a just apprehension of injustice which man owes towards his neighbour.

We highly appreciate those Divine graces, which are of an early life; we bestow this public the penalty of such favor. It deserve that parents, and all a care of young children, may be opportunities to speak to them, in the Lord, of the convictions of Spirit, for sin, of the drawing of Father, unto holiness. We value, the blessedness of a tender susceptible of heavenly impression, that is in your power, because that which agitates the heart, that would lead from it.
The power of the nature, the duty of prayer. Continue in these sacred truths of the evangel, as the fruits in the Holy Spirit, not in waiting upon the and taking in faith, from time to
