Dear Grandpa,

Tomorrow is your Birthday and we hope you will have a nice big Birthday Cake with lots of candles on it. We wish we could be at home with you and take your picture.

We received the check from the Bank and thank you very much for it. Did you have a nice trip to Moscow? We are hoping you won't do anything really bad so you'll have to wear hand-cuffs again.

Suppose the farm work is getting about done and we hope you'll have lots of hay next summer so we can help haul it in.

How are your chickens doing now? Maybe they are taking a rest while the eggs are cheap. Hope they will do better when the weather gets warmer. It has been real cold here for a couple of days. The wind has been blowing so cold. It has been too cold to play outdoors much.

I would like to take a ride in your new red wagon-box; it would be fun to ride in it to Deary.

I made a tool bench today. It is good and solid, it will hold the ladies up. Some men are building an ice house right by our yard and they give me pieces of boards and things.

I take a nap every day and I'm growing fatter too. I weigh 40 pounds, and next month I will have a birthday too. Maybe Mother will get me a watch.

Next Sun. is Grandma Sibert's birthday and we are writing her a letter today too.

We wish you a very happy birthday and hope you will have many many more happy ones. Maybe next year I can write you a letter all by myself.

Lots of love and kisses to you and all the rest, from

George and Inga Mother.

P.S. When I get home I'll give you a lot of spankings.
