

Idaho Wildlifer

A Publication of the Idaho Chapter of the Wildlife Society

THE IDAHO CHAPTER OF THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

Presents

A WORKSHOP ON RAPTORS AND ENERGY DEVELOPMENTS

January 25 & 26, 1980
Boise, Idaho

January 25

Powerline Electrocutation of Raptors: Eric Peacock

Historic Overview of Raptor-Powerline Problems and Suggested Corrective Measures: Morlan Nelson

Impacts of Nuclear Energy Facility on Raptorial Birds: Dr. R. E. Fitzner

A Study of Wintering Bald Eagles to Assess Potential Impacts from a Proposed 230-kV Transmission Line: James R. Meyer

Overview on Public Utilities and the Environment: Richard Thorsell

A Study of Large Raptor Electrocutation and Powerpole Utilization in Six Western States: Patrick C. Benson

Raptors and the BPA Transmission System: Jack M. Lee, Jr.

Golden Eagle Reproduction and Population Changes in Relation to Jackrabbit Cycles; Implications to Eagle Powerline Mortalities:
Michael Kochert

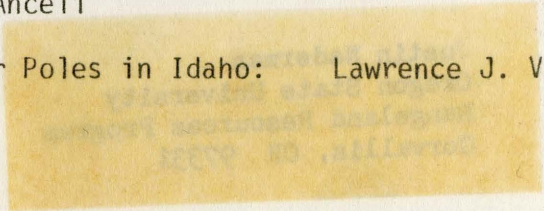

January 26

Government Agencies and Industry Do Work Together: Wendell Smith
and Allan Ancell

Osprey and Power Poles in Idaho: Lawrence J. Van Daele

IDAHO CHAPTER
of the
WILDLIFE SOCIETY
DEAN CARRIER, Pres.
3507 BUCKSKIN RD.
DOUR D'ALENE, ID 83814

Bulk Rate
Permit #53
Cour d'Alene, ID 838

January 26 (Con't)

Raptor Studies, Problems and Solutions on the Northern Tier Pipeline:
Dean Longrie and Caroline Vigos

Artificial Nest Structures and Grassland Raptors: Richard P. Howard

Nesting Platforms for Use with Transmission or Distribution Structures:
John Bridges

Location: State of Idaho Department of Highways Auditorium
3311 W. State Street, Boise, Idaho

Registration: January 25, 1980
8:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.

Registration Fee: $3.00

Pizza-Bear Party, Grizzly Bear Pizza Parlor (January 25)

IDAHO CHAPTER
of the
WILDLIFE SOCIETY
DEAN CARRIER, Pres.
3507 BUCKSKIN RD.
COEUR D'ALENE, ID 83814

Bulk Rate
Permit #53
Coeur d'Alene, ID 83814

Justin Naderman
Oregon State University
Rangeland Resources Program
Corvallis, OR 97331