Dear Alan:

As we discussed on the telephone, I am very pleased that you accepted my invitation to chair the Ted Trueblood Communication Award Committee at the annual meeting of the Idaho Chapter of The Wildlife Society. The meeting will be held at the Red Lion Downtowner on February 27-28, 1997. You may assemble committee members of your choice and 3-6 members are recommended. Your willingness to chair this important committee is greatly appreciated. If I can help in any way, please let me know. I will send you a draft agenda later next week so that you can see what you and your committee are in for! Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Gardner:

As Vice President of the Idaho Chapter of The Wildlife Society and Program Chair for our annual meeting, I would like to invite Alan Dohmen to serve as Chair of the Ted Trueblood Communications Award Committee. His task would be to organize 2 groups of 2-3 individuals to critically evaluate the presentations of every speaker, student and professional, at the annual meeting and to select the recipients of the awards honoring the best student and the best professional talks. Over the last decade the quality of the presentations, and the value of the annual meeting, have increased since this award process was implemented. The Idaho Chapter continues to rely on the active participation of professionals such as Alan to make annual meetings a success.

I hope that Alan can attend the meeting and participate as the committee chair. The meeting is scheduled for March 5th and 6th, 1998 at the University Inn in Moscow.

Sincerely,

Kerry P. Reese
