

"Tug of War"

by
Hubert E. Quade

Hubert E. Quade
P.O. Box 248
Lewisville, ID 83431
Ph (208) 754-8879

The North American Goshawk raises from two to four young. Clutch size varies depending on the food supply that year. Nesting Goshawks are a sign of a healthy forest. The loss of mature forests to the logging industry is the biggest threat to the Goshawks survival.

There is a tug of war between man and the Goshawk for the forest.

Please deliver to: