

Idaho Wildlifer

A Publication of the Idaho Chapter of the Wildlife Society

THE IDAHO CHAPTER OF THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

Presents

A WORKSHOP ON RAPTORS AND ENERGY DEVELOPMENTS

January 25 & 26, 1980
Boise, Idaho

January 25

Powerline Electrocution of Raptors: Eric Peacock

Historic Overview of Raptor-Powerline Problems and Suggested Corrective Measures: Morlan Nelson

Impacts of Nuclear Energy Facility on Raptorial Birds: Dr. R. E. Fitzner

A Study of Wintering Bald Eagles to Assess Potential Impacts from a Proposed 230-kV Transmission Line: James R. Meyer

Overview on Public Utilities and the Environment: Richard Thorsell

A Study of Large Raptor Electrocution and Powerpole Utilization in Six Western States: Patrick C. Benson

Raptors and the BPA Transmission System: Jack M. Lee, Jr.

Golden Eagle Reproduction and Population Changes in Relation to Jackrabbit Cycles; Implications to Eagle Powerline Mortalities: Michael Kochert

January 26

Government Agencies and Industry Do Work Together: Wendell Smith and Allan Ancell

Osprey and Power Poles in Idaho: Lawrence J. Van Daele