ANDRUS HORNORED

Former secretary of the Interior Cecil Andrus was recently honored by the Idaho Chapter for his conservations achievements during his political career. While Governor of Idaho, Andrus promoted controlled resource and economic development that considered environmental impacts. His concern was to assure a continued high quality of life in Idaho. He was active in establishing the Snake River Birds of Prey Area south of Boise. He believes his major accomplishment while secretary of Interior was his active role in the passage of the Alaska Lands Bill in 1980.

Idaho Chapter President Jay Gore presented Mr. Andrus with one of the low numbered Society belt buckles. The presentation was made May 6th at a meeting of The Idaho Fish and Game and Ada County Conservation League. The meeting was attended by over 150 environmentally oriented people.
