Genesee high school. Both are members of pioneer families of the Uniontown and Genesee areas.

Alternate Row Plantings Best For Grass With Sweet Clover

(Jim Rabdau)

Genesee farmers are planning to keep up their soil-building rotations and are going to plant a lot of sweet clover and alfalfa this spring.

Where clover has been grown on the land before, grass should be added. Clovers add nitrogen and grass builds the soil. To save on seed it is recommended that the legumes and grasses be seeded in alternate rows.

When the seedings are made with spring grain, the following procedure is recommended: Plant every other row to alfalfa or clover at the rate of 2½ pounds per acre. Plant the grass in the opposite row with the grain. With alfalfa, plant Manchar Smooth Brome at 3 pounds to the acre. With sweet clover, plant orchard grass at 2 pounds, or slender wheat at 4 pounds, or Mountain Brome at 5 pounds.

Another way is to seed the grain in alternate rows, then go over a second time and seed the legumes and grass in alternate rows—grass in one row and legumes in the other.

When legumes and grasses are planted with peas, drill the peas first then after the field has been rolled, drill in the legume and grass in alternate rows. Innoculate legume seed. Plant on the contour as closely as possible.

Be sure to include the grass.

Annual Clean-Up Week Set Runs April 23 To 28 Inclusive

At the regular meeting of the Genesee City Council on April 2nd, the last week in April was designated as Clean-Up Week.

As in former years, all cans, ashes and empty bottles, are to be placed in boxes on the alley lines from where they will be hauled free of charge to the city dump .The City Council urgently asks all users of the dump ground to haul nothing that can be burned or buried. The dumping space gets smaller each year and all should cooperate in the use of it—burn first, then bury some; then haul the balance to the dump ground.

41-42 By Order of the City Council..

Freight Car Shortage Shows Improvement

April 30, deadline for redeeming wheat as collateral for loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation, is drawing near, with only slight improvement in the freight car shortage in this area. Buyers who have been in and out of the market during the past month, have also been handicaped by the car shortage.

Forrest Durbin, manager of Genesee Union Warehouse company said Thursday, the freight car situation is having its effect on market quotations with demand for wheat bringing the price only a few cents above the loan price. Grain, which will be redeemed on or before April 30, carries an interest charge of one-half cent per bushel per month from time loan was made until redeemed. The half-cent per bushel charge made at time of taking a CCC loan was made by the government agency for processing and completing the loan.

Senator Henry C. Dworshak has been active in an appeal to railways operating in the grain-growing area of northern Idaho for more freight cars to alleviate the situation, and reports that the ICC has promised seven to eight thousand cars moving west each month, but that insufficient cars have been made available to Idaho for grain shipment since last harvest time.

Durbin said the efforts of Dworshak and other members of the Idaho congressional delegation at Washington, D. C., is being noticed during the past two weeks, but many more cars will be needed to relieve the grain storage situation for 1951 harvest.

A recent telegram from Senator Dworshak said the Union Pacific railroad had started a good movement of empty cars through the Oregon division of the Union Pacific, and that the company had reconditioned 730 cars for grain hauling, and further that company was building 1,000 cars at Omaha, with the first completed already started west.

Much of the difficulty in obtaining cars for wheat shipments is due to the Korean war, and its demand for freight cars of all kinds.

Brother Of Mrs. Hasfurther Dies At Home Near Moscow

John Kasper, 85, died Saturday morning at his home near Moscow. He had lived there most of his life, coming from Fon du Lac, Wisc., where he was born March 18, 1866.

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Andrew Hasfurther of Genesee. Other survivors include two daughters, Rosa Kasper and Mrs. M. R. Anthony, Moscow; a son, Adolph, Moscow; another sister, Mrs. H. L. Vale, Lewiston; a brother, Pete Kasper, Moscow; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's Catholic church at Moscow Tuesday at 10 a. m., with the Rev. Fr. Robert Waldman officiating. Pallbearers were Matt Mengelkamp, Conrad Mengelkamp, Henry Bottier, Fred Carle, Fred Reams and Carl Heppner. He was buried in the Moscow cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral from Genesee were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hasfurther, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Scharnhorst and Mr. and Mrs. Katt Kasper.

Greenwells Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenwell who left for Earp, Calif., Nov. 6 returned March 25. They spent three weeks at Phoenix, Ariz., but were at Earp the rest of the time. They lived in their trailer while away, which was stationed near the Colorado river, and their trailer was one of about 500 in the area between Earp and Parker Dam. There are eight or ten trailer camps, yet many prefer to live on the desert, which is government land.

Fishermen who have never landed a "channel catfish" are missing a lot of good sports, according to Greenwell. He brought one home, frozen, which weighed 10½ pounds and measured 27 inches. Larger channel catfish were hooked, such as the 26-pounder dragged from the Colorado the past winter which measured 37 inches. Channel catfish are strong, and inhabiting the cold water of the Colorado, provided the much desired excitment of hooking a "big one" with plenty fight. Bait generally used by Greenwell is live minnows. Greenwell also said one should not confuse the blue channel catfish with the gray or green catfish.

The Colorado, near Earp, also has bass, blue gills and krappie. Davis Lake, also on the Colorado is being restocked with rainbow trout, and this fish has been caught weighing up to 8 pounds.

Weather in the Earp area was wonderful during the past winter. There was only one rain, with sunshine every day. There was but one windstorm, which occurred at the time the Palouse country was having its blow.

Hasfurther Now Home From Months In Korea

Maurice Hasfurther, son of Mr and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther, is home after about eight months in Korea with the First U. S. Marines Provisional Brigade which was in action in several sectors of the battlefront. Landing in Korea shortly after the outbreak of hostilities the Brigade was rushed into action in support of other units spearheading the defense action of the United States military machine, at that time just becoming organized.

Maurice left for the Orient early in August, 1950, and arrived in the U. S. March 22 on the USS Randall from Japan. He has a 30-day leave, and will return to Camp Pendleton. The Marines who have seen action in Korea, and now back in this country, are returned on a furlough-transfer basis, with the advice they will not be sent back to Korea at the end of six months in the United States. He has six months of a three-year enlistment remaining to serve.

Korea is no land of enchantment, and at times the U. S. forces were not certain who comprised the enemy. Infiltrations of North Koreans and perhaps South Koreans friendly to the Communists provided friends by day and enemies by night.

After the Korean situation was well in hand as far as Koreans were implicated, then came the swarms of Chinese, Siberians and Manchurians. Loss of men by Communist forces was of no consideration by the leaders of the enemy, and U. S. forces tried to oblige by reducing the number of men pushing from the north.

Many United States men have lost their lives in Korea, many are captured, and many wounded. Maurice mentioned the intense cold during the evacuation of U. S. forces when the pressure became so great, and from the cold there were many hardships, and countless deaths.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther and children, David, Homer, Dawn and Diane, who left Tuesday a week ago for Portland to meet Maurice, who arrived from San Francisco by plane, enjoyed several family reunions during their stay in Portland with Mrs. Hasfurther's mother, Mrs. Jennie Schilling, and sister, Mrs. E. J. Hackett, and family, and Mrs. M. W. Pysher and family. The Hasfurther family spent one day with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner at Mt. Angel, Ore.

Genesee Valley News

Ye editor is back after more than three weeks spent at Moscow awaiting the arrival of the stork. He don't get around as fast in Moscow as in Genesee. We are rather late with our congratulations, but better late than never, to the Genesee basketball team for carrying off the honors like they did, and to the members of the Community church for the fine new church building. Just goes to show what team work and loyalty to a cause, can do in both instances. The ground is drying fast and really needs a warm rain to put life into what wheat is left. We have never seen it look as bad as it does this year. Quite a number of acres of peas will be planted this year, as the price outlook seems better than for three years. Several pieces of farm machinery were brot to the Valley from the community auction sale at Moscow last Friday. A few harrows are seen crawling around the hilltops, breaking the crust on fall plowing, but it will be another week of good weather before general work will start. The weather is warm and spring-like and we are beginning to thaw the frost out of our bones. March was the coldest, most disagreeable month of the year. The signboard outside of Joseph, Ore., might well be placed near all towns, as it had the desired results: "This town is Heaven to us, don't drive like hell through it."

Spring Is Here
(Bessie Wolvington)

Today I caught a breath of spring,
It was a subtle, soulful thing.
As I looked out I seemed to see
A freshness in my blue spruce tree;
The sky took on a deeper hue
As rain washed skies are wont to do.
I caught the spirit of the day,
And winter doubts were swept away.

Municipal Election April 24

Official notice of the coming city election, Tuesday, April 24, was posted last Tuesday by the city clerk in compliance with state law requiring such notice at least 20 days before election.

Electors this year will not vote for the offices of city treasurer and city clerk. Recent state legislation makes it mandatory that these officials be appqintive after April 30, expiration date of the present council term. Thus, three positions will be open to election this year: that of mayor for a two year term and one councilman from each of the two wards, each for a four year term.

Incumbents are Charles W. Schooler, mayor; John W. Hickman, councilman, East ward, and Virgil Post, councilman, West ward. Councilmen who each have two years left to serve of their present terms are George Anderson, East ward, and Wayne Hampton, West ward.

Attention of voters is called to the fact that voting in elections for county, state and national officials has no bearing on their registrations for the coming April 24 city election. However, those who voted in the city election in 1947 and/or 1949, will not be required to register. To vote, a person must be qualified by age and citizenship; six months in the state and Polls will be open at the city hall in the Burr Building from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

Registrations will be handled at the First Security Bank and at Kuehl's Store. People may register at any time during the working hours of the above two places and up until the hour of 5 P. M. of the Saturday preceding election.

Nominations may be made by convention of not less than 40 electors; or by petition which requires signatures of 40 when the nomination is for an official who represents the city at large; and 6 signatures for an official who represents a ward. All signatures must be those of qualified electors. Voters have from now until 12 days before election to nominate candidates.

41-42 David G. Kuehl, City Clerk.

Lose Two Games To Lewiston Rules Revised For One Loss

With only a few days of practice the Genesee high school baseball club took on Lewiston for two games Tuesday in the banana-belt weather, and under Lewiston rule interpretation. In the first game Genesee was on the short end of a 9-2 score. Handling the pitching for the Genesee club were Rabdau, and Gehrke, with Liberg working behind the plate. Starting the first game of the season, the Genesee chuckers had trouble locating the 'strike" area of the plate, and were liberal with free trips to first. Genesee gave up nine hits while connecting for five safe blows.

Second Game 3-2

Genesee outhit Lewiston 4 to 1 in the second game, billed for five innings, but going to 7 frames. In the score column Lewiston put a man by an error, and the runner scored on a second misplay. In this game Lewiston came up with an interpretation of the substitution rule, which permitted pinch hitters to bat twice without going on the field to play. It is reported that Idaho high school baseball rules permit a pitcher to retire after having pitched and then return to the game once. There is also another ruling which permits pinch hitters to enter, play, leave and return, but Coach Hammond says there is no permission granted for pinch hitters to bat twice without entering defensive play. It makes little difference in the two first games played for they were only practice encounters, but rules as interpreted at Lewiston are confusing to players.

Kinzer, Genesee portsider, had matters well under control in the first three innings. He gave up no hits and no runs were scored. Jim Bennett, who worked four innings, was slated for two innings of the five-frame game, but there was a tie at the end of the fifth. He gave up one hit, the lone safe blow for Lewiston.

Genesee connected for four safe hits in the seven innings, but went down, one-two-three in the final frame.

Bob Bennett did the receiving for Kinzer and Jim Bennett.

The Genesee scorer was not equal to keeping a record of substitutions under Lewiston rules, thus Shoemaker and J. Pingree are not included in the lineup although they batted in two different positions twice.

FARM ELECTRIFICATION

Practically COMPLETED!

Sixty years ago, rural America had no electric service, or paved roads either. Cities were mere frontiers, and rural areas were considered desolate. Bringing electric service to all of America's cities and then to farms has been a slow but positive program.

The Washington Water Power Company started to pioneer rural electrification in the Inland Empire back in 1906, when electricity was in its infancy.

Today, thanks to private business and the REA, the Inland Empire is 95% electrified. The job of rural electrification is almost done.

MacArthur Is Relieved By President Truman History Being Written

"I deeply regret that it becomes my duty as president and commander in chief of the United States military forces to replace you as supreme commander, allied powers; commander in chief, United Nations command; commander in chief, Far East; commanding general, U. S. army, Far East."

Those are the words or the order issued by President Harry Truman to General Douglas MacArthur Wednesday morning, April 11, 1951.

The president continued: "You will turn over your commands, effective at once, to Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway. You are authorized to have issued such orders as are necessary to complete desired travel to such places as you select. My reasons for your replacement will be made public concurrently with the delivery to you of the foregoing order, and are contained in the next following message."

Nation Is Stunned

President Truman thus takes full credit for the order which has not only stunned our nation, but has been heard around the world. Dating from April 11, history of the United States is being written. Never before has a president of our country assumed the dictatorial attitude of Truman. His past performances qualify him for the brash order. Past deeds may not qualify him to relieve the greatest military man in modern U. S. history, a man who has no equal in knowledge of the Far East. Truman's affiliation with political advisors now behind bars, and his intimate acquaintance and toleration of Communistic-minded characters, throws a scare into the people of our country.

England, the socialistic nation, enjoying trade with Russia, and France, beset with some men of communistic leanings, appear to have been advisors of our chief executive. The question is also asked: "Where does Acheson and General Marshall fit into the picture?" Truman gave the answer himself in his vapid broadcast Wednesday evening, when he said, "MacArthur must go because he differs with the U. S. foreign policy, that of defending Formosa, and opening negotiations with Red China.

Bi-party foreign policy has been kicked out the window. Now the Truman administration assumes full responsibility. Certainly Joe Stalin has been comforted by Truman's order. Japan, able to withstand inroads of communism, chiefly by the strength of MacArthur as their accepted ruler during occupation, may now be open to promises and further infiltration of communists from Russia.

Tempers Flare

Truman, insignificant by any comparison with MacArthur, has wielded a stroke which removes from the military forces, a general, whose strategy, resoucefulness, ability and respect is beyond reproach. It is true that MacArthur is strictly "military," yet it must be recognized that occupation of Japan since the war's end, has been all that could be expected.

John Gunther's "The Riddle of MacArthur," a book recently published, covers the five-star general's life from birth to a few months ago. The noted writer, recognized as the foremost historical writer of today, clears up many slurs which have been aimed at the great military leader. Book critics have not differed with Gunther in his true evaluation of MacArthur's accomplishments. It is recognized today that MacArthur is a great general and an administrator. Matters in Korea may not have gone according to schedule or according to promises, but with the friction between the state department and the military, there is every reason to believe our state department has been working behind MacArthur's back, so to speak. MacArthur is not the only military tactician who believes Formosa must be saved. Others of high rank have the same belief. England, however, does not possess that same belief. Our ally of two world wars favors recognition of Red China, which belief coincides with Acheson and Marshall. MacArthur on the other hand, wanted to defend Formosa, and utilize Nationalistic Chinese forces against the Red enemy.

Commander Passes Other

In the selection of General Ridgway to succeed MacArthur, the president may have made a good choice. One wonders, nevertheless, why so many other generals were passed by to pick out Ridgway and Van Fleet, the latter named to succeed Ridgway.

Gunther Tells Full Story

If permission were granted there are many references to MacArthur made by John Gunther which would frame a much different picture than many of us have of MacArthur. He praises him, and then he criticizes him in a manner for his arrogant and egotistical attitude. It should be remembered, however, that the deposed general was the same as created for the stern life of a general. Born to a father who was a general, then becoming a West Point cadet, we made MacAruthur pretty much what he is today. He was given a division in World War I that accepted and fought through a successful campaign. He was wounded and gassed. Truman's outfit is seldom mentioned except for reunions and parades. MacArthur did it the hard way in World War II in the Pacific, and was successful. A man who commands and sends men to death in defense of his country must be hard. MacArthur has been attacked before. He is too big a man to frown at or go into convulsions about some trifling remark. Compare Truman with MacArthur.

How much better it would have been for a peaceful and gentlemanly settlement of the disagreement between the state department and the military, not to mention the partisan political angles which have developed.

Truman has accepted full responsibility, according to his radio message of Wednesday evening. He has made many promises before, few of which have been fulfilled. He may have been let down by congress, but again it should be remembered that the administration has a balance of power in both house and senate. Congress was never consulted in the unheard-of action taken by Truman Monday.

Impeachment Unlikely

Irate members of both branches of congress have voiced strongly the desire for impeachment. Such action is considered unlikely, although a resolution may be presented. Then again, one surprise could follow another. The south and southeastern states of our nation, nominally democratic, and following the administration in many things, represent a portion of the United States which is highly patriotic, despite any claims otherwise. If the ball is started rolling, the people not the elected representatives may make a demand for impeachment.

Heads that were hot April 11 may have cooled off somewhat. The arrival of MacArthur in the United States, which will be in about three weeks, according to reports, may bring about clarification of matters. The reading of the debated directives issued from the Pentagon to Tokyo, heard Wednesday evening from Japan leaves the public with doubt as to authenticity of reports made in the United States for local consumption.

Miss Shirley Haymond Going To Milan, Italy

Shirley Haymond, who recently received an appointment with the state department, and has been in Washington, D. C., for several weeks preparing for her position, writes that she will be sailing on the Italia from New York on April 21. There will be stops at The Azores, Lisbon, Palermo, Capri and Naples. From Naples she will visit Rome for a week before going to Milan, Italy, where she has been assigned to the Consulate General's office for the next two years. Shirley adds that she will be with the United States Information and Educational division which involves work with propaganda, the press, censorship and so forth, and that the program is still comparatively new, as the group receiving training at present is only the fourth. Training is conducted at the Foreign Service Institute and has been very thorough.

About the position, Shirley writes that she can't help but be excited about going to Milan and that the location couldn't be better. In Washington she has met several friends, people she knew while attending the University of Idaho. She also said her stay in Washington has been a pleasant one.

Before leaving for Washington, D. C., Shirley had been employed at San Jose, Calif., and living with her mother, Mrs. Harold Haymond. Mrs. Haymond is manager of the psychology department offices at the State College at San Jose.

Thetas At U. Of Idaho Stage "Bond Burning" Ceremony

Mrs. Powell Nilsson of Genesee and Mrs. Delbert Gildersleeve (Bernadine Hasfurther) of Baker, Ore., were among alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of the University of Idaho who gathered at the Student Union building on the campus Saturday evening to celebrate the burning of bonds issued to finance the chapter home built in 1926. One hundred were present for the banquet, among them being many charter members. Introduced also were those present who were the first to move into the new chapter house, and included Mrs. Nilsson and Mrs. Gildersleeve.

Mrs. Gildersleeve and daughter, Janine, visited from Friday until Sunday with her father, Joe Hasfurther, at Genesee. They plan to return in June for a longer visit.

Municipal Election April 24

Official notice of the coming city election, Tuesday, April 24, was posted last Tuesday by the city clerk in compliance with the state law requiring such notice at least 20 days before election.

Electors this year will not vote for the offices of city treasurer and city clerk. Recent state legislation makes it mandatory that these officials be appoinitve after April 30, expiration date of the present council term. Thus, three positions will be open to election this year; that of mayor for a two year term and one councilman from each of the two wards, each for a four year term.

Incumbents are Charles W. Schooler, mayor; John W. Hickman, councilman, East Ward, and Virgil Post, councilman, West ward. Councilmen who each have two years left to serve of their present terms are George Anderson, East ward, and Wayne Hampton, West ward.

Attention of voters is called to the fact that voting in elections for county, state and national officials has no bearing on their registrations for the coming April 24 city election. However, those who voted in the city election in 1947 and/or 1949, will not be required to register. To vote, a person must be qualified by age and citizenship; six months in the state and Polls will be open at the city hall in the Burr Building from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

Registrations will be handled at the First Security Bank and at Kuehl's Store. People may register at any time during working hours of the above two places and up until the hour of 5 P. M. of the Saturday preceding election.

Nominations may be made by convention of not less than 40 electors; or by petition which requires signatures of 40 when the nomination is for an official who represents the city at large; and 6 signatures for an official who represents a ward. All signatures must be those of qualified electors. Voters have from now until 12 days before election to nominate candidates.

41-42 David G. Kuehl, City Clerk.

Nearly 50 Dogs Vaccinated To Avoid Rabies In This Area

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Qualey, wishing to comply with suggestions for avoiding rabies by having their dog vaccinated, and knowing of several neighbors who wished also to have dogs immunized, started a movement last week which developed into a rabies preventitive campaign. Pressed by time at this season by farm work to Lewiston or Moscow to a veterinarian. They called a few neighbors and friends, and by 5 o'clock last Friday evening 24 dogs were brought into the ball grounds where Dr. K. A. White vaccinated them. Not expecting such a large number of canines the veterinarian ran short of serum. He returned Tuesday a 5 o'clock, and Mrs. Qualey said about 24 more dogs were immunized for rabies.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carbuhn, who resided on their farm west of Genesee 48 years up to the past January, have moved to Genesee. They have purchased what is known as the Mrs. Jim Kane place in east Genesee, and moved there last week. They have remodeled the interior, and the exterior is now finished in asbestos siding.

The move was made owing to Mrs. Carbuhn's health, that she might be near a doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rosenau will reside on the Carbuhn ranch, and will also farm the land. For the past 8 years George Brenner farmed the Carbuhn place.

Mr. Carbuhn said the phone number 3565 would be retained by Rosenau's at the ranch, and the residence number in Genesee is 3491.

Genesee Couple Visit With Old-Time Friends

Spring is here, or the danger of blizzards hold no fear for Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kambitsch, who returned last Thursday from the southlands. Leaving their ranch west of Genesee in October to spend some time at various places in the Inland Empire, they headed south following the Christmas holidays. They found roads blocked on the highway between Arlington and Biggs, Ore., so, like others, used the temporary ferry to cross the Columbia, and travel downriver to Vancouver, Wash. Highway 101 was reported dangerous, owing to washouts early in January, so they took Highway 99 to Sacramento, Calif. Their trip was leisurely, with a stop at Vallejo, Calif., to visit relatives and old-time friends. They were guests in the Rupert Kempf home at Sauseleta, and at Richmond, Calif., visited Mrs. J. K. Bell, wife of a former Genesee merchant, and prominent in state militia circles of early days. Mrs. Bell was greatly pleased with the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Kambitsch, and recollections soon brought out albums. The Kambitsch couple were favorably re-impressed, if such a word exists, with the youthful appearance of "young" Bill Burr, as he lined up in company formation with his one-time commander, Capt. Bell. Mrs. Bell wished to be remembered to friends here.

At Los Angeles the travelers visited a cousin of Mrs. Kambitsch, and then they drifted south to San Diego, paid a visit to Mexicalli, spent a week at San Bernardino, Calif., and while there enjoyed the orange show. At Phoenix, Ariz., they joined Mr. and Mrs. George Weber of Idaho Falls, parents of Mrs. Loren Kambitsch. A trip was made into the Imperial Valley, and at El Centro took in the Imperial Valley Fair, and it's quite a show, they report.

Surpise Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Kambitsch returned to Los Angeles, and were comfortably located at a motel, when the former began looking around the neighborhood. He noticed some exceptionally fine nursery stock and beautiful flowers. A lady appeared among the nursery plants to welcome the stranger. She asked him where he was from, and his answer being "Genesee," she motioned to a sign bearing the name of Amund Kern. Kambitsch and Kern were kids together at Genesee, so a reunion was in order, and at departure Mr. and Mrs. Kambitsch were given two prized gifts, a "Gold Dust" plant and an Angel Wing plant. The Kern Gardens are located at Garvey, a suburb of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Kambitsch moved over to Glendale, and attended the Bowl Sunrise Easter service.

Continuing north they traveled the 101 Highway to Crescent City, then to Grants Pass and home by way of Portland. They visited in the home of Mrs. Margaret Rader at Walla Walla for two days.

Boliou Saw 1912 B. B. Game

George Boliou of Lompoc, Calif., formerly of Genesee, renews his subscription to The News, and includes the following brief note:

"I had quite a thrill to read of the boys winning the B championship this year, but had a greater thrill when I read the reprint of the other time when they won it from Rathdrum, as I was one of the gang that rode the special train to Moscow. We sure saw a game that night."

Genesee Bulldogs Win Four Defeat Orofino High 16 To 3

Genesee high school Bulldogs made a sweep of four games since Saturday, including a 16-3 victory over Orofino. In two games with Pullman here Saturday Genesee slapped a 8-0 shellacking on Pullman, and repeated in the double bill with an 8-6 victory. Gehrke and Liberg composed the battery for the first game, and Rabdau and Bennett worked the second game.

Genesee rained hits all over the Orofino grounds Monday afternoon, while Rabdau was silencing the bats of the Maniacs.

The fourth win was from Colton, a practice session, which went only four innings Tuesday afternoon. Kinzer worked on the mound for Genesee and Liberg was stopping them behind the plate.

The Genesee Bulldogs have such a full schedule of games that the scorebook is kept open practically all of the time. When time became available for compilation of box scores Thursday the book was needed for a couple of games with Clarkston.

Carbuhn Truck Endangered Firemen Help Extinguish Fire

Firemen, manning the Genesee Rural Fire District equipment, saved a Chevrolet farm truck from complete destruction Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. The 1½-ton truck owned and driven by Estil Carbuhn, was headed to the Carbuhn land east of Genesee and reached a point about 200 feet from the driveway to the Don Jain ranch. Flames suddenly burst into view, with smoke filling the cab, and then the driver began using a liquid fire extinguisher. Crushed rock and dust and dirt from the side of the road was shoveled onto the rear of the motor where fire burned off wiring and paint, and heat cracked the right side of the windshield. Carburn soon learned the fire originated around the battery, presumably from a faulty or loose connection, or possibly a short. Fire was burning the truck seat when he pulled it out, and he also remembered he had a small container filled with gasoline in the truck bed. A part of the rubber mat covering the floorboards of the cab was tossed out, and ablaze, it started a fire in some last year's stubble.

Firemen assisted in extinguishing the two fires.

Class A Tourney Nets $3,117 Pocatello Meets Clears $2098

Kenneth Primus, who managed the state Class A basketball tournament at Moscow, said the state play-off there cleared $3,117. At Pocatello the state Class B tournament, in which Genesee was entered, netted $2098.

Genesee high school has not as yet received its cut of the Pocatello gate, but with eight teams entered, and with Genesee and Rathdrum having the longest distances to travel, the two north Idaho teams will receive proportionate shares, determined by distances traveled and the number of games in which they participated. The share for the Genesee team will be in excess of $250, which lacks approximately $750 of meeting expenses of the team, coach, cheer leaders and transportation. Money contributed to the school athletic activities fund before the team left for Pocatello is sufficient to meet all expenses, plus some excess to finance spring sports and to clear up all outstanding obligations.

Farming In Full Swing Reseeding Necessary

Farming in the Genese area is progressing fast with fair weather prevailing for more than two weeks. The seeding of spring grain is now on and there is more than an usual acreage of reseeding necessary this season, due to winter kill. Absence of snow when the low temperatures occurred in late February and early March, has left many fields spotted with poor stands of grain and some winter barley. It was believed the moisture content of the soil would suffice for snow, but again a lesson has been learned. Last winter and the year before there was too much snow, and it piled up too high in places. The lesson referred to, is that snow is welcome if good stands of grain are to be made by weather conditions.

Despite the amount of reseeding necessary there are some very nice stands of wheat in the Genesee area, with such fields having been protected some from the cold winds and by having a light snow covering.

Reports are coming in this week of early dried pea plantings, especially from the Rimrock, where farm work as usual, is a few days ahead of the rest of the area. There has been some freezing at nights, although daylight hours have been cheerful and warm for the most part. Wheat has not rejuvenated this spring as rapidly as in other seasons. This may be due to a lack of spring rains. Growers differ somewhat on the benefits of rain at the present time. Some say nothing would be better than a light rain, sufficient to dissolve the cakes of soil which hold wheat plants. Some have tried harrowing to break up the topsoil, while others absolutely refrain from use of a harrow, owing to condition of the ground and the short roots of wheat plants.

Whether it's the shortage of commercial fertilizers, or an actual demand, farmers are to be seen trucking fertilizers from local supliers, and from a distance.

Use of airplanes has been made for spreading fertilizers this spring and airmen have also been employed to seed sweet clover.

Reports of critical deterioration of fall wheat crops in Nebraska, Kansas, eastern Colorado and Oklahoma suggest that output this harvest will be below normal, although the government PMA has been given a free hand in permitting additional seeded acres of wheat. This announcement came too late for mid-western wheat growers. Another factor, naturally, is the tendency to seed only fall grain in many mid-western areas where spring varities do not yield well. Here the grain growers have an alternate, or a way out, if the fall crop does not come up to expected standards. Then too, the frozen wheat stands can be replaced with oats or barley, a practice that doesn't fit in too well in some of the mid-western and south central states.

It's not too late for replacement of wheat acres with corn in the mid-west where rainfall is sufficient to produce a crop. Beef cattle, if within a price range farmers could afford to buy, would fit in well with a substitute corn crop.

WESTINGHOUSE "Know-How"

When George WESTINGHOUSE invented the air brake, away back in the last century, and the manufacturing company was organized; an experimental laboratory was one of the first departments to be established. Through all the years since, the WESTINGHOUSE experimental work has grown in leadership in electrical and mechanical developemnts.

So vast is this experimental work, that all the "Consumer Lookouts" together cannot equal it in scope, equipment and skill. During all this growth, much of the honesty and thoroughness of "Uncle George" WESTINGHOUSE has remained in the company policy. A product must be proven before it is sold to the public. Even then it is WESTINGHOUSE policy to stand behind every piece of equipment sold—to make good on any mistake which may slip through.

We, as your WESTINGHOUSE dealers, also feel this responsibility. Through human failings, we may not always be as quick to respond as you might wish; but we do want to supplement famous WESTINGHOUSE "Know-How" with honest and efficient service. Let us know if we can help.

Genesee Valley News

We had a week of fine warm, almost summer weather, then Sunday it clouded up and there were a few scattering showers. Monday and Tuesday a cold wind blew off an iceberg somewhere. Many farmers are reseeding their fall wheat and a few peas are going in the ground on high places, but most of the fields are plenty wet yet. Road crews are filling a few potholes in the highway but the roads are in better shape than for several years. Work has now started on finishing the new road. Art Borgen is about to finish up the remodeling of his house. What is the longest word in the English language? Answer next week.

Mrs. J. P. Anderson received a telephone call Monday evening telling that her brother, Carl Tidemann, had been knocked down or run over by a speeding motorist, while talking to a neighbor in a truck. He was rushed to Sacred Heart hospital by ambulance, and it was found he had a severe brain concussion, a broken arm and shoulder. Joe Anderson went to Spokane Tuesday, and the injured man was still unconscious when he left late Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gotch and his sister, Selma, from Winthrop, Wash., are with him in Spokane. Complete details of the accident have not been found out here yet. Carl is a former Valley resident and recently visited his sister, Mrs. Joe Anderson, and family, on his return from a winter spent in California. He is farming near Twisp, Wash.

Should I Forget

(Elizabeth Scott Norris)

When weariness and boredom seem to take the joyousness from each small household task; the endless cooking, dishes, beds to make, I pause to pray and reverently ask that I remember those in war-torn lands, who losing all, take not an hour to weep, but build again with patient, loving hands—I thank thee Lord, I've got a home to keep.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gehrke were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips and children of Coeur d'Alene and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gehrke and daughter of Lewiston.

Buzz And The Off-Key Baritones

Reverend Lester of the church out on Hillsboro Road coaches his Young Peoples' Choir late Thursday afternoons—after high school basketball practice lets out.

Buzz Ellis pastures cows next to that church. Around 5 o'clock they used to make a lot of racket about wanting to go home. That made it kind of rough on the choir.

When Buzz learned what was going on he said to Reverend Lester: "I never yet heard of a cow that could moo on key. So, I'll just move 'em in a little earlier...." This started me to thinking. Buzz doesn't go to that church. And he's so tone-deaf he couldn't carry a tune in a bucket!

From where I sit, you might say that Buzz didn't have much in common with those singers. But he doesn't divide folks into groups he's "with" or "agin." Your politics, your personal preferences—or the fact that you like a moderate glass of beer—mean nothing either way to Buzz. He's a real neighbor to everybody!

On Monday, Mrs. Jesse Johnson entertained for luncheon, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. R. E. Edwards, Mrs. David Kuehl and Mrs. Mahlon Follett.

CORRECTION

Last week The News reported Mrs. Wayne Hampton as playing the organ in a piano-organ duet with Mrs. Don Jain, for the opening number in the Community church dedication. It should have read, "Mrs. Elvon Hampton." An error in the program, not a printer's mistake, however, had Hall Macklin of the University of Idaho music faculty playing the closing selection. In correction, Mrs. Elvon Hampton played a Hall Macklin composition, "Postlude in D Major."

MacArthur Is Eloquent In Defense Of Policies

General Douglas MacArthur's return to the United States became a great moment in the history of our country. No other person has ever received the welcome the great military commander and statesman was accorded on his arrival at San Francisco Wednesday evening at 8:29 o'clock. The Bataan, MacArthur's plane, bearing the general, his wife and son, Arthur, from Tokyo, came in for its landing, and before the big ship had taxied to a designated spot, the huge crowd began surging onto the landing strip and apron. The ovation at the field was multiplied many times as he traveled the 14 miles from the airport to his hotel in downtown San Francisco. The general's party, was delayed by the huge throngs which lined the streets, and even after they were safely in their suite at the Hotel St. Francis, many were reluctant to leave.

The reception, parade and address by General MacArthur on Wednesday drew a repeat audience. Contained in his brief message at San Francisco were the words: "I do not intend to run for any political office and I hope that my name never will be used in a political way. The only politics I have is contained in a simple phrase known well by all of you—God Bless America."

Winging eastward, the MacArthur plane, set down at Washington National airport at 12:31 a. m. Thursday, EST. The arrival was an hour ahead of schedule, but there were an estimated 12,000 present to greet the returned general, who had been shorn of his official duties by President Truman, and the latter was represented by General Harry Vaughn, of all people, the administration court jester and much-implicated so-called military aide of the president.

Appears Before Congress

Whether one likes or dislikes MacArthur, they must concede no man in recent years has presented such a concise report, one that completely overshadows by its enlightening and masterful words, anything which has been said or perhaps will ever be heard from those responsible for deposing the Far Eastern commander.

MacArthur's four points for policy in the Orient are: An economic blockade of China. A naval blockade of the China coast. Removal of restrictions on aerial reconnaissance over China, and removal of restrictions on the ground forces of nationaltic China, with logistical support from us.

One now understands why Great Britain differs with MacArthur. China, blockaded, could not receive the shipments of materials and equipment from England, our own country and some of our allies, things which could easily reach the communists whether in China or Russia. On the third point, any commanding officer's hands are tied if there can be no aerial reconnaissance ever enemy territory, and on the fourth point, why should the Chinese Nationalists not be permitted to participate in defense of Korea and even their own country.

General MacArthur attacked the appeasement attitude of our administration, and proved beyond doubt that appeasement in the past has produced wars. MacArthur strenuously defended his position relative to Formosa, and arming Chinese nationalists there, about 600,000.

During the 36-minute speech MacArthur clearly stated his position, leaving no doubt among the greatest number that his knowledge of the Far East is possessed by the man who was selected to head the Pacific campaign in World War II, preside at the capitulation of Japan, and later, by sound judgment, bring Japan into a state of welcome understanding of democratic principles, which the administration has espoused, but done little to support and defend, and the same applies to China, a country, like others of the Orient, which has been exploited to the point where its people have now come to look toward communism as having more promise than that offered by others.

General MacArthur closed with a line from an old West Point ballad, "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away." Then he said, "I now close my military career and just fade away."

The soldier-statesman, who had been selected three times for extraordinary commands in 52 years of his great army life, rose to greater heights than any citizen of the United States in modern times when he completed his address to congress Thursday morning, April 19, 1951.

Gus Fickens Sells Business Lawrence Broemeling Buys

Gus Fickens, who came to Genesee 32 years ago from Blue Earth, Minn., first to be employed by John Kempf and later by A. A. Murphy, serving each for periods of about three and a years before purchasing the blacksmith and machine shop business of Mr. Murphy 25 years ago, announces he has sold his business to Lawrence Broemeling.

The new owner has been with Mr. Fickens for some 18 months before the deal was made recently for the former to assume ownership. The business will be conducted the same as before.

Mr. Fickens, in relinquishing his well-established business stated he and Mrs. Fickens have no intentions of leaving Genesee where they have so many friends. Mr. Fickens said he had plans to continue with some of the lighter work about the shop, although the new owner takes full possession of the general work.

Bulldogs Win 4 Games Scoring Astronomical

Genesee high school may not be participating in field or track this spring but the ball club is certainly getting a work-out on the base paths in recent games. They have staged several marathon events, and the scoring has been running in high figures. Included also was a no-run, no-hit game here Wednesday with the Kendrick high school Tigers, a 26-0 rout, in which Jim Rabdau faced but 16 men in five innings.

Working during a cold wind, Rabdau gave up no hits, and the only man to reach first was Clemenhagen, who drew a base on balls. Thirteen strikeouts went to the tall Genesee lad. His teammates clouted 15 hits off Halseth and piled up 26 runs. The Bulldogs walloped the old apple for 14 runs in one frame and in another inning they loosened the hide on the sphere for ten runs.

It was an easy day for fielders who chilled with nothing to do while on defense.

Working for Genesee against Kendrick was Liberg behind the bat. B. Bennett and Krier shared the assignment in center field. Jim Bennett was at second, with Gary Sather taking a turn in a late inning. Gehrke operated at first, with one put out. Jim Sather was at short, Jim Sprenger in left field, Nordby at third, with Parks being given a chance there also, and in right field Kinzer played most of the game, with duties in the garden being shared by Magee and Krier.

Pullman Shellacked 14-5

Pullman high school, big Class A club from Whitman county, scored five runs in the third frame in a game with Genesee high school Saturday, but the visitors were shut out in the six other frames. Jim Bennett worked on the hill for the Bulldogs, and he came up with a one-hitter. Genesee was credited with but five hits in its 14-5 ball game, but they were driving the ball all over the lot, and making chances difficult to handle. The Bulldogs were free with bobbles in the third frame, and there were three bases on balls, accounting for the Pullman runs.

Parr handled the chucking for Pullman, and receiving was Stoffel.

Deary Loses Twin Bill

Deary high school checked out with two losses against Genesee last week in a doubleheader played here. The first game was a 20-0 encounter when Rabdau was stingy with base hits, allowing but one, that to McKinney. He stalled the Deary attack with eight strikeouts. Almost everyone on the squad saw action for Genesee: Two Bennetts, Krier, Becker, Jim Sather, Iiberg, Borgen, Rabdau, Nordby, Jim Sprenger, Parks, Kinzer and Stout.

In the second game Nordby was sent to the mound, and appearing in the role as chucker for the first time pitched a two-hit game. Genesee hit ten times, and piled up 21 runs to 5 for the Deary boys. Working behind the plate was B. Bennett, and on the roster of players seeing action were Liberg, Borgen, Rabdau, Nordby, Jim Bennett, Liberg, Sprenger, Magee, Rabdau and Parks.

Clarkston Takes Genesee

Coach Hammond saw his charges take one on the nose from Clarkston last week 7-1, but it was a 2-1 ball game until the seventh and final inning. Jim Bennett worked on the hill for Genesee, and Clarkston used Poe, both allowing the same number of hits, five. Walks and errors paved the way for a Clarkston win.

In this game Genesee used B. Bennett, Jim Bennett, Nordby, Liberg, Sprenger, Jim Sather, Rabdau, Kinzer and Krier.

Remove Trash And Rubbish Only If In Proper Containers

April 23 to 28, inclusive, is Clean-Up week in Genesee, when ashes,, trash and rubbish will be removed to the dump grounds without cost to property owners, provided the accumulations from winter are placed in proper containers. No animal matter will be transported.

Those who have placed rubbish and trash in large containers, too heavy for handling by one man, and those who have permitted the containers to become filled with water, will be passed by, it was reported Thursday. To make clean-up week a success there must be reasonable cooperation and an understanding of what may be expected in free service. It is also suggested that collection of cans and such in paper boxes, should be in such condition to permit handling without box bottoms dropping out or falling to pieces by becoming wet.

With Men In The Service

Dan Lorang, a navy reservist and stationed for the past month at Port Heuneme, Calif., wrote his father, Henry Lorang, that he expected to leave San Francisco with the Seabees for Guam within a few days.

Jim Tobin, who visited here and in Lewiston with relatives for the past 14 days, left Thursday to return to Ft. Benning, Ga., where he is stationed with the army.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson have received a letter from Japan, dated April 11, from their son, Ralph, who said he expected to be in Korea soon.

GET TOGETHER CLUB

Mrs. Bob Huffman entertained the Get Together club Monday evening when Mrs. George Anderson won high award at Cards; Mrs. LeRoy Harris, second high, and Mrs. Geo. Erickson, low. Mrs. Bob Mason was a guest.

Roy Fish Home Completed One Of Finest In The Area

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fish are now occupying their new ranch-type home south of Genesee, one of the finest in the area, and undoubtedly as modern as any conventional residence possibly can be. It covers a space 75 feet by a trifle over 33 feet, and is located near the road on higher ground northwest of their former home, which is being retained for other members of the family. Facing north, the residence, is of Buckingham blended rustic brick veneer. Five shades of brick, from deep brown to cream, were used for the attractive exterior finish. The roof is of cedar shingles, lapped every three courses. At the east end of the front of the home is the 24x15-foot living room, which has a 12x6-foot plate glass view window, with another window in the northeast corner.

A beautiful fireplace, 6 feet wide, graces the east wall. Arranged also facing the front of the home is a dining room 12½x13½ feet, and a combination breakfast room and kitchen, the last two sections measuring 18x13 feet. A counter or half-partition divides the breakfast room and kitchen. Farther to the west is a garage 12½ by 24 feet, with a 4x10-foot offset to accommodate a men's wash room and refrigeration plant.

The dining room and living room, both with cove ceilings, are finished in laurel green for the walls and chateau green ceilings. Floors are deeply carpeted in green over foam rubber padding. There is a 5x6-foot thermopane window in the dining room and another in the breakfast room, both in front and facing the road. The kitchen is further daylighted by a smaller thermopane window in front and a window facing the west. The kitchen and breakfast room floors are of asphalt tile, in colors harmonizing with the woodwork and walls, with green predominating, forming a pleasing blend for the gray plastic Satuply which covers all work tables, the counter and built-in receptacles for an electric stove and electric roaster. There is a complete set of built-ins in the kitchen, finished in white pine and white rezzed. There is a low recess with glass shelves in the breakfast room, suitable and intended for placing of flowers or small ceramics. Also conveniently placed is a built-in planning table.

Just off the kitchen, across a hall, is a walk-in cold storage room, one division for sharp cold, while the other is for non-freezing. Tile covers the floor of the west end of the hall, which also leads to a washroom near the west entrance, facing the north.

All paint for the walls and ceilings of the home were specially mixed to attain the shades desired.

An open arch connects the living and dining rooms. To the kitchen there is a sliding door of gumwood, and the door which opens from the kitchen to the hall and walk-in refrigerator, and outdoors, is also a sliding one of gumwood, all beautifully grained in natural colors, varnished.

An opening leads from the spacious living room to a 4-foot hall. Arranged along the south side of the hall is a guest bed room, painted in mountain ash and coral colors. There is a large bathroom, with tiled and plastered walls, with a large mirror framed into the wall and dividing the long built-in dressing table. Also included are numerous and convenient linen cabinets. Also along the hall is a den 12 x 9½ feet, arranged with suitable and convenient built-in desks and filing places, also a cooling cabinet, which is chilled from the walk-in refrigerator. The door for the cooling cabinet is a triple glass arrangement. A 5x6-ft thermopane window is located in the south end of the den which gives a pleasing view of the hills at home and across the Lewiston valley. The arrangement of cabinets in the den includes one for guns. This has a glass door.

At the east end of the hall is the master bed room, 16½x13 feet, beautifully done in blue and yellow, with one thermopane window facing the east. Both bed rooms are carpeted wall-to-wall.

Wardrobes are built in for each of the two bedrooms on the ground floor, and reach across one wall. Each has sliding doors, and there are numerous

Palouse Needs A Rain Grain Condition Poor

Weather, this spring, differs from any other like period in many years, according to farmers. We have had spring seasons void of rain, but never has the winter grain crop appeared in such condition. With a decided lack of snow during the winter, and a cold snap in late February and early March, the fine stands over the entire Palouse country has suffered from winter kill. Winters of abnormally light snowfall are usually offset by ample precipitation in early spring, and at this time the much-needed rains are not forthcoming.

Wheat growers generally agree that the winter kill is the most severe in many years, and it came after damage usually occurs. Wheat and barley, not much of the latter, however, went into the winter season in excellent condition, but missing was the protective covering of snow, and the moisture which it would have provided. Added to the problems at the present time is the drying winds, more than usual, and of higher velocity.

Nothing seems to be growing satisfactorily, even grass in pastures and lawns.

Reseeding continues on a large scale locally, with some contemplating replacing spotted stands of wheat with peas, barley or spring wheat. Reseeding of barren spots has been done by some, but discouraged by the conditions and appearances of stands, they enlarge operations until it would seem best to reseed entire fields.

Rain is badly needed, and if it comes within a few days fields untouched for reseeding may put out a sufficient stand to justify letting the crop now growing mature. There is a thick crust on fall seeded lands, and since the topsoil has checked into sections, harrowing to break up the surface means tearing out the wheat plants.

Young People Are Selected For Girls' And Boys' States

Wednesday evening during business meetings of the American Legion and Auxiliary held at the Memorial building, Norma Jean Kinzer was selected to attend Girls' State at Pocatello in June. The alternate named was Clarice Rae Aherin. The Legion selected J. D. Anderson to attend Boys' State, with Bill Haxton as alternate.

Saturday evening the Auxiliary is sponsoring a public dance to help finance sending their delegate to Girls' State to receive training and knowledge in American leadership, a program started by the Auxiliary department five years ago. Mrs. Floyd Ochs is Girls' State chairman.

Mrs. Wayne Vestal, poppy chairman has announced that poppies will be on sale in Genesee from May 19 to May 26.

Mrs. Virgil Post gave a report on the recent district convention held at Lewiston.

Request For Blood Donors For Carl Tideman, Injured

A request for blood donations has come from Spokane to replace the bank at Sacred Heart hospital where Carl Tideman is a patient, critically injured, and receiving transfusions in an attempt to save his life. Blood may be purchased, but hospitals prefer that replacements be made to the blood bank at Sacred Heart, owing to demand from Korea.

Those desiring to participate in restoring blood for Sacred Heart hospital may report to the hospital in Spokane, or to St. Joseph's hospital in Lewiston. Blood of Type A is being used for transfusions for Mr. Tideman, but any type is acceptable, for it is to be used as replacement.

Mr. Tideman, former resident of Genesee Valley, now residing on his farm near Twisp, Wash., was seriously injured April 9. He is reported to have been struck by a motor vehicle on the highway near his home. His sister, Mrs. Clyde Dibble (Selma) resides near Winthrop, and she has been with her brother at the hospital. She was notified immediately following the accident, and accompanied her brother by plane to Spokane. She is a graduate nurse. Mr. Tideman, according to reports received here by his sister, Mrs. J. P. Anderson, Wednesday afternoon, are that he remains unconscious. Oxygen is being administered and tranfusions are being made, and reports Wednesday are to the effect that he is showing slight improvement. Attending doctors have been unable to proceed with treatment for fractured bones in one shoulder and arm. It is stated, also that the seriously injured man has a chance for recovery.

Westinghouse "Know-How" in the LAUNDROMAT

When many companies were ridiculing the advent of automatic washing machines, WESTINGHOUSE engineers and testing laboratories were had at work, finding out for themselves, how practical the idea was.

Before the last war, workinig models of WESTINGHOUSE LAUNDRAMAT were in the hands of users in special hard-water areas, on a test basis. The people at WESTINGHOUSE wanted a machine that would be satisfactory under the toughest conditions, before placing it on sale to the general public. The present LAUNDROMAT is the result of this and later extensive experimentation.

When you buy a WESTINGHOUSE LAUNDROMAT you can be sure that you are getting a machine that is simple in operation, yet completely automatic; that it is as economical on water as possible to give complete washing and rinsing; that it is engineered to give the best possible service for your money.

A real product of WESTINGHOUSE "know-how."

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Maybe some of you folks get tired reading about the local weather, but we have had many requests from folks away from here who get the paper, to keep on telling about it, so you can skip that part of the column if it bores you. The weather has been warm and sunny in the daytime but cold at night, down to 25 degrees above zero several nights — still no rain. Some fields are being entirely reseeded and some look like the tractor had a runaway. And so the comedy of errors goes on in Washington, D. C. It looks like from our perch that some folks don't want the war to end soon. Want to carry it over to next year so they won't have to change horses in the middle of the stream. We hope none of you wore out your dictionaries the past week looking up the longest word in the English language. It is "Smiles," because there is a mile between the first and last letter. A smile can be a mile long sometimes. A smile can reach across a mountain of sadness and bring a cheer. A smile can reach across a river of doubt and bring assurance. A smile can reach across a sea of despondency and bring cheerfulness. A smile can reach across a desert of loneliness and bring comfort. A smile can reach across a bridge of indifference and bring the desire for purposeful living. A smile can reach across the world and leave it brighter. Let us smile more—and more.

Brooder House Is Destroyed Fire Also Takes 500 Chickens

Fire, last Wednesday morning at the Ferd Bruegeman ranch in Thorncreek, completely destroyed a brooder house and approximately 500 five-weeks-old chickens, the original shipment of day-old chicks. Only four or five were saved. Mr. Bruegeman, asleep in a bed room with a window facing toward the brooder house, saw the blaze breaking through the roof of the structure, an 16 x 18-foot frame building. He did not summon a rural fire department because the building was already enveloped by fire, and there was no wind and no buildings endangered.

The brooder house was built three years ago, and had double walls and cedar shingle roof. Cause of the fire was unknown. It was heated by an oil-burning brooder stove.

The home has a combination living and dining room, utility room, kitchen, three bed rooms and bath. There is a full basement. A gun rack is planned for the basement, hunting being a hobby of the Jones families.

Build River On Higher Ground

Over coffee at Evan's cafe a few mornings ago a discussion led to the digging of the Snake river bed. Knowing it was excavated by Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, when the former decided to leave Idaho Falls for Portland before the two cities existed, one Java drinker mentioned that Bunyan had taken on too much "Mackey Moon" and staggered north after crossing southern Idaho, only to be stopped when he saw the Lewiston hill. He then turned westward. Pete Isaksen did not differ with the Bunyan story, but he did say, "Too bad that Bunyan couldn't have found higher ground for Shake river."

pull drawers for linen and other storage in both bed rooms. A novel arrangement of cabinet storage space is also built in along a portion of the hall, flush with the wall.

Lloyd Esser, contractor, said the plans called for 95 cabinet drawers and 90 cabinet doors. A number of these, however, are in the basement.

Stairs to the full basement lead downward from the west end of the hall near the kitchen entrance, and at the landing is a large room 24x19 feet, with space out for the stair well. This room opens to a recreation room 24x15 feet, a room finished with two walls in knotty pine and two walls pastered and painted in dark pomegranate. All basement room floors are tiled in asphalt tile. For the recreation room the floor is red and white. A fireplace, measuring 8 feet is located on the east wall. In the northeast corner is a refreshment bar, with a place for an attendant. The south wall of knotty pine is broken with a an attractive treatment of glass brick.

The basement, all nicely finished and painted, is entirely covered except for the furnace room and fruit room with asphalt tile, in colors to harmonize with the color scheme selected for each. There are two large bedrooms in the basement, a bath room, nicely done in tile and plastered walls. One bedroom is painted in dark persimmon and madrone and the other is light pomegranite with an even lighter pomegranate tint.

The south and east portion of the basement is well lighted by natural light, for the basement walls extend more than four feet above ground level, giving the lower floor the effect of being in a half-basement.

The home, besides having the air space between brick and sheeting is fully insulated with balsam wool between studding, and also overhead.

All rooms with the exception of the fruit room are plastered and painted and the fruit room is even painted. For this room the basement concrete walls form two walls while the other walls are sheeted, with the outside plastered and painted. Esser said the plaster for walls has a zonalite base.

The garage, to a man, is highly practical and useful. The door is sectional, hung overhead, and operates with an electric motor. The door may be opened manually, if electricty goes off. It may be operated by a switch, and even by a radio-activated system, which permits the driver of the Fish family car to press a switch in the vehicle at a distance of 200 yards or so from the home. A set frequency broadcast from the car flashes a signal to the midget radio in the garage which makes a contact for operation of the electric motor to open or close the large door.

The home is heated by an oil-burning furnace, with air forced to all portions of the house. Water is from springs, and is kept under pressure by a pump located in one corner of the furnace room.

The modern home was constructed by Lloyd Esser and his crew of men, and includes brick laying, pastering, painting and installation of equipment. The wiring was done by Carl Simons of The Electric Shop.

Mrs. Wm. Mortensen, architect for the Genesee Medical and Dental building and new Community church, prepared the plans and specifications for the Fish home.

Cement walks about the home are completed. The road, which is now about two feet higher than the yard in front of the home will be lowered for a distance of about 200 feet. This will permit atttractive landscaping, and another beauty spot in the Rimrock area south of Genesee.

The first piece of government equipment found, was a rather elaborate midget broadcasting unit, attached to a parachute and balloon. The one found a few days ago is the convential type released from Spokane, and according to instructions printed on the container of the radiosonde, the apparatus is being returned to the Weather Bureau at Spokane where it will be used again.

Project For Civic Assn. Discussed At Meeting

Thirty-six members of the Genesee Civic Association, gathering at Evan's Cafe Wednesday evening for a dinner meeting, heard a discussion on consideration of a project for the organization which carried to such a successful conclusion the construction of the Medical and Dental building, and the decided improvements at the baseball and football grounds here.

J. P. Hermann, chairman of the project committee, reported on the possibility of erecting signs for individual farm homes, a sort of "directory," similar to those seen in the Colton and Uniontown area, and also in the Coeur d'Alene country. These signs would list the names of all rural residents on roads leading from Genesee. The practice of listing names of farm operators in Whitman county has become noticeable, and was recommended here, first by Hermann, and also by Charles Schooler.

LeRoy Harris, chairman of the Civic Association recreation committee, also presented projects for consideration, such as creation of a small park with fishing for youngsters. He mentioned the possibilities offered by the John Krier pond and also the feasibility of excavating an area northeast of the Dresher property in northwest Genesee. He pointed out that a pond could be excavated by volunteer labor and equipment at small cost, and that water could be supplied, if not entirely, certainly in part from springs near the site.

Another project of the recreation committee submitted was the paving of the open lots between the hotel building and old armory, for use in summer as a roller skating rink, tennis courts, and also for outdoor dancing. It was also pointed out that the area could be employed during the winter as an ice skating space. The paving surface would be smooth.

J. M. Rabdau suggested that it would be best to start with a new site for creation of a pond for fishing for young boys and girls, and eventual stocking with fish.

Chas. Schooler, mayor, added that he favored a small lake in east Genesee, while Floyd Ochs favored the area northwest of the Dresher place. The latter cited what had been accomplished at Uniontown for the younger boys in making a small lake which has been stocked with fish. He further stated, that the city could supply water for any small lake if within town limits. Concurring in this statement was Chas. Schooler, who offered a motion that the fishing pond project be undertaken, with the city council matching funds subscribed in the community within reasonable bounds. Funds which could be used for this purpose are provided by the small levy in the budget for recreational facilities, plus revenues from liquor licenses, slot machines and punch board taxes.

J. M. Rabdau, U. S. soil conservationist, mentioned the services provided by the governmental agency in creation of ponds to restore water levels, and stated the agency could make a survey of water sources, and give an estimate of excavation. The agency also could provide technical advice.

Wilson Esser Presides

In the absence of Don Springer, president of the association, who became a victim of influenza, Wilson Esser presided at the Wednesday evening meeting. He left committee assignments to the president.

One of the most important matters brought to attention of members was the visit here in July of the Idaho Mobile X-ray Unit, and the necessity for a preliminary meeting of representatives of all organizations May 21 at 8 o'clock at the Legion Memorial Building. This group would assist in promoting the campaign to have every person in the community over 15 years of age examined for tuberculosis of the lungs, bronchitis, enlarged heart conditions and cancer of the lungs and tumors. There will be no charge for the examination and findings are strictly confidential between the state laboratory and the individual.

Rabdau On Strip Cropping

J. M. Rabdau, in a brief talk, told of advancement of strip cropping in Latah county and in the Genesee area. He emphasized how enormous soil erosion becomes on clean cultivated land for weed control, stating surveys showed losses per acre mounting to 150 tons. To control erosion on such land he advised adopted rotation of grasses and legumes, and for added stoppage of washing of topsoil, the U. S. Soil Conservation strongly advises strip cropping. Plans for 1951 in Latah county call for twice as much strip cropping this year over 1950.

As entertainment, Marion Holben showed a sound movie in colors on United States, and a picture was supplied by Rev. Melford Knight, in color and sound, depicting the manufacture of ply-wood which has become such an important industry in the Pacific Northwest.

Special Meeting Perhaps

The next meeting of the Genesee Civic Association will perhaps be a special one, called by the president to hear reports of the recreation and projects committees.

New Self-Service Refrigerator Installed At The City Market

A new piece of modern equipment has been installed at the City Market, a self-service dairy freezer, which is in white enamel and chrome. The cabinet, all open, has two sheives or compartments, permitting customers to select packaged milk and cream, butter and cheese from a large assortment. The cabinet is cooled by an individual refrigeration system, with temperature maintained constanely at around 33 degrees above zero, said to be the ideal temperature for storing dairy products. The cabinet measures 4 feet long by 42 inches deep, and is about 50 inches in height. The display of dairy products never becomes frosted owing to the frost-free method of cooling.

Genesee Wins Opener Blasts Pomeroy 13-2

Genesee's entry in the Hill Division of the Lewis-Clark league got away to a good start Sunday afternoon at Pomeroy, when the unannounced aggregation beat the socks off the Washington club. Genesee's team was announced primarily, due to shortage of local players, although all men playing Sunday were duly filed with the league secretary at Lewiston. Genesee's town club, sponsored again by the Genesee Fire Department, will continue to experience a player shortage until school ends in May, when seniors from high school become available for competition.

Ossie Kannikiberg, former Kendrick athlete, now a student at the University of Idaho and employed at Moscow, donned a Genesee uniform, and turned in a six-hit performance against the Pomery club Sunday. Behind the plate was Bob Linck, former University of Idaho basketball and baseball player, and who has appeared with Genesee in former seasons. The Goddard brothers, also students at Idaho, but not on the university baseball team, worked for Genesee Sunday. The four, it is hoped will be able to continue with the Genesee club until school ends, both at Genesee and at Idaho.

Returning to the team from Genesee this year are: Bielenberg, Pederson, Ray Liberg, Rosenau and Green. Jim Phelps worked six innings in right field, and Dahmen of Clarkston was in the outfield.

D. Goddard, second sacker for Genesee covered everything from first to second and far back, and walloped the offerings of Overton and Ruckman of Pomeroy for three hits, a single, a triple and a two-bagger. Bielenberg at short connected for two safe blows and Rosenau, holding the centerfield spot, blasted two singles. Others to hit were Green and Pederson, the former taking over for Phelps in right field and the latter holding down the hot corner Linck in five trips to the plate was given three free passes. Kannikiberg in six trips got hold of the ball three times, was hit once and flew out to the outfield on two occasions. Liberg, H. Goddard, Phelps and Dahmen went hitless but each were on bases.

first man up, doubled. Kannikiberg eroy was Chard, starting at second and ending up in right field. His three base hits accounted for half of the blows credited to his team.

Kannikiberg got by 11 Pomeroy men with strikeouts, and Overton was effective on nine Genesee batters.

Genesee started off with a run in the first frame when D. Goddard, first man up, doubled. Kinnikiberg was safe on an error, and Goddard scored on a passed ball.

Genesee counted three runs in the third frame on a walk by D. Goddard, Kannikiberg going to first on an error, Bielenberg singling, a walk to Linck, a hit by Pederson, two errors and a fielder's choice to late to catch a runner. In the fifth inning Kannikiberg walked after being hit by a pitched ball. Two errors and a fielder's choice scored the pitcher.

D. Goddard for Genesee drove out a triple in the seventh, and scored on Kannikibergs, fly to right field.

Pomeroy was easy in the eighth frame, when Genesee put six runs in the sack. Pederson walked, Liberg drew a life on an error, Rosenau belted out a single, Green smashed out a double, M. Goddard was safe on a fielder's choice, D. Goddard got his third hit of the game, Bielenberg was hit by a pitched ball and Linck and Pederson walked, the second for the latter in the same inning. The thirteenth Genesee run came when Rosenau singled and got an extra base on an error. M. Goddard's bounder to third was mishandled and Rosenau came in to score.

Pomery scored one of its two runs in the first inning when Davies hit for four bases. The second run came in the fourth when Kralman was safe on an error at first and scored on two successive errors.

M. Hasfurther To Pendleton Broemeling Remains In U. S.

Cpl. Maurice Hasfurther who returned to the States from Korea in March and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther, and other relatives and friends for the past 30 days, left Tuesday for Camp Pendleton, Calif. He is with the Marines and has six months of a three-year enlistment remaining to serve. He is hoping his future service will be in the United States.

Cpl. Richard Broemeling who visited relatives here in April, prior to notice of overseas assignment, found his orders changed on his arrival at Camp Pendleton. He will remain in California for some time. His wife and little son, who planned to stay in Genesee, accompanied Maurice Hasfurther to California, when he left Tuesday. He drove the Broemeling car. The Broemelings will again find living quarters near Camp Pendleton.

Don Johnson and Charles Swenson arrived home Sunday on leave to visit home folks, following completion of boot training at San Diego. Don will go to Widby Island navy air station, and Charles will return to San Diego.

Pfc. Lawrence Isaksen, in an air-mail letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Isaksen, receieved here on Saturday, states that he arrived in France on April 14. Before leaving New York, Lawrence telephoned his parents and he thought at that time he was being sent to Germany, and is doubtful now if he will be sent there.

Pythian Sisters Convention Held At Genesee Wednesday

The eighteenth annual Pythian Sister convention of the Fourth District which represents Craigmont, Cottonwood, Lewiston and Genesee, met at Genesee Wednesday. At the business meeting during the afternoon the triple trio of Genesee high school under the direction of Jim Riggs, sang Linda Lou and Nocturne. Seventy-two were seated for the banquet in the evening at 6:30. Tables were beautifully decorated in colors of white, yellow, red and blue.

The ritualistic work at the 8 o'clock meeting was in charge of past chiefs of Lewiston. The candidates were Mrs. Harry Clarke, Mrs. Francis Uhre and Mrs. W. M. Herman. Mrs. Lela Jain, a continuous member of Pythian Sisters for almost 40 years, was presented a certificate of life membership from the Genesee Temple.

Grand officers present were Jewel Hill of Craigmont, grand guard; Ida Emmert, Cottonwood, grand manager; Olive Farmer, Lewiston, grand treasurer; Lela Jain, past supreme representative; Nola Krugel, Bonners Ferry, supreme alternate; Anna Garlinghouse, Lewiston, past grand; Clara Bitters, Lewiston, past grand, and Vera Heinrich, past grand.

Mrs. R. E. Emmett, as district deputy grand chief, was in charge of the convention. Miss Ethel Johnson is most excellent chief of the Genesee Temple.

Candidate For Queen

Gonzaga University, Spokane—Miss Juyce Grieser of Genesee, has been selected as a candidate for Gonzago university alumni "homecoming queen" to reign at homecoming May 26-27. She is sponsored by the Education club at Gonzaga. The candidates will be judged by Spokane alumnae of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary, and the Spokane press photographers. Judging will be held at the Spokane Press club.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grieser.

Friederichs Final Rites

Funeral services for John Friederichs were held at 9 a. m. Thursday at St. Stanislaus church with the Rev. Fr. John Concannon as officiant. Hymns were sung by Mrs. Joseph McLaughlin, accompanied by Mrs. William Cherrier, organist.

Interment was at Normal Hill cemetery. Pallbearers were C. F. Byrne, Thomas O'Connell, Cornelius Sweeney, Gus Fickens, Ernest Becker and Ernest Taylor.

The deceased, a former resident of the Genesee community, passed away at Lewiston Tuesday of last week. He came to Genesee in 1903.

Mayor Chas. Schooler Renamed With Council

Charles Schooler will soon begin his second term as mayor of Genesee. He was unopposed for reelection Tuesday, receiving 76 of the 83 votes cast.

Also returned to office as councilmen were John Hickman, East ward, and Virgil Post, West ward. In a contest for councilman of the East ward, Hickman was renamed with 50 votes, and Ray Helbling received 31 votes. Post, unopposed, received 70 of the 83 votes cast. There were about 200 registered for the election, with some misunderstanding the necessity of separate registration for a municipal election. Electors must register for municipal elections unless they have voted in the elections of 1947 or 1949. Registration for primary, general, or school elections does not qualify one to vote at muncipal elections.

Schooler will serve a two-year term and the councilmen are elected for four-year terms. Holdover members of the council are George Anderson and Wayne Hampton.

Effective this year, the mayor will appoint the city clerk and city treasurer, with confirmation by members of the council.

Moscow Keeps Slot Machines

Moscow voters decided to continue operation of slot machines in non-profit clubs at its election Tuesday. The vote was 1283 to 958. Voters signified a dislike for punchboards, and voiced their opinion 1116 to 1067 for doing away with them. They were permitted to any licenesed business in the Moscow city limits.

Moscow will change mayors by the election of W. L. Anderson over encumbent R. K. Bonnett. The winner was a write-in candidate, favored by an "ex-servicemen's committee for the right of franchise." Anderson served as mayor before, being defeated for reelection by Bonnett. Another write-in candidate, W. Homer Peterson, was elected to the council, defeating I. L. Standley.

Women Lose At Lake City

Another municipal election race under observation in northern Idaho was the one at Coeur d'Alene, where a woman, Irene B. Green, ran for mayor with a full woman council ticket. Mrs. Green lost to L. L. Gardner, and none of the fairer sex were elected. Women are reported to have prevented the election of their own sex.

With Genesee I. Students

Jo Magee, junior at the University of Idaho, was recently elected president of the Alpha Phi sorority, and will assume duties until early spring next year. The out-going president is Beverly Bressler of Genesee, who will graduate in June.

Linda Archibald won the co-ed cow milking contest last Saturday evening at the University's Little International Livestock Show held the past week end.

Mrs. Mona Rosenau is directing one of three one-act plays to be presented by the dramatics department. The title is, "Hands Across the Border.'

National Life Insurance

Arthur E. Haworth, Boise, VA insurance officer, stopped in Genesee Thursday and stated that some veterans can still reinstate their World War II National Service Life Insurance. Those veterans who have lapsed their government policy, but whose original application was dated not more than eight years ago, can still reinstate their policy. Or, if they renewed NSLI, then lapsed the renewal policy, they may still be granted the insurance on a reinstatement basis.

If the original eight-year term policy, or the 5-year term policy issued after Dec. 31, 1945, were allowed to expire, no further National Service Life insurance can be granted to such veteran.

Reinstatement during the term period, renewal and conversion of NSLI is still authorized, but no new insurance will be issued after the enactment of legislation and signed by the president on April 25, 1951.

Veterans can receive assistance with government insurance problems at the VA office in Moscow from Joseph Beeson, or at Lewiston from the county service officer, Lloyd Teel, or by writing to the Veterans Administration, Insurance Division, Boise, Idaho, Haworth said.

Westinghouse Refrigerator "Know-How"

A pioneer in the development of household refrigerators, WESTINGHOUSE has contributed many "firsts" to the industry.

An aim of WESTINGHOUSE engineers is to make every product as trouble-free as is humanly possible; to require the minimum of attention from the user. The new WESTINGHOUSE "FROST-FREE" refrigerator is the only completely automatic refrigerator because it does the whole job. No clocks to reset, no water to empty, no special compartment that requires special treatment.

Long a leader for efficiency, styling and dependability —efficient refrigeration without unnecessary "gadgets" — WESTINGHOUSE is now the first to offer a completely automatic refrigerator. Another example of WESTINGHOUSE "know-how."

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Winter sort of lingered in the lap of spring the past 10 days with temperatures at night as low as 12 degrees above zero. Many farmers were caught with frozen tractor radiators and truck radiators, never suspecting that they had to drain them in the middle of April. The spring work is mostly completed except the low, wet spots that may never dry out in time to seed. There is plenty of moisture in the subsoil but we do need some warm spring rains to sprout the spring wheat and peas, and warm up the ground. The days have been mostly sunny but a cold wind blows most of the time. Our congratulations to J. D. Anderson and Bill Haxton on their nominations to Boys' State at Boise. We are glad that the American people softened the blow to greet MacArutur by their tumultous welcome, and he can realize that we are not all arm-chair generals. Time will tell who is right or wrong in the crisis, but we can think of better ways some things might have been done.

The usual church services Sunday. Ladies Aid Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Nordby, instead of at the church. Ladies please note change.

Donna Danielson gave a piano solo. Mrs. Masted, accompanied by Mrs. Danielson, sang, "Hold Thou My Hand, Dear Lord." Something new in the way of a program was given when members heard the voice of Mrs. Larson's daughter, Myrtle Jacobsen, in a wire recording of three Lenten messages she gave over the radio during Lent, in Minnesota. Rev. Masted operated the machine. The birthday song was sung for Mrs. John Hagen. Guests were Mrs. Nels Lunde, Arwin Nordby and Donna Danielson. The hostess served lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. E. Nordby May 3.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

You've Got To Hand It To Sandy

Sandy Johnson's wife "Tiny" suddenly asks him at breakfast the other morning "Why don't you build me some bluebird houses?"

"What for?" asks Sandy. "Why for bluebirds, of course" says Tiny. "We always had 'em at home when I was a girl. May sound silly—but I sorta miss 'em."

Well, I know how busy Sandy's been lately and the thought of taking time out to build birdhouses could have made a lot of men blow their top. But not Sandy. He says, "No, Tiny. It doesn't sound silly. I think it's a wonderful idea—we're going to have bluebirds—and I'm starting on some birdhouses tonight."

From where I sit, we could do with more understanding people like Sandy—and Tiny, too. He respects her likings, and she respects his. He likes a temperate glass of beer now and then— and although Tiny sticks to coffee, whatever Sandy likes is O.K. with her. They live and let live—and that's why they live so happily.

✓ A BIG JOB DONE!

FARM ELECTRIFICATION

Practically COMPLETED!

Sixty years ago, rural America had no electric service, or paved roads either. Cities were mere frontiers, and rural areas were considered desolate. Bringing electric service to all of America's cities and then to farms has been a slow but positive program.

The Washington Water Power Company started to pioneer rural electrification in the Inland Empire back in 1906, when electricity was in its infancy.

Today, thanks to private business and the REA, the Inland Empire is 95% electrified. The job of rural electrification is almost done.

Genesee Men Leaving With 148th F. A. Units

Six Genesee men will leave Sunday for Camp Carson, Colo. Warrant Officer Ron Huffman, and Recruits Ray [illegible]berg and Roger Broemeling, Jr., go with Battery C, 148th Field Artillery of Lewiston. Warrant Officer Carl Thiessen of B Battery, 148th F. A. of Moscow, left today (Friday) for the Colorado camp. Other members of the Moscow unit from Genesee are Stephen Flerchinger and Homer Hasfurther. Dick Armstrong of Coeur d'Alene, formerly of Genesee, goes to Camp Carson with the 148th. He is an administration officer of the unit. Huffman, Thiessen and Armstrong were in the armed forces during World War II. Huffman was with the 41st Division in the Pacific, and Thiessen served in the European theatre. The 148th Field Artillery is a unit of the 41st Division, first activated for duty with the division during World War I, and later was reorganized to retain its identity until the present time. The 41st became a replacement division during World War II but its three artillery regiments were never broken up, and served as a brigade of the Third Army Corps, serving with distinction with all divisions under the corps command.

Members of the Idaho National Guard entered federal service Tuesday, and since that time have been engaged in preparations to entrain Sunday. A small detail from the Lewiston battery has already left for Camp Carson.

Ron Huffman, who became a warrant officer with Battery C of Lewiston several months ago, said men are now reporting at 7 a. m. for breakfast, and are on duty until 11 a. m. They report at 1 p. m. and remain on duty until 5 p. m., being free until the following morning. All meals are served at the Lewis-Clark hotel. Men will be free from recall Saturday until time to board the troop train at 7:30 Sunday night, according to Huffman.

The Lewiston and Moscow batteries are taking their equipment with them to Camp Carson. Battery C moves to River Junction Sunday night, and the following morning cars carrying men and equipment of the Moscow and Coeur d'Alene units will arrive at the junction for the trip to Colorado.

Availability of high school players depends on the outcome of the district play-off at Kamiah and Lewiston, then the play-off at Coeur d'Alene, and a possible crack at the state title.

Deadline For G. I. Training Is Less Than 3 Months Away

The July 25 deadline for starting G. I. Bill courses of education and training for most World War II veterans is less than three months away, the Veterans Administration has announced.

That date, which is established by law, should be kept in mind by all veterans planning to take schooling or training at government expense. This coming term, the VA says, will be the last during which most veterans will be permitted to enter or re-enter G.I. Bill training.

A veteran actually must be in training by the deadline if he wants to continue afterwards. The VA will consider him in training, even though he has temporarily interrupted his course for the summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control, such as re-entry into military service.

Once he completes or discontinues his program of training after the cut-off date, he may not start another course.

The veteran also must meet these other requirements: He will be expected to pursue his training continuously until completion, except for conditions which normally would cause interruption by any student. He may change his educational objective "only while in training and then for reasons satisfactory to the Administration.

The July 25 cut-off date applies to World War II veterans discharged before July 25, 1947. Veterans discharged after the 1947 date have four years from the date of discharge in which to begin G. I. Bill training. Most veterans in both groups, however, must finish training by July 25, 1956, when the program ends.

An exception has been made for those veterans who enlisted or reenlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act (between Oct. 6, 1945, and Oct. 5, 1946.) Those veterans have four years from the end of their enlistment or reenlistment period in which to start training, and nine years from that time in which to complete it.

Mrs. Bill Charpentier and daughter of Lewiston visited Friday with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Baumgartner and family.

Light Rain Beneficial Cold Winds Continue

Rain fell gently, starting last Friday evening and continuing until Sunday morning, with an estimated one-third of an inch of precipitation recorded, some of which was in the form of a delicate snow fall. Moisture of any kind was welcome, and more is needed whenever it comes, if the crops now growing provide anything near average for the Genesee area.

Moisture which fell during the week end was sufficient for the time being in that it caused the moisture points to meet, and gave a boost to everything growing. Cold weather followed the showers, and again crops were showing the need of warmer weather to make normal headway.

Pastures, slow in becoming green this spring, took on some color since last Friday, but the growth is not up to expectations, due to the cold and windy weather, which has prevailed most of the time.

Peas, planted, some of which were up before the rain, are reported doing well, and some stands of spring wheat are looking much better since the topsoil became moistened.

Fall wheat prospects are perhaps the poorest of any season in the Genesee territory. Never has there been as much winter kill, and under such abnormal conditions, namely the late winter freeze, coming when the soil was practically barreen of snow. One will see some areas in a few fields which resemble the usual growth and stand expected locally, but generally the fall wheat condition is depressing.

Some have replaced fall wheat with spring varieties, and there has been far above the average reseeding. A few have elected to increase seedings of peas, owing to a more favorable price than received generally for last year's production, and barley, undoubtedly will fill part of the gap left by unfavorable wheat returns at harvest time. There does not seem to be much a rush for planting of oats, a crop which can still be seeded locally with time to mature.

Grain experts last fall reported the possibility of heavy infestations of smut in fall wheat, but no recent reports have been noticed. This causes one to wonder how spring wheat will be affected as to smut. It is believed, however, that smut reported prevalent in fall seedings, may not cause damage to the spring wheat varieties

Grass and legume seedings will be benefited by the showers and gardens planted, have taken on life since last Friday evening.

Bulldogs Win One Lose Two Extra Inning For Lewiston

Tuesday was no day for baseball when a cold wind was blowing, but the Lewiston Bengals were here for a doubleheader. The two teams went into an extra inning to decide the first of two games, but called the second game owing to latness and cold.

Genesee broke into the lead in the first inning, with a run by Bob Bennett. Sather, like Bennett, walked in the second frame, and scored Genesee's second counter. Lewiston worked up a run in the first of the third to make the score 1-2, but the Bulldogs were in with a run in the last of the same inning, for a 3-1 count, Bob Bennett scoring again.

Lewiston, aided and assisted by four walks and three errors, upped the score to 4-3 in the fifth frame, and added another run in the seventh for the 6-3 score.

Genesee, in the last of the seventh, drawing three walks and favored by an error, scored two runs, and then Jim Bennett, stole home to even the count 6-6. Lewiston scored two runs in the first of the eighth, an extra inning, while Genesee was unable to get men on bases.

Sprenger, J. Bennett and Kinzer were the Bulldogs on the rampage in the seventh inning.

Divide With Lapwai

Genesee, winner of the White Pine sub-district, took on Lapwai of the Valley circuit last Friday, to devide a doubleheader 5-1 for Genesee, and 3-2 for Lapwai.

In the first game, with Rabdau on the hill, the Bulldogs gave him five runs, while he was throttling the Indians to 3 hits. The Bulldogs smashed out 9 hits, four of them by Sprenger, off Isaac, Wildcat chucker.

In the second game, an abbreviated five-inning engagement, Genesee was unable to connect on the slants of Allen, Lapwai pitcher, and wound up with only two safe blows, while the Wildcats, victors, 3-2, got but four base hits off Jim Bennett. Lapwai, off to a good start, pounded in its three runs in the first frame, and from then on unable to populate the bases. Genesee counted its two runs in the second frame.

No. 2 ratings were given the triple trio and the band. No. 3 ratings were given Jean Luedke, vocal solo; Judy Flomer, solo baton twirling, and to Judy Flomer and Mavis Esser, as a baton twirling team. Many who witnessed the parade also remarked that the Genesee band made a fine appearance despite weather conditions.

Examinations For Mail Jobs Open To Qualified Veterans

As a result of a recent announcement by the Civil Service Commission an opportunity is now open for Veterans residing in Washington, Idaho and Montana to qualify as substitute postal transportation clerks. Qualified men will be selected from a list of those who pass the written examination, which is to be held at an early date in most of the larger cities in states referred to above. The work consists of the distribution and dispatch of mails in railway post offices, terminals, and air mail fields. The starting salary is fixed at $1.415 per hour, with automatic promotions at the conclusions of each year of satisfactory service until maximum grade is attained.

Application forms, available at all first and second class post offices, must be received by the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., on or before May 17, 1951. Full details concerning this examination are contained in the examination announcement which is bulletined in the lobby of most postoffices. Further inquiry may be made at the Office of the District Superintendent , Postal Transportation Service, 228 Federal Building, Spokane, telephone Main 2664.

This is the third time in 15 years that an examination will be held for the position mentioned, and is restricted to qualified Veterans only.

"Know-How" is Important . . . in Wiring Too

"KNOW-HOW" is probably the least expensive part of a good wiring job.

Some of the strange combinations of material and installation put in by the man who "likes to tinker with electricity" or the "handy neighbor" are a constant source of wonder to the trained electrician.

Between the fellow who would wire with store string, if he could make it work, and the one who installs everything twice as heavy as necessary—and then leaves a weak spot that wastes all his precaution—there is a lot of room for "Know-How."

We maintain that a good, conscientious wireman will save the customer his wages in material and efficiency of operation.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

It began to look like April showers were going to be a myth but finally, Friday night, Saturday and Sunday, the westherman came through, even pulled a Sunday punch with a snowstorm for a few hours, that made the ground white in the Blaine area and Moscow Mountain, but melted as fast as it fell in the Valley. Most everyone in the Valley was at the music fiesta in Lewiston Saturday, and we are proud to see that Genesee had the best looking banner in the parade, and the two pretty girls riding on the fenders of the car and holding it, didn't detract from the picture either. Probably the next thing the band needs is plastic rain coats and caps, as one band had, and used during the downpour. Why ye editor was in school there were no bands or orchestras, just choruses, and we hope the kids nowadays appreciate the opportunities they have in a musical way. From our vantage point on the parade route we could see a hundred men or more and we only saw three men raise their hats when the flag went by, and it wasn't raining either then. What is the matter with us that we don't show respect for the grandest flag in the world. The American Legion or some other patriotic organization should start some education in flag etiquette. This is National Music Week and National Familiy Week. The home has long been recognized as our first line of defense. The home is the basic unit of our society for character building and growth. If we want to build a Christian society in which true democracy and freedom flourish and prejudice-free, wise, and loving personalities grow, the foundation must be laid in the home. St. Augustine once said, "Give me mothers, and I will give you another world." The quality of the homes in the community where we live determine the character of our state, our nation, and even the world, because our homes are developing the citizens who will build the future. The responsibility is equally that of the father and mother. The chief hope of our time is a reapplication of Christianity to social and individual problems; somehow, somewhere, somebody has failed to teach these youngsters the spiritual value of life, that inner something which keeps them clean, makes them want to respect the rights of others, makes them want to become the kind of folks they will be happy to live with all this life. Until this is done, all the formal education we can lavish on these youngsters will fail to make them what they should be. Their spiritual side must not be neglected.

Usual church services Sunday.

The sympathy of the community goes to the Tideman family in the loss of their brother, Carl.

Pfc. Alton Anderson surprised his family Thursday by walking in on them. He took a plane to Boise and hitchhiked from there with a buddy from Lapwai, and luckily caught a ride straight through. He has a week at home and then will return to Camp Cooke where he is scheduled to leave for Japan to rejoin the infantry regiment he was in before going to Fort Ord for a special course.

Week end guests at Wm. Borgen's were Mr. and Mrs. C. Brown, Bob Simmons from Quincy, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Simmons and daughter, Pam, of Richland, Wash.; Mrs. Arlene Broemeling from Sumyside, Wash., and Don Dennler from Fix Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Williams and baby came from Spokane for the week end at the Nordby home. Mr. Williams went to Lewiston and Grangeville to attend to some business. Mrs. Nordby and Mrs. Williams and daughter, had coffee with Mrs. Ed Morken Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lilly Larson visited at Nordby's Saturday afternoon. The visitors returned to Spokane Sunday evening.

Mrs. Leon Danielson called on Mrs. Wedin Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and Mrs. Lilly Larson had coffee with Mrs. Victor Danielson Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Hove visited at Art Hove's Saturday afternoon.

Douglas Gibler and Dean Bieren of Moscow spent Sunday at the Art Tegland home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Olson visited at Art Borgens' Wednesday. They are moving back to Genesee from Kellogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lande and Pete and Erling Lande were Sunday dinner guests at George Nelson's.

Mrs. Harry Egland had a coffee party Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Delos Odenborg's birthday. Mrs. Leon Danielson was also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson had planned a family reunion Sunday in honor of Alton's visit home, but the news came of Carl Tideman's death, turned into a sad meeting of the family. Guests were Mrs. Clyde Dibble and sons of Winthrop, Wash. Danny, a W. S. C. student, and Neal, who is doing practice teaching at Lewis and

IS YOUR COMPANY HERE?

SHOWN here are just a few of the important concerns NP has served for a good many years (names on request from Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, Minn.) Even if your business isn't represented above, we hope that you, too, are on our "permanent customer list."

WHY DO THEY ALL SHIP NP? Well, there are many reasons. We can't put our finger on any one thing in particular . . .

IT MIGHT BE OUR CONVENIENT ROUTE. For Main Street of the Northwest serves so many important business and distributing areas and centers of population—593 to be exact—between the Midwest and the North Pacific Coast.

PERHAPS IT'S OUR FAST NEW DIESELS. Just since 1940 we've put 211 diesel units in service, added nearly 15,000 new freight cars, made improvements to roadbed and structures to give your freight a smoother, safer ride. And more new equipment and improvements are coming!

MAYBE IT'S NP'S EXTRA-SERVICES—Like our daily passing report that helps locate your shipment anytime—anywhere on our line. Or our freight claim and traffic representatives who'll advise you on loading "problem" shipments and securing them for safer delivery.

IT COULD BE ANY OR ALL OF THESE REASONS. But one thing we know for sure. Today, Main Street of the Northwest is busier than ever. Not too busy, though, to give your freight the same efficient NP service as always.

TRAVELING? Aboard the streamlined NORTH COAST LIMITED, you'll enjoy real western hospitality on our all-room Pullmans and "Day-Nite" Coaches. And famous NP meals are just as hearty, just as delicious as ever!

Rains Benefit Palouse Crops

Rain, which began falling Sunday afternoon, continuing through Monday, brought smiles to everyone and new life to grain and pea fields which had benefited by previous showers, but really got a drink the first two days of the week. Warmer weather followed the rain, with crops now beginning to reflect the productiveness of the Palouse country with the aid of moisture. Rains for the Genesee area coming at a critical time, such as during the past ten days are actually "million-dollar" soakings, with Uncle Sam also in on the returns.

Much Farm Drainage Expected For Season

(Lawrence Sorensen)

This is a good time to begin thinking about drainage problems in the Latah county section of the Inland Empire. According to plans now on file or under consideration a large amount of tile drainage may be expected during the coming summer and fall. The Soil Conservation Service is expecting to have a "back hoe" in the Genesee area this summer and fall, which is the opportune time of year to work with tiling and especially since the P. M. A. is making it attractive to land owners and farm operators, by payments up to 50 per cent of cost of tile (not to exceed 20 cents per foot) and 50 per cent of the cost of installation.

In anticipating a program for soil drainage there is one phase to be remembered, and that is the necessity of making application for this year's practice at your local P. M. A. office, and also consult your local Soil Conservationist at your earliest convenience. This action permits the SCS to lay out work contemplated. All practice must be applied for and approved by the P. M. A. before any work is started where payment is expected.

Equipment which will be available for hire can be used to advantage in making spring development, and we feel that any work which can be done during the summer before harvest will provide availability of equipment following harvest.

Genesee Loses To Lapwai Hi After Defeating Grangeville

Genesee high school Bulldogs outhit Grangeville 11-4 in a district baseball play-off at Kamiah last Thursday evening, and earned a 5-4 victory. The win pitted them against the Lapwai Wildcats, who certainly had a "rabbit's foot" tucked away somewhere to repeat in a high-scoring game against Genesee, after edging Orofino 16-15. The Lapwai club overcame a 10-point deficit to beat Orofino. With the score tied 5-5 in the fourth frame the Wildcats staged a marathon scoring splurge, good for 10 runs, and a total of 15, to tromp the Bulldogs 15-6. Sixteen bases on balls were given up in the Lapwai game by four Genesee pitchers, Bennett, Gehrke, Rabdau and Kinzer. It was a night game, played under the lights at Kamiah. Genesee pitchers allowed but two hits, while picking up five. Both high school clubs were playing loose ball with numerous errors.

Lapwai won the chance to meet the Lewiston high school, and an opportunity to play in the sectional play-off at Coeur d'Alene. In two previous encounters Genesee won and lost to the Lapwai team, 5-1 and 3-2. The avalanche of Lapwai runs at Kamiah came in the fifth frame, which was an early finish owing to Idaho high school baseball rules which declares a team the winner once it gains an 8-run advantage irrespective of the number of innings played.

In the Grangeville game, Genesee scored once in the first frame, added another in the third, but Grangeville went ahead 4-2 in the same frame. The Bulldogs came back in the fifth with two runs and then broke the tie in the sixth, while holding the Prairie club scoreless. In this game J. Bennett worked five innings and Rabdau relieved for the sixth and seventh frames. Johnson and Vopat were on the hil for Grangeville.

G.O.P. Women Taking Stand On Matters Of Importance

(Mrs. J. P. Wedin)

It looked bad for the Democrats when thirty women from Moscow and about twenty from Genesee, members of the Latah County Republican Club, met at the home of Mrs. E. A. Morken Wednesday afternoon for their May meeting. Mrs. D. M. Loehr, Moscow, presided at the business meeting when several resolutions were voted upon and to be forwarded to Idaho congressmen and senators.

Included in the resolutions were the following: Opposition to Universal Military Training bill in its present form. Disposal of the Hells Canyon project was deferred until further study. Favored discontinuance of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Voted to continue the senate crime committee investigations on sane and sensible lines. They voted to oppose giving the president unlimited power in sending armed forces outside the United States without consent of the congress. They also voted to oppose lavish spending of government funds.

Miss Dorothea Dahl of Moscow gave a book review, "The Red Plot Against America," by Robert E. Stripling.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Elvon Hampton, Mrs. R. E. Nordby and Mrs. E. A. Morken.

Former Genesee Girl Living In Afghanistan

In the April issue of Em-Kayan, magazine of the Morrison-Knudsen Construction company is featured the work of the American company engaged in building dams and roads in Afghanistan, and tells some of the every-day life in the ancient kingdom, which up to 1946 had only been visited by some 125 Americans.

In a short article 'Love Finds a Way," a paragraph is devoted to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stanley (Bonnie Kuehl) stating that marriage in Afghanistan is no simple matter, for it usually involves a trip to Karachi, Pakistan, to find a Protestant or Catholic clergyman, and it often becomes necessary for the man to await his bride, whose arrival is usually delayed. The following paragraph mentions Mr. and Mrs. Stanley and there is also a picture of them and another young couple.

"Two Em Kayans and their recent brides who surmounted pre-marital difficulties are shown in the two photos below. In the one are Allen D. Stanley, M-KA hydrographic engineer, and wife, the former Bonnie Kuehl. Stanley avoided the long wait in Karachi by traveling to Genesee, Idaho, for his wedding, August 13, 1950. The new Mrs. Stanley was a dietitian for Eastman Kodak company at Rochester, N. Y., which helps to account for the extra 15 pounds Stanley now sports. The son of a Boise, Idaho, building contractor, Stanley took many of the Afghanistan photographs in this issue of the Em-Kayan."

In a recent letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Kuehl, Mrs. Stanley writes in part, "Went to an Afghan dinner yesterday. The governor of Girishk had a dinner picnic for the Morrison-Knudsen people. Sat around and drank tea for a while and listened to native music, then ate Afghan style (on the floor). I couldn't eat very much as the plates looked dirty and a 'jillion' flies were crawling on everything. It wasn't as good a meal as some I'd had. We then drank more tea and watched some native boys dancing. No such thing as beautiful dancing girls in this country. The place was only 17 miles out of Kandahar, but it took quite a while to get there as the road was hardly more than a camel trail. We women were allowed to go inside and pay our respects to the governor's two wives and bevy of children. None of these women happened to be attractive, altho they were highly painted. They are never present at parties or functions, always secluded."

The family plans to leave immediately following graduation for Ames, Iowa.

Moscow Idahonian: A 16-year-old farm girl, Ann Nilsson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Nilsson, Route 1, Genesee, will reign as queen over the second annual Moscow junior rodeo, according to Leo McCarty, president of the Moscow Rodeo association.

Miss Nilsson was selected from 18 contestants by the rodeo association members last week. An additional two princesses were selected to serve as members of the rodeo royalty. Unemployment Benefits Up Increase Starts Next Week

Boise, May 7—Increased unemployment insurance benefits as enacted by the last legislature in House Bill 205 will become effective next week according to H. F. Garrett, executive director of the Employment Security Agency. The new formula provides benefit payments at a rate of approximately 50 per cent of wage loss up to a miximum benefit of $25 with a maximum duration of 26 weeks in any one benefit year. Under the old law, the maximum benefit amount was $20, the maximum duration was 20 weeks, Garrett explained.

The new benefit formula is more liberal in some other respects also, Garrett pointed out. For instance, in the past when a claimant obtained part-time work, any amount earned over $5 was deducted from his weekly benefit check. Under the new law, he may earn up to one-half of his weekly benefit without deduction. The change in amount of benefits for present claimants whose unemployment continues through next week would be computed by the central office. Employment Security Agency, Boise; and it would not be necessary for the claimant to furnish any new information. Under the new law as under the old one, the claimant must be registered for work and willing to accept suitable employment in order to be eligible for benefits.

Mrs. J. J. Tupker Dies Funeral Here Saturday

Mrs. Viola Theresa Tupker, 74, well and favorably known Genesee matron, passed away at her home here at 10:10 o'clock Wednesday morning after an illness of three weeks. Cause of death was pulmonary embolism. Her passing was a distinct shock to relatives and the many intimate friends of Mrs. Tupker and her husband, who came to Genesee from Burns, Ore., in 1914, and lived here continuously. She was born July 30, 1876 at Canyon City, Ore., and married Joseph Tupker on December 25, 1895. For many years Mr. Tupker was connected with the Genesee public schools where he instructed in manual training, and through the years Mr. and Mrs. Tupker became intimately acquainted with many of the young people from entrance of school until graduation.

Genesee Idaho "Queen City" Two More Have Been Named

Go where you will, Genesee has the best looking girls in Idaho, irrespective of population of any area which wishes to challenge the assertion, and if you don't believe it, just check the records. They have taken prizes in the Inland Empire as babies and from that age up to young ladies attending high school and college.

Joyce Grieser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grieser became the Gonzaga University Homecoming Queen last week, winning in a field of 14 contestants.

Ann Nilsson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Powell Nilsson, and a student at Genesee high school, has recently been chosen queen of the Moscow junior rodeo.

Genesee has provided so many queens for the University of Idaho and university groups, and also candidates for queens or sweethearts at Idaho or Northern Idaho College of Education, one would naturally be reluctant to list them for fear of omitting one or more.

The News has long wanted to brag just a little about the beauty and brains of our young ladies, at least during the past 23 years, but modesty has interfered. We can no longer resist "thumping our chest" over the accomplishments of Genesee community young people. Boys, too can come in for more than a little pat on the back. They naturally will not be included in the "beauty" category, but in other lines. Young Dale Becker once said, The News would refer to Genesee's state championship basketball team of 1951 whenever copy was needed to fill space, but nevertheless we're going to put in another plug for that deserving group that brought the flag back from Pocatello. Then there are the boys and girls who practically made it a custom to bring back more than their share of 4-H prizes, not to mention the trips they have won to Chicago and Portland.

Yes, Genesee may be a small town and the community rather sparsely populated, compared with some areas, but we have the best, and juding from recent queen selections the young ladies are continuing to uphold Genesee traditions.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The farmers are wearing big smiles these days since the weatherman sent such good rains over the week end, with an all-day, gentle, easy rain on Monday and more promised for later in the week. The seed will get soaked good, and sprout. Sunday was a warm day and the lakes and picnic places lured many for a day's outing. It is not so warm since. One more Valley boy left for the service, Lavern Gilbertson, who went to Camp Carson, Colo., Sunday evening with the Moscow unit of the National Guard. Folks have been staying home enjoying the rains and news is not too plentiful this week. Mother's Hands
(Elsie Duncan Yale)

"Always doing for others in a thoughtful, kindly way, yet those hands of our dear mothers keep so busy every day, never grudging, helpful service, others needs she understands, and we say with interest fervor—God bless mother's loving hands. Mother's heart it is that prompts her to the helpful deeds so kind; there's one who loves us better, everyone of us will find; may our Lord His richest mercies to the one we love impart and we say with truest fervor, "God bless Mother's loving heart."

"Take time to be friendly, it is the road to happiness. Take time to read, it is the foundation of wisdom."

Visitor From Ephrata

Carl Erickson of Ephrata, Wash., who visited at Clarkston for a week with his brother, Ed Erickson, and wife, and with Frank Snelling, came to Genesee last Sunday to visit relatives for a few days, and then retutrned to Clarkston. He expected to be away from Ephrata for 15 days.

While Mr. Erickson is not the elected or appointed secretary of the Ephrata chamber of commerce, he is a stalwart supporter and booster for the Columbia Basin metropolis. The city in the heart of the vast and fast developing Columbia Basin now has a population of around 5,000, and according to reports, is growing every day. Mr. Erickson, for many years a resident of Genesee, keeps up with progress of developments in the area soon to "go under water" from the Columbia river, and said the Quincy territory would be first to receive irrigation water from Coulee Dam. If one has not witnessed the transformation already made in the Columbia Basin, but has viewed the magnitude of Coulee Dam, the Basin now offers an interesting day's trip.

There is no intention whatever of slighting the Mosos Lake area or the Soap Lake area, all of which must be seen, along with the Quincy portion of the Basin to actually get a picture of what is happening.

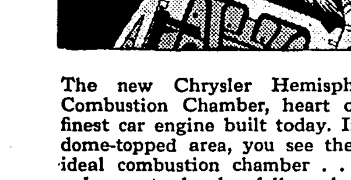
Chrysler FirePower

Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER



The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber . . . the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness . . . how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car.

The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year . . . but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine . . . the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power.

Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now . . . a Hemispherical combustion chamber . . . the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car.

What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others . . . and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydraguide *power steering which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

HYDRAGUIDE regular on Crown Imperials, optional at extra cost on all New Yorker and Imperial models.*

G. Hammond To Coach State West Star Team

Garold Hammond, Genesee, who has been notified that he will coach the west team for the all-star Idaho basketball game Aug. 3 at Boise, expects to leave Friday for the capitol city to attend a meeting on Saturday of high school coaches, Hammond received his notification from L. L. Patterson, secretary of the Idaho Coaches association.

Hammond will cocah a team selected from schools in districts one, two and three. The last named district includes such schools as Boise, Nampa, and Caldwell. The second district is the central Idaho section and district one is the northern part of the State.

Francis Clark of Idaho Falls, whose team beat out Nampa for the state Class A title, will coach the east team, and his players will be from all of the schools in south central, southeast and the upper Snake river valley.

Hammond is the Genesee high school coach, whose team won the Class B championship. Having seen Idaho Falls and Genesee play, few would hazard a guess which was the better team at tournament time. Clark was the coach who insisted that his men never take a foul shot except when two were awarded, electing to keep control of the ball by taking it out of bounds.

On the other hand, Genesee, under Hammond, crossed up most all of the experts by doing everything when the opposition became dangerous, such as in the final tournament game at Pocatello when Genesee upset the dope bucket to down Heyburn in no uncertain manner after the first half.

Although Class A and B schools will be represented at the all-star encounter in Boise Aug. 3, it's a buck to a doughnut Genesee will have one or two men suited up. This game will be interesting locally because it is assumed Heyburn will also have one or two of its men in the Boise game.

In Thursday's mail Hammond received names of players for the all-star game. They are: Don Munson and Charles Wilson, Coeur d'Alene, and Jack Derbyshire and Wayne Gittinger, Kellogg, from district one; Jim Sather and Jim Bennett, Genesee; Jerry Monks, Lapwai; Dick Dodel, Lewiston and Tom Keith, Moscow, from district two. He will be notified of district three selections when he reaches Boise. Names of 15 boys will be submitted, 12 of which will make up the state west team. A team of 12 will be selected from eastern Idaho.

Auxiliary To Sell 500 Poppies Made By Disabled Veterans

Beginning May 19 and continuing for one week the American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor the sale of Veteran-made poppies. All of us will be asked to wear the memorial flower in tribute to the war dead and by our contributions we will be aiding the war's living victims. The disabled veterans in hospitals where war's suffering is still going on, derive double benefit from the work of making the flowers. First, it gives them employment, their only chance to help support themselves and families. With strength and health gone they cannot do regular work, but they can make poppies. Second, the work is of real value in aiding their recovery, by occupying hands and minds, breaking the tedium of long idleness and restoring spirits crushed by hopelessness.

The Genesee unit has purchased 500 poppies to be sold beginning Saturday with proceeds going entirely to welfare activities of the American Legion and Auxiliary. Mrs. Wayne Vestal is Poppy chairman with Mrs. Virgil Post as her assistant. They will supervise the sale and have chosen several young girls to make a house-to-house canvass.

Genesee Boys Win Awards At Spokane Livestock Show

Classed as choice was the steer entered by Hasfurther and the steer by Johnson, and classed as good was the steer entered by Erickson. The three boys are members of the Genesee Livestock club with John Meyers Jr., as leader.

Dwaine also was awarded a sterling silver pin for making a perfect score in judging swine.

Harold Hatton, a junior of Genesee high school, but a member of a Moscow 4-H club, received a blue ribbon in the fitting and showing swine contest. Another placing by Hatton was a Hereford steer which was classed as choice.

Genesee Takes Asotin Young Hurlers On Hill

Eleven base hits and a generous number of free trips and a few errors gave the Genesee town ball club 17 runs to 4 for Asotin in a game played at Asotin Sunday. Genesee was charged with 2 errors and Asotin 8 misplays. Asotin connected for 5 hits in the nine-inning race meet.

Genesee led off in the first inning with seven runs on three hits, four walks and a wild assortment of pilfered bases. Three more runs came in the second frame, 2 in the fourth, 1 in the fifth, and four in the ninth. Asotin got two men around in the fourth and two more circled the bases in the ninth. By that time Genesee had made so many changes in its lineup players were wondering where they would work in the ensuing frame. Asotin tried too, to rearrange players to obtain a defense, but Genesee men just kept smacking the old apple and running bases.

Despite the experimentation with players in various positions, Ray Gehrke came up with a catch of fly ball, foul by eighty feet off first which took him into the tall brush. He also poled out three hits, a single and two doubles.

Genesee worked Kannikiberg for three rounds on the hill, and had the Asotin club on his hip. Jim Rabdau took over for three innings and got himself pretty well surrounded by men drawing bases, then settled down for six strikeouts. Tom Ochs drew the last three innings. He gave up a couple free passes in the seventh but no runs scored. In the eighth he walked a man then fanned one, and the next batter, sacrificing, went down pitcher to first. The fourth man up with two down, grounded to second, held by Goddard, who elected to try for the man trying to score rather than the easy out at first. He caught the runner. In the ninth Ochs give up a two-base hit and a single, with two errors messing up the works for two runs. Then three men flied out.

Seeing action for Genesee were: Jim Bennett, Gehrke, Bielenberg, two Goddard brothers, Pederson, Kannikiberg, Scharnhorst, Sprenger, Rosenau, Rabdau, Liberg and Ochs..

Sheep Grazing Locally Perhaps New Industry

F. K. Sims, local agent for the Northern Pacific Railway company, remained on duty Sunday for the arrival of a freight train, the first to arrive at Genesee on that day of the week for more than 20 years. Included in the train were 12 empties for grain shipment, 13 cars of ewes and lambs, an equipment car for the sheep outfit and a drovers' car and caboose.

Young Bros., Jack and George, of Toppenish, Wash., shipped the 13 carloads of sheep from Sunnyside, Wash., to Genesee, loading out 24 hours before they arrived here at 12 o'clock Sunday. They were routed by way of Spokane, according to the owners.

In the 13 cars were 3300 head of ewes and lambs, divided into three bands, one going to the land farmed by Jack Magee, another to the Erickson place, farmed by George Erickson, and the third to the Mervyn place.

Young Bros., who spring pastured sheep in the Yakima Reservation region after lambing at Toppenish, said forage on the Reservation became depleted because of drying winds during early spring, and by early seed formation of grasses on which sheep ranged. This is the first time they have moved sheep by train, and was done after they contacted several Genesee farmers for sweet clover pasture.

The sheep owners say they would like to keep their bands in the Genesee country until October, using first the sweet clover land and later dried pea stubble, and perhaps grain stubble where sweet clover or alfalfa has been seeded. The experience is new to them, but they are "sold" on the idea of sweet clover pasture. Sheep arriving here Sunday were of the Suffolk and Columbian breeds. Some of the lambs already weigh nearly eighty pounds each, but the average size of the new crop is much less.

Busch Herd On Move

Nick Busch is moving 2400 head of sheep through the Rimrock area south of Genesee, having crossed the Snake at Lewiston late last week and Sunday morning moved over the Clearwater bridge. The Busch herd trailed up Middle grade and will graze on lands south of Genesee, crossing over to the Potlatch and then into the Clarkia country, if the owner follows the same trail of recent years.

The Busch ewes lambed along the Snake river south of Lewiston where they were wintered.

New Farm Practice Perhaps

Further utilization of sweet clover, grown on thousands of acres in the Genesee country to be plowed under as green manure may be provided by an influx of sheep from other areas. While some are of the opinion that noxious weed seed can be brought in through sheep grazing, it is pointed out by sheep men that ewes have been shorn of wool when they arrive here from other areas in the spring, and wool on lambs is too short to carry weed seed. It has also been pointed out that sheep usually come off clean range in the spring and move through country where weed seed has not yet developed in May.

Farmers and landowners, who are constantly waging war against noxious weeds are naturally reluctant to open another avenue for the spread of noxious weeds, so with the two schools of belief, there is a logical topic for discussion.

PMA Payment Not Affected

Lawrence Sorensen, U. S. Soil Conservationist at Genesee, said he was certain the PMA payment for plowing under sweet clover would not be affected by grazing sheep, provided the sweet clover was not eaten down below 8 to 12 inches. Sorensen also said J. M. Rabdau, SCS, would be conferring with SCS officials within a few days, and they in turn would confer with PMA officials.

Sheep men say their animals cannot possibly keep a field of sweet clover eaten down, and that often the sheep cannot be seen grazing in a growth. It was also pointed out that sheep will go for weed growth, wild oats, vetch, morning glory and others while held in clover fields.

SCS Favors Sheep Grazing

After reading a prepared statement by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service dealing with "Calculated Yields and Rental Rates" it is easily assumed the SCS favors grazing sweet clover by sheep and cattle. Besides straight rental rates the farmer might receive a cash payment equal to an agreed-upon portion of the gain in weight. Lawrence Sorensen of the Genesee SCS office, was formerly located in southern Idaho, and has learned first-hand of benefits to sheep and cattle owners and also for farmers who own or farm lands planted to clover.

At the present time there are many no doubt, giving study to possibilities of having their sweet clover grazed, and also sheep men are giving consideration to changing practices somewhat to graze their sheep on lands easily reached.

Sheep Sucker Corn in Midwest

Not many years ago the writer was practically terrified when he saw a band of sheep turned into a growing corn field in the midwest. "There goes that cornfield," was the first impression. Sheep men and the landowner watched the animals weave through the shoulder-high corn after it had been "laid by" in the most careful and exacting manner. Corn was worth money then too. Within a few days the sheep had eaten all of the corn suckers, nibbled off the annual morning glory plants which had put forth after the final cultivation, and were about to reach higher for forage when they were withdrawn from the field, and turned into another. It was pointed out then that corn developed faster and better with the suckers off, and the ground had received a good shot of fertilizer.

Pasturing sweet clover here might be of some benefit to the soil, such as the manure droppings and keeping some weed growth clipped thereby preventing seed formation.

What goes for sheep could also be related to grazing cattle, either on a rental basis or weight gain division.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have had many fine growing showers but not many warm days. A chilly wind kept the fires going in homes. Spring grain and peas are up and the wild oats and fan weed too. We think if John Q. Public could testify in Washington D. C., it wouldn't take long to tell why MacArthur was fired. It was just plain jealousy and pig headedness on the part of the White House general, and why waste so much time whitewashing it? What has been done is done and why not spend the time on something different. We get tired of the same old bull back there. We are about ready to suggest that we have a lot of women in congress. They might pull hair and throw a few butcher knives once in a while but they'd get things done. There are some good men in congress but there are many fine capable women who could fill the bill too. At least they couldn't do much worse than has been done.

1200 Idaho Farmers Sign Up For New Social Security Act

More than 1200 of Idaho's farmers have already registered and filed Social Security reports under the new Social Security act, according to Calvin E. Wright, collector of internal revenue.

'Our count is not complete because delinquent returns are still coming in," Wright said.

It was pointed out also that many farmers who employ "regular" help under Social Security will not file until later in the year. In order to be eligible for Social Security a farm hand must work for the same employer at least one full calender quarter. He is under Social Security only after he has worked this "qualifying quarter," Wright explained.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"One For The Book"

Miss Reynolds, our town librarian, really put a smart-aleck motorist in his place last week — right in center of town, corner of Main and Walnut.

Her car stalled, tying up traffic. Most drivers just waited quietly —realizing she couldn't help it—but one fellow kept blaring away on his horn.

So Miss Reynolds gets out of her car, walks over and says sweetly, "I'm afraid I can't start my engine. If you'd like to try I'll stay here and lean on that horn for you." That stopped him!

From where I sit, a lot of us are sometimes a little overeager to "sound off" before we really understand what it's all about. Let's try to see the other fellow's side in whatever he does — how he votes, what he thinks, whether his preference is for a glass of beer or buttermilk—rather than simply blast out anyone who "gets in the way" of our ideas in these matters.

New State X-Ray Unit Coming Here July 2, 3

Idaho, the last state in the Union to acquire a mobile X-ray unit for detection of tuberculosis, is now making full use of the facility. For the next five weeks it will be stationed in Lewiston to conduct a survey by X-ray examination of everyone from the age of 15 to 65 years or older if the latter will call at the unit.

Unit Here July 2 and 3

Lloyd Gilmore, director of public relations for the Idaho Tuberculosis association was in Genesee Monday afternoon to arrange for the X-ray unit to be here for two days, July 2 and 3. He met with a committee representing various organizations who have agreed to work with the association in an effort to have everyone in the community of 15 years and over visit the unit on the days mentioned. Mr. Gilmore explained the worthiness of the state survey, and the great measure of success all states have accomplished in eradication of tuberculosis. He stressed the importance of a full scale X-ray survey for each and every community, urging each church, fraternal, social, civic, and veteran group to assume the responsibility of seeing that as many as possible have the chest X-ray. While only one in a hundred may show symtoms of tuberculosis, it is that one person who fails to have an X-ray who may be the cause of spreading the disease. Once a deadly enemy, tuberculosis is becoming well controlled by the favorable reaction of the public toward X-ray examinations.

No Charge For Service

People of Idaho, through the purchase of Christmas seals, and by an appropriation by the state, have finally provided Idaho with this mobile X-ray unit. There is no cost whatever for the X-rays, and after the films are sent to Boise, each person visiting the unit will receive a confidential report of findings. There is no chance of error in X-rays, because the equipment is postively accurate, with each and every portion of the film bearing not only the person's name, but also a serial number. Should an X-ray show positive for any person, he or she is notified, and from then on it is a matter of the individual's personal desire to start treatment with his or her own doctor. The state merely makes the X-ray survey and furnishes the negatives for guidance of doctors of a person's own choice.

Wilson Esser Chairman

Wilson Esser is chairman of the Genesee committee to have each and everyone become acquainted with the program. Two attendants accompany the mobile unit, and the community will supply a hostess and a typist. If the program is to be successful everyone should become conscious of the fact that tuberculosis can only be reduced to a minimum by everyone cooperating. Mr. Gilmore said the X-ray will require less than two minutes' time. It is not necessary for anyone to disrobe. Men will be required to remove their coats and such items as metal pencils or pens from their shirts. Women are asked to wear dresses without heavy embroidery or metal decorations. The X-rays will be only of the chest, but as Mr. Gilmore pointed out Tuesday the X-rays detect non-tuberculous infections of the lung (pneumonia, abscesses, bronchiectasis), certain types of pleurisy, some varities of chronic heart disease, tumors inside the chest, and injury and disease of the bones of the thorax.. In both tuberculous and non-tuberculous conditions it is possible to discover the diseases early in its course by an X-ray examination.

Former Genesee Boy Drowns Liberty Lake Claims Airman

Many friends of Jack Manring, his mother, Mrs. George Davis, 2607 East Hartson, Spokane, and his sister, Mrs. Dan Aherin, Genesee, were saddened Friday morning when they learned of the drowning of the young airman last Thursday at Liberty lake near Spokane. Pfc. Manring was with the 116th fighter-interceptor squadron at Geiger Field, having reported for duty when the unit was federalized Feb. 1. He would have been 21 years of age on the day following death. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Manring, the former deceased, and was born at Genesee, and later moved to Spokane with his mother. He graduated from high school in Spokane and joined the 116th squadron when it was an air national guard unit.

Mrs. Dan Aherin has been in Spokane with her mother since the accident which took her brother's life. Mr. Aherin said Wednesday the body had not been recovered, although 20 fellow airmen from Geiger and five deputies from the sheriff's office in Spokane joined in the search. Lt. L. G. Rasmussen, provost marshal at Geiger was in charge of lake-dragging operations which started immediately. Due to a high wind operations were difficult last Thursday afternoon. Jackie, as he was known to his many intimate friends here, was piloting a speed boat at the north end of Liberty lake, and had as company a young woman of Spokane. She was facing forward in the boat when Manring evidently fell from the craft. A good swimmer, the young man could not get his life jacket inflated or rid himself of his coat and went down within a few seconds after hitting the water, according to reports from Capt. Herbert Jacobs, information officer at Geiger.

Extra Levy Requested For School Operation

According to the notice of a special school meeting and election for Joint District No. 282, Genesee, voters will be asked to decide on a proposal of a 7 mills extra levy for the next fiscal year. The election is to be held Saturday, May 26 at the schoolhouse beginning at 1 o'clock.

The amount of money which the board of trustees has estimated to be necessary to operate the public schools here for the coming year is $96,163.37. The levy which the board may make without the special election is $52,729.92. State and county apportionments are estimated at $16,093.12.

The extra levy asked will raise approximately $27,341.23.

It might be stated that the Joint Genesee district is operating on one of the lowest levies in Latah county, due in great measure to the assessed valuation of the district, $3,905,898.00, and the fact that the local district has paid off its bonded debt. On the other hand the cost of education in the Genesee public schools has risen to $96,163.37 for slightly over 200 students. Transportation eats deeply into funds, and Genesee loses a considerable amount of its total tax collections to the state school equalization, perhaps 4 or 5 mills. With some 17 school districts consolidated, and operating now through one school, 16 of those districts now combined would require at least $2500 per year per school for operation, plus cost of tuition for high school students.

The election notice appears on this page and may be consulted for qualifications of voters.

Uniontown Here Sunday

Genesee's town ball club faces its old-time rival and stiffest opposition Sunday when the Uniontown club invades Genesee territory. According to the dope, Tuschhoff will be flinging the pill for Uniontown, and comes with a clean record of no losses this season. Genesee has no losses to date, and hopes to be primed for Sunday.

Pullman will be at Genesee Memorial Day, May 30. Business houses will be closed for the day. Pullman has a good club again this year, with Weeks again certain to be the choice for mound duty.

Games on the two days are scheduled to start at 2 p. m.

Forest Once Thriving Town Now Even Without A School

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mervyn of Lewiston Orchards had as their guests for breakfast and dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lande and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pederson and took them on a trip to Waha Lake, Soldiers Meadows and Forest, returning by way of Winchester. It was an interesting trip and it may be reported that roads recovering from the rigors of winter are open and there is a five- or six-mile stretch of new construction beyond Waha, navigable in wet weather owing to his natural rock surface.

Soldiers Meadow lake is placidly awaiting the annual invasion of fishermen on the opening day of the season for those waters. It is well filled with water, and undoubtedly is well stocked. While the writer has never been properly initiated into the order of piscatorial scientists, anyone may reason that the lake is alluring. While Mervyn and party covered the roads both ways, it appears the better route to Soldiers Meadow at the present time is by way of Winchester and Forest. Time about the same.

Moved Cattle Through Forest

Bill Mervyn made his second trip to Forest this spring, drawn there by memories of past years. When just a youngster he helped move cattle belonging to his father and Wes Dorchester to the Salmon river country. Forest was a booming town in those days, back in 1902. Today there are but a few residents, perhaps more buildings than dwellers, and they have lost their school, which is a loss lamented. Mervyn, in a brief conversation, asked an old-timer where the last store stood. "Right here," said his informer. It burned several years ago, and I moved this house here." Mervyn said he was interested in Forest because he went through there several times as a boy. "What's your name?" asked the elderly man. "Mervyn," said Bill. "Never heard of you," the old man said bluntly. But that's the way they converse at Forest today. They have plenty of time but yet they don't care to waste much of it in conversation, and what words they employ are right to the point.

Three From Genesee In Class To Graduate From Gonzaga

One hundred eighty-two seniors will be graduated from Gonzaga University, Spokane, at exercises May 27 in the university quadrangle. The Very Rev. Francis E. Corkery, S. J., Gonzaga president, will give the graduation address. The Very Rev. William Dunne, president of the University of San Francisco was the baccalaureate speaker on May 20.

Candidates for graduation include three Genesee young people who completed high school here. They are: Joyce and Shirley Grieser, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grieser, and William John Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bartle Weber.

Memorial Day Observance

As in past years practically all business houses in Genesee will be closed for Memorial Day, May 30. It is well to remember purchases should be made Monday or Tuesday. The Genesee Cleaners will be closed from May 30 until June 4, for a brief vacation while improvements are being made to the building.

Dr. Paul Genstler also announces his offices will be closed from May 30 to June 3, both dates inclusive.

Flowers Needed For Graves

Following a custom of years the American Legion will decorate graves of veterans on Memorial Day, and the Legion Auxiliary will make the sprays of flowers Tuesday evening. Members are asked to assist in the work and to donate as many flowers as possible. Flowers should be taken to the kitchen at the Memorial building where the sprays will be made, announces Mrs. Mahlon Follett, chairman.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather has been nice and warm, and we can almost see things grow. Commencement exercises, various school picnics and so forth are keeping the youngsters and their parents busy too, and it will soon be vacation time for the kids. The St. John church and Valley church will have a Daily Vacation Bible school at St. John's church starting May 28. Teachers have been busy for some time planning the courses. We had a laugh the other day when we read the "40 Years Ago" column in the Lewiston paper, "Everyone must blow their car horn or sound a whistle when they approach a street intersection; speed limit 10 miles per hour inside city and 15 miles outside. Failure to do this would bring a fine of $10.00." That ruling today would make it sound like a first-class charivari but forty years ago cars were mighty scarce. We quite agree with the News editor bragging about Genesee folks getting so many honors but we would like to go a step farther and brag about the Valley residents for many of those honors have come to Valley folks. All three honor grads in this year's senior class are from the Valley. The sympathy of the community goes to the Flamoe family in the loss of their brother, Ted.

Usual church services Sunday.

Mrs. Delos Odenborg read a paper on "Parents' Responsibility for Christian Nurture." Mrs. Oscar Danielson read a story, "A Mother's Opportunity." Mrs. Leon Danielson is the next hostess and Mrs. O. V. Johnson, program chairman. Since Thursday was Norway Independence Day, a smorgasbord was provided by Mrs. Morken, and Mrs. John Luedke, dressed in Norweigian costume, poured at the prettily decorated table. Some one remarked that it was the day the Swedes ran out of snooze and lost the fight. Mrs. Victor Danielson said the blessing in Norweigian. Next meeting is Bible study and members are asked to bring their Bible portion of Hebrews. Guests were Mmes. Somebody did a golden deed; somebody proved a friend in need; somebody sang a beautiful song; somebody smiled the whole day long; somebody thought, "'tis sweet to live"; somebody said, "I'm glad to give"; somebody fought a valiant fight; somebody lived to shield the right. Was that somebody you?

Wilbur Shaw thinks so much of this new Chrysler, he has selected it as Pace Car for the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race.

"I've just driven the most powerful car in the U.S."*

WILBUR SHAW, AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DRIVER, DRIVES NEW 1951 CHRYSLER—REPORTS TO YOU ON REVOLUTIONARY FIREPOWER ENGINE AND HYDRAGUIDE POWER STEERING

Here are Wilbur Shaw's reactions—in his own words—as taken down by a recording machine in the car:

"The '51 Chrysler has it! With this new engine and power steering, the first on any U.S. car, it's a whale of an automobile.

"I'm completely bowled over by the ease of steering!

"This steering combined with the automatic transmission . . . is the nearest thing to an automatic pilot for a car I can possibly imagine.

"This engine . . . I can't get over the amount of power and snap in this engine . . . it's incredible!

"I drove 111 miles with the feeling I had expended no more effort than in driving around the block.

"When Mrs. Shaw drove, her comments just about squared with mine. Here's what she thinks of the 1951 Chrysler . . ."

Mrs. Shaw: "At first I could hardly believe the ease with which I could turn the wheel. That's important . . . especially in the summertime.

"Often after I have parked a car in the average parking space, I feel I should taxi home, shower and get dressed again. But with Hydraguide Power Steering I parked it with one hand. It practically drives itself."

Wilbur Shaw: "It's hard to describe this new Chrysler without going off the deep end . . . it has it in every department.

"In fact, I think so much of this car, I've selected it as Pace Car of the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race!"

(Mr. Shaw's comments are reprinted through the courtesy of Popular Science Magazine.)

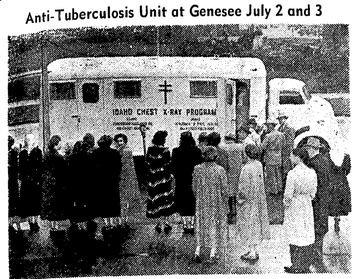
Anti-Tuberculosis Unit at Genesee July 2 and 3



The above mobile Chest X-ray unit will be in Genesee July 2 and 3 in its state-wide survey to find pulmonary tuberculosis. The X-rays will be forwarded to the Idaho Department of Health, Boise, with an individual and confidential report returned to each and everyone who visits the unit on the above dates. Citizens have provided this unit by purchase of Christmas Seals and by an appropriation by the state. Less than two minutes are required for the X-ray, and there is no cost.

State X-Ray Program Bringing Unit July 2, 3

Idaho's chest X-ray program which is being conducted jointly by the Idaho Tuberculosis Association and the Idaho Department of Public Health, will bring to Genesee on May 2 and 3, the mobile X-ray unit, recently purchased by the state.

Practically every association formed for control of disease and many social, fraternal, veterans and other groups are sponsoring the drive to locate as much as possible to rid Idaho of tuberculosis. Great strides have already been made in anti-tuberculosis work, but finally, the unit has been obtained which may eradicate entirely the disease which may cause death or long periods of convalescence and treatment.

The committee at Genesee is enthusiastic over the appearance here of the mobile X-ray unit because its membership wishes this community to be as free of tuberculosis as possible, and to safeguard the health of its people in ensuing years. For that reason, Wilson Esser, who heads the general committee to make arrangements will be asking representatives of every organization in the community to assist in encouraging everyone from age 15 and up to report for an X-ray on July 2 and 3.

Less than two minutes of your time will be required for the X-ray. The film is sent to Boise for development, and a confidential report is then returned to each person passing through the unit. As explained by Lloyd Gilmore, director of public relations for the Tuberculosis Association, there is no chance whatever of confusing the X-rays with one another. A card bearing the name and serial number must be inserted in the X-ray camera before the person is subjected to the rays, and the picture cannot be taken until the person is in proper position. The writer passed through such a mobile unit about a year and a half ago. A man has merely to remove his coat and pencils or pencils if carried in a shirt pocket. Women wearing dresses merely avoid wearing one with heavy embroidery, metal ornamentation or dark beadwork. Taking the picture is almost instantaneous. A minute is required to fill out the card, and that's all. Genesee will be asked to furnish a receptionist and a typist. Regular and experienced attendants travel with the unit.

No Cost Whatever

Those appearing July 2 and 3 for chest X-rays have nothing to pay. The equipment has been purchased through the sales of Christmas T-B seals and by state-appropriated funds, which also pay for mobility and the attendants, the film, development and mailing each way.

Frost Damage Severe Peas Wilted By Cold

Inland Empire pea growers suffered losses to crops Monday and Tuesday nights, when temperatures as low as 26 degrees above zero wilted dried pea plants in various stages of growth. Frost showing Tuesday morning was on a hit-and-miss scale, but Wednesday morning the damage became more general and more pronounced in the Genesee area. Several persons have reported threesixteenths of ice on still water and in small containers early Tuesday morning but no reports of ice formations Wednesday morning have been heard locally.

In two pea fields near Genesee and separated by a quarter of a mile, the field of garden peas seemed to have been damaged severely by frost. The other field, which was of the Alaska variety was nipped, but appeared to be damaged much less.

Pea growers generally, are of the belief that the crop is not damaged beyond the point of producing a crop, but none have any opinion on the amount of damage. There is no doubt the yield will be seriously affected for the Genesee area as a whole.

Two or more fields of dried peas reported in bloom, have been affected by the unseasonal frost of Monday and Tuesday nights. Here again, the plants may recover from the frost blight and with rain in the next few days yields may not be depressing.

Most Gardens Wilted

Gardens in the Genesee area which partially escaped frost damage Monday night, were a pitiful sight Wednesday morning. String beans which grew rapidly after the last rain, must be replanted almost everywhere. Cucumber plants disappeared from view Tuesday morning after the sun came out, and looking very sick were small potato patches which had appeared above the ground. One man said even his onions wilted. Other reports are that cabbage plants, well started, curled up. Tomato plants fared about as well as string beans, and some rows of garden peas are hard hit.

Evidence that frost was killing is found in weeds as well as garden plants and flowers.

Spring Grain Undamaged

There have been no reports of damage by frost to wheat or barley. Fall wheat is in various stages of development. Fall wheat is heading south of Genesee, and if it was in bloom there may have been some damage. In a field of wheat inspected Wednesday noon, it was noticed that it was in the boot and there was no damage noticeable. Very little fall barley escaped the late freezing of March and early April. One wheat grower said he noticed slight frost blight to a field of spring wheat, but this condition is not serious he continued to say.

Frosts At LaCrosse

George Post of LaCrosse, Wash., who was in Genesee Memorial Day said frost hit gardens in his home area, and blighted flowers as well. He also said there might be damage to grain which has headed.

Clover And Alfalfa Nipped

Sweet clover and alfalfa suffered damage from frost Monday and Tuesday nights, but undoubtedly will resume growth. Sweet clover wilted noticeably in the lower lands of the Genesee country. Rain and warmer weather would hasten development and recovery for green manure, most farmers agree. Sheepmen, who are pasturing sweet clover in the Genesee area this summer report no anxiety of increased susceptibility of bloat among sheep from eating sweet clover.

ENTERTAINS PAST MATRONS

Mrs. Elvon Hampton was hostess to the district Past Matrons' Club of the Order of Eastern Star at her home Monday afternoon when 27 were present. The covered dish luncheon was followed by a program presented by the different chapters. Represented were Elk River, Bovill, Moscow, Deary, Potlatch and Genesee. The guests especially enjoyed the organ selections played by Mrs. Hampton.

The annual past matrons' picnic is planned for July 11, to be held at Elk River, to which the families are invited. The first fall meeting will be held at Moscow.

Boat Capsizes At Chatcolet Kambitsch Helps In Rescue

It wasn't an unloaded gun but an over-loaded boat which nearly brought death to four people at Lake Chatcolet last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kambitsch and family who spent Sunday at the lake, had concluded a day's outing when Mr. Kambitsch thought he heard someone whose voice was almost drowned out by sounds of motors, calling for help. He had started to fasten the canvass covering on his boat when he heard the plea for help again. He headed his craft for the direction of the summons and soon saw a capsized boat, not more than 10 feet long, and there were four persons clinging to the metal keel. The water was rather choppy, but four motor boats converged on the one is distress, and all occupants of the capsized metal boat were saved. Included in the group of four were a boy, his parents and another man, all said to have been from Garfield. Mr. Kambitsch pulled his boat in close and grabbed the father by his coat, and managed to get him aboard, but it was not without a struggle. The mother, son and the second man were taken out of the water by men in the other rescuing boats.

Mr. Kambitsch had his boat on the Chatcolet side of the lake, and had quit the water because of the windy and cold weather. The Genesee man said he had to travel about a quarter of a mile to the overturned boat, and was rather surprised that as many as four people should have attempted to remain on the lake in such weather.

Naturally there was excitement and Kambitsch said he thought he left the dock with another man in his boat, but his passenger was his son, Orrin.

The Father of the Bride Said "THANKS!"

Recently we had a "thank you" call from the father of a new bride. This long-suffering pop said he would have gone "nuts" trying to handle even his end of the last-minute details without a telephone. Thus, another example of the convenience which low-cost telephone service brings.

Union Building New Shelter For Weed Killing Chemicals

The Genesee Union Warehouse Co. is having erected a pumice stone shelter for weed killing chemicals which is to be located east of the East End sack storage warehouse. The building, with a concrete floor, will have walls of pumice stone about 9 feet high, and a metal roof. The building is to be 30x60 feet in size. Owing to the fire hazard, especially with chlorates, the Union has been unable to store chemicals for weed killing in any large amount, and owing to lack of suitable and safe storage the company was unprepared to take advantage of purchases when chemicals were available at slack times in chemical use.

Lloyd Esser and his crew of men are erecting the building.

One Good Ball Game Other Fails To Satisfy

Lefty Tuschhoff was "zeroed in" for Uniontown's attack against Genesee Sunday afternoon, and threw the old pill right past 17 batters. He gave up five scattered hits and turned in a shut-out. Ozzie Kannikberg was on the mound for Genesee, and for five innings he gave up three hits for one earned run. He still had his steam up in the sixth but in that frame a ball of a mile to the overturned boat, and was rather surprised that as many as four people should have attempted to remain on the lake in such weather.

Naturally there was excitement and Kambitsch said he thought he left the dock with another man in his boat, but his passenger was his son, Orrin.

Vocational Ag Course At Genesee Next Year

According to The Lewiston Morning Tribune Genesee high school will institute a course in vocational agriculture starting next fall. This is the initial public announcement of such a course, although it has been under consideration for several years. The announcement was carried in the Tribune Monday morning following an extra levy election held Saturday afternoon.

Of the 41 voters appearing at the polls at the home economics building where the election was held rather than at the schoolhouse as advertised, 37 voted in favor of the extra levy. Four voted no.

Under a Genesee May 27 dateline the following appeared in the Lewiston Tribune:

"Genesee taxpayers voted 37 to 4 yesterday to authorize a 7-mill increase in the school tax levy to meet higher school operating costs.

"The levy has been set at 13½ mills, the highest authorized by law, without a special election .Voters yesterday cast ballots at the school home economics cottage to increase the levy to 20½ mills.

"Warren Downing, superintendent of schools, said part of the extra income will go toward paying higher salaries to teachers. A new schedule, effective next year, will give teachers an increase that average about 15 per cent, Downey said, depending upon the teacher's training and experience.

"A beginning teacher, for example, with two years' college training will earn $2,400. Three years' college training will start the teacher at $2,700 while four years' schooling will bring $2,900. A teacher with a master's degree will earn $3,200, Downing said.

"He reported that Genesee high school will add a department of vocational agriculture to its curriculum next year. Lee Gerhard, a University of Idaho graduate with a master's degree, has been hired to head the new department."

Young Jim Rabdau obtained the autograph of one of Gonzaga's most famous alumnus, Bing Crosby, who registered Saturday for homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Rabdau and son returned home Sunday morning.

Memorial Day Game Sad

Pullman and Genesee, meeting in a Memorial Day game before a small but well-chilled crowd, dished up an event that was about as interesting as going after the cows following a hard day's work during a hot and windy harvest day. What looked like a ball game for two innings turned in a nightmare for Pullman. Genesee, with one run in the opening frame, scored 7 more runs in the third, added another in the fourth and then piled up five more in the fifth, for a total of 14 runs. Pullman changed horses in the sixth and made the count 1-14. Three runs came in the seventh and four each in the eighth and ninth. In the first six frames young Jim Rabdau had the ball working well. He gave up four scattered hits and not by eight on strikeouts. The one run scored while he was in the box came on three successive errors. Gehrke replaced Rabdau after the starting pitcher began to tire. He was serving them up pretty fat, and was relieved by Price, who also had trouble keeping them out of the middle groove, and finally Dick Scharnhorst went onto the hill. In the last four frames Pullman hit, run and were given passes enough to score 12 runs, just two short of Genesee's 14 runs. At times the game was a baseball travesty, with the continued shifting of players by both clubs providing anything but fair baseball. There were a few extra base blows which tended to warm up the thinly populated paid-admission grandstand group, and for the excention of a few close calls by the officials there was nothing to write home about unless one cares to mention the two dozen or more errors.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

"Oh Lord of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget." There was a time a few years ago when the ranks of the Civil War veterans were thinning, and we thought maybe there would be no more memorial days to honor living veterans, but now that World Wars I, II and III have given us so many to honor, both dead and alive, we know the time will never come when there will be no more memorial days.

Valley folks gathered in groups for family parties after decorating their graves Wednesday. The weather man surely played a mean trick Monday and Tuesday nights, sneaking up with a barrage of frost that killed gardens, field peas and other plants. No estimate of the damage to field crops will be available for a few days.

A customer sat down at a table in a smart restaurant and tied a napkin around his neck. The scandalized manager called a waiter and instructed him: "Try to make him understand as tactfully as possible, that that's not done here."

Said the thoughtful waiter to the customer: "Shave or haircut, sir?"

Just "Can't Get Over" Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-falutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place —just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick—even a shoat couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-offer" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.

Beverly Bressler Bride Weds Thomas G. Boyd

In a lovely floral setting of pink and white peonies, white gladiolus and candlelight from four floor candelabra, Miss Beverly Bressler, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Berger, became the bride of Thomas Gregg Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boyd of Twin Falls, Idaho. The single-ring ceremony was read by Rev. Melford Knight at the Genesee Community church Wednesday evening, June 6.

Preceding the nuptial vows, altar candles were lighted by the ushers, Jack McClaren of Enterprise, Ore., and Arthur Beecher of Spokane. Organ selections and the traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Elvon Hampton. Miss Ann Lou Luedke, sorority sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love Thee Dear," accompanied by Mrs. Hampton.

The bride, given in marriage by her foster father, R. E. Berger, was attired in the traditional white dress of lace and slipper satin. Chantilly lace formed most of the bodice, cut-out flowers of which extended up onto the nylon marquisette yoke formed the jewel neckline. The bodice, at the back, was buttoned with small satin-covered buttons, as were the long sleeves which ended in a point over the hands. The long train lay in graceful folds, highlighted by a delicate lace peplum stand-out effect over the hips. The full fingertip length veil fell from a lace-covered satin Juliet cap. She carried out the "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue" tradition. She wore a double strand of pearls which had been a gift from her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Fred Bressler, deceased. She carried a lace handkerchief which had belonged to her great, great aunt. Her crescent-shaped bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Norma Daugherty of Hailey, Idaho, sorority sister of the bride wore an azure blue taffeta floor-length dress with overskirt of rayon net and flower-studded decollete bodice with which was worn a matching rayon net stole, pointed taffeta mitts and taffeta cap. She carried pink gladiolus and blue delphiniums. Other attendants were Miss Jeanne Gerraughty of Spokane, a sorority sister; Mrs. Celia Hankins of Twin Falls, sister of the groom, and Sandra Berger, sister of the bride. They all wore pink taffeta dresses identical to that of the maid of honor, also wearing matching rayon net stoles, pointed taffeta mitts and taffeta caps. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of pink gladiolus and blue delphiniums.

The mother of the bride wore a blue faille suit-dress trimmed in white with white accessories. Her corsage was lavender orchids.

The mother of the groom wore a spice peach gabardine suit and wheat-colored accessories with a lavender orchid corsage.

The groom and his attendants wore white dinner coats. Best man was Ron Chaney of Wallace, and ushers were Jack McClaren, Arthur Beecher and Vern McCormack, the latter of Lewiston. All are fraternity brothers of the groom.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue suit-dress with white accessories and the white orchid corsage which centered her bridal bouquet. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Norma Daugherty.

Assisting at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. Sanford Evans and Miss Beverly Stone, cutting the cake; Miss Margaret Torrel and Mrs. Gary Flory presiding at the punch bowl; pouring coffee were Miss Margaret Magee and Mrs. Wm. Emerson, and in charge of the guest book were Mrs. W. J. Mervyn and Mrs. Phil Hermann. Shirley Danielson played background music for the reception.

Both young people graduated from the University of Idaho June 4. The bride received her degree of bachelor of arts, and the groom, a degree of bachelor of science in business administration. On the campus, the bride was a member of Alpha Phi sorority, serving as president the past year. The groom is a member of Beta Theta Phi fraternity.

Returning from their honeymoon trip they will be at home near Genesee where the groom will be affiliated with R. E. Berger in farming.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. James Kane and son, Dennie, Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, Miss Adeline Bressler, Miss Arta Scroggins, Miss Maude Bodine, and Mrs. Henry Hogue, all of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boyd and Mary and Jerry Boyd, Mrs. Celia Hankins and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Schnitker, Mrs. Lester Schnitker and sons, Darrell and Norman, all of Twin Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Berger, Howard Berger and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Snyder and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mulalley and children, David and Linda; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Berger and children, Jerry and Vikki, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gregson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnett, Mrs. McCormack and sons, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mervyn and Mrs. Leo Edwards, all of Lewiston; Mrs. Marvin Dorendorf of Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Flory of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Mulalley of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Mill Valley, Calif.; Mrs. Jess Buchanan, Mrs. N. McCreary of Kendrick; Mrs. Frank Densow and daughter, Connie, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shipley and family and Mrs. Roland Broker, all of Craigmont; Mr. and Mrs. Herley Sawyer and family, Mrs. Marion Stata, Miss Edith Berger and Carl Berglund, all of Seattle, and Mrs. Ethel Gay of Ephrata, Wash.

Genesee Winner Again Defeats Pomeroy 11-3

Pomeroy, once defeated by Genesee at Pomeroy, was unable to get started last Sunday against young Jim Rabdau, who held the visitors to three hits in five innings. Pomeroy's two runs in the first five innings were set up by bases on balls. For the first run a hit put men on first and third. A man was hit by a pitched ball, and the second hit scored the man from third. The second run in five inning was the result of a walk and a two-base hit.

Kannikiberg took over the pitching in the sixth frame and was nicked for two hits in his first frame, with one run scorinig. From then on Pomeroy had but one man on in each of the three innings.

Genesee scored his first run in the second frame when Rosenau was safe on a fielder's choice and went to second when Scharnhorst walked. Rabdau's single to left field was enough to score Rosenau.

In the fourth Rabdau was safe on a fielder's choice and went from first to home on Jim Bennett's long two-base clout.

Errors, a base on balls and two hits, one each by Kannikiberg and Pederson, provided three runs for Genesee, with Jim Bennett, Kannikiberg and Goddard crossing the plate.

Four bases on balls messed up the game for Pomeroy when Scharnhorst and Don Bennett scored, the first being pushed in on a base on balls.

Three runs were racked up by the Genesee club in the eighth. Rosenau and Scharnhorst walked. Don Bennett was safe on an error which permitted Rosenau to score, and then Jim Bennett, slammed out a homer, his third hit of the game, the other two being doubles. In addition he drew two free passes. The final score was Pomeroy 3 and Genesee 11.

Genesee had a strong starting combination with Kannikiberg at third, Goddard at short, Jim Bennett at second and at Gehrke at first, with Rabdau and Pederson, the battery. In the outfield were Scharnhorst, Rosenau and Don Bennett.

Funeral Rites Held Tuesday For Pvt. John W. Manring

Funeral services for Pvt. John W. Manring, 116th Figther-Intercepor Squadron, Fairchild Army Air Base, Spokane, were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday at Short's Chapel in Moscow. Chaplain Don R. Maxfield of Fairchild officiated. Norman Logan sang "Danny Boy" and "The Lord's Prayer." Pallbearers were from Manring's Squadron, Sgt. T. G. Gunning, Sgt. C. W. Gunning, Cpl. D. E. Tuntland, and Pfcs. L. D. Miller, S. F. Curtis and D. D. Imler.

Burial was in Genesee City cemetery where the body of the father of the deceased rests. Members of Bielenberg-Schooler Post, American Legion accorded final military honors, and Rex Eikum and Bob Bennett were the buglers.

John W. "Jackie" Manring was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Manring, and was born at a Moscow hospital May 18, 1930, while his parents resided at Genesee. The father passed away in 1939, and the following year the mother and daughter, now Mrs. Dan Aherin of Genesee, moved to Moscow to live for a few months before going to Spokane to make their home. "Jack" was a favorite among his friends, both young and old, and quite often his friends were glad to hear of him and his family. After his sister came to Genesee "Jack" would make short visits here, and it was noticed he enjoyed renewing his acquaintances, being his usual courteous self to everyone. He graduated from Lewis-Clark high school in Spokane two years ago and then joined the 116th Squadron when it was a National Guard unit. The 116th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron was federalized Feb. 1, this year, and trained at Fairchild Army Air Base near Spokane.

The young airman lost his life by drowning at Liberty lake May 17, and althougth a long and thorough search was conducted, the body was not found until June 1 when a fisherman notised it just below the surface of the water and near the lake shore.

"Jack" was a good swimmer, and had often crossed the lake near the place where he fell from a speed boat which he was piloting, and had as company a young lady from Spokane. He sank almost immediately, being handicapped by weight of clothing and a life jacket which failed to inflate. Members of the family were informed that Pfc. Manring had been swimming in the cold water for quite a while during the morning of his drowning, and may have suffered shock and over-exertion when he fell from the boat into the cold water.

The mother of the deceased, Mrs. George Davis, resides at 2607 East Hartson, Spokane, and his sister, Mrs. Dan Aherin resides at Genesee. She has been with her mother much of the time since the tragic accident.

Frost Damage Is Uncertain Rain Beneficial To All Crops

If rain will benefit crops in the Inland Empire hit by frost last week, the necessary moisture has arrived. A cold wave which swept over northern Idaho and eastern Washington Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week, caused considerable damage, chiefly to the pea plantings. Rain, which began falling Monday evening, has continued until Thursday of this week, and the end is not in sight. There has not been too much moisture, for rains have been gentle and the soil is absorbing all that falls.

Past experience with frost does not seem to serve as a criterion for the pea crop. Some believe the frosted peas will recover if not damaged extensively, while others are of the opinion that frost in any measure affects a pea crop sufficiently to justify plowing the crop under. Peas which have been shattered badly by hail before blooming or when the blooms were beginning to show, have provided normal yields.

Several fields of peas, hard hit by frost have already been disked up and replaced or will be replaced by other crops. This does not apply in fields where grass or clover or a mixture of both have been seeded with peas.

It has been noticed that fields where frost wilted pea vines, but not seriously, a new growth has started, while in other fields affected about the same there has been no additional or new growth. Some fields, it has been noted, look better since the rain, but closer examination shows weed growth providing the healthy color.

Some Fall Wheat Hurt

Samples of fall wheat, undoubtedly blighted by frost, have been seen this week. One grower showed wheat plants, where the head had emerged from the boot, but had not bloomed. The newly-formed head seemed to be seriously affected, judging by the pale color, which appeared at one or both ends of the head, which was exposed to the cold after growing from the shelter of the boot.

Some spring wheat has been frozen and may not be affected at all by the cold. Spring barley has been seriously damaged in some areas and in other sections no freezing was noted. This spotted condition of freezing holds true of all crops.

Rains Beneficial

Despite losses to crops locally, the rains of this week are beneficial and came at the proper time to guarantee maturity and good production. Crops have been slow in making growth this spring due to cold weather, but the conditions today are highly favorable, and are making fields which appeared damaged by winter kill look very much better.

Sgt. Raymond Qualey Korean Veteran Home

May 15, 1951, will long be remembered by Sgt. Raymond Qualey of B Co., 13th Engineers, Seventh Division. On that day Sgt. Qualey and 13 other B Co. men received notice by their C. O. that they were on rotation, and would be leaving Korea. May 16 the relieved men left for Sasebo, Japan, and after a week for processing they were aboard the army transport General Meigs headed for Seattle. Fourteen days were required for the long Pacific voyage. The General Meigs docked at Seattle Saturday at 1 p. m. Qualey was among the first to pass through processing lines and at 10:30 p. m. Saturday he was headed for Spokane where he arrived Sunday morning at 5:30. He called his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prater in Spokane, and they notified Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carlson of Grand Coulee, all of whom met him on arrival. The Korean veteran planned to surprise his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Qualey at Genesee, and he did when he called them from Spokane. He was brought to Genesee Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Carlson. He will report to Ft. Lewis July 10, and expects his discharge in September.

Young Qualey enlisted Sept. 21, 1948, at the age of 17 years for a two-year stretch. His time was extended one year by the Korean action. He went into the regular army, unassigned, drawing mechanic's school at Ft. Ord. The 13th Combat Engineers had been in Korea during occupation and had been returned to the States. Later the unit was called back to the Orient. Its depleted ranks owing to discharges were filled by younger men with Qualey being one of them. The Genesee man left for overseas March 10, 1949, and was at Sandai, Japan for about a year, then went to Hokiado Island and then to Camp Fuji for combat engineer training.

On Sept. 8, 1949 the 13th loaded at Yokohama, and nine days later was with the Seventh Division when it made the beach landing at Inchon. The 13th Combat Engineers were attached to the 32nd Infantry Regiment for action around Seoul. When that objective was secure for the time, the 13th Combat Engineers moved to Pusan by truck, passing through Suwon, Chonan, Tagu and Tohgyong. At Pusan the 13th was one of a number of Seventh Division units going by transport and LCI to Iwon where a beach landing was made Nov. 2, 1950. Pushing northward through Tanchon, Sanjin, Yongnan and Chongjin, Seventh Division men went to a point near the Manchurian border on the Yalu river.

Winter, an ally of the enemy, took the lives of many, especially when the hordes of Chinese troops entered the campaign. Outnumbered and handicapped by terrain and weather conditions the Seventh Division, as well as other United Nations troops faced the decision of annihilation or withdrawal.

Young Qualey, who arrived home in good physical condition, now wonders how the withdrawal was completed in face of all obstacles. Mountain passes, snow, temperatures as low as 40 to 45 degrees below zero, narrow roads and constant and overwhelming pressing by the enemy made orderly withdrawal impossible. Much equipment was left behind, some demolished that it would be of no use to the Reds, but finally, the men driven from the north were picked up for evacuation at Hamhung on Dec. 2.

Back to Pusan went the 13th Combat Engineers. Casualties had been heavy from battle and freezing. Regrouping and obtaining replacements the Seventh Division then began its move north again, this time inland, thruogh Ulson, Yongchon, Ansong, Yongju, Chechon, and lastly to Hongchon on May 16 when the orders for rotation came.

Charles Swenson On Leave

Charles Swenson, son of Elmer Swenson arrived in Spokane by United Airlines from Great Lakes Naval Training Station. He was met at Spokane by Mr. and Mrs. Swenson Monday. Charles was summoned by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Dawson, who passed away Sunday. He reports back to the station June 25.

Genesee draws a bye. No baseball game here Sunday afternoon.

Colton Shut Out 5 To 0 Pitchers Stage A Duel

Genesee and Colton, rained out in their first scheduled game of the season, got together Sunday for a tight 5-0 pitchers' duel in which Genesee emerged victor. Friel for Colton was aiming them where Genesee couldn't hit 'em Sunday. He fanned 15, and gave up but five hits. Kannikiberg for Genesee fanned eight, but had the Colton batters popping up or grounding out. Colton also entered five safe blows on the score sheet.

Genesee opened up in the first of the third when Ochs was on with a single. Bennett got hold of a pitch that was really too hot for the Colton third baseman to handle. Bielenberg blasted out a triple to score Ochs and Bennett, and Pederson doubled to give Beielenberg a chance to score. Genesee scored another run when Benentt got a life by an error and scored on Scharnhorst's long single. The fifth run was also unearned when Scharnhorst drew a base on balls, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on an error at first when Kannikiberg was safe. Colton had but two men as far as third, but each time some good pitching helped, and one time Davis batting with two men on, smashed a line drive down the first base line that was taken by Ochs.

At the morning session Mrs. Oliver Woodley gave the Welcome Address, and Mrs. J. Edward Hill of Lewiston the response. Coulee Dam Waters Flowing Over Hill Into Coulee Reservoir

Coulee Dam and its vast installations are now in another stage of progress, that of pumping water from Roosevelt Lake, over the hill and into the equalizing reservoir which extends from Coulee Dam to Coulee City. The official ceremony marking the pumping of water for irrigation was set for Thursday of this week. Water, however, has been cascading down the concrete spillway since the last week in May. Only one of the twelve huge pumps is completely installed and in operation, but it throws a stream six feet in diameter, and when dumped into the spillway covers a width of 16 feet and four feet deep.

Travel from Coulee City to Grand Coulee or to the dam is now over the new highway. The Coulee has been cleared of all old buildings, fences and debris, and there was a sizeable lake of water to be seen Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Martinson and son, Michael, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pederson made the trip to Coulee Dam by way of Ephrata Sunday. There has been noticeable advancement of work on the large canals and siphons, and today one may witness what the plan is for the Columbia Basin.

It was rather depressing to view damage by frost to wheat almost everywhere from Genesee to Ritzville and beyond and in the Wilbur, Davenport and Reardan areas. In contrast, irrigated crops in the Moses Lake territory were not affected by frost and have grown rapidly under irrigation from waters of the lake and from wells.

The Genesee people had a short hour with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Erickson and son and Carl Erickson. Their town of Ephrata is growing steadily and substantially. It is now a modern city of about 5,000 people.

In the evening they had lunch with Misses Mary and Rose Larkin in Spokane.

Anderson And Haxton Home From Boys' State At Boise

J. D. Anderson and Bill Haxton returned Sunday from Boise where they attended the eighth Idaho Gem Boys' State, under the sponsorship of the American Legion Department. The trip was awarded the boys by Bielenberg-Schooler Post, Genesee.

From Monday morning at 6:45, until Saturday noon the boys were kept busy with programs, practice in rules of democratic government and entertainment. The boys organized two parties, named and elected their own officials from the governor's chair to the lowest city official. J. D. Anderson was a member of the Silver Party and virtually the entire party ticket was swept into office in elections. Vic Casebolt of Moscow, was elected governor on the Silver ticket. Bill Haxton was a member of the Gold Party, and he said the boys from northern Idaho in his party helped elect northern boys for offices even though they might be in the opposition party. Rex Eikum, Genesee, was governor of Boys' State two years ago.

Haxton was selected as sergeant-at-arms during the two-day legislative session at the state house. Leading figures to address the boys during the week were Gov. Len B. GENESEE VALLEY NEWS'

We had four full days of rain last week that set up over the week end to let folks go fishing. Monday evening we had an all-night rain with occasional showers Tuesday. The grain and grass crops are growing nicely. A few are plowing up their frozen peas and others are plowing under sweet clover. The Valley-St. John Bible school closed Friday afternoon with a program. In 1901 Robert G. Boville walked through the crowded streets of East Side, New York City, and saw so many children out of school with nohting to do and no place to go, he thought of all the college students with free time, then putting his thoughts together, he called on some ministers in New York City with a plan for a vacation Bible school. They were very much interested and when the call was sent out for the first Daily Vacation Bible School 500 children were enrolled for the two weeks. This year on the 50th anniversary of the idea, more than five million children were enrolled all over the U. S. A., and the great idea will no doubt increase the numbers as the years unfold. The field is wide open and the children are unlimited. No one can doubt the value of the program.

Remember Dad
(Elsie Duncan Yale)

Let's tell our dads we love them, perhaps they'll be amazed, for by his sons and daughters dad isn't often praised. I know that it would please him, 'twould really be worthwhile; let's tell our dads we love them and then, just see them smile. Let's tell our dads we love them, they really do a lot, and our appreciation is now and then forgot. Now Father's Day is with us, as we have realized; let's tell our dads we love them, perhaps they'll be surprised.

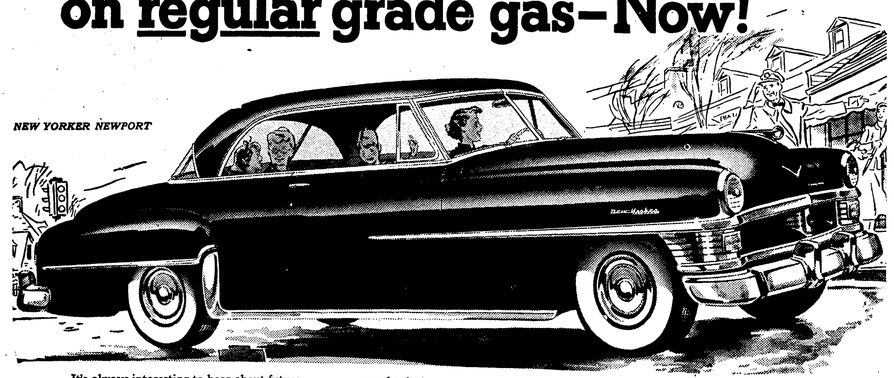
Here's 180 Horsepower... on regular grade gas—Now!



NEW YORKER NEWPORT

It's always interesting to hear about future-looking experiments with new super engines to run on new super-octane fuels...someday.

But it's even more interesting to hear today's real life, on-the-highway talk about Chrysler's new super-performing FirePower engine. FirePower takes any regular grade gas you care to buy . . . and adds its own new mechanical octanes to the power-giving octanes of the gasoline itself. The result is 180 horsepower performance such as no other passenger car built in the U.S. today can equal.

If you haven't driven Chrysler FirePower yet, your Chrysler dealer invites you to do so now. It's the most revolutionary engine in 27 years. It offers highway satisfaction and safety such as you've never known.

And it's a sounder engine other ways than any other on the road. Its new design keeps it almost completely carbon-free. It is smooth and quiet . . . but also rugged and strong and free from need for great attention and repair.

Now remember that this same new Chrysler offers you the new Hydraguide power steering* . . . plus the amazing new rough-road stability of Oriflow shock absorbers . . . plus Water-Proof Ignition, and Vacu-Ease Chrysler Cyclebonded super-brakes . . . then come see what we mean when we say the car of your tomorrow is right here for you to drive . . . today, and for years to come!

180 HORSEPOWER Here's the new Hemispherical Combustion Chamber that's the heart of Chrysler FirePower. Its new, designed-in "mechanical octanes" make regular grade gas do what best premium grades can't do in any other engine you can drive today!

*Hydraguide regular on Crown Imperials, optional at extra cost on other Imperial and New Yorker models.

getting ready

Think of attaching a cultivator in one minute or less! It can be done with a Ford Tractor and Dearborn Cultivator. Other tools, too, attach or detach quickly.

going to the field

You need not hold down road speed to "save" Dearborn Lift-Type Implements. They are carried instead of dragged. You gain working time and save repairs.

Plus the advantages of a "Light" and a "Heavy" Tractor . . .

While working . . . most Dearborn Implements become almost literally a part of the Ford Tractor. In the case of any implement designed with "suck," the suck adds weight on the tractor's rear wheels . . . you get, automatically, more weight when you need it . . . less weight when you don't.

working in the field

Moving the Ford Tractor Hydraulic Touch-Control lever up or down controls the depth of ground working implements. No tugging at ropes or levers.

Carolyn Nibler Bride Of Joe Sprenger, Jr.

St. Bonifice Catholic church, Uniontown, Wash., was the scene of a beautiful wedding June 16 when Carolyn Nibler became the bride of Joe Sprenger in a double-ring ceremony, with the Rev. Fr. Flour officiating. Acolytes were Bobby Geisler and David Nibler, the latter a brother of the bride.

Carolyn is the daughter of Walter Nibler of Uniontown and Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sprenger of Genesee.

Church decorations were tall baskets of pink lupines mid-way up the center aisle; fan-shaped baskets of pink and yellow columbine enhanced the altar railings; high baskets of deep yellow and blue iris stood at the foot of the altar, and altar vases held pink and yellow columbine and pink lupines. Church pews were marked with white satin bows and ribbon streamers.

Miss Catherine Baldus of Genesee, organist, played the processional and recessional. She also accompanied Ann Hattrup and Mrs. Leo Schmidt, cousins of the bride, who sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother" and "Heart of Jesus" during the ceremony.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, was preceded down the aisle by her bridesmaids, Marjorie Nibler, the bride's sister; Peggy Brink, Mary Alice Lorang and Delores Moser; matron of honor, Mrs. Dale Wamsley (nee Marian Nibler) also a sister of the bride; flower girl, Marcia Dianne Jacobs, cousin of the bride; and the ring-bearer, Stewart Sprenger, cousin of the groom.

The bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin, the full skirt flowing into a long train. Hand-made imported lace flower insets enclosed the shoulders and formed a low, rounded neckline, cascaded down the center of the fitted bodice, down through the skirt to descending ruffles which swept the floor. The bodice of the gown was fastened in the back down past the waist with tiny ivory satin buttons. Insets of the hand-made lace flowers ran mid-way down the full tapering sleeves which were fitted below the elbow, ending in a point on the hand. The bride's double-tier fingertip veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of delicate tinted pink cathedral white roses, orange blossoms and stephanotis tied with white satin ribbon streamers. She wore the traditional blue garter; her something old was her deceased mother's wedding ring; something borrowed was a diamond lavalier which once belonged to her mother, borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Dale Wamsley, and something new, her bridal attire.

The matron of honor wore a ballerina gown of pink taffeta, designed with a bouffant overskirt of pink dotted nylon net. The basque bodice of net over taffeta was fashioned wih a deep rounded neckline, giving an off-the-shoulder effect, and full sleeves of net fastening tight just below the elbow. Her headdress was a pink bonnet shaped brim and she wore short mitts of matching net. She carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds, pink and yellow carnations and deep blue bachelor buttons with blue satin ribbon streamers.

The gowns worn by the bridesmaids were styled identical to the matron of honor's but were of blue taffeta with overskirts of blue dotted nylon net. Their bonnet-shaped headdresses were of blue net with matching mitts. They carried identical nosegays with pink satin ribbon streamers. Each attendant wore a double strand rhinestone bracelet centered with crystals, and a matching necklace which were gifts of the bride.

The flower girl wore a ballerina dress of dotted pink organdy designed with a bouffant ruffled skirt, tiny puffed sleeves and ruffled neckline, each ruffle encrusted with white lace, and a wide pink satin sash around the waist. She wore a halo of pink carnations, stephanotis and blue bachelor buttons. She carried a tiny blue basket, engulfed in blue net, and scattered pink rose petals.

The ringbearer, dressed in a white French-cuffed shirt, a bow tie, and dark dress trousers, carried the rings on a white satin pillow, having a tiny blue satin ribbon bow on one corner with long ribbon streamers. The pillow was centered with a halo of tiny white flowers and blue ribbon in which the rings were tied. The pillow is an heirloom, carried at the wedding of the bride's parents. The ringbearers bouttoniere was a deep pink rosebud.

Jimmy Sprenger was his brother's best man. Ushers were Tom Edwards, Clarkston; Ralph Koster and Don Spence, Genesee, and Lloyd Nibler, brother of the bride. The bridegroom and ushers wore bouttonieres of white carnations.

The bride's step-mother wore a light blue suit with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a biege suit with brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

The reception was immediately following the ceremony at the Knights of Columbus hall. The reception hall was decorated in pink and yellow. The floral decor were baskets of pink lupines and pink and yellow columbine.

The bride's table was centered with a four-tier wedding cake decorated with white roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The groom's cakes were topped with tiny pink rosebuds. Six tier white tapers lighted the table.

After the traditional first piece was cut by the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Charles Gesellchen, aunt of the bride, from Modesto, Calif., cut and served the wedding cake. She was assisted by Mrs. Louis Penland of Uniontown.

The coffee table, with two beautiful silver coffee services, was lighted with white tapers. Misses Vonnie Kambitsch and Sharon Nibler poured. Miss Norma Thill served at the punch bowl. The guest register was in charge of Teresa Scharnhorst.

The bride, a native of Uniontown, graduated from Genesee high school. The bridegroom is a native of Genesee. He is employed in carpentry with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Sprenger left on a honeymoon to Banff, Victoria, B. C., and to Lake Louise and other points in Canada. For going away the bride wore a dusty pink suit. The white roses of her corsage were delicately pink centered. She wore a white vogue hat and white accessories.

Guests from out-of-town included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gesellchen, Modesto, Calif.; Mrs. Theresa Grieser, Laurence Grieser, Genesee; Mrs. Bill Jacobs, Ruth Jacobs and Mrs. Warren Jacobs of Lewiston; Mrs. Boyd Jacobs and daughter, Marcia, Lapwai, Idaho; Miss Gini Campbell, Spokane; Mrs. Leo Schmidt, Spangle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sprenger, Genesee; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Baumgartner, Genesee; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Edwards, Clarkston; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson, Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dorendorf, Kellogg; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kane and Dennis, Spokane; Jerry Mattson, Culdesac; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wamsley, Mrs. Veda Wamsley, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carpenter and daughter, Darlene, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. John Neely, Moscow; Mrs. Woody Thornton and son, Douglas; Mrs. Richard Stout and daughter, Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scharnhorst and daughters, Betty and Teresa; Mrs. John Scharnhorst and baby, Genesee; Mrs. Robert Fulf and children of Pullman, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thornton, Colfax.

Driver Of Euclid Loses Life When Big Carriers Collide

Howard L. Pyle, 41, of LaGrande, Ore., driver of a tractor-trailer combination used by Kuney Construction for hauling crushed rock on the new section of the North and South Highway west of Genesee, lost his life last Friday evening about 8 o'clock. The large rock-hauling equipment known as Euclids or "Euks" weigh approximately 15 tons and carry 20 tons of material, collided at the road junction near the Rossebo home which leads to the Hove home.

The Euclid driven by Pyle was returning empty when it collided with a similar piece of equipment which was loaded, and driven by Roby Reabes, according to the Kuney Construction company. It was believed that the left edge of the steel bumper and left wheel of the empty Euclid collided with the left hind wheel of the loaded trailer. The machines hauling rock to the north end of the project travel rather fast, and when the two came together the empty Euclid apparently "jack knifed" with the trailer and tractor turning over and landing on the sloping bank of the road. Pyle was caught beneath the overturned machine and was said to have died of suffocation before he could be relieved of the weight.

According to the Kuney Company Pyle is survived by his mother, Mrs. A. J. Pyle, at LaGrande.

Grain Moving Rapidly Destined For Overseas

Members of the Genesee Union Warehouse company learned Saturday evening the condition of business of their organization and the possibility there will be no storage problems for the 1951 harvest. They heard of facilities under construction by the North Pacific Grain Growers at Pasco, Wash., for handling grain of affiliate cooperatives. The large plant under construction at Pasco, according to W. A. Richards, manager of NPGG is progressing, and should be ready to receive grain during September. This plant is located conveniently for rail, water and truck traffic, and is an important link in the chain of elevators and storage facilities of the North Pacific for handling grain for export and domestic use.

Forrest Durbin, manager of the local Union Warehouse company, pointed out the reduction of grain on hand at Genesee. In round figures the Union shipped around 205 cars of wheat during May over the Northern Pacific railroad, for one of the largest shipments in history of the company, it is believed. The rail company instituted daily service during June to greatly relieve storage problems, and during the current month 10 or 12 cars are being received three times a week to further alleviate storage conditions for the 1951 crop. It was also stated that about three-fourths of the total storage capacity of the Union Warehouse elevators is now open, and with the continued receipts of freight cars, the company should be prepared to receive more grain than in any recent season. Shipments today are destined chiefly for overseas on orders from the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Fred Seigel, Spokane, auditor for the Warehouse company, reported on conditions of the Union and business for the past year. Savings or profits were the largest recorded. Seigel, who has been auditing the company's records since 1928, took time to check back on the history of the Union from the time it was organized. He pointed out the steady growth of the holdings, reminded members of their net worth and explained the distribution of savings among members.

Fred Hove, Walter Erickson and J. P. Hermann were reelected to the board of directors. Other members of the board are: John Luedke, Adrian Nelson, R. E. Nordby, Lloyd Wilson, Elvon Hampton and Jess Johnson.

The Union held an open meeting Saturday evening at the Legion Memorial building, and following the meeting lunch was served.

A. C. Linehan was selected to attend a meeting of the North Pacific Grain Growers held in Spokane. He is a member of the board of directors of the North Pacific.

Truck Crashes Bridge Railing One Man Is Severely Injured

The driver of a light 1951 Dodge truck and a passenger narrowly escaped death shortly after 12 o'clock Saturday night, when the vehicle, evidenty being driven at a very high speed, took off the east railing of the bridge just south of Genesee. Earth torn up at the edge of the road for almost fifty yards, showed the truck had partially left the road, then was pulled back enough for the steel railing to puncture the right side of the cab,, then fold up and become twisted like so much tin. The truck, continuing north is thought to have turned over into its left side, grated along on the hard road surface, roll over onto its top, land in the ditch and turned end for end. The truck was first seen in its damaged condition by Virgil Klemm who came into Genesee and summoned help. The driver, limping badly, was able to walk, but the other occupant of the truck was pinned beneath the vehicle, with the metal floor of the truck body pinning him to the ground. Among those who gave assistance were Earl Parsons, Bob Huffman, Joe Schooler, Jack Magee, Cliff Herman and Ray Edwards. Parsons happened to have a spade in his car, and by flashlight the men extricated the severely injured man and brought him to the doctor's office here. He was later taken to the Gritman hospital by ambulance. First reports were that the man held under the truck had been killed, but later reports are that he is recovering satisfactorliy.

The vehicle is said to be the property of Wendell Gwinn of Pullman, and was driven by an employee at his farm.

Mrs. Leavitt, retiring worthy grand matron, was responsible for the gift of a "seeing-eye" dog to S. M. Snowden, blind business man of Lewiston. The award was made June 12 during the grand chapter session. Snowden, who became the recipient of the dog, was recommended for selection by Burton W. Driggs, superintendent of of the school for the deaf and blind at Gooding, and by Harold A. Taylor of the bureau of public assistance. Mrs. Snowden is also a blind person. He is engaged in making rubber mats for his livlihood, and will be greatly assisted in making contacts when he receives the dog.

Mrs. Leavitt adopted the giving of a "seeing-eye" dog as her project while grand worthy matron. She requested the 72 Eastern Star chapters of Idaho to forego the presentation of corsages at her visitations, with the money so expended to go into a fund to purchase the dog. Florists of Idaho, however, showed approval of the project by being responsible directly for sending courtesy corsages for each of her official visits.

Snowden will be provided transportation to Morristown, N. J., to become acquainted with his dog and it will be necessary for him to take training in response to the dog's guidance.

Carter, 3425 Fairmount Boulevard, Riverside, Calif., at Fort MacArthur, San Pedro, Calif., on Armed Forces Day, May 19. At the award ceremony and formal review at the Fort seven other Silver Stars and a Bronze Star were awarded.

Mrs. Carter, daughter of Charles Schooler of Genesee, received the Star which was won by her husband and who was later killed in Korea.

The official award, designated by General Orders No. 61, reads as follows: "Award of The Silver Star—(Posthumous) by direction of the President, under provisions of the Act of Congress approved 9July, 1918, and pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, the Silver Star for gallantry in action is awarded posthumously to the following named enlisted man:

"Sergeant First Class Joe D. Carter, Infantry, United States Army, a member of Heavy Mortar Company, 38th Infantry Regiment, 2nd Infantry Division, distinguished himself by gallantry in action against an armed enemy on 4 September 1950, at Yusan-Dong, Korea. On the 4th of September, Sergeant Carter's company was engaged in supplying direct support to Company L, 38th Infantry, in its attack against Hill 208. The enemy had direct observation of our attacking troops and mortar positions and were firing artillery and mortars into our positions. Sergeant Carter volunteered to advance in front of the attacking infantry elements and establish an observation post to direct fire. Disregarding the intense enemy artillery and mortar fire directed against him, he continued to direct heavy mortar fire against enemy emplacements on Hill 208 until he received a direct hit on his position and fell mortally wounded. His undaunted courage in remaining exposed to the intense hostile fire in order to direct the fires of his mortars was instrumental in pinning down the enemy and enabled Company L to attack and sieze Hill 208. The intrepid gallantry displayed by Sergeant Carter is in keeping with the highest standards and traditions of the military service."

"Oh, Mr. Jones," said Miss Dash, "I saw an advertisement saying you could furnish your home by soap premiums. Every time you buy a piece of soap you get a furniture certificate. I am going to be married: Do you think I could furnish my house that way?"

"Why, yes, Miss Dash," replied Mr. Jones, "I had a friend who got all the furniture for a six-room house that way. The company only had to send him furniture for one room; the other five were full of soap."

I have been spending mornings contacting farmers for crop insurance, so if you don't find me home, please call back later.

Hope "Cappy" Told Him Where To Get Off!

"Cappy" Fisher—who just retired after thirty-five years as a railroad conductor — was telling about a salesman who was often one of his passengers.

"That man was so busy," says Cappy, "he used to bring a dictaphone on the train to catch up on his letters. On one trip he'd been rushing around so much he clean forgot to bring his ticket. Left it on his desk."

When Cappy started to tell him not to worry about the ticket, the salesman busts out with "Who's worried about the ticket? It's just that now I don't know what city I was going to get off at!"

Cappy might have been pulling our leg, but from where I sit, lots of us get so wrapped up in ourselves we often forget "where we're going." Some folks get so narrow they even begrudge their neighbors the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. Let's not forget that just as trains run on steam and oil, democracies run on freedom and tolerance!

Sturgills On Okinawa Father A Korea Flier

Little do most people realize how much a young family endures to be together, even for short periods, and what sacrifices are being made by those engaged in the Korean conflict. The News has been privileged to read a letter from Mrs. Stanley Sturgill (Joan) to her father, Henry Lorang, at Genesee.

Lt. Sturgill of the U. S. Airforce, was first sent to Guam where his family later joined him. Since the trouble started in Korea, Lt. Sturgill was ordered for duty over that country. According to the letter, Mrs. Sturgill and son, Bobby, were permitted to move to Okinawa about the middle of May. The family had a joyful reunion Easter. The family had but the one meeting after the mother and son landed at Guam, and then there was another when Lt. Sturgill went after his family. After Easter there were some "tough missions" and others before that. Lost in action was the Group commanding officer and the squadron commanding officer, also several men with whom Sturgill had flown, one the husband of an intimate friend of Mrs. Sturgill.. On a particular mission a number of men were wounded and some had to land in Korea. "You have probably read of the losses this one particular time," Mrs. Sturgill wrote. "Stan was right in it, but never got a scratch. There was a woman who lived a few houses from us. She had three boys. Her husband was shot down. We listened to the radio. I was afarid to listen and afraid not to listen. If they said there were no American planes lost that night we could sleep, but if they told of the Russian planes downed but didn't commit themselves on American planes we knew some were lost. Then we'd sweat it out waiting for a call from the chaplain. I tried to keep so busy I didn't have time to think."

Sturgill Decorated

Lt. Sturgill, winner of the the Air Medal and one Oak Leaf Cluster for flying missions over Korea has accepted ground duty for the time being, but does not expect to be returned to the States until about the first of next year. To the Sturgills is seems a long way off, that welcome rotation, which he could have accepted with strings attached, that of having to return to combat flying. On rotation he could bring his family to the United States, but on returning to the Orient the wife and son would not be permitted to accompany him.

Saw Brother On Guam

Mrs. Sturgill told of meeting her brother, Dan, when he landed at Guam. It was when Sturgills were ready to leave for Okinawa. They were delayed a few days owing to an infection picked up by the son, Bobby. During their reunion, the four tried to see as much of Guam as possible. She didn't believe her brother was enthused about Guam, but compared to Okinawa is was paradise.

Home for the Sturgills on Okinawa in a quonset hut. Other inhabitants can be rats, roaches, mosquitos, ants and fleas, all of which seem to enjoy frightening or biting white people. Then there's termites and poisonous snakes, but the most dangerous of all are the snakes and mosquitos. Some of the G. I.s have contacted malaria and some a sort of sleeping sickness or paralysis, called Jap-3, encephomalitis, which is due to the bite of the mosquito. Some of the natives succumb to it, but we have taken the shots and sleep under nets so we will be allright, Mrs. Sturgill writes.

Kuehl's Home From Vacation Travel Far In One-Week Trip

Mr. and Mrs. David Kuehl returned Saturday evening from a week's vacation. From Bonners Ferry they motored to Libby and Kallispell, Mont., through Glacier Park and then viewed Hungry Horse dam. Motoring south through Hamilton, Mont., they visited a short time at Challis with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bradbury. The last two days of their vacation they visited Mrs. Kuehl's sister, Mrs. C. M. Price, and husband in Twin Falls and with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Stanley at Boise.

Home On Short Leave

Don Johnson, stationed with the navy at Whidby Island, north of Seattle, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Johnson, with a short visit over the week end. He had a 72-hour liberty and arrived home Friday evening. Don accompanied Rev. and Mrs. H. Cronrath as far as Spokane Sunday afternoon.

Combining dinners with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Don Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Danielson and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson and daughter.

Early Resident Dies

George Raymond of Spokane who visited here for a few days with his sister, Mrs. Minnie Follett, received word Sunday evening that his brother-in-law, L. E. Tice, of Seattle, had died that afternoon. Mr. Tice came to Genesee in an early day from Wisconsin and was in the wood shipping business for a time. In recent years he was employed as a state grain inspector at the Seattle docks.

Mr. Raymond left for Seattle Monday to attend funeral services.

Class Of 1931 Reunion An Enjoyable Meeting

(By Mrs. John Hickman)

Long distances of travel and rain instead of expected sunshine didn't affect the keen spirit and high interests of 14 members of the original 25 who graduated from the Genesee high school on May 22, 1931, when they gathered here Sunday, June 24, for a 20-year reunion.

Original plans were to have a picnic at the City Park but on account of rain they met at the home economics building where dinner was served at 1 o'clock to 47, including the 14 class members, their families; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Downing, present superintendent of the Genesee high school, and Bob Morken, who was photographer for the afternoon.

Highlights of the social afternoon were the reading of the original valedictory address, class will, prophecy, viewing scrap books and pictures of high school days. Each member was called upon to give a short description of his or her schooling and occupations since graduating. Letters were read from those who wrote saying they were unable to attend.

Talks were also given by Miss Ruth Anderson and Paul Parks, instructors of the Genesee high school in 1931. W. D. Riddle, former superintendent, and J. J. Tupker and Miss Carolyn Murray were unable to attend.

The group had their pictures taken on the steps of the original high school and then entered the door once more and viewed what once was their class rooms and noticed with interest all the improvements and additions made, including the new class rooms, assembly and gymnasium.

Members of the class of 1931 were: Edwin Miller, Gordon Thomas, Lloyd Qualey, Glen Erickson, Virgil Post, John Hickman, Homer Schooler, Chas. Baumgartner, Wayne Hampton, Maurice Krier, Clinton Hermann, Clara West, Ida Foster, Mildred Peterson, Olive Borgen, Aileen Zell, Martha Kleweno, Edith Craft, Constance Tegland, Rose Broemeling, Doris Harms, Vivian Olson, Rose Jutte, Edna Jutte and Mary Schlueter.

Those attending the reunion Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Krier and son of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Case (Ida Foster) of Willamette, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sanders (Rose Broemeling) and children of Ridgefield, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kittel (Edna Jutte) and two sons of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Qualey and daughter; Mrs. Doris Flomer (Doris Harms) and three children, all of Lewiston; Miss Ruth Anderson, Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parks (Rose Jutte) and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Post and three daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hermann and two children; Mr. and Mrs. John Hickman (Vivian Olson); Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hampton and son; Chas. Baumgartner and son; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schooler, Mr. and Mrs. Downing and Bob Morken.

Plans were discussed to hold another reunion of the class of '31 in 1956, or five years from now.

Idaho Chest X-Ray Unit Available For Everyone

Stamping out tuberculosis in Idaho is the aim of the Public Health Department but it cannot be accomplished without the cooperation of everyone above the age of 15 years. Only a minute or so of your time will be required for the X-ray chest examination July 2 and 3, when the Idaho mobile unit visits Genesee. There is no charge whatever for the service afforded. By purchases of Christmas Seals and an appropriation, Idaho is permitted for the first time to cover the state in a drive to control tuberculosis. Every person passing through the unit will receive a confidential report on findings.

School Books Needed

The Genesee schools are short of text books. All former students who care to do so and wish to donate books are requested to turn them in if they are not more than five years old. The school is especially short of psychology, biology and chemistry books. Contact Supt. Warren Downing. 1-3ad

Genesee will play ball at Troy Sunday. It's a return game.

Luther League Convention Attended By Genesee People

Returning Monday from Seattle where they attended the International Luther League convention last week were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Danielson and daughter, Donna; Mrs. Oscar Danielson, Shirley and Joyce Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Iverson, Dale Iverson, Ann Lou Luedke, Joan Egland and Howard Anderson, the last named of Moscow.

This was the first meeting to be held in the West since 1927 and the convention registered 5,500 delegates, besides many others in attendance. Meetings were held at the Civic Auditorium and the theme was "Triumphant in Christ." Some of the highlights mentioned were a pageant in which 200 took part, and from the collection taken, a mobile unit was purchased to be sent to Japan; the convention banquet at which 4,400 people were served in 40 minutes by caterers of the Boeing Aircraft Co.

Dr. Marcus Rieke, Columbus, O., former pastor of St. John Lutheran church at Genesee, now Youth director of the American Lutheran Church and chairman of the Yuoth Commission, was the principal speaker.

A 1500-voice choral group sang at a number of the sessions and on Saturday morning an impressive patriotic service was given with a chaplain from Ft. Lewis as principal speaker. With him was a 60-voice negro choir.

Mrs. Wood Gash Visits Here Called By Brother's Illness

Mrs. Wood Gash of Bakersfield, Calif., arrived Monday for a visit until Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Edwards and other friends. She had been visiting relatives in the Big Bend country since May 26. She was summoned by the illness of a brother who is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Gash and husband, former residents of Genesee moved to Bakersfield several years ago, and have become real California boosters. Mrs. Gash was for years manager for the Home Telephone company and its successor, the Interstate company. Before moving to Genesee Mr. and Mrs. Gash lived in the Big Bend country of Washington, and like others have been deeply interested in the development of that area since Coulee Dam was started. They are still strong supporters of the Big Bend territory.

Genesee Takes Asotin With Extra-Base Hits

Hitting in the clutches and for extra bases, which fitted in well with Ozzie Kannikiberg's three-hit pitching earned Genesee a 10-4 win over a much improved Asotin ball club here last Sunday. Jim Bennett, Bielenberg and Scharhorst handled the two-base hitting. Lee Liberg put the wood to one for a triple that went into centerfield, good for three bases easy. Then Rosenau planted one so deep and hard into left field that it had time to sprout little baseballs before the Asotin fielder could find it. He crossed the plate with Scharnhorst ahead of him. In the second frame Tillwiler for Asotin connected for a long triple and scored Maier who had taken first on an error. Asotin's other extra-base clout came in the ninth frame after the rain started falling. Kramer was the hitter with Maier again on the base paths by an error. Asotin picked up two runs in the fourth on an error and a fielder's choice when a nice play was made to the plate by Jim Bennett, but a split second late to catch the man coming home. Ayers crossed the plate after tagging up at third and coming home on Tillwiler's fly to right field.

Genesee opened up with a run in the last of the first frame when Bennett was given a life by an overthrow at first and took second. Pederson singled to score Bennett.

In the bottom of the third Bielenberg doubled. Liberg tripled to score Bielenberg. Pederson drew a base on balls. Kannikiberg was walked, and on Scharnhorst's double Liberg and Pederson scored.

It was even-Steven up to the last of the sixth when Bielenberg singled. Liberg walked. Pederson singled down the third base line to score Bielenberg and on Kannikiberg's single Liberg added another score. Scharnhorst hit for one base to score Pederson.

In the last of the seventh Sprenger was on base by a fielder's choice, took second on a catcher's error. and on two successive Asotin errors Sprenger scored.

In the last of the eighth Scharnhorst was on with a single when Rosenau belted his homer into left field.

Smith for Asotin fanned seven and Kanikiberg whiffed 10 men. Despite the 10-4 score Sunday's game was an interesting one for there were several exceptionally good plays. Tillwiller for Asotin, a youngster playing at third showed the makings of a ball player, and Lawrence at second was a hot defensive player.

For Genesee, Scharnhorst's shoestring catch of a low foul fly toward first was flashy snagging, and Rosenau's long running catch of Marvin's fly to right center landed in the fielder's glove with nothing to spare.

HOW FREEDOM RINGS

America's 42 million telephones present overpowering evidence of our freedom of speech. Here, too, is stirring evidence of what private enterprise, dedicated to public service can do.

History has shown that no other system can meet its challenge while sacrificing human liberty. Surely, then, freedom and free enterprise go hand in hand.

Nancy Carol Johnson Bride Of Geo. Follett

One of the lovely weddings of this summer in Genesee was Saturday evening, June 23, when Miss Nancy Carol Johnson and George Howard Follett were married. Baskets of lavender and white delphiniums and sprigs of bridal wreath and candelabra adorned the altar of the Genesee Community church for the 8 o'clock candlelight double-ring ceremony which solemnized the marriage. Rev. Melford Knight, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson of Lewiston and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Follett.

Preceding the nuptial vows, altar candles were lighted by Jim Hammond of Moscow, fraternity brother of the groom, and Bob Zellner of Lewiston. Organ selections, including the wedding marches were played by Mrs. Elvon Hampton. She also accompanied Mr. Hampton when he sang "Because" and "Passing By."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and cathedral-length train. The nylon illusion yoke was edged with a deep ruffle of Viennese lace. The pointed basque waist was accented by a row of satin-covered buttons and the long fitted sleeves extended into a point over the hands. The neckline of her gown was enhanced by a twisted pearl cord. Her fingertip veil of nylon net fell from a tiara of pearl orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet she carried was made up of creamy brides' roses and stenphanotis, with which she carried something old, her maternal grandmother's wedding ring, and for something borrowed, a handkerchief, belonging to the groom's mother. For good luck she wore a coin in one of her slippers.

Terry Shaefer of Lewiston was maid of honor, and Patricia Johnson, sister of the bride, and Carol Harvey, also of Lewiston, were bridesmaids. Miss Shaefer wore a gown of orchid, net over satin and the bridesmaids were attired in yellow organdy over taffeta. Each carried colonial bouquets and wore matching flower bandeaux.

The flower girls were Jonnie Brown of Moscow, niece of the groom, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, and Barbara Johnson, little sister of the bride. Each wore floor-length dresses of pink and carried metal baskets of rose petals.

Hal Mayes of Kellogg, fraternity brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Jim Hammond and Bob Zellner. The men in the wedding party all wore white dinner jackets and black trousers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnson chose a two-piece ensemble of cafe au lait with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a navy blue and white ensemble. Each wore corsages of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church parlors. Receiving the many guests were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Follett and the bridal couple and attendants. The bride's table with its lace covering was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, encircled with white tea roses and topped with a circlet of orange blossoms centered with two white doves, each holding a wedding ring in their bill. The table was set with a sterling service.

After the bride and groom had cut the cake in the traditional manner, cake and coffee were served to the guests by Mrs. Howard Graves and Misses Lois and Louise Smith of Lewiston. Mrs. John Brown of Moscow, sister of the groom, had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Follett, a native of Newberry, Mich., came to Lewiston a year ago with her parents who have a home in the Lewiston Orchards. After graduating from the Newberry high school she attended the Patricia Stevens finishing school in Detroit. The groom graduated from Genesee high school and from the University of Idaho with the class of 1950. His social fraternity at the university of Idaho was Phi Delta Theta.

After a wedding trip to Yellowstone Park the couple will make their home in Lewiston, where both are employed by Montgomery Ward & Company. Mrs. Follett for going away wore a cream-colored faille suit with light brown accessories.

Arriving for the wedding from Newberry, Mich., were Miss Lillian Johnson, aunt of the bride; Miss Joyce Johnson, a cousin, and Miss Gertrude Brown, a family friend. Others from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Coeur d'Alene, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long and Joyce Long of Bozeman, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and children, Jonnie and Steve, and Jim Hammond, Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Isaman, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fisher and son, David, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall, Mrs. Wendell Hersey, Lois and Louise Smith, Bob Zellner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graves, Terry Shaefer, Dan Wilson and Norman O'Donnell, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hartman, Miss Marjorie Hartman, George Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. Reed Klapp, Spokane, and Hal Mayes of Kellogg.

Closing For July Fourth

Genesee will observe a quiet and peaceful July Fourth. There is no observance here, with practically all places of business planning to close.

SECOND ANNUAL TEA

The second annual tea sponsored by the Community Church Guild was given Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors with about a hundred attending. The room was beautifully decorated with baskets and vases of flowers. On the program were Mary Currin and Glenna Brown, singing two duets, accompanied by Irene Carbuhn; Rae Aherin with two readings, and under the direction of Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Alice Jain, Phyllis Wilson, Dawn Heinrich, Norma Jean Moser and Arliss Isaksen sang two numbers, accompany by Irene Carbuhn. Mrs. Elvon Hampton, program chairman, read a poem and also read a prayer at the close of the program. Pouring during the refreshment hour were Mrs. Ben Pleiman and Mrs. S. U. Lough.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather over the week end was all one could ask for, with warm showers and sunshine to benefit the crops, but a few picnic parties had to be postponed on account of showers. Days are warmer now too. Next week we celebrate the grand and glorious again, commemorating the time we received our independence from England. God hasten the day when we receive our independence from Stalin and his oppression. In our day armies, navies and police forces seem necessary to restrain disturbers of the peace, but they are not the final answer. These are days of crisis when the Christian way of life is threatened by way that denies God. In such an hour the grave and perplexing problems before us will not be solved by rivalry among us for material gain or in striving for selfish advantage. Only by exerting the power of all moral and spiritual resources, can nations strengthen themselves for peace and freedom. Nations are only well established when founded on the rock of faith in God. He blesses and makes a blessing of any nation established upon the Christian ideals of the sacredness of the individual, the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God. He will arm us for loyal and devoted service in the cause of peace and Christian brotherhood, based on right, justice and tolerance.

Do you remember the time when mother worked for days to make new ruffly dresses and shirts for the Fourth of July picnic and the lunch basket was packed to the brim with fried chicken, pie, etc, and you started off about daylight so you could get to the celebration in time for the parade and hear the patriotic speeches? The band's played, scaring the horses and dogs, and you had plenty of firecrackers at two packages for a nickel, and once in a while somebody would put one under a tin can to make a loud noise. You had bunting draped around the wagon or hack bed and maybe a small flag in the bridle of the horse's ear. You came home tired but happy in the evening. You had been somewhere. Remember? How times do change. Those were the days of real sport but a safe and sane 4th of July, however.

Examination Is Slated For Local Postmaster

An open competitive examination to fill the vacancy in the position of postmaster at Genesee has been announced by the U. S. Civil Service Commission at the request of the postmaster general.

In order to be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of, or owe allegiance to, the United States must have actually resided within the delivery of the post office for which the examination is held, or within the city or town where such office is situated, for at least one year immediately preceding the date fixed for the close of receipt of applications; must be in good physical condition; and must be within the prescribed age limits. The competition is open to both men and women.

Under the terms of an Act of Congress, approved June 25, 1938, the Civil Service Commission will certify the names of the highest three qualified eligibles to the postmaster general who shall thereupon submit the name of the one selected to the president for nomination. Confirmation by the senate is the final action.

Applicants will be required to assemble in an examination room for written tests, and will also be rated on their education, business or professional experience, general qualifications and suitability. The Civil-Service Commission will make an impartial inquiry among representative patrons of the office, both men and women, concerning the experience, ability, and character of each applicant, and the evidence thus secured will be considered in determining the ratings to be assigned to the applicants. The Commission is not interested in the political, religious, or fraternal affiliations of any applicant.

Full information and application forms may be obtained at the post office at Genesee, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Applications must be on file in the office of the Commission at Washington D. C., not later than the closing date specified, which is July 19, 1951.

Depositing an application in the mail by the closing date is not sufficient to meet the date of filing; the application must actually be received by the Commission on or before the closing date specified. An applicant claiming veteran preference should obtain Form 14, execute same in full, and submit it with his application.

Applicants who failed to attain eligibility in a previous examination announced for the present vacancy must submit a new application if they desire to compete in the new examination. However, if they submitted a Physical Fitness Form 13 with their application for the previous examination, they need not submit a new Form 13 at this time with thier new application.

Showers Benefit Crops Delay Hay Operations

Warm weather last week and early this week was ideal for haying, and tended to hasten maturity of small grain crops, as well as peas. Showers which came Tuesday evening cooled off the weather for July 4, and cloudy skies continue to threaten additional showers on Thursday. Peas which had tapered off blooming are being benefited by the cooler moist weather, with a bumper crop promised, much in contrast to the darker days when frost settled down on many acres of the Palouse country. A complete revision is necessary in crop prospects for the Genesee area, where all grains are looking exceptionally fine. There was sufficient moisture to assure all crops, but the added moisture will increase yields. There are some thin stands of fall grain but there are as many fields where stands are heavy, with some lodging noticeable. Peas hit by frost are promising a fair yield, and with the current cool temperatures the new shoots will undoubtedly make a fair crop. The pea crop in general will be above normal in the Genesee area, and there will be some surprising wheat yields. Barley is making splendid growth after heading, and is in the stage this week to be greatly benefited by moisture.

Haying is one farm operation delayed by rain. A guess is that about half of the hay has been secured by baling and chopping, but there appears to be a sizeable acreage which may be damaged. The hay crop this season was not the best seen, owing to the dry early spring weather, but it is now likely a second crop may be worth cutting and will be of a much better grade.

Thor Gilge started combining wheat on the Herman Nordby land near Lewiston the first of the week. Grain is just beginning to turn on the higher land where spring wheat is making rapid progress and fall grain is very promising.

Former Pastor Of St. John's Honored At Sunday Service

Rev. A. F. Wolff, pastor of St. John Lutheran church at Genesee for 24 years was honored Sunday at Trinity Lutheran church, Lewiston. The occasion was the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Art Rosenau, Mrs. Mary Herman, Louis Herman and Stanley Rosenau. Rev. Cronrath, pastor of St. John's conveyed greetings from the Genesee church, where Rev. Wolff was so active and became responsible for erection of the present fine brick edifice.

Greetings were read from Emanuel Lutheran church, Cornelius, Ore., and Immanuel Lutheran church, Carthage, Ill. Rev. Wolff left Genesee for Chehalis, Wash., and from St. Paul's Lutheran church there, several members of the parish brought greetings.. Dr. S. C. Siefkes of Portland, president of the Northwestern District of the American Lutheran church presented greetings.

Following the service friends and fellow pastors went to Beachview Park at Clarkston for a picnic dinner.

Lunch Center Improvements To Be Done By Local Firms

Trustees of Genesee Joint School District 282 awarded contracts for improvements of the school lunch center Saturday evening. The contract for reroofing the building went to Chas. Schooler and John Hickman, and will include some remodeling. The building now has numerous ridges and gutters, and by lengthening the roof deck some of the gutters which caught and held falling leaves and dust will be removed. The deck will be covered with 28-guage galvanized iron with joints riveted and soldered. The roof will be reshingled completely, with work to start as soon as the weather permits.

The Genesee Paint Shop has been awarded the contract for repainting the building and staining the roof.

H. B. Jones Visits Daughters At Seattle And San Francisco

H. B. Jones, who left June 10 for Seattle and San Francisco to visit his daughters and husbands, returned Friday. At Seattle he visited Mrs. Joe Cotroneo, and husband. One of the interesting visits in Seattle was that made aboard the yacht, "Fantome," which is moored in Portage Bay. The ex "Flying Cloud" was brought from England in 1939 to explore the American coast, carrying its owner, Hon. A. E. Guinness and a party of guests for the dedication by the King and Queen of the big bridge at Vancouver. After a cruise to Alaska the owner returned to England, leaving the ship in Seattle, expecting to return for a cruise of the South Seas. Outbreak of World War II, however, upset these plans. Her captain returned to join the British navy, leaving the ship in care of her chief engineer. Mr. Guinness died in Ireland in 1949 and the ship is now owned by Americans.

The ship was built in 1927 at Leghorn ,Italy, designed on the lines of an old privateer and named the "Flying Cloud." It had small auxiliary engines and later acquired heavier engines. The "Fantome" is 257 feet from end of bowsprit to taffrail, and 38 feet wide, with a gross tonnage of 1260.83. It had a speed of 11 knots without sails and 11.5 knots with engines plus sail. It required a crew of 34 men. Mr. Jones said the ship is luxuriously outfitted, and may be visited by anyone interested.

At San Francisco Mr. Jones visited his daughter, Mrs. Jack Smith and husband, and found time to call at the T. H. Herman home at Redwood City. San Francisco, with its Chinatown and many unusual places was of much interest to him. Mrs. Smith who will teach home economics at San Mateo schools this fall, is now employed at Macy's in San Francisco. Her assignment is to conduct people from foreign lands through the store who wish to make extensive purchases. All seem to have plenty money and make enormous purchases.

The Winchester Mystery House in Santa Clara Valley, 4 miles west of San Jose, was considered the oddest structure ever seen. The Mystery House, said to be the world's largest and oddest dwelling, was planned and built by the late Sarah L. Winchester (of Winchester rifle fame.) It was under construction for 36 years. The builder believed she should continue as long as she lived to add rooms, which would insure her spiritual wellbeing. Millions of dollars have been expended, with no thought given to costs of materials and workmanship. Some windows are valued at $1000 each, and the front entrance doors are said to cost $2000. The main building and outbuildings cover six acres. There are 160 rooms and thousands of doors and windows. Three elevators, 40 stairways (most having 13 steps), 47 fireplaces, blind stairways, and stairs that go nowheres, make necessary the use of a guide. There are blind chimneys, hundreds of closets, some of which open onto blank walls, and some into space goofy stairways, floors laid with trap doors, secret passages and so forth. This oddity may be visited any day from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

While Mr. Jones was away Mrs. Mae Heid of Spokane visited at the ranch with Mrs. Jones.

Marine Corps Changes Mind Maurice Hasfurther To Wed

Sgt. Maurice Hasfurther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther, recently returned from Korea, planned his marriage to Virginia Nan Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Leander Johann, for Sunday, July 8 at Genesee. Wedding invitations were obtained, and then on June 3, the Marine Corps came up with orders rescinding leaves for all of its men at Pendleton. Word was relayed to Mr. and Mrs. Hasfurther, who proceeded to cancel arrangements for the wedding on July 8. Thursday of last week the prospective groom notified his parents that he had been granted a special leave, so the wedding will take place Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's church, Genesee. For a time the families concerned wondered if orders were firm. No change yet.

Genesee Defeats Troy In Free-Scoring Game

Twenty-five runs were scored in the Genesee-Troy ball game played at Troy Sunday afternoon, with Genesee winning 15-10 in a torrid race meet well punctured by base hits, a few extra-base blows, but a minimum of errors. Rabdau, who went eight frames for Genesee, gave up 11 hits to the Trojans. Jim Bennett relieved, with Bob Bennett going behind the bat. Bennett allowed three hits. Driscoll and Powell shared the pitching for Troy, both being responsible for 17 Genesee hits.

Genesee, playing short-handed used Lefty Emmett in left field, and Dan Pederson at second, both of whom entered the hit and run column.

Rabdau, who shifted out to right field in the last of the eighth after turning the pitching over to Bennett, was top hitter for both clubs. He got four-for-four.

Genesee uncorked its scoring attack in the opening frame, with three hits and a like number of runs, and was ahead 4-0 until the last of the fourth, when Troy picked up three runs. Genesee's big inning was the sixth when six runs were marked up, with Rosenau poling out a homer to clean up the base paths. Troy found its strength again in the sixth and ninth frames, scoring three runs in both innings, but fell five short of knotting up the count.

436 Genesee People Appear For Chest X-Ray Pictures

Four hundred thirty-six people visited the Idaho Chest X-ray mobile unit while it was at Genesee Monday and Tuesday. Two hundred ninety-three registered the first day and one hundred forty-three the second day. Owing to the Fourth of July holiday with a number of people planning to be away starting Sunday, it was estimated that about 150 passed thru the unit while it was in Lewiston. While the unit was in Lewiston others found it more convenient to visit the unit, desiring to make use of the free service should they not be able to come to Genesee July 2 and 3.

Wilson Esser, chairman of the local committee to have people become familiar with the program of the Idaho Tuberculosis Association campaign, was advised that the visitation here and those who stopped at the unit at Lewiston and giving Genesee as their address was highly satisfactory. The unit remained here over the Fourth and moved to Moscow Thursday.

Those assisting in the two-day visit of the mobile unit, and acting as typists and receptionists were Misses Ann Nilsson, Jean Luedke, Joyce Danielson, Betty Scharnhorst, Marianne Rabdau, Arliss Isaksen, Henrietta Bielenberg and Marjorie Linehan and Mrs. Jack Knopes, Mrs. Gene Woodruff, Mrs. H. E. Bennett and Mrs. Wilson Esser.

Film used for the x-rays are 70 millimeters wide. It is sent to Boise for processing. The negative passes through an enlarger for study, and within a few weeks, three at the most, a confidential report is returned to each person visiting the unit.

Peter A. and Paul G. Zenner, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peter Zenner of the Craigmont-Nezperce area, and former residents of this community are now stationed in Germany. A letter from the two young men received Tuesday, reads:

"Dear Pete:

"Thought I would drop you a line and let you know my new address. My brother and I got to Germany this week. (The letter was dated June 27). Giessen, where we are stationed, was a German air base during the last war. This base was hit pretty bad, so the buildings we are in are all new brick ones, and really are nice. There sure are a lot of bomber-out parts in these towns yet. All of the buildings are either all broken up, semi-patched up or real nice new ones.

"Really interesting over here. I suppose we will be here for quite a while, so might get a chance to see some of the other nearby countries.

"My new address is: Pvt. Paul G. Zenner US 56089832, 22nd Q. M. Sub. Sup. Co., APO 169, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y."

Glenna Gae Brown And Edward Semmes Wed

The Genesee Community church was the setting Saturday evening at 8 for the double-ring wedding ceremony which united Miss Glenna Gae Brown and Edward (Ted) Semmes. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Brown, Sr., and the groom is the son of Mrs. George Gehrke. Rev. Melford Knight officiated at the candlelight service. Baskets of blue delphiniums and candelabra provided the floral setting.

Lighting the candles were the Misses Mary Currin and Carol Osmundson. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Elvon Hampton and she accompanied Miss Shirley Danielson whose solo selections were: "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the service, and "The Lord's Prayer" following.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta brocade, fashioned with a fitted bodice and cap sleeves. The overskirt of nylon net matched the net of her shoulder-length veil. The veil fell in folds from a small collete trimmed with tiny forget-me-nots. She carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Wayne Hickman, of Lewiston, and the bridesmaid was Mary Alice Lorang. Both wore ballerina-length dresses, the former being in orchid cotton dimity and the latter in pale green cotton dimity. Mrs. Hickman's flowers were yellow carnations and Miss Lorang's, pink carnations. Candlelighters, Miss Currin and Miss Osmundson, wore yellow cotton dimity, their dresses being similar in design to that of the honor attendants.

Lawrence Brown, Jr., brother of the bride, of Spokane, was best man, and ushers were Ray Stout and Lloyd Wilson.

Mrs. Brown chose a navy blue suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was red rosebuds and white carnations. Mrs. Gehrke's dress was a blue and white printed silk crepe complemented with white accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the church parlors where Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Gehrke and attendants received the many guests and the bridal couple were extended congratulations.

The wedding cake, first cut by the couple, was three-tiered, and topped with a bridal ornament of two doves supporting wedding bells. The linen-covered refreshments table was decorated with summer flowers and lighted candles. Serving the cake were Janet Flomer and Iris Wilson and pouring were Betty Scharnhorst and Mary Ann Evans. Joyce Danielson was in charge of the guest book.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a suit of biege color with white accessories, and her wedding orchid as a corsage.

Mrs. Semmes is a graduate of Genesee high school with the class of 1951, and among the guests at her wedding were most of her classmates, who had reserved seats for the ceremony. The bridegroom attended Genesee high school, then entered the navy to serve for over three years, and where he completed studies of required high school work. He is employed by the Prairie Flour Mill Company of Lewiston. Mr. and Mrs. Semmes are making their home at apartments at the Hugo Gehrke home.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Jr., and children, Larry, Lowell, Lynne and Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidt, Frank Dyche, Mrs. Caroline Cameron and Mrs. Kate Armstrong, all of Spokane; Celia Dyche of Pomeroy; Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Hersey, Mrs. Earl Gehrke and children, Delmar and Jean, and Mrs. Wayne Hickman of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. L. Eick of Tekoa; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pollock of Sunset, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Archibald, James and Janis Archibald of Troy, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sisty of Moscow.

Home-town people swarmed into Boise and when arriving at Nezperce she was met by a police escort, the high school band and practically everyone in the community. They paraded her through the streets, presented her with flowers, and after she pleased the large crowd with her singing of "Idaho" she proceeded to her farm home.

Showers Benefit Crops Delay Hay Operations

Warm weather last week and early this week was ideal for haying, and tended to hasten maturity of small grain crops, as well as peas. Showers which came Tuesday evening cooled off the weather for July 4, and cloudy skies continue to threaten additional showers on Thursday. Peas which had tapered off blooming are being benefited by the cooler moist weather, with a bumper crop promised, much in contrast to the darker days when frost settled down on many acres of the Palouse country. A complete revision is necessary in crop prospects for the Genesee area, where all grains are looking exceptionally fine. There was sufficient moisture to assure all crops, but the added moisture will increase yields. There are some thin stands of fall grain but there are as many fields where stands are heavy, with some lodging noticeable. Peas hit by frost are promising a fair yield, and with the current cool temperatures the new shoots will undoubtedly make a fair crop. The pea crop in general will be above normal in the Genesee area, and there will be some surprising wheat yields. Barley is making splendid growth after heading, and is in the stage this week to be greatly benefited by moisture.

Haying is one farm operation delayed by rain. A guess is that about half of the hay has been secured by baling and chopping, but there appears to be a sizeable acreage which may be damaged. The hay crop this season was not the best seen, owing to the dry early spring weather, but it is now likely a second crop may be worth cutting and will be of a much better grade.

Thor Gilge started combining wheat on the Herman Nordby land near Lewiston the first of the week. Grain is just beginning to turn on the higher land where spring wheat is making rapid progress and fall grain is very promising.

H. B. Jones Visits Daughters At Seattle And San Francisco

H. B. Jones, who left June 10 for Seattle and San Francisco to visit his daughters and husbands, returned Friday. At Seattle he visited Mrs. Joe Cotroneo, and husband. One of the interesting visits in Seattle was that made aboard the yacht, "Fantome," which is moored in Portage Bay. The ex "Flying Cloud" was brought from England in 1939 to explore the American coast, carrying its owner, Hon. A. E. Guinness and a party of guests for the dedication by the King and Queen of the big bridge at Vancouver. After a cruise to Alaska the owner returned to England, leaving the ship in Seattle, expecting to return for a cruise of the South Seas. Outbreak of World War II, however, upset these plans. Her captain returned to join the British navy, leaving the ship in care of her chief engineer. Mr. Guinness died in Ireland in 1949 and the ship is now owned by Americans.

The ship was built in 1927 at Leghorn ,Italy, designed on the lines of an old privateer and named the "Flying Cloud." It had small auxiliary engines and later acquired heavier engines. The "Fantome" is 257 feet from end of bowsprit to taffrail, and 38 feet wide, with a gross tonnage of 1260.83. It had a speed of 11 knots without sails and 11.5 knots with engines plus sail. It required a crew of 34 men. Mr. Jones said the ship is luxuriously outfitted, and may be visited by anyone interested.

At San Francisco Mr. Jones visited his daughter, Mrs. Jack Smith and husband, and found time to call at the T. H. Herman home at Redwood City. San Francisco, with its Chinatown and many unusual places was of much interest to him. Mrs. Smith who will teach home economics at San Mateo schools this fall, is now employed at Macy's in San Francisco. Her assignment is to conduct people from foreign lands through the store who wish to make extensive purchases. All seem to have plenty money and make enormous purchases.

The Winchester Mystery House in Santa Clara Valley, 4 miles west of San Jose, was considered the oddest structure ever seen. The Mystery House, said to be the world's largest and oddest dwelling, was planned and built by the late Sarah L. Winchester (of Winchester rifle fame.) It was under construction for 36 years. The builder believed she should continue as long as she lived to add rooms, which would insure her spiritual well-being. Millions of dollars have been expended, with no thought given to costs of materials and workmanship. Some windows are valued at $1000 each, and the front entrance doors are said to cost $2000. The main building and outbuildings cover six acres. There are 160 rooms and thousands of doors and windows. Three elevators, 40 stairways (most having 13 steps), 47 fireplaces, blind stairways, and stairs that go nowheres, make necessary the use of a guide. There are blind chimneys, hundreds of closets, some of which open onto blank walls, and some into space goofy stairways, floors laid with trap doors, secret passages and so forth. This oddity may be visited any day from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

While Mr. Jones was away Mrs. Mae Heid of Spokane visited at the ranch with Mrs. Jones.

Marine Corps Changes Mind Maurice Hasfurther To Wed

Sgt. Maurice Hasfurther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther, recently returned from Korea, planned his marriage to Virginia Nan Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Leander Johann, for Sunday, July 8 at Genesee. Wedding invitations were obtained, and then on June 3, the Marine Corps came up with orders rescinding leaves for all of its men at Pendleton. Word was relayed to Mr. and Mrs. Hasfurther, who proceeded to cancel arrangements for the wedding on July 8. Thursday of last week the prospective groom notified his parents that he had been granted a special leave, so the wedding will take place Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's church, Genesee. For a time the families concerned wondered if orders were firm. No change yet.

Genesee Defeats Troy In Free-Scoring Game

Twenty-five runs were scored in the Genesee-Troy ball game played at Troy Sunday afternoon, with Genesee winning 15-10 in a torrid race meet well punctured by base hits, a few extra-base blows, but a minimum of errors. Rabdau, who went eight frames for Genesee, gave up 11 hits to the Trojans. Jim Bennett relieved, with Bob Bennett going behind the bat. Bennett allowed three hits. Driscoll and Powell shared the pitching for Troy, both being responsible for 17 Genesee hits.

Genesee, playing short-handed used Lefty Emmett in left field, and Dan Pederson at second, both of whom entered the hit and run column.

Rabdau, who shifted out to right field in the last of the eighth after turning the pitching over to Bennett, was top hitter for both clubs. He got four-for-four.

Genesee uncorked its scoring attack in the opening frame, with three hits and a like number of runs, and was ahead 4-0 until the last of the fourth, when Troy picked up three runs. Genesee's big inning was the sixth when six runs were marked up, with Rosenau poling out a homer to clean up the base paths. Troy found its strength again in the sixth and ninth frames, scoring three runs in both innings, but fell five short of knotting up the count.

436 Genesee People Appear For Chest X-Ray Pictures

Four hundred thirty-six people visited the Idaho Chest X-ray mobile unit while it was at Genesee Monday and Tuesday. Two hundred ninety-three registered the first day and one hundred forty-three the second day. Owing to the Fourth of July holiday with a number of people planning to be away starting Sunday, it was estimated that about 150 passed thru the unit while it was in Lewiston. While the unit was in Lewiston others found it more convenient to visit the unit, desiring to make use of the free service should they not be able to come to Genesee July 2 and 3.

Wilson Esser, chairman of the local committee to have people become familiar with the program of the Idaho Tuberculosis Association campaign, was advised that the visitation here and those who stopped at the unit at Lewiston and giving Genesee as their address was highly satisfactory. The unit remained here over the Fourth and moved to Moscow Thursday.

Those assisting in the two-day visit of the mobile unit, and acting as typists and receptionists were Misses Ann Nilsson, Jean Luedke, Joyce Danielson, Betty Scharnhorst, Marianne Rabdau, Arliss Isaksen, Henrietta Bielenberg and Marjorie Linehan and Mrs. Jack Knopes, Mrs. Gene Woodruff, Mrs. H. E. Bennett and Mrs. Wilson Esser.

Film used for the x-rays are 70 millimeters wide. It is sent to Boise for processing. The negative passes through an enlarger for study, and within a few weeks, three at the most, a confidential report is returned to each person visiting the unit.

Giessen, where we are stationed, was a German air base during the last war. This base was hit pretty bad, so the buildings we are in are all new brick ones, and really are nice. There sure are a lot of bomber-out parts in these towns yet. All of the buildings are either all broken up, semi-patched up or real nice new ones.

"Really interesting over here. I suppose we will be here for quite a while, so might get a chance to see some of the other nearby countries.

"My new address is: Pvt. Paul G. Zenner US 56089832, 22nd Q. M. Sub. Sup. Co., APO 169, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y."

Glenna Gae Brown And Edward Semmes Wed

The Genesee Community church was the setting Saturday evening at 8 for the double-ring wedding ceremony which united Miss Glenna Gae Brown and Edward (Ted) Semmes. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Brown, Sr., and the groom is the son of Mrs. George Gehrke. Rev. Melford Knight officiated at the candlelight service. Baskets of blue delphiniums and candelabra provided the floral setting.

Lighting the candles were the Misses Mary Currin and Carol Osmundson. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Elvon Hampton and she accompanied Miss Shirley Danielson whose solo selections were: "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the service, and "The Lord's Prayer" following.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta brocade, fashioned with a fitted bodice and cap sleeves. The overskirt of nylon net matched the net of her shoulder-length veil. The veil fell in folds from a small collete trimmed with tiny forget-me-nots. She carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Wayne Hickman, of Lewiston, and the bridesmaid was Mary Alice Lorang. Both wore ballerina-length dresses, the former being in orchid cotton dimity and the latter in pale green cotton dimity. Mrs. Hickman's flowers were yellow carnations and Miss Lorang's, pink carnations. Candlelighters, Miss Currin and Miss Osmundson, wore yellow cotton dimity, their dresses being similar in design to that of the honor attendants.

Lawrence Brown, Jr., brother of the bride, of Spokane, was best man, and ushers were Ray Stout and Lloyd Wilson.

Mrs. Brown chose a navy blue suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was red rosebuds and white carnations. Mrs. Gehrke's dress was a blue and white printed silk crepe complemented with white accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the church parlors where Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Gehrke and attendants received the many guests and the bridal couple were extended congratulations.

The wedding cake, first cut by the couple, was three-tiered, and topped with a bridal ornament of two doves supporting wedding bells. The linen-covered refreshments table was decorated with summer flowers and lighted candles. Serving the cake were Janet Flomer and Iris Wilson and pouring were Betty Scharnhorst and Mary Ann Evans. Joyce Danielson was in charge of the guest book.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a suit of biege color with white accessories, and her wedding orchid as a corsage.

Mrs. Semmes is a graduate of Genesee high school with the class of 1951, and among the guests at her wedding were most of her classmates, who had reserved seats for the ceremony. The bridegroom attended Genesee high school, then entered the navy to serve for over three years, and where he completed studies of required high school work. He is employed by the Prairie Flour Mill Company of Lewiston. Mr. and Mrs. Semmes are making their home at apartments at the Hugo Gehrke home.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Jr., and children, Larry, Lowell, Lynne and Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidt, Frank Dyche, Mrs. Caroline Cameron and Mrs. Kate Armstrong, all of Spokane; Celia Dyche of Pomeroy; Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Hersey, Mrs. Earl Gehrke and children, Delmar and Jean, and Mrs. Wayne Hickman of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. L. Home-town people swarmed into Boise and when arriving at Nezperce she was met by a police escort, the high school band and practically everyone in the community. They paraded her through the streets, presented her with flowers, and after she pleased the large crowd with her singing of "Idaho" she proceeded to her farm home.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have been having fine, warmer haying weather and much of it is being put up without any rain so far. Pickup balers make the work much easier than in former years. It begins to look like Russia is trying to play us for the sucker we have been too many times, but maybe she won't find quite as easy picking as she has sometimes in the past few years. At least it looks like we would learn not to be such saps. Quite a number from the Valley attended the Krossroad Kapers benefit show for the firemen's fund Thursday and Friday in Genesee. We heard that two people were discussing a recent wedding. One said, "How did the wedding go off?" The other said, "Fine, until the minister asked the bride if she would promise to obey." Then she said, "Do you think I'm crazy?" and the bridegroom in a dazed sort of way, replied, "I do."—Eastern Progress.

Ann Lou Luedke, accompanied by Shirley Danielson, sang "My Cathedral." Mrs. Victor Danielson gave an interesting report on the recent Rocky Mountain District convention held in Spokane. At the business meeting it was decided to give cash donations instead of having a food sale. The next meeting is to be a pickup lunch by Group No. 1. Guests were Mmes. Kenneth Jensen, Sam Jensen, Clarence Danielson, Gilmore Iverson, Leslie Lyons, and Harry Martin, and Marjorie Hatton, Ann Lou Luedke and Shirley Danielson. Dick Woodley called at Wedin's Sunday evening.

Not Only The Bride Blushes

Here are some rib-ticklers our society department would like to pass on to you, states the Boise Statesman: We've been collecting them for a long time, gleaning them from the hasty scrawls of harrased mothers who come in to our office to fill out wedding questionnaires when their daughters are brides . . . and gleaned also, we blush to say, from our own mistakes.

First, about the leading lady:

"The bride wore a flowing veil of pail pink. She became the bridge of John Jones. Her bouquet was of hyacinth booms. She carried a beat arrangement of roses. Her gown had seed pea trim and illusion veil. She carried an orchard. Hed gown was tra-

10 SECONDS TO LIVE

He pushed his sleeve back, held his wrist close to the lighted speedometer, squinted to read the time. A little after nine. Five, ten minutes after. Ought to be home in half an hour.

If he'd known he had only ten seconds to live, he might have checked the time more closely. He might have done several things differntly.

Ten seconds to live. He massaged his eyes with thumb and middle finger, trying to rub out some of the sand.

Nine second to live. He'd driven almost eight hours since lunch, and was beginning to feel it.

Eight seconds to live. Lousy driving in the rain. Light from your headlights just seem to soak in along with the water.

Seven seconds to live. Probably need a new windshield wiper blade. Old one just spreads the water around instead of wiping clean. Get one tomorrow, or next time it rains.

Six seconds to live. Somebody threw a cigarette out of an oncoming car. The red glow dissolved almost before it hit the pavement.

Five seconds to live. He planted his heels on the floorboard, squirmed back in the seat, trying for comfort.

Four seconds to live. At 60 miles an hour, a car covers 88 feet of pavement every second. Four seconds, 352 feet.

Three seconds to live. Something looked wrong, through the blurry windshield. A tentative dab at the brake stiffened into desperate pressure as he made out an old, unlighted, slow-moving truck ahead.

Two seconds to live. Panic moved in. Turn to the left. No, car coming. Headlights too close. Can't make it. Turn to the right.

One second to live. Horror numbed everything into slow motion. He was floating right into the near corner of the truck bed. He opened his mouth to scream.

No Seconds To Live . . .

It's happened to lots of people; maybe not just that way, but similarly. Drive too long, eyes get tired reactions slow down. Rain, darkness, a windshield that's hard to see through. Driving too fast. A car or a truck ahead that you can't see. It's happened to lots of folks.

It Could Happen To You!

The Cow That Can't "Run Dry"

Sandy Johnson showed me his Jersey cows last week. It was a warm day and they we're all under the trees near a watering trough.

And darned if one cow wasn't pumping water into the trough! It's a fact—she'd raise the pump handle with her nose, and use her throat to push it down again.

"That's Mabel," Sandy explained as she moved away. "Sometimes they drink that trough dry, and she's learned how to fill it again. But she doesn't know her own strength—turns the place into a swamp if we don't watch her."

From where I sit, Mabel isn't the only one who sometimes doesn't know where to stop. For instance, people often carry personal opinions too far—like the person who wants everyone to accept his choice of political parties, or ball-players . . . or beverages. I prefer a glass of beer with my meals. I know that a lot of other people prefer milk. But nobody ought to insist on "herding" others around to his way of thinking.

Returned Korean Vet Married Here Sunday

Miss Virginia Nan Thompson, the daughter of Mrs. Leander Johann, became the bride of Sgt. Maurice A. Hasfurther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hasfurther, on Sunday, July 8. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. B. J. McBride, at St. Mary's Catholic church, before an altar decorated with garden flowers. Acolytes were David and Urban Hasfurther.

Occasional music before the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were played by Miss Catherine Baldus, organist. She also accompanied Mrs. James Rabdau, who sang Schubert's "Ave Maria."

Dawn and Diane Hasfurther, twin sisters of the groom, were flower girls. They wore floor-length dresses of blue dotted Swiss and carried crepe-paper baskets filled with rose petals, which they scattered in the path of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father Johann, wore a gown of white bridal satin. Her fingertip veil of silk net fell from a tiara of tiny seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis, tied with white satin streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Norma Lee Hall, who wore a floor-length gown of rose color. The bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Storm of Lewiston and Miss Kaye Thompson of Tucson, Ariz., the bride's sister, wore blue and orchid, respectively. The attendants all carried colonial nosegays to match their dresses.

The groom wore dress blues of the U. S. Marines, and had as his best man, Willis Moser. Ushers were Bud Nichols of Lewiston, cousin of the bride, and Glen Baumgartner.

After the wedding the newlyweds received the congratulations of friends and relatives at the American Legion Memorial Building where the reception was held. The room was decorated with flowers and the lace-covered bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. On either side were lighted candles. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, it was served by Mrs. Wm. Trent of Asotin, aunt of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Ed Hasfurther and Mrs. Andrew Grieser, aunt and cousin of the groom, respectively. Others assisting in serving were Mrs. Andrew Zehner, Mrs. Florent Moser and Mrs. Frank Hoorman. Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Bud Nichols and Mrs. Tom Nichols of Lewiston, aunts of the bride. The guest book was in charge of Miss Garnita Campbell and Miss Jackie Murock of Lewiston.

For traveling the new bride chose a white wool suit and white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses and white stephanotis from her wedding bouquet. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hasfurther will return to Genesee, and after July 21 will be at home near Camp Pendleton, Calif., where the groom is stationed. The groom, who enlisted in the Marines in November, 1948, was sent overseas in July, 1950. Following service in Korea, he was returned to the States in March of this year and spent a month at home before reporting to Camp Pendleton. His bride is a graduate of Lewiston high school with the class of 1951.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nichols, Mrs. Ida Thompson, Mrs. Mary Terhaar, Mrs. Doris Shaw, Mrs. Gene Westfall, Mrs. Marie Storm, La-Von and Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Nichols and Sharon, Mrs. Virgie Nichols, Mrs. Bill Charpentier, Miss Eleanor Storm, Miss Jackie Murock and Miss Garnita Campbell, all of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Trent of Asotin; Mr. and Mrs. Zack Scharbach of Clarkston, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. National Foundation Polio Pointers Listed

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis calls attention to its incidence in the United States which is drawing closer week by week. Experience has taught that this is the season to take a few simple precautions while at the same time avoiding alarm.

On behalf of the local county chapter and National Foundation The News prints the following pointers if polio comes:

Do allow children to play with friends they have been with right along. Keep them away from new people, especially in the close daily living of a home.

Do wash hands carefully before eating and always after using the toilet—especially important when polio is around. Also keep food clean and covered.

Do watch for signs of sickness, such as headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, sore muscles, stiff neck or back, extreme tiredness or nervousness, trouble in breathing or swallowing.

Do put a sick person to bed at once, away from others, and call the doctor. Quick action may lessen crippling.

Do telephone your local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, if you need help. Locate through telephone book or health department. No patient need go without care for lack of money. Your chapter will pay what you cannot afford.

Do remember—at least half of all polio cases patients get well without any crippling.

If polio comes:

Don't get over-tired by hard play, exercise, work or travel. This means men, women or children.

Don't get chilled. Don't bathe or swim long in cold water, or sit around in wet clothes.

Dont' have mouth or throat operations during a polio outbreak.

Don't use another person's towels, dishes, tableware or the like.

Don't take children to places where there is polio. Ask your health department.

Don't take your child out of camp or playground, where there is good health supervision.

Farm Shop Roof Takes Fire Damage To Building Slight

Fire-fighting equipment of the Genesee Rural Fire District answered an alarm Tuesday evening, about 7:30, to the place now farmed by Fred Magee, which is the former W. H. Rosenau place now owned by Fred Shirrod. Fred and Junior Magee had been burning some rubbish and were certain the fire had been extinguished. While eating their evening meal the younger Magee noticed smoke issuing from the roof of the machine shop on the farm, and immediately after giving the alarm, Junior, his father and mother formed a bucket brigade. They were able by strenuous effort to hold the blaze under control. When the fire department arrived the blaze was promptly extinguished with water.

It was presumed some sparks were carried onto the shingled roof by a sudden gust of wind, perhaps like a small whirlwind, and started the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Magee wish to extend their thanks to members of the fire department who answered their summons and put out the blaze which could very have gone out of control. A considerable quantity of gasoline, tractor fuel and grease is kept in the machine shop, and according to those at the fire the temperature in the building was near the flash point.

Two-Way Four-Bottom Plow Now In Use At Holben Farm

Modern farming practices, such as strip cropping, employed extensively at the Marion Holben ranch, demands special equipment. One of the latest plows in this locality, a four-bottom two-way gang plow, has been made by Wayne Roach for Holben, and is now being given trials. Throwing the soil uphill is the express purpose of the newly-designed plow, which has four 16-inch right-hand bottoms and the same number of left-hand bottoms. Framework of the implement is two 4-inch angle irons, electrically welded to form a 4-inch square hollow tube. The plow beams are also made of 4-inch angle iron, welded, and the uprights or shanks are 2x4-inch angle iron, welded.

A hydraulic cylinder is employed to raise and lower the plow, while a second hydraulic jack is used to revolve the plow by a half turn and reverse. Two-way gang plows are manufactured elsewhere, but the Holben plow has an advantage, that of the furrow wheel changing position to correspond with the set of bottoms in use. In other words, the land wheel moves backward and forward to become the furrow wheel when the plow is revolved.

The plow was used Wednesday afternoon to turn under alfalfa ground, and according to Holben the implement is of lighter draft than expected. With the use of 8 sets of bottoms, extra equipment for revolving the bottoms and that designed to raise and lower the bottoms, makes a piece of equipment much heavier than the convential plow. It is mounted on two rubber-tired wheels, with a normal caster wheel behind, or rather two rear caster wheels, for each direction the plow travels when in use.

The two-way gang plow, except for the bottoms, hydraulic equipment and wheels was built entirely at the Roach machine shop.

Crops Prospects Good Harvest Later In 1951

Warmer weather following beneficial rains has dispelled the gloom which hung temporarily over the Palouse country earlier in the growing season. With late winter weather taking a heavy toll of small grain, reseeding has more than paid off, and today the prospects are heartening; in fact, it could be that Genesee will harvest a normal crop, respecting yield. Spring-seeded crops have never developed better and are progressing toward maturity with complete satisfaction. Frost, which plays strange antics, taking portions of crops here and there, was depressing at the start of the growing season. It was necessary for growers to plow under a few acres of wheat and a considerable acreage of peas. No doubt the pea yield is reduced where the crop was blighted by frost, but figures must be revised for autumn in the Genesee country as a whole.

Some of the best fields of peas in any period are now advancing toward maturity. Some fields are in the eating or canning stage now and here and there the vines are changing their color. Viners of the Snow-Crop company, which have been operating in the Uniontown area, will be threshing green peas for freezing and canning on the Frank Kambitsch and Martin Grieser places late this week or early next week.

Wind, which blew over the week end was beneficial, strange to say. The breeze tended to dry out and raked hay, thus reducing the loss that was expected. If time permits several farmers in this area, will be able to cut another hay crop.

Wheat was harvested two weeks ago on the Lewiston hill, and is in progres of being combined this week. Wheat harvest will be slow, however, in extending north. It may be three weeks before wheat will be received at Genesee elevators, making the first delivery much later than for 1950, but only a few days later than for the average harvest season.

N. P. Rail Co. Improvements Put Line In Excellent Shape

Men from the division engineer's office in Spokane were at Genesee Tuesday, surveying to "fit" just east of town in preparation for necessary repairs and new crossings across the "Y" tracks when the highway district begins surfacing of the road east of town.

Martin Nelson's bridge and building gang moved from Colton to Genesee last week and they are engaged in raising bridges to conform with the track raising being done.

A. D. Zangar, division roadmaster, and F. N. Bordwell, district roadmaster, were at Genesee Monday on an inspection tour of the Genesee branch.

Sheep Industry New

There was a "first" in railway news just a few weeks ago, when the first trainload of sheep was brought into the Genesee area for grazing on sweet clover. It was the first time that sweet clover drew the attention of sheepmen other than Nick Busch, and on Saturday Young Bros. of Toppenish, Wash., shipped three carloads of lambs from Genesee to Tacoma. The lambs weighed around 94 pounds each with the selling price reported at around 30 cents pound.

San Francisco As I Saw It

H. B. Jones, who returned recently from a visit at San Francisco where he visited a daughter, Mrs. Jack Smith and husband, submitted the following, entitled, "As I Saw It:"

This is the heart of San Francisco, a gay, fantastic city, loving life, loving color and excitement and beauty; loving its great skyscrapers no more than its sentimental, old cable cars; loving its great hotels on Nob Hill no more than it loves the shacks that hang breathlessly on the edge of Telegraph Hill; loving its sunshine and its stars at night, and loving as well the fogs that come with quiet tread through the Golden Gate. This is the heart of San Francisco, a city that, through joys and trials and tribulations and disasters has kept the heart of a child.—H. B. Jones.

Cover Pacific West Coast From California To Canada

Rev. Fr. B. McBride and sister, Miss Mary McBride, the latter of Spokane, who left June 17 on their vacations for a motor trip to southern California, returned to Genesee June 30.

Initial plans were for a trip through south Idaho and Nevada to California but the route became one to Biggs, Ore., and then south by way of Klamath Falls, to Fresno and to San Diego. At San Diego Fr. McBride visited several classmates who attended St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. Three days were given to San Diego before returning north to Oakland where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat Boyce, the former a boyhood friend of Fr. McBride, when living near Carrigart, County Donegal, Ireland. It was 35 years since the two men had met, and naturally, the renewing of a long friendship was enjoyed.

On the way up the coast Rev. McBride and sister stopped at Camp Pendelton, and there visited Sgt. Maurice Hasfurther.

They followed the coast route 101 to Weoma, Ore., and then turned inland to travel over highway 99 to Seattle, and on to Vancouver, B. C.

They ferried by Canadian-Pacific to Victoria, B. C., and lacked but a short distance of covering the entire west coast line.

Two days were spent in Seattle, with the trip back to Genesee being by way of Yakima and Walla Walla. Rev. McBride took his sister to Spokane Sunday afternoon and returned the same evening.

Genesee Stopped Cold Uniontown Wins 18-4

Uniontown and Genesee, meeting last Sunday afternoon for the second time this season, with the result a second loss for Genesee, went the first three innings in what promised to be another close game. In the last of the fourth Uniontown began clouting the ball for three runs, which made the count 5-1. Uniontown picked up two runs in the opening frame, and Genesee had Kannikberg on base to score on hase hits by Jack Liberg and Jim Sprenger.

Genesee had Rosenau on first by virtue of an error in the sixth inning. Kannikberg was walked and Rabdau sent one back to the pitcher that bounded off Tuschhoff's glove and went out into right field, permitting Rosenau to score. Kennikberg was on third in the eighth frame, when he singled to right field, but an error gave him the third sack. He counted a run on a single by Rabdau. Genesee's other run came in the ninth when Jim Bennett tripled between center and right field. He scored on a Uniontown shortstop error.

Tuschhoff, on the hill for Uniontown had a big day, with 16 strikeouts. He gave up but six hits, two by Jim Bennett. Tuschhoff also led his club in hitting, getting three for five. Jim Bennett got three hits, up in fine shape for Sunday's game, became a wild Sahara desert when the wind continually swept the fine dust off the field, causing the officials to halt play many times.

Kannikberg, who started pitching for Genesee and went six innings, was relieved by young Jim Rabdau, who had a bit of trouble locating the old plate. He was relieved by Dick Scharnhorst, who started by issuing a base on balls and then tightened down to give up but two hits, and turned in a good eighth frame.

Rosenau, Genesee centerfielder, was one of the busiest men in uniform and he came up with seven perfectly exceptionally good catches of well-hit balls.

Uniontown kept its record of wins unblemished for the season in regular league play, Genesee has lost two games, and is in second place.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Folks are beginning to wonder if we are ever going to have any summer weather to ripen the grain. One hot day and six chilly, windy ones seem to be the schedule so far. Harvest normally starts about August 1 and the grain is hardly turning color yet. Haying is about completed. We are not worrying much about food prices and other items getting out of control, for long, as to that bought by women, for they won't pay unreasonable prices, and buyers' strikes have to bring down the prices. Farmers are not the profiteers either that current propaganda tries to make out. Farm income in 1947 was 18 billion and fell to 13 billion in 1950. Wages raised 18 per cent in that period and corporation profits in the same period raised 32 per cent after taxes had been paid. In other words, a can of tomatoes retailed at 16 cents and the farmer's share was 3 cents. Bread sold for 16 cents, farmer's share of wheat, 3c; a cotton shirt selling for $3.98 gave the cotton farmer 30 cents. Onions sold at 5½ cents, farmer got 1 cent, etc. These figures are from the secretary of agriculture, so next time you hear someone say the farmers are to blame for high prices, tell them they don't know what they are talking about.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Might Say The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies.

Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look, before you jump to conclusions.

Thought For The Week

Where a person lives is not a question of geography, it is not a matter of eyesight, not a matter of outside, but inside; we live in a world of our own making, the largeness or smallness of it, we determine ourselves. We can make it what we want it to be if we ask, seek, knock and work. We build a small world if we reject Christ.

Ernest Becker of Lewiston and Wm. Thiessen left Thursday for Elk River on a fishing trip.

Not only was she pretty as a picture. She had a nice frame too.

Pullman Trips Genesee In Return Game 8 To 3

Pullman, without a ball park in which to play, was the "home" club here Sunday when the Washington entry in the L. C. League earned an 8-3 win over Genesee. Ring, pitching for Pullman was pretty much a one-man club. He came up with ten assists and fanned seven while giving up 7 base hits. He handled 11 chances from his position, one of them going for an infield blow when he failed to get his glove fully in front of a well-hit ball and which could not be taken by any infielder for a put-out. In the fifth frame he tossed out three men at first, putting on a good demonstration of defensive ball. His throws to first were not all easy ones.

Genesee was compelled to use three pitchers. Young Rabdau who started, had some trouble finding the plate, and with four errors Pullman built up a 3-1 lead in the second half of the second frame. Taylor, who had not pitched a hard-ball game this season, went well for four innings, but in the seventh he was nicked for a four-base swat. He was tiring in the eighth, after his fast ball lost some of its steam. Dick Scharnhorst, put out the fire in the last of the eighth.

Genesee led off in the first with Jim Bennett getting a single and pilfering second. He took third on Bielenberg's grounder to first and scored when Scharhorst grounded out third to first. He came in on the throw.

Genesee managed to score in the third when Scharnhorst drew a base on balls and went around on Pederson's double to left field.

In the first of the ninth, Rabdau who finished in right field, doubled to left field, and romped home on Bielenberg's long double to center.

Pullman started off with a three-run assault in the last of the first inning, added a run in the second, another in the sixth, and tied up the game in the eighth with two more.

Ragged in three frames, Genesee played four innings of very good baseball, but kept grounding out to the pitcher too often.

Funke, Pullman shortstop, was the man who connected for the homer.

Bobbie Bennett, who worked in the centerfield position, came up with two of the brightest plays in the game by either club. He threw out Secar, Pullman, attempting to score from third on a low but hard hit ball to center. Later he scampered far to his right and took a fly ball that looked like a certain hit.

Genesee, experiencing a shortage of players, used Leland Emmett in right field, and drafted Leverne Edwards, here on a visit from Los Angeles, as second baseman.

Wheat Loan $2.10 A Bushel

According to Roy Emerson of the Latah County Production Marketing Administration, the CCC wheat loan will be available to farmers here at the rate of $2.10 per bushel, with a deduction of 10 cents per bushel for storage. The government is not paying storage for the 1951 crop. Mr. Emerson also said growers having approved farm storage would be paid for the use of their facilities at the rate of 10 cents per bushel for the full period of the loan. He reminded listeners that there is a pro-rated allowance and/or deduction if grain is not held in storage on loan for the full loan period.

Loans will be approved as before, by county PMA offices.

Local elevators had not been informed of complete regulations up to Thursday noon.

Harvest Approaching Weather Some Cooler

All crops in the Genesee area are advancing toward maturity, hastened by high temperatures and clear skies. Tuesday was the hottest day of the summer, with an unofficial reading of about 98 degrees. Some reports of an even hundred were also heard, but none under 97 degrees. Lewiston had a warm 103 degrees at the weather station, but hotter down town.

Wednesday was cooler with a light breeze, but weather continues warm and is pushing the grain and pea crops along. Two are planning to harvest dried peas next week, and one has intimated he may start delivering dried peas from the area southeast of Genesee on Friday.

No crops are in need of moisture and no moisture is promised. The extreme high temperatures for the few days it prevailed and the normal summer temperatures of this week may advance the arrivals of new grain by a few days, yet grain harvest is at least ten days to two weeks off.

Haying, which has continued into the current week, is producing a fine crop, and is going up without getting wet. New hay growth is fair but if one wants hay it should rain, but pea growers and grain growers welcome clear skies from now on.

Highway District Is Building First Mile Of Surfaced Road

Genesee-Rimrock Highway Distrist is constructing its first mile of oiled road this week. It is the section beginning at the eastern edge of town and extending to the Erickson ranch. It is exactly one mile, and the estimated cost is $5,000. This is perhaps the only mile of highway district road with sufficient foundation and without fault that could be oil-mat surfaced at the present time, and it is a section subject to unusual heavy traffic. The new section of road from Genesee to the new highway west of town is another stretch that will have heavy hauling over it. It will have an oil-rock surface.

Equipment of the highway district and a patrol loaned by Highway District No. 1 is being used to mix rock and oil and to lay the mat, after which it will be seal-coated and rolled. The Kuney Construction company roller is available for the final operation.

Commissioners of the district decided to extend the oil-mat beyond the intersection at the Erickson place to avoid possible accidents when fast-moving vehicles leave the smooth surface and move into the rock-surfaced highway.

Colton Here Sunday

Colton will be at Genesee Sunday for the final scheduled game of the season. Genesee won from Colton at Colton. In an early-season game Colton was dated to play at Genesee, but rain prevented.

Tournament play in the L. C. league will open July 29. Uniontown, first-place club in the Hill division will meet Kamiah, second-place club in the Valley division. Genesee, second-place club in the Hill division, goes up against Grangeville, first-place team of the Prairie division.

Sites for tournament games are yet to be announced. Usually the team or town which wants the games, evidences such desire by making the best cash bid.

No Square Dancing July 24

Mrs. T. A. Papineau announces that there will be no square dancing for young people next Tuesday evening. On the following Tuesday night, July 31, and thereafter dancing will continue as usual.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kinzer and family were in Uniontown Sunday to join many relatives for a reunion at the home of Mrs. Kinzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dahmen. Mr. and Mrs. Dahmen have thirteen children and all were home for the gathering with the exception of a son, Cletus, in the air force and stationed at San Bernardino, Calif. Members of the family came from Redland, Alberta Spokane, Ephrata, Colton, Genesee and Uniontown, numbering 51.

Mrs. Kinzer's sister, Mrs. Weldon Busch, with her family, who arrived from Redland, Canada, for the reunion, had supper Friday with the Kinzer family here. Mr. and Mrs. Busch's daughters, Gwendolyn and Janice, remained in Genesee for a longer visit.

Many Workers Over 75 Years Eligible For Benefit Checks

Many employed wage earners over 75 years of age have applied for old-age and survivors benefit payments, according to Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston social security office. While Mr. Cathcart is greatly surprised at the comparatively large number of insured persons in this age group, his office has no way of knowing the total number. The reason for this lack of information is that many insured workers who have passed their seventy-fifth birthday have not applied for benefit payments. They do not realize that they and their dependents can now have these monthly payments.

Before the new social security law went into effect last September, payments could not be made to any insured worker over 65 who continued in a job covered by social security and earned over $14.99 in a month. Under the amended law, a worker over 75 may engage in any kind of employment or self-employment and have benefit payments regardless of the amount of his earnings. Between the ages of 65 and 75, the insured person may now have $50 a month in work covered by social security.

Cathcart says it has been found that most people are reluctant to stop working at any age if they are still in good health. He further points out that this new provision for insured people over age 75 will be an incentive to continue in gainful work.

He urges all insured workers aged 75 or older, and who have not yet applied for benefit payments to do so without delay.

As a service to residents of the Latah county area, a representative of the Lewiston office will be in Moscow on Tuesday, July 24. He can be contacted at the office of the Idaho state employment service, 107 East Second Street, between 1 and 3 p. m. on that date.

Hot Weather Rushing Harvest Of Green Peas

Harvesting of green peas in the Genesee area is being rushed this week at the Frank Kambitsch, Martin Grieser and Ed Hasfurther farms, where the Snow-Crop company is taking off a nice crop of peas for freezing, starting Tuesday.

Extremely high temperatures, unofficially recorded as nearing 98 degrees above on Tuesday, and well above the 90-degree mark over the week end, brought the crop on fast. Temeratures dropped Wednesday to relieve the situation, but the heat continues to push harvesters to keep ahead of early ripening.

Men in charge of operations for the Snow-Crop company said yields on the three farms will be good this summer, but for the present they are not checking as much on yield as in getting the crop to the freezing plant while peas are tender.

Tuesday evening viners were operating at the Kambitsch and Grieser places, and the third set-up was on the move to the Hasfurther place. Mexican nationals, brought to the States by Snow-Crop and other companies in the effort to rush crops to freezers and canneries, are to be seen pitching the vines into the machines, carrying the boxes to load trucks, but white labor is employed for the operations in the field, such as cutting, swathing and loading and hauling from the field to the machines.

Marriage Is Achieved Despite Age Obstacle

Pvt. Ralph M. Massee, 20, and Miss Phyllis M. Spurgeon, 20, are a happy bridal couple, now on their way to Florida where the former is to report at Elgin Field on July 31. They left Genesee Thursday morning by car, planning to visit relatives in Montana, Minnesota and Illinois. They were guests while here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Post, the latter being Pvt. Massee's step-mother.

Pvt. Massee, recently returned from Kwajalein Island of the Marshall Group, was with a supporting air-force unit for the Atomic Energy Commission for tests made at Eniwetok, and learning of his transfer to Elgin Field to enter radar training, he and Miss Spurgeon planned their marriage while he was on a 30-day furlough. His wife had been a nurse's aid at Sacred Heart hospital when he met her while he was stationed at Fairchild Air Station before going overseas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Spurgeon of Spokane. Pvt. Massee gave Genesee, the home of his step-mother as his address. The bride is a graduate of the high school at St. Maries, and the bridegroom attended high school at Compton, Calif., before enlisting in the army at the age of 16. Learning of his age, the army granted him a discharge. Within a few weeks after discharge he became 17, and enlisted in the navy. At cessation of the prevailing emergency, he was honorably discharged from the navy, and soon thereafter he was back in the air-force, planning to continue in service until retirement. The young couple are leaving for Florida immediately to secure living accommodations, preferably at Pensacola.

Fiancee's Father Guardian

When making application for their marriage license at Spokane the two young people learned about a Washington statute which prohibits marriage of males under 21 years without parents' consent. Pvt. Massee said the officials at the courthouse were cooperative in explaining the law, but could not sanction the consent of Mrs. Virgil Post as legal guardian of Pvt. Massee, for the reason that her name as the soldier's legal step-mother had been changed by marriage from Massee to Post. The Spokesman-Review carried the following story of how the obstacle was removed:

"If a certain private first class from the Marshall Island and Florida via Genesee, Idaho, is a bit confused about his relatives after July 15, there's a reason.

Private Ralph M. Massee, 20, and Phyllis M. Spurgeon, 20, Sacred Heart hospital nurse, applied at the county auditor's office Wednesday for a marriage license.

"The marriage license clerk said that Massee would have to have the consent of a parent first. Massee explained that he had no living relatives. Miss Spurgeon, though only 20, needed no consent.

"The young couple left the auditor's office and Miss Spurgeon's father, Howard A. Spurgeon, W2003 Tenth, agreed to become his future son-in-law's guardian. They sought and obtained court approval and the new guardian then wrote his consent on the application form.

"Massee, a Genesee resident, will be stationed at Elgin Field, Florida, with the air force. He returned June 25 from duty on Kwajalein Atoll in the Marshall Island."

Wedding at Ft. Wright

The young couple were married at the Fort Wright chapel Sunday evening at 7. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moe, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Post joined relatives of the bride in attending the wedding.

Miss Spurgeon, for her wedding, wore a suit of pale pink with pink and white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The matron of honor wore a dress of blue taffeta and her corsage was of deep pink carnations. Pvt. Massee wore civilian attire. The wedding service was read by Major Kingston, chaplain at Fort Wright.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, followed the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. E. B. Smith left Saturday for Sanders, Idaho, to attend a church conference for a week. Mr. Smith will join her for the week end.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We don't have to wonder when the hot weather is coming. It has been here for several days and the grain is turning a golden color. Temperatures have been in the 90's in the daytime but the nights are cool so we can sleep, which is one of Idaho's greatest blessings. Next week, according to Gov. Jordan's proclamation, is Idaho Farm Safety Week. State and federal laws have compelled industry to set up safeguards to protect workmen but the great variety of farm work makes it impossible to do that, but all workers should use common sense and be more careful, as the largest share of accidents comes to farmers and their helpers. Speaking of safety, we wonder how long the broken pole south of Genesee is going to hang at half mast—until some child playing around it gets killed? It was a bad enough advertisement to hang there for two years when Idaho has millions of poles to replace it, but now that the wire has been removed why should it continue to be a hazard.

Reddy Kilowatt Salutes The Man Who Saved 100 Lives

Clay model for a bronze plaque by Karl Lang, commemorating E. W. Oesterreich's achievement.

Twenty years ago, one of the unsung heroes of the electric industry perfected a method of artificial respiration that has saved the lives of over 100 linemen who came in contact with high voltage wires.

That man is E. W. Oesterreich of the Duquesne Light Company, Pittsburgh. He reasoned that many lives could be saved if artificial breathing could be started quickly after electric shock. Instead of first lowering the stricken man to the ground, artificial respiration is now applied while the shocked man is still at pole-top level.

Washington Water Power was one of the first electric service companies to adopt this method of treating electric shock. Such quick use of every proved safety and life-saving measure is part of the Company policy of looking out for employe safety. W.W.P. files show that several times in recent years this new method of pole-top artificial respiration has saved the lives of Company employes.

Mrs. R. Dunbar Passes Attained Age 95 Years

Mrs. Rachel Dunbar, who attained the age of 95 years last January, the mother of Mrs. W. M. Herman, passed away at Gritman Memorial hospital in Moscow at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, July 26. She had been a patient at the hospital since the evening of July 23. Pneumonia, incurred by inactivty, was the immediate cause of death, coming at her advanced age.

Rachel Durham was born Jan. 29, 1856 at Clarks Fork, Indiana, and was married Nov. 30, 1875 to John Dunbar. They came to Idaho in 1892, and for 54 years the late deceased was a resident of Moscow. For the past five years Mrs. Dunbar made her home with her daughter at Genesee.

Mr. Dunbar died June 19, 1932 at Moscow, where for many years he was a rural letter carrier. The well-known couple had many friends and for a number of years Mrs. Dunbar's birthday anniversaries were happy occasions. Her daughter, Mrs. Herman, always observed the birthdate with a dinner for her, inviting a number of her intimate friends. About three years ago Mrs. Dunbar suffered a fractured hip, yet she continued to enjoy the company of her numerous friends and her family here.

Mrs. Dunbar had been at the Bolander Nursing Home in Moscow since July 1 and was doing nicely until she was taken to the hospital July 23. Mr. and Mrs. Herman, in company with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ball of Moscow, were at Trimble Resort near Colville, Wash., and were notified of Mrs. Dunbar's sickness Tuesday when they came immediately to Moscow.

Besides her daughter here, Mrs. Dunbar is survived by a brother, Frank Durham at Lafayette, Ind., and a sister residing at Paris, Texas.

Funeral arrangements are pending, as Mr. and Mrs. Herman are awaiting word from relatives. Plans, however, have been made for services and interment at Moscow for Monday.

Fred and Pat were inducted at the same time but became separated when Fred was sent to Georgia last February. Neither one knew of the other being home on leave. Sunday they both had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Bielenberg. Pat left for Yakima to join his outfit as supply man. Fred is certain he is going to Japan.

Ernest Heinrich, retired dairy farmer of McCall who has made his home for the past four years in Lewiston, observed his ninetieth birthday Tuesday. Six of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich reside in the McCall community.

Sather, Bennett Slated For East-West Contest

Gary Hammond, coach of the Genesee high school basketball team which won the Idaho Class B championship last spring, and who drew the assignment as mentor of the West team in the Idaho all-star game to be played at Boise August 2, left Sunday morning for Nampa. He was accompanied by Jim Sather and Jim Bennett, members of last season's winning team of Genesee, who were selected among ten seniors to play for the West. The trio from here were accompanied by Jerry Monks of Lapwai, and Corey of Orofino, the latter being a member of the West all-star football team which plays an East team on August 3.

Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. H. E. Bennett plan to travel by plane from Lewiston to Boise August 2 to witness the all-star game, and will return with Mr. Hammond and the boys. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sather also expect to find it convenient to be in Boise on or about game time.

Practice started Monday at Nampa, where the coaches are getting the players in condition and sharpening their shooting, which was reported off in early sessions.

The East-West game is part of a coaches' clinic, and brings together outstanding players from all over the state. Francis M. Clark, coach of the Idaho Falls high school team which won the Class A championship from Nampa at Moscow this spring, is coach for the East team. Two of his boys, Les Rohyosh and Bob DeYoung are on the East squad. Others are: Bob Fulton and Clyde Charles, Preston Rick Bauer, St. Anthony; Bill Hays, Rupert; Bob Falash, Twin Falls; Leon Henderson, Aberdeen; Denny Weight, Jerome, and Deloy Parker, Paris.

Besides Sather, Bennett and Monks, the West team roster includes Jay Dean and Neil Stephens, Nampa; Jerry McDaniels, Boise; Hugh Stringfield, Caldwell; Dick Matsumoto, Middleton; Don Wilson and Don Munson, Coeur d'Alene, Dick Dodel, Lewiston, and Jack Derbyshire, Kellogg.

Having seen Rohyosh of Idaho Falls in action, it seems Bennett would be just the man to play against the upper Snake River boy. Sather will perhaps draw Bub Fulton of Preston or Rick Bauer of St. Anthony, both tall boys, and who perhaps give the East a slight advantage in height.

Reports from Nampa stress the scoring possibilities of the West team with Dean, Stephens and Stringfield in the lineup, but down there they haven't seen Monks, Dodel, Sather and Bennett in regular play. The Genesee boys who saw Matsumoto of Middleton play at the state tournament at Pocatello, give him much credit as a guard.

For the August 2 game the West will be employing more Class B team boys than ever before. There are four, Matsumoto, Monks, Sather and Bennett. The East has but one Class B school player, Henderson of Aberdeen. Those who witnessed the Idaho Falls-Nampa game at Moscow last spring will certainly agree that Nampa should have never lost the game. Rohyosh was outstanding in his club, it is conceded, but it was the "control" style of ball and not the ball handling and shooting which placed Nampa one point behind Idaho Falls.

Dodel of Lewiston came along fast toward the end of the season, and was very good in tournament play at Moscow. He was the main cog in the Lewiston wheel, which rolled into the semi-finals for a surprise. Moscow, of course, sprung the great surprise of the state Class A playoff. Monks of Lapwai, a strong player under the boards and in shooting, will not be outdone. The game next Thursday will be one of interest for fans at Genesee, Lewiston and Lapwai.

Faculty Roster Complete

With the selection of seventh and eighth grade teachers for the Genesee public schools, the list of instructors for the ensuing term is complete. C. Ulrich of Lewiston has been named eighth grade teacher and he will be assistant basketball and football coach and head baseball coach. His wife, the former Miss Mary Lund, will teach the seventh grade.

Kill Rattlers While Fishing Casts For Trout From Horse

When Earl Parsons is a member of a fishing party it's next to impossible to obtain an accurate account of what took place. He was one of four going into the Selway country last week. The others were Louie Olson and John Scharnhorst of Genesee and Gordon Charpentier of Lewiston. They left the road and packed in some 12 to 15 miles, and it might be mentioned first that the pack horses, with the exception of one, became so humiliated they decided to start for home, and were not caught until they had traveled about five miles from camp. From an undisclosed source it was learned that Parsons was caught fishing from horseback, and for a time shared the fishing stream with a moose, the first ever seen by Parsons, a fact admitted by him.

"The fishing was fair, according to other members of the party, but the real excitment came when they killed two rattlesnakes, one measuring approximately four feet long. Scharnhorst used rocks as ammunition for the killing.

Fishing, an honorable and respectable pastime, is taking too much abuse from several Genesee men. Sometimes they will forget and say they caught more than the limit, which permits their listeners to remember the old saying which has something about "figures never lie, etc."

Dr. H. M. Reisenauer Heads Soil Testing For State College

Spokane—A new Washington State College service that should be a help to farmers was inaugurated recently and is now on a production-line basis.

The service is soil testing—taking a samle of a farmers' soil, mixing chemicals with it, and finding how much or how little plant food or fertilizer it contains.

Dr. B. R. Bertramson, chairman of the agronomy department at WSC, says a soil test will tell these things; whether the soil is alkaline or acid, whether lime is needed and how much, whether phosphate fertilizer or potash is needed, and whether there's enough organic matter in the soil. It will also tell whether there's too much salt or too much arsenic.

Farmers who want soil tests made at the laboratory should contact their county agents. They have instructions for taking soil samples and cartons for mailing them to the WSC laboratory. Send the sample, together with the specified fee to the Soil Testing Laboratary, Wilson Hall, WSC, Pullman, Wash.

Dr. H. M. Reisenauer is in charge of the laboratory and of correlating soil tests with fertility experiments conducted. The laboratory is designed to handle a hundred or more samples a day.

First Wheat In July 21 From J. P. Hermann's

Harvest in the Genesee area got under way last Saturday when J. P. Hermann & Son delivered the first new-crop wheat. It was from a small plot, less than three acres, and was threshed before their machine was changed over for peas.

Zenner Bros. began harvesting peas on a fairly large scale Monday, July 23, and were delivering continuously until Thursday.

Wheat harvesting started Tuesday, July 24, by Robert Kuhn, Stanton Becker and Clinton Herman, the two first-named bringing in Rex, with Elgin coming from Herman.

Early returns of wheat do not usually provide a fair sample of outturns, owing to cutting for backswaths, and quite often the wheat is from fields well out on the rim where there is some showing of pinching. Later deliveries are looking better, but no fields are completed as yet to give average yield.

Harvest Earlier

Records at the Genesee Union Warehouse company office show the first new barley crop for 1950 was delivered July 26 by Clifford Herman. Stanton Becker in the first wheat for 1950 on July 27, and Sanford Evans delivered the first peas for 1950 on August 1. Harvest is somewhat earlier this year than last, by comparison.

Weather Continues Warm

After slightly cooler weather late week, the sun became warmer Sunday and Monday was another scorcher, ensuing days up to Thursday were no cooler. The heat is hastening ripening of grain and peas, but there is no reported damage as hot winds have not prevailed locally.

Oil Streets To Control Dust Being Tried Out At Genesee

As an experimental project several sections of Genesee streets have been treated with a penetration road-oil mix, referred to as a dust coat. After being permitted to set for a few days, Wayne Hampton, street commissioner said a light second coat would be applied, and if possible, finely crushed rock will be spread on the oil.

With the Johannsen Co. of Spokane having a sub-contract for oiling the new section of highway west of Genesee, it was decided to try out the dust coating while the company's equipment was here. When it became known that oil could be obtained, it was a hurried procedure for the commissioner of streets to arrange for spreading the oil. It could only be done by cooperation of property owners who agreed to defray cost of the oil, and on streets adjacent to town or school property the council and school board appropriated funds.

Few Tourists Are Skeptical Doubt Local Crop Outturns

More in evidence this summer than usual are tourists who are making inquiry about central Idaho and eastern Washington. Most anyone is willing and some are anxious to answer questions, but the next twosome from California that won't believe us when we say crops are grown around Genesee without irrigation are due for a cold shoulder. Imagine two young men from the Sunshine State, taking on nourishment at our local cafe who insisted such crops as produced locally can't be grown without irrigation. The writer was asked: "Where do farmers here store water for irrigation?" We promptly answered, "They don't irrigate." They knew different, and once on the street and about to enter their automobile, they asked another local man about irrigation. His answer was the same as ours. The Californians merely laughed off the information they had been given. It was our turn to ask a question, which was, "How you going to get water on these hills?" They still did not believe us. Dumb clucks—and California has its share.

Another party of tourists from California plucked a few heads of Elgin wheat in the Genesee Valley. When they stopped at the West End Union elevator, they asked what kind of wheat it was. "Is it wheat," they asked before their initial question was answered. The person providing information graciously said, "Yes, it's wheat. It's Elgin wheat." They asked about yield, and their informer said the average yield was around 35 bushels per acre, but the Elgin variety had turned out in excess of 80 bushels. per acre on a farm a few years ago. This party was out of Kansas, by way of California, and one could see an expression of doubt.

Genesee, Grangeville Meet For Semi-Finals

Genesee's town baseball club, losing two games to Uniontown and one to Pullman this season, enters the Lewis-Clark league playoff as second-place club in the Hill division. Uniontown, with no defeats, placed first.

Genesee drew Grangeville for the semi-finals, the Prairie town team having finished first in its division.

Teams of the league start playing in the semi-finals Sunday, with Genesee going to Grangeville. The league does not prescribe where games shall be played, but leave it to the towns concerned. Grangeville made a cash offer of $60 for Genesee to play at the Prairie town, an offer which was accepted.

Genesee Defeats Colton

The game here Sunday between Colton and Genesee had no bearing on the spot Genesee would occupy in league standings, but the event was well attended, and won by Genesee 9-2.

Dick Scharnhorst, if he never hurls another game this summer, came across with a three-hitter, and experienced trouble in only one inning, the first of the second when he walked two men and was nicked for two of the three hits. Colton's two runs put the visitors out front until the last of the third inning, when Genesee hit four times and drew two bases on balls, two errors also helped Genesee. Colton was held scoreless for the rest of the game. Scharnhorst whiffed ten Colton men and had but three errors behind him in the entire game.

Friel, who went the route for Colton, gave up 12 bases on balls, fanned 12, and allowed ten hits. Blasting the ball for Genesee was Rabdau who smacked out a single, a double and a triple in four trips. Scharnhorst, besides turning in a good hurling job, picked up an intended sacrifice in front of the plate and cut the would-be base runner down at first. Young Bob Bennett, working in centerfield also came up with a good running catch in the third frame.

After Genesee went ahead 4-2 in the third the bases were fairly well loaded thereafter, with three runs coming in the fourth and two more in the sixth. Sixteen Genesee baserunners were left stranded and for Colton only five men were left on.

Dick Scharnhorst, working under a hot sun, and giving undivided attention to throwing them past the Colton batters, went to the plate twice with the bases loaded and once with two men on, but he couldn't connect.

Let the Telephone Directory Remember the Number!

You'll find it a welcome change not to have to bother your head about telephone numbers, and it will help your service, too. Just make it a point to check the directory before telephoning. It takes mere seconds, and you can always be sure of calling the right numbers. Try it. You'll save a lot of time too often wasted on "wrong" numbers.

INTERSTATE TELEPHONE COMPANY

TO OUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS:

We wish to announce the addition of the Frigidaire line of appliances to our list of quality merchandise. As most of you know, we have been a Westinghouse dealer for the past thirteen years. We still believe that the Westinghouse name is used only on top quality merchandise, and that the name is backed by the best possible service to the customer.

We have always supplimented the Westinghouse line with other brands of appliances to give you a better selection and to increase our supply in times of shortages. Some of these lines, such as Maytag Washers, Ironrite Ironers, Perfection Stoves and Zenith Radios have proved to be tops in quality and service. Other less-desirable lines have been dropped in our search for better products.

Having been offered the Frigidaire line, we have attended their service and sales schools, and feel they have the quality and service we desire in our merchandise. This is our reason for offering Frigidaire appliances to you.

We would also like to say a word about selling. Our policy is to avoid any type of "high pressure". We want to call on you and tell you about our merchandise—but we want to feel welcome when we do. Our literature will reach you regularly, and we hope you will let us call and explain further any appliance you are interested in.

THANKS!

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Whew! But it has been hot the last few days. It is just what we need for the grain but we just aren't used to it, and it's a mite hard to take yet. Some farmers are cutting backswaths for hay and some are going over summerfallow once more before harvest. We heard that a new traffic cop for the county will be here nevt month, and it is high time, for motorists from outside states, and some from Idaho are taking advantage of our Idaho no-speed limit, and the fast and reckless driving has been worse that usual lately. The new highway is about finished. We hope they will oil down the strip of old highway that they tore up so fast last fall, especially where the old road enters the new one. Some folks still have to travel over it. There are lots of California cars on the road. They come up here to cool off and we go to California to warm up. Pea harvest will get under way in the Genesee Valley in about a week.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

What's So Funny?

Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny.

A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter—and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny.

Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him—doesn't it?

From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself—but I promise not to make any "wisecracks" if you prefer tea.

The click of that switch marks the near-completion of a big job . . . the electrification of rural America! This important achievement is being celebrated throughout the country during the week of August 26.

The facts, simply, are these: today electricity is available to about 95% of occupied farms . . . where it can help with 350 different farm jobs . . . bring modern comfort and convenience to 4,900,000 farm homes!

About 80% of this electricity in the U.S.A. is furnished by private power companies. For many years America's business-managed, tax-paying electric light and power companies have worked closely and unceasingly with farmers. Teamwork has paid off in more farm production with less work and time.

Mrs. Vanouck Called Funeral Held Thursday

Funeral services were conducted at the Genesee Community church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon for Mrs. E. W. Vanouck who passed away at her home Monday. The Rev. Melford Knight officiated. Mrs. Vonley Miller of Lewiston, long-time friend of the deceased, was organist. Hymns sung by Wayne Hampton were "Under His Wings" and "We Are Going Down The Valley One By One."

Burial was in Genesee City Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were: Glenn Sampson, W. M. Herman, Fred Brazier, S. U. Lough and Paul Dinsen of Genesee, and V. J. Miller of Lewiston. Active pallbearers were Forrest Durbin, Donald Springer, Ronald Geltz and B. J. Pleiman of Genesee, and R. G. Wright and W. H. Mervyn of Lewiston.

Ilena Rose Wood was born January 6, 1887 at Marengo, Ohio, the eldest child of C. E. and Clara MacDonald Wood. At the age of four years she and her mother followed her father west to settle at Mills City, Ore. At six she and her mother again followed the father, this time to Troy, Idaho, where she attended her first year of school. In 1884 the little family made its final move to Genesee. Here the young Ilena attended school and graduated from the local institution in 1903. Her days of higher education were spent partly at Whitman College in Walla Walla and at the extinct Blair Business College in Spokane.

At a time when a career girl was a novelty, she was doing all the tasks in her father's grain office, a pioneer institution of the town.

On November 19, 1915, she was married to Elmer Wm. Vanouck at Lewiston. To this union two daughters were born.

Mrs. Vanouck has always been active in all civic affairs, doing her share gladly for any worthy cause. She was a member and officer for many years in the Congregational Ladies Aid. She continued in service when the Community Church Guild was organized.

Death called this beloved wife and mother at 9:15 a. m., July 30, at the age of 64 years, six months and 24 days. Cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage.

She is survived by her husband, E. W. Vanouck, at Genesee; two daughters, Ruth Alice Maria, Lewiston, and Emma Lou Johann, Genesee, and three grandchildren, Nancy Jo, John Allan and Joyce Ann Johann.

Legion Commander Of Boise Auxiliary Names Mrs. Harris

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Emerson and Mrs. Bill Emerson returned Monday from Twin Falls where they attended the Idaho Legion and Auxiliary conventions. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Sig Anderson and daughter, Sheila, of Gooding who will visit here in the home of Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heinrich and with Mrs. Bill Emerson, her sister, and her husband.

Weather was extremely warm in Twin Falls, but the conventions were interesting. The parade this year was rather unusual, featuring horse-drawn vehicles of yesteryears, and included an eight-horse team drawing a heavy old-time wagon.

James W. Moore of Boise, a 35-year-old former airforce captain, was elected commander of the Legion. For vice commander Charles Peterson of Moscow was elected. Dean Herald G. Gardner of St. Michael's Episcopal cathedral, Boise, was named chaplain; Christine Menea, Boise, sergeant at arms. The office of adjutant in Idaho is continuous.

Mrs. Clyde Harris of Dubois was elected president of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Aloyu Hof of Jerome was named vice president; Mrs. A. F. Schwartz, reelected secretary and treasurer for her twenty-third term, and Mrs. William Jones, Arco, historian.

Ask Streamlined Procedure For Idaho License Plates

Dan Pederson, Latah county assessor, who stopped in Genesee Sunday evening on his way from Boise to Moscow, said there is a demand by assessors and the department of law enforcement to speed up issuance of motor vehicle license plates. He was called to Boise to attend a meeting at which the new Idaho gross weight truck tax law was explained. The Boise Statesman said:

Idaho county assessors Saturday commended the state law enforcement department for its efforts to simplify and streamline procedures in issuance of motor vehicle titles and registration.

In another resolution addressed to the State Board of Examiners, the assessors endorsed the department's proposal to mechanize the issuance of motor vehicle licenses and urged that the board approve the proposal.

Two months ago the Idaho Peace Officers association criticized the Law Enforcement department for its delay in issuance of titles, registrations and drivers' licenses.

The assessors, winding up a three-day conference to become acquainted with the new gross weight truck tax which goes into effect Jan. 1 and to discuss title procedure, also pledged their cooperation in further streamlining of the license procedure "to achieve considerable savings to and improve service to the taxpaying public."

Genesee Drops Game Grangeville In Finals

Genesee and Grangeville in the first round of the Lewis Clark league playoff, went nine innings of good ball at the Prairie metropolis Sunday afternoon, with Grangeville edging Genesee 6 to 4. Grangeville draws a bye for Sunday, while Uniontown and Kamiah must play off a protested game at Uniontown. The two teams met at Kamiah last Sunday with the Washington club outscoring the Kamiah team. Kamiah's manager protested on three counts and apparently made one stick as league officials have ordered the game replayed. The dispute arose over Ed Ulrich's overruling a decision by his brother, Carmen Ulrich, and also by interference called on a run-down between third and home.

Genesee bows out of baseball for this season in its defeat by Grangeville, but it was a real game for the two clubs until the eighth when the Prairie club scored two runs to break a 4-4 deadlock. A ball hit to the outfield, good for two bases, went for a homer to score a man who had taken first on another error. Genesee had each man on the club making one or more bobbles except Jim Sprenger, who did a day's work and a good one, especially his catch of Duncan's well-hit ball to right field, which made the Genesee fielder run up on a bank to haul in the ball.

Scharnhorst went the route for the Genesee club on the hill, giving up six safe blows, while Lefty Williams worked nine innings for Grangeville and allowed only four hits.

It was a nothing-nothing game up to the fifth when Grangeville fell on Scharnhorst for four hits. Two errors added to the hits totaled four runs. Genesee came back in the sixth for four runs, when Pederson was hit by a pitched ball, Bielenberg singled. Sprenger drew a base on balls, and Scharnhorst blasted out a triple. The hitter came home on an error at first when Rabdau was at bat.

Thief Loots Slot Machines Enters Pastime By Window

Robbery committed at the Pastime sometime after 12 o'clock Thursday night is thought to be the act of a lone thief, judging from the amount of loot taken and the method of entrance. The thief lowered the top half of a window at the east side of the building, and after attempting to leave by a rear door, was compelled to escape through the open window, which is several feet from the ground.

Twelve watches, punchboard prizes, were taken. They were left at the pool hall on consignment and are covered by insurance. Two slot machines were pried open with the machinery taken to the rear room where they were emptied .The jackpots were released in the slot machine room. Also missing is a .380 automatic pistol which was taken from the holster, and between $10 and $15 was taken from punchboard boxes. Ronald Geltz estimated the take from the two slot machines at around $100. The thief broke open a 25-cent and a 10-cent machine, leaving a 5-cent machine untouched.

Edwards and Geltz, owners of the Pastime carry insurance for robbery which would cover the machines if stolen. Theft of the money and breakage to machines is considered vandalism and not covered. It is also believed the thief was acquainted with the building and apparently knew how to loot the machines.

Joe Wagar, employed at the Pastime, closed and locked the doors shortly after midnight. He said he saw no suspicious looking characters around the building or on the tstreet.

Fall Wheat Smut Infections Being Studied For Control

Smut infection in winter wheat is being studied by scientists and agricultural leaders of the Pacific Northwest Smut Control committee in an effort to combat this increasing menace to the area's wheat production.

To help combat smut in next year's crop, the Smut Control committee advises farmers to plant only seed which has been thoroughly cleaned and which has been treated to control common smut and to help reduce the build-up of dwarf smut. For smut control recommendations for a specific area, and for information on locations of seed cleaning and treating plans, farmers are urged to contact their county agent.

County agents are working with Idaho farmers for better smut control throughout the state. J. M. Raeder, plant pathologist at the University of Idaho is in charge of the statewide control drive.

Harvest Starts Rolling Peak Expected In Week

Harvesting in the Genesee area is now becoming more general, with the peak expected in about a week. The first spring grain is being harvested this week, and it comes from Bartle Weber's and from the Lew Jain land farmed by Stanton Becker.

Outturns continue satisfactory considering the winter kill and setback by frosts late in the winter. Spring wheat, in most cases is suffering damage from the extreme heat of the past two weeks, but where it was advanced the quality is very good. Some fields have green areas, due it is said to the effects of frost of late winter, and these areas are holding up combining on some farms.

Hauling now to the East End Union Warehouse company are Dick Green, Bartle Weber, Roy Fish, Willard Sampson, Mrs. Belle Isaksen, Stanton Becker, all wheat, and J. P. Hermann and Son, Junior Odberg, Otto Baldus and Gilmer Iverson, peas.

Delivering peas to the West End Union plant are Walter Erickson, Clifford Herman, Sanford Evans, Don Jain, Fred Hove ,and Kermit Hove. Zenner Bros. have completed their pea harvest and Clinton Herman has finished a field of wheat.

Herb Martinson started Tuesday on pea harvesting.

Street Oiling Discontinued Distributors On Rushing Job

Industrial Distributors, Spokane, a road-surfacing firm which placed the penetration oil and seal coating on the new section of highway east of Genesee, and which spread oil on a few streets in town, was unable to complete their work here. The company, according to its manager, Johannsen, has a rushing job at Fairchild Army Air Base for the laying of a heavy crushed rock and oil mat to accommodate the large bombers soon to be stationed near Spokane.

Wayne Hampton, street commissioner, who has spent much time in obtaining the company to do what oiling has been done, regrets the job could not be finished. He contacted owners of property adjacent to the streets due for dust coating, and has taken time to inform them that the project cannot be finished. He has been a strong advocate of street oiling to control dust, and in his disappointment Wednesday said the oiling done at no great cost would provide an experiment to guide residents in further oiling demands and steps to be taken next year. Owing to the great amount of highway oiling and government propects equipment is not obtainable for work locally.

Genesee-Rimrock Highway District is also looking for a distributor to spread the seal coat on the one-mile section east of Genesee.

Evening Ends In A Tragedy Colton Girl Of 16 Loses Life

Norma Goettinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goettinger of Colton lost her life in an automobile accident last Saturday night about 10:30 when the new vehicle overturned on a curve at the Weber place west of Genesee, not far from the site of the Kuney rock crushing plant, now dismantled and moved.

There were six young people in the car, reported as Darlene Welter, Louis Welter, Dianne Druffel, Donna Meyer, Eddie Becker and Miss Goettinger.

Two girls appeared at the home of Earl Parsons following the accident, and assisted in obtaining help. Dr. Genstler was out of town ,so he summoned Mrs. Floyd Ochs and husband, who went with him to the scene of the accident after calling an ambulance from Moscow. The girls thought the girl killed had been pinned beneath the car, but when Mr. Parsons first went to the scene of the tragedy he found her lying beside the car.

The ambulance took Miss Goettinger to the Gritman hospital in Moscow, and Louis Welter and Becker were also moved by ambulance to the hospital for observation.

The car was presomably being driven from Colton to Genesee that the young people might attend a public dance. The curve where the car left the road is considered dangerous, but it was believed the car was not being driven an an excessive speed.

Funeral services were conducted for Miss Goettinger at St. Paul's church at Colton Tuesday at 9 a. m. with the Rev. Fr. George Meier officiating. Besides her parents the deceased is survived by two sisters, Mary Margaret and Carolyn, and two brothers, Leland and Richard.

Attending funeral services from Genesee were Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser, Mrs. R. D. Stout and daughter, Dorothy, and the Stouts' houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Swift and daughters from Tennessee; Mrs. James Busch, Beverly and LaVarr Erickson, Mavis Esser, Irene Carbuhn, Mary Alice Lorang, Vonnie Kambitsch and Shirley Danielson.

Gamets Operating Store

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gamet, formerly of Genesee, are now located in the Lewiston Orchards where they are operating a store. The Gamet dairy and other real estate here was traded for the store. The former store owner, with his family will move to Genesee soon. The store is located on Thane Road in the Orchards.

Furlough For Schwenne

Wayne Schwenne, stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., and his wife who resides at nearby Watsonville, are expected in Genesee Monday to spend almost a month, with relatives and friends. Other Genesee boys stationed in California are expected soon and all plan to help with the harvest.

Wayne Borgen Car Not Used By Walla Walla Terrorists

Police captured three armed bandits at Walla Walla Monday night after a six-day chase. They are being held for robberies at Kirkland, State Line and Bothell, Wash. They finally hid in an abandoned house at east Walla Walla and refused to surrender, even when the wife of one of the men went with officers and asked them to give up peacefully. The men gave up when officers entered the house and fired one shot.

Last Thursday Mr .and Mrs. W. O. Borgen were given a scare when the Latah county sheriff's office called to determine the whereabouts of their son, Wayne. The officers reported a car, resembling the one belonging to their son, Wayne, found stranded in the Prescott-Starbuck area of Washington. A 1941 model car had been reported used by the bandits and was headed for Seattle.

Wayne and John and Albert Lorang went to Prescott to work in the harvest before threshing started here, and Wayne had not had time to notify his parents where he was employed. Young Borgen and two boys living on a ranch nearby the one where he found employment, decided to go swimming last Tuesday evening. When they decided to return home the Borgen car became stalled in sand near the river, making it necessary to leave the vehicle near the river all night. A man living across the river saw the abandoned car and immediately notified officials. Bearing a Latah county license registered to Wayne Borgen, authorities started their investigation. Mr. and Mrs. Borgen, as stated, had not learned where their son was employed, and were at Moscow on their way to Walla Walla or Prescott to look for their son, and it could reasonably be assumed that he had been relieved of his car by the bandits or made go with them, or perhaps something worse could have happened.

Shortly after the Borgens left and while they were still at Moscow a letter came from Wayne. The postmaster here gave it to an intimate friend of the family, and in turn the anxious parents were notified, and in time to telephone Wayne's address before leaving Moscow. The people employing Wayne said he was safe at their place, and went on to explain how his car happened to be stalled near the river. Everyone in the community became worried last Thursday afternoon and were greatly relieved to learn of the boy's safety.

Mrs. R. Dunbar Laid To Rest Final Rites Held At Moscow

Funeral services for Mrs. Rachel Dunbar, mother of Mrs. W. M. Herman of Genesee, were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at Short's chapel in Moscow. The Rev. Melford Knight, pastor of Genesee Community church officiated, and Elvon Hampton, accompanied by Mrs. Hampton sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Asleep In Jesus." Pallbearers were Fred Shirrod of Genesee, J. C. DeWitt, William Keeney, Harry Sampson, Thomas Dowdy and Elmer Ball, all of Moscow. Members of the Sunnyside Circle of the Moscow Methodist church attended in a body. Interment was in the Moscow cemetery.

Mrs. Dunbar who reached the age 95 years last January, and passed away July 26 at the Gritman hospital, lived here with her daughter for several years. Before coming to Genesee she had been a long-time resident of Moscow, since 1892.

Relatives present for funeral services besides Mr. and Mrs. Herman were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Melcher of Spokane, the latter a niece of Mrs. Dunbar; Ray Durham of Lewiston, a nephew, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Martin of Lewiston, distantly related.

Among those from Genesee attending final rites were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shirrod, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Durbin and children, Richard, Marilyn and David; Miss Frieda Hermann, Mrs. Joe Wagar, Mrs. J. P. Wedin, Mrs. Harry Schooler, Mrs. Mahlon Follett, Mrs. W. W. Burr, Mrs. H. B. Jones, Mrs. Anna Hanson, Mrs. John Luedke, Mrs. Gus Fickens, Mrs. John G. Meyer, Mrs. R. E. Berger, Mrs. Wm. Cunningham, Mrs. Glenn Sampson, Mrs. R. E. Edwards and Mrs. E. D. Pederson.

Fred Magee Painfully Injured Pinned Under Wheel Tractor

Fred Magee, was advised by his attending physician, Dr. Paul Genstler, "to consider himself an invalid for several more days," to recover from a painful injury sustained Saturday morning about 10 o'clock when he was pinned beneath the axle of a wheel tractor. He suffered no internal injuries, and was placed in a bed at his home to remain still until mid-week when he was permitted to stand and walk for a few minutes at a time.

Mowing peas ,he decided the tractor would operate more efficiently if the front wheels were placed further apart. While making the adjustment after jacking up the front end, the machine moved forward when the axle sleeve clamp bolts were loosened. The wheels moved backward along the tractor frame when weight of the machine was thrown on them, causing the tie-rod to be in a down position. He was kneeling in front of the tractor when it toppled from the jack, and when the tractor went forward he was pushed backward to be caught beneath the tie-rod which pressed heavily across his abdomen below the ribs. It happened that his son, Junior, was at the machine when the accident occurred, and quickly raised the tractor by a jack to relieve the pressure. Mr. Magee said he was able to pull himself from beneath the machine, and with help from his son and wife managed to reach the house.

JoAnn Kasper is visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. John Zagelow at Bovill.

Two Fire Calls Monday Make Firemen Hurry

Fire at the Virgil West farm west of town occasioned an alarm Monday at 11:40 a. m. for the Genesee Rural Fire District equipment and men. It was reported that a fire had been started the day before to clear up an accumulation of grass and weeds, and the following morning the embers had flamed up and were spreading. Threatening to go beyond control the fire fighters were summoned to extinguish the blaze.

Second Alarm Sounded

A second fire alarm sounded at about 12:20 p. m. Monday while men and equipment were still at the West farm. Some people assumed the fire was beyond control of men who made the "run" west, but the call came from the Zenner place east of Genesee where a canyon grass and brush fire was threatening grain in the rimrock area.

Mrs. Al Zenner said they noticed smoke about 11 o'clock when men at the ranch went to the canyon. The fire started about three-fourths of a mile above Arrow on the Sampson land, and spread to burn about one hundred acres of grazing land before brought under control. Mrs. Zenner also said 31 men, including ranchers in the area and firemen from Genesee worked furiously under a torturing sun to extinguish the blaze which approached the rimrock where it was reached by equipment of the Rural Fire District. One truck was driven onto a ridge as far as possible where water was used, but on lower elevations the men fought the flames with wet sacks and small water tanks carried on the backs of men.

Men and equipment also responded from Kendrick, with four men joining those in the canyon after it found they could not move equipment toward the blaze.

Zenner Brothers returned to their home about 2 a. m. Tuesday after watching the fire should it be fanned into a second blaze. Firemen and others worked for about three hours to prevent fire from spreading and dividing to sweep into heavier grass and brush in mouths of the Zenner and adjoining canyons.

Zenners and their neighbors wish to thank members of the fire department and everyone who assisted in controlling the fire. Firemen who were at the West fire and then rushed to the canyon fire had gone without their noon-day meal.

Fire At Spalding Alarming

Last Friday afternoon about 5:45 an alarm came in for a fire south of Genesee. Smoke was rolling up the canyon adjoining the Stanton Becker ranch, some of which is known as the Gamble place. With combines in the field harvesting and everything dry as tinder, there was no hesitancy in summoning the Rural Fire District equipment and firemen. Both district trucks rolled to the rimrock, and when reaching the edge of the canyon the fire was seen across Snake river in the vicinity of Spalding Park.

Fire burned over a considerable area near the junction of the highways and on grass lands, threatening the museum and other buildings. Fire burned the sides of a few buildings in the area, and could have been much worse had not a large number of men responded, including a fire truck from Lewiston.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The hot weather continued since our last writing. A brief thunderstorm early Wednesday morning was good for more noise than rain, but changed the air for a while. Most everyone who plans to mow peas has done so, and combining them will get under way the latter part of the week. Some early varieties of wheat will be ready for harvest next week. They say that women's dresses are going to be longer in the fall—might make less car accidents. Safety records have shown that men gazing at women's shapely legs cause car collisions on city streets. We'll wager that there will be many lengths of skirts until the old clothes are worn out, at the present prices of wool and cotton. The new road was openend Tuesday but there is still extra travel on old 95 because of the dust on the new road due to the fine gravel coating placed on the oil mat. We don't known of any National name for this week, so we'll name it ourself: "It's Thank God Week. Thank Him every day for all the blessings He gives us and pray that every nation in the world may enpoy the many privileges and blessings we have, and then pray for peace in Korea and all over the world. Let's spend these billions to build up, not destroy the world.

Thought For The Week

Christ does not recommend nature as a substitute for His church. The church is eager for the strength we can add, because it has a great work to do—a gospel to preach, minds and bodies to be healed, a world to save. Englishman Working Here

Walter Seeman of Reading, England, in Genesee a week and employed at the Genesee Union Warehouse company, is in the United States on a scholarship and is attending school at the University of Missouri.

During vacation he has been in San Francisco, Portland and Walla Walla. Leaving Genese he plans to go to Spokane and Yakima and then head to California before returning to school. He works a week or more at a place to defray expenses.

Arriving in New York City he noticed that everyone rode instead of walking as in his country. The size of the United States as compared to England impresses him, as well as the ease with which one can travel about the country. He noticed fences in the United States, much different to the ones built of stone in England.

Commercials on radio programs are something new to him, and he could not help notice the bright colored clothing worn in this country. Most clothing articles are still rationed in England.

Genesee Boys Scorers In East-West Cage Tilt

Harold Hammond, basketball coach Genesee high school, whose team took the Class B championship of Idaho last spring, was a happy man when he returned to Genesee Saturday morning after his team of West aces beat over the East team Thursday evening 81-68. Hammond was named coach the West team while Francis ...rk of Idaho Falls had charge of the East team. The game, a contest between all-star high school players of Idaho was played at Nampa.

Equally as happy but perhaps more so were Jim Bennett and Jim Sather, members of last season's Genesee championship team, who played with the West. Sather suffered an ankle injury in practice and was used only sparingly. Despite the injury he came through with four points for the West.

Jim Bennett, who played about half the time or slightly more, won the praise of Skippy Dye, University of Washington mentor, as one of the outstanding players. He scored 13 of the West's 81 points, which was one point more than any player on the East could mark up.

Hammond was proud of the showing made by his former proteges. Witnessing the game from Genesee were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sather and children, Marilyn and Gary; Mrs. H. E. Bennett and Mrs. Hammond. All but Coach and Mrs. Hammond left Nampa and the punishing heat to make the trip home during the coolness of night. Hammonds returned Saturday.

"Go west, young man, if you want to win the all-star game," wrote A. C. ...es in the Nampa Free Press. The writer continued: "The 1951 game brought a liberal display of hair raising fast breaking, dead-eye play that gave the West's 12-point lead fade to ...r at one time. An early plunge into the thrills of scoring probably was responsible for the victory margin, as the West hit the first five field goals attempted, to lead 11-1 after 2½ minutes. Don Munson of Coeur d'Alene dropped in three or four buckets before Les Roh of Idaho Falls discovered he could hit a goal and ... free throws.

"A lead of about 10 points stuck to the West until after six minutes of the second period (the quarters were 10 minutes long) when the East pulled within four points at 33-29. They did this by bearing down on the backboards and fast breaking with ...rmination.

"However, Hugh Stringfield of Caldwell located a field goal and a free throw, which went with Jim Bennett's (Genesee) goal to pull to a 38-31 halftime reading.

"Highest scoring honors went to the calm playing Stringfield of Caldwell, a 6 foot 5 co-captain, who made ... points. Eastern honors went to all-... Roh, with 12, while Bob Fulton of Preston made 11 from his 6 foot 5 altitude.

"The boy from whom all Nampans ... learned to expect the specatcular, Neil Stephens, lobbed in 15 points from a guard position and was the No. 1 haymaker. His team-mate of two years, Jay Dean, was as strong as ...men at the center position, passing off in all directions and blocking numerous opposition throws and shots. ... scoring, however, was limited to ... free throws out of six attempts. ...onson, distinguishable as a fine college prospect, although only 6 feet, accounted for 14 for the West, eight of them in the first quarter.

Bennett Aggressive

"... 5 feet 9, the all state Jim Bennett of Genesee, was a real aggressor ... guard, plopping in the long shots ... 13 points.

"...ck Dodel, Lewiston's all-state forward, hit five unconscious shots for ... points.

"...us Conner, Heyburn, put up a fine rally in the fourth period ... eight quick points to bring the ... to 72-66, but Jim Sather of Genesee, Dean, Bennett and Stephens stretched the gap to 79-66 quickly."

...an Corcoran, also writing on the game said: "Dean a big point getter for Nampa all last winter, was held to five points, all from the foul line, as his prime duty was to serve as ...r' for the sharpshooting Monson, Stringfield and Jim Bennett, the Genesee flash, who played a whale of a game." He further wrote: "The East rolled in late stages of the game ... Bus Conner of Heyburn high ...ed in eight fast points, but the West staunchly held its margin. Bennett hit a push shot from the corner with a minute and one-half remaining and Stephens hit a lay-in, plus Sather's rebound, to cinch the game."

Commenting briefly on the game on ... here and before leaving for ..., Hammond said he had a fine group of players to work with. They played well together, and excelled the East in every department although the East held a height advantage. He did not substitute on a team basis, but sent men in and out as developments and situations warranted. The Genesee coach also said he employed simple screens and blocks to good advantage, and his West team had no difficulty with Coach Clark's out-of-bounds play. The Idaho Falls coach had his men taking the ball out every time his team was awarded a single free throw, and they used the same tactics when two shots were given, taking the first shot and throwing in the second. This strategy paid off in the Idaho state Class A tournament at Moscow when Idaho Falls beat out Nampa by one point, but it didn't work last Thursday at Nampa.

Warehouses Leveled By Fire With Flames Consuming Elevator

Genesee suffered its most disastrous fire early Sunday morning when fire swept through warehouses east and west of Prairie Flour Mill company elevator, pictured above, and being consumed by flames. Fire of unknown origin, claimed the sack houses of the milling company, a warehouse of the Farmers Union Producers company which rented space to the Inland Motor Freight company; the coal, presto-log and paint storage buildings of the Producers company, and damaged transmission lines of the Washington Water Power company and property of the Northern Pacific Railway company. Threatened were buildings across the street north, east and west. At one time the Fickens shop was ablaze, which required heroic effort to save, and keep fire from spreading towards the main business district of Genesee. Scorching heat did not prevent Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards and family, with volunteers from saving their home south of the Prairie Flour Mill company buildings. Courage was required for men to combat heat which was terrific at the Producers office, lumber shed, and large gasoline and fuel oil tanks and storage plant nearby. Arrival of the Moscow Rural Fire District truck, the Uniontown fire truck, and men and equipment from the two towns, and men from Colton, greatly relieved anxiety when they joined the Genesee Fire Department in preventing spread of fire in all directions. Genesee Threatened By Worst Fire In All Time

Genesee's most destructive fire, estimated to have caused over $100,000 in losses, terrified this community early Sunday morning. Most agree the fire was first noticed about 12:45 a. m. Sunday, but the suddenness of the widespread conflagration left many without knowledge of the exact time.

Fire raged the entire length of the Prairie Flour Mill company warehouses and included the Farmers Union Producers company warehouse to the east. Flames spreading over the entire length, and which lacks about 80 feet of being a full two blocks, was beyond any conceivable control when the alarm was sounded, and far beyond any reasonable chances of control when the fire was first noticed.

Besides the warehouses and elevators along "warehouse row," with the exception of the H. J. Martinson elevator and warehouse, heavy losses were sustained by the Farmers Union Producers company. Going up in flames were a coal, presto-log and paint supply storage house, built a few years ago; an older coal shed and a supply of cedar shingles. The company's office, lumber yard and bulk fuel storage tanks and plant were saved, but not before the yard and office had been somewhat scorched and direly threatened. Men, with a small hose and wet sacks controlled grass fires which started on the company's property and near the R. L. Edwards home.

Help Arrives In Time

Arrival of the Moscow and Uniontown fire trucks and men provided relief for the tiring local men. Their arrival also permitted the Genesee firemen to concentrate on "holding the line" against spread of fire toward the business section. Carl Smith, Moscow fire chief, deployed his men to best advantage, and after making an initial run to property south of the fire where the frame buildings were doused with water from a supply carried on the truck, about 1300 feet of large hose was connected to a main near the depot. Moscow firemen left about a 1000 feet of hose here for use should the fire break out during a wind. Also here to assist were members of the Colton fire department.

Consternation lined faces of many early Sunday morning as intrepid firemen and volunteers moved in close to seering flames which were consuming nearly two blocks of warehouses and an elevator. Their efforts were not directed toward the raging fire but to saving nearby buildings and stop further conflagration which could have engulfed the entire town, and even been carried to standing grain fields. Genesee, by the courageous action of firemen and others, and there being no wind, was saved from what could have been complete destruction.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Faling said he was looking for a suitable place in Genesee to place a supply of livestock and poultry feeds to meet demands of buyers, and that Mr. Lough would be in charge when a place is found.

An explosion of considerable volume, occurring when the fire broke out adjacent to the west side of the elevator, awakened a number of people, and almost immediately the siren sounded. The explosion was more noticeable than those heard later when barrels of fuel, oil, turpentine or linseed oil exploded.

Fight For Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards, whose home was almost miraculously spared, said they first saw fire in the west end of the Prairie Flour Mill company sack warehouse. They believed the first fire seen was about midway between the elevator in the center and the west wall. Almost instantaneously the flames swept eastward, leaped the narrow alley, and soon therafter the company's elevator was belching flames. They told of attempts to turn in a local fire alarm before calling Moscow. Soon thereafter the fire siren sounded. The Edwards family lives south of the warehouse and elevator site, and did not see the local fire trucks on the move almost before the wail of the siren ended. Several men, however, knowing of the plight the Edwards family would be in, went to their aid, and when the Moscow and Uniontown fire trucks arrived their safety was assured. The family fought bravely, having only a small garden hose to extinguish fires as they broke out in the yard and on the porch. At times it seemed hopeless, as roofing paper and walls of the home smoked. Mrs. Edwards did not notice until after the danger point has passed that her dress had a hole burned in the back, and that an ember which she picked from her hair had caused a blister to form.

Fickens Shop Danger Point

Genesee firemen strung out two lines of hose, one to control the spread of fire from the highway district building east, while the second line was hooked up to fight fire which had started to burn the Fickens shop. This was considered the danger point, and demanded the utmost of firemen and others as the heat was intense. The Genesee Rural Fire District truck with its emergency tank of water was used at the west end Fickens shop where men for a time were waging a losing battle until the larger stream of water was brought into play. Much credit must go to the men who braved the seering heat at the shop. Those who held the large hose, pulled a two-wheel trailer along and when the best place to fight fire was reached they upturned the vehicle as protection from the heat. A large sheet of metal became too warm to hold upright for the men to stand near.

Garages Evacuate Cars

Much of the contents of the Paul Dinsen garage were moved out, and all motor vehicles that could be moved were rolled out of the Helbling and Emerson garages. Many business owners moved records to places of safety and men were stationed on almost every roof to guard against sparks igniting the roofing. Windows in the John G. Meyer building, which houses his school buses were broken out by the heat. A small fire started at the highway district building, but was easily extinguished.

No Wind During Fire

There was no wind when the fire started and none came up later to increase the danger. At times the fire and smoke veered northward, then went straight up, but for the most part the black smoke and fire tended southward. It was reported that burning embers, after reaching altitude, were borne eastward as far as the John Luedke place, and a very small patch of grass was set afire in the City Cemetery. Sparks and embers floated over grain and stubble fields just south of town, but there was evidently sufficient humidity to ward off burning.

Losses Run High

An estimated 25,000 bushels of peas and grain, chiefly peas, were in storage, mostly new crop. Irv Faling, assistant manager and field representative of Prairie Flour Mill company, said Wednesday afternoon, that all grain and peas stored in the warehouses and elevators were fully covered by insurance. Included in company's losses were stocks of livestock feed, seed, insecticides, stock remedies, salt and miscellaneous items, in addition to buildings and machinery.

Florent Moser, manager of the Union Producers company, without a complete check up to Wednesday, believed company losses would run to approximately $15,000. Largest single item was around 180 tons of coal in storage. The large stock of oil, grease, cleaning solvent and such, stored in the Producers company warehouse was on consignment from the Standard Oil company.

There was an unestimated loss suffered by Inland Motor Freight company, and by persons having merchandise there for delivery or shipment, which was not covered by insurance.

Loss to the Producers also included aluminum roofing, wall board, patented window frames and glass, a large supply of nails, roofing materials, paints and oils, turpentine, and approximately 40 tons of pres-to-logs.

Tracks of the Northern Pacific Railway company were severely damaged by heat and fire. Tracks adjacent to the coal storage building, the elevator and barrel oil storage were grotesquely buckled. F. K. Sims, agent for the N. P., on first seeing the fire wired information on the fire to Spokane headquarters, and soon thereafter the telegraph lines went out of commission.

Losses to the Washington Water Power company, whose transmission lines parallel warehouse row lost three transformers, three poles and wire, and south of the fire area a pole and wire was damaged, necessitating replacement.

Lineman of the Power company from Moscow were here shortly after the fire reached its peak, and before daylight were starting to dig holes for new poles. A crew came in from Pullman at daybreak, and by 10 a. m. Sunday the lines were back in use. Floyd Ochs, local manager, threw the switch for lines affected by fire.

Lough Has Office At Home

S. U. Lough, local manager for the Prairie Flour Mill company, announces he will conduct business at his home for the company for the present. His telephone number is 2441, and he and Irv. Faling would like to have everyone who had new- or old-crop peas or grain in the elevator and warehouses to contact them, unless they have already seen them. All records of the company, except for Friday and Saturday are in the company's head office at Lewiston. The two men also said weight tickets presented for storage would naturally be honored.

Old Landmarks Gone

Obliterated by fire are warehouses which were landmarks. The Producers company warehouse at the east end of warehouse row was constructed in 1895 by John P. Vollmer. Adjoining it was the T. D. Driscoll warehouse, built in 1895, and managed for years by Joe Hasfurther. Mr. Hasfurther believes the other warehouse section, that owned by Prairie Flour Mill company, was constructed by the Seattle Grain company in the same year. It was acquired by M. B. Mikkelsen in more recent years, and in 1931 or 1932 a section of the "sack house" was removed to permit erection of the elevator, used mostly for pea processing, although in rush seasons it was employed to sack off grain for storage in the warehouse sections.

No Decision On Rebuilding

Irv Faling of Prairie Flour Mill company, said Wednesday there was no decision on rebuilding, and none would be made for sometime. He said insurance was far below replacement costs. The elevator of 45,000 bushel capacity could not be deplicated for any thing like original outlay.

Producers To Build At Once

Florent Moser was certain his company would start at once to build an addition to the bulk plant to store oils and greases, and after harvest work will start on a building to store coal and other fuels, building materials and paint and supplies.

Farmers Union Producers expects a shipment of coal soon, and more is on order. Moser also said he felt there would be no shortages within a few days when materials lost by fire will be replaced.

J. P. Hermann Stricken At 1:30 P. M. Thursday

J. P. Hermann, born May 17, 1888 at Oregon City, Ore., and a resident of the Pine Grove community and Genesee for 45 years, succumbed to a heart attack at the ranch home about 1:30 p. m. Thursday. He had been in the canyon in the morning to move some cattle, covering the distance by horseback. He had helped during harvest by driving truck, and had completed this work Wednesday. Thursday his two sons, Phil and Don were away from home, engaged in harvest work for a neighbor. Mrs. Phil Hermann, who was at the home with the children and her sister, Patty Aherin, said her father-in-law appeared weary when he came to the house for the noon meal, and took more time than usual in eating. Later he went outdoors and when he returned he was perspiring profusely. He informed his daughter-in-law that he was in distress, and requested that the doctor be called. Mr. Hermann passed away within a few minutes after the doctor was summoned.

Besides his wife, Mr. Hermann is survived by two sons, Phil and Don, both of Genesee, and four sisters and a brother, all residing in the Portland area. The body is at Short's Funeral Home in Moscow. Funeral services are pending, with the family here suggesting that final rites be conducted here Monday.

Traveling From Los Angeles Leo Heppner Here On Visit

Leo Heppner, technical advisor at a photographic laboratory at Aberdeen Proving, Grounds, Md., arrived Friday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heppner, and with other relatives and friends. For the past month he was in Los Angeles on a special assignment. He traveled by plane from Maryland to California, and also went by plane from Los Angeles to Spokane.

Returning east about Aug. 15 he will board a plane at Spokane.

Heppner, who has been at Aberdeen Proving Grounds for six months, has had the opportunity of visiting relatives of Mrs. Alfred Gehrke at Baltimore, and one evening while witnessing the Ice Follies in Washington, D. C., he noticed among the big crowd, while being seated, Mrs. Vernon Merrill (Olwyn Evans) one of his former teachers at Genesee high school. They were privileged to visit for some ten minutes before the show started.

Service Men At Home

Cpl. and Mrs. Wayne Schwenne, Sgt. Don Lee, Pfc. Harold Kluss, Cpl. Ray Broenneke and Cpl. Don Hermann arrived in Genesee late Sunday night from California. The boys from here are on furloughs, with the exception of Don Hermann, a reservist, who received his discharge. Cpl. and Mrs. Schwenne, traveling by car were also accompanied to Genesee by Pfc. Kenneth Hill of Lewiston, a brother of Mrs. Clinton Herman. The boys all plan to work in harvest during their furloughs.

The Roth family moved to Lewiston in 1921, where Mr. Roth died in 1939. Mrs. Roth returned to Genesee in 1946 and when ill health overtook her she moved to Spokane last February. E. D. Whiteaker Dies Following Long Illness

Edwin DeVere Whiteaker, a resident of Genesee since 1946, passed away at his home here Saturday following a long illness. On June 14 he entered Gritman Memorial hospital at Moscow for a major operation. He returned home ten days later to remain until death came August 4 at 7:10 p. m.

Grows Two-Headed Wheat With Aid Of Frost Or 2, 4-D

James Myers, lookinig over a field of Idaed spring wheat at his ranch Wednesday noticed a number of odd-shaped heads in the grain. Closer examination showed the wheat had developed twin heads. The double heads were not large but were fully as well filled as an ordinary Idaed head and contained a similar number of kernels. Double heads have been seen on sucker plants, which came up after a killing frost, but they seldom contained kernels. Questioning several who have witnessed effects of weed spray on spring wheat emerging from the ground it was learned that quite often the sprayed plants will develop freakish growths. Mr. Myers said he had sprayed for weeds in an adjoining field and some of the weed killer may have floated over the wheat.

Genesee Valley News

The weather is somewhat cooler but the wind is hard on the farmers' eyes in the field. Pea harvesting is about over but green heads in that wheat is delaying wheat combining. It will be another week before the wheat will be ready except in a few fields of the early variety. Wm. Broemeling is building a large new rambling ranch type house, barn and other buildings, establishing a new farmstead along the new speedway, which will give him a better outlet in winter. It makes one sorry that good feed has to go up in smoke when there are so many hungry people in the world who could use it. It should be a lesson for smokers to be more careful when they throw their cigarettes.

Car Stops With Tires Afire

A Nez Perce county Buick owner was no more surprised Wednesday afternoon than were people on the streets here. When his car came to a stop in front of Rice's Market, smoke enveloped the rear end, coming from beneath the fuel tank, the two rear tires blew out just as Virgil Post and Howard Broemeling came from the Ford garage to answer his call for assistance. The driver said he had the car brakes adjusted in Lewiston before coming to Genesee. He noticed no drag when coming up the hill, but when using brakes to stop at the Robinson hardware store corner, he could smell the rubber burning. Headed to the Emerson garage the wheels locked in front of the market. The brake drums and hubs of the rear wheels were hot enough to start a fire.

Harvest In Full Stride No Storage Problems

Harvesting in the Genesee country progressing rapidly this week, with more and more combines creeping over the Palouse hills and valleys. There is a noticeable slack in harvest operations for a few days, owing to slow ripening of fall grain fields that were touched by frost, and in some fields where reseeding operations became necessary. Harvest has perhaps reached the peak for this season, but it will be a rather sustained peak, with no rush. Weather remains ideal for harvesting of all crops. Hot and dry have been weather reports ever since harvest began in this area, with no rain to delay operations. Humidity has remained low throughout the season, which is unusual, but is permitting a more orderly clipping of the grain and pea fields.

Reports of some exceptionally good winter wheat and peas have been heard of this season, but for the most part, the average yield is a trifle below normal, owing to winter kill, reseeding and the change in orders for limited wheat seedings due to the Korean situation, which suggested a larger spring planting than normal. Weather has not been favorable for spring crops this season, although the yields are not disappointing.

Storage space for grain at Genesee does not seem to be a perplexing problem this season, owing to the small carryover at beginning of harvest. The Northern Pacific Railway company began daily freight service and maintained such service for quite some time, and when the carryover became is troublesome in face of a new crop coming on the rail company continued more frequent service to greatly relieve the situation. With a few cars arriving each week during harvest, elevator men here believe there will be little or no use for outside storage. It depends somewhat too on how many tons of stored dried peas can be moved to processing plants before the end of harvest.

Prairie Flour Mill Company Reopens Local Feed Store

Irv Faling, assistant manager and field representative for Prairie Flour Mill company of Lewiston, whose elevator, warehouses and office burned before August 5, said Wednesday he had arranged for temporary quarters in the H. J. Martinson property here for reopening a feed store. The company will not make use of the elevator or warehouse space. S. U. Lough, local manager for the Prairie Flour Mill Co., will be in charge of the feed store at its temporary location.

Salvage of burned grain and peas, chiefly the latter, at the site of the disastrous fire of August 5, is being done by O. O. Turner of Pullman. The structure and contents, a total loss, according to Mr. Faling, finds the salvage going to the Pullman man in exchange for clearing the premises. The large amount of metal roofing, twisted and bent by heat, is also being salvaged by the company, and is finding demand from men in the sheep business, who use the roofing for sheep and lambing sheds in the Snake river valley and alsewhere.

Smoke still rises from the debris caused by the fire, and only during the past few days have flames and smokes ceased to issue from the piles of stored coal at the Farmers Union Producers company. This company is making plans for immediate construction to house oils and greases and solid fuels of all kinds. Florent Moser said he was certain shipments of fuel will be available for storage at homes within a few days or weeks.

Allen Schark At Iowa State Family Now Located At Ames

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schark and daughter, who lived at Genesee while Mr. Schark was attending and graduating from the University of Idaho, are now located at 1008 Pammel Court. He was granted a fellowship at Iowa State Agricultural College. Mrs. Schark writes the following letter to The News which will be of interest to friends of the family here:

Dear Pedersons:

"Things are beginning to get settled into a routine, so I can take care of such matters as sending for The Genesee News. I miss reading news about people I know, and am anxious to start receiving the paper again.

"We have been having weather since we left Idaho—all kinds of it. The day before we left Nebraska they had a terrible hailstorm at Bayard, breaking nearly all the plate glass windows on the east side of Main street. Four hours after the storm the hailstones were still about the size of golf balls. The same day there was a tornado at Sidney, so we were glad to be moving along. Here in Ames we have had lots of hot, humid weather, but today it is cool and raining.

"We are living in the college housing project. Our apartment is in a barracks-type duplex. Some of them have been fixed up quite homelike, while others are rather barren. On the whole, they aren't too bad.

"Allen keeps busy as can be. His boss is really a worker and keeps everyone on his toes. The potatoes were hailed out, so he is working on breeding new onion varities and new corn varieties.

"Bunny is anxiously waiting for the first of September when school starts and she goes to kindergarten.

"We are hoping the next four or five years go quickly and then we're coming back to dear old Idaho or the Northwest."

Well Known Rancher Buried Here Monday

Funeral services for J. P. Hermann were conducted from St. Mary's Catholic church Monday morning at 9 with the Rev. Fr. B. McBride officiating at the church and at the graveside. Interment was in Genesee City Cemetery, where members of Bielenberg-Schooler Post, American Legion accorded military honors to the deceased veteran of World War I. Taps were sounded by J. D. Anderson and Rex Eikum. Rosary services were conducted at Short's Chapel in Moscow Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Honorary pallbearers, selected by Genesee Council, Knights of Columbus, of which Mr. Hermann was a member, were Wilson Esser, Anthony Weber, Andrew Zenner, Herman Bielenberg, Robert Kuhn and Florent Moser. Active pallbearers were James Cameron, Robert Gray, Dick Green, Peter Isaksen, Charles Schooler and Gus Fickens.

J. P. Hermann, who died suddenly at 1:30 o'clock August 9 at the ranch home was a resident of the Gray Eagle community east of Genesee for 47 years, and of Genesee for two years. He was born at Oregon City, Ore., May 17, 1888, and came to Genesee at the age of 14 years. He was preceded here by a brother, Charles Hermann, and when the late deceased became of age he homesteaded land which is retained by the family, and now farmed by a son, J. P. (Phil) Hermann. After Mr. and Mrs. Hermann retired to live in Genesee, the late deceased enjoyed being at the ranch, and on the morning of the day of his death he had gone by horseback into the canyon pasture to bring some cattle out. Harvesting had been completed at the Hermann ranch on August 8, which permitted the two Hermann brothers, Donald and Phil to assist neighbors with harvesting. The elder Mr. Hermann showed fatigue when he came in for his noon meal, according to Mrs. Phil Hermann. He ate sparingly, but took his time, more perhaps than usual, after which he went outdoors. Returning, he informed his daughter-in-law that he was in distress and requested that a doctor be summoned. Mr. Hermann passed away within a few minutes after returning to the home, death being due to a heart attack.

Jacob Phillip Hermann and Miss Mary Gibb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibb, well known pioneers of the Gray Eagle community, were married June 3, 1920 at Lewiston. Their home until moving to Genesee was on the ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Hermann enjoyed the friendship and high respect of evryone with whom they became acquainted in the entire Genesee community, and the lasting friendship was attested to in the many floral and other tributes.

The deceased was the seventh child in a family of eight born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Hermann I. Our late friend was preceded in death by two brothers, Charles and Adam Hermann. Surviving are the widow; two sons, J. P. and Donald, and two grandchildren, Christine and Peggy Lee Hermann, all of Genesee; a brother, William Hermann, Portland, and four sisters, Mrs. Barbara Spurlock and Mrs. Robert McGowan, both of Portland, Mrs. Enos Wilson, Newport, Ore., and Mrs. Elizabeth Michels, Klamath Falls, Ore. All were here for funeral services except Mrs. Michels, who was unable to attend.

During World War I, the deceased was in the army air service, then a part of the U. S. Signal Corps. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus at Genesee and the Elks Lodge at Lewiston. He was a member of the board of directors of the Genesee Union Warehouse company, and had served as committeeman in various phases of the farm program, most recently as a member of the Nez Perce County Production Marketing Administration.

School Reopens September 4 Beginners To Register Soon

Legal age for children entering school is six years on or before October 1, announces Supt. H. Warren Downing. All beginners should register at least one week before school opens, which is September 4. This applies particularly to children living on school transportation routes, and early registration is necessary to plan routing schedules. Supt. Downing requests parents to consult him at once either in person or by telephone, to make registration.

The summer maintenance work, supervised by Joe Kalafus, has been completed for the gymnasium and various classrooms. Ten new typing tables have been made for the typing room by carpenters, Schooler and Hickman, and an automatic stoker is to be installed at the lunch center by October 1 by Lloyd Esser and crew.

GI School Time Extended

An additional 30 days will be given to enter education or training courses to all veterans whose supplemental certificates were issued on July 23, 24 and 25, according to Leon Fields, regional manager.

Information was received from the Washington office of the Veterans Administration that these three days will be considered as a part of the mail delivery and necessary time lapse for processing such applications. These veteran students must register on or before August 24, or at the earliest date enrolment of students in the course is permitted.

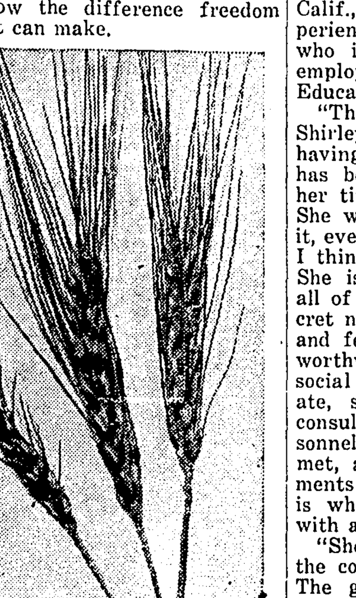
It Pays To Treat Seed Wheat To Control All Kinds Of Smut

There is a lesson for every wheat grower in this picture. The sickly head of wheat at the left has been the victim of stinking smut .The two larger heads, from practically the same stand, show the difference freedom from smut can make.



The smut-infested and healthy wheat grew in adjoining fields, under similar conditions. The two healthy heads were grown from seed that had been treated against smut before it was planted. The "runt" head of wheat did not have the benefit of this treatment.

Fortunately, not all wheat is blighted by smut. Losses from this fungus disease are high enough, however, to more than justify treating all seed wheat. The small cost of about ten cents per acre is cheap insurance against crop disappointments that can take many dollars out of the wheat grower's pocket. Treating will also help prevent the spread of dwarf smut to new and uncontaminated areas.

Dr. Jack Clark And Family On Vacation In Northwest

Dr. and Mrs. Jack W. Clark, former residents of Genesee, arrived on Wednesday from South Bend, Ind., where Mrs. Clark and the three children, Judy, Patricia and Nancy, had been living while Dr. Clark was at Fairbanks, Alaska, for about twelve months. Leaving Genesee two years ago, the family went to New York City where Dr. Clark was engaged in further study of radioactive medicine and treatment. Meeting another young doctor who had been in practice in Alaska, Dr. Clark became interested in going to the North Country. He found Fairbanks a city of great possibilities, but without the advantages desirable for a family. He was with an established clinic at Fairbanks, and found comfortable quarters for himself, but none adequate for his wife and three daughters.

Dr. Clark returned to the States once while practicing in Alaska to be with his father during a critical illness. His parents reside at Bristol near Elkhart, Ind. Mrs. Clark's parents reside at South Bend.

Dr. Clark, with his family, is making a leisurely motor trip from South Bend to the Pacific Northwest.

Miss Haymond In Italy With U. S. Consulate

Mrs. Harold Haymond of San Jose, Calif., writes interestingly of the experiences of her daughter, Shirley, who is an United States Consulate employe with the Information and Education Division at Milan, Italy.

"Things are going very well with Shirley, and needless to say, she is having the time of her young life. She has been gone five months now, so her time will soon be a fourth over. She will be returning before I know it, even though it seems forever when I think of it in terms of two years. She is not able to tell anything at all of her work because it is of a secret nature, but she says she likes it and feels she is doing a job that is worthwhile. There is a great deal of social life connected with the consulate, such as the consul and viceconsuls who entertain for new personnel. She likes all the girls she has met, and there are two with apartments in the same building where she is whom she visits back and forth with a great deal.

"She has also been seeing some of the country. She has been to Venice. The girl she traveled over on the ship with is in Venice, and they have become very good friends and plan to spend their vacations together. She has also been to the Italian Riviera and to Lake Como a couple times. When she landed in Naples she and her girl friend were met by a man from the State Department, and he took charge of their luggage, etc., and a car and driver met them there to take them to Rome. They were given a week in Rome to get accustomed to listening to "The Voice of America" programs, and were given a gay whirl there by different ones in the Embassy. Shirley liked Rome and said that quite contrary to what she would have thought, the city is quite modern and has wonderful shops, apartments and hotels. She went from there to Milan by train. Every place she goes she has such interesting experiences, and meets so many people —and wherever Americans meet they introduce themselves and act like old friends.

"As Shirley writes, she has been exposed to considerable culture and is getting so she enjoys even that. She has seen the Russian ballet twice, and I guess it is really wonderful. And then there has been a number of concerts and other things of a theatrical nature at the LaScala Opera House.

"The Department encourages their people to go out with people of the country where they are stationed because they figure that does more than anything else to cement friendly relations. She has an Italian teacher now, and is really going after the language, which, she says, is almost a necessity."

Mrs. Haymond, who is engaged in secretarial work in the psychology department at San Jose State College, adds that the ten-week summer session is drawing to a close, and with the small teaching staff now in the department, she is not busy. Before the fall session begins she will have two weeks with relatives at Pasadena.

Only Residents Of Trustee Districts Vote For Trustees

Beginning with the school board election, dated for September 4, only residents who are qualified voters of a trustee district shall be eligible to vote for a trustee in that district. For instance: Joint School District No. 282 will name two school board members at the coming election. H. K. Koster is the trustee from trustee district No. 1, and Paul Parks is the trustee representing trustee district No. 5. Both men's terms expire next month, and may be reelected. However, voters in trustee districts Nos. 2, 3 and 4, are not eligible under the amended statute to vote for trustee to represent districts Nos. 1 and 5.

At elections held in previous years qualified voters in all trustee districts voted for trustees in each and every other district.

On another page the official school election notice appears.

INTERSTATE TELEPHONE COMPANY

State A Preferred Creditor Under New Idaho Lien Law

Public assistance has become "big business" in Idaho, according to the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce.

Because it directly affects more than 12,200 households and involves the expenditure of more than $800,000 a month of combined state and federal funds it is important that our business, professional and agricultural groups familiarize themselves with the actual facts about the Idaho Public Assistance law, the Old-Age Assistance program and particularly the recently enacted "lien law."

Any activity of state government that has grown from a total expenditure of $3,670,000 in the two-year period of 1937-38 to a total in the current two-year period of $10,580,000, which is about 40 per cent of all general fund appropriations, deserves more than casual or emitional consideration from the taxpaying public.

In June of this year in Idaho there were 11,025 persons receiving old-age assistance; 5,931 aid to dependent children cases; 627 cases of permanent and totally disabled, and 207 blind cases.

The old-age assistance program has been in the spotlight since the legislature in January adopted an amendment to the public assistance law known as the lien law. The lien law provides that any old-age assistance awarded after July 1, 1951, to an individual who owns real property or an interest in real property, shall be subject to recovery by the state.

The question is: "How can such payments be collected under the lien law?" It is this phase of the matter that has produced columns of letters to the editors, a few evidences of obvious mis-statements and a great deal of emotional fanfare, some of which has had tinges of coloring.

Most important as a basis for understanding is a clear picture of what the Idaho law is designed to accomplish, and probably more important— what the law is not. The Idaho law is based on the policy of adding state and federal money to the recipient's income available from all other sources, to provide a reasonable standard of living or "maintenance income."

It is important that the public understand that we do not have a "pension law" in Idaho but a "public assistance" law exactly as it is designated by statute.

The lien law amendment provides for the collection of amounts received after July 1, 1951 by having the recipient sign an agreement, if her or she owns real property or an interest in real property, pledging such real property for the recovery of these payments. In effect, this constitutes an agreement between the state and the recipient of old-age assistance that money paid by the state after July 1, 1951, will be repaid out of any assets that remain in the estate of the recipient after prior claims have been paid from the estate. The recipients do not "sign over their property to the state" as has been widely charged. The state merely takes its place as a preferred creditor at the time any existing estate if probated but behind such prior claims as hospital, last illness, burial or other claims and the exemption of $300 allowed by law for the surviving spouse. In actual practice the needy recipients do not suffer and whatever cash loss is involved would come as a reduction in the amount which surviving heirs might otherwise receive.

Obviously, most people on pubilc assistance do not leave large estates that require prompt probating, and the number of cases in which a surviving husband or wife must probate the estate is correspondingly small. Unless the estate is probated the state has no opportunity to recover from the surviving spouse.

Public assistance is such an important matter that it deserves unemotional, factual analysis by every citizen. Like many other problems of state and local government, if it is ignored it encourages expansion of federal activity.

Cabinet Gorge Damsite Ready For Observation

Northwest residents and tourists will have the opportunity to witness construction work at the Washington Water Power company's Cabinet Gorge damsite on the Clark Fork river in Bonner county, Idaho.

J. E. E. Royer, WWP vice president and general manager, said a public observation point had been cleared and a safety fence erected on high ground a short distance downsrteam from where the 170-foot high dam and power house will soon be taking form.

The observation point is on the north side of the river, reached by a short access road from highway 10-A, and starting this week end will be open to the public during daylight hours.

It offers a sweeping view of the construction area where some 900 men are now engaged in preliminary work on the $50,000,000 WWP hydroelectric project which will be Idaho's largest when completed in the fall of 1952.

"Signs have been placed on the highway to direct visitors to the observation point," Mr. Royer said. "And there is ample parking space in the vicinity of the vista area. Cabinet Gorge is located seven miles east of Clark Fork. It is approximately 30 miles from Sandpoint.

Mr. Royer said the construction area was alive with activity as construction crews of Morrison-Knudsen, major contractors erecting the 200,000-kilowatt project, completed preliminary phases of the work.

Construction schedules call for diversion of the swift-flowing Clark Fork river this summer. Coffer-dams, used to block the river from the damsite, will be thrown across the stream and its water channeled through twin diversion tunnels, each 1000 feet long.

The river bed will be pumped dry and excavation made for the high dam which will arch acros sthe river for some 500 feet. It is expected major concrete pouring will begin in November. More than 500,000 cubic yards of excavation is called for in the project, and 500 railroad cars of cement will be mixed for the dam and power house.

WWP officials said it would be impossible to allow visitors within the construction area itself because of possible danger from the heavy equipment shuttling over the area. Explanation of the work in progress will be made through literature, folders and maps available at a special view platform that has been prepared on the observation site.

Others receiving votes from Genesee were G. Pederson, catcher, and Dick Scharnhorst, second baseman.

War On Weeds To Be Waged Couty Weed Agent States

Donald E. Herring, Latah County weed supervisor submits the following for publication:

"If we, as farmers, landlords, operators and tenants, expect to hold our own with the weed situation we must continue the Latah county weed control program now in its fourth year.

"The county in the past years has sprayed the county roads, state highways, county-owned land and many other major weed spraying operations that have been a source of weed infestation to agricultural land.

"Educational meetings have been held throughout the county these past three years. Articles have appeared from time to time in local newspapers.

"The Production and Marketing Administration has set up noxious weed payments to encourage weed control measures. The farmer is paid $7.50 per acre for a clean cultivation program on a determined infestation basis. Payments are made to farmers for applying chlorate, 2, 4-D and other types of weed control chemicals. Yet we find farms infested with noxious weeds of wind-blown types going uncontrolled that are signed up for payments under P. M. A. practices.

"The first essential step in any weed control program is to stop planting crop seeds that contain noxious weed seeds. The second step is to stop noxious weeds from producing seed to infest clean ground.

When Canada thistles are allowed to make seed they will blow for miles, starting hundreds of new patches, making a double job for the man who is trying to keep his farm free from noxious weeds.

"The county, state highways, Potlatch Forests, Inc., many farmers and others are participating and trying to do the job. Yet there are a few individuals in the county who as yet have not made too much effort to control the noxious weed—Canada thistle. This is not right, therefore, with this condition, which is being caused by these individuals, we are forced to use the rules and regulations by law to reduce the condition that exists in Latah county by not controlling the noxious weed—Canada thistle.

"Practically all of the farmers in the county are familiar with these regulations. All farmers signed up under P. M. A. weed control practices have been mailed these regulations and the others have received such information either by mail or through educational meetings held throughout the county in the past three years.

"These regulations are going to be followed very closely this year by the weed control office. The farmers themselves have brought this action on. Many are not making any effort to control Canada thistle before it starts to blow.

"The following rules and regulations which have been adopted by P. M. A. and the Noxious Weed Law of the State of Idaho, will be put into force effective to date.

"Noxious Weed Law of the State of Idaho and the P. M. A. regulations which read: Note—The applicant for a practice under P. M. A. regular payments covering the use of either periodic cultivation or on chemicals in the control of designated perennial noxious weeds will also be required to adopt such measures which will prevent the maturity of seed of wind-blown types of perennial noxious weeds from other infestations on all land under his control in this county which would be a direct source of infestation to cropland.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather is somewhat cooler, and Saturday we had a dust storm. The ladies just love to have dust come on Saturday afternoon after they have their houses cleaned up nice for Sunday. It seems to us from this distance that higher-ups in Washington, D. C., should clear the beam out of their own eyes before they clamp down too hard at West Point. We don't condone the practice of cheating in anything, but cribbing in exams is as old as education itself, and it is rather laughable that Uncle Sugar just found out it was being done at West Point. The women are busy cooking and canning, and the men are busy in harvest, so there isn't so much news this week. The women (bless their hearts) a rehauling grain again. Pea harvest is about completed and some wheat is going to the elevators.

Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leitch, Bobby and Frances of Santa Monica, Cal., came Monday for a two weeks' visit with the former's sister, Mrs. J. P. Wedin, and family. Mr. Leitch is a teacher in the Santa Monica schools.

Sunday afternoon callers at John Eikum's were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoseid and children of Anatone, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray.

Mrs. Leon Danielson and Mrs. Lilly Larson called on Mrs. Melvin Hatton Monday afternoon.

Wayne Borgen arrived home Monday to help his father harvest. He went to Oregon to harvest and found out no one is allowed to work there until he is 18 years old.

Friday supper guests at Eikums' were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds and Zoe of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Eikum and Sally and Peggy of Richland, Wash. Leon is employed at the Hanford Atomic plant.

Mrs. Wm. Haxton is nursing a sore finger which she hurt in an electric mixer, nearly cutting off the nail.

98% of the FARM HOMES IN WASHINGTON AND IDAHO are ELECTRIFIED!

The big job of bringing electricity to farm homes in the two states is practically completed. Private electric companies which laid the groundwork for electrical development and the REA with federal funds have worked hard to make this possible. Today, 98 out of every 100 farm homes in Idaho and Washington have electric service available.

The Washington Water Power Company pioneered farm electrification in the Inland Empire. Way back in 1906 when horses and buggies, muddy roads, and outdoor plumbing were common, records show that the first W.W.P. lines were starting to reach Inland Empire farms. In those years electricity was used only for light, and few farms were in the market for electricity. In 1935 the REA backed with federal funds speeded farm electrification. Today the big job is nearly done.

Farmers Union Producers Co. Ready To Start New Building

John Hoduffer, employed by the Farmers Union Producers company, is making preparations to start pouring concrete footings for an addition to be constructed to the present bulk fuel plant here. The addition, which will be erected south of the metal-covered plant building will be 30 by 36 feet, and replaces storage space destroyed by fire when the Prairie Flour Mill company elevator and warehouse went up in flames Aug. 5.

The addition is being built to accommodate storage space for, oils, greases, special fuels and asphalt materials for roofing.

Florent Moser, manager of the Union Producers company, said Wednesday he was experiencing no difficulty in handling the coal situation. Cars of coal have been received and consumers are moving the fuel directly from cars. The company plans to construct a building for coal storage after the rush of harvest, but until the building can be completed coal will be stored on the concrete slabs, once the floors of coal sheds destroyed by fire.

Everything stored in the old warehouse across the track north of the railroad tracks was completely destroyed by fire with the exception of insulating material. It's resistance to extreme heat was clearly demonstrated during the fire. None of it burned and it is believed the paper bags containing the material, and located beneath the surface was protected and not even browned.

Union Warehouse Co. Adds Storage Space For Supplies

Charles Schooler and John Hickman are engaged in construction of an addition to the storage section of the West End Union elevator plant. The addition is 87 feet long, 16 feet wide and 15 feet at the eaves, with a 10-foot roof rise. The extra storage space is located at the south side of the new concrete elevator, an extension of a similar space which connects the newer round tank section with the wooden elevator.

Having two floors, this extra space will be used to store feeds and other supplies. The first floor is on a level with railway car floors. The building is of wood construction, on concrete footings and posts, and will be faced and roofed with galvanized iron.

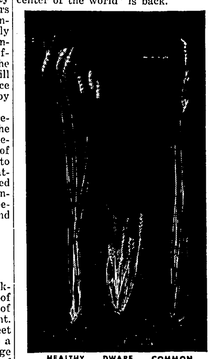
Genesee Elevators Overflowing Wheat Going Into Outside Bins

Smut Center Of The World May Be Pacific Northwest

Dwarf smut, sometimes called sucker smut or stubble smut, occurs only in winter wheat. In 1949 it was found in Washington and Idaho and one section of Oregon. However, it is spreading. The wheat smut problem which once caused the Pacific Northwest to become known as the "wheat smut center of the world" is back.



The recommendation for control of smut is to grow resistant varieties and clean and treat all wheat seed. Treating kills all smut spores on the seed and has proved a positive method of reducing common smut or bunt.

Dwarf smut, primarily soil borne, is a more difficult problem. Dwarf smut spores live in the soil for two years or more. Seed treating prevents introduction of the spores to new, clean fields.

Certain varieties of winter wheat are more resistant to dwarf smut than others. Farmers may change to resistant varieties or to spring wheat.

Union's Million And Quarter-Bushel Plants Filled, With Many Acres Yet To Harvest

"Where's it coming from," is the question being asked this week relative to the overflowing of Genesee Union Warehouse company elevators and other storage facilities. Wheat began pouring onto the ground Monday of this week, and Thursday the large outside bin at the East End plant was practically full. This bin, last year held about 90,000 bushels, according to Frank Knopes. Elgin and Rex wheat are the two varieties spilling or rather flowing into the big bin. This mixture is permitted owing to CCC purchases of most wheat, and wheat is wheat to the governmental agency.

The Palouse country again delivers a crop far above expectations, considering the adverse weather conditions of late winter, and the long, dry hot spell of summer. A few drops of rain fell Wednesday morning, and with the temporarily clouded skies came a break for cooler weather. The few drops spattering down Wednesday were the first in 44 days, but put a stop to combine operations for only a few minutes, and some say they did not even stop their machines because the moisture vanished immediately.

Embargo On Shipments

The Union Warehouse company entered the current season with a small hold-over of grain, but due to the large acreage and a modified embargo on wheat shipments to the west coast, there appears to be a storage problem again this season, which is being met by outside bin storage.

Bin Up At West End

Forrest Durbin, manager of the Union Warehouse company, said Thursday noon that the large bin located south of the West End plant was being reshaped to accommodate the overflow of wheat produced in the Genesee area. Wheat has been turned down for storage at the West End for several days, owing to the bins there filling up. This changed the flow of grain receipts to the East End, causing a brief stoppage. Oats and barley, sufficient to fill a few half-filled bins at the West End were being taken on Thursday ,and some room was still available for peas.

Durbin said it was certain wheat could be received at the West End beginning Friday afternoon.

Harvest Is Orderly

Genesee grain and pea growers are experiencing the most orderly harvest of all time. Weather has been warm or rather hot, and dry. Despite the noticeable prevalence of weeds, some of which cause trouble at harvest time, there have been few breakdowns and little loss of time. With the increased number of combines and the larger trucks, products of the farm now being harvested roll to storage rapidly.

Crops Are Good

Some very good yields of wheat have been reported this season, but more growers have said outturns were below normal for the past five years. Spring wheat, which was planted in an unusual large acreage owing to removal of restrictions in planting allotments, is producing well, considering the extremely hot weather, and some warm wind. In this crop the prevalence of weeds was noticeable in many fields, chiefly because farmers lacked the time to work land to their liking last spring. Reseeding, too, brought an unusual amount of spring crop, some of which is slow in maturing. For the most part, however, spring wheat has developed rapidly and the quality is very good.

Smut, noticeable in fields before harvest, is not bringing on the dock which was believed would prevail. Owing to the extreme dryness, much of the smut balls where they did exist, were crushed during combining and drifted off. Of course the smut which adhered to kernels is noticeable to some extent and may cause a deduction or dockage of around one-half to one per cent, The News was informed.

Barley, mostly Hanna, becomes a major crop again this summer, owing to some having replaced winter-killed grain with barley, while others were prompted to plant acreages to barley which would have been idle had the allotment program been enforced.

Also noticeable is some damage in fall wheat caused by frost, which is said to be responsible for shriveled kernels. This condition is not serious.

New Wheat In Production

Elmar wheat, grown for the second season in the Genesee country, is being sold for feed at combines or put in storage for later sales, mostly by individuals. Wheat men are observing the new variety closely, because of its reported smut resistance and good combining features. Some who have purchased Elmar for seed believe it outweighs other varieties, and has better milling qualities. The kernels however, lack the uniformity of other varieties, but may even up after another year or two in production. Many favor Elmar over other varieties, but Elgin and Rex will continue to be the major varieties planted this fall, if early reports are to be relied upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roskammer of Coeur d'Alene came Wednesday to spend several days in the homes of John Hoduffer and Geo. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Flamoe and son entertained Sunday with a family dinner for Raymond Qualey who will leave Friday to return to Fort Lewis. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Qualey, Mrs. Anna Qualey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prater and children of Spokane.

Downing Wishes Correction In Age For School Entrance

Supt. H. Warren Downing states he was in error last week in stating the legal age for children entering school as beginners was six years on or before October 1. Contrary to a previous ruling by the state board of education, the legal age for school entry should be six years on or before October 15, instead of October 1. Registration of beginners can be made in person or by telephone to Supt. Downing.

Registration of freshman and sophomores will begin on Thursday, August 30, and for juniors and seniors on Friday, August 31.

Schools will reopen at Genesee on September 4.

High School Graduates Urged To Enroll For Nursing Course

Sister Mary Aloysia, recruit chairman for St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, announces that applications for the fall class are now being received. "High school students from Genesee are outstanding. We want to keep them in Idaho."

Sister Richard Joseph, director of the school of professional nursing, urges those who desire to be enrolled in the class scheduled to begin September 1 to contact her as soon as possible. It takes time to fulfil the necessary pre-entrance requirements and to complete the essential forms.

The school authorities pointed out that nursing is not only a secure and profitable occupation. It is more than a dignified and highly respectable profession. It is a participation in the work of Almighty God, the creator of the universe in the preservation of the human race.

Those high school graduates who are between the ages of 17 and 35, and who like to work with people and who are interested in the nursing profession should contact Sister Richard Joseph. She will help you to discover whether or not you have the requisite qualifications for entering the school of nursing. She will also explain the availability of the Student Nurse Loan Fund made possible by the Medical Staff of St. Joseph's Hospital and friends of the School of Nursing.

Snelling In Kansas City Flood Debris Clearing

Frank Snelling, who lived at Clarkston for a few years after moving from Genesee Valley where he was a long-time resident, and now residing at Kansas City, Mo., furnishes his address to many friends here through a brief letter to The News. He writes: "Dear Pete:

"As I am settled in my own home will send you my address. Haven't been bothered any with the heat. Only a couple nights were a little warm but right now the days are rather chilly and we have been having light showers for several nights.

"I am just one block from the south city limits of Kansas City, and it is about twelve miles to the business part of town. The high water is gone but the silt it left will remain for a long time in some places. They have opened quite a few business houses and streets, and I think most of the streets are cleared and opened for traffic.

"It is going to take a long time for me to become contented, but some of the relatives are in most every day so it isn't too bad. I think of the old friends out there in Idaho and at Clarkston and send them by best regards.

"Your old friend,
"Frank Snelling."

His address is: 201 W. 84th Terr., Kansas City, 2, Mo.

Mr. Snelling was born at Kansas City and came to Idaho when a young man, to follow farming. After retiring he seemed happy at Clarkston, but was encouraged by his many relatives in Kansas City and nearby towns to return to his home state.

Reading and hearing of the disastrous flood that hit Kansas City, one of the worst in history, the many long-time friends of Mr. Snelling wondered how it affected him.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

After a few fairly comfortable days the mercury has hit the roof again. Harvest is in the mopping-up process. This week will see the finish. There hasn't been a drop of rain nor any dew at night to slow up harvesting operations, so it has been a most satisfactory harvest in that respect. The effects of the frost are shown in the yields. There are always a few acres that shrivel up in hot weather that makes it sound like it was an exceptional yield but for the most part yields were about normal or a little below normal. It would seem that when a father and mother are driven out of a home and unable to care for their seven children and have to decide to adopt them out, that it is time that charity begins in the U. S. A., and that our governement would care for some folks at home as well as in some foreign country where they don't appreciate it too much. Surely some one will come to the rescue of this family so they can stay togther with a parents' love to guide them.

180 Horsepower!
Until you drive it you'll never know what

Chrysler FirePower V-8 does for you!

YOU'VE HEARD THE TALK about Chrysler's revolutionary new V-8 FirePower engine . . . with its 180 horsepower, its amazing smoothness and acceleration . . .

NOW COME DRIVE THE REASON for all this excitement. Here is the most revolutionary advance in American motor car engine design in 27 years! . . .

HERE'S 180 HORSEPOWER . . . a full 20 horsepower more than that of the next most powerful American passenger car engine! . . .

A NEW KIND OF HIGH COMPRESSION . . . the first Hemispherical Combustion Chamber in an American car engine actually puts to work more of the energy contained in the fuel than other engines.

HERE'S EXCITING PERFORMANCE . . . responsiveness, acceleration, smoothness, which no other passenger car engine built in this country can equal today. And you can have it with FirePower even on non-premium grade gasoline.

HERE'S THE SAFETY OF POWER-IN-RESERVE greater than you've ever had at your command —a new high in the instant responsiveness which is the very essence of safety on today's highways!

YOU'LL LIKE CHRYSLER'S POWER BRAKING, TOO . . . smoother, gentler, swifter stops at any speed than you've ever known. At the touch of your toe, power from the engine helps put on the brakes . . . reduces foot pressure by as much as two-thirds!

AND HYDRAGUIDE . . . THE NEW POWER STEERING! It makes driving a car a brand new experience. At your touch on the wheel, hydraulic power provides four-fifths of the steering energy. Even at a standstill, you can turn the wheels with your thumb and one finger! A great safety feature.

COME DRIVE IT . . . ONLY A RIDE CAN SHOW YOU WHAT ONLY A CHRYSLER GIVES!

Many Uninformed On Status Under New Social Security

Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston office of the social security administration, will be in Moscow on Tuesday, Aug. 28. He can be contacted between 1 and 3 p. m. on that date at the office of the Idaho State Employment Service, 102 East Second Street.

It was just one year ago this month that the social security act was amended to reduce the eligibility requirements and increase the benefit amounts. "It is amazing," Cathcart said, "that there are still so many people who are qualified for benefits under the new law but who have never inquired about their status. This is due largely to the fact that these people are still thinking in terms of the old law. Many still believe the new amendments only increased benefits for those already in payment status.

"Our office urges all persons who have reached the age 65, and have worked in part of as few as six calendar quarters, to inquire regarding their status. Payments are made to qualified claimants as a matter of right and whether or not they are in need of these payments is not a factor," Cathcart said.

Self-Employed SCA Coverage Mandatory Not Voluntary

Self-employed persons were reminded by Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston office of the Social Security Administration that coverage under the new law in mandatory and not voluntary.

"We believe," he said, "that the belief that coverage is elective has gained currency here. While it is true that certain professionals are excluded from coverage, the exclusion is by law and not by choice.

Self-employed men and women who are not excluded by law, will have to report their 1951 "net earnings" for social security purposes on their income tax returns next March. The social security tax will be paid at the same time.

In the meantime, those businessmen and women who are now covered for the first time under social security should get social security numbers if they have never done so.

Anyone whose net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more in a taxable year is "covered" under the new law, unless the earnings are derived from the operation of a farm or the practice of an excluded profession. Among those excluded are doctors, dentists, veterinarians, full-time practicing accountants and professional engineers.

Booklets listing all of the excluded professions can be obtained without cost from the social security office in the Lewiston postoffice building.

of the FARM DWELLINGS in Washington and Idaho are ELECTRIFIED

Private enterprise electric companies and the REA have co-operated to bring better living, electrically, to farm homes in the two states. Today, 98 out of every 100 farm families enjoy the advantages of electricity for light and power!

In horse and buggy days—long before modern electric appliances were invented—the Washington Water Power was extending its lines to farm homes in the Inland Empire. Records show that in 1906 the first lines were started. In those years electricity was used only for light. By 1930 experiments and research were carried on by the W.W.P. Co. and our colleges to prove that electricity could mean more to agriculture. By 1940, five years after the REA was born, a sizeable part of Inland Empire farms had the promise of useful electric service. Now the big job is nearly done!

Schooler To Join Daughter For Air Trip To Tennessee

Charles Schooler plans to leave by plane Sunday morning from Lewiston for Riverside, Calif., and there join his daughter, Mrs. J. D. (Pearle) Carter to travel by plane to Nashville, Tenn., where they will attend funeral services for Sgt. Joe D. Carter, who was killed in action in Korea on September 4, 1950. The parents of the deceased reside at Adulphus, Ky., and the deceased has several brothers and sisters living in the east. Funeral services are set for Thursday, September 6. Mr. Schooler and daughter will leave California Monday and expect to return the last of the week.

Before leaving for the east Mr. Schooler expects to see two sisters at Long Beach, Mrs. Ed Pawley and Mrs. Richard Lent. Mr. and Mrs. Pawley of Mexico City, Mexico, are visiting at Long Beach at the present time.

Rites Held Wednesday For Pioneer Of Valley

Funeral services were conducted for Bendik B. Sather at Short's Chapel in Moscow at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Harold Masted officiating. Mrs. Masted sang "Face To Face" and "He Understands." Burial was in Genesee Valley Lutheran cemetery beside the remains of his wife who passed away in 1949. Pallbearers were Nels Lande, Fred Hove, J. P. Anderson, Levi Rossebo, Kermit Hove and Wm. Hove. Mr. Sather was a long-time member of the Valley church and also of Our Saviour's Lutheran church, Moscow.

Ben Sather, as he was best known to his many friends at Genesee and Moscow, was born Jan. 17, 1862, at Serholt, Norway. He came to the United States at the age of 17. He married Martha Peterson on March 10, 1893 at Moscow. She was the sister of Mrs. John Hove, deceased, and like Mr. Sather and Mrs. Hove, were pioneers of the Genesee community.

When the late deceased first came to Genesee in 1888 he was employed on the Sam Johnson farm, now owned by Leo Ernst. To those who know the Ernst place, they have had occasion to see the interior of the fairly large barn, the framework of which was hewn from timbers brought to the building site from what is known to pioneers as the "Troy school section." Mr. Sather did much of the work on construction of the building, including the hewing of the timbers which have stood for so many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sather started farming in 1893, considered the most trying of all years for farmers, when the harvest season became so wet that many were unable to gather the growing crops. Like many another rancher, the year 1893 spelled financial difficulties. In 1895 Mr. Sather started farming anew, and purchased the place now owned by his son, Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Sather retired in 1926, moved to Genesee for a year, and then to Moscow where they resided for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Sather celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1943. Mr. Sather's health began failing ten years ago, and with his failing health came impaired vision. He continued to live in Moscow after the death of his wife, but two years ago he went to Clarkston to reside at the Riverview Rest Home, where he passed away at 10:10 Sunday, August 26.

Surviving are: Mrs. Mabel Jepson, South Gate, Calif. Allen Sather, Genesee; Mrs. Emma Harmon, Los Angeles; Norris Sather, Spokane; Mrs. Olive Shirley, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Bernice Sparling, Van Nuys, Calif., all children of the deceased. Also surviving are nine grandchildren and a sister in Norway.

Here for final rites were Mrs. Lowell (Emma) Harmon, Mrs. George (Bernice) Sparling, Norris Sather, and the family of Allen Sather.

Rev. Knight And Jay Nelson Travel 5,000 Miles On Trip

Rev. Melford Knight and Jay Nelson, who attended the International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission convention at Urbana, Illinois, returned to Genesee Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, after an all-night drive from Salt Lake City. The former attended the convention as state study advisor for the Washington-Idaho group, and Nelson was at Urbana as state study chairman. The convention lasted three and a half days, after which the two were present for the convocation for the same time. The convocation took place at the University at Urbana-Champaign, and was also international in scope.

Rev. Knight and 10 young people from the Pacific Northwest made the trip to Illinois and return in two cars. Leaving Spokane August 4, they motored by way of Butte, Mont., to the northern entrance of Yellowstone Park at Gardiner, Mont. They spent one day in the park and left by way of Cody, Wyo., then through Tensleep to Buffalo, and to Custer, S. D. The Youth Fellowship people planned to remain overnight at Custer and visit Rushmore National Monument the following day, but there were no accommodations to be had. Following Highway No. 16, the two cars continued east through South Dakota for a straight 29 hours of driving. The 11 persons crossed the Missouri at Chamberlain, traveled through Mitchell, S. D., where they witnessed the Corn Palace being renovated for the fall exposition, and then motored into Iowa and to Chicago.

One day's time was given to sightseeing in Chicago, which was said to be the most interesting place visited.

After the convention and convocation the two cars headed west over Highway 30, through Iowa and Nebraska, and then into Colorado for a stop at Denver. Pike's Peak was an undertaking and an adventure for the young people. Like many other motorists the driver of the car belonging to Rev. Knight, failed to negotiate the steep climb without some assistance, and perhaps the trip was not complete without having experienced the difficulty of the climb and not being accustomed to the altitude. Most cars require a special setting of the carburetor to make the steep ascent.

The party continued westward for a stop at Salt Lake City and a swim in Salt Lake, another experience for anyone and long to be remembered. They visited the Mormon Temple grounds and heard a concert at the famed Tabernacle.

Covering slightly over 5,000 miles on the trip to and from Illinois, the party of eleven saw a cross section of the pruductivity of the mid-west, the east slope of the Rockies and the intermountain areas. They now realize where the tall corn grows and where the centers of pork and beef production are. Jay Nelson said he was surprised by the vast acreage of corn, the excellent farm buildings and improvements in the mid-west. He also was impressed by the public squares in many of the towns through which they passed, the nicely-kept public buildings and neatness of many of the towns and cities. However, it's Idaho for him, with the fresher air, the more wide open spaces, and the productiveness of the Gem State.

Rev. Knight, who had a few days of his vacation remaining, left Monday night for Portland to visit his parents. He will return for church services Sunday.

Harvesting Is Delayed By Rains During Week

Rains this week, starting Monday with a light shower, and then a heavy downpour Tuesday night, have put a stop to all harvest operations. The rains have been general over the Inland Empire where there are many acres of grain and peas remaining to be threshed. Locally, there is more grain and peas standing than was at first estimated. The continued dry and hot weather which prevailed for harvest, permitted rapid combine operations, but some fields were slow in maturing evenly, due both to frost and uneveness of growth of spring-seeded crops.

Past experience leads one to believe that warm and dry weather will again prevail to allow for further combine operations. It is certain none of the small grain is damaged in the least by the current wet period, but rain never improves the dried pea crop or makes harvesting easier.

The harvest season of 1951 has been the best in many years, by far the most orderly and most rapid. Due to dryness weeds common to harvesting difficulties, did not attain normal size and they dried up and passed through machines with little trouble.

V. Hurlbert Ranch Fire Loss Estimated At Around $10,000

Troy Press, Aug. 24: Fire, believed to have started in the barn loft, destroyed the barn, granary, machine shed and garage at the Virgil Hurlbert farm south of Troy Saturday. The damage was estimated in excess of $10,000 with only a small amount of insurance.

Mrs. Callie Ferguson, mother of Mr. Hurlbert, and a small boy were at home alone and did not discover the fire until the barn was partly consumed. They turned in an alarm and immediately set to work to prevent the flames from spreading to the house. Neighbors and the Troy rural fire truck arrived and confined the flames to buildings already ablaze and prevented them from spreading to the house.

A stubble fire, set by burning embers, was extinguished and enclosed in a furrow to protect adjacent grain fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbert were operating a combine on distant fields and were not able to get to the scene of the fire until it was nearly under control.

Both baled and loose hay, stored grain, and considerable farm machinery were destroyed along with the buildings which housed them. Hurlbert said they plan to rebuild as soon as possible.

Carload Of Coal For Idaho Shipped To Iowa By Mistake

Florent Moser, manager of the Farmers Union Producers company, received notice Tuesday that a shipment of Aberdeen stove coal from Kenilworth, Utah, was in Iowa, and not in Idaho. The error in shipment will delay local delivery of coal by the Producers company, but those expecting to take delivery of fuel from the car will be informed of the date of arrival. Moser said the shipment should reach Genesee on Sept. 10 or 11. The last shipment left the mines at Kenilworth August 28. The car intended for Idaho but which went to Iowa left the mines August 16.

W. Baumgartner Hurt In Combine Accident

W. J. Baumgartner is recovering from injuries at his home, sustained Saturday evening when the combine he was tending for Jack Magee, without warning, toppled on its left side as much as the header portion of the machine would permit. Harry Egland, Jr., driving the tractor used to pull the hillside harvester, a John Deere "37", was traveling cautiously and had the tractor headed uphill, which also tended to keep the combine from rolling flat on its side, and possibly turning over and rolling.

Mr. Baumgartner was seen in the air by his fellow worker Egland, and it is believed the injured man landed about thirty feet from the machine which does not include the distance from the top of the harvester. He was rushed to the doctor's office, where a fractured left collar bone was treated and a number of bruises cared for. He was then taken to his home.

Jack Magee, trucking grain from his combine to Genesee, left the field but a short time before the accident and did not know anything about the machine turning over until he happened to see Mr. Baumgartner sitting in a pickup before entering the Medical Building. About five minutes before the accident occured Magee and daughters, Mary Kay and Patricia had been on the combine, accompanying Baumgartner for a round or two.

Cause of the accident was breakage of the casting which retains the gear on the combine leveling rack. The machine was leveled to its extreme high position on the left side, and was being operated on the Ford place. The combine was some fifty feet from a "slide" of two years ago, but the soil was well packed, although rough from erosion of the growing season. When the casting snapped, the weight of the combine snapped the lugs which held the rubber tire rim to the wheel, permitting the left side of the machine to drop further than it would had the wheel held.

Jack Magee said he expected to have the combine ready for operation Thursday if wet weather now prevailing would permit. Righting the combine required construction of a heavy "A" frame made of 20-foot bridge planks, with a block at the top thru which a one-inch cable was passed and attached to the Highway District tractor, which was pulling uphill. In the opposite direction the tractor belonging to John Scharnhorst was employed to steady the frame. The long cable was attached to the lower frame at the left of the combine. After the combine was raised a few feet, a new wheel replaced the one broken, and Tuesday evening the combine was pulled to level ground. The large main axle was bent and the header jackshaft was sprung. There were a few minor parts broken.

Harry Egland, Jr., was pretty excited when he saw Mr. Baumgartner being thrown from the combine, but he lost no time in getting the injured man to Genesee. When he was met by Jack Magee, he urged him to go to the field to turn off the gas and set the brakes on the tractor. When Magee went to the field being harvested he found the gas cut off and the brakes well set.

The combine is in its third season of operation, and according to Jack Magee the replacement part, rather than being made of cast iron is constructed of steel and much heavier. The combine did not fall flat on its side, and the unloading auger barely touched the ground as the combine remained suspended.

Clarks To Locate At Salmon Following Trip to Southbend

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Clark and three daughters, Judy, Patty and Nancy, left Monday from Moscow for Southbend, Ind., to make arrangements for moving their household furniture and goods to Salmon, Idaho, where Dr. Clark will practice. The Clarks purchased a home at Southbend, but they have selected the Northwest as the place to live.

Salmon, with a population of approximately 3,000, has a new hospital, and the town was selected from a long list of openings in which to practice.

Dr. Clarke, graduate of the University of Indiana, interned at Sacred Heart hospital, Spokane, and entered private practice for the first time at Genesee. Later he decided to continue the study of medicine and left for New York City to accomplish this. He then made another decision, that of going to Fairbanks, Alaska, for a year, but he found it no place to rear a family so returned to Indiana. The family appeared highly pleased to have made a decision to return to Idaho, and after looking over Salmon and its new hospital, believe they have found the place for a permanent home.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

After a week of cooler weather, the clouds opened up and gave us a few fine showers with thunder and lightning accompaniment. It freshened up the air, cleared away the smoke from Oregon forest fires, and was good for everyone except those who have grain and peas yet to cut. It won't hurt the wheat but it is not good for the peas if it keeps coming. Several visitors to the Valley recently have been confused as to where to turn off the new road, and they found themselves in Genesee. We would like to suggest to the highway crew that they put up a 95 A alternate sign where the old highway enters the new north of Genesee, and make it less confusing to travelers. Even Valley folks might find their way home better in the dark. Several have been going to Wawawi lately for peaches, and the ladies are busy canning for next winter.

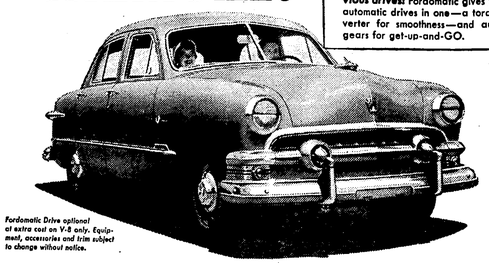
FORDOMATIC OUTGOES THEM ALL!

THE FORDOMATIC FORD GIVES YOU AN ENTIRELY NEW KIND OF DRIVING!

Combines best features of previous drives! Fordomatic gives you two automatic drives in one—a torque converter for smoothness—and automatic gears for get-up-and-GO.



Fordomatic Drive optional at extra cost on V-8 only. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

Practically drives itself! Fordomatic thinks for you. It smoothly and automatically provides a countless number of drive ratios through which engine power is fed to the rear wheels.

You're boss every second. Step down on the accelerator and you get an extra spurt of power for hill climbing and passing. Going downhill you can shift to low at any speed for extra engine braking.

Easier rocking! It's even easier to "rock" out of sand, snow or mud with Fordomatic than with Conventional drive. Just move the selector back and forth between low and reverse.

It's a gas-saving powerhouse! Fordomatic's automatic intermediate gear provides smooth, fast, economical "getaway" without wasteful engine racing. Uses no more gas than the savingful conventional Ford.

Texas Is Hot For Hollidays Family Is At Wichita Falls

Ben Holliday, in the army, has his family nearby, and living at Elrey Trailer Park, Wichita Falls, Texas. Mrs. Holliday, who has been missing several copies of The Genesee News will receive numbers missed.

"It looks like we are going to be stuck in this place for some time," Mrs. Holliday writes, "but I shouldn't complain because our living conditions are better than last year, and we have a beautiful new trailer.

"It is hot here and we're lucky to get enough water to drink at the park. We can go across to the hall and get it though, as they come first with the water supply. It was 104 degrees today at the air port, so it must have been about 114 in town. The radio says, 'hotter tomorrow and no relief in sight, so we don't have much to look forward to.

"I thought sure we would get home this summer but I guess it will be next summer."

Her letter was written on the back of a Texas "longhorn" letter, prepared for distribution, and which contains everything good about Texas, to Texans. It reads in part, and a small part too: "The eyes of Texas are upon you, 'cause here I am deep in the heart of it, thinking of you, and wishing you were here with me to see the sights. According to the Texans, this is the biggest, richest, healthiest, prettiest and greatest hunk of land on this earth. But is is also the wildest, wooliest, coldest, driest, hottest, wetest and bragginest state in the Union. Speak softly, porner, when you mention Union and reverently when you mention the Alamo, 'cause Texans are for Texas only. Texas by Treaty, other special privileges are to own its own army and navy. Boy, did you ever see a Texas Ranger? They all look like a one-man army Down here some of the counties are bigger than Rhode Island, and some of the ranches are bigger than Delaware. The capital has been moved 13 times, two of its cities are further apart than Chicago and New York. Parties have been known to start out on a tour of the state and not come back for five years. That's enough, some of the army fellows say, and add, "why did they ever go back?"

Mixup In Plane Reservations Disappointing to C. Schooler

Charles Schooler, who made plans to meet his daughter, Mrs. Pearle Carter, in Riverside, Calif.,, and then travel by air Nashville, Tenn., and travel by air to Nashville, Tenn., to attend funeral services for Sgt. Joe D. Carter on Tuesday at the latter place, was very much disappointed Sunday when he learned at Pendleton that reservations on a plane to Portland had not been properly arranged for. Mr. Schooler left Lewiston Sunday by plane for Pendleton, believing he could continue to Riverside by air. According to Mr. Schooler, his reservation was made through a travel service which booked him for passage Sunday, but the airline at Lewiston had him down for a trip for Saturday. He was unable to obtain passage further than Pendleton, and returned home Sunday evening, but not until he had talked with his daughter, and also attempted to make air connections by other routes, that he might be with his daughter. It was learned also, that Mrs. Carter, who had her reservations several days before her planned departure from California, was able to obtain a reservation for her father only as far as a point in Texas. Mr. Schooler may have not been able to travel the entire distance by air from California.

Conservation Farming Pays Off Genesee '51 Crops Offer Proof

By J. M. Rabdau

Three weeks ago this paper came out with the statement that the elevators in Genesee were overflowing with grain and peas, and asked the question: "Where is it coming from?" Many people have asked the same question after considering the season having been so dry and hot, such severe winter killing, and such a damaging late spring frost.

I checked with the Genesee Union Warohuse company September 1 and learned the total crop outturn, with more to come in, was 71,094,600 pounds. This is the largest crop harvested to date since 1947. That year the crop of the Genesee country totaled 78,903,100 pounds, incidently the largest outturn on record. Going back as far as 1929, only three seasons have yielded better crops than that of 1951. They were 1944, 1946 and 1947. Genesee is perhaps the only grain center placing wheat out of doors, despite the large storage capacity. We have heard of no other community storing grain outside.

The crops have been getting better, and at the same time less stubble has been burned. In fact, last year it was estimated that 97 per cent of the stubble in the Genesee area was returned to the soil.

Soil erosion, at the same time has been greatly reduced. The same conservation practices applied for control of erosion has increased crop production.

There is no question but that the new varities of grain developed by our university and Washington State College are contributing to increased production, but it must be remembered that these new grains produce heavier on high fertility ground, soil in which clovers and grasses or alfalfa and grasses have been grown.

Every year more and more sweet clover and alfalfa are being planted in this locality. Every year more of the farmers are telling about the increased production of their lands. If we look back we have been having "rough" years since 1947. We have never had nearly as good growing years since then. The year 1948 was wet, 1949 was dry in the spring and very windy after a cold and winter of deep snow. The year 1950 was frosty during the spring after a terribly severe winter—and now 1951.

Wakefield, who was our Soil Conservation Service engineer, and who is now farming, helped me figure out what the total yields should be in the Genesee area in 1960, if farmers could all go into conservation farming, that is planting sweet clover or alfalfa on at least one-fourth of their cropland each year, and use commercial nitrogen to supplement their soil building crops.

Our estimate was based on 57,000 acres of land, the estimated acreage now served by the Genesee Union Warehouse company. To arrive at total figures we checked with farmers who had been over all their land at least twice with sweet clover or sweet clover and grass, or alfalfa, or alfalfa and grass. The percentage of increase was determined by present returns compared to returns of preconservation farming days.

The predicted total production for the Genesee area in 1960 will be 100,000,000 pounds.

Right now, if the weather would be as good as it was in 1947, the yield could easily have been over 85,000,000 pounds. Next year could easily hit that mark too.

During the spring season of 1951 a person could stand at any point in the entire area and see a field of alfalfa or sweet clover. More and more farmers are going into a three-year rotation: Clover, alfalfa green manure one year in three.

The Latah Soil Conservation District is the oldest in the state of Idaho. Supervisors of this district requested the Soil Conservation Service to furnish technical assistance, so technical men, like wise were the first to operate. Today the Genesee area leads the entire Palouse country in conservation farming, and in crop production too. Farmers of other areas are looking this way, and are following suit to become better conservation farmers.

There is one practice slow in getting under way here, yet it will do more to control erosion and increase production. It got its start throughout the Palouse country and other farming areas of the Northwest by a Genesee farmer going into it on his entire farm. There have been large delegations of farmers from as far away as Waterville, Wash., here to see this farm, and then went home to apply this practice on their own lands. What is this practice? Contour strip cropping.

Nezperce county is now leading Latah county in contour strip cropping. You can see at lot of it from the top of the Lewiston hill. We are now actually getting farmers to come and request assistance in laying out the strips for this practice.

Strip cropping is the zenith of conservation farming. It gives the most protection to the soil at all times. It encourages good soil building crop rotations. It gives the most protection to fallowing for weed control. It adds more water to the soil for crop production. The only farmers who don't like the system of farming are those not applying it on their farms.

The Genesee farming community wasn't just lucky to grow such a big crop this year. The farmers have been working towards good crops by conservation farming. We all know who was lucky that it was not a "good production year" under the time-worn and out-moded practices of years ago.

On Vacation In Oklahoma

Mrs. Ken Barker (Pat Magee), who with her husband, are vacationing at Sayre, Okla., writes the following:

"We're having a very nice, but very hot time. It has been as hot as 110 degrees, and several days from 103 to 105. Every day there is a very warm wind which is tending to bake the cotton and feed crops right on the stalks. It's surely interesting to see the completely different crops and soil. Tonight we're driving to some oil fields which I haven't seen as yet. They work day and night, and light up the skies for miles around. One thing I've decided on this trip is that I'm sure Idaho is God's country. Neither of us would ever live around here."

Mr. Barker's home was at Sayre, Okla., before he came to Idaho to attend the University.

Levern Edwards Promoted

Levern Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Edwards, who has been employed by the Bell Telephone company in Los Angeles the last four years, and who, from time to time, has been advanced, received an extremely good promotion the past week to that of supervisor in the records department for the company's engineering section. Levern and a fellow Bell company employee visited his parents here this summer enroute to California after motoring through Yellowstone, Glacier Park and Banff. At that time the friend said Levern was due for the promotion.

Rosenau Enlists In Navy

Ted Rosenau, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rosenau enlisted in the navy last Thursday and left the same day for San Diego for boot training. He has been a student at the University and was nearing completion of his course when he decided to sign up for a four-year hitch.

Mrs. Ralph Anderson of Lewiston spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and family.

Treating Seed Wheat Should Be Done Right

University of Idaho—"A poor job or no job at all" is the simple answer when smutty wheat comes from treated seed, says J. M. Raeder, plant pathologist at the University.

Not many complaints setting forth the idea that wheat can be smutty even though it comes from treated seed ever reach the pathologist, he said. Now and then, however, there is the grower who has real trouble with smut even though he had planted treated seed.

"When this happens, we know there is one of several possible things wrong," Raeder said as he discussed the matter. "First of all we wonder if the seed actually had a treatment of any kind. We know of instances where the seed was supposed to have been treated and apparently was not. Then there is the cast of the wheat that is treated with insufficient amounts of the treating chemical or where the proper material is not used. Add to that the danger that someone did not use the right method of treating. It all adds up to smutty wheat and disappointment to the grower."

Raeder pointed out that an occasional farmer sows his wheat too soon after it was treated with either of the Ceresans now commonly used to kill smut spores on the seed. Unless it is allowed to rest 24 to 48 hours after treatment, much of the effects of the chemical can be lost.

The pathologist listed one more possible reason for disappointment after treating the wheat for common smut. It is fairly easy to re-contaminate the grain before it is sowed, he said. Little benefit can come from treating the seed unless it has been thoroughly cleaned to remove smut balls. These balls can go through the treating process and break later to re-contaminate the seed.

Wheat reportedly treated with Ceresan can be tested to verify the treatment, Raeder said.

Mrs. Neil Balch Passes Away Pioneer Of Genesee Valley

Many friends of Mrs. Nell Keane Balch at Genesee, learned of her death Saturday at the Cottonwood hospital. Mrs. Balch, 61, had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Emmett Mulhall near Grangeville, and six weeks ago fell and suffered a fractured hip. Death was due to complications from the fracture.

Mrs. Balch passed away Friday night.

Mrs. Balch, 61, at the time of passing, was born January 31, 1890, at Genesee. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Keane, well-known pioneer residents here. She attended high school at Moscow and graduated from the Lewiston Normal and later attended the University of Idaho. She was married to Roscoe A. Balch June 12, 1916, at Spokane and later they moved to Seattle. Mr. Balch died in 1948.

Surviving are a son, Roscoe A. Balch Jr., and a daughter, Marjorie Nell Balch, both of Seattle, and three sisters, Mrs. W. H. Mast, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. Johanna Sheppard of Bremerton, Wash., and Mrs. Mulhall.

The body was taken from Grangeville to Moscow Sunday where Rosary services were conducted the same evening at Short's Chapel. Requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic church at Moscow Monday morning. Many from Genesee attended the services. The Rev. Fr. Robert Waldman officiated at the mass.

Pallbearers were Ray Kennedy, Carl Greif, James Driscoll, Richard Driscoll, Guy Wicks and Jack Magee. The body was sent to Everett, Wash., for burial.

Big Doings At Troy Sept. 14-15

Troy will stage its annual Community Days celebration September 14 and 15. The Fall event, becoming bigger and better each year, is practically "giving the town away" to the many expected for the special days. There will be a parade, carnival, various contests and fireworks. The Troy Dudes and Ridge Runners have been matched for a tug-of-war, and the jalopy race for 4-cylinder cars only, is promising to be exciting. There will be a pet parade, float parade and a log-sawing contest. This is termed the White Pine Empire's big celebration, so naturally there will be some logs to cut, not to mention numerous other events and many free attractions. The big dance will be at the school bus garage where room is plentiful.

Carl E. Anderson and Alfred Christie, who were in Genesee Saturday to distribute advertising, are expecting many of thier Genesee friends over to Troy to have a real good time at the Community Days celebration.

Mrs. Roger Broemeling, Mildred Broemeling, Mrs. Lawrence Broemeling and Mrs. Bob Huffman were in Clarkston Tuesday evening to attend a shower for a recent bride, Mrs. Harvey Wilson who is a niece of Mrs. Roger Broemeling.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

After several days of showery weather, harvest will be resumed and farmers hope to finish before general rains come. Those who have finished are plowing and getting the ground ready for fall seeding. There are visible signs of fall—birds collecting on the wires in large groups, the smell of burning straw and the school bus on the road again. Another holiday goes down in history as probably the worst ever in casualties, 637, a grim reminder that we do not value life and limb very much or it wouldn't happen in a civilized nation. Some are always victims of some one's carelessness but the majority of these accidents could be avoided if folks used the sense they were born with. When will we ever learn to be more careful and take a few minutes longer to get somewhere—alive.

Surprised With Motor Bikes

Marvin Moser and his cousin, Jerry Heitstuman of Colton, were given a surprise Sunday when they were invited to the home of their grandfather, Frank Scharbach, and told to go to a nearby building on an errand. Inside were two motor bikes. A large card on one read, "To Marvin from Grandpa and Bud"and on the other "To Jerry from Grandpa and Bud." Not only was it a joyous surprise for the boys, but the excitement for the donors and others gathering at the Scharbach home, delayed the serving of dinner for an hour. Others present were Mrs. Louise Welton and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Welton of Mt. Angel, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Heitstuman and family of Colton, Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser and family and Hilda Frei. McAlmonds Here On Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle McAlmond, former owners of the cafe here arrived Wednesday to visit friends before going to Seattle at attend the wedding of their daughter, Joan, to Mauri Pelto, on Sept. 15.

The McAlmonds have located at Fort Worth, Texas, and have purchased a restaurant and home there. They said their business, a cafe, was small, having but five stools but did a thriving 12-hour turnover. It has been so busy, in fact, one lady fainted in the place at 9 a. m., and it was shortly after 4:30 before she could find a place to fall. Asked why the lady fainted so early in the morning, Lyle said, "She found some meat in the hamburger she bought."

"Yes sir: a pig is a hog's little boy."

Willie: "Won't your Pa spank you for staying so late?"

Tommy (whose father is a lawyer): "Naw, I'll get an injunction from Ma postponing the spanking, and then I will appeal to Grandma and she'll have it made permanent."

Pedersons Go To Nebraska

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pederson left Thursday morning for Neligh, Neb., summoned by the illness of the latter's mother, Mrs. Belle Bradstreet. Mrs. Bradstreet underwent an operation at Lutheran Emmanuel hospital August 27, and will be returned on Sept. 9 to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Stevens, and husband at Neligh.

Unable to secure a printer for the 11 days they will be away, a paper dated Sept. 14 has been prepared so that regular frequency of publication will be maintained. It is hoped that the "edition" will meet with approval. All of the news is of a period of the past. It was found that files were not as complete as expected. If there should be omission of events it is because some papers were missing.

Mr. and Mrs. Pederson appreciate the tolerance granted them in their only means of leaving, that of issuing a paper of by-gone days. They too, hope that you will enjoy reading it. Thanks also to the advertisers who furnished copy in advance.

Could These Be Six Members of the Senior Class of 1921?

Could it be that the above pictures are those of six members of the Senior Class of 1921. The two copper halftones escaped salvage in the drive for metals during World War II. The cuts were undoubtedly used in the publication of a high school annual. If the News is mistaken in the identity of the above pictures there certainly are people at Genesee who will remember the faces of students of 30 years ago.

Genesee Is Again Victorious Three Injured In Ball Game

August, 1921—The game played with Colton on the local diamond last Sunday was the most disastrous from an accident standpoint that was ever played here, three men having been put out of playing within a half hour.

The first man to get hurt was M. E. Earls, who sustained a badly sprained ankle at the home plate while bringing in a score in the sixth inning. Next a Colton man received a sprained ahkle by a loose bag at second. In the last half of the eighth, when Genesee was at bat, Catcher Kennison stole second and in sliding to the bag, caught the caulks of his shoe in the bag in such a manner as to throw him, breaking the small bone in his right leg, just above the ankle. Dr. Rouse was called and first aid was given, then the man was rushed to the White hospital in Lewiston and according to reports Kennison will be laid up for several weeks.

The game was called off at once with the score at that time 13 to 5 in favor of Genesee. Kennison made 2 scores, J. Rouse, 2; Bressler, 1; Hanley, 1; Wicks, 2; Edwards, 2; Earls, 0; Myers, 0; Kern, 1; Skadon, 2.

Boys Shoot Each Other

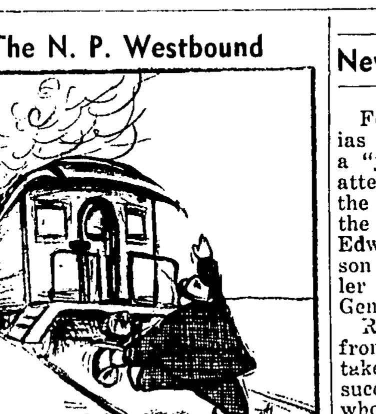
January, 1921—Rather a peculiar accident, and one which might have proven much worse, happened to Paul Johann and Frank Broemeling while out shooting one day last week.

It seems that the boys were some little ways apart when a bird flew up and passed directly between the lads, both seeing it at about the same time, and both taking a shot at it when it was directly in line between them, the result being that young Broemeling received several shot in his legs and young Johann received a shot or two in the neck. They were far enough apart that the shots did not penetrate deep enough to do any serious damage, although the lads are rather "sore."

Parents of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kambitsch are parents of a ten-pound son born on Sunday, Jan. 2, 1921.

The N. P. Westbound



Northern Pacific "Bullet" leaving Genesee, minus one passenger.

"BULLET" WRECKED NO ONE IS INJURED

April, 1921—Some considerable excitement was on tap last Sunday afternoon when the word was passed around that the Genesee "Bullet" had been wrecked about a mile and a half west of town, and a continual stream of excited people made their way on foot, in automobiles and Fords to take a look at the "remains." The wreck was caused by one of the "casters" under the tender breaking the axle, coming in two in the middle and the rest of the train was dragged over it wrecking all of the trucks and tearing some of them entirely loose from the cars. Had the accident happened on a curve the cars would turned over and more serious results might have happened. All of the college boys, who were on their way to Moscow, after spending the Easter vacation at home were on the train and they were a scared bunch. They were Walter Casebolt, Cecil Boliou, Carl Nagel and Amond Kern. When the accident happened, they all got up in the aisle and tried to pass each other. F. S. Casebolt was also on the train on his way to Coeur d'Alene. They all "hoofed" it back to town and took an auto for Moscow.

There are few people perhaps that are aware of the fact that the United States is being slowly washed into the ocean. Home Talent Play Success

April, 1921

Those taking part in the home talent play, "The Spinsters' Convention," sponsored by the Ladies Aid of the Federated church were Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Gash, Miss Archibald, Mrs. Anna Hanson, Ruth Martinson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Sampson, Mrs. W. M. Herman, Mrs. Casebolt, Mrs. Fred Hampton, Mrs. Mary Burr, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Cornish, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Erikson, Mrs. Witty, Mrs. Woodley, Mrs. Steltz and Mrs. Etter. Shy, attractive spinsters were transformed in the twinkling of an eye into beautiful maidens. After the transformation they entertained with music, recitations and other specialties. Tom Kopelman, as Professor Make-Over, was exceptionally good, and the way in which he with his assistant, L. D. House, transformed old maids into young girls was truly wonderful. The Spinsters' Convention being given at this time was another evidence that history repeats itself as it was given here 20 years ago.

MANY TO POTLATCH FOR CELEBRATION

July, 1921—It is estimated that between 250 and 300 went in cars to Potlatch to spend the Fourth and witness the ball game between the Potlatch and Genesee teams. Word had been passed around that there would be a big picnic dinner in a grove that had been reserved for the Genesee people by Potlatch and that plenty of water, ice, etc., would be on the ground for their use and convenience. The set aside, where tables had been preset aside, whre tabls had been pepard by the Potlatch Lumber company upon which to spread dinner and in due course of time one of those picnic dinners that one often reads about but seldom has the pleasure of partaking of, was spread and all were invited to join those who had prepared it, including the baseball team from Genesee. It is useless to say that ample justice was done to the immense amount of fried chicken, baked meat of all kinds, breads, butter, salads, pickles, jam, strawberries, raspberries, cookies, coffee, tea, 'n everything that goes to make up a fine dinner—and last but not least, a giant freezer of ice cream that had been sent out to the grounds by Potlatch Lumber company came with their compliments. After the picnic dinner all went to town, some half mile away and spent the intervening time looking over town and through their splendid hotel, gymnasium, etc., until near time for the big ball game which was called promptly at 3 p. m.

Of course everyone went from Genesee to see our home town bring home the bacon, figuratively speaking, and had high hopes, but alas, they were blasted. It was an off day for the Genesee contingent and when the smoke of battle had cleared away it was discovered that the Potlatch club had won by a score of 9 to 8, and the purse of $250.

It was announced that immediately after the ball game a greased pig would be turned loose on the diamond, and the two baseball teams were to try and catch it. The one catching and holdinig the pig was to become sole owner of same. The ball teams lined up in battle front and at a given signal the pig was released and the two teams started. The pig seemed very much contented and started to root as the boys swooped down upon it. Lester Gray of Genesee proved the fleeter of foot and pounced down upon Mr. Pig and led him to the front of the grandstand. He was lated given $25 for his catch.

Next thing on the program was the drawing for a Ford touring car, tickets for which had been given to each purchaser of a ticket to the ball game. Theodore Parks, a Genesee boy, held the winning ticket, number 890.

Just prior to the game Mayor Casebolt of Genesee personally thanked Potlatch on behalf of the Genesee people for the hospitality extended to them.

Fifty Years Ago News Shooting At County Seat

Files of the Genesee News back to 1888 disclose many interesting items of interest, and there are a few who recall the year Genesee moved from Old Town to its present site. Some day we hope to delve into the files of 63 years ago, but for this week here are a few paragraphs which may refresh one's memory of what happened in 1901:

Wheat No. 1 sold for 41 cents per bushel; timothy hay, per ton, $10; wheat hay, $6.00 to $6.50 per ton; oats, per hundred, 90 to 98 cents; butter 17½ cents per pound; eggs, 25 cents per dozen; potatoes, 50 cents per hundred; flour $1.50 per hundred; chickens, $3.00 per dozen.

Ole Flamoe is the possessor of a new thresher which he started up in the Lewiston country. Out of a 20-day run in that section he averaged 1100 sacks a day. He has moved to Genesee with his rig and is waiting for grain to ripen.

Henry Martinson will, this year, harvest between 600 and 700 acres of grain and expects to cut the entire crop with binders, requiring an expenditure of about $350 for twine alone. With a fair price for this season's crop he will have money to throw at the birds.

The news of the shooting of Dr. W. W. Watkins, George V. Creighton and Deputy Sheriff W. E. Coll at Moscow Sunday morning by William Steffen, also of Moscow, caused great excitement throughout this section. Dr. Watkins was killed instanely. Deputy Sheriff Coll lived 24 hours after being shot and Mr. Creighton, who was slightly wounded, is recovering. Deputy Coll's funeral was held in Genesee Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dorchester came out from the Salmon last week with stock. "Wes" went on to Seattle with the beef cattle, having sold a bunch of two- and three-year-old steers at $33 and $43.

Robert Gray and family moved to town so all the children will have the privilege of the city schools.

Local schools opened Monday with an attendance of 200 pupils. The corps of teachers are: Prof. Cobb, F. D. Hasbrouck, Lulu French, Miss Halverson, Cecelia Spurbeck and Maude Burdic.

President McKinley was shot and fatally wounded on Sept. 6, 1901, while attending the Pan-Amerirau Exposition at Buffalo, N. Y. He died Sept. 14.

A marriage license was issued in Lewiston to Glenn Sampson and Miss Emma Steltz, both of Genesee.

The Genesee high school gave a farewell party for Dan Burr who left this week to enter the University.

C. F. Burr has accepted appointment ment of deputy clerk of court for Latah county which carries a salary of $90 a month. He left Wednesday with his family for Moscow.

Boise is getting to the front. It has a new automobile right from the factory.

Dr. Ehlen has purchased the three lots and cottage east of the M. E. church; consideration, $600.

Rural free delivery has been ordered to commence at Genesee on December 2. One carrier is allowed, viz: G. N. Hollister. It is the Lenville route and is 24 miles in length, serving a population of about 600.

Will Herman went to Pullman to finish bookkeeping at the college and to take up some other subject, probably shorthand.

W. A. Nixon sold a four-year-old horse to Thresher Teft for $140.00.

Ira Hanson went to Spokane to attend school during the winter.

A marriage license has been issued to John P. Krier and Hannah Broemeling.

Miss Eugenia Ellis and Fred Dicus were married at the home of the bride's mother near Colfax.

Believe It Or Not

In 1836 Andrew Jackson not only had the U. S. A. out of debt for the first time in our history but also had a surplus of $37,468,859. He turned over the White House to Martin Van Buren in 1837 and by 1840 we owed 21 cents per capita and have never been out of debt since.

If you happen to be interested, the average family's share of the 1952 Federal budget which the Administration has proposed, if Congress accepts, will be $1,589. Your share for 1952, $1,589, does not include state, county, school and municipal taxes.

Some of the places visited were Hongkong, Canton, Shanghai, Tientsin, Port Arthur and Peking. On board the Empress of Russia was John D. Rockefeller and family who were visiting missions in Canton. Lt. Martinson also said he was buying some Christmas gifts to send home which probably would not arive in time.

A prize was offered for the best high school song written by any of the students. The one composed by Bernadine Hasfurther and Olive Mullalley was chosen by the judges as the best.

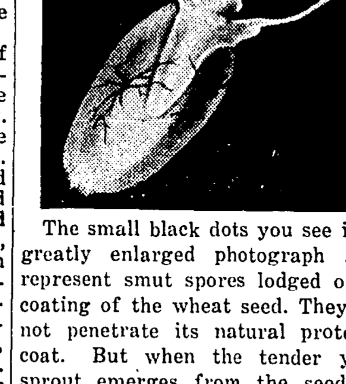
Common Smut Costly Enemy Dwarf Smut Is Soil Borne

Bunt, or common smut, a costly enemy of the wheat farmer, can be effectively reduced by thousands of wheat farmers in a simple and inexpensive way of using treated seed wheat of resistant varities.



The small black dots you see in the greatly enlarged photograph above represent smut spores lodged on the coating of the wheat seed. They cannot penetrate its natural protective coat. But when the tender young sprout emerges from the seed, the smut spores throw out a network of feelers that spread to the sprout and infect the young plant.

Dwarf smut which is transmitted from one crop to the next through the soil may also be introduced to new areas on the seed.

Since smut spores are carried on the surface of the seed grain, they are easily killed by disinfecting the seed surface.

Attend Laymen's Congress Of Adventists In Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Parks of the Moscow, Idaho, Seventh-day Adventist church, were among the 2400 official delegates to the first Laymen's Congress ever held by Adventists for all of the United States and Canada. The Genesee couple left August 23 for Michigan and returned Sept. 7. On the way west they traveled thru the Black Hills of South Dakota, Big Horn Mountains and Yellowstone National Park where they spent a half day. Their travel took them through thirteen states.

The convention, with attendance reaching as high as 10,000 at weekend meetings, was held on the permanent camp grounds of the Adventists Michigan Conference near Lansing, Aug. 29 to Sept. 1.

During the intensive four-day program delegates met fellow members from such far-away places as Newfoundland, Alaska, and Hawaii. Laymen representing all occupational groups marched in the procession which opened the congress.

In his opening address, Theodore L. Oswald of Washington, D. C., director of the church's international home missions department, declared that "Christians need not look beyond their own neighborhoods for a call to service. Eighty million people in North America are without church affiliation."

William H. Branson, Adventist world president, declared that today "the world is lost without the gospel of Christ. Now is the time for Christian laymen by the thousands to arise and follow Christ's example of feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and giving spiritual help."

In workshops and demonstration groups, laymen received intruction in "soul-winning" methods to prepare them to lead Bible study groups, do welfare work and hold public services.

At a special commission service, delegates who have proved their success as lay workers received emblems carrying the figure "120", symbolic of the early Christian believers who went out to spread the gospel everywhere after receiving the Holy Spirit in the upper room at Pentecost.

Don Borgen, Fulbright Student Here On Visit

Donald Borgen, who returned from Europe three months ago, and since then studying at George Washington University, Washington, D. C., was met in Spokane Tuesday evening by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Borgen. Don will remain here for a few weeks to visit relatives and friends, and may return to Washington for employment. He is a Fulbright student, one of 220 young men and women sponsored by the United States to study in France as preparation for foreign service in the consular service or state department.

Don, a graduate of the University, where he qualified for the Fulbright opportunity, spent three months in Switzerland in 1949. For his second trip abroad he left a year ago to the day he was met in Spokane, Sept. 18.

Leaving from Cherbourg, France on June 15 the crossing of the Atlantic was made in less than six days aboard the Queen Elizabeth. Back in the States he entered George Washington University immediately for three months of intensive study in specialized political science courses, history and economics. Examinations were concluded a short time before departure for home. He expects to learn of standings in the examination in December. Barriers to success in the diplomatic field exist at every turn. Of the 800 who took the examinations last year 60 qualified. This year the number of aspirants has jumped to one thousand, with competition somewhat greater for positions.

Assigned to Toulouse University in France for study of political science and languages, mostly French, Don also had a month in Paris at The Sarbonne. Students are encouraged to become acquainted with other countries and various area of France, so Don spent his Easter vacation in Switzerland and on the French Riviera. In Switzerland he visited the family with whom he lived during the summer of 1949. His trip included an excursion to villages at the foot of the noted Matterhorn.

During Christmas vacation he went by air to Algiers and Casbah. The North African cities were found to be modern and beautiful, something he had not expected. O nthis trip he was with a party which made a jaunt of 200 miles by camel to Bau-Saada, an oasis city. Bau-Saada is Arabian for "City of Happiness," and it was a thrill for the American to see such a beautiful spot. He also visited at Mardi Gras at Nice, France, the most noted of all such celebrations, and he was privileged to visit Monte Carlo.

During spring vacation he crossed the Pyrennes to Biarritz, France, and later went to Bordeaux, France to view the pre-historic caves at Les Eyzies. At Barcelona, Spain, he witnessed a bull fight, the Spanish sport which outdoes football in America for size of crowds and emotion.

The Genesee foreign student went to Holland and Belgium, spending a few days at Amsterdam and Haarlem. He visited a friend in Holland who was a fellow student at Toulouse, a young man who had been captured by the Japs when they took Java. He later returned to Europe, and now is in Australia. The friend, fluent in five languages, and practically a world traveler, was an interesting person.

Old-Time Threshing Sunday At Busch Farm Near Colton

Chris Busch will stage his fifth annual old-time threshing show Sunday afternoon at his farm place south of Colton. In case of rain the demonstration will take place the following Sunday afternoon. Anyone interested is invited and welcome, Mr. Busch said. He has also arranged to have lunch served on the grounds by ladies of the C. D. A. Food will be dispensed from the cook house starting at noon and continue throughout the afternoon.

Busch has a hobby of collecting old steam thresher engines, and according to authorities and an official magazine published for hobbyists, he has one of the largest and best collections in the United States. He was a steam thresher engineer before the combine took over completely in the Colton area, but he has not lost his love for the antiquated "steamer." He has a number of engines which he can employ to power his thresher, and has a complete outfit, including a cook house and water tender. He will be assisted by a crew of bundle pitchers well versed in stationary threshing.

For the two past seasons hundreds of cars were to be seen along the road and in the field at the Busch place. The attendance has increased each year until the event has become a major attraction at the conclusion of regular harvest. The hobbyist binds sufficient wheat to form four large stacks. The grand entry starts in the Busch farm yard Sunday where an old thresher engine will be steamed up ready to haul the outfit to the field. Bundle pitchers will be wearing the familiar attire, even to the red or blue bandana handkerchiefs, and Chris will be wearing his engineer's cap when he pulls the throttle after appropriate whistle signals.

Home-Buying Veterans Aided By New Defense Housing Act

Conditions under which World War II veterans may finance home ownership with the aid of G. I. loans have been eased considerably by provisions in the new Defense Housing Act, approved recently by the President, according to the Veterans Administration. The new law:

1. Reduces substantially the minimum down payment required on all homes priced up to $12,000.
2. Makes eligible for additional home loan guarantees many veterans who previously used all or part of their guaranty entitlement for home, farm and business loans.
3. Revives the direct government loan program for veterans in areas where 4 per cent mortgage financing is unavailable from private sources. This last provision of the law is of particular importance to veterans living in rural and less-populated areas, the VA said.

The direct loan program, originally authorized by the Housing Act of 1950 to continue only until June 20, 1951, is extended to June 30, 1953.

No additional funds are made available beyond the 150 million dollars originally provided for the program, but the new law, by removing the limit on the total of direct loans which might be made, makes possible the reuse of the authorized funds as a revolving fund.

Thus, payments made to apply against direct loans and proceeds from the sale of direct mortgages to private investors will go into the fund and become available for new loans.

MEET A Flying Farmer Friend OF MINE!

Allan Flansburg is one of those flying farmers you read about in the magazines . . . alert, progressive, a real pioneer of modern farming methods, and he's quick to recognize in Reddy Kilowatt another pioneer of modern farming. Allan's wheat farm is about three miles south of Palouse. He's active in the Flying Farmer's association, flies his own plane and uses it in the business of farming as well as for pleasure. As you would expect, he has a completely electric work shop and his home is all-electric for modern farm living. Allan says:

"Down here in the Palouse we are proud to be running some of the most progressive farms in the country. Research work in farm electrification that the Water Power and State College people started twenty-five years ago has helped this area a lot."

Way back in 1906 the Washington Water Power began a rural electrification program in the Inland Empire. Today 98% of the farm homes in Washington and Idaho are electrified. It's been a big job, this rural electrification, but now, thanks to private enterprise and the REA, it's practically done!

Orofino Beats Genesee Lapwai Is Here Today

Genesee high school Bulldogs, in their game with Orofino at Orofino last Friday evening, are credited with having the power, but failed to generate it when needed. Genesee ran up 15 first downs and 247 yards gained from scrimmage while the Maniacs were satisfied with six first downs and only 75 yards gained in the air and on the ground. As one spectator said: "The Bulldogs pushed Orofino all over Clearwater county but failed to get beyond the goal line as much as the Bulldogs should." The score 8-9 with the one-point deficit for Genesee did not provide comparison of the two teams. Orofino broke into the point-getting department when they caught Genesee for a safety. The Bulldogs charged back with a touchdown, but Magee's placement kick was inches wide of the uprights. Becker, shifted from the line to the fullback spot this season, rammed and catapulted for most of the gains, and plunged 15 yards to pay dirt for the TD.

Orofino opened up with a brief aerial attack, and gaining on the ground too, counted a TD and then passed for the extra point.

Myers, Genesee right end, was alert on a pecular play in the Orofino backfield, and nipped the Maniacs for a safety. That was all the scoring.

Coach Gary Hammond, losing an entire backfield by graduation, and seeing his boys in action for their first game, has been polishing up the blocking and interference departments for future games, but still lacks men with ball-packing and passing experience.

The starting lineup for the Orofino game was: Krier and Myers, ends; Uhre and Lanphier, tackles; Magee and Haxton, guards; Eikum, center; Nelson, quarterback; Bennett and Kinzer, half backs, and Becker, fullback. Uhre, hurt in practice this week, will not play against Lapwai. His replacement will likely be Olson or Baumgartner. Other reserves to see action here this afternoon, will be Parks who had business at the county fair last Friday; Bob Jacobs, Borgen, Stout and Kries. Hammond said he has 25 boys out for practice, but it will require at least one more game to evaluate ability of players.

Lapwai Here Today

Lapwai high school meets Genesee high school at Genesee this afternoon, Friday at 2 o'clock. Hammond said he was maintaining the same lineup to start with the exception of Uhre, and believes the Bulldogs have a more stubborn opponent in Lapwai than he had at Orofino.

Chris Rusch Threshing Bee Attracts Big Crowd Sunday

Everyone who attended the old-time stationery threshing bee at the Chris Busch ranch near Colton Sunday afternoon observing preparations, and later the actual threshing, made no attempt to estimate the crowd. If is is stated there were one thousand present that number could be either too large or too small, but it is not far off. People from nearby and far away gathered for the event, unmindful of the dust, the jammed roads and unregulated traffic. Next year Mr. Busch, if his hobby continues to attract as many as last Sunday, will have to appeal to the state highway patrol for assistance. Drivers were most careful, however, although some were compelled to wait patiently in traffic lines.

Members of the Catholic Daughters served lunch from an old-time thresher's cook house. Besieged with orders long before the noon hour, the food supply ran short, but later they managed to restock.

Last Sunday Busch steamed up a Minneapolis engine to pull the Case separator to the field, and later an undermounted Avery steamer was seen traveling over the hills to the four stacks of wheat to be threshed.

Chris Busch, whose hobby is collecting steam thresher engines and making them run, now has more than two dozen, varying in size from a small portable to the big Avery. An engineer during stationery threshing days, the Colton rancher, each year cuts his backswaths with a push binder and stacks the bundle grain for his post-harvest event. Busch is not the only steam engine hobbyist. They were present Sunday from the west coast and as far south as Suisun, Cal. Those who have handled steam never seem to lose the love of a throttle, and several were permitted to again feel the throttle and reverse lever. As of old, there was no misuse of the whistle or "tooting just for tooting."

Automobiles, sleek, fancy, shined and clean for Sunday soon became dusty as they followed in procession to the Busch farm home and afterwards to the scene of threshing a mile or so distant. Cars were parked in the grain stubble. There were enough cameras of all descriptions to take pictures of the coronation of a king. Between trips to the engine and along the belt to the separator, Chris Busch was often halted for a quick camera shot. Photographic equipment clicked everywhere, which was sort of an honor to the obsolete method of threshing and also to the man who provided a half day of entertainment for the many present.

Thanks For Papers

Don Johnson now at Ault Field, Whidbey Island writes: "I am sending you a letter, to thank you for sending me The Genesee News. It sure is nice to have something to read about good old Genesee. This summer I was able to keep up with the town team, and that's what I really enjoyed.

"As you know, I am stationed at Whidbey Island. This island is located 90 miles north of Seattle. The navy is now building a new 8,000-foot runway here. In a few years this will be quite a place. I am attached to the engineering department. One of our main jobs is the crash-crew. We have at this hangar five aircraft, 12 fire trucks and about 90 men. GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We had a week of nice weather which was good for the county fair. Attendance from this area was large and the kids enjoyed riding on the merry-go-round, airplane, etc. The school exhibit from Genesee was equal or better than any other school there and we hope they do this every year. Meeting and visiting with old friends is always nice. We don't have the opportunity for such visits as often as we used to. We get too far away in our cars. Tuesday, the rainmaker or weatherman sent a combination rain and dust storm and the windows show the results of it. It looks to us from this distance that all the fuss about northwest power shortage is just a propaganda move. These rivers always get low this time of year but they fill up when fall rains come. They are not like the California rivers that are mostly dry.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Skip Makes a Slip
Miss Gilbert, the teacher, was telling me how Skip Lawson almost got to sleep in her physics class. She noticed him nodding and—since they were discussing electricity—said in a loud voice: "Now who can tell me MR. LAWSON will explain what electricity is." Skip started up, looked around wildly, and blurted out, "Gee! I used to know, but I forgot."
"What a loss to science!" sighs Miss Gilbert. "No one to this day knows what electricity really is, and here we have a genius who could explain it—but forgot!"
From where I sit, I hope this taught Skip that you're better off if you admit you don't know all answers. Some grownups haven't learned that yet—like the ones who are always telling other people what's best and what's right and what's wrong. I like a temperate glass of beer, myself, but if you prefer buttermilk I won't argue. I've seen too many "know-it-alls" turn out to be wrong!

FOUR STATES BOOMING CATTLE AND HAY LEAD

is verdant, well populated with livestock and poultry, providing a seemingly endless procession of farm and dairy products to market. The rows of trees which criss-cross the country, perhaps more noticeable to a stranger, fits into the general landscape beautifully and usefully, joining with the gentle-flowing Elkhorn river for a picture of security.

Central Nebraska, from east to west, and especially the Platte river valley, is a beehive of industry, with hay again being a highly important crop. Alfalfa, next to corn in acreage, was still being cut and hauled directly to the dryers, where it is processed for many uses and in numerous ways, from dried and cut hay to pellets and meal, with a waiting market all over the nation. Strange as it may seem, not a spear of sweet clover was seen in the Cornhusker state, where alfalfa and perhaps a few of the more edible clovers are used for soil conservation and soil building.

Frost had nipped the potato and bean fields of western Nebraska, and during the night of Sept. 15 there was a quarter of an inch of ice at Sidney, Neb., where the Pedersons stayed the first night on their return.

Short stops were made at Cheyenne and Laramie to visit relatives. The relatives, smarting from the defeat of the Wyoming U. football team in Florida the evening before, although it was only a one-touchdown loss, saw nothing but a one-sided victory for the Cowboys over the Idaho Vandals on Sept. 22. Wyoming is currently placed from 13th to 20th in the nation's football ratings.

Oil, sheep and railroading are apparently the major industries of Wyoming along Highway 30, and farther west it's coal at Rock Springs and Kemmerer. Tourists and trucking add to the financial crop because Highway 30 is a main artery into California, Utah, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Hurrying back to their home state, the Pedersons drove from Sidney to Montpelier, Idaho the second day out, and completed their journey by arriving at Genesee at 10 p. m. Sept. 17.

The Genesee area and other portions of Latah county were the only places along the 2,933-mile journey where crops with the exception of potatoes had been harvested or were certain of being harvested without loss by rain or frost.

Northern Idaho, a major contributor to the world's food supply with its grain, and southern Idaho with its greatly diversified crops, seems to be more certain of being one year in and year out, yet one has the feeling that the Palouse country is missing a good deal by staying with sweet clover so much and not going more into alfalfa for its soil conservation program. We perhaps do not have the long growing season to produce several cuttings of alfalfa, but some day some one is going to establish a hay drying and processing plant which will make alfalfa a good cash crop, and at the same time relieve growers of the worries and problems of handling the much desired legume. Of course, the cubing machine which have several are covered for dehydration heat. Nebraska is criss-crossed by natural gas pipelines, and in the Platt valley the hay processing plants and alfalfa mills belch steam 24 hours a day, while the pellet machines and other feed mixing equipment also work round the clock to fill waiting orders.

Idaho's lumber industry has grown by leaps and bounds and the production of commercial fertilizers is adding to the wealth of the Gem State and adding to payrolls. Idaho is becoming better known and recognized as a producer since pulp and paper making was started at Lewiston, and the mines continue to give from its underground resources. Idaho is also risking an adventure in oil and gas. Adding the scenic attractions, the big game hunting and fishing, an Idaho license in the midwest brings out inquiries which are not altogether repulsive to the noted Idaho spud and the sugar beet.

HELBLING BROS. :: Genesee, Idaho

A mighty versatile man is Ben Ziesmer, farmer, machinist and sawmill operator. And in all three operations he makes good use of Reddy Kilowatt's many services. Ben's farm is on the gentle south slope of Coeur d'Alene mountain 22 miles from town and "a bit isolated." But never-the-less, thanks to Ben's handiness and his friend Reddy Kilowatt, his farm has become known as "the community machine shop." When anything breaks down up that way the neighbors all advise: "Take it to Ben for repair." Says Ben:

"Electricity sure is the best hired man I have ever had on the place, in both the machine shop and the sawmill as well as around the house and farm. Sure glad the Water Power got electricity in to this section."

Indeed there are many farmer friends of Reddy Kilowatt who know that the Washington Water Power pioneered in rural electrification as early as 1906. Today, thanks to private enterprise and the REA, the States of Washington and Idaho stand at the head of the nation with 98% of farm dwellings electrified.

Dworshak Assists Override Veto Of Disabled Vets' Bill

"I am happy to inform you I joined in the vote by the Senate on September 18, to override the President's veto of H. R. 3193 (69 to 9), reads a letter from Henry C. Dworshak, Idaho senator. "As you know, this measure provides for granting $120 nonservice connected pension to veterans of World War I and II and Korea who need the constant aid and attendance of another person. As the House of Representatives voted on August 17 to override the veto (318 to 45) it is now a law."

Senator Dworshak also writes: "The Veterans Administration authority to make direct housing loans to veterans up to $10,000 at 4 per cent was extended to June 30, 1953 as a provision of the "Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Service Act of 1951". The extension of this authority may be very beneficial to many veterans in Idaho who are desirous of purchasing or building a home."

Blood Donors Needed Unit To Be In Moscow

Blood for wounded men in Korea is becoming so necessary that a drive is on everywhere to obtain it all over the nation. When we had millions of men and women in the armed forces, they gave much blood for others who had to have it in combat and in hospitals. Today it is different. To help our men, who are helping us, we are having a blood drive in Moscow on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 9 and 10, writes Norman E. Stockwell, Latah county chairman.

Miss Linehan To Assist

Miss Marjorie Linehan, R. N., of Genesee has been asked to assist at the blood center during the two days. The Blood Mobile will be located on Main street so no one will have difficulty in finding it.

Mr. Stockwell also said: "You gave for our men in the last drive. Because you did, some service man has thanked you for his life. Won't you help again by giving another pint? To assure each soldier, sailor, airman and marine an adequate reserve of this vital fluid for use when and where he needs it, the Red Cross has been asked to collect for the Defense Department nearly three million pints of whole blood to be processed into more than a million plasma units."

It is hoped the residents of the Genesee community will join others of the county in response to this drive for blood.

Idaho Playing Strong Teams Oregon State Next On Oct. 6

University of Idaho Vandals really took on a load for their first three football games of the current season. First it was Wyoming, which rated well up in national standing at the start of the season, and then last Saturday took on the strong University of San Francisco Dons, rated as one of the top-notch offensive elevens of the nation. Idaho failed to score against the Wyoming Cowboys while having four touchdowns scored on them. The Dons also scored four TD's but Idaho scored a six-pointer to somewhat lessen the impact of the powerful San Francisco team. Those who witnessed the game at Boise last Saturday said Matson, the tall, fast negro player, who ran wild against the Vandals is truly an all-American. Word also came along that Idaho's Holder, was just about the second-best player on the field, and that Mancinko of the Vandals was the hardest tackler seen in the game.

Come Saturday afternoon in Spokane at 2 o'clock the Vandals will be opposed by Oregon State, considered one of the strongest offensive teams on the Pacific Coast.

After Oregon State Idaho will meet Montana at Missoula, San Jose State at Moscow, Oregon U. at Eugene, Washington State at Moscow, Arizona U. at Tucson and Utah U. at Salt Lake City.

Injuries are certain to hurt the Idaho Vandals Saturday. Hart, backfield man, hurt in the game at Boise, is reported out for the season, and several others will not see action Saturday at Spokane.

Fire At Whitted Place

Firemen answered a call from the Pine Grove area last Friday, when fire was reported near the home on Jack Whitted place, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Drader. The firemen answered the alarm with the two Rural District trucks, and held damage to an estimated $50 to a barn on the place. Fire was reported having started from ashes thrown on the ground several hours before the fire started, and later spread to dry grass.

Church Bazaar October 28

The annual St. Mary's church bazaar will be held this year on Sunday, October 28, at the Firemen's hall. The hours of opening and other events will be given in later advertising. The bazaar dance will be held Friday evening, Oct. 26 at the Legion Memorial building. ad

Magees To Visit Old Homes Join Relatives For Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Magee, who left Saturday for Carlyle, Canada, were looking forward with pleasure in visiting their childhood homes. The 1100-mile motor trip to Carlyle found them at Culbertson, Mont., Oct. 1 where a few postcards were mailed to friends at Genesee, who will not see them for about a month when they return.

At Carlyle they will meet Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Patterson of Dawson Creek, B. C., the latter being a sister of Mrs. Magee. The party of four will motor to Montreal, Quebec to meet a brother of Mrs. Magee, W. R. Stockton, and wife of Carlyle who preceded them on the trip east.

New Brunswick will be a stopping place before the six people go to the town of Anagance to visit relatives. Anagance is the birthplace of Mrs. Magee. Later they will go to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, and while away will attend the wedding of a nephew of Mrs. Magee.

Mr. Magee's birthplace is North Gore, Ontario, 20 miles south of Ottawa. Although Mr. Magee has no immediate relatives residing at North Gore, the party of six plan to make a visit there.

Mr. Magee said he came west with his family 44 years ago, and this is his first visit to his birthplace. Mrs. Magee left Anagance with her parents for central Canada in 1904, and like her husband, this is her visit to her birthplace.

Word From Dewey Dreshers

Mrs. Dewey Dresher, in remitting for a year's subscription to The News writes: "Dewey is always glad to get The News. He says it seems like a letter from home. Has been a very busy summer here in the State Parks, because more people every year take advantage of the overnite camping facilities at Sunset Bay State Park. They installed small electric stoves at Sunset this year and costs ten cents for a half hour to operate the stoves. There is a real nice beach there and one may drive right up to the beach. The picnic area is very pretty. Dewey worked at Sunset Bay this summer. We live at Shore Acres State Park. It has a picnic area and is a beautiful park. It has formal gardens and we live near the gardens. They have a park to take care of in North Bend and two beautiful scenic parks up Coos River. They are Millicoma State Park and Golden and Silver State Park. Dewey says to tell everyone 'hello'."

Their address is Charleston, Ore.

Sims Keeping Weather Data Records Are Said Accurate

F. K. Sims, N. P. agent, who has been keeping records on weather in the Genesee area, reports 1.3 inches of rain this week. One-half inch of rain fell Oct. 1, .3 inch Oct. 2 and .5 inch Oct. 3. There was slightly over .1 inch of rain Sept. 29 and 30.

Wondering how his figures compared with those of the University of Idaho, Mr. Sims wrote K. H. Klages of the agronomy department. The University man wrote: "Your figure of 10.43 inches of precipitation since January 1 is slightly higher than ours. Our records show only 9.74 inches from January 1 to August 31. So far this month (September) we have had only .19 inches of rain. This brings our precipitation since January 1 up to date 9.93 inches. Our long-time normal precipitation for September is 1.27 inches. On August 31 this year our accumulated precipitation since January 1 was 3.41 inches below normal.

"Generally your data at Genesee corresponds quite well with the records taken at Moscow. I believe your precipitation will run only slightly higher than at Moscow."

Inland Empire Soaked Rain-Makers On Job

Rains have provided sufficient moisture for the time being in the Inland Empire, and erased the drouth which prevailed in the Pacific Northwest. Rivers have risen to relieve the so-called water and power shortage. At the same time wheat growers watched their fields soak up the water to assure germination of seed already in the ground. Only a few have seeded in the Genesee area, preferring to wait for rain to start weed growth and a final cultivation. Some have ground ready for seeding, but held off to reduce chances of smut infestation in some varieties of wheat.

H. J. Martinson, one who seeded early and has a fine stand of Rex wheat, has elected to sow Rex except on hilltops and level lands, a practice which seems to have controlled erosion. Later he will seed Elmar on areas left unseeded. His practice has caused a few to believe that reseeding would be necessary, but this is not the case.

Rain has been beneficial in more ways than one. Sweet clover seeded with grain and which will go over into the season of 1952 for plowing under, is showing growth, while pasture has begun to look hot and dry weather have started to become green and provide late feed for stock.

Frosts have been noticeable in most areas, but have not been no do decided killing by cold weather. Frost was sufficient to wilt potato vines not already turned brown by heat and dry weather.

Rainmaker On The Job

Two rain-making contraptions have been in operation in Latah, according to reports. The machines or whatever they may be called, are in the Bovill country. The first runs at Genesee, gentle to begin with, and later developing into a good downpour, came from the west and south, and one afternoon precipitation was coming from the northwest.

Rainmakers may naturally accept responsibility for bringing moisture, but there were a few showers locally before the rainmakers went into action last week.

Oats Still To Ripen

Something has happened to several fields of oats in the Palouse country. Planted late after seeded crops they were frosted, the newer crops grew satisfactorily, but still refuse to ripen for combine harvesting. The heads appear normal for about early July. It may be the few fields could mature yet, but not if rain continues, and the clouds are big and black this Thursday afternoon.

Genesee Beats Lapwai It's Grangeville Today

Genesee high school Bulldogs, in their second appearance of the season and meeting the Lapwai Wildcats at Genesee, turned in a 25-0 victory, although rated as second-best team before game time. Genesee gained plenty on the ground, through the line and around ends, and also flipped two touchdown passes. Lapwai made almost as much yardage for Genesee as they did for Lapwai, but it was due to several Bulldogs playing in the visitors' backfield during much of the game. Myers, Krier, and Lanphier were responsible for many of the Lapwai yardage losses as they bottled up the Wildcats in their passing attack. Lapwai made but one good gain on passes, and found the Genesee line too stubborn for appreciable gains.

Both teams showed early-season form, especially in the number of fumbles, in which department Lapwai was the more unfortunate. There was not a single good block by either team last Friday afternoon, but on several running plays the Bulldogs put out some good running interference.

Genesee, in marking up its first touchdown, fumbled five times, but recovered. Becker, hauling the freight for the Bulldogs went over for the first six-pointer with several Lapwai men holding on for the ride. The try-for point failed.

A 30-yard pass from Nelson went to Krier for a TD. Krier was surrounded by Wildcats but he went into the air and after bouncing the ball on his fingertips, gathered in the pigskin, and stepped over the goal line. Bob Bennett swept right end for the extra point.

Lapwai, unable to penetrate Genesee territory, saw the Bulldogs go over for their third TD when Becker again plowed through the Wildcat defense. The kick from placement was wide for the extra point.

Kries, who substituted for Myers when the latter was injured, intercepted a Lapwai pass on the Genesee 30-yard line. After two running plays for a first down, Nelson laid a pass on the five yard line, which was tucked in by Kries, who fought for the extra yards and six points. Again the placement kick failed, this time by being blocked.

Coach Hammond used most of his boys during the game, especially in the fourth quarter when Genesee was ahead 19-0.

Grangeville Here Today

Grangeville Bulldogs meet the Genesee Bulldogs at Genesee this afternoon, Friday. The Prairie school, now in Class A competition, has been doing pretty well in early-season games, but the Bulldogs of Genesee, showed enough improvement since the Orofino game, first of the season, to give fans the impression that Grangeville will not have an easy time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Riggs entertained several teachers Thursday evening, including Mr. and Mrs. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard, Mr. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Primus and son, David, and Mr. and Mrs. Downing.

Tire And Rim Claimed

Ed Flerchinger identified and recovered a truck tire and rim lost several days ago. The tire and rim, leaving the truck on the highway, cleared the fence at the home of Mrs. Eva Taylor and bounded into a porch support. The impact was quite noticeable to Mrs. Taylor, and it is believed the tire and rim would have crashed into a window, had it not been stopped by the support. Flerchinger knew not where the tire and rim was lost, but an ad inserted in The News by Albert Carbuhn provided Flerchinger with the opportunity to recover the valuable property. Mrs. Carbuhn, who has been ill for several weeks, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Eva Taylor.

The proprietor of a cigar store was worried. A competitor was attracting crowds by employing a beautiful Spanish girl to sit in his window and roll cigars, meanwhile "giving the eye" to the men outside.

Then the other man had his idea. The next morning a luscious blonde was rolling cigars in his window—but with her back to the window. There was soon a crowd—inside the shop.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Farmers are jubilant over the fine rains and the way the seed will go into the ground won't be slow. Everyone was glad to see the rain but the deer hunters who are camping in the timbered areas. It seemed to take the hunting season to bring the rain. We wonder why the posts and cable have not been put back on the Lewiston hill after the resurfacing job was finished. It will be foggy days and nights soon and some icy and slippery roads, so it will be a long way to the bottom if anyone rolls off. We are glad others shared our views on the power shortage in the coast rivers. They'll be talking of flood control before too long.

Three Weather Men

F. K. Sims is in a class by himself when it comes to weather reporting, while Glen Sampson, who has measured rainfall in this area for over 50 years in his hat top-side up, relies chiefly on Charley Coverdale for all of his information. Naturally the wheat growers would like to know when it is going to stop raining.

Phone Rates Going Up

Interstate Telephone company was given permission b ythe public utilities commission Wednesday to raise its rates in north Idaho. A commission spokesman at Boise said the increase would amount to about 75 cents per month for business phones and 25 cents for residential phones.

The higher rates will go into effect when Interstate files with the commission a revised tariff schedule for its territory which is north of the Clearwater River.

The raise granted by the commission will boost Interstate's income by $111,809 a year. It will give the company a six and one-half per cent return on a rate base of $3,518,800.

Rev. A. F. Wolff Recalls Building Local Church

Rev. A. F. Wolff of Lewiston, a visitor in Genesee Wednesday expects ot leave soon for Chestertown, Md., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Conrad (Ruth) Reizer, and husband. Mr. Reizer, who was on the faculty of the City of College of New York for 20 years, has accepted a position at Washington College at Chestertown, and Mrs. Reizer, who taught music for many years at New York School of Music and Art, the Juliard School of Music, has resigned, and for the present will not teach.

Mrs. Frank Devery (Verona) now lives at Arcadia, Calif., where her husband, former business manager for NICE at Lewiston, has a similar position with the California State Teachers' College (Humboldt.) Mr. and Mrs. Devery and daughter, Ruth Ann, left Lewiston recently.

Rev. Wolff, who came to Genesee as pastor of St. John congregation in 1908, at the age of 30, and remained until 1932, recalled by invitation, the building of the present church edifice in 1919. Rev. and Mrs. Wolff went from Genesee to Carthage, Ill., and in 1936, the early-day Genesee pastor was called to Cornelius, Ore. He later accepted a call to Chewelah, Wash., in 1941. Mrs. Wolff passed away in 1944, and the following year Rev. Wolff returned to Genesee to live, after retring. He moved to Lewiston in 1947.

Nearly Caught In Price Rise

Looking back, Rev. Wolff said St. John's congregation narrowly escaped being caught in a price rise in 1919 when ready to start erecting the present church buidding. Materials, however, had been contracted for in writing and deliveries were made. In 1919 the price of No. 1 cedar shingles was slightly over $3.00 per square. Dimension lumber was $18 per thousand, and brick cost $32.00 per thousand. Rev. Wolff told of contacting brick makers at Moscow, who agreed to make brick in the color and finish desired. There was some reluctance, but the bricks were made, and by the fall of 1919, after people saw the brick used in the church here, the demand became great. The brick makers were receiving $90 per thousand a few months after the building here was finished. Lumber and shingle prices advanced rapidly, but the congregation was able to obtain everything necessary before the prices went up.

Rev. Wolff told of the great amount of volunteer labor, and without doubt his visits to Genesee are more enjoyed because he had so much interest and worked so hard to see the church building become a reality, a building which still commands attention for its appearance and usefulness.

David Lange, a former Genesee, boy, now at Idaho, has also been selected for the choral group.

Ann Luedke and Rex Eikum were members of the Vandaleers last year and Joyce Danielson, freshman at Idaho, is in her first-year membership as is David Lange.

Guide Dog To Lewiston Man OES Grand Matron's Project

Mrs. N. M. Leavitt of Moscow, worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star for Idaho, last year, had as her project the creation of a fund for a "seeing eye" dog for some deserving person. She was in Lewiston Tuesday afternoon to greet Stirling Snowden, the blind man selected to receive the gift of a guide dog when man and dog arrived in Lewiston by Empire Air Lines from San Francisco. Mr. Stirling, with his wife, Nell, who is also blind, reside at 1604 Main Street in Lewiston. He had been in San Francisco for the past four weeks and with his dog, Deedee, successfully completed a course of highly specialized education from officials of the training school. During training the man and dog are taught to work as a unit.

Mrs. Leavitt, a member of Lily Chapter, Genesee, was among a number of Eastern Star members from Laurel Chapter, Lewiston, and others at the air port to greet Mr. Snowden. The Guide Dogs for the Blind, says Mrs. Leavitt, supplies dogs for the blind in 20 states west of the Mississippi river. No charge is made for the dog. Mr. Snowden used most of the $300 provided from the fund for his expenses while away. A check for the balence, $261.35, presented to him on Tuesday by Mrs. Leavitt will all go he said, "for Deedee and her comfort."

Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hall, taking a week's vacation, returned Wednesday evening. Leaving here for Sandpoint they were joined for a trip to Tacoma by a sister of Mrs. Hall and her husband. They visited other relatives at Tacoma, and later a party of six motored to Vancouver, B. C. Although the tourist season has ended the Halls ran into a Canadian Thanksgiving holiday Monday at Vancouver and were unable to board a ferry for a trip to Victoria. Returning to Tacoma they were lured to Ocean City for a clam-digging experience. No matter how fast and furiously they followed the bubbles—no clams.

Thousands of farmer friends of Reddy Kilowatt declare he's their "best hired hand," around the farm and in the farm home. . . . Today, 98% of the farms in Washington and Idaho are electrified. Nation-wide, half of the farms are served by the REA, the other half by private enterprise electric companies.

Carl Bendel, owner and operator of the Bendel Hatchery near Moscow, Idaho, doesn't care which comes first, the chicken or the egg. He raises both, in large quantity and top quality—and uses Reddy Kilowatt electricity to great advantage in doing so! . . . Carl Bendel says:

"Dependable electric service is about the most important thing a place like ours needs. Washington Water Power people have helped a lot in working out ways to save me sweat and money by using electricity."

Genesee-Grangeville Football Game 7-7 Tie

Genesee high school Bulldogs, meeting a Class A team in the Grangeville Bulldogs, outplayed the visiting Prairie squad last Friday to break even in a 7-7 ding-dong-dandy which saw young Bob Bennett, who might weigh 130 pounds, spark a Genesee eleven in an inspired game. Becker, line-plunging fullback, who was injured in a previous game, and was forced to leave the game in the first quarter, left a big hole to fill in the backfield. Young Parks, who took over as fullback, didn't do bad at all, in fact he surprised many. Genesee's attack by air paid off, with Nelson flipping and Krier, Kinzer and Kries receiving. Murray Myers was a tower of strength on defense, and the two other big boys, Lanphier and Haxton, provided Grangeville with information the line was no place to try for gains.

Lanphier kicked off for Genesee. Grangeville failed to make a first down and kicked to Bennett who came up to the Genesee 40. Genesee could not make early-game progress and kicked. Nelson's punt was blocked and downed by Grangeville on the Genesee 20. Grangeville, on a reverse, went over for a touchdown, and the left foot of their placement kicker sent the ball between the posts for the extra point.

Bennett took the kickoff on the Genesee 20 and moved to the 30. A 40-yard pass from Nelson to Kinzer put the ball in Grangeville territory. Genesee was forced to kick on the next series of plays. Grangeville picked up two first downs and went to the Genesee 25 yard line where again the left-footed booter put his toe to one for an attempted field goal. The ball went wide. Bennett reeled off 15 yards for a first down and Becker repeated for another first down on two line plays. Bennett went thru the line for 15 yards and a pass Nelson to Kinzer netted 30 yards. Bennett swung wide and then cut back for a touchdown. Bennett hit the right side of his line and went over standing up for the extra point, and a tie ball game.

Grangeville, rolling along, lost the ball when Kries intercepted a pass on the Genesee 40 and went to midfield. Bennett, close up, quick kicked to the Grangeville 20 yard line. Grangeville made a first down and then Krier intercepted a pass, and then a Genesee pass was intercepted on the Genesee 40. Grangevelle threw a pass, but on a second attempt Krier got his hands on the ball for an interception as the half ended.

Genesee received, Bennett taking the ball on the 10 and moving out to the 25. Parks hit the line on two tries for 12 yards. Bennett passed to Krier for 7 yards and an offside gave Genesee a first down. Genesee forced to kick punted out of bounds.

Grangeville picked up three first downs, but a clipping penalty on the 28 yard line nullified a touchdown. Grangeville whipped up two more first downs. Myers, on one of his many breaks through, swamped a Grangeville ball carrier for a 15-yard loss. Grangeville kicked and Genesee fumbled but Krier recovered. Bennett picked up 13 yards. Grangeville intercepted a pass, but unable to gain, kicked to Bennett.

Parks went to a first down thru the line on two plays. Bennett passed to Krier for a second first down. Gensee failed to gain and kicked. Grangeville failed to make yardage and then kicked. Bennett ran left end for 11 yards. Bennett went off right tackle for 9 yards and Parks went 5 yards for a first down. Parks made 4 yards and then Nelson passed to Krier for a first down.

Bennett, going off right tackle did not lose yardage but he lost a front tooth which he tossed to the coach. Genesee tried two passes and the ball went to Grangeville. Genesee drew a 15 yard penalty. Grangeville had a man loose, who was scooting down the south sideline, headed west, with only Stout between him and the goal. Stout nailed the runner on the Genesee 40 as the game ended.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have been having wonderful fall weather after the rain and this week end will see most of the seeding done, and then the warm sunshine should sprout it and give it a good growth before the ground freezes. We should have mentioned last week that last Sunday was World-Wide Communion Sunday, when Christians around the world knelt and partook of the Lord's Supper. This week is National Fire Prevention Week and we hope, if you have not looked around for fire hazards that you will do so before the week is out. It is not very nice to be burned out at any time and with winter coming on and the high cost of building, a stitch in time really saves nine. Next week in National Letter Writing Week and besides giving the postoffice department a boost, it is a good time to answer that letter you have kept so long or write an extra letter to those boys in the service. They never get enough letters and they do help to keep up morale. The last of the Wedin-Westberg hunting party returned Sunday evening, with the record kill of the season so far as we have heard—seven elk, a black bear and a bobcat. The bear had riddled the tent of a neighboring hunter from Lewiston, a tent which he had borrowed. The bear was looking for slabs of bacon hanging in the tent. The tent was a $75 loss to the hunter, and he returned without game, as most hunters have done.

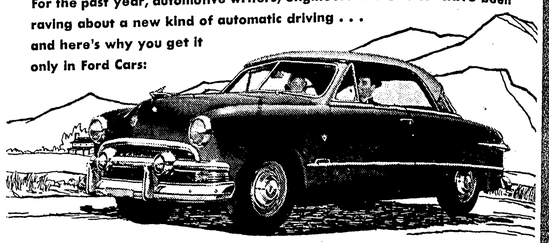
Here's why Fordomatic puts them all in the past!

For the past year, automotive writers, engineers and owners have been raving about a new kind of automatic driving . . . and here's why you get it only in Ford Cars:



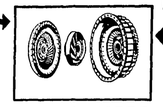
All the power you need when you need it!

It gives you instant "GO"!

It practically drives itself!

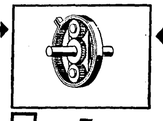
Some automatics have this

The automatic drive some cars offer you is a torque converter which multiplies torque without the use of gears. Its advantage is a smooth flow of power. Its disadvantage is a smaller range of torque multiplication which requires more power from the engine and an uneconomical axle ratio which increases costs.



Some automatics have this

Other cars offer an automatic drive that uses automatic gears (as illustrated in simplified form at right) instead of a torque converter. The advantage here is more "go," more control and greater economy. The disadvantage is that this system is not as smooth, nor as jerk-free as a torque converter.



But Fordomatic has both

Yes, Fordomatic has a torque converter plus automatic gears. It brings you only the advantages of both drives.

Unlike cars with only a torque converter (which start and cruise all in one drive gear), Fordomatic starts fast and smooth in Intermediate Gear; then shift itself into Drive Gear.

See our selection of A-1 USED CARS

Fordomatic FORD

Fordomatic Drive optional on V-8 models at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice. F.C.A.

Our Bank Says "Help Yourself"

eople around here need lots of ll change these days — what h candy, gum, cigarette and soft nk machines . . . pay phones . . . those penny sales taxes.

Used to put a strain on our nk. Changing money took up a of time. Then the Chief Teller ppy Wilson, read about another nk using a "help yourself" nge system. The directors deel to see if it would work here. They set out some big shallow wls full of nickels, dimes and nnies with a sign saying "MAKE UR OWN CHANGE." Works fine, too. At the end of the day the totals are never more than a couple of cents under—or over—the right amount.

From where I sit, folks everywhere are pretty much alike, although they may seem different. Farmers and city folks, Republicans and Democrats, those who enjoy a glass of beer occasionally and those who prefer something else—we all usually try to live up to the trust others have in us.

Kamiah reeled off 3 yards around left end. A smash at the line was stopped dead when Haxton and Myers closed in. Genesee took Kamiah's punt on its own 32. Parks lost 5 yards. Bennett made 6 yards. A pass failed and Genesee kicked to the Kamiah 35.

Kamiah passed for 11 yards. Another Kamiah first down came on four line plays. Kamiah, on Genesee's 40 yard line, went 8 yards, but Lanphier and Stout stopped the next play. Nelson broke through to throw a Kamiah ball packer for a 20 yard loss.

Kamiah kicked, and Bennett, in the safety spot, fumbled with Kamiah recovering on the Genesee 25. Kamiah lost 5 yards when the Genesee forward broke through en-masse to swarm on the ball packer. Myers was directly in front of a right- end run, and made the stop. Lanphier and Haxton were in the Kamiah backfield to dump the runner for a 10 yard loss.

Kamiah punted to Bennett on the Genesee 20, and from that point, the receiver scampered 80 yards to a TD, and then ran over for the extra point.

Genesee kicked off to Kamiah to the 20 and the Kubs moved out to the 35. Two Kamiah passes failed. Borgen came round to down the runner on the third play. Kamiah kicked to Bennett on the Genesee 30, and he ran out to the 40. Nelson hit the line for 2 yards. Bennett lost the ball, Kamiah had it momentarily and then Bennett had the old pigskin. Bennett quick kicked to the Kamiah 15. A Kamiah pass netted 5 yards. Another pass fell short, and a third pass was intercepted by Kinzer. Nelson tried the line for 5 yards as the game ended 7-0 for the Bulldogs.

Krier, Genesee end, joined Becker, fullback, on the list of injured, playing the bench Tuesday.

Sgt. Smith And Family Enjoy Travel By Motor in Europe

Sgt. Herbert Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith, who, with his wife and three children, Charlotte, Star and Dwight, have been residing at Bremerhaven, Germany for the past two and a half years, writes to his parents of a recent vacation trip. He told of traveling down the Rhine River from Mainz, Germany to Coblenz, and there headed up the Moselle River towards Luxembourg. They described scenery along both rivers as beautiful and interesting. At least 30 old German castles were seen on the steep and high hillsides along the rivers, and then there were the seemingly endless vineyards.

They remained at one of the inhabited castles overnight, and were permitted to view a torture chamber in another castle.

Luxembourg seemed small, as they covered the distance across the Duchy in a short time. They saw more American motor vehicles in Luxembourg, Belgium and Holland than in Germany. At Verdun, France, they visited a soldier friend, and then continued on to Paris and Versailles, where they took guided tours. They found Paris and Versailles the most interesting of all places visited and mentioned the Palace at Versailles as beyond description. Everywhere their travels took them they found people friendly.

Mr. And Mrs. Conklin Home Visited A Month In Midwest

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Conklin, who left Genesee for a motor trip to the midwest, returned to Genesee Oct. 15. Leaving here they traveled to Boise, then to Salt Lake City and to Denver. They spent four days on the trip east, with time included to visit relatives at Mankato and Goodland, Kansas, and at Superior, Neb. Continuing east, they went to Iowa Falls and Eldora, Iowa, the birthplace of Mr. Conklin. Mrs. Conklin is a native of Kansas, and had not been back there since 1940. Her husband has made several trips to Iowa.

Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota, where rains have been plentiful during the summer and fall, are beautiful in their fall foliage, but fishing at Leech Lake in Minnesota was not good. Former Iowans, who recall red squirrel hunting in Iowa, will understand why a person likes to be in the Hawkeye state when shooting is good, and the animals are in their prime in the fall. Red squirrel is a delicacy, but few hunters would be successful until they learned the traits of the elusive animals.

With television available at most points in Iowa, and the play-off between the Dodgers and Giants and then the World Series, eyes were glued to video screens in the homes of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Conklin gave three days to the trip home. Traveling Highway 20 thru Iowa and Nebraska, they continued on that route to Casper, Wyo., and then dropped south to Highway 30 to Boise and home over the North and South highway.

Kenneth Primus Secretary Of District Control Board

Central Idaho's Second District now has a Board of Control for high school interscholastic athletic, music and declamation and debate events, according to Kenenth Primus, Genesee, who was named as secretary. He is also a member of the state control board, and has been assigned as manager of the No. 1 Regional basketball tournament to be held in Lewiston for Class B schools. Other board officers for the Second District are Earl Vopat, Grangeville, president, and Wallace Webster, Orofino, vice president. The chairman or president of the coaches', music and declamation and debate organizations will act in advisory capacity to the Board of Control.

In all probability the Second District Class B basketball tournament will be held in Lewiston. The play-off is now scheduled to end March 8 and will get under way the Monday previous. NICE gymnasium is reported available for tournaments.

The state Class A basketball tournament will be run off at Pocatello at conclusion of the season. Sixteen teams will be entered. The Class B tournament will be held either in the Boise or Twin Falls area. For Class B state competition, schools will return to the regional tournaments, tried out a few years ago. In this divisions there will be three regions. Districts 1 and 2 comprise Region 1; Districts 3 and 4, Regional No. 2, and Districts 5 and 6, Regional 3.

Legion Installs Officers

Officers elected by Bielenberg-Schooler Post, American Legion, and installed Wednesday evening by Walt Emerson are: J. P. Hermann, commander; Bob Morken, first vice commander; Bill Emerson, second vice commander; Gerald Pederson, adjutant; Homer Schooler, finance officer; John Eikum, chaplain, and Wayne Vestal, sergeant at arms.

The Legion has planned its Armistice Day dinner, to be held Monday, Nov. 12 at the Memorial Building.

Reports of the Genesee Boys' State delegates were given by Bill Haxton and J. D. Anderson. The boys gave their reports in an interesting, informal manner, telling of new friends made, political intrigue in attempts to elect their party members, and social highlights of entertainment.

Return With Big Game Limit

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Roach and son, Duane; Rev. Melford Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Broemeling of Lewiston Orchards and Jack Brannon of Moscow have returned from Cayuse Landing and Kelly Creek with their limit of elk. Mr. and Mrs. Roach and Mrs. Broemeling spent two weeks in the big game country. Mr. Broemeling, Rev. Knight and Duane spent about a week there, and Brannon was in for three days.

New Truck License Act Big Change For Idaho

Several inquiries relative to Idaho's new "Motor Carrier Law" which goes into effect Jan. 1, 1952 sets off what may be termed "chain reaction," so different is the procedure established by the last session of the state legislature for procuring certain truck permits and licenses, and the methods of payment on a mileage basis. Perhaps one is sticking his neck out, but here goes for what we have, gleaned from asking questions and referring to a digest of Idaho Motor Carrier Laws:

To start off, the owner of a private automobile, if under 6,000 pounds in weight, still pays $5.00 for a license, which is due Jan. 1, 1952, unless an extension, up to 45 days is granted by the commissioner of law enforcement. You will receive "tabs" instead of new plates in 1952 for passenger cars, it has been reported.

Latah County Lacks Plates

By the way, according to E. Dan Pederson, Latah county assessor, this county has not yet received sufficient passenger car plates for 1951, and it became necessary to borrow plates from another county. If you see a Latah county resident driving a car with an Idaho county identification, you will know where the plates came from.

Big Change In Truck Fees

There will be 23 types of plates issued in 1952. Farm truck plates have been discontinued, also those for private and commercial. In place, there will be five types, such as Limited Carrier, Private Carrier, Contract Carrier, Common Carrier and Interstate Carrier plates. The fee for any and all types of truck plates, regardless of classification is the same, provided the declared gross weight is comparable. This does not apply to diesel-powered trucks.

Under the old state law the fee for 5,000-pound gross weight farm truck was $5.00; $10 for 10,000 pounds, $20 for 15,000 pounds and $30 for 20,000 pounds gross weight.

For 1952 the rate for all trucks is the same provided they have identical pounds declared gross weight, $16 for 8,000 pounds, $24 for 10,000 pounds, $32 for 12,000 pounds, $40 for 14,000 pounds, $48 for 16,000 pounds, $54 for 18,000 pounds, and $60 for 20,000 pounds, then up to $78 for 26,000 pounds.

Alternative Apparent

Apparently there is an alternative for the owner and user of a heavier farm truck, but this necessitates some book work. At the outset, the heavy truck, for instance above 8,000 pounds gross weight, could be declared in the 26,001 pounds gross weight division, which would entail keeping records of mileage. If one should prefer to use the alternate it is mandatory that the 26,001 pounds gross weight declaration be made. To do this the truck owner will report in duplicate to the Department of Law Enforcement and State Tax Collector on or before Jan. 1, 1952, and include a remittance of $20. The commissioner then issues an identification number, but no plate. The truck owner then goes on a mileage basis at .01088 mill per mile until the initial $20 is used up. Truck owners will be required to report mileage by the 20th of the following month. $21.76 will permit a truck, as classified, to travel 2,000 miles. However, with the initial payment of $20, the truck owner cannot remit $21.76 to start with, but must watch his mileage meter. Thereafter, all miles traveled may be multiplied by .01088, and remittance made. Reports and remittances are made monthly, and further, it is the responsibility of the truck owner to report type of carrier in use.

Diesel Rates Higher

Rates for diesel-powered trucks is higher than for gasoline-powered trucks for the reason there is no state tax on diesel fuel while there is on gasoline. It has been pointed out that the rate of .01088 mills per mile for gas-operated vehicles compares with .02306 mills per miles for diesels.

New Law Rather Drastic

Idaho motor trucks operators have received forms from the Department of Law Enforcement. Some report the forms difficult to complete. The new Idaho Motor Carrier Law does appear confusing and complicated, and may require time for many to solve, but it does mean that trucks using the highways will pay according to mileage traveled or weight transported.

If there has been error in the above, and it is most likely, The News will gladly make corrections, or print further information that truck owners of this area may become acquainted with the new law before Jan. 1, 1952.

Bring Out Three Elk

Virgil Hurlbert of Troy and Sim Fleishman and "Pat" Patterson of Genesee came out of the St. Joe area recently with there elk. Hurlbert, who annually gets his big game, used more ammunition than ever before, he reports. It required seven shots to finally subdue one elk, and each shot was well placed, according to Fleishman, who helped dress out the meat.

Fall Work At Heinrich Farm Done By Friends, Neighbors

Wm. Heinrich, who was a patient at the Gritman hospital, and who returned home October 3, wishes to extend his thanks to neighbors and friends who prepared his fall wheat land for seeding, and then planted the crop. They also applied a ton of chlorate for weed killing and did the subsoil work to hold the chemical weed spray. Mr. Heinrich said he felt most grateful, and when he visited his farm Thursday noon it appeared the work would be finished by Thursday evening or Friday morning. The kind neighbors and friends used some of their own equipment and also machinery belonging to Heinrich.

Rosenau Shoots Black Bear "Rescues" Hunting Partner

Louis Keight of Lewiston owes Gordon Rosenau a debt of gratitude, although the Genesee man did not know he was contributing to his friend's escape. Keight and Rosenau, with Dewaine English, also of Lewiston, were big game hunting in the Orofino-Pierce area a few days ago. The three separated. Soon Rosenau heard a low whistle, interpreted as meaning elk had been seen by one of his fellow hunters. Mindful of not creating a noise that might flush big game, Rosenau cautiously moved in the direction of the whistle. He then heard his partner say something about a bear. Rosenau spotted a black bear about 400 yards distant, and shot, certain that he made a hit. The bear which he shot at was climbing a tree, and soon five more bullets were pumped into the animal from a 300 Savage before he gave up.

Keight was not concerned with the bear shot by Rosenau, but by another one which was following him to the party's car. Keight was not losing much time, it was reported, and the bear, inquisitive or otherwise, moved with equal celerity in Keight's footsteps. When the first shot was fired by Rosenau, Keight's bear changed his course. Keight remarked that he was reluctant to shoot at "his" bear because he was armed with only a 25-20 rifle, and feared the slug might not be enough to stop the animal.

The three hunters, out only a day, saw no elk or deer. Rosenau gave the bear, after it was dressed, to his Lewiston friends. The animal weighed approximately 300 pounds.

Fall Work Soon Done Weather Turns Colder

Weather, most uncertain at this time of year, is permitting short days for harvesting of potatoes, and seeding of fall crops. With a few more days like those of the current week, the "work will soon be all done this fall." Several fields of oats, slow in maturing, are reported unharvested. It is stated that no deterioration of oats acreage has resulted from the unusually late crop, however, and the fields may be cut, even at a later date.

Potato men held off digging to improve the quality of the product, especially for winter storage, and to avoid bruising the skin of the tubers. The local potato crop is surprising considering the rather dry and warm growing season. Some of the spuds already dug are of exceptionally good quality, and the shape, size and texture are above average. Digging is in progress this week, with the end in sight if weather holds good for a few days longer. Potatoes are commanding good prices, owing to the lower national production, cut because of withdrawal of price guarantees and support prices. The Idaho crop is far below other years. Noticeable in potato deliveries to some marketing points is the tonnage of potatoes coming from the Moses Lake area of the Big Bend, where irrigation from wells and small lakes has produced fine crops.

Fall-seeded fields are showing up in various stages of development, and many fields are a carpet of rich green while in others the plants are just making an appearance.

Pastures have brightened up much during the cooler and moist weather of the past three weeks, and even the Lewiston hills are turning green before snow falls.

A west wind brought in a few minute flakes of snow Tuesday afternoon, and the temperature hovers around the freezing mark each night.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Farmers who haven't finished their fall work are about to sing, "Rain, rain, go away, come again some other day." The ground isn't thoroughly saturated yet but will be if showers keep coming every day like they have for the past week. The time has come when we will be feeling something else in our pockets besides our pocketbooks. It will be the hand of Uncle Sam feeling around for the last nickel to pour down every rat hole in the country, and it looks like we haven't seen anything yet, with predictions from Harry that he will ask more and more money to continue the fist fight we have in Korea. Wonder how long it will be before they decide back in D. C. that we have a full scale war on our hands. A hundred thousand casualties affecting that many American homes is no child's play. If we have all those wonderful weapons they are ranting about why not test them out where they will do some good. It is terrible to think that we have to use such weapons but it is also terrible to think that our young boys, fathers, husbands, have to die like flies if we don't use them. Next week, Oct. 24, is United Nations Day—a day unique in itself because it is the only day in the history of the world that is observed by every nation, every creed, every race. Diplomats may come and go, governments may have different forms, people may speak different languages, but when only man is able to imbue himself with the principles which were included in the "Sermon on the Mount" can peace be achieved. Fear is assailing all of us. We wonder where we are headed. What does it mean? One thing is certain, our most precious heritage, our freedom, is at stake. Democracy can only survive as we live and preach it every day. Our country would not be in its present shape if we had wisely used the power we possess by doing everything we could to preserve our heritage. We can be pioneers, you and I, in America, not with our hands on the plow share and spinning wheel as our early pioneers did, but with minds and hearts ready to accept the risks of high human endeavor. America is rich earth, America is factories, farms and village spires in all 48 states. America is many things and many people but most of all, America is you and I. On this sixth United Nations anniversary may each one pledge themselves to drive communism from our land and be good loyal citizens to the good old U. S. A.

Genesee Better In Mud Defeats Kendrick 7-6

"You can't tell the players from one another without a program," just didn't mean anything when Genesee's Bulldogs played football at Kendrick last Friday afternoon. Officials, after the first few scrimmages were as helpless in assessing penalties as a blind man in a dark alley. They could spot the offending players but could not distinguish from the color of uniforms which school the boy was playing for. Kendrick's field was a sea of mud, turned to a thin jelly by the cleats of the two teams. Now and then, after a player went to the ground when tackling or being tackled he would be seen scooping up thinner mud to emulsify the thicker muck.

Genesee kicked off to Kendrick to open the invasion of Tiger land. Kicking was as difficult as passing and Kendrick took over not far from midfield. With not more than six or seven first downs made by both teams, Kendrick kicked to Genesee. There were no sensational runs, but Genesee's break came when the Tigers fumbled on their own 20 yard line. The Bulldogs soon had a touchdown, with Bob Benentt going ten yards off right tackle and cutting back for the touchdown. On the same play, the line opened a hole and Bennett went over for the extra point, running to a point just a foot beyond the goal line. Bennett, who has been doing a lot of ball packing this season after the first game with Orofino, crashed into a Kendrick man returning a punt, and left the game, to return after he regained consciousness late in the first half.

Kendrick was later favored by a Genesee fumble on the Bulldogs' tenyard line. A long right-end sweep accounted for the Tigers' touchdown. For conversion Kendrick attempted to pass, but the passer slipped and was on one knee when he flipped the ball over the goal line. The pass, however was batted away from the intended receiver.

The final score was Genesee 7 and Kendrick 6.

Withholding Tax Rate Moves Up November 1

Calvin E. Wright, collector of internal revenue at Boise, announced Oct. 22 that employers will be required to withhold income tax from wages paid on and after November 1, 1951, at the higher rates provided by the Revenue Act of 1951. The Revenue Act is at present in the final stages of enactment into law.

Revised withholding tax rate tables for employers are already being printed in Washington, and are being rushed to the offices of collectors throughout the nation.

Collector Wright stated that the pamphlets containing the revised tables will be placed in the mails to all employers on his list just as soon as the tax law is finally enacted. Employers who do not receive the pamphlet within a few days after enactment of the new law, may obtain copies at the collector's office. It was emphasized that the pamphlet cannot be made available for distribution to employers until after the bill becomes law. In the meantime, however, the collector authorized the publication of the withholding rates as they will appear in the pending Act, for the advance information of employers and the public.

He stated that employers are expected to make every reasonable effort to comply with the provisions respecting the new rates. In view of the short time elapsing between the enactment of the law and the first payroll period affected, many employers may not be able to adjust to the new rates on the first day affected. While no adjustments will be made in the audit of the withholding returns in such cases, he made it clear that this does not in any manner affect the responsibility to employees to meet their full tax liability as required by law when making their return for the year 1951.

The Idaho collector also called attention to the fact that the new law relieves individuals from penalties for failure to comply with the requirements relative to declarations of estimated tax on Form 1040-ES for 1951 if due to the increased rates in the Act. Revised estimates will not be required on account of the rate increase, although the higher tax for 1951 provided in the law will have to be paid when taxpayers file their income tax returns for the year.

Smokes And Gas Tax Up

The collector also said that wholesale gasoline distributors and retail dealers having wholesale quantities of gasoline on hand will be required to inventory stocks at the first moment of Nov. 1, 1951, and file a return to the collector at the rate of a half cent per gallon on floor stocks. The news release stated gasoline held in tanks which supply filling station pumps are not included.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue John B. Dunlap issued a statement to the effect that the federal tax on cigarettes advances from $3.50 to $4.00 per thousand, effective Nov. 1, 1951. The Act imposes a floor stocks tax of fifty cents per thousand(equal to one cent on each standard package of 20) on all stamped (tax paid)) small cigarettes held by dealers and other persons for sale at the first moment of November 1, the date on which the increase becomes effective.

Each dealer must take an actual inventory and prepare and file with the collector of internal revenue a return and inventory covering the tax due.

Moscow Shrine Show Nov. 1

Members of the Moscow Shrine club are sponsoring the appearance of "Virgil," premier international illusionist and company with "Julie," the sweetheart of magic, at the Moscow high school auditorium Thursday evening, Nov. 1 at 8.

Every cent of the net proceeds will be forwarded to the Spokane Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children. With costs of hospital operation increasing, and also the number of little patients increasing, each Shrine Club of the area is staging an entertainment or football game to help meet the budget.

The show mentioned above is one of the best and most highly recommended, with the Moscow appearance providing the opportunity to witness one of the world's outstanding magic performances.

For the next few days tickets will be available from Forrest Durbin, Leo Ernst or E. D. Pederson, but it is suggested you hurry.

Troy Coming Here Today

Troy high school will send its football team to Genesee for a game this Friday afternoon. The Trojans, unable to mark up a victory this season, will be playing on a tough grass turf which should not be too bad provided no rain falls before game time. The Genesee Bulldogs, who lost by one point to Orofino, for their only loss this season, will not be up to full strength with Becker and Krier out. Neither of these two men played at Kendrick or were in uniform for the Kamiah-Genesee game played here, a week ago last Tuesday.

Right Leg Amputated

Clifford Olson, formerly of the Genesee community, underwent an operation Friday of last week for the amputation to his right leg above the knee. Cause of amputation was infection which started two years ago. He is at the Gritman hospital in Moscow, and expects to leave next week to be with his sons, Howard and Don at Lewiston.

Light Plane Is Forced Down Owner A Nephew Of Myers

Robert Myers of Endicott, Wash, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. James Myers of Genesee, who often has landed his plane at the Myers ranch near here, was faced with an emergency landing in Spokane Wednesday of last week. A picture of the plane was carried in Spokesman-Review. Owner and pilot of the light plane, managed to get away from downtown Spokane, to make a crash landing in the 700 block on East Trent. The plane came to a stop upside down after the wheels touched soft earth and flipped over. The pilot was uninjured.

This week, two of the pilot's five sons, Roger and Stephen, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Myers.

Producers Co. Adding Space Newest Building Is 40 By 72

Construction of a warehouse 40 by 72 feet is being constructed by the Farmers Union Producers company a few feet south of the office building. There will be a loading dock at the east of the building extending the full length. John Hoduffer is in charge of construction.

Supported on concrete footing, the floor joists are 2 by 12-inches, closely spaced, to provide a firm floor for heavy materials, such as cement and prestologs. Florent Moser, manager, said, the company planned to erect a building on railroad right-of-way at a later date to house cement which will be received in carlot shipments.

The latest addition to the Producers company plant will be used chiefly for roofing materials, fencing, insulation, building materials and will also provide space for surplus items now stocked in the salesroom.

The company recently completed construction of an addition to the bulk oil and fuel plant, and a coal house, 36 by 20 feet has been built along Northern Pacific railway tracks. At the present time there is room for around six carloads of coal, but owing to the different kinds of coal carried at this time of year, it is necessary to pile some coal outside.

Settlements by insurance companies are being made, Moser said, but there will be a loss to the company by the disastrous fire which consumed the entire Prairie Flour Mill holdings and buildings belonging to the Producers. The loss is chiefly on buildings, as replacements costs are decidedly higher at this time. There is, however, one redeeming feature, such as having the new building erected at points more advantageous for receiving materials and for loading out to buyers. New space added since the fire amounts to 3,560 square feet.

Ethel Wernecke Bride Of Rodney B. Carlson

St. Mary's church at Moscow was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday afternoon at 3 when Miss Ethel Wernecke of Genesee, became the bride of Rodney Bruce Carlson of Moscow. The Rev. Fr. Schmidt of Moscow officiated.

The high altar, decorated in fall flowers of white pompons and chrysanthemums, made a beautiful background for the marriage ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wernecke, was given in marriage by her father. Her fall suit of grey with green accessories was set off by a multi-colored orchid worn as a corsage. Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Donald Boehm of Moses Lake, Wash., who was also dressed in a grey suit with black accessories. She wore a corsage of dark red rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a corsage of pink rosebuds, while the groom's mother's corsage was made up of yellow and white rosebuds.

Mr. Carlson was attended by his friend of many years, Wayne DeWitt.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Moscow hotel for relatives and friends of both families. Her pictures were taken and the bride and groom cut their first piece of their beautiful cake, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson left by car for a trip into Montana, with expectations of meeting a boat at the foot of the groom, also recently married.

The bride graduated from Genesee high school in May and has been employed in Moscow during the summer and early fall months, and made her home with a sister, Mrs. Irvin Dahman. Mr. Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carlson of Moscow, is a graduate of Moscow high school and attended the University of Idaho for two years. He now farms seven miles south of Moscow. The young couple have taken an apartment in Moscow for the winter months.

Mrs. Orley Laughery and son, Jim, of Dayton, Wash., arrived at the Wernecke home here Tuesday to attend the wedding of her sister. Mrs. Laughery and Mrs. Dahman of Moscow, both sisters of the bride, poured at the reception and Mrs. Martin, another sister of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Leonard. Wernecke, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Sign Is Erected At Junction Directs Traffic To Genesee

A reflector-type metal sign, eight feet by four feet has been erected at the junction of the new highway west of Genesee, which directs traffic to Genesee. Signs placed north and south of the junction by the state highway department when the road was completed are too small to be seen even in daylight. The new sign may be seen for a long distance, both in daytime and at night. The sign was placed on state highway property Monday by permission of the state. Members of the committee from the Merchants' Association were Evan Hall, LeRoy Harris and W. M. Herman. Hall and Harris assisted Sam Canner and an assistant place the sign, which is supported on heavy metal tubes, imbedded in concrete.. The word "Genesee" shows up in an off-yellow color, with an arrow being in red. Cost of the sign will be borne by business firms in Genesee. The sign was on order for several weeks.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We found out that the weather man was just practicing with his showers until Monday afternoon when old Jupiter Pluvius turned loose with the real McCoy that lasted 30 hours. The ground is really wet now. This is Girl Scout week, and that group is just another example of a democracy, where girls are taught to be real homemakers and future citizens. We salute them and their leaders. The war is getting closer to home all the time with two Moscow boys paying the supreme sacrifice this year, and we wonder who will be the next. It doesn't look much like a cease-fire yet with the Chinese communists insisting again on the 38th parallel as the cease-fire line. They don't seem to realize that when the U. N. says "No," they mean it, and the talks are starting on the same deadline as last time and will probably get nowhere again. It begins to look like something will have to be done to keep so many hunters from getting lost or killed. Too many people from treeless states are coming to Idaho to hunt, and without the first idea of taking care of themselves in the timber, and they will shoot at anything. It reminds us of a hunter who shot something in the brush, and killed it. He skinned it and took it to the locker. The butcher took one look at the animal, saw the shoes on his feet and refused to accept it. It was another hunter's mule he had killed, and believed it was an elk. Those movie stars from California must have felt at home when they couldn't land at the Pullman airport because of fog. California airports have a lot of such trouble, but is rather unusual here.

Regular church services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haxton were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson in Pullman and later attended the Cotillion Club dance at Colfax.

Mrs. J. P. Wedin attended a dessert luncheon at the Clara Barthing Circle Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. Hugo Johnson in Moscow.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hove of Clarkston called at Art Tegland's Monday afternoon. They had been to the Gritman hospital to see Roy Hanson who is seriously ill there with a heart condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morken went to the coast Wednesday. Mr. Morken attended the semi-annual board meeting of Pacific Lutheran College at Parkland, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Egland and John accompanied them.

Dr. Tom Armour of Lewiston called at Wedin's Friday morning. He is an old friend of Mrs. Wedin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Christensen visited Sunday evening at Tegland's.

Sonny Morken and Jackie Parkinson and four football players from Pacific Lutheran College, Ron Billings, Bob Brog, Bill Waddell and Bob McAdams, were week end house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morken. The football players stopped at Cheney to play in a game before coming to Genesee.

Mrs. Lilly Larson had coffee with Mrs. Art Tegland Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nordby spent Tuesday in Spokane.

J. P. Anderson returned Saturday from Soap Lake where he spent ten days.

Mrs. Lilly Larson and Elmo Larson visited at Arwin Nordby's Thursday evening.

Mrs. Irvin Iverson entertained the Genesee Valley Ladies Aid at the church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Masted was program chairman. She brought two Norwegian teachers to the Aid meeting to give a talk on "Education in Norway," and they also sang three songs. The ladies are visiting various schools in this country to study education here. At the business meeting plans for the bazaar were discussed. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tesch of Portland arrived at the Fred Hove home Saturday to visit Fred Tesch and remained for the funeral Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Danielson spent Sunday at Ole Johnson's home on Little Bear Ridge.

Thought For The Week

Part of America's greatness is the unshatterable faith that when something needs to be done, it can be done. The U. S. Marines have a saying that the only difference between the difficult and the impossible is that the impossible takes a little longer.

Talking About Fishing:

The spinning reel was practically the only reel used on the Grand Ronde Sunday by approximately 500 fishermen. However, a lady was the only person to catch a steelhead salmon. Even Bill Thiessen was unlucky, but Glenn Sampson came into our store Monday with a 22-inch fish, but we failed to learn where he got it.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Guess They Felt Pretty "Sheepish"

My wife and I went to Central City Saturday for the football game and it was a top-notcher. But I began to wonder if it was worth the trouble when we got in a traffic jam coming home.

Traffic makes me mighty impatient. When I came to a side road that seemed to point towards the main highway, I turned onto it. This road bumps along for maybe a mile, then fetches up short by the railroad—a dead end.

So, I turned around and darned if there weren't twenty cars behind me! One driver had followed —figuring I knew a short cut—then a whole string of them swung after him, like sheep.

From where I sit, there's no sense in just "following along." Whether it's choosing a road, a movie star, or what beverage to drink at meal time, it's always better to make your own decisions. Personally, I often like a glass of beer with my dinner, but most of all, I like the freedom of making up my own mind about it!

N.P.G.G. New Elevator Is Nearing Completion

North Pacific Grain Growers plan to have the new terminal elevator at Kennewick in operation about January 1, according to A. C. Linehan, who attended a meeting of the board of directors Oct. 25. As a member of the board which met at Kennewick, Mr. Linehan viewed construction and the installation of equipment. The million-bushel terminal and distribution plant at Kennewick reaches 224½ feet high and is located convenient to the Columbia river, and is served by three railroad companies. The headhouse and workhouse is located at the highest point. Round grain bins or tanks are five wide and 13 long, providing 65 separate places to hold grain. All are 125 feet high and made to be served individually from the high headhouse.

Framework is in place for installation of unloading equipment, and the three rail companies have completed laying of tracks. Cars of grain can be unloaded at the terminal and also loaded for trans-shipment by barge or rail. The grain tanks and central portion of the huge elevator is situated at present, some 300 feet from the Columbia, but as water rises by being impounded behind the McNary dam, the distance will decrease. Dikes are yet to be constructed, but once they are in use, they will accommodate a rise of water 17 to 20 feet above normal.

Mechanics are now installing machinery, having overcome the shortages occasioned by the demand from the federal government for metals of which much of the equipment is made. According to Mr. Linehan, there has been a shortage of wiring materials for the numerous electrical circuits, and for switches and controls, but this shortage has also been met with.

With all of the 1951 crop under cover, it is unlikely the new N. P. G. G. facility will be used for storage until the 1952 crop starts coming in. The plant, will be used, however, for receiving grain for processing and reshipment as soon as possible. The North Pacific, which has leased facilities at Astoria, Ore., learned during the past few months, that one plant alone turned over its capacity nine times in one senson. There are no cleaning or mixing facilities at Astoria, while at Kennewick the new plant will do everything in the way of processing for shipment or use anywhere. Ships will be unable to approach the Kennewick terminal, but barges, now in use, could be filled to move grain downriver to Portland before the dikes are completed or before water backs up behind McNary dam. The three railroads can load for shipment in several directions.

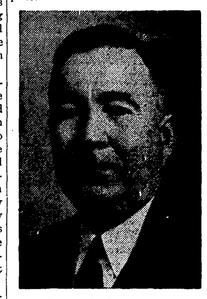
Robert S. Overstreet of Boise Idaho March of Dimes Head

The appointment of Robert S. Overstreet of Boise, as 1952 Idaho March of Dimes chairman has been announced by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Mr. Overstreet, as head of the March of Dimes in Idaho, will coordinate the fund-raising activities of the polio drive's campaign directors in cities and counties throughout the state. In making known Mr. Overstreet's appointment, Mr. O'Connor said: "Mr. Overstreet is assuming his post at one of the most critical moments in the National Foundation's history. The March of Dimes has not kept pace with the march of polio.



Robert S. Overstreet

"During the last three years that polio has been on the upsurge," Mr. O'Connor continued, "the National Foundation has ended each year in debt. That is why we must launch the 1952 March of Dimes on January 2 instead of January 15, doubling the usual two-week period of the campaign."

Widely known throughout the Pacific Northwest, Mr. Overstreet is central division manager of the Idaho Power company. He has been associated with the public utility field in southern Idaho and in the northwest for many years. For the past 12 years he has been a member of the Idaho State Elks Association, Crippled Children and Convalescent Home program. He is engaged in many community activities and is a member of the board of trustees of Boise Junior college.

Concerning Mr. Overstreet's acceptance of the March of Dimes post, Mr. O'Connor said, "We must have unprecedented help in this next appeal of ours and we hope, therefore, that everyone in Idaho who can contribute his time and effort will contact his nearest March of Dimes office to volunteer for the forthcoming drive. I know that Mr. Overstreet will provide the kind of leadership so desperately needed at this time."

Many U. Of Idaho Students Favor Educational Courses

University of Idaho—A total of 708 students at the University of Idaho, or almost one-fourth of the university's current enrollment of 3,007, are taking educational courses, it was revealed in a report prepared by Registrar D. D. DuSault.

Of the 708 students, 666 stated that they would seek a teacher's certificate, and 511 that they planned teaching as life careers. The students are looking toward grade school, high school and university and college teaching. Included are students in such specialized fields as home economics, music and agriculture.

To help provide more teachers for the schools of the state, the University of Idaho this year expanded its teacher training program in the elementary field. Ten new elementary education courses were added. Also added were special programs for training teachers of handicapped children, and for training teachers of primary grades.

Invitation To See Pictures

Don Borgen, who returned from Europe in July and then studied at George Washington University at Washington, D. C., for three months before returning home in September, will show pictures of the several countries he visited during his year abroad. The pictures will be shown at the Community church basement Sunday evening.

Don, a graduate of the University of Idaho, qualified for the Fulbright opportunity to study abroad and spent three months in Switzerland in 1949.

He returned to Europe for study at Toulouse University in France in 1950, and while there visited several countries while on vacations.

The public is cordially invited to see the pictures and hear Don tell of some of his experiences. The time is 7:30 o'clock.

Spud Harvesting Done As Winter Approaches

Temperatures of 16 degrees above zero were reported early Wednesday and Thursday mornings, according to F. K. Sims, who has been keeping an accurate record for this locality. Lower temperatures have been reported this week in the Genesee area, and such readings are reasonable. In the Lewiston and Clarkston area ice was reported early Wednesday and Thursday mornings, with severe damage to cars because owners neglected to install anti-freeze, or because they did not believe it could freeze in the banana belt the last day of October or the first day of November.

Freezing temperatures at this time of the year are not uncommon in the Genesee area, but equally uncommon is a continued cold siege before mid-November at least.

Potato growers just beat the gun on harvesting this week, and it could be that a very few became nipped by the drop in temperature. With moisture content of the soil ample at this time, potatoes in the ground did not draw frost, and most likely the damage is slight, if any. Nevertheless, they managed, despite odds, to get the potatoes dug and in storage before damage could be heavy.

While the nights have been cold for the past week, nicer late fall days are seldom enjoyed. It is a fall typical of autumn pictures, with leaves falling after turning beautiful colors, the sweet corn stalks left standing appear as they should, and the pumpkins and squash lie in the gardens naked, bereft of their green vine covering.

Seeding To Be Done

Contrary to earlier reports there is much fall seeding to be done in the Genesee area, especially south and east, where wheat growers were holding off seeding until late to minimize the infestation of smut. Awaiting the preferred time for sowing, farmers ran into continued rains, but it is not the least unusual to witness seeding this late, or around Nov. 1, so it may be that many acres will be planted before snow falls.

Removing Slab Wood Bark Local Experimental Project

Ray Trautman and Wayne Roach are conducting an experiment in removing bark from slab wood to be used for making pulp at the Lewiston paper mill of Potlatch Forests. Eleven and a half cords of slabs were trucked to Genesee from a lumber mill at Troy. A "debarker," constructed by Wayne Roach, employing the principle of the "stubble buster," is being tried out on the vacant lot near the General Repair Shop. The "debarker" is a steel case, with a revolving 3-inch shaft to which are attached a number of short chains. It is driven by a commercial-type gas motor at high speed. The chains, coming in contact with the bark of the various size pieces of slab wood, are reported to be doing a fair job of stripping the bark. The machine, in the experimental stage, does not have compensating equipment for handling the many different thicknesses of wood, but if the principle proves satisfactory, Roach has an idea for overcoming this difficulty. At present a trial run is being made to see if the revolving chains are "rough" enough to strip the bark.

The paper mill company is cooperating in the costs of the trials being made here, to determine the amount of usable slab wood to be salvaged. Trautman said the size of the pile of slabwood has already decreased in size due to debarking. There are other methods of removing bark, according to Roach and Trautman, yet the pulp mill will be glad to learn of another means of salvaging slab wood for further utilization of wood, much in need for paper manufacture.

Largest Crowd On Record At St. Mary's Church Bazaar

Imagine providing 1500 meals in one day, and at each of the two fine dinners everyone could eat as much as they please. Sunday, ladies of St. Mary's church of Genesee, served 450 for a chicken dinner, and then accommodated 970 for a smoked sausage supper. Florent Moser who assisted in the sale of tickets, said the average number served in recent years was around 600 for the evening meal, when Wm. Theissen's well-known smoked link sausage was the big attraction.

Lines formed early and long to obtain tickets, which were numbered to avoid waiting in line. The numbered tickets served their purpose well for the noon meal, but in the evening the bazaar crowd grew to such proportions there was insufficient room for people to stand, even in the large Firemen's hall. The ladies regret that some, especially those with small children, were inconvenienced, but it is remembered that changing the day of the bazaar from a week day to Sunday was an experiment. Weather for the day was exceptionally fine, which was another factor in the huge turnout, but weather or not, there were many here from a distance to enjoy the two dinners. With the excellency of the dinners served at Genesee bazaars becoming better known every year, it may be necessary to rotate places like they do basketball seats at university games. The other alternative is to provide more seating space, which is unreasonable to consider. It is believed that more people were in Genesee Sunday than at any other time in the past twenty or more years, and they came from all over the Inland Empire.

Members of St. Mary's church wish to thank everyone who attended and for their liberal patronage.

Community Church Bazaar

Ladies of the Community Church Guild will hold their annual bazaar and dinner at the Firemen's hall on Tuesday, Nov. 6. The sale of fancywork and other items will begin at 3 p. m., with the dinner serving starting at 5:30 p. m. This year the ladies are offering either fried chicken or baked ham with all the trimmings. The price is $1.25 for adults and 50c for children. For many years ladies of the Community church had their bazaar and dinner to correspond with election day, except in off years when there is no election. This year those attending may concentrate entirely on good things to eat.

Ladies' Society Sale Success

Ladies of St. John Lutheran church who held a sale of food and fancywork and served lunch at Genesee Motors Saturday afternoon, did a brisk business while supplies lasted. Demand for baked foods far exceeded the supply, yet there was quite an array before sale time. Fancywork also found ready buyers, and at times the ladies were kept real busy serving lunch, at which demand again exceeded the supply.

Death Comes Suddenly To Mrs. Paul Heppner

Funeral services for Mrs. Paul Heppner were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 by the Rev. H. Cronrath at St. John Lutheran church. Mrs. Mona Rosenau sang, "My God And I" and "Rock Of Ages." She was accompanied by Miss Eloise Herman.

Burial was in St. John church cemetery. Pallbearers were Henry Manderfeld, Hugo Gehrke, Henry Koster, Ed Jutte, O. V. Johnson and Dave Garrett.

Louisa Margaret Buck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buck, both deceased, was born May 19, 1881 at Mankato, Minn. Later she moved with her family to Butler, South Dakota, where on Nov. 27, 1902 she was united in marriage to Paul Heppner. They were the parents of eight children, five of whom died in infancy.

In 1922 Mr. and Mrs. Heppner and family moved to Genesee, where she was a member of St. John's Lutheran church and an ardent worker of the Ladies' Society, of which she became an honorary member.

Mrs. Heppner, kind and friendly to everyone with whom she was acquainted, entered Gritman Memorial Hospital at Moscow Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, and the following morning underwent major surgery, from which she failed to recover. Death came suddenly Friday morning, Oct. 26 at 6:40 o'clock.

She leaves to survive, her husband, Paul; a daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Steen of Genesee, and two sons, Floyd of Lewiston, and Leo of Baltimore, Md., and a brother Wesley Buck of Wilmot, South Dakota.

Her age at the time of death was 70 years, five months and seven days.

Mrs. Steen and husband, who were at Eckman, N. D., visiting relatives of the latter, and Leo Heppner, who is with the technical staff at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, but was in Los Angeles, rushed home when they learned of their mother's critical illness. Mrs. Steen returned by train as far as Spokane Thursday evening, and Leo made the trip by air to arrive in Spokane on Thursday also, where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heppner. Also here from a distance, was Mrs. Bertha Bury, a sister of Mr. Heppner's from Sentinel Butte, N. D. Relatives here from Moscow were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sodorff, and from Lewiston, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heppner.

All Schools Will Be Exempt From Federal Admissions Tax

Kenneth R. Primus, principal of the Genesee public schools, announced, that according to a bill recently enacted by the United States congress, grade and high schools are exempt from the federal admissions tax as of Nov. 1, 1951. Applications must be made for exemption from the collector of internal revenue.

Tournaments and meets which are sponsored by a group of schools are expected to be under the exemption clause, but no one can be sure of this until an interpretation is obtained. An attempt is being made to secure a nation-wide ruling. If this is refused, it will be necessary for each state to present its own case.

The excise tax on athletic goods used by schools has the same status as that of the admissions tax except that no special interpretation will be necessary.

Student Council Meets

The regular meeting of the Genesee high school student council was held Oct. 29 in the office of Kenneth R. Primus, with Rae Aherin presiding.

A report of student council income and expenses will be posted on the bulletin board in the study hall at the first of each month. Also the possible revision of the student council constitution was discussed, and copies of the constitution will be made available to all members of the student body.

The price of season basketball tickets was set at $4.50 for adults and $2.00 for students. The price for each game will remain the same as last year. The council voted to purchase schedule cards and distribute them to buyers of season tickets.

In order to inform the students of the work the council is doing the council will meet with the student body every Friday following the regular Monday meetings.

Injury Benefit Plan

Students and teachers of Genesee schools have the opportunity of participating in the "School Injury Benefit Plan," during the current school year. This plan is developed especially for the schools of the state, and the contract is underwritten and guaranteed by Security Life and Accident company of Denver, Colo. This is the same company that provides a policy for the Genesee athletic program.

The plan for hospitalization, as well as scheduled indemnities for medical and dental treatment of accidental injuries. Coverage is included for injury incurred while going directly to and from school, and is also provided for injury incurred in any supervised school activity (except interscholastic athletics.) Cost of protection for the full school year is $1.00 per student.

Report Cards Out

Report cards were mailed from the office of Genesee public school Wednesday, Oct. 31. The report cards were mailed two days earlier than usual to enable the parents to receive the grades before open house.

Uncle Sam Says

This being November, let's talk turkey. And turkey in this case means what's good for you and all of U. S. alike; in short, it means greater individual and national security. By purchasing Defense Bonds regularly through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank, you can systematically build up financial security for yourself and your family. At the same time you can be strengthening America's security against aggression and economic disorders.

TROY LOSES TO GENESEE RIEGAL REVERSE STAGED

Bennett made 6 yards. Becker unwound for 15 yards. Kinzer went around left end for 11 yards. Bennett picked up 11 yards, which took the ball across the Troy goal line. Becker fumbled when trying for the extra point.

Troy receieved on its 20 and moved out to its 33 yard line. Two plays were no good. Stout for Genesee intercepted a pass and went to the Troy 33 yard line.

Kay Nelson ran 12 yards. A pass, Jay Nelson to Kinzer was good for for another TD. Becker went over for the extra point.

Troy received on its 10 and did pretty good, coming downfield to the Troy 35. In went the Genesee seconds. Troy hit the line for 5 yards. A pass was no good. A play into the line was good for a yard and then the visitors booted to Stout for Genesee on the Bulldogs' 20.

Stout gained 8 yards, but Genesee drew a backfield in motion 5 yard penalty. Genesee couldn't get away a pass, and then kicked to Troy on its 22 yard line as the third quarter ended. Troy hit the line for 5 yards and repeated for a first down. Troy was stopped for no gain when Tom Oswalt, perhaps making his first tackle in a game, stopped the ball packer. Olson for Genesee broke through to drop Troy for a 5 yard loss and then the Trojans kicked to Genesee on the Genesee 40.

Genesee made 5 yards into the line but again there was a backfield in motion assessment of 5 yards. Genesee tried a pass which was intercepted by Troy on Genesee's 30 yards line.

Troy threw a pass, but Kay Nelson for Genesee was moving toward the ball, gathered it in and raced 70 for a touchdown. Parks ran over for the extra point.

Troy received on its 20 and came out to its 38. Troy passed for 10 yards. The Trojans hit the line for 6 yards and then made 8 yards more. Troy made 8 yards around its right end with Teichmer making the stop. A line play was good for a first down and then Troy raced around right end for 4 yards and its first and only TD of the game. They ran the extra point.

Genesee received on its 40 and ran to the 50 yard line. It was on on-side kick by Troy. Benyett on the first play, ran 50 yards for a touchdown, having nice interference and blocking. Becker packed the ball over for the extra point.

Troy received on its 20 and moved downfield to its 38. Troy passed for 9 yards, made a half yard going into the line and then a fumble with recovery cost the Trojans 15 yards. The Troy team kicked to Bennett as the game ended 55 to 7.

While the competition was not as rugged as in some games played by the Bulldogs, the Genesee eleven was blocking better than at any time this season, and ball carriers were following their interference.

Reports For Social Security Coming From Idaho Farms

More than 1,726 farmers in Idaho are reporting social security for their regular farm help, according to Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Social Security Administration at Lewiston.

"Under the new social security law, regular farm help came under social security for the first time this year," Cathcart said. "To be considered a regular hand, a farm worker must work at least five months for one employer. He must first be employed continuously for one full calendar quarter to qualify for social security protection. After he qualifies, he is under social security as long as he works for the same farm operator on a full-time basis for at least 60 days each quarter and makes $50 or more in cash wages during that quarter.

"For example, a man who started work on a farm July 1 of this year completed his qualifying quarter on September 30. If he stays on the same job through October and November, his October and November wages come under social security. After that he stays under social security as long as he stays on the same job.

"Despite industrial and commercial developments in the state, agriculture remains a dominant industry," Cathcart pointed out. "When the new social security law is fully effective for agricultural workers it is expected that public assistance costs, which have been going down nationally since the social security law was amended last year, may be reduced further."

"Farm workers now aged 65 or over may qualify for old-age insurance benefits by July of 1952," Cathcart said. "Using $200 a month as the average monthly wage of steadily employed farm workers in northern Idaho, this could mean retirement benefits of $97.50 for a man and wife if both are elegible."

"Yes, doc, but some of the joints I like don't even serve water.

"Your daughter has considerable natural talent for reciting."

"Yes," said the mother, "all she needs now is a course in electrocution to finish her off."

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The rains finally quit and Old Man Winter moved in with temperatures to freeze the ground and frost each night. Temperatures dropped to 10 degrees above zero. There is still some fall work unfinished which will probably have to go until spring. Highway crews are rolling out snow fence, which makes the shivers go up and down our spine. A hard winter is predicted by would-be weather prophets, who haven't been far wrong for the last few years. We heard a tip for frosty windshields the other day. Carry a small bottle of diesel in the car or truck and wipe the windshield with the diesel on the outside to prevent frost from collecting on the glass. We pass it on for what it is worth to you. This is National Flower Week and florists are using various ideas to observe it. The flowers are all gone outside now so the date is timely. We are glad to see the posts going up on the Lewiston hill. It help's one's morale to drive down there with a fence on the side.

Result Of The 1952 Election Could Be A Remarkable One

When Senator Taft threw his hat into the ring, he simply made official what everyone has expected for a long time. It is no secret that Senator Taft had hoped to be made the Republican presidential nominee on previous occasions, but circumstances of various kinds conspired against him. Following his overwhelming victory in his last senatorial race, Taft and his supporters really got down to cases in preparation for the 1952 nominating convention. More important groundwork, by far, has been done on his behalf than for any other possible candidate. The Taft organization is large, efficient, well-financed, and politically experienced and astute. It recognizes that there is much strong opposition to their man within the Republican camp and it is doing everything possible to minimize it. Some leading Republicans who were once anti-Taft have been converted. The principal opposition to him is led by Governors Dewey, Duff and Stassen. The first two are all for Eisenhower. Governor Stassen it seems, has hopes on his own behalf.

Senator Taft's new book on foreign policy is an able effort to dispel the idea that he is an isolationist—which has been one of the main arguments made against his possible candidacy. He is a biting critic of the Truman foreign policy and of the conduct of the Korean war. But he realizes America's pre-eminent position as the leader of the anti-communist world, and of the responsibilities and commitments that result. His present position certainly cannot be called isolationist. And when he said that he is the only Republican who can make the kind of campaign that can be trusted to unhorse the Administration, he obviously meant it with complete sincerity.

General Eisenhower remains the great question mark—he has disappointed his many followers by refusing to take a partisan stand, or to indicate whether he would accept the nomination of either party. At a recent news conference in Paris, he said that his present position, as head of the Western military alliance, made it impossible for him to show allegiance to a political party. He said also that he regretted that efforts were being made to put his name on the ballot in states where it is legal to do that without the permission of the person involved. But his camp still hopes, and fervently, that he will come to a decision and annuonce himself as available before it is too late. In the meantime, his chances are worsened for lack of an effective national organization.

A potentially explosive situation is found in the possibility that the conservative anti-Truman Southern Democrats may start a "splinter" movement with someone like Senator Byrd or Governor Byrnes as its candidate. In that case, with three men in the race, it could be that no one would get a majority and the election would be thrown into the House. Then, as Raymond Moley pointed out in Newsweek, "It might be that either a Republican or a Southerner would be elected President and the party that did not get the presidency would be given the control of congress. Thus, a coalition would be in full control of the congress and the executive. Truman and Trumanism would be out of power . . . " That isn't a probability, but it certainly is possible. Next year's election could be a remarkable one.—Economic Highlights.

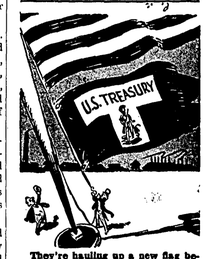
Uncle Sam Says



They're hauling up a new flag beneath Old Glory in hundreds of American communities. It's a Treasury Department flag awarded to cities for special activity in selling U. S. Defense Bonds under the Payroll Savings Plan. Where 50 per cent or more of a town's business firms install the plan, the town becomes a Flag City, entitled to fly this special flag. Let's hope more and more towns get on this bandwagon. Employes who have the benefit of this plan are saving wisely and helping America to become strong.

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employes Accept

Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse

But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.66 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?

The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.

Electric Power Difficulties The Result Of Public Power

People of the Pacific Northwest were not completely taken in by the so-called threat of electric power shortage after they saw the water backed up behind Coulee Dam, and the stream of water already pouring into the storage lake between Coulee Dam and Coulee City. Considering the amount of electrical energy necessary to lift that stream of water over the hill at Coulee Dam into the storage reservoir, one could assume the power consumed and the water stored was just about equal to normal flow of the Columbia. Sure, it was intended that water be stored and that power would be required to raise it over the hill, but what was not expected was the drain on Lake Roosevelt at the time of year when river flow was about normal or somewhat below.

The True Story

Several weeks ago the following was received from the Industrial News Review, Portland.

"Some newspaper columnists, along with others, have been having a field day over the fact that there is now something of an electric power shortage in the Pacific Northwest. By design or otherwise, they have attempted to make it appear that this is an instance where the light and power industry or a region has failed to live up to its responsibilities.

No one with even a nodding acquaintance with the facts of the case will believe that.

The immediate cause of the Pacific Northwest's critical power situation has been a sharp decline in river flow. As a consequence, power production by the hydroelectric plants slumped, and it has been necessary to curtail power use to some big industrial consumers, primarily aluminum producers, which are served under interruptible contracts. The past spring and summer were among the dryest in the region's entire history.

But the roots of the problem go far back. In past time, the private power companies built well ahead of potential demand. Both hydro and steam plants were constructed, and the latter were ready to shoulder the load in years of below-normal rainfall. The power companies served their customers well, under public regulation, and made a reasonable profit. Private capital was always available for expansion programs.

Then federally socialized electricity was forced on the Pacific Northwest—tax free and tax-subsidized—and the whole picture changed. The government, through Bonneville and the other dams, became boss. It called the tune and all had to dance to it. The heavily-taxed private power companies were put in a position where they could be socialized almost overnight. So, inevitably, private expansion was blocked. The private plants that would have been built, had the specter of socialism not existed, could not be built.

That is the story of the Pacific Northwest's electric power difficulties. They are, primarily, the result of a policy of forced socialism that hamstrings free enterprise.

You—and the SCRAP METAL
EMERGENCY

ANSWERS every farmer should have to questions about scrap iron and steel

Q. Why is iron and steel scrap a matter of importance to farmers?
A. Steel for our Country's defense program and civilian economy is being produced at the highest annual rate ever . . . and this will be greatly increased in 1952. Farm machinery and equipment needs must come from this over-all supply. As steel production increases the need for scrap increases.

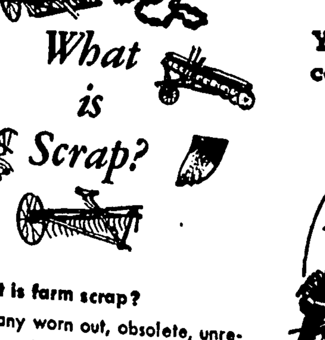
Q. How does scrap figure in the production of steel?
A. One pound of scrap is needed to make two pounds of steel.

Q. Is scrap getting scarce?
A. Yes, the supply of scrap at the steel mills and foundries is not increasing fast enough to meet the needs of expanding steel production. Yet, there are millions of tons of idle iron and steel scrap, in small amounts, on farms throughout the country.

Q. What if the needed scrap isn't obtained?
A. That will mean a serious loss of steel production . . . fewer products will be made of steel. It will mean more shortages of civilian products. Defense needs come first.

Q. Why not use pig iron instead of scrap?
A. Every ton of scrap conserves approximately 2 tons of iron ore, 1 ton of coal, nearly ½ ton of limestone and many other vital natural resources—to say nothing of transportation facilities. Besides, there are not enough blast furnaces to produce the iron needed to maintain production.

Q. How can more scrap be furnished?
A. By everybody pitching in—as we always do in every emergency—and searching out all possible sources of scrap. Manufacturers of all kinds of products are conducting scrap drives. Old ships are being salvaged . . . scrap is being obtained from countless sources including farms.

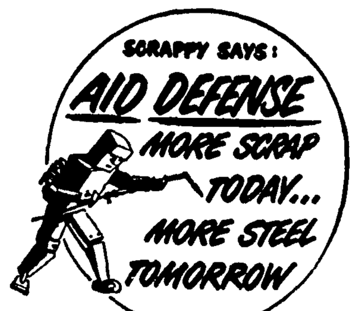


Q. What is farm scrap?
A. It is any worn out, obsolete, unrepairable equipment, tools or other objects made of metal. It may be resting and rusting in fence corners, in the fields, the barnyard or the tool shed.

Q. What should be done with farm scrap?
A. See that every bit of scrap gets to the scrap dealer located nearest to you. He will break it up into sizes used by the steel mills and foundries. He'll classify the metals then ship the scrap in carload lots. If you do not know the name of your local scrap dealer, consult your local implement dealer for this information.

Q. What else can I do about farm scrap?
A. Support the scrap drive organized in your locality. Work with your local Scrap Mobilization Committee in getting the scrap started back to the steel mills and foundries through the local scrap dealer.

You'll be helping your country—and yourself!



Copper, Brass, Bronze and Lead Scrap are needed too!

Firemen Asking Help For Pouring Concrete

Following is a request by members of the Genesee Fire Department for assistance to place a new concrete floor in their building:

Wednesday, Nov. 14, has been tentatively set by the Genesee Volunteer Fire Department as the day for pourinig the concrete floor in the fire station, housing the city and rural fire-fighting equipment.

The fire department, during the past year, has raised enough money to pay for the materials to be used, but now we are asking for volunteer help to do the work.

The members of the department have spent considerable time in getting the floor leveled and in shape to pour the concrete.

In addition to the local members there will be extra help needed. It is the department's desire to do this work in one day, if at all possible, so as to get the trucks and equipment back in the place as soon as possible.

Coffee will be served at the Firemens' hall, and if plans work out, a noon meal may be served also at the hall.

Anyone feeling that they can come out and give the firemen this one day's help please call Florent Moser or any members of the fire department well in advance of Nov. 14., so a list can be made of these men. We must know how many men we can count on.

There will be approximately fifty yards of concrete to pour and to float and trowel, which will be a good day's work.

The group was back in school in time to go over conclusions made at the show.

Washington State At Idaho For Annual Classic Saturday

Weather is a topic for conversation but to many who are speculating in their minds only, would like to see the University of Idaho run ahead of Washington State College Saturday when they meet at Moscow. Wash. State, appearing for the past several weeks in national ratings, is of, course, picked to take the Vandals. This prophecy is shared by most people, some of whom, however, are prepared for an upset. Football prognosicators are all in agreement that WSC will win, while there are a few who believe the Vandals may spring some magic. If Idaho "pulls one out of the hat," and beats the Cougars, those who do not witness the game will be kicking themselves all over the Gem State and part of the Evergreen State. For sure, Idaho is not backing down on its Saturday assignment. The Vandals are said to be in full strength, and if forecasters did not have records of the season for the two teams on which to base calculations, it could easily be a toss-up.

Weather Remains Fine Some Attempt Seeding

Sunshine but no roses is the weather report for the Genesee community Thursday afternoon. There is no snow and there hasn't been any, except for a few minute flakes which came in with a fog two weeks ago. Freezing temperatures of the past 15 days have wilted all vegetation except the fall wheat and grass, even to leaves on trees. Rains have been plentiful, but now, with more than a week of no moisture, farmers who delayed fall planting of wheat are trying to seed again. One wheat grower said he tried it Wednesday, but the ground, mostly low, was a bit too wet.

Rains have brightened fall and winter pasture lands in the Snake and Clearwater valleys, which relieves cattle and sheep men from feeding up to this time.

Nick Busch, sheep man from Asotin way, who kept his herds in the Genesee area since bringing the woolies out of the mountains when signs of fall showed up, was still holding his sheep here this week. Planning to move them soon across the Clearwater, thru Lewiston and then over the Snake river, was slightly perturbed by an impending Lewiston ordinance to regulate trailing of cattle and sheep through the valley metropolis. It is understood that Lewiston's city council has softened somewhat, and the necessity of an airlift or a truck movement, not to mention an amphibious operation, has been done away with.

Soil building in the Genesee area, a major practice and one of importance, both as to yields of crops grown and prevention of soil erosion seems to fit in well with wool, lamb and mutton production. The many acres of land on which sweet clover and alfalfa are grown, provide good sheep feed, with, of course, the possibility of loss from bloat.

Oscar W. Collins Killed Well Known Pioneer

Oscar W. Collins, 67, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Collins, early-day pioneers of the Genesee-Uniontown area, and a pioneer in his own right, was killed instantly Friday night at 8:30 in a two-car accident on the highway between Steptoe and Colfax. His wife was hospitalized at Colfax for injuries sustained. Both cars were traveling south, and according to the driver of the car which struck the Collins car from the rear, he was forced off the highway by an approaching car. His car went out of control and into a ditch and out onto the highway. The Collins car was hit in such manner that it was forced into a rock wall. It was believed that Mr. Collins was killed when the car crashed into the wall.

The deceased is an uncle of Marion Holben, a sister of Mrs. Jeanette Holben of Lewiston, formerly of the Genesee community, and the father of Robert Collins, who operates the Collins ranch at the junction of the highways south of Genesee. St. Joseph's School Winner Over Ursuline Academy 21-7

Football for Genesee high school may have concluded but the pigskin carriers of St. Joseph's school continue to play. Monday at Moscow, the parochial school boys, coached by Rev. B. McBride, using both the single and double wing, and changing occasionally to the T, when not lined up in a Notre Dame box, won from Ursuline Academy 21-7. A return game is planned, weather permitting. The Genesee youths lost 25-14 to Colton, and have a return game on the fire with the Washington boys.

Playing for Genesee in the backfield Monday were Urban Hasfurther, Ken Kries, Kent Broemeling, Billy Broemeling and Orrin Kambitsch. In the forward wall were Marvin Moser, Ray Jacobs, Mike Rabdau, Albert Brenner, Don Schluter and Chas. Herman, with Don and Vernon Kraut going in as substitutions. GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have had a variety of weather the past week—rain, sleet, fog, sunshine, in fact everything but snow, and we are now keeping our fingers crossed about that. First of all we want to correct a statement we made last week about keeping frost off of the windshields. It should have read, "carry a bottle of anti-freeze in the car to rub on the windshield if it frosts up, instead of diesel. Sorry. Glad the weather has not required any use of defrosting material before the mistake was corrected. It took a woman to find out that we had a war in Korea—perhaps if we would send some women to these peace talks they might get some where too, at least they couldn't do any worse. We think Churchill might have gone a little further in his salary cuts and took a sizeable lop off of the king's salary and sold some of those palaces that stand empty most of the year—then there's a lot of royal jewels that could help their economy, if sold. Why have a lot of useless "ice" around which is seldom, if ever, worn. When prosperous times return they could be replaced, if necessary. All is in readiness for the Ladies Aid bazaar and food sale Friday evening at the Valley church.

Usual Sunday morning services. Luther League in the evening. Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon at 2:30, Mrs. John Luedke, hostess, and Mrs. Roy Iverson, program. Thankoffering envelopes are to be brought in. Sunday is International Peace Day, and we have no peace, but at least we can pray for real and lasting peace to come, and soon.

Mrs. Laura Andrews of Caldwell and Miss Hattie Anderson of Lewiston have returned to their homes after a week's visit with Mrs. Dollie Peterson.

LaVerne Gilbertson has returned to his base at Camp Carson, Colo., after a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gilbertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Danielson and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Borgen.

Mrs. J. P. Wedin attended the Wiswall-Pentzer wedding at Moscow Sunday afternoon.

Friday afternoon callers at Mrs. Art Tegland's were Mrs. John Luedke and Maurine and Mrs. Anna Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Morken and Kenneth of Parkland, Wash., are visiting this week at Ed Morken's.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Gilje visited Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lande Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Tegland spent the week end at Art Tegland's.

Mrs. J. P. Wedin spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Stratton, in Clarkston.

Mrs. John Luedke and Mrs. Anna Hanson called on Mrs. Nels Lande Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Mortenson was hostess to the Valley Aid Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Leon Danielson had the program. Rev. Masted conducted a Bible study on the Seventh Chapter of Hebrews. Mrs. Leon Danielson gave a reading on Box Work and reported that a box of children's clothing had been sent to Parkland Children's Home at Tacoma, and a large box of clothing was taken to St. John's church to go with their shipment to Korea. A box of Christmas gifts was sent to Tellar, Alaska, in August, for a mission there. $25.00 was voted by the Aid to help pay for Rev. Masted's sermons over the Moscow radio station, for the benefit of shutins mostly. Guests were Mrs. Nicholson, mother of Mrs. Mortenson; Mrs. Sam Jensen and Mrs. Ida Lyons. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Peterson spent Tuesday at Wm. Peterson's in Moscow.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Rossebo were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Chas. Foster in Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arwin Nordby and family spent Sunday evening at the Larson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haxton and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Pullman gave a dinner dance at the former's home Saturday evening. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parvin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sodorff, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Barton, all of Pullman area. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and children remained overnight at Haxton's.

Monday evening visitors at Ethel Johnson's were George Johnson, Mrs. Dollie Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Peterson and children and Chas. Northern.

"Talks Turkey" —Long Distance

Some people chuckled when Sonny Fisher rented a home recording machine to record the noise his flock of turkeys make.

"I sent the recording to a buyer for a super-market chain," Sonny said. "I told them 'My turkeys speak for themselves—listen to this record!' They not only took my birds, but bought the record!"

"Why did they want the record?" I asked him. "Very simple," he says. "They're going to play it over the loud speakers in their stores—and then an announcer on another record reminds the customers that turkeys are plentiful and a good buy."

From where I sit, it's not always smart to make fun of someone just because he does things a little differently. I think a glass of beer is the most refreshing beverage there is. You—or Sonny—may prefer something else. But who's to decide one's right and the other's wrong? Let's stay "on record" that everyone's entitled to his own tastes and opinion.

Fire Department Floor Poured In A Half Day

Members of the Genesee Fire Department wish to thank everyone who assisted them in pouring the concrete floor at the fire department building Wednesday. They especially wish to express their appreciation for the volunteer labor of non-members and for the dinner served by wives of fire department members and other ladies who donated food and assisted in preparation and serving. Between 60 and 70 were at work Wednesday to mix and pour concrete, according to figures available, which are based on the number served at noon. Some of the men took their noon-day meal at home. The ladies brought covered dishes. The meat was supplied by the fire department, and the Merchants Association provided the dessert. During working hours the Pastime, Hammers Bar and Legion club provided refreshments, for which thanks are also extended.

Men assembled at the fire station early Wednesday morning and by 7:30 were shoveling sand and gravel and dumping cement into mixers. The entire floor was poured by 11:15 a. m. and the finish work was completed at about 12:30 Thursday morning. The large crew mixed and poured between 40 and 45 yards of concrete for the 4- and 5-inch mat, which is reinforced with steel. The 5-inch mat covers the space used for fire truck storage and the 4-inch mat is for other lighter storage and equipment.

Winter Weather Arrives

Snow seems to be more or less associated with winter. Snow comes in winter in Idaho, and in the wintertime it snows in Idaho, so by the simplest deduction winter has arrived. Snow began falling Tuesday evening to gently cover the ground. There was some thawing Wednesday and then some more snow, until today, Thursday, with a little more thawing, but not enough, the Palouse is white in most places.

Temperatures dropped to just below freezing Wedesday evening, to make roads extremely slippery, but where roads were traveled Thursday the highway surface was again safe, at least until more snow falls.

Some are predicting an early and cold winter for the Inland Empire.

Mr. And Mrs. Glenn Sampson Married 50 Years, Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sampson were honored Tuesday evening with a reception, marking their golden wedding anniversary. Their niece, Mrs. R. E. Berger, planned the event which took place at the Sampson home. Friends and relatives called during the hours of 7 o'clock and 10 o'clock in the evening to present the couple with flowers and gifts. Also present for the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Sampson's two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Gribble of Portland and Mrs. Ed Bergman of Spokane. Mrs. Gribble was accompanied by her daughter, Barbara, and Mrs. Bergman by her husband and daughter, Mary Lynn.

Arrangements of autumn-hued chrysanthemums were used in the decorations of the Sampson home for the party and the gold-tinted linen cloth on the refreshment table was centered with a gold-trimmed three-tiered anniversary cake, topped with a bride and groom. Slot Machines Go Out Jan. 1 Decree Of Lewiston Voters

Lewiston voters said "No" on slot machines and punch boards Wednesday. The vote in the special election was 2,359 to 1,512 against slot machines and 2,301 to 1,567 against the punch boards. The election was preceded by a spirited campaign for and against the gambling devices, legalized by the state but subject to will of each incorporated village, town or city. A municipality may legally permit slot machines and punch boards but the law provides that municipalities may hold elections to oust the coin-operated devices and the punch boards, after a municipal government has permitted the devices to operate according to state law and ordinance.

Lewiston joins Boise, Twin Falls and Pocatello as one of the major Idaho cities outlawing slot machines. The city of Idaho Falls voted against the machines once, and later permitted their operation. Lewiston held a previous election on slot machines, which favored the machines.

Merle Roberts Family Home From Long Trip

Leaving Spokane Oct. 16 by train for Chicago, then to Detroit and Pontiac, Mich., to take delivery of a new car, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Roberts traveled about 8000 miles before returning to Genesee Monday evening. Weather was good with the exception of about a day and a half while traveling in Indiana and Illinois, and in southern Oregon, where they traveled through snow Sunday evening and Monday morning of this week. Car chains were a necessity for some 50 miles between Klamath Falls and Bend, Ore.

They returned to Detroit from Pontiac to devote two days to sightseeing and found the Greenfield Village with its Edison Institute Museum one of the most interesting in their entire trip of around 8,000 miles. The Museum has a floor space of 14 acres, and demands much more time than they could give to it.

From Detroit they went through the tunnel to Windsor, Canada, and continued east to Niagara Falls on Canadian highways. They were at Niagara Oct. 21, and remarked about not seeing an Idaho license when all at once they spotted an Idaho "N" plate. Owner of the car was Dr. Herbert Klaaren of Lewiston, well known to Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. Dr. Klaaren was at the Falls with his family who had been on a visit to Washington, D. C., and were on their way home.

They crossed back into the States to Buffalo, going on to Cleveland, O., and to Indianapolis. At Springfield, Ill., remembering their history, they were privileged to visit the home of Abraham Lincoln, and to see the Lincoln Tomb, also at Springfield. Mr. Roberts said the atmosphere about the home was such that one could expect Abe Lincoln to appear at any moment. From Springfield, their route led to Kansas City, and to Topeka, Kansas, where they visited a cousin of Mrs. Roberts and his family. Topeka suffered severe damage in the floods of last spring. It will be some time before all facilities are restored. At the present time the city water system is back in operation after several months, but the sewer system is so plugged with silt and debris that a city bond issue to being considered to raise funds to clear the lines. High-water marks are to be seen everywhere. Grass or hay is still to be seen hanging from telephone wires. Accumulations of mud and silt are everywhere, even today. The Roberts were shown much of the devastated areas, including the business of the cousin, which, however, has been restored to usefulness and occupancy. Homes off their foundations and moved some distance, may be seen in the Kaw Valley, where water was at least 12 feet deep in school and residential areas. A tremendous undertaking confronts property owners in the restoration of their homes and business places. Fine farm lands are silt-laden, to the extent of being seemingly damaged beyond recovery.

Leaving Topeka they went to Wichita, Kansas and then through Enid, Okla., a state which gives one out here the impression only of oil, good university athletic teams, and riches from the oil lands. Oklahoma, however has the largest wheat storage center in the U. S. Enid, Okla., has elevators with storage capacity of 36,1 400,000 bushels. The astronomical figures of the national debt offer no comparison, but thirty-six million bushels is a lot of wheat.

They routed themselves by way of Amarillo to Lubbock, Texas, that they might view the Carlsbad Caverns, another of the "wonder" sights of their journey. They took the walk to the 750-foot level, had lunch underground, and followed the present-day explorers to every point for which time was available.

Next it was El Paso, Texas, to Tucson and Yuma, Ariz., then through the Imperial Valley and into California.

Leaving Genesee about the same time as Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mervyn, the Roberts agreed to meet their Genesee neighbors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schlee at Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Schlee are the uncle and aunt of Mrs. Roberts. The Mervyns were drifting south for the winter, after having spent some time at Pebble Beach, Calif., and other places.

While at Los Angeles they went to Catalina Island, visited other relatives, including Mr. Robert's grandmother at Whittier. Between Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, there are perhaps 25 members of their immediate families living in California, all of whom were not visited, Mr. Roberts said.

At San Francisco they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sitton and a brother of Mr. Roberts at San Raphael. Giving considerate time to things which were of interest to their son, Kenenth, the Roberts could not pass up the Fleishaker zoo, and other interesting places in the Bay area.

Continuing northward, they stopped at Redding, Calif. ,to visit Mr. Robert's father, and then traveled into Oregon and a blast of winter.

Scott, the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, remained with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Gooch at Lewiston.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

There isn't much change in the weather report from last week, with temperatures mild, despite a little snow Wednesday. A large crowd attended the Valley bazaar and food sale at the church basement Friday evening. The ladies were well pleased with the results. This is National Education Week, and it is fortunate that we have compulsory education in the United States, for the hardest thing in the world to combat is ignorance. It is the great stumbling block in many nations of the world today. Just suppose there were on books, wouldn't we be lost without them? We wonder if Vishinsky ever heard the old saying, "He who laughs last, laughs the longest." We didn't hear him laugh when the news of our new bases in Norway was given out. Why, was Genesee taken off of the highway sign at the Y near the top of the grade? Genesee might be off the highway now but it is by no means off the map, and travelers looking for Genesee might get confused. Genesee is the best small town we know of and we make no exceptions. It has more honors coming to its citizens and of the nearby areas than any place in Idaho. Next week is Thanksgiving day and while there are many things that could be changed here, we are still the luckiest nation in the world in so many ways that we should give thanks to God for all the many blessings we enjoy.

Thanksgiving
(Mrs. H. B. Kildahl)

For this great country, fair and free from every yoke of tyranny, a land that other nations see stands firm for righteous liberty; O Lord, we thank Thee.

For house and home and children dear, for friends and neighbors far and near; for honest labor, rest and ease, for food and raiment, and Thy peace, O Lord, we thank Thee.

For joys and sorrows, smiles and tears, for comforts earned, for love that cheers, for clouds and sunshine, rain and dew; for faith which maketh all things anew, Oh, Lord, we thank Thee.

For opportunities to share with others, and their burdens bear, for leading souls from sin's despair to paths of righteousness and prayer, Oh Lord, we thank Thee.

Gertrude Mary Riley of Lewiston came Saturday to visit in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trautman.

Jim Rabdau, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rabdau, a student at Gonzaga University, Spokane, has been named as one of the starting five on the school's freshman basketball team. He was a member of the Genesee high school team which, last year, won the Idaho Class B championship.

Visit Childhood Homes In East Canadian Trip

Ten thousand miles of pleasant motoring were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Magee, who returned to Genesee Sunday. They left here Sept. 29 for Fairfield, their former home in Canada, a trip which required but two days, and left immediately for eastern Canada. Traveling in two cars, they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Patterson of Dawson Creek, B. C., whose son was married at Ottowa on Oct. 13. Mrs. Patterson is a sister of Mrs. Magee. Also in the party of six were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stockton of Carleton, the former a brother of Mrs. Magee. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson traveled as far east as Ottowa, while the two other couples continued on to Prince Edward Island.

Their route east took them south to Minot, N. D., then through Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Crossing the Straits of Mackinas by ferry to Saginaw, Michigan, they passed through Flint and Port Huron, Mich., to Sarnia, Ontario. Their first stop was visit relatives was at Brantford, Ont., the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Magee, the latter a sister of Mrs. Magee. Mr. Lee is general manager of the Canadian division of the Cockshett Plow company, manufacturers of the Co-op line of farm equipment, which includes both items as combines and tractors, one of which are being used in the Inland Empire, but more extensively in the level lands of the mid-west and east. The company is also engaged in manufacturing jet engines for the British government in its war effort.

For a number of years Mr. Lee was with the Massie Harris company, and he with that company, traveled extensively in foreign countries, and has become familiar with all types of farming methods and equipment improvements for farming. Canada has developed into an industrial country, and in many lines is abreast of the United States. In a number of industries they have expanded tremendously, such as paper production and lumbering, while the mines continue to extract the great mineral wealth of the bordering nation.

From Brantford, where the party visited a few days they went to the Niagara Penninsula, viewed the world famous spectacle, but later saw waterfalls in Canada which generated a greater volume of electrical power.

See Royalty At Ottowa

Ottowa was the stopping place for three days where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDougall. Mrs. McDougall is a sister of Mrs. Magee.

Viewing Princess Elizabeth of England and her husband, Phillip, were to visit Ottowa, but not informed of the date of their appearance, Mr. and Mrs. Magee and party drives found themselves on the highway leading into the city on the day when the royal couple were to be entertained. Roads were lined with automobiles for miles. There were at least 75,000 people crowding streets to witness the parade. The travelers saw the royal party as they passed by. Mrs. Magee, without hesitation, said Phillip was a most attractive young man, radiating personality and seemingly had the approval by all who saw him. Mr. Magee was not slow in paying compliments to the Princess who deserves all the nice things which have been said or written about her. They both were in agreement that the young royal couple were gracious in their response to the Canadian welcome extended them.

Visit Home Of Mr. Magee

Forty-four years ago Fred Magee moved west with his family from North Gower, Ont., which is located 22 miles south of Ottawa. He and others of the party visited his boyhood home, and during their three days in Ottowa Mr. Magee found time to return in an attempt to renew acquaintances of long ago. He found five persons who attended the rural school of his boyhood days, and had his picture taken with boys and girls attending the school today. The school has been enlarged and moved back a distance from the road to accommodate an improved and widened main arterial highway.

Mr. McDougall is a member of the faculty of Ottown College, an instructor in the school of accounting. His classes were so arranged that he was permitted to give much time to his guests and show them about the city and countryside.

Attend Wedding at Montreal

At Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Magee and relatives joined many other relatives for the wedding and reception for Jack Patterson. The groom a pilot in the Canadian airforce during World War II, with numerous flights in combat over enemy territory, is now in the Canadian reserve as a jet airplane pilot. The newlyweds will reside in Montreal.

Visit Historical Quebec

History pages were recalled when Mr. and Mrs. Magee and Mr. and Mrs. Stockton continued their trip eastward. Quebec, first settlement of the whites in Canada, retains much of its early tradition. The walled city with its citadel, is a part of the City of Quebec. Predominantly French, much of the population continues use of the language of their forefathers to transact business. Naturally the tourist is confronted by a language barrier, not difficult to penetrate when money is concerned, and which was made somewhat easy by Mr. Magee's smattering of the French-Canadian lingo.

Tourists are gladly conducted by guides, who take over the wheel of visitors cars. The Magees and Stocktons accepted the services of a guide, who conducted them to all historical parts of the city overlooking the St. Lawrence River. Historical events were recalled from books, and further elaborated on by the guide. Naturally the conversation centered for a while around the encounter on the Fields of Abraham by the French and British forces in which the commanding officers of both armies were killed in combat. Quebec also retains its quaintness of its early-day French influence. There are narrow streets which will barely accommodate automobiles. On such a route tourists may view the plight of persons living under "slum" conditions, much in contrast to other sections of the city where living conditions approach splendor amidst the setting of a French atmosphere.

New Box Cars Received Here Direct From N. P. Car Shops

The Northern Pacific railway is building new box cars at its Brainerd, Minn. shops at the rate of 12 a day in a 500-car construction program now scheduled for completion late in December, W. W. Judson, vice president, Operating department, said.

The program originally was scheduled to start last June, Mr. Judson said, with completion in August, in time to help move this year's grain crop. However, inability to get delivery on certain critical items of steel delayed start of construction till late October and for a time threatened to close down the assembly line after completion of 331 cars. Steel needed to finish the job is now expected to reach Brainerd in time to avoid further delay, Mr. Judson said.

State May Abandon Section Of Highway In Genesee Area

Adrian Nelson and Walter Erickson, members of the Genesee Highway District, who were in Boise last week to attend a meeting of the Idaho State Highway District and Good Roads District Commissioners association learned the state highway department is considering abandonment of the highway between Genesee and Thorncreek, formerly the North and South highway. If not abandoned, the state highway board of commissioners intimate they will, at least discontinue maintenance next year. If the state carries out its threat or intention, maintenance of the road mentioned will be the responsibility mostly of Genesee Highway District. A small portion of the road also lies within Highway District No. 1.

The state highway commission has already announced dropping the Thain Road in Lewiston Orchards from the state system. This road reverts to the Orchards district for maintenance, or it could become a part of the Nezperce county highway system should the Orchards district decide to discontinue as a taxing unit.

Abandonment of the Genesee section of the old North and South Highway No. 95, may become a controversial matter. The right-of-way, deeded to the state after its purchase by the Genesee Highway District and Highway District No. 1, in cooperation with the state and federal governments, is not the property of taxing units. The old No. 95 highway constructed cooperatively, starting in 1919, could easily be drowned onto the highway district if there was no opposition. It is believed that approximately $70,000 was paid out by the Genesee Highway District for right-of-way and construction of the section of road considered for abandonment. The state wishes the section mentioned to become a part of the secondary highway system of this area, and thereby be released from further maintenance and snow removal after this winter.

In contrast to the local situation, the Thain road is said to have become a part of the state highway system within the next two years and further, the right-of-way was not deeded to the state.

Turning over the long section of old highway to the highway districts would present a difficult problem, especially to the Genesee district. One of the chief reasons would be cost of maintenance and for snow removal. Highway districts are limited in the amount which may be levied, and although there is a revision of the division of tax on a mileage basis for trucks which, by choice, may be placed in a certain category, the additional money received would not be of help in expenditures necessary for maintenance and snow removal. Sharing in motor vehicle license funds, highway districts, are said to provide that they assume added burdens, placed upon them by action of the state in abandonment of roads.

Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Erickson accompanied their husbands to Boise.

Firemen's Free Dance New Floor Celebration

Members of the Genesee Fire Department are "throwing a big old-time" dance Saturday evening, Nov. 24, in celebration of the new floor recently completed for the fire station. The concrete was finished smooth, and after a brief test, it was found that feet really slip around when a dance floor preparation was applied. They have secured music by the Genesee Wranglers for the dance to be held on the first floor of the fire station. They hope it will be just about the biggest dance ever held, and wish to stress that it's an old-time party. Rags or riches make no difference. Come formal if you desire, in fact the kind of dances will be your choice. If you like square dancing there will be a caller. If you want to dance modern, suit yourself.

Firemen are providing the dancing space and music in appreciation for the volunteer labor which really tore into the job of mixing concrete, and laid the large mat in less time than anyone thought of. It's going to be a swinging of whangdoodle proportions, a merry old-time affair, which should go down in history as the trompingest, fast-swinging, fancy-stepping extravaganza ever perpetrated within the confines of Genesee precinct, within the boundaries of the Genesee Rural Fire Protection District, or in Latah and Nez Perce counties. Just try and get in for this stupendous fandango. Wear what you like.

Ray Broenneke And Don Lee Released From Army Duties

Donald Lee, stationed with the army at Camp Cook, Calif., and Ray Broenneke, stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., both in service for the past 18 months, arrived home Tuesday after having received their releases from duty. They previously spent a year at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Hitchhiking from California, they made their way rapidly to Twin Falls, Idaho, traveling through Las Vegas and Salt Lake City. At Twin Falls they spent two days with Lee's sister, Mrs. Bob Allen, and family, then started for Genesee.

Upon reaching Mr. and Mrs. Allen and children, Barbara and Randy, learned they could make the trip to Genesee to spend Thanksgiving, and leaving Twin Falls they kept a sharp lookout for the two soldiers. Don and Ray, taking a rest at a service station at New Meadows noticed Allen driving into the town and immediately hailed them for a ride to Genesee.

The Allens and family and Don Lee are guests over Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lee, parents of Mrs. Allen and Don. Ray will be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Broenneke.

The two soldiers, now on reserve status, plan to attend school at Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney, Wash., when the second semester opens there.

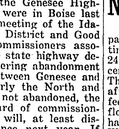
Name 4 Idaho 4-H Winners

TOP RANKING records in the Home Improvement and Girls' Record programs have brought state honors to four Gem State club members.

Harold M. Hattan



LaVonne Willard

Janis Archibald

Eula Gray

One of the highest honors bestowed on 4-H boys and girls, is the 4-H Achievement award. State-wide recognition for brilliant records in achievement has been accorded Harold M. Hattan, 17, of Moscow, and LaVonne Willard, 17, of Plummer. Not only was their record in 4-H Club work outstanding, but they have earned respect and admiration in their homes and communities for service to others.

In seven years of club work Harold has completed 13 projects. He has won numerous awards in the breeding, feeding, fitting and showing of swine, and in 1951 was top hog showman of Latah County. Harold has served his club as president, reporter and junior leader.

LaVonne has been a 4-H'er for eight years and president of her local club five. She has served as junior leader the past two years and was State 4-H Achievement winner in 1950. One of her principal interests is poultry, and she has earned enough from her projects to begin her college education next year. LaVonne is a senior at Plummer High.

A set of two miniature statues, symbolizing achievement, one of a club boy and one of a club girl, was presented to each by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. These were designed especially for 4-H by a well-known sculptress.

A comfortable and attractive home is no problem to the Archibald family of Troy since daughter Janis, 16, has become interested in the 4-H Home Improvement program. As state winner in the 1951 program she was awarded an educational trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as guest of The Sears-Roebuck Foundation. The family purchased a new farm last spring and Janis set to work on her own room which was in a deplorable condition. She repaired the cracks, painted the ceiling white and the walls and closet yellow. Green drapes, bedspread and a flowered valance were next. She made a dressing table from two unfinished chests and two lamps from pound coffee cans. A loop rug and pictures added the finishing touches. Next year Janis plans to build a bookcase headboard and fix her closet.

Better methods of doing everyday homemaking skills proved to be a challenge to Eula Gray, 16, of Caldwell. Her selection as state winner in the 4-H Girls' Record program proves that this versatile young miss is a first-rate housekeeper and manager. Eula has been in club work seven years and has completed 64 projects, among which are sewing, foods, handicraft, beef, dairy and Junior Leadership. She has won prizes in foods, canning, and dairy competitions, and was presented with the "Herdsman Award" at the 1951 Western Idaho Fair. The pretty, auburn-haired girl is assistant leader of her club and student council representative at Notus High. Montgomery Ward provided Eula's trip award to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

All of these activities are conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA cooperating.

Steelhead Fishing A Disease Enjoyed By Local Fishermen

Many a man and some boys missing from their homes the past few weeks may be found on the Grande Ronde, where steelhead fishing has been exceptionally good. Attendance at football games has even been cut by the constant trek of fishermen from Genesee to the Grande Ronde.

Everett Robinson seems to be responsible, in a great measure, for the disappearance of men from this community during daylight hours in recent weeks. Try buying a few bolts and nuts, or perhaps a washer or two, and you run into a convention of fishermen at the Cash Hardware. Some days you will encounter committee meetings or caucuses, spring off the main convention to discuss aspects of the favorite pastime. Those with piscatorial propensities, and the number is increasing daily, are to be seen and heard discussing the methods and equipment for taking the desirable steelheads, which offer a real contest for the best of anglers. To a person, uninitiated, and unequal to holding out against the fishermen, there is always a mild argument as to the lighter lines which really tore into the job of mixing concrete, and laid the large mat in less time than anyone thought of. It's going to be a swinging of whangdoodle proportions, a merry old-time affair, which should go down in history as the trompingest, fast-swinging, fancy-stepping extravaganza ever perpetrated within the confines of Genesee precinct, within the boundaries of the Genesee Rural Fire Protection District, or in Latah and Nez Perce counties. Just try and get in for this stupendous fandango. Wear what you like.

Mr. Broadhead, former principal of Genesee high school, visited here Saturday afternoon and Sunday. While he was in Genesee he visited Mr. and Garold Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Downing. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Scharnhorst. Mr. and Mrs. Broadhead now have a little daughter, Vickie Ann.

The Genesee high school held an assembly Friday, Nov. 16 at 3:25. The meeting was to elect a queen for the senior ball and to let the students know what happened at the student council meeting. The council voted to hold an assembly with the student body each Friday following the student council meetings on the previous Monday.

Mrs. Ringle, home economics supervisor of the state of Idaho, visited the home ec classes. She presented information to the students on a better home ec future.

The Parent-Teachers association met Monday evening in the home economics building with Mrs. Elvon Hampton presiding. Foreign students from the University of Idaho gave talks on education, agriculture and industry in their countries. The students were Umphredo Mocedo, Peru; Alvaro Arias, Costa Rica; Irene Sterling, Belgium, and Miss Hansen, Denmark. Dr. Genstler explained the new high school athletic insurance policy. The next meeting is scheduled for December 17, and will be a family party in the gym. Cookies and coffee were served after the meeting.

Carl Erickson Visits Here

Carl Erickson, who visited for a week in Clarkston with his brother, Ed, and Mrs. Erickson, came to Genesee Tuesday to visit relatives, and Wednesday afternoon, left for Ephrata, Wash., where he lives with his son, Boyd, and family.

Mr. Erickson made a trip to Kansas City last July with a former Genesee resident, Frank Snelling, and returning, traveled by way of California to Washington. Mr. Snelling, who resided at Clarkston for several years and then decided to move to his boyhood home at Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the mid-west at about the time the heavy rains had filled rivers to overflowing. When Mr. Erickson and Mr. Snelling arrived at Kansas City, waters were rising, and there was some lands flooded. Later, the rivers unable to carry the slow-moving waters, spread over the lowlands, and then started to climb up to higher areas, until there was a flood of tremendous proportions. According to Mr. Erickson the flood was disastrous when he witnessed the impending disaster.

The Genesee visitor from Ephrata says people are beginning to move onto lands to come under irrigation, and with land drawings, next spring should witness a noticeable migration to the entire Columbia Basin.

On Homecoming Committee

Ann Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sweeney of Mohler, Idaho, formerly of Genesee, a sophomore at Seattle University, after graduating from Holy Names Academy, Spokane, has been chosen as one of a committee for homecoming at her school. She is one of 17 students appointed by co-chairmen Mary Margaret Merriman and Gerald Gribble to handle the arrangements for the university's homecoming Feb. 5-8.

NO-HOST DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Del Kambitsch entertained several guests Tuesday evening when a no-host dinner was served after which cards were played. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Helbling, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Scharnhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morscheck Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Egland Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Emerson. At cards Mr. and Mrs. Helbling won high score awards.

Idaho 4-H Delegation To Big Chicago Show

University of Idaho—Twenty-five Idaho 4-H club members will attend Chicago's National 4-H Club Congress, Nov. 25 to 29 this year, according to Dan Warren, state 4-H leader for the University extension service.

Warren said the Idaho delegates will leave from northern and southern points of embarkation again this year as they have in the past. Eleven of the 25, with two sponsors, will leave Plummer Junction Nov. 22, the others to leave from Pocatello.

At Chicago, the Idaho delegates will meet with some 1200 other club members from all parts of the nation and some territories. Adult leaders with the northern group are Warren and Mrs. Elsa Agnew, home demonstration agent, Grangeville.

Among those to attend the Chicago show are Janis Archibald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald of Troy, formerly of Genesee, and Harold Hattan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hattan. The former attended the Genesee school until last year, and Hattan is a high school student at Genesee, but a member of the 4-H club with a Moscow address.

"The program this year shows that much planning has gone into making it one of the finest in the history of the congress," Warren said. "Those in charge have succeeded in securing some of the nation's best speakers to address the club members. There are a good many dinners and other occasions that will make it an unforgettable meeting for those boys and girls fortunate enough to attend.

"In addition, tours, recreation and discussion groups are on the schedule. It will include the Chicago stockyards, the Chicago museum, the Art Institute, Institute of Science and Industry, and the city tour. Big name names of the entertainment world will be there in person to show the youngsters a hilarious time between the more serious events of the meeting."

Civic Association Meeting At Evan's Cafe November 28

Don Springer, president of the Genesee Civic association announces a meeting of the organization for Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, at Evan's cafe. There will be dinner preceding the meeting, and a program is being arranged. The president has a few colored pictures of the disastrous Prairie Flour Mill company fire, which he will show. Kenneth Primus, secretary of the Second District Athletic Board of Control and a member of the state board of control of interscholastic athletic events, will show a film on basketball officiating. This should be of interest with the basketball season approaching. It may be suggested that fans should become proficient in rules if they intend to participate in calling infractions from the sidelines. Plans are also being considered for appearance of the high school girls' triple trio, directed by James Riggs. The music group plans a one-day road trip Nov. 30.

Everyone is welcome to attend Civic Association meetings, it is pointed out by Springer, but those who do plan to attend should notify either the president or secretary, Gene Woodruff, by Tuesday, Nov. 27, so the cooks will know how much food to prepare.

Mrs. Emma Kluss Married To George Spils Of Colton

Mrs. Emma Kluss, who made her home at Lewiston for the past few years, was married Saturday, Nov. 17 to George Spils of Colton. The ceremony was performed at St. Gall's Catholic church at Colton at 8:30.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We can't complain about the weather the past week. There hasn't been much sunshine but the skies did not pour out much story weather until Wednesday. It rained a little Tuesday also. The wind is getting a nip to it, so we know that winter isn't far off. The ground is frozen, so no more plowing can be done. It looks like the plot is thickening back in Washington, D. C., and the tangled web of deceit might grow into a rope if most dirty linen is hung on the line. It looks like Churchill isn't getting a very diplomatic start when he cuts imports from America and then says he is coming over here in January to beg for more money. We remember when Senator Borah fought our entrance into the League of Nations, saying it would make Uncle Sam the rich father for the whole world. Is the U. N. doing the same thing? Foreigners have always had the idea that money grows on the bushes in America. Somebody had better tell them that the bushes are about picked clean. There is scarcely enough left for our own people and the end is not yet, it seems.

Poor Harry Stumbles Again Vacation Of Little Benefit

Harry Truman, it seems, returned north from Florida minus physical and mental benefits a vacation is supposed to restore in some measure. Appearing before a Democratic Women's club, his address was broadcast Tuesday night, but he was carrying the same old ball he has fumbled so often.

Dwelling on a "smear" campaign, Truman cannot accuse the opposition while excusing himself. His own party's political appointees have so besmirched our national records, such as those of the internal revenue department and the state department that merely repeating what has happened provides a foundation for condemnation without slightest indication of "smear" tactics. Truman's statement that our country is in excellent condition is wide of the actual truth. We have today a debt of approximately $6,000 per family. Many of our best young men are in Korea, many have returned, some will never come back alive, and from all indications, many more are scheduled to embark for the Korean battlefields. Congress had no say in the matter. Our armed forces are not dispersed by action of congress, but by the president, who admitted, not in his recent speech, but at other times, that he is the commander-in-chief. Nothing about his decision to use American fighting men in Korea was mentioned in his address, except that he dared the opposition to attack his foreign policy as a campaign measure. It goes without saying that a president cannot claim for his administration only that which has been beneficial. An administration must also accept responsibility for poor judgment, or call it misfortune, if you please.

There never has been a day of more uncertainty than today. Try to place yourself in the position of the young man, recently out of high school. He may try for a year or two of advanced education. Unless he is classified as unqualified physically for military service or in the bracket exempt from military standing at the present time, he is shouldering a burden which few realize is so great, that of uncertainty. Business today needs a shot in the arm. Things are not going too well. There are strikes, impending strikes and threatened stoppages of work. If this condition is favorable, then as Truman says, the country is in good condition. Truman is not kidding anyone but himself, and it is believed that he is now attempting to extricate himself from his own entangled mess by slipping out as a candidate to succeed himself as president.

VISIT CHILDHOOD HOMES ON EAST CANADIAN TRIP

tored into Vermont, New Hampshire and across central Maine from Bangor to St. Stephens, New Brunswick. They stopped at St. John N. B., to visit a cousin of Mrs. Magee, Norman Moore, and family.

Visit Mrs. Magee's Home

The route of travel led to Sussex, and a visit to Anagance, N. B., the birthplace of Mrs. Magee. She left there as a girl and returning last month, it was her first return. Four days were devoted to their visit at Anagance and Sussex.

They crossed by ferry to Cape Tormentine, N. B., then to Borden, Prince Edward Island. They found highways on the island very good, and covered much of the circular route of the scenic island. Another ferry trip took them 20 miles across open Atlantic waters to Caribou, Nova Scotia.

Visit Relatives on Return

New England scenery and that of far eastern Canada is everything pictured in story and tourist guideboks. With much of the land covered by timber of various kinds, the varicolored vegetation of the late fall season was missing owing to killing frosts. The land, uncovered by timber, is rocky, still a challenge for landowners in farming operations. In addition to the timber and rocks there are the wide expanses of water, much of which has been harnessed for electric power.

Returning by way of Ottowa, the tourists again visited relatives, and made a second visit with relatives at Brantford.

From Ludington they ferried 120 miles to Manitowac, Wisc. The craft was a sizeable boat, about 600 feet long, with accommodations for 20 freight cars besides the large number of automobiles and passengers. The large ferry, on arrival at Monitowac, passes through a canal, directly thru the heart of the city to its slip where the boat is carefully tied up at dock. With only inches to spare the large ferry clears the canal walls as the propellors throw waters right onto the streets adjacent to the canel.

Held Up By Blizzard

Driving westward through Wisconsin and Minneosota, the travelers ran into a blizzard at Alexandria, Minn., and were held up for a day.

Weather turned colder after mild temperatures enjoyed on most of the trip. They retraced their route to Minot, N. D., and to Carlyle where Mr. and Mrs. Magee visited for 15 days.

Canadian Pro Football

While at Carlyle Mr. Magee made a trip to Regina to witness a professional Canadian football game. He saw one of the three games played between the Edmonton Eskimos and Regina Roughriders, who were playing for the championship of central Canada and the right to meet the eastern Canadian champions. Regina lost the first game but came back to take the play-off by capturing the second and third games.

Canadian football is pretty much like that played in the United States. There are a few variations, such as three plays for a first down, which constitutes a gain of ten yards, and the privilege of kicking the ball in the air over the end zone for one point. A touchdown, however is good for five points. There is a point for conversion after a touchdown. A safety, which is termed a "rouge" awards two points to the team responsible for creating the safety. Kicking is emphasized because of the three plays for first down, but most noticeable, according to Mr. Magee is the wide-open style of play, which stresses forward passing and an unusual number of lateral passing plays.

Each Canadian team playing professional ball under conference rulings are allowed seven U. S. "imports." Quite a few names of once prominent U. S. football players are on playing rosters of all teams, in fact, most teams exercise their full privileges.

Rains Damaged Crops

With the exception of flax, central and eastern Canada farm crops have been damaged materially by weather of the wet variety. The loss was estimated about 40 per cent, with salvage stopped by cold weather and more precipitation in the form of snow. Prices for farm products are somewhat lower in Canada than in the States, but living costs are about the same. [...]l Johann Missing [Sea]rch Remains Futile

[Sea]rch continues for Paul Johann, thought to be missing while on game hunting trip in the Deary-area. Today the hunt has taken difference aspect. His 1946 pick-[tr]uck, object of search for several and which if found, would lead [th]e missing man's whereabouts. Johann of Spokane, brother of Johann, who was on his way to City Sunday morning, located [tr]uck at Orofino. Another broth-[R]ay Johann of Genesee, reported the truck a few minutes after by his brother at about 11 a. m. was transmitted to Genesee to further search in the Deary- and Elk River areas. Nez Perce SCD Plans Big Day For Election Meeting Dec. 4

Supervisors of the Nez Perce Soil Conservation District are planning an unusually interesting meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 4, to be held at the Lapwai Grange hall, according to Phil Hermann, who is a hold-over supervisor. The meeting opens at 10 a. m. with registration of those attending. At 10:30 Marion Holben will show pictures of his 4-bottom 2-way plow, recently constructed at the General Repair Shop here, and used last fall. This is the first multiple-bottom 2-way plow employed in the Genesee area. Following the pictures there will be a talk on conservation tillage equipment, and following will be a discussion on conservation farming.

At 11:45 there will be an election to name three supervisors. A slate of six candidates has been named: Kenneth McIntosh and Edwin Miller of Tammany, Gordon Peters and Given Mustoe of Kendrick, and Richard Hassinger and Edward Knowlton of Melrose. Besides Hermann the other holdover supervisor is G. B. Wilson of Lapwai. Supervisors, whose terms expire are Don Lloyd, Oscar Thiessen and Otto Brammer.

Lunch At Noon

At 12 o'clock lunch will be served by ladies of Lapwai Grange, and at 1 o'clock there will be some special awards for attendance at the meeting.

Lambert Erickson, assistant agronomist, University of Idaho, will talk on weed control in conservation farming. Ed Dumas, manager of the Klemgaard Processing company of Pullman will be another speaker. There will be a panel discussion. Concluding will introduction of the elected supervisors.

Civic Association Opposes Change To Mountain Time

The high school girls' triple trio, which plans a one-day tour to Moscow, Tekoa and Oakesdale Nov. 30, appeared before the Civic Association meeting Wednesday evening at Evan's cafe where the dinner meeting was held. The girls are directed by James Riggs and their accompanist is Joyce Danielson.

A few colored slides of the Prairie Flour Mill company warehouse and elevator fire, taken by Don Springer, and a few snow and flood pictures taken by Rev. Melford Knight were shown. Garold Hammond, high school coach, showed a sound picture of basketball officiating.

Jim Rabdau, reporting for a committee on the possibility of creating a children's fishing pond, said three sites were available.

Stanley Rosenau and Jack Nebelsieck were named to a committee to determine how many people favored erection of rural signs for individual farm homes. The cost, while indefinite would be between $1.00 and $1.50 for each person's sign, and in some instances several would be required.

The Association voted opposition to the proposal by the North Idaho chamber of commerce proposal for a change of western Idaho and part of eastern Washington from Pacific to Mountain standard time.

Owing to the Christmas season, it was decided to dispense with the December meeting. Officers are elected at December meetings each year, but it was decided that the officers hold over a month, and that the nominating committee, R. E. Nordby, Carl Simons and Florent Moser, present names at the January meeting.

Adrian Nelson, who with Walter Erickson, attended a recent meeting of the State Highway Commissioners Assn., explained the change in state policy in primary road development, mentioning the authority granted the state highway commissioner and the director of highways. He also said the commissioners of Genesee Highway District would naturally oppose the burden of accepting the Genesee-Thorncreek section of the old North and South highway, as it affects the Genesee-Rimrock district.

According to Nelson, the state is planning to abandon the road mentioned next year.

Primus Named Commissioner To Assign Basketball Officials

A meeting of all coaches and prospective officials of District Two was held at the Lapwai high school Tuesday. Purpose of this meeting was to organize the basketball officials and schools under a commissioner system of assigning basketball games to the officials. Under this plan officials will be assigned interscholastic high school games by the office of the commissioner. This system is being inaugurated upon recommendation of the Second District Coaches association to relieve coaches and schools of responsibility of selecting officials for their home games, and as a way of improving officiating throughout the district.

Kenneth Primus was unanimously elected by the officials and coaches to serve as commissioner for the current season.

Other School News

The Genesee high school chorus tour, planned for Nov. 30, has been changed to include Oakesdale high school instead of Potlatch, as previously announced. The tour will also include the Moscow and Tekoa high schools. The group will have lunch at Tekoa high school, announced James Riggs, director.

The District No. 2 Administrators association met at Lewiston senior high school Nov. 28 to discuss problems of school administration. The program included a panel discussion on "School Finance in Idaho and How It Can Be Improved," "Fair Employment Practices of School Employees" and "How the Transportation Formula is Functioning in Your District," reports H. Warren Downing.

The senior class play, "The Boarding House Reach," has been postponed due to illness of one of the participating students, Rae Aherin.

The Genesee agriculture class, with their instructor, Mr. Gerhart, took a bus to the University of Idaho Monday afternoon to visit the animals barns.

Sheep, observed by students, included seven breeds. The university herdsman related the history of these various breeds as to amount of wool produced and rate of maturity. The dairy barns were part of the tour. Special interest in the dairy herds was centered in the Jersey and Holstein breeds. The herdsman answered questions concerning dairy herds and production records.

Engel Swenson Dies Services Held Nov. 28

Funeral services were conducted at Genesee Valley Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon for Engel Swenson by the Rev. Harold Masted. Mrs. Masted sang "Abide With Me" and "In The Garden." She was accompanied by Mrs. Leon Danielson.

Interment was in the Valley cemetery. Pallbearers were Peter Isaksen, Henry Halverson, Oscar Danielson, Hugo Gehrke, O. V. Johnson and Dick Green.

Mr. Swenson, born March 15, 1868 in Cottonwood County, Minnesota, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Colbern Swenson, who came to the United States from Norway in 1864. Engel Swenson came west at the age of 16 years when the railroads were pushing westward, and after working for six years purchased a quarter section of land east of Genesee. For a number of years the late deceased farmed with his brother, News Swenson, who had also acquired land adjoining his brother's.

Mr. Swenson married Emma Knutson, dauhgter of Mr. and Mrs. Stiner Knutson in 1896, and to them were born two daughters, Altha and Cordelia.

For many years the Swenson brothers resided on their lands east of Genesee, and about 1945 they moved to town. After the death of Nels Swenson, Engel Swenson went to Pasco to live with Mr. and Mrs. Coffland, the latter a daughter of Nels Swenson. That was in November, 1948, and in March, 1949 Mr. Swenson went to live with his daughter, Mrs. T. O. Throndson and family at San Francisco. He was there about a year, after which he moved to a home at Patterson, Calif., where he was cared for. The other daughter, Mrs. Harold Dickey, resides at Fresno, Calif. Patterson is about midway between San Francisco and Fresno, and the daughters were privileged to see him often.

Mr. Swenson passed away Saturday morning, Nov. 24 at 4:30 o'clock. He had attained the age of 83 years.

According to pioneers of the Genesee community there were five Swenson brothers, one of which, Colbern, Jr., deceased, was the husband of Mrs. Hanah Swenson of Genesee.

Here to attend services from out-of-town were Mrs. Beatrice Keller, Ole Knutson, Mrs. Lola Knutson, Mrs. Mary Swenson, Mrs. Alice Swenson and Mrs. Maude Knutson, all of Lewiston; Mrs. Goldie Greenough and daughter, Shirley, of Ephrata, Wash.; Mrs. Coffland of Pasco, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Throndson of San Francisco, Mrs. Harold Dickey of Fresno, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Isaksen and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Erickson, Clarkston. Besides the daughters Mr. Swenson is survived by a granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Throndson of San Francisco, and a number of nephews and nieces, including Mrs. Coffland, who spent considerable time at Genesee when her father was in failing health.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Fair and Square"

We've just had a political campaign with everything from a torchlight parade to a neck-and-neck ballot box race.

Rusty Robinson, with no campaign funds, planned his Election Eve speech for the Square. Slim McCormick, who owns the Palace movie house, was finishing up his campaign in Pioneer Hall.

Then it began to rain. Rusty's political career was fizzling out in the damp when Slim showed up to say that Robinson people could meet in his theatre—for nothing. "I want to beat Rusty," Slim said, "but certainly not with rain!"

From where I sit, you've got to give Slim credit for acting on his belief that everyone has a right to be heard—just as everyone has a right to his own opinions and tastes. Maybe you like hot coffee, for instance, when you "take a break." Well, my vote goes for a refreshing glass of beer. After all, we're lucky to be living in a free country where we can have our own preferences!

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We have had a variety of weather the past week—foggy nights, mostly cloudy days, some rain and a couple snow squalls for good measure. The temperature has been above normal for November. The Thanksgiving holiday passed with no casualties among Valley folks, and there is no illness except for colds, which generally follow a big feast. We will forget the past smears and see who smears who in the coming election, and we can well imagine there will be plenty of it on both sides. Candidates fool nobody but themselves when they resort to such low-down tactics. We would like to see a clean election with real issues, instead of mudslinging, used in campaigning for office. A candidate could at least keep his self respect, even if he lost the election, and some one always has to lose. Genesee area folks should get up a petition requesting the state to continue to keep up the eight miles of old 95. Too much money has been spent in building it and nothing but state highway equipment could repair it. County equipment is too light for such a road base and they don't have enough. There are still people living on the old route and many others travel it from sideroads. If the state is too hard up to keep up eight miles of road, it is time to add another two-bits to something to raise the amount necessary to keep the roads in passable condition. Let's do something about it.

MEET A GOOD Friend of Yours...

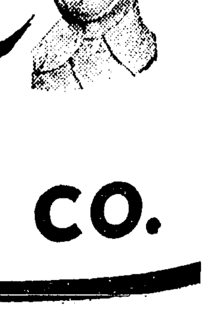
LEE HABEL

. . . Supervisor of Underground Construction and Maintenance for the Washington Water Power Co.

Like all W.W.P. employes, Lee Habel is a friendly, neighborly person. . . . You may not see Lee's smiling face often, because he and his skilled crew carry on their important work beneath the busy streets and tall buildings of downtown Spokane, but their service means much to you. The network of underground wires and cables they build and maintain carry the electricity that powers the elevators and escalators you use, and brightly lights the streets and shops and offices of the center of the city.

IN CITY, TOWN, VILLAGE, AND COUNTRY, Reddy Kilowatt and the men and women who work with him bring you the best in electric service at low cost . . . and friendly cooperation in community "doings."



"Our family has enjoyed the friendly, courteous, efficient service of W.W.P. employes for more than 30 years, both on the farm and in the city."

Genesee Town Basketball Club Meets Idaho J. V. Saturday

Genesee will have town basketball again this winter. A number of the younger men have organized a club, and by permission to use Fire Department uniforms and given a start financially by business men of Genesee a schedule of games is being formulated.

First Game Saturday

The Towners have a game Saturday evening at the high school gym, meeting the University of Idaho Junior Varsity. On the Idaho club are Jim Sather, Jim Bennett and Lee Liberg, members of the championship Genesee club of last year.

To been seen in action for the Town club will be Don Lee, Ray Broenneke, Burt Peterson, Harold Jacobs, Carmen Ulrich, Dave Nordby, Jim Sprenger, Jim Riggs, Wayne Schwenne, Willis Moser and Kenneth Jenkins; perhaps a few others.

The game will start at 7:30, and brings together ten or more former Genesee high school players, with each team intent on winning. The Towners would like nothing better than to knock off the Junior Varsity, altho it might not be too easy. Sather, Bennett and Liberg are not giving away anything to players of their former school.

The Legion club announces it will not start its regular Saturday entertainment until after the game, that everyone may attend the recently scheduled above event.

Latah SCD District Elects Three Supervisors Tuesday

Kenneth E. Wilkins, Avon; A. E. Koster, Moscow, and Harley Eichner, Kendrick were elected supervisors for the Latah County Soil Conservation District Tuesday. Hold-over members of the board are Frank Brocke of Troy and Fourth Thomas of Potlatch.

Members of the board whose terms expired were Roy Emerson, who had been a supervisor since the district was instituted; Harold Snow of Moscow, and Pete Benscotter of Kendrick.

Genesee had two men up for election to the Latah County SCD Tuesday, but neither was elected. They were Louis Olson and Alfred Gehrke.

Nez Perce Names Three

Edward Knowlton, Peck; Kenneth McIntosh, Lewiston, and Gorden Peters, Kendrick, were elected supervisors for the Nez Perce County Soil Conservation District Tuesday. Balloting for the entire county was at the Lapwai Grange hall. In Latah county land owners voted at seven polling places, with slightly over 180 registering choice for supervisors. In Nez Perce county 81 cast ballots.

J. P. (Phil) Hermann, Genesee, and G. B. Wilson, Lapwai, are hold-over members of the Nez Perce county board of supervisors.

Those attending the election at Lapwai report an interesting program. Included were movies which demonstrated a four-bottom one-way plow, shown by Marion Holben, owner of the plow. Believed to be the only plow of its kind in central Idaho, the machine was constructed at Genesee at the General Repair Shop, the result of an experimental project by Holben and the shop owner, Wayne Roach. The plow was used extensively the past fall on the Holben ranch where contour or strip-crop farming is practiced.

Santa Claus Is Coming Arrives Here Dec. 22

Santa Claus will meet his friends at Genesee the afternoon of Saturday, Dec. 22. The invitation for his appearance has been sent out by the Merchants Association, which held a meeting at Evan's cafe Monday noon. Santa wishes to meet all his little friends because he has a gift for each one. Details are not as yet complete, but there is a committee to see about entertainment and other matters to be worked out.

Genesee business houses have been erecting a tree each holiday season in recent years. The idea of transplanting an evergreen on the lot east of the Electric Shop was given unanimous approval. A committee of Larry Sorensen, Floyd Ochs and Ray Helbing, began at once to look over the community for a suitable tree, hoping the owner would gladly give such a tree. Without too much scouting a tree was found in the yard at the John Hickman home, a tree which had grown a bit too large for its surroundings. Within a few days the tree committee will be asking assistance to dig the tree up and excavate for its transplanting. There is sufficient room on the small lot for a tree, and permission was given by Carl Simons to place the tree on his property.

The tree in the Hickman yard will be hoisted from the ground by one of the wreckers, and hauled to the new location. There will a lot of digging to do, so volunteers may now start sharpening their spades.

First Year Of Social Security For Self-Employed Up Jan. 1

Many self-employed businessmen are not aware of their compulsory coverage in the old-age and survivors insurance system provided by the recent changes in the social security law, which became effective Jan. 1, 1951. Frank J. Cathcart, manager of the Lewiston Social Security Administration office reports only a small percentage of the businessmen he questioned knew of the tax liability they were incurring all through 1951. The tax liability for 1951 becomes due and payable in the first quarter of 1952, and each year thereafter. An equal number of self-employed failed to realize their self-employment earnings after 1950 were building toward old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families. Cathcart pointed out that the small businessman now has the same protection against loss of income due to retirement or death as wage earners have had since 1940. He summarized the self-employed person's status under social security as follows:

1. Generally speaking, coverage of the self-employed person is compulsory under the old-age and survivors insurance section of the Social Security Act.

Self employment earnings from a few professions and occupations are excluded by the law itself and cannot be counted toward this insurance protection. But unless specifically excluded they count if they amount to $400 or more a year.

2. Old-age and survivors insurance provides very definite protection in terms of a base for financial security to the self-employed person and his family. Monthly benefits range from $20 to $150 depending on average earnings and the pattern of the insured's family at the time benefits become payable.

3. The self-employed person must have a social security account number to identify the earnings to be posted in his insurance account.

If you have never had a social security card, fill out an application for one, on hand at any postoffice, and send it to the Lewiston social security office. If you have lost your card, you should ask for a copy. You should have only one social security number in your lifetime.

4. Self-employment earnings must be properly reported each year to secure credit toward this insurance. They are reported by the individual on a special section of his individual income tax form. 1951 earnings will be reported on the income tax form due by March 15, 1952. A self-employed person cannot report himself on the quarterly social security form 941 used for reporting employees' wages. He makes one yearly report and pays his tax in full at that time. The tax is 2¼ per cent of taxable self-employment earnings. Only the first $3600 of earnings is taxable. The 1951 tax will be between $9 and $81, depending on the amount of net earnings from self-employment. Payment is compulsory, so it would be a good idea to budget for the amount due.

Cathcart reminded all concerned that dtailed information about this program of old-age and survivors insurance is availbale without charge at the Lewiston Social security office.

Returning Home Monday

Mrs. E. D. Pederson and son, Gerald, who left last Thursday for Neligh, Neb., and attended funeral services for the former's mother, Mrs. Belle Bradstreet Sunday afternoon, at Spencer, Neb., her former home, will leave Neligh Saturday for the return trip. Leaving Genesee at 9 a. m. Nov. 29, they arrived at their destination at 3 p. m. Saturday. Roads were reported good all the way except from Monpelier, Idaho to Kemmerer, Wyo.

Accompanying them to Genesee will be Mrs. Reno Manicapelli of Hayward, Calif., sister of Mrs. Pederson, who was with her mother for a month before her death Nov. 29 at 1 a. m. She will visit relatives in Spokane before returning to her home.

Enroute to Idaho they will stop for a brief visit with relatives at Cheyenne and Laramie, Wyo., and are expected here Monday night or Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Pederson and members of her family wish to acknowledge the numerous floral and other tributes to their mother, and express appreciation for the many cards of sympathy received from friends in Idaho and elsewhere. The kindness and thoughtfulness of friends was indeed comforting in the time of bereavement, according to a telephone communication with members of the family Tuesday evening.

Turkey Shoot Sunday

Members of the Aspendale Gun club are sponsoring a trukey, ham and bacon shoot Sunday at their club house with shooting to start at 9:30. They will have traps and a .22 rifle range. News Pews at St. Mary's

Thirty-four new hardwood pews are in place at St. Mary's Catholic church, according to Rev. Fr. McBride, and three new pews have been placed in the balcony. Made of oak, the new church seats are in clear finish, were made in Wisconsin and shipped here for installation. Men of the church are doing the work.

Greenwells At Earp, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenwell have migrated south for the winter, and are now at Earp, Calif. "We are having fine weather, just like good old Idaho summers. Haven't done much fishing yet." According to Mr. Greenwell he caught a cold without even trying. They expect to be away until next spring.

Monday Voting Light One Contest Develops

Three elections were conducted at Genesee Monday afternoon when the voting was light, perhaps about normal. There was but one contest in the three elections, that between Sanford Evans and Walter Erickson for commissioner from sub-district 1 of the Genesee-Rimrock Highway District. The vote was 37 to 19 for Evans. The total vote cast was 56 of which Wm. Mortenson from sub-district received all. Mortenson is from sub-district 3, a hold-over, appointed when the Genesee and Rimrock districts were consolidated, and the commissioners were appointed by joint action of the Nez Perce and Latah county commissioners. J. Adrian Nelson, unopposed, as was Mortenson, received 51 votes. The county commissioners also appointed Nelson and Erickson.

The old board met Wednesday to transact business and pay bills, and will reorganize at their meeting in January.

Name Two To Fire District

Wilson Esser, sub-district No. 1 candidate for rural fire district commissioner, and Gilmore Iverson, sub-district No. 2 candidate for the same taxing unit, were unopposed Monday. Esser received 33 of the 33 votes cast and Iverson was given 30 votes. Retiring commissioners are H. J. Martinson and Jess Johnson, and the hold-over member is Walter Erickson.

Martinson and Johnson, who were appointed by the Latah county commissioners when the Genesee Rural Fire District was first organized, and then duly elected, declined the nominations to succeed themselves.

Evans On Cemetery Board

Roy Evans was elected to succeed himself as commissioner of the Genesee Community Cemetery Maintenance District from sub-district No. 3. He was unopposed and received 27 votes.

Nebelsieck Reelected

In Highway District No. 1, Jack Nebelsieck was reelected commissioner. Hold-over members are John Kluss, and W. L. Lundquist, the latter of Moscow. Nebelsieck was unopposed and received 26 votes.

1952 Motor Vehicle License Due First Day Of The Year

Motor car licenses for 1952 must be displayed on vehicles using the highways by Jan. 1, accordinig to Dan Pederson, Latah county assessor, on advice from the department of law enforcement. Sale was announced to start Dec. 15. Aluminum tabs will be used for passenger car plates in 1952, but on Dec. 5 the tabs had not arrived. The license fee for passenger cars remains at $5.00.

Eight hundred new Latah county license plates have arrived. These are to be sold to new car owners and to owners of cars from out-of-state, licensed in Idaho for the first time.

Latah county was shorted on car plates for 1951, and it became necessary to borrow plates from Idaho county. Those having "I" plates may obtan "L" plates by applying at the assessor's office and presenting the 1951 registration form. It is not mandatory that "L" plates be obtained, and it was stated there would be no charge for replacement.

Truck plates, in five classifications, have arrived, according to Pederson, but the state has not forwarded the 1952 registration forms, so truck plates cannot be sold until the forms reach Moscow.

Limited carrier and other truck classifications, which will operate on the "over 26001-pound" provision, will be given a registration number only, no plate. The registration or permit number will be supplied by the state and not the county assessor. There will not be a metal plate or sign. The state number provided may be painted or stenciled on the side of a truck, such as the gross weight. Letters designating gross weight shall be in letters not less than two inches high, but there are no specifications for size of numbers for the registration number, according to the law.

Truck owners who plan to operate on a mileage basis may present their 1951 truck registration blanks at the assessor's office, accompanied by a $20 initial payment, or they may forward the registration and money direct to Boise. There is no provision for the county assessor to forward the registration blank and money to Boise, but Pederson explained it will be a service to truck owners.

Pat Nunan Overseas

Pat Nunan, employed here at the First Security Bank before entering the service has evidently been shipped overseas from Fort Lewis where he was stationed for over a year. Reason for belief that he is on his way or already landed in the Orient is the "change of address" card received by The Genesee News. His new address is: Cpl. Patrick J. Nunan, US 56089-813, 24th Ord. M. M. Co., APO 301, San Francisco. There was a postal date of November 26.

What's Happening Here?

Genesee was not in a direct path of Tuesday night's wind storm which swept in from the west coast, and no damage has been reported. Serious damage, however, was done by wind in the Colfax-Pullman area, which disrupted telephone, telegraph and radio lines.

At Genesee Mrs. Bruce Wardrobe found a honeysuckle vine blooming at her home this week. Miss Frieda Hermann gave The News several twigs from a willow which showed well-developed buds. She also gave us a lilac branch which had buds ready to burst open, and at the Nagel home she has a pansy in bloom.

Weather turned colder Wednesday morning, and became no warmer on Thursday. Freezing temperatures prevailed both days.

To Visit Son At San Diego

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swenson left Monday by car for San Diego where they will visit their son, Charles Swenson in the navy. Charles expects to have some time off Dec. 7 and 8 and Mr. and Mrs. Swenson planned their trip to arrive there before the dates mentioned.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather was mild and rainy until Monday morning. We woke up to see a beautiful carpet of white. It only stayed on the ground for a half day, when rain came. Tuesday it snowed again and the wind was cold enough to freeze the highways and make travel hazardous. Tuesday night and Wednesday a terrific windstorm came in from the coast. Warmer weather is promised for the latter part of the week. Annual meetings will occupy the time of Valley folks during the next few weeks. We have an idea when the congressmen get back to Washington, D. C., after the Christmas holidays there won't be any doubt in their minds what the taxpayers think of this enormous spending and will do something about future grants to H. S. T. It might be a good idea for some American to dress up in European clothes, put on a good front and ask for a few billion for suffering Americans. Would they get it? Nix. The accent wouldn't be quite right and there wouldn't be enough apple polishing to go over, etc. Last week was National Poetry Week but because we had so much news, we had to leave out any verse. This week we are combining it in our Thought For The Week.

Thought For The Week

Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield Thee
Gladly, freely, of Thine own;
In the sunshine of Thy goodness
Melt our thankless hearts of stone
Till our cold and selfish natures
Warmed by Thee, at length believe
That more happy and more blessed
'Tis to give than to receive.

Thought for today...

Nationalism, Isolationism Versus Internationalism

John T. Wood, member of congress, First District, Idaho, writes the following in "Washington Impressions:"

"One of the pet 'smear' words used against opponents of the Administration's supposed bipartisan foreign policy of internationalism, is to accuse them of being 'isolationists.'

"The word 'isolationism' occurred five time in six paragraphs in the reply of the State Department to the House Foreign Affairs Committee's request for its recommendation on H. R. 5080, my bill to get out of the United Nations. The Department expressed 'the emphatic hope that it (the bill) will receive no favorable consideration by the Congress.'

"The whole world is divided into two camps—the Nationalist countries, and the Internationalist. We are the only nation fitting into the internationalist group; all others are intensely Nationalist—and quite properly so. They have never made any bones about being so. They are all have not nations; we have been the haves. And, due to the fact that our internationalists are either dumb, deluded, or definitely un-American, they have just about carried us into national bankruptcy through a series of foreign give-away programs to nations who are frequently much better off than we, and who frequently use our gifts in black market operations—at a high price—to our enemies, and even to us.

"These nationalist countries call their operations 'patriotism,' but never 'isolationism.' An uncomfortably large percentage of our people give these foreign patriots everything they ask for—and frequently more—to the great detriment of America, and call it "internationalism'—while they term those who are opposed to such idiocy, 'isolationists.'

"Thus a foreign isolationist is a patriot; while our own islolationists are traitors, un-American, bad and dangerous people, who are definitely endangering our asinine foreign policy—if you can call it a policy. How many of Stalin's interpretations of words such as 'democracy,' 'democratic nations, 'liberty,' 'liberal,' etc., we have learned through the channel of these friends of his! Just look up the definitions of these worlds in Webster's dictionary if you are interested in the subject; then compare them with the State Department's usage and definitions. You may learn something of our so-called foreign policy. They follow a Russian dictionary—not Webster's.

"Thank God your writer is an 'isolationist.' All the founding fathers were. I would much rather have their company, not only now, but through all eternity, than the half-men, and potential traitors in the State Department, with all the rest of the internationalist breed. I sleep well at night; the spook of Benedict Arnold never troubles my dreams. I am perfectly happy dreaming of the future of America, and the kind of a country and security I am striving to leave to my grandchildren, in these lonesome attempts in an exceedingly thoughtless generation. God help all of us to think, work, strive, and live for the America we have inherited as a most precious heritage. Others may think internationally; I think for America. And, strange to say, I have an abiding faith that in this way I am a better internationalist than these hybrid mongrels who now so classify themselves. For America can help the world best by just simply being herself."

Lapwai Beats Los Angeles

Lapwai, Idaho is growing faster than Los Angeles, Calif., and is outdoing the "smog center of the south coast" in the manner which it annexes territory. Lapwai now includes Valley View tavern land on the Lewiston hill. Spearheading a finger-like avenue, some say one-inch wide, from the former Lapwai village to Spalding bridge across the Clearwater, then on the highway to a point to include a tavern along the way, the new border on the west meanders over the rocky bluff north of Lewiston to encircle the hill tavern. According to reports this weeks a Lewiston slot machine operator will install ten machines at Valley View. Lapwai, thus will have the revenue from licenses, divided with the state and county, and the federal government will assess its 100 bucks a machine. Total licenses on a slot machine averages around $900 each.

Genesee's city council is reported to be considering a barricade along the county line to prevent Lapwai from including our town. The second line of defense will be reconstruction of the Genesee Fort east of here, a project, which perhaps, should have been undertaken several years ago.

Entertainment After Game

The Legion Club management announces its Saturday evening entertment will be postponed until after the Idaho Junior Varsity-Town Team basketball game.

He'd Done Enough

Elmer, aged 12, was puzzled over the social problem, and discussed them with his pal, Mortimer.

"I have walked to school with this dame three times," he said, "and I have carried her books. I bought her ice cream sodas twice. Now do you think I ought to kiss her?"

"Naw," said Mortimer. "You've done enongh for that dame already."

A revival service was being held and one of the partners in a butcher shop had joined the church. He tried to get his partner to do likewise. "I can't do it, John," replied the partner when the insistence became irksome. "Who'll do the weighin' if I join?"

What The Past Reveals

Pete Dallasego of Lewiston was a visitor in Genesee Monday. Several times Ray Edwards has been heard to say how good a "long-line skinner" he was during his prime. He had the temerity to ask Dallasego in the presence of two witnesses, how long ago it had been that he (Edwards) hauled some wood from Lapwai. Pete came up with a quick answer, "1910." They both agreed that Edwards drove a six-horse team, but darned if Edwards could remembered whether he herded the horses up Coyote Grade by jerk line or other methods. Dallasego said it took Edwards two days to make the trip, so one could sume he lead the team.

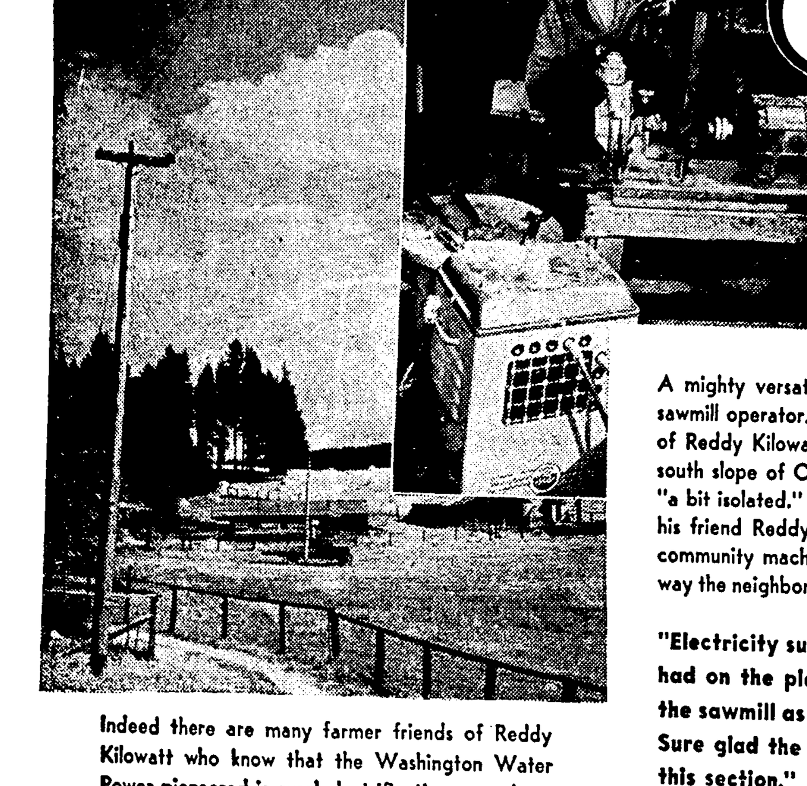
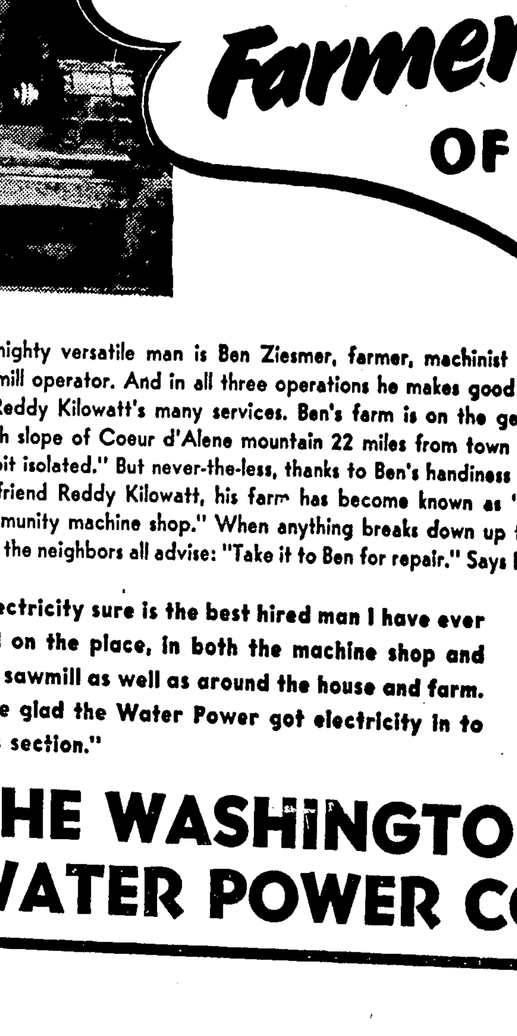
FRANCIS UHRE



Indeed there are many farmer friends of Reddy Kilowatt who know that the Washington Water Power pioneered in rural electrification as early as 1906. Today, thanks to private enterprise and the REA, the States of Washington and Idaho stand at the head of the nation with 98% of farm dwellings electrified.



A mighty versatile man is Ben Ziesmer, farmer, machinist and sawmill operator. And in all three operations he makes good use of Reddy Kilowatt's many services. Ben's farm is on the gentle south slope of Coeur d'Alene mountain 22 miles from town and "a bit isolated." But never-the-less, thanks to Ben's handiness and his friend Reddy Kilowatt, his farm has become known as "the community machine shop." When anything breaks down up that way the neighbors all advise: "Take it to Ben for repair." Says Ben:

"Electricity sure is the best hired man I have ever had on the place, in both the machine shop and the sawmill as well as around the house and farm. Sure glad the Water Power got electricity in to this section."

Pat Nunan, employed by the First Security Bank until he entered the service, is now in Korea, according to a letter from him, dated Dec. 3 at Seoul. The letter follows:

"Hi Pete:

"Well, I finally got to the 'promised land, Korea.' Our company has been traveling since Nov. 5, and we may not be through yet, but I think that this address will be ours for a few months. We have had three different APO numbers since we left the United States.

"We sailed from Seattle Nov. 6 on the General Simon B. Buckner' and arrived at Yokohama on Nov. 19. We were rushed to a troop train on our arrival and traveled 800 miles south to Sassebo. We were in Japan less than 55 hours and then we took a troop ship to Pusan, Korea. We stayed in Pusan until our trucks and equipment caught up with us and then we took a train to Soeul. It took two nights and a day to go less than 300 miles by train. We have been assigned to an old bombed-out school building out of Seoul toward Kaesong. It isn't much to look at but it is much better than we had expected. It gets pretty cold up here at nights and the wind is very chilly. There isn't much snow here yet.

"I had heard all sorts of stories about how filthy Korea is and now I can believe it. It is hard to imagine and the towns all have a terrific smell. Seoul was at one time a fairly modern city but there isn't much left but ruins now.

"I haven't got The News since I left the U. S., but they will catch up soon. We have only had one mail call in the last month. My address will be as follows: Cpl. Patrick J. Nunan, US 56089813, 24th Ord. M. M. Co., APO 301 c/o P. M., San Francisco.

"Have a merry Christmas and a happy new year.—Pat."

Current Address Of Aliens Mandatory As Of January 1

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath reminds all aliens that they must submit current address reports through any U. S. postoffice during the period Jan. 1 to 11, inclusive.

Under the amended law any alien residing in the United States on Jan. 1, 1952, except one in an authorized temporary status, must notify the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., of his current address within ten days thereafter and during the same peri od in each succeeeding year.

Argyle R. Mackey, commissioner of immigration and naturalization, stated that the immigration and naturalization service will make available forms for submitting the required reports at all post offices throughout continental United States and possessions. The report is to be submitted on Form I-53, which will be available to the public beginning Jan. 1, 1952. Mr. Mackey also advised aliens that it is to their distinct advantage to promptly notify the immigration and naturalization service in Washington, D. C., of any change of address during the period between annual address reports. This will facilitate and greatly expedite the handling of all records pertaining to aliens and their families.

Mr. Mackey emphasized that the address report is an annual requirement and is not to be confused with alien registration. An alien residing in the United States on Jan. 1 must make the address report each and every year, regardless of whether or not he previously registered as an alien or previously reported his address except: (1) Aliens temporarily admitted to the United States who have not overstayed their authorized period of admission; and (2) Students whose period of admission has not yet expired and who have not violated any of the conditions of their admission. He pointed out that failure to comply with the above would subject aliens, upon conviction, to fines or imprisonment or both.

Enjoy Chicago 4-H Club Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald of Troy were in Genesee Wednesday afternoon when the latter attended the Community Church Guild meeting. They said their daughter, Janis, reports a wonderful time while in Chicago and in attendance at the National 4-H Club Congress, as one of the Gem State's four top-ranking 4-H club members.

Harold Hattan, Genesee high school senior, was also one of the four from Idaho attending the 4-H Club Congress. While in Chicago Janis and Harold were invited for dinner one evening to the home of Mrs. Nina Hanson, aunt of Janis. Mack Hanson, attending a high school of 1,600 students, is one of the first-string basketball players. Jill and Polly Hanson are also active in school affairs, the former being one of eight cheer leaders in the school they attend.

Return Trip From Nebraska Not Made Without Trouble

Highways are hazardous in wintertime, especially in Nebraska and Oregon, it was learned from Mrs. E. D. Pederson and son, Gerald, and the former's sister, Mrs. Reno Manicapelli of Hayward, Calif., when they arrived at Genesee Monday evening from Neligh, Neb. They were somewhat reluctant to admit travel difficulties enroute. Mrs. Pederson and son left Genesee Nov. 29 by car for Neligh, Neb., arrived there the afternoon of Dec. 2 and on Dec. 3 were present for funeral rites for Mrs. Bradstreet at Spencer, Neb.

Leaving Neligh the morning of Dec. 8 they found highways clear of snow and ice, but near Hershey, the first town west of North Platte, the car in which they were traveling west, skidded, turn completely around, and came to stop in snow along the highway. Plowed-out snow kept the vehicle from overturning. More than two inches of clear ice covered the road over a distance of about 500 feet. A patrol was working with its scarifier bars touching the ice, but was unsuccessful in dislodging the ice covering. Another car coming onto the ice with its driver not knowing road conditions, turned around, not only once but several times, and came to a stop, headed in an opposite direction from that in which it was traveling. But one wheel of that car was in the snow and it was pushed onto the highway without much effort. The Pederson car was further off the road, and altho a regular car tow-cable was carried, it was too short to hook onto the state highway patrol.

Gerald Pederson caught a ride with one of several motorists who stopped, but was unable to obtain a wrecker at the small town of Hershey. While he was away, a state highway department truck came along, and it carried a long chain, which was used to move the Genesee car back onto the highway. Weather was cold through Nebraska and Wyoming, 8 degrees below at Cheyenne and colder at Laramie, and it was below zero in Nebraska.

Highways were mostly clear for the rest of the trip, except out of Baker, Ore., where, on Monday, a mist was falling and freezing on windshields and roads, making the highway surface slippery and treacherous.

Where roads were expected to be bad at this time of year, from Rawlins, Wyo., to Montpelier, Idaho, and west, the highway was clear of ice. There was some snow, but motorists could travel with left wheels of vehicles on a bare oiled surface. Travel conditions were so good, in fact, that it has been learned, the trio made the acquaintance of a Wyoming state patrolman.

Highway 30 from Idaho's east boundary to its western boundary was in good condition for traveling. Inquiry about road conditions over the North and South highway in Idaho brought a report of snow and slippery roads on Whitebird hill, so the route home took them through Baker, Ore., to Walla Walla and Pendleton.

The three people stopped at Cheyenne, Wyo., to visit relatives Saturday night, and at Laramie, Wyo., made a brief stop also to visit with relatives. The mercury at Laramie read 13 degrees below zero last Sunday morning.

Corn harvest was on in Nebraska, according to Gerald Pederson. Continued rains retarded ripening of the large corn acreage, and as a result a sizeable portion of the corn crop is soft. None, however, is being left unharvested. That which is too soft for storage and shelling later, is being shipped to Texas „snapped," which is the ear without the husks removed. Reported returns to the farmer is approximately $30 per ton.

Mrs. Manicapelli left Thursday for Spokane for an overnight visit with relatives of her husband. From there she traveled by plane to Oakland.

Community Church

Sunday school at 9:50. Worship service at 11 a. m. The choir will sing two selections. Chi Rho at 5:30. Mrs. Paul Genstler will be the speaker at the CYF meeting. Choir practice Wednesday evening at 7:30. The annual Christmas program will be presented Friday evening, Dec. 21.

Christmas Tree Ready Santa Coming Dec. 22

Committees are making arrangements for the visit here Saturday, Dec. 22 of Santa Claus. He will be in Genesee Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock, with gifts for children, and will also be pleased to meet the older citizens of the community.

This year the Merchant's Association decided to transplant a large fir tree from the John Hickman yard to the small lot belonging to Carl Simons, east of the Electric Shop. The committee, Larry Sorensen, Floyd Ochs and Ray Helbling, with the help of a few business men, removed the tree from its original setting, and with as many roots as possible, placed it in the excavation prepared at the vacant lot. The hopes are that it will continue to live. There are always some remarks made about such an undertaking, such as the ability and proficiency of Sorensen working on the business end of a shovel. Floyd Ochs is no mean dirt handler himself, and Helbling is a good hand if one could keep him on the job. Nevertheless, the committee must be credited with a job well done. The men used a full sack, 100 pounds of commercial fertilizer about the roots of the transplanted tree, moistened the earth generously, and were cautious about handling.

Many Shopping Locally

Without doubt, Genesee stores are offering the most complete of Christmas gifts seen in recent years, and the gifts are useful and practical, as well as the toys, games and other gifts for children. Quite a few have remarked that the lines carried at Genesee this season are exceptional, with the "shop at home" motto meaning something to them.

Hubert Smith Dies Suddenly Former Resident Of Genesee

Hubert Smith, 54, of Clarkston died Tuesday night at 11:15 at St. Joseph's hospital. He went to work as usual Monday morning for Potlatch Forest at Lewiston, and feeling ill, he became a patient at the hospital that afternoon. Rosary services will be conducted Friday evening at 7:30 at Merchant's chapel, Clarkston. Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Holy Names Catholic church in Clarkston, with interment in Normal Hill cemetery.

Hubert Smith was a brother of Mrs. Mary Gray, formerly of Genesee, now of Walla Walla. He is also survived by his wife, and daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Ryan, both of Clarkston; a brother, Fred D. Smith of Mill Valley, Calif., and three grandchildren.

The deceased was born at Genesee, Feb. 9, 1897, and following the death of his mother made his home until 18 years of age with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mulalley, both deceased. He attended grade and high school at Genesee.

He married Agnes Fuchs Oct. 2-, 1919, at Nezperce, and he operated a farm near there until 1925 when the family moved to Clarkston.

WWP Pays $23,583 In Taxes

A $23,583 tax payment will be made Dec. 14 to Latah county by the Washington Water Power company, the first half of 1951 property taxes for the firm.

Floyd Ochs, local representative for WWP, said the total tax for the year would be $47,166, an increase of $4,476 over last year's payments because of higher levies.

"The company's total 1951 tax bill in nine Idaho counties will amount to $442,807.92, eight per cent greater than in 1950," the WWP official further stated.

Following is the amount of property tax being paid to other Idaho counties tomorrow: Benewash, $10,539; Bonner, $2,662; Clearwater, $10,029; Idaho, $12,610; Kootenai, $65,883; Lewis, $6,268; Nez Perce, $61,570, and Shoshone, $26,693.

Gene Moser Back In The U. S. 15 Months In Korean Waters

Cpl. Gene Moser, U. S. Marines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florent Moser, arrived at Terminal Island, Long Beach, Calif. last Friday aboard the USS New Jersey. He attempted, each noon and evening, during free time, to contact his folks by telephone, and was became successful at 12:30 Tues. day noon. Mr. and Mrs. Moser had been expecting to hear from him, after being advised that he was due for reassignment. He is now waiting for a new assignment, and if he draws a station in the West, hopes are high for a visit at Genesee during Christmas holidays. He enlisted in the Marines in Nov. 1948, for three years, but drew a year's extension owing to the Korean situation. He was home in late November and early December of 1950, and his parents visited him at Long Beach in November, 1951.

Cpl. Moser was aboard the USS Toledo during the initial invasion at Inchon. The U. S. light cruiser was on duty in Korean waters for nine months in 1951, and the year before it was there for six months. Gene had been on the Toledo for twenty-seven and a half months before being transferred to the USS New Jersey. The Toledo was one of the larger ships often mentioned when U. S. troops went ashore at Inchon and later during bombardment of the eastern shore of Korea.

Idaho Junior Varsity Winner Receipts Go To Uniform Fund

Saturday evening the University of Idaho Junior Varsity or freshman basketball team met the recently organized Town club. Despite a 43-30 trimming, the town men kept the game interesting and close until training, or rather lack of training began to cut the stride of several players and kept them closer to the floor on jump balls, and for work under the backboards. Sather, a graduate of the local school last spring, now with the Junior Varsity, topped all hands in the scoring column with 14 points, but close behind was Don Lee, recently discharged from the army. He is a former Bulldog, and racked up a neat 10 points for the Town club. Other players on the University frosh team were Jim Bennett and Lee Liberg, both of whom have lost nothing in their aggressive playing at Idaho.

Lee was ably supported by Ray Broenneke, Jim Sprenger, Burt Peterson and Dave Nordby, as the starting five. Lee and Broenneke were a going partnership when working under the backboards, with Lee's hook shot working better than it ever did. Sprenger, Nordby and Peterson were looking upward most of the time, in competition with the J. V. club, except against Bennett and Liberg. For relief Genesee Towners used Riggs, Wayne Schwenne, Willis Moser, Kenneth Jenkins, Harold Jacobs, Carmen Ulrich and Gerhard.

A few more games together and a little more conditioning will bring the Town club to a point of effectiveness, sufficient for competition in the circuit in which they will play this winter, and given another shot at the J. V., it will be a closer game.

Thanks To Both Teams

Thanks are due both teams who played Saturday night, for it may be now announced that gate receipts of around $50 net, went into the fund to purchase new football uniforms for the high school Bulldogs.

Text Book Program Success District Supplies All Books

"The text book program is a success," reported Supt. H. Warren Downing of Genesee public schools, on the new school-owned book plan.

Mr. Downing stated, "This year the children of Genesee public schools are enjoying for the first time the use of district-owned and district-furnished text and workbooks. In years previous, students supplied their own books. The average cost to grade and high school pupils ranged between $12 to $15.

"There are now enrolled in the Genesee system 233 pupils. Total book fees collected to date amount to $1,140. Only five pupils have failed to pay the fee.

The new book program is very satisfactory to teachers and students, since all students have books and workbooks from the first day of school on, and all books are of the same edition, and therefore, there is more uniformity in the program."

New Refrigerator

A new refrigerator was purchased recently for the hot lunch department of the public schools, reported H. Warren Downing, superintendent. The refrigerator, a new 10.8 cubic-foot General Electrica, was purchased at Robinson's Cash Hardware. "This satisfied a long-standing need in the hot lunch department," announced Supt. Downing.

The Parent-Teacher association party will be held Dec. 17 at 8 p. m. in the Genesee high school gymnasium. Parents and teachers are invited to bring their families. Mrs. Borgen announces that gifts for the Children's Home should be marked as to age and sex. Popcorn balls will be given to the children. Entertainment will be furnished by the junior band, directed by James Riggs.

Home From California Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Don Linehan and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Krier returned home late Saturday from a motor trip to California after traveling about 3700 miles. They were away for three weeks and enjoyed sightseeing at various places in California and Old Mexico. They traveled inland to southern California and part of the coast route returning, then home by way of the Columbia highway. They said the blooming flowers were especially interesting to them and they remarked about the beauty of the Salinas valley. Some rain was encountered, and colder than usual weather prevailed at most points.

License Tabs For 1952 Ready In Latah County

Passeneger car 1952 license "tabs" are now on sale in Latah county, according to Dan Pederson, assessor. The shipment arrived Tuesday from Boise, and while it is not necessary to display the tab before Jan. 1, 1952, sales started ahead of time expected. The license fee for passenger cars remains at $5.00, but it is necessary to present your 1951 registration form so the proper information for new registration may be copied.

Those who licensed cars in 1951 will use the same license plate in 1952, unless they purchased plates late in the year and received a substitute plate from Idaho county. There is no charge for plate replacement, unless plates are lost or stolen.

Cars registered in other states and demanding new Idaho plates for 1952 will receive new plates, and also all new cars for which application for plates is made for the first time.

Every motor vehicle operating on Idaho licenses except passenger cars with 1951 plates, will have new plates in 1952. There is another exception, that being trucks having a declared gross weight of 26,001 pounds. These vehicles will carry a permit number issued by the state and not by the county.

The smaller "trailer" plates, according to the county assessor, have not been delivered as yet.

Purchasing licenses for passenger cars and light trucks (under 6,000 pounds declared gross weight,) presents no problem, but those who have been operating farm trucks on a farm truck license have two methods to apply for license or permit. The cost of license plates on farm trucks of the larger type is different, in that the license fee is much higher than in past years. A limited carrier, however, has the privilege of obtaining a permit by declaring gross weight in excess of 26,000 pounds, and thereafter keeping a record of mileage for Idaho's new truck license law. According to the Latah county assessor, he will gladly explain the difference in truck license categories, and will also assist in completing forms to be sent to the state.

This is the first time in several years that licenses for passenger cars and other vehicles could be obtained before the deadline, without limitation, owing to non-arrival of plates from Boise.

Christmas Mail Information May Speed Gifts And Letters

Following is some information on Christmas mailing supplied by the Genesee postoffice:

Send holiday greetings as first-class mail to obtain the many advantages which this service affords. Such greetings prepaid at the first-class mail rate may be sealed and contain written messages. They are dispatched and delivered first; forwarded if necessary without additional charge, and if undeliverable, returned at no further expense to the mailer provided the sender's return address is shown on the envelope.

Unsealed Christmas greetings sent as third-class mail without unauthorized writing enclosed are chargeable with 2 sents postage (if weight does not exceed two ounces.) However, a minimum charge of 3 cents is applicable to such greeting cards which measure less than 4 inches long or 2¾ inches wide.

Patrons having a number of greeting cards to mail are urged to tie them in bundles with addresses all faced one way before mailing so as to facilitate their handling in the post office.

All mail matter must be plainly and completely addressed, preferably in ink. It is important that the sender's return address appear in the upper left hand corner of the address side.

Pack articles carefully and tightly in strong, durable containers. Wrap and tie packages securely with good quality paper and cord, but do not seal them unless name and address of sender are shown together with the printed inscription reading, "Contents (Merchandise--Postmaster: This parcel may be opened for postal inspection, if necessary," as sealed parcels (including parcels sealed with scotch tape) not so labeled and endorsed are subject to the letter rate of postage. Do not enclose letters or messages, no matter how brief, in parcels, as so doing would subject the entire parcel to the letter rate.

Beginning Dec. 15 the Genesee post office will remain open Saturday afternoons after mail is distributed to accommodate Christmas mailings. It has been the custom to close the office Saturday afternoons following mail distribution.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

We had a few days of cold weather with an inch of snow which covers the ground and provides a good protection for the cold nights we have had. The weather has been so mild until December that the wheat is tender and would have frozen easily. Farmers are naturally glad there is snow protection. There are still a few colds among the natives but otherwise the health of the Valley folks is good. Travel has been stopped quite a little with folks going to various towns to do their shopping and taking the kids to see Santa Claus. We figured that the coffee used to sweep the floors at two air bases, recently reported, would make 12,000 cups of coffee that could have warmed those cold and hungry South Koreans. We should hang our heads in shame that we call ourselves a Christian nation and allow so much waste to go on. That was only a small sample of government waste in the military establishments, and we would like to see the government price control board dismissed. All they have done so far is raise prices, and we don't need highsalaried men to tell folks to do that. In their place I would rather see a good conscientious board appointed to stop waste everywhere and in every phase of government spending. It might bring in the extra money that is going to be requested in January without taking the rest of our shirts.

(Lucille McGregor Campbell)

Wherever choirs shall sing of Christmas glory,

There hearts are warmed then doth earth's humblest place
Reflect the light upon the Christ child's face.

Lapwai Beats Genesee Last Seconds 47-46

Lapwai Wildcats pulled one out of fire Tuesday evening at Lapwai, perhaps it may be said, the Genesee Bulldogs were rather gracious in giving up possession of the ball in the final few seconds of play, less than seconds, in fact. It was an interesting and close game all the way, with the Wildcats having a 12-9 point advantage at the first quarter and lead by three points at the half, 21. In the third period it was 38 37 for Genesee, and during the crucial last half minute the Bulldogs were ahead by three points.

Bennett for Genesee racked up 17 points for his club, and in second place were Don Dennler and Myers with 8 points each. E. Madsen for Lapwai, topped his team's scoring with 14 points, and R. Rickett ran up points.

In the non-conference tilt, basketball fans see another year of stiff competition in the Valley league, and undoubtedly a neck-and-neck race to the final stretch, with Kendrick and Lapwai again having an eye on the district tournament.

Genesee, slow in getting started this season, has practically a new group of boys becoming acquainted with the higher A team classification of the loops. Only Myers, Bennett and Wilson saw action with the Genesee first team last season.

The third-quarter count was 30-19 for Genesee. Bennett, with 13 points, was high man for the Bulldogs, and high for the Loggers was Lang with 9.

Kennewick 49 - Genesee 34

Kennewick's high school basketball team, on a barnstorming trip into Idaho and eastern Washington, won from Genesee last Friday evening 49 to 34. It was an even game for the first three periods with the exception of the first two minutes when the traveling club ran ahead by seven points before the Bulldogs began hitting. The Kennewick team, coached by a former Genesee man, Wayne Jaeger, set up a zone defense which was really effective, and for the Genesee fans it appeared the Bulldogs might have to shoot from out of doors for a while, but the Bulldogs, rather inexperienced this season, penetrated the Kenewick zone for 11 field goals. Kennewick sent 21 two-pointers thru the hoop. The Bulldogs counted 12 points on free throws, having 24 opportunities. Kennewick marked up 7 points on field goals on its 15 chances from the foul line.

Kennewick's tall team, working smooth for an early-season game, turned up the boards in the final quarter with a fast break that required on an average of only two passes to get the ball near the Genesee backboard. Genesee, outpointed Kennewick in the first quarter 11-8, and at the half the Bulldogs were behind but one point, 17-18. In the third period Kennewick broke into a 33-25 lead, with the final count 49 for the traveling team and 34 for Genesee.

Saturday evening the Kennewick team played Clarkston at Clarkston, when the score was 65 to 36 for the Clarkston club. Coach Yaeger and his boys, who were guests in the homes of players and others at Genesee Friday night, returned Saturday after the Clarkston game, and left for their homes Sunday noon. Last year Kennewick let Genesee down with a one-point victory over the Bulldogs. In the exchange of games during recent years Kennewick and Genesee high school teams and coaches have established most friendly relations, so it was a pleasure to have the visitors here over the week end. The rivalry has been keen, however, and for the game Friday evening, a fairly large crowd enjoyed a good session of basketball.

Genesee Bees Take Lapwai But Lose Game To Potlatch

Genesee's Junior Bulldogs, on the sharpshooting of Jacobs, playing the center position, ran away from the Lapwai second team at Lapwai 38 to 29. This win came after Genesee failed to rack up a single point in the opening quarter, and when Lapwai had counted 8 points. At the halftime the Junior Bulldogs was six points behind, 16-10, but Genesee picked up 10 points in the third quarter, and Jacobs swished through 11 points in the final period, while his teammates were holding the young Wildcats to but 3 points. The drouth of points in the first period would have been discouraging to most teams, but when the Genesee youngsters pulled abreast of the Lapwai club in the fourth period there was no doubt of the outcome.

For Genesee the scoring was as follows: Baumgartner 4, Krier 0, Lee 0, Nelson 0, Kries 6, M. Stout 2, Jacobs 15, Grieser 4, Borgen 2, Hasfurther 0, Esser 2 and Teichmer 3.

M. Miller scored the most points for the Lapwai Bees, 9. Others in the scoring were: Greene 7, Redheart 0, Arthur 6, L. Ellenwood 4, Cosgrove 2, McFarland 1, and Davis 0.

Potlatch 28 - Genesee 24

Genesee's Bee team ran up 9 points in the first quarter of their game at Potlatch Saturday evening while the Junior Loggers were getting 2 points. The second quarter showed Genesee obtaining 4 points with Potlatch getting 5. In the third quarter Genesee ran up 8 points, but Potlatch was hitting for 9, and in the final quarter Potlatch ran ahead with 12 points to 3 for Genesee. For Genesee the scoring was by Kries with 10, Grieser 4, Jacobs 2, Borgen 5, and Hasfurther 3. For Potlatch Gormson hit for 11 points, Kisler 4, Rohn 4, Harris 1, Youman 7 and Fleiger 1.

Plenty Snow Is Encountered On Round Trip To California

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swenson, who returned home Sunday noon from a trip to San Diego to visit their son, Charles, soon to leave for overseas, encountered plenty of snow on the round trip. They went by way of Biggs, Ore., and from near Madras in the same state to near Redding, Calif., a distance of about 200 miles tire chains were necessary. There were no drifts but a two-foot fall of snow held up traffic unless vehicles were equipped to buck the snow and remain on the road.

They continued south by way of Sacramento, Stockton, Merced, Fresno, and Bakersfield, to Los Angeles, then through Long Beach to San Diego. They made a brief stop at Del Mar to convey a message from friends to relatives there, otherwise their time was well taken up with visits with Charles who is stationed at San Diego. They were with him most of three days, and included in their hurried sightseeing, a trip to Capistrano and to Tiajuana.

Mr. Swenson said he was returning to the Palouse to continue farming, and was rather glad of it. California produces great amounts of agricultural commodities, but there is a lot more connected with growing crops and the marketing is rather complex. He definitely does not want to grow cotton, grapes, celery or fruit.

California was not presenting its best or usual brand of weather during early December, There were heavy rains and the temperature everywhere was somewhat cool, almost cold.

They left San Diego on the return trip and traveled by way of Riverside and Majave, then back through Bakersfield to Sacramento and to Reno, Nevada. There was snow to a depth of seven feet in Donner Pass, but there chains were not necessary. Travel by heavy freighters was somewhat snarled up at times, however.

They continued through Winnemucca to Caldwell and through Idaho over the North and South highway, reported in good condition.

Charles Swenson, who took his boot training at San Diego and later went to Great Lakes Naval Station, has been aboard the USS Stickle, a destroyer, slated for foreign duty beginning January 7.

Santa To Arrive Here Saturday At 3:30 P.M.

Santa Claus, due to arrive at Genesee at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, has plenty snow to travel over, and perhaps there will be so much he may ask some assistance for a daylight trip, such as could be afforded by the Fire Department members and equipment. Santa, as we all know, never would ask for help at night to greet children, but this trip is somewhat off schedule. Santa's appearance at Genesee has been underwritten by the Merchants Association, but it is understood the Firemen, who tended to packing, had a heavy thumb on the scales, and are contributing also to the treat for all children.

The community Christmas tree located east of The Electric Shop, well lighted for the Christmas holidays, will no doubt, be spotted by Santa as a stopping place to greet his many young friends. Arrangements have been completed for a longer stopover this year, and parents may introduce their children to Santa. He will be pleased to meet everyone.

Last-minute contact with merry old Saint Nick gave no information on the direction he will be traveling, but his home being in the north, according to traditions of old, he may be escorted from that direction as he heads south.

People of the Genesee community are cordially invited and urged to bring their children to the tree at Genesee Saturday afternoon. Santa will be here despite weather conditions, and he has for each child, a gift which he would like to deliver personally.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

The weather has been varied the past week, mostly nice, until Saturday afternoon when we had a light snow fall followed by fog on Sunday. Tuesday morning we awoke to find a winter wonderland with the heaviest snow of the season on the ground. The snow kept coming until noon when it turned into rain which will fill up the rivers, which are unusually low for this time of the year. Next week is Christmas, and again we have no peace on earth. We can have peace in our hearts and pray that before long our leaders will learn that peace cannot be kept by force. They tried that method at the time Christ was born. It didn't work then, nor has it helped for long at any time since. The only way peace can be kept is to give the people of the world enough education so they can think for themselves and not be driven by mass hysteria dictated by power-mad dictators and not able to know what it is all about. They need to have a system of sanitation that would give better health. They need food and shelter and lastly, be taught of the four freedoms and of the love of Christ who came to the world as God's gift to suffering man, and that through Him the world might be saved. We, in America could practice tolerance of other races as a prelude to world brotherhood. To all our readers everywhere, the Cowcreek editor wishes one and all a most enjoyable holiday season.

Sign of a Nice Guy

Got so around these parts that everywhere a hunter went this fall, he came up against signs saying "PRIVATE PROPERTY, NO HUNTING, KEEP OFF." But not out at Happy Preston's place!

Happy's signs say "PRIVATE PROPERTY, GOOD HUNTING, BUT BE CAREFUL."

"Don't hunt myself," Happy says, "but there's plenty of game on my property. I tell the hunters where the best spots are—away from where I'm working and where nobody else is hunting. It works out pretty well all-around."

From where I sit, Happy has once again shown why he gets along with everyone and why everyone respects him. Happy's likes and dislikes might not be the same as his neighbors', but that doesn't stop him from understanding. When it comes to opinions on hunting, fishing, politics, ways of farming, or whether your favorite beverage is beer or cider, try to be like Happy and the chances are you'll be really happy!

Mrs. Catherine Steltz Commoned By Death

Mrs. Catherine Thekla Steltz, a resident of the Genesee community for more than 63 years, passed away at her home December 21, after a severe and painful illness lasting 54 days. She attained the age of 90 years, 3 months and ten days.

Mrs. Steltz was born in Wausau, Wis., March 11, 1861, the elder daughter of Paul and Elizabeth Rock. She attended school at Wausau, and was confirmed in the Lutheran church March 21, 1875.

She was married August 16, 1878 to John Conrad Steltz, a schoolmate of her primary days. They lived at Wausau for a time and then moved to South Dakota where five children were born to them. With their family they moved to Genesee in October, 1903, and the family home has been here since. Mr. Steltz passed away February 14, 1940. Their sixtieth wedding anniversary was celebrated here in 1938, among their many friends at the St. John Lutheran church.

Children born to Mr. and Mrs. Steltz are Emma M. Caldwell, a resident of Modesto, Calif., who has been with her mother and sister for more than 16 months; Pauline M., who, to the present has shared her parents' home and has practically all of her life and who was her mother's constant companion since the death of her father; John Frederick passed away at the age of 2 years, in 1890; Edward Steltz is a resident of Santa Rosa, Calif., and Elizabeth Thekla McMahon passed away November 9, 1919.

Besides the three surviving children there are four grandchildren: Conrad Caldwell, Modesto, Calif.; Jesse C. McMahon, 70 Mile House, B. C.; Katherine Johnston, Tacoma, Wash., and Jack C. McMahon, Myrtle, Idaho. There are nine great grandchildren, several nephews and nieces and many friends.

Funeral services were conducted from St. John Lutheran church Monday, December 23 at 2 p. m., by the Rev. P. Daneker of Lewiston. Mrs. Walter Woodley and Mrs. Alfred Gehrke sang some of the beloved and favorite hymns. They were accompanied on the organ by Miss Dorothy Cronrath. Mrs. Steltz was laid to rest beside the grave of her husband in the family plot, and among other loved ones. Pallbearers were Raleigh Hampton, Hugo Manderfeld, Harry Emerick, Hugo Gehrke, Carl Simons and Ed Nebelsieck.

The Homeland
By Emma Steltz Caldwell

There shall be no night in heaven,
As I read through our fast-falling tears,
For we long for the home that's eternal,
Where time is not measured by years.

The ears long stopped shall be opened
And hear voices loved, as of yore;
The eyes grown weary with watching
Will never be dimmed any more.

The crutch or staff shall be needed;
The lame man shall leap as an hart.
There homes will never be broken
And loved ones nevermore part.

There'll be no need of stars or of sunshine;
God himself is the glorious light.
Satan's curse shall be gone forever
And nothing will alarm or affright.

Those who dwell in that glorious country,
Will am sick," shall nevermore say.
In graves on the hillsides of glory
In the land that is fairer than day.

There will be young there forever,
And joy reign supreme over there,
With never a heartbreaking sorrow
And never a cankering care.

We'll meet our loved ones in the homeland
When the trials of life are past;
The long weary days, all forgotten,
Safely sheltered in heaven at last.

Battle Icy Highways For Trip From Camp Carson To Homes

W/O Ron Huffman, who made the trip by car from Camp Carson, Colo., with W/O Carl Theiseen, said they encountered snow and icy highways all the way from Denver north and west. Also accompanying Theiseen, who drove his car, were two men from the 148th Field Artillery Battalin who live at Coeur d'Alene and Kellogg.

The four men left Camp Carson at 11 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 19, and arrived at Genesee the following Friday at 2 p. m. Theiseen went on to Moscow where his wife resides, but has visited here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Theissen.

They plan to leave for Colorado today (Friday) if there is no decided change in the weather, and are expected to report at Camp Carson at midnight Sunday.

Ron said he talked with Leverne Gilbertson shortly before he left the camp, and understood he planned to forego a trip home at this time owing to road conditions.

Also home from Camp Carson for Christmas are Homer Hasfurther, Ray Liberg, Roger Broemeling and a former Genesee man, Morris Wicks, who has been discharged. Dick Armstrong is now at Fort Sill, Okla., and his family lives nearby.

According to Huffman, Carl Theissen has been alerted for overseas duty in February, and Armstrong expects a foreign assignment when he completes training at Fort Sill. Ron said he has not been notified of being on an overseas draft, and rather expects to attend school before being alerted.

Social Security Card In Need For Self-Employed Persons

If you operate your own trade or business, either as an individual or in a partnership, you are now under social security. You'll need to report your social security tax by March 15, along with your reglar income tax report for 1951.

You will also need a social security card with your own individual account number. If you already have a social security card from previous work covered by social security, you won't need another one. One card, one account number is good for life. If you had a social security card, but lost it, be sure to get a duplicate, with the same account number. You should contact the social security office in the Lewiston post office building.

Gene Moser On Leave

Cpl. Gene Moser, who has seen a lot of action with the navy in Korean waters, arrived home Saturday, coming from Terminal Island, Calif., by way of Bellingham where he was accompanied by two friends, also home for the holidays. He made the trip by car. He will report at Camp Pendleton in early January for future assignment. Aboard the USS Toledo, during the early part of the Korean activity, he transferred to the USS New Jersey. The Toledo docked at Terminal Island about the same time as the New Jersey.

During more recent action off the Korean coast, the Toledo took aboard some men from the destroyer escort on which Jack Liberg was serving, but the two men could not contact each other. Liberg left Wednesday for San Francisco after being home on leave. Moser is a Marine, doing duty aboard ship.

Santa Claus' Arrival Delayed Held Up By Friday's Storm

Santa Claus, like many others, delayed arrival at destinations during the week end. The heavy snow storm which started Friday blocked all roads in the Genesee area, and threatened to close the North and South highway to travel Friday afternoon.

After the snow and wind subsided snow removal equipment of every kind opened roads here, but the temperature fell to near zero Saturday. Members of the Merchants Association, sponsoring the arrival of Santa Claus for Saturday afternoon, and assisted by members of the Fire Department decided to postpone the arrival of St. Nick until Monday afternoon at 3:30, so more children could be present to receive gifts. Equipment of the Rural Fire Department, pressed into service to escort Santa Claus into town, was held up about 20 minutes when the motor of the big truck was slow in starting.

Finally, the children met Santa and received their gifts. The number of children was less than expected. The firemen, who distributed the gifts urged parents to take packages home to children unable to meet Santa, but although generous, a number of bags of candy, nuts and an orange were left over, and it was suggested the extra gifts be taken to the Children's Home at Lewiston and the Mission Home near Culdesac.

At the time of their marriage Mr. Nilsson was employed by a investment firm and Mrs. Nilsson by the Crescent store.

Services Monday For Mrs. Albert Carbuhn

Mrs. Albert Carbuhn passed away at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, December 27, following an illness of almost a year. Since March she was cared for in the home of her sister, Mrs. Eva Taylor.

Funeral services will be held at St. John Lutheran church Monday at 1:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Paul Daneker of the Lutheran church in Lewiston officiating. Mrs. Alfred Gehrke and Mrs. Oliver Woodley will sing, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Cronrath at the organ. Pallbearers will be Ed Jutte, George Scharnhorst, Jack Nebelsieck, Louis Herman, Paul Parks and Hugo Gehrke.

Mrs. Carbuhn was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Paine, born August 10, 1878 at Lebanon, Ore. The family later moved to the Yakima Valley and resided there for 15 years. They came to Genesee in 1893, and farmed the D. Scharnhorst ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Carbuhn were married on January 14, 1903, and they resided on their ranch for 48 years before moving to Genesee about a year ago.

Surviving beside the husband are two sisters, Mrs. Eva Taylor of Genesee and Mrs. Bertha Neuman of Colton, also several nieces and nephews.

White Christmas This Year Heavy Snows Snarl Traffic

Residents of the Inland Empire generally agree that winter with a heavy snow storm came early this year. The entire country is well covered with a deep blanket of snow, providing ample protection for fall-seeded crops.

The storm took on proportions of a big blizzard Friday, whipping up some snow which had fallen before, but the supply of new snow was more than sufficient to block all rural roads and cause confusion for travelers in main highways. Trains were running late on the main lines east and west at mid-week.

Students leaving the University of Idaho Friday, and traveling south encountered hazards, and many vehicles were off the road Friday during the blizzard. Visibility was almost zero as the snow was whipped by the high wind, but temperatures were not low, slightly below freezing.

School buses left Genesee early Friday, but not early enough, as some students were returned to town to await opening of roads Saturday.

The mercury sought lower levels after the storm blew itself out, and Sunday night, at around 9 o'clock the temperature was below zero. A noted rise in the temperature occurred Monday, and since there has been no noticeable coldness. Snow continues today, Thursday, with no wind. Christmas day was one of whiteness, and for a few minutes the wind north of Genesee started small drifts.

Rural roads were practically all opened Saturday, and since that time plows have been widening the open space for travel.

Golden Wedding Observed For Mrs. Erickson's Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson and family spent the week end at Wilbur, Wash., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Anderson. On Sunday they attended the golden wedding anniversary party tendered Mrs. Erickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner. Eighty-five relatives and intimate friends were seated for the dinner given in honor of the couple at noon. During the afternoon a reception was held, with the events taking place at the Wilbur Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner's nine children and their families, with the exception of one son-in-law, numbering 47, were present for the fiftieth wedding date. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Wagner's attendants at their wedding of 50 years ago; the latter's sister of The Dalles, Ore., and brother of Newport, Wash. The anniversary date was Christmas day, but the party was given Sunday that more members of the family could be present.

Mrs. Fagnan In Hospital

Mrs. Fred Fagnan was taken to the Gritman hospital in Moscow Wednesday by ambulance to receive treatment for injuries sustained Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Fagnan were preparing to leave in their car, parked on the street near their apartment in the Burr building, when a car driven by Ray Liberg, home from Camp Carson, Colo., hit the Fagnan car on the left side. Mrs. Fagnan, according to her husband, was standing at the right of the car, and when it was pushed sidewise, she was thrown to the ground. Injuries sustained were to her right leg. Mr. Fagnan, who was in the car, was shaken up, but suffered no serious injuries. According to Roy Emerson the Liberg car carried insurance by the company which he represents, and the policy was obtained through the company's office at Coeur d'Alene.

GENESEE VALLEY NEWS

Well, Christmas has come and gone, bringing happiness to many and sorrowing and suffering to many others. How long are we going to let King Alcohol bring slaughter on our highways? We shudder at several hundred casualties on the battlefront, but we do nothing about the carnage on the highways every holiday. Are we going to quit having holidays or are we, as a Christian nation, getting up in arms to combat the cause of it? It is high time someone was waking up. We have two feet of snow on the ground and every snow plow in the country was pressed into service digging folks out. The temperature has been hovering near zero every night and there was some fog to add to the beauty of the landscape by coating every wire, twig and weed with a silver dress. There were many family parties and the Sunday school had its program Sunday evening for a smaller crowd than usual because of road conditions and zero weather. The usual songs and recitations were given by the children and the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Mona Rosenau, sang several beautiful anthems. After the program all retired to the social rooms where treats were enjoyed.
