Welcome

TO THE FESTIVAL AT THE UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO!

Welcome to the nationally renowned Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival at the University of Idaho. Now in its 49th year, this signature University of Idaho event epitomizes the best of UI, offering opportunities for education, culture and community. The music, as always, promises to be outstanding. It is just as important that secondary students and young Vandal women and men are gaining insights and perspectives that will shape their lives. The festival is truly a “pathway to discovery” for thousands of people, an occasion to discover and celebrate the cultural and educational traditions that bring us together.

The Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival is a unique and multifaceted event, recognized for a tradition of excellence. The festival represents the first and only event within a public university to receive the National Medal of the Arts, our nation’s highest arts honor. It has also earned the Peter McGrath Community Engagement Exemplary Program Award for the learning, discovery and engagement that connects the festival and UI to the broader community.

Those awards speak volumes. Each of the young people whose paths have included the jazz festival would likely speak just as loudly about the value of their experience. The Jazz in Schools program continues its outreach program, reaching more than 8,000 students in dozens of schools across Idaho and in Washington. Here in Moscow, students will receive mentorship and instruction in workshops and seminars from faculty experts and visiting musicians. The lessons they receive – practice fundamentals, collaborate, innovate – will stay with them through their experiences in music, and will also translate to careers they may pursue outside of that realm.

Many UI students will volunteer at this year’s festival, too, a worthy experience in sacrifice and leadership. Lionel Hampton was a brilliant musician, but he was also a person committed to social justice, equality and community. Our university is fortunate to be a part of that legacy. While we are enjoying the sounds of the festival, we can remember that there are important moral lessons that art and culture have the power to help teach and strengthen.

The “Pathways to Discovery” theme is embodied in this year’s eclectic line-up of artists. The musicians contribute a range of styles over the four days of the festival, from pop and rock, to rhythm and blues, to classical and big band. Our own jazz groups have a chance to shine, too, taking the stage with leading lights of the music world.

As we look back on nearly half a century of festivals, we have wonderful memories and traditions. The sense of purpose, the emphasis on collaboration, and the spirit of community offered by the festival has enriched lives for multiple generations now. That heritage helps us look ahead to the bright future of this half-century-old festival. Coming together once again as a community of Vandals and music lovers, we look forward to the pathway we’ll discover, together.

Sincerely,

Chuck Staben
President

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR, LIONEL HAMPTON JAZZ FESTIVAL

Dear Music Loving Friends,

We are celebrating our 49th jazz festival and we are so glad that you are joining our party! Here at the University of Idaho, the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival is proud to bring you the best to be found in jazz performances, education and the uplifting camaraderie that one finds when jazz “family members” get together. All of that is code-speak for: Get ready to have some serious fun!!

On Wednesday, we're proud to present Cuban drummer/percussionist/historian, Ignacio Berroa. Mr. Berroa will add his Latin Jazz knowledge and sounds to the Festival All Star quartet: Josh Nelson, piano; Graham Dechter, guitar; Katie Thiroux, bass; Kevin Kanner, drums. Vern Sielert will continue the evening in a big way—in a Big Band way, with the Lionel Hampton School of Music Jazz Band 1. Joining them will be the wonderful tenor sax sounds of Dave Hagelganz. We're also happy as we could be to invite back Dee Daniels to join in!

Thursday will allow you to visit various jazz venues and take in a variety of sounds. The first of our three world-class artists is pianist, Justin Kaufflin. Recognized as a major voice in the young jazz world, Justin has received even wider recognition as a result of the film featuring him being mentored by Clark Terry. This highly acclaimed movie, Keep On Keepin' On, is produced by Quincy Jones. Elsewhere, Dee Daniels will “take” and “own” the stage! She will be featured with her quartet as well as a UI vocal choir! The third venue will allow Ignacio Berroa to go deeply into his Cuban roots; roots of a music that rose to prominence here in the U.S. thanks to the great Dizzy Gillespie. Ignacio promises to also share enlightening stories about this rich history.

Friday brings us to a couple of very special reunions. 40 years ago, Monty Alexander made an historic recording with a trio consisting of Jeff Hamilton on drums and (gulp!) John Clayton on bass. They will create a program for us that allows them to add the interim life experiences they've had to the swing, Reggae and calypso styles they have enjoyed through the years. No doubt some numbers from that recording, MONTREUX ALEXANDER, will also be explored.

The second reunion of the evening will be presented by Tower of Power. They really should be called Tower of Powerful! They've been here before and are overjoyed to again be on the Kibbie Dome stage. They will rhythm you, blues you and funk you, so get your groovin' and movin' shoes on!

Our Saturday show is the perfect way to bring the festival to a close by beginning with the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Big Band. Featured with the band will be vibraphonist Warren Wolf. His mastery of the vibes bathes in Lionel Hampton's shadow and propels the music into the 21st century. Part of the “way we roll” at the festival is to bring new faces to the stage, artists that we feel you should know. Barbara Morrison is a vocalist who sings from the depths of her soul. She is a national treasure who lives in Los Angeles and is constantly being featured in clubs and concert halls here and abroad.

The second half of Saturday evening will feature the popular swing band, Cherry Poppin' Daddies. Put on your Swing Dance shoes, as they present their modern take on classic swing sounds!

Jazz Pathways To Discovery is the perfect theme for this year. It speaks to the importance of learning, absorbing and growing, just some of what is experienced here at the University of Idaho's Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival.

We welcome you and thank you for your support. My thanks also go out to our staff, Jeanine Berglund, Steve Remington and their team, and the many volunteers who make it all possible.

Please enjoy this 49th year of celebrating jazz!!

Your fan,

John Clayton, Artistic Director

The International Jazz Collections of the University of Idaho Library was established in 1992 with the donation of historical materials from jazz legend Lionel Hampton. The Collections are a growing repository dedicated to the preservation, promotion, and study of one of the world's great art forms.

Now the primary historical jazz archive in the Pacific Northwest, the Collections include the papers of vibraphonist Lionel Hampton, jazz critic Leonard Feather, and trombonist Al Grey, as well as items from the collections of vocalist Joe Williams, trumpeters Dizzy Gillespie, Doc Cheatham, Conte Candoli, and Pete Candoli, pianist Jane Jarvis, bassist Ray Brown, saxophonist Buddy Tate, along with the digitized scores of Gerry Mulligan. The Collections also serve as the official archive of the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival.

Access to the "International Jazz Collections-IJC" finding aids is through the University of Idaho Library catalog. More information is available by calling (208) 885-0845 or emailing libspec@uidaho.edu. Hours are 9:00 am to 4:00 pm Monday through Friday during the academic year, limited hours during the summer.

AFTER HOURS PERFORMANCES

Part of the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival's commitment to community includes strengthening the involvement of the local businesses in the festival, providing opportunities for local players to interact with visiting festival musicians, and offering "after festival hours" performance venues where the music can continue past regular concert hours. Towards that end, in 2009, the festival began coordinating duos, trios and quartets to play in Moscow-area restaurants, cafes and clubs.

This year, we're proud to encourage those of the appropriate age and disposition (no sleepy heads!) to attend the many After Hours jam sessions at one or more of the following locations:

Legacy

Now in its 49th year, the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival keeps the magic, music and spirit of jazz alive for generations to come by inspiring students, teachers and artists of all ages and abilities to excel in their appreciation, understanding and performance of jazz.

Throughout its history, the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival has been dedicated to enhancing musical opportunities and educational experiences for young artists. It strives to connect students to some of the best jazz musicians and educators in the world today through evaluated student performances, artist and educator workshops and clinics, the Jazz in the Schools program and world-class evening concerts.

As a National Medal of Arts recipient the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival is following in some very big footsteps— including those of Lionel Hampton who was awarded the medal in 1996. The National Medal of Arts, the nation's most prestigious arts award, was presented to the festival in November 2007 by President George W. Bush. The University of Idaho is the first public university to receive the award since it was created by Congress in 1984.

The first University of Idaho Jazz Festival took place in 1967 with a dozen student groups and one guest artist. The festival continued to grow from there, erupting onto the national stage in 1981 when students and spectators packed in to hear Ella Fitzgerald.

In 1984, the festival's most important relationship took shape when Lionel Hampton joined the excitement in Moscow. Inspired by the enthusiasm of the students, Hamp pledged his support to the festival. This was the beginning of a longstanding partnership between Hampton, Emeritus Executive Director Lynn J. Skinner and the Festival. In 1985, the festival took on Hampton's name and became the first jazz festival named for an African-American jazz musician.

Lionel Hampton was one of the most extraordinary musicians of the 20th century, and his artistic achievements symbolize the impact jazz music has had on our culture. Given his first drum lessons by a Dominican nun at the Holy Rosary Academy of Wisconsin, Lionel Hampton evolved into a well-respected and well-developed musician.

In 1930, Hampton was called to a recording session with Louie Armstrong, and during a break Hampton walked over to a vibraphone and started to play. He ended up playing the vibes on a song during the session, and the song became a hit. Hampton had introduced a new voice to jazz, and he soon became the “King of the Vibes.”

Hampton went on to create more than 200 works including the jazz standards “Flying Home,” “Evil Gal Blues” and “Midnight Sun.” He also composed the major symphonic work, “King David Suite.”

Hampton began working with the University of Idaho in the early 1980s to establish his dream for the future of music education. In 1985, the University named its jazz festival after him, and in 1987 the University’s music school was named the Lionel Hampton School of Music.

Over the next 20 years, the University of Idaho developed an unprecedented relationship with Hampton to ensure his vision lives on through the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, the school of music and the International Jazz Collections. In 2002 Lionel Hampton passed away, but his Legacy lives on.

In 2007, John Clayton, renowned bassist, arranger, composer, jazz educator and long-time Festival friend, joined the Festival as Artistic Director. In 2010 Steven Remington joined the Festival as Executive Director, bringing with him twenty-five years of experience in event and arts management. Now under the leadership of John Clayton and Steven Remington, the festival is building on the success of the past and we expect nothing less than excellence in the future.

Opportunities ARE Everywhere

The Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival is proud to be a leading provider of jazz music education to thousands of students from across the nation and Canada. Every year the festival offers an array of workshops, student performance clinics and concerts to give students the skills to enhance their knowledge, understanding and appreciation of jazz. In February, a multitude of acclaimed master musicians, educators and artist educators from around the world come together to give students and directors a priceless experience in music education.

Workshops

As students gather in Moscow during the week of the festival a host of clinics and workshops are offered around town. Each workshop presents one of the festival's special guest artists, educators or artist educators.

Workshop participants have the chance to hear main stage artists play, tell stories and demonstrate the techniques they use every day. At some workshops, presenting artists invite students to perform on the stage with them, so be prepared! Bring your music, instrument and voice to take advantage of these rare and exciting moments. Don't forget your questions. This is your chance to get up-close and personal with the finest musicians jazz has to offer.

The workshops provide instruction, handouts and resources for you to improve your playing, singing and understanding of jazz. You can learn about jazz history, world jazz influencers, being a better director and how to use music technology. Some of the workshops are held in a master class format allowing you to bring your instrument. In the hands-on workshops, you will be a full participant experiencing instructions and techniques first-hand.

You can engage in the physical side of the music by participating in one of many dance clinics that will prepare you to dance the night away at the Saturday concert.

Learn more about the University of Idaho by participating in a campus tour or department workshop!

Student Performance Clinics

What would a jazz festival be without the performances? The festival offers students the opportunity to take to the stage and astound audiences with their talent and enthusiasm. During the day, students perform in ensembles, combos and as soloists. The festival staff has chosen some of the best performance evaluation clinicians to listen to student performances and provide feedback and tips for improvement.

Young Artist Concerts

In the late afternoons, the Young Artist Concerts allow clinician-chosen ensembles to perform on the main stage to the accolades of peers and audience members. Thursday will feature the elementary, junior high, middle school and college performers. High school vocalist ensembles will show what they've got on Friday, and high school instrumentalist ensembles will perform on-stage Saturday.

Hamp's Club

Hamp's Club is the festival's newest tradition of honoring the excellence and excitement of our solo student performers. This new venue gives the day's solo performers the opportunity to feel like professionals as they take to their very own stage. Hamp's Club gives students the chance to feel what it's like to play the clubs.

Meet the Artists

Wednesday ARTISTS

PRESENTED BY AVISTA CORP

IGNACIO BERROA

Ignacio Berroa has been recognized by many as one of the greatest drummers of our times. His numerous contributions to the American music scene have earned him a place among a selected group of artists known to have set new musical trends for the 20th century.

Jazz Legend Dizzy Gillespie best defined Berroa as: "... the only Latin drummer in the world in the history of American music that intimately knows both worlds: his native Afro-Cuban music as well as jazz..."

Highly respected among his peers, Berroa's musicianship and versatility has enabled him to build a successful career by gaining the recognition of some of the most important artists in the business.

Berroa was born in Havana Cuba on July 8, 1953. He began his musical education at age 11 at the National School of Arts and subsequently at Havana's National Conservatory, beginning his professional career in 1970. By 1975 Berroa had become Cuba's most sought after drummer. He left Cuba during the Mariel Boatlift, then moved to New York in June 1980 where he started working with musicians such as Chico O'Farrill and Mario Bauza who recommended him to Dizzy Gillespie. In August 1981 Dizzy Gillespie invited Berroa to join his quartet.

Berroa also took part in all of the important bands Gillespie assembled during that decade such as: The Dizzy Gillespie 70th Anniversary Big Band, The Dizzy Gillespie All Stars Big Band and the Grammy Award winner, United Nation Orchestra. This relation lasted until Dizzy's death.

As an author, he made his mark with the release of the instructional video: "Mastering the Art of Afro - Cuban Drumming" under Warner Bros Publications and two books: "Groovin' in Clave" & "A New Way of Groovin'" under PlayinTime productions.

His first album as a leader, "Codes," released under Blue Note Records, was nominated for a Grammy in 2007. "Codes" also won a Danish Music Award in 2007 as best International Jazz Album. He was honored by inclusion in the 2011 Modern Drummer Magazine and Blue Note Records Mp3 entitled "Jazz Drumming Legends". Berroa received a Lifetime Achievement Award from The Montreal Drum Festival in 2011.

Berroa has recorded and played with musicians of the stature of: McCoy Tyner, Chick Corea, Wynton Marsalis, Freddie Hubbard, Clark Terry, Jackie McLean, Jimmy Heath, James Moody, Slide Hampton, Michael Brecker, Joe Lovano, Milt Jackson, Jaco Pastorius, Ron Carter, Charlie Haden, Tito Puente, Lalo Schifrin, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, David Sanchez, Danilo Perez, Chico Bouarque, Ivan Lins, Joao Bosco, Lenny Andrade, Carnegie Hall Big Band, Lincoln Center Orchestra, WDR Big Band to name a few. Berroa's association with these artists and the musical trends they have set makes him a part of jazz history.

DAVE HAGELGANZ

Dave Hagelganz has performed, recorded and toured with many top jazz artists including Mal Waldron, Claudio Roditi, Terence Blanchard, Marvin "Smitty" Smith, Kenny Drew Junior, Mulgrew Miller, David Friesen, Ben Wolfe, Nancy King, Chris Botti, Diane Shuur, Clark Terry, Lew Tabackin and Don Menza. As a college student, Dave Hagelganz was the overall winner in the jazz soloist category of the 1989 Down Beat international student music awards. Since then, his music has been heard around the world, receiving praise in top jazz publications, including Downbeat, JAZZIZ, Jazz Times and Japan's Swing Journal. In 2014, Dave's self-titled quartet CD featuring his original compositions was released internationally on the peer-reviewed WSU Recordings label. Dave has taught at the University of South Florida, Whitworth College, the University of Idaho and currently teaches saxophone and jazz studies at Washington State University in Pullman, Washington. He is in demand throughout the country as a guest artist, clinician and adjudicator.

VERN SIELERT

Vern Sielert is assistant professor of trumpet and jazz studies at the University of Idaho. From 2001-2006 he was Director of Jazz Ensembles at the University of Washington, and he has also served on the faculties of Baylor University, Illinois State University and Millikin University. Sielert has also directed jazz ensembles at Normal Community West High School in Normal, Illinois. He holds BM degrees in jazz studies and music education, a MM degree in jazz studies from the University of North Texas and a DMA in trumpet performance from the University of Illinois.

Sielert has been a student of Jack Adams, Keith Johnson, Don Jacoby, Michael Ewald and Ray Sasaki. He has performed with artists such as Rosemary Clooney, Freddie Hubbard, The Spinners, The O'Jays, Bobby Shew, Don Lanphere, Gerald Wilson and Ralph Carmichael, and in such diverse settings as the Illinois Symphony Orchestra, the Illinois Chamber Orchestra, the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, Norwegian Cruise Lines and Walt Disney World. Sielert was also a member of the University of North Texas One O'Clock Lab Band, which has recorded several of his compositions and arrangements.

Sielert maintains an active performing schedule with groups such as the Jim Knapp Orchestra, Emerald City Jazz Orchestra, Seattle Repertory Jazz Orchestra and the Jay Thomas Big Band. He can be heard on recent recordings by Kelly Wright, the Emerald City Jazz Orchestra and Phil Kelly's Northwest Prevailing Winds. Sielert is also an active clinician and adjudicator, and he has appeared at schools and jazz festivals throughout the US and at conferences of the Washington Music Educators, MENC Northwest Division and the International Association for Jazz Education.

His jazz trumpet solo transcriptions have appeared regularly in the Journal of the International Trumpet Guild since 1998, and he was host of the 2005 Carmine Caruso International Jazz Trumpet Solo Competition at the University of Washington.

GRAHAM DECHTER

An accomplished guitarist, composer and arranger, Graham Dechter plays with the kind of swinging authority and seasoned maturity that belies his young age. The young Los Angeles native, a member of the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra since he was 19, shows a deep reverence for the jazz guitar tradition in his warm-toned renditions of ballads, bossas, bebop and blues. A formidable soloist and consummate accompanist, he imbues standards with rare enthusiasm and an inherent bluesiness while carving out his own path with several affecting original compositions.

Born into a musical family -- his mother Maureen came from a musical theater tradition while his father Brad is a renowned orchestrator and composer who has worked on over 250 film scores and arranged for artists such as Johnny Mathis and Barbra Streisand. "My dad's first passion was jazz," Graham recalls. "When I was a little kid he would play me all these great recordings by Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Nat King Cole. So growing up, I became very accustomed to that sound and vibe." Originally a classical violinist and composer, Dechter had an eye-opening experience in high school while taking an improvisation class with bassist Marshall Hawkins at California's Idyllwild Arts Academy. As he told Just Jazz Guitar magazine: "Marshall is the real thing. He's played with everyone from Miles Davis to Shirley Horn and Phineas Newborn, Jr. So getting the opportunity to study with someone who was that close to the history of the music was life-changing for me. If it weren't for Marshall, I wouldn't be doing what I'm doing today."

In 2005, after completing his first year at the Eastman School of Music, Dechter was invited to join the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra. He subsequently returned to Los Angeles, where he began studying with Larry Koonse. Here is what Koonse, a respected and in-demand Los Angeles-based jazz and studio guitarist, had to say about Dechter: "It's hard to fathom how someone at his age can possess so much knowledge and ability on the instrument. He has it all -- chops, harmonic depth, deep swing, melodic inventiveness and serious arranging skills. He is only at the beginning of his journey in becoming a major force in the global jazz community. I look forward to watching his journey unfold."

KATIE THIROUX

Katie Thiroux is a bassist and vocalist of outstanding talent and determination. Coming from a musical family in Los Angeles, she was surrounded by music; beginning with violin lessons at age 4 then switching to the acoustic bass at age

8. While continuing her studies on bass, Katie explored both jazz and classical vocal styles; landing principal roles in the LA Opera and Opera Pacifica by the age of 10. Captivated by an early recording of Lionel Hampton, Katie was driven to pursue her love for jazz and began studying privately with jazz vocalist Tierney Sutton at the age of 12.

After receiving her Master's of Music in Jazz Studies in 2012, Katie has been active on both coasts with appearances at the 2012 WGBO NYC Jazz Festival, featured performer and special duo performance with John Clayton at the Newport Beach Jazz Party, Los Angeles Jazz Institute Festival, frequent shows at the historic Lighthouse in Hermosa Beach and in 2013, she was awarded a Kennedy Center Betty Carter Jazz Ahead Fellowship in Washington, D.C.

In 2013, Katie formed The Katie Thiroux Quartet with guitarist Graham Dechter, saxophonist Roger Neumann and drummer Matt Witek. Working together as often as their schedules allow, her group's most recent effort is an album that was released in February 2015. The recording was produced by Grammy Award winning drummer Jeff Hamilton, engineered by Grammy Award winner Steve Genewick and mastered at Capitol Records by Grammy Award winner Ron McMaster. Jeff Hamilton remarks, "There's no room for weaklings in this business and Katie's determination is something that I admire. She's doing everything she needs to do."

Having performed at jazz festivals in the United States, Mexico, Germany, Finland, Serbia and Singapore as both a leader and a sideman, Thiroux often incorporates workshops for students and audiences. It is her passionate belief that exposure to jazz history, culture and styles is vital in keeping the music alive and thriving. In addition to work with her quartet Katie has been heard with pianists Larry Fuller, Bill Cunliffe, Geri Allen, Helen Sung, Tamir Hendelman and Eric Reed, trumpeters Brian Lynch and Terrell Stafford, saxophonists Jeff Clayton, Charles McPhearson and Ken Peplowski, guitarists Mundell Lowe and Larry Koonse, drummers Lewis Nash and Jeff Hamilton, and vocalists Niki Harris and Tierney Sutton. Katie's swinging bass, clear vocals and inspired instrumental arrangements are reflective of her musical idols: Ray Brown, Oscar Peterson, Chet Baker and Anita O'Day. Katie Thiroux's knowledge, perseverance and fervor for the music make her a rising force in today's scene.

KEVIN KANNER

Kevin Kanner, a native of Southern California, has already amassed a large number of jazz credits including recordings with Paul Anka, Bill Holman (including 2006 and 2007 Grammy® nominated recordings), Gilbert Castellanos, Melissa Morgan, Annie Sellick, Gail Wynters, The Bud Shank Big Band, Josh Nelson and Michael Buble.

Kevin has also toured and performed with many artists and including John Pizzarelli, Maureen McGovern, The Gilbert Castellanos Quintet, The Bill Holman Band, The Gerald Clayton Trio, The Clayton Brothers, The Clayton/Hamilton Jazz Orchestra, Lee Konitz, Bob Brookmeyer, Larry Goldings, Charles McPhearson, Benny Green, Bob Hurst, Peter Washington, Terrell Stafford, Russell Malone, Stefon Harris, Johnny Mandel, Larry Koonse, The Eric Reed Trio, Mary Stallings, Bill Henderson, Anat Cohen, Dominic Farnacci, Carolyn Leonhart, Larry Goldings, Anthony Wilson Nonet and Trio, Laurence Hobgood, Bob Hurst, Joe Magnarelli, Helen Sung, Monty Alexander, Houston Person, Wycliffe Gordon, Patrick Cornelius, Randy Napoleon, Walter Smith III, James Morrison and many more.

In addition to the vast amount of sideman work, Kevin has also led perhaps the most well remembered jazz jam session in recent Los Angeles history at the historic venue, the Mint. This session, called Groove Pocket, featured prominent underground hip hop DJ stars as well as a weekly band that over the course of six years consisted of, Ambrose Akinmusier, Tim Green, Gerald Clayton, Harish Ragahavan, Joe Sanders, Larry Fuller, James Westfall, Charles Aitura, Hamilton Price, Josh Nelson and Matt Poitano.

JOSH NELSON

Born and raised in Southern California, Josh Nelson maintains an active schedule as a pianist, composer, touring and recording artist, and educator.

Josh has recorded on countless albums, films, and television, but also focuses on his own projects: Anticipation (2004), Let it Go (2007), and I Hear a Rhapsody (2009). Discoveries (2011) signaled a change in artistic direction with the unveiling of "The Discovery Project", an exploration into the world of live music with interactive visual multi-media components. His latest album Exploring Mars (2015) ventures to the Red Planet.

He has already performed with some of the most respected names in jazz, including Natalie Cole, Benny Golson, Sheila Jordan, Jeff Hamilton, John Clayton, Richard Galliano, Seamus Blake, Matt Wilson, Chris Potter, Dayna Stephens, Sara Gazarek, Lewis Nash, Greg Hutchinson, and George Mraz. Josh studied with pianist Cecilia Coleman at Long Beach State.

Josh's compositions and performances have earned him many awards, scholarships, and accolades over the years, some of which include the Louis Armstrong Award, the John Philip Sousa Award, and as a semi-finalist in the prestigious 2006 Thelonious Monk International Jazz Piano Competition.

JUSTIN KAUFLIN

Award-winning jazz pianist, Justin Kauflin began his musical journey at age 4 with Suzuki violin (Suzanne Schreck), adding piano a few years later with Virginia Koun. By age 6, he was performing in concerts, nursing homes and weddings, eventually becoming concertmaster for several orchestras. However, it was during this time that he also endured numerous trials, particularly losing total vision from exudative retinopathy. He adjusted by learning 5 grades of Braille, cane mobility and, after a decade of classical violin and piano, switched to jazz piano at the Governor's School for Performing Arts. He began performing jazz professionally at age 15, most notably with the Jae Sinnett Trio.

After graduating in 2004, he received a Presidential scholarship to attend William Paterson University in New Jersey. At WPU, he was taken under the wings of legendary trumpeter, Clark Terry and performed in the Clark Terry Ensemble. He also had the tremendous privilege of learning from his hero, the late Mulgrew Miller, as well as Harold Mabern and the late James Williams.

In 2008, Justin graduated summa cum laude with an Honor's degree in Music, moved to NYC and, at age 23 produced, led, composed and performed on his first CD Introducing Justin Kauflin. His personnel included high school buddies Billy Williams, Phil Kuehn, Etan Haziza and Tim Green.

From 2011, the Justin Kauflin Trio headlined regularly at Havana Nights Jazz Club in Virginia Beach, where he also served as House Pianist. He performed around the country with his own trio or with the Jae Sinnett Trio, won the VSA International Young Soloist Award; was voted "Jazz Artist of the Year" in VEER Magazine, and selected as semifinalist in the Thelonious Monk International Jazz Piano Competition where it was noted:

"Among the few exceptions was Justin Kauflin, whose soloing had more shape, heft and narrative rigor than most of his peers."

– Gene Seymour, Eye on the Arts, NY

Simultaneously during this time, Justin's relationship with mentor Clark Terry was chronicled by Absolute Clay Productions' Al Hicks and Adam Hart. Five years in the making, the resultant documentary, Keep On Keepin' On, won both Heineken Audience and Best New Director Awards at Tribeca Film Festival and released in theaters through RADIUS-TWC. Keep On Keepin' On was Oscar Shortlisted for best documentary (2015 Academy Awards).

Justin was subsequently signed by legendary producer and music icon, Quincy Jones for management, and in 2013 and 2014, was part of Quincy Jones' World Tours which traveled to Montreux, Switzerland; Vienne, France; Seoul, Korea; Tokyo and Hiroshima, Japan.

Throughout 2014, in addition to Keep On Keepin' On screening performances throughout the USA, Justin worked with Quincy Jones on his second full-length CD and debut album for Jazz Village, DEDICATION.

Between and during tours, Justin is working on new ideas and compositions with the aim of releasing a third album in 2016.

DEE DANIELS

Whether accompanying her self at the piano, fronting a trio, big band or symphony, Dee Daniels' musical career is as varied as her four-octave vocal range is thrilling. She is a unique talent who transcends musical borders when she brings her jazz styling, infused with gospel and blues flavoring, to the stage. One critic says, "Daniels' voice has a hypnotic quality, delivering an impressive range that gives the romantic songs and verse of 50 years ago new life and raw emotion."

Though Dee has a B.A. Degree in Art Education and taught high school art for a year in Seattle, she quickly realized that her true calling was music. Her vocal style was born in her stepfather's church choir in Oakland, California, refined through the R&B era, polished during a five-year stay in The Netherlands and Belgium from 1982 to 1987, and brought to full fruition upon her return to North America. During those years to the present, she has performed and/or recorded with many 'Legends of Jazz' including Benny Green, Houston Person, John Clayton, Russell Malone, Wycliffe Gordon, Cyrus Chestnut, Clark Terry, Ken Peplowski, Kenny Barron, Bill Mays, Jeff Clayton, Benny Golson, Grady Tate, Toots Thielemans, Jeff Hamilton, Monty Alexander, Steve Wilson, Marvin Stamm, Lewis Nash, Kenny Washington, Norman Simmons, Ben Riley, Dennis MacKrel, Steve Davis, Martin Wind, Bucky Pizzarelli, Helen Sung, Christian McBride, David Young - to mention a few.

Career highlights include: Teaching at Queens College (NY) 2013 - 2014, being named Artistic Director, in September 2011, of the Frank DeMiero Jazz Festival - a camp dedicated to Jazz Vocals with around 60 participating schools; a nomination for Atlanta Theater's 2010 Suzi Bass Award; the 2009 receipt of an Honorary Doctorate Degree of Fine Arts and 2008 President's Award, both from Capilano University; 2003 recipient of the prestigious Commemorative Medal for the Golden Jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and induction into the University of Montana's School of Fine Arts Hall of Honor as well as a 1997 University of Montana Distinguished Alumni Award; a 2002 inductee into the BC Entertainment Hall of Fame with a plaque installed on Vancouver's Granville Street Walk of Fame; and a command performance for the King and Queen of Belgium's 25th Wedding Anniversary. Her international career includes performances in twelve African countries, Australia, South America, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, Japan, throughout North America, and many countries within Europe.

Dee has cultivated a diverse career that has also seen her on theatre stages including the 2009 premiere of New York choreographer, Twyla Tharp's, new musical, Come Fly Away, and, as an inspirational speaker, with a keynote address being delivered at the 2009 Women's CEO & Senior Management Summit in Toronto.

With the creation of her Symphony Pops programs, Great Ladies of Swing, The Soul of Ray: The Music of Ray Charles, and A Night Out With the Boys, Dee has enjoyed sharing stages with symphony orchestras across the USA and Canada. She has toured with the Nord Netherlands Symphony Orchestra; performed Songs From Disney Movies with the Munich Radio Orchestra; recorded her Wish Me Love CD with The Metropole Orchestra of Holland; and recorded the Holiday Pops CD with the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. She is the guest vocalist on the 2006 Crossover Xmas and the 2007 Crossover Xmas: The Sound Goes Big CDs recorded with the Philharmonie Baden-Baden of Germany.

A respected vocal clinician, adjudicator, and mentor, Dee presents clinics, workshops, and master classes around the world. In 2013, she created the Dee Daniels Vocal Jazz Workshop, a weeklong workshop in Sitka, AK. In 2001, she established the Dee Daniels Jazz Vocal Scholarship at the Capilano University in North Vancouver, BC. She served on the advisory board of the Lionel Hampton International Jazz Festival from 2002 - 2008, and has received several awards for her contribution in the field of music performance, music education, and community service.

IGNACIO BERROA QUARTET

The Quartet consists of Ignacio Berroa on drums, Ricardo Rodriguez on bass, Martin Bejerano on piano and Mark Shim on tenor saxophone.

See Berroa's full bio on page 18.

MONTY ALEXANDER

In a career spanning five decades, pianist Monty Alexander has built a reputation exploring and bridging the worlds of American jazz, popular song, and the music of his native Jamaica, finding in each a sincere spirit of musical expression. In the process, he has performed and recorded with artists from every corner of the musical universe and entertainment world: Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Ray Brown, Dizzy Gillespie, Sonny Rollins, Clark Terry, Quincy Jones, Ernest Ranglin, Barbara Hendricks, Bill Cosby, Bobby McFerrin, Sly Dunbar, and Robbie Shakespeare, among others.

Born on D-Day (June 6, 1944) and raised in Kingston, Jamaica, he took his first piano lessons at age six, although he is largely self-taught. As a teenager, he witnessed concerts by Louis Armstrong and Nat "King" Cole at Kingston's Carib Theater. These artists had a profound effect on Alexander's aspirations. He formed Monty and the Cyclones in the late 1950s and also recorded on sessions with the musicians who would catapult Jamaican music to international recognition as The Skatalites (Bob Marley's first backing band).

Alexander and his family came to the United States at the end of 1961. Less than two years later, while playing in Las Vegas with Art Mooney's orchestra, he caught the eye of New York City club owner Jilly Rizzo and his friend, Frank Sinatra. Rizzo hired the young pianist to work in his club, Jilly's, where he accompanied Sinatra and others. Jazz's greatest luminaries welcomed Alexander to their "musical fraternity" in the mid-1960s. Among these earliest enthusiasts for his playing were none other than Duke Ellington, Count Basie, and Miles Davis.

Monty Alexander's collaborations span multiple genres, styles, and generations. His projects have been as varied as assisting Natalie Cole in her tribute album to her father, Nat "King" Cole in 1991 (the resulting album, Unforgettable, won seven Grammy awards), performing George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" under the direction of Bobby McFerrin at the Verbier Festival in Switzerland, and recording the piano track for the film score of Clint Eastwood's Bird, a movie about the life of jazz titan Charlie Parker. Alexander maintains a rigorous touring schedule worldwide, playing in jazz clubs, concert halls and playing at international Jazz Festivals in the USA and across continents; from Europe to Asia; in Montreux, Switzerland; Johannesburg and Cape Town, South Africa; and Japan, Russia, New Zealand, Australia, etc.

In 2008, with the invitation of Wynton Marsalis, Alexander conceived and directed the acclaimed program Lords of the West Indies at Jazz at Lincoln Center, broadcast nationally on BETJ. Alexander returned to Jazz at Lincoln Center in 2009 with a new program, Harlem Kingston Express in which he merged classic Jazz with rhythms and vibrations of his native Jamaica.

In the winter of 2008 American singer and icon, Tony Bennett personally invited Monty to record as the featured pianist on his Christmas album, A Swinging Christmas, with the Count Basie Orchestra.

Two collections were released in 2011 that capture the excitement of Monty Alexander's live performances around the world: Uplift, a trio album on JLP Records, and Harlem-Kingston Express on Motema Music. Harlem Kingston Express: Live! was singled out by both the recording industry and fans and received a Grammy award nomination in 2012.

Between Uplift and Harlem-Kingston Express: Live! Monty Alexander has officially dominated the US radio charts with three number 1 spots in 2011, as not only Uplift remained at number 1 for several weeks but Harlem-Kingston Express: Live! rose to number 1 on Jazz charts and on World Music charts concurrently.

In the summer of 2012 Monty Alexander was awarded the prestigious German Jazz Trophy, "A Life for Jazz" and in November 2012 he received the Caribbean American Heritage Luminary Award from the Institute of Caribbean Studies in Washington, D.C.

JOHN CLAYTON

John Clayton is a natural born multitasker. The multiple roles in which he excels -- composer, arranger, conductor, producer, educator, and yes, extraordinary bassist -- garner him a number of challenging assignments and commissions. With a Grammy on his shelf and eight additional nominations, artists such as Diana Krall, Paul McCartney, Regina Carter, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Gladys Knight, Queen Latifah, and Charles Aznavour vie for a spot on his crowded calendar.

He began his bass career in elementary school and in 1969, at the age of 16, he enrolled in bassist Ray Brown's jazz class at UCLA, beginning a close relationship that lasted more than three decades. After graduating from Indiana University's School of Music with a degree in bass performance in 1975, he toured with the Monty Alexander Trio (1975-77), the Count Basie Orchestra (1977-79), and settled in as principal bassist with the Amsterdam Philharmonic Orchestra in Amsterdam, Netherlands (1980-85). He was also a bass instructor at The Royal Conservatory, The Hague, Holland from 1980-83.

In 1985 he returned to California, co-founded the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra in 1986, rekindled the The Clayton Brothers quintet, and taught part-time bass at Cal State Long Beach, UCLA and USC. In 1988 he joined the faculty of the University of Southern California Thornton School of Music, where he taught until 2009. Now, in addition to individual clinics, workshops, and private students as schedule permits, John also directs the educational components associated with the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, Centrum Festival, and Vail Jazz Party.

Career highlights include arranging the "Star Spangled Banner" for Whitney Houston's performance at Super Bowl 1990 (the recording went platinum), playing bass on Paul McCartney's CD "Kisses On The Bottom," arranging and playing bass with Yo-Yo Ma and Friends on "Songs of Joy and Peace," and arranging playing and conducting the 2009 CD "Charles Aznavour With the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra," and numerous recordings with Diana Krall, the Clayton Brothers, the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra, Milt Jackson, Monty Alexander and many others.

JEFF HAMILTON

Originality is what versatile drummer Jeff Hamilton brings to the groups he performs with and is one of the reasons why he is constantly in demand. Jeff's recording, It's Hamilton Time (Lake Street Records), received enormous airplay while reaching #5 on the Gavin national jazz radio chart. His trio's second release, Jeff Hamilton Trio-LIVE! (MONS) was nominated by critics for best jazz recording in Germany in 1997. The trio's second MONS release was entitled, Hands On. Hamilton House-Live at Steamers (MONS) was the trio's 2000 release. As well as recording and performing throughout the world, Jeff also teaches, arranges and composes.

Jeff has received rave reviews for his dynamic drumming. David Badham of Jazz Journal International stated in his review of the Clayton/Hamilton Jazz Orchestra's release, Heart and Soul (Capri): "This is one of the finest modern big band issues I've heard...This is undoubtedly due to Jeff Hamilton, a most driving and technically accomplished drummer." Jeff is equally at home in smaller formats. He is an integral part of the Clayton Brothers and Herb Wong stated in his review of their release, The Music (Capri), in JazzTimes: "Always evident is...the colorful work of the rhythm section featuring...the sensitivity and sizzle of Jeff Hamilton's seasoned drums." Leonard Feather of the Los Angeles Times described Jeff and his work with Oscar Peterson as "the Los Angeles-based drummer whose intelligent backing and spirited solo work met Peterson's customarily high standards..." In his review of the Ray Brown Trio in the Denver Post, Jeff Bradley stated that Jeff "brought the crowd to its feet with his amazing hand-drumming, soft and understated yet as riveting and rewarding as any drum solo you've heard."

Born in Richmond, Indiana, Jeff grew up listening to his parent's big band records and at the age of eight began playing drums along with Oscar Peterson records. He attended Indiana University and later studied with John Avon Ohlen. Jeff was influenced by Gene Krupa, Buddy Rich, Mel Lewis, "Philly" Joe Jones and Shelly Manne. In 1974, he got his first big break playing with the New Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. He then joined Lionel Hampton's Band until 1975 when he, along with bassist John Clayton, became members of the Monty Alexander Trio. He attained a childhood goal in 1977 when he joined Woody Herman and the Thundering Herd, with whom he made several recordings. From 1983 to 1987, Jeff performed with Ella Fitzgerald, the Count Basie Orchestra, Rosemary Clooney and Monty Alexander. The Los Angeles Jazz Society named Jeff and his musical partner, John Clayton, musicians of the year for 2006. A banquet in their honor was held at the Los Angeles Marriott Downtown Hotel. Jeff is currently touring with his own Trio, the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra and Diana Krall.

In addition to his many recordings with Ray Brown, Jeff has been on nearly 200 recordings with artists such as Natalie Cole, Diana Krall, Milt Jackson, Rosemary Clooney, Barbara Streisand, Mel Torme, John Pizzarelli, Benny Carter, Lalo Schiffrin, George Shearing, Dr. John, Clark Terry, Gene Harris, Toshiko Akioshi, Scott Hamilton, Harry "Sweets" Edison, Keely Smith, Bill Holman, Herb Ellis, Barney Kessel and Mark Murphy. Jeff is a frequent guest of the WDR Big Band in Cologne, Germany.

TOWER OF POWER

Tower of Power's musical odyssey actually began in 1968 when Emilio Castillo met Stephen "Doc" Kupka in July of that year. When Doc auditioned during a band rehearsal at Emilio's house, Emilio's father called him into the kitchen and offered the following advice: "Hire that guy, he's got something." Doc and his signature baritone sax sound were now in the band, and on August 13, 1968, Tower of Power, as we know them today, began playing gigs, and soon became very well known in the area.

Many other bands came out of the San Francisco Bay area in the late 60's. Bands like The Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane, Santana, Big Brother, Journey, Cold Blood and others all helped to define the "San Francisco Sound." Tower of Power has always claimed Oakland, California as their hometown. Playing area venues and making a name for themselves, Tower of Power's big break was just around the corner.

After playing at a Tuesday night audition at the Fillmore in 1970, Tower was signed to Bill Graham's San Francisco records and their first album, "East Bay Grease," was recorded. All of the compositions were original tunes written by Castillo and Kupka. Their next album, "Bump City," was recorded on the Warner Brothers label, and this led to a string of hits and memorable albums that include many of the songs that TOP fans come out in force to hear, even to this day. Over the years, the Tower of Power Horns have recorded with hundreds of artists as diverse as Aerosmith, Elton John, Little Feat, Phish, Santana, Heart, and many others, forever infusing the radio airwaves with Tower's musical DNA.

Since the beginning, Tower of Power has never stopped touring and recording. Always in demand, the band never fails to entertain and amaze their fans. Tower is truly blessed to have a dedicated following that often travels to see the band, and in many cases fans will plan their vacation or work schedule around an appearance of TOP.

Tower celebrated their 40th anniversary in 2008 at a very special reunion show at the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco. In addition to the ten current members of the band, another 20 musicians and vocalists that at one time held a position with the band appeared with them. The show was filmed and is available on DVD. Of the ten current members, Emilio Castillo, Rocco Prestia, Stephen Kupka, and David Garibaldi are four of the band's founding members. Their dedication to the music, their creative writing, and their original vision still guides Tower of Power.

Each year Tower of Power tours the United States, Japan and Europe, playing to sold out crowds all over the world. Recent releases include their 40th Anniversary Concert Blu Ray recorded at the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco and "Hipper Than Hip" a remastered gem that was tucked away in the Warner Brothers vault since 1974. Tower has never been busier or more in demand. New generations of fans come to see the band perform as their timeless music continues to excite fans of all ages.

CONCERTS

BARBARA MORRISON

Born in Ypsilanti, Michigan, and raised in Romulus, Michigan, Barbara Morrison recorded her first appearance for radio in Detroit at the age of 10. She moved to Los Angeles in 1973, at the age of 23. Well known in the Los Angeles area for her duo and trio dates Ms. Morrison also tours extensively, blazing a trail as a jazz and blues legend in her own right across the Continental United States, Western Europe the Far East and "Down Under", wowing audiences with her band. In 1986, touring with the Philip Morris Superband, a 14 city one month tour of Canada, Australia, Japan and the Philippines, starting on September 3, 1986, Barbara did vocal honors with jazz organist, Jimmy Smith, backed by saxophonist James Moody, guitarist Kenny Burrell, trumpeter Jon Faddis with Grady Tate on drums.

Barbara completed a 33-city tour in the US, co-headlining in an all-star tribute to composer Harold Arlen — most recognizable for his genius behind the music for the classic film, The Wizard of Oz. Over the years she has performed with a virtual "who's who" of the jazz and the blues worlds. That list includes legends such as Gerald Wilson, Dizzy Gillespie, Ray Charles, James Moody, Ron Carter, Etta James, Esther Phillips, David T. Walker, Jimmy Smith, Johnny Otis, Dr. John, Kenny Burrell, Terence Blanchard, Joe Sample, Cedar Walton, Nancy Wilson, Joe Williams, Tony Bennett and Keb' Mo. Ms. Morrison has also guest-starred with the Count Basie Orchestra, the Clayton-Hamilton Orchestra and Doc Severinsen's Big Band.

In 1995, Barbara Morrison was on a televised Tribute to Ella Fitzgerald, with Mel Torme, Diane Reeves, Stevie Wonder, Chaka Khan, Tony Bennett, Dionne Warwick and Lou Rawls, Barbara Morrison, Performance Arts Center supports the Harmony Project. The children practice during the week after school. Pop. Her melodic voice, with its three-and-a-half-octave range, is known worldwide, as are her rich, unique, soulful and highly spirited interpretations of familiar jazz and blues classics and original contemporary tunes.

"I Wanna Be Loved" written by Barbara Morrison and Michael Cormier is a musical theatre production about the life and times of Dinah Washington, queen of the blues. In addition to her gigs with other jazz and blues groups and legends, Barbara Morrison also performs at the more renowned blues and jazz festivals around the world. Her appearances include Montreux, Nice, Pori, Carnegie Hall, North Sea, Darling Harbour, Sydney Opera House, Australia, Monterey, Long Beach, as well as salutes to Dizzy Gillespie and her tribute to Benny Golson.

More recently beginning in 2011, Barbara Morrison has been performing with Jack Hale, a popular So-Cal master guitarist, arranger, band leader of cool and hot vintage jazz and swing styles from the 1920s through 1950s.

CHERRY POPPIN' DADDIES

Ever since they first formed some 25 years ago, the Cherry Poppin' Daddies made it their mission to veer from genre to genre across the musical map, choosing to follow their own muse regardless of feedback from fans and critics alike. Truth be told, individuality and defiance have always been part of the band's DNA, and have, in turn, reinforced their rebellious reputation. Granted, though that image is well deserved, the ability to bend the boundaries has been simultaneously tempered and informed by an adherence to an older, now vanished tradition, grounded in Tin Pan Alley, Swing music and the great American songbook.

According to the band's longtime leader, singer/songwriter Steve Perry, the band's mantra has remained the same – "the obstacle is the path", that is, to pursue unexpected and difficult avenues that challenge both themselves as artists and modern sensibilities while at the same time adhering to standards and erstwhile traditions of American popular song.

To that point, the band's new opus titled Please Return the Evening: The Cherry Poppin' Daddies Salute the Music of the Rat Pack – was designed as a challenge to their craftsmanship in the recording studio, attempting to do justice to original magnificent, orchestral arrangements and recordings, while being limited to their 8 piece band inside a small Eugene, Oregon recording studio.

The recording taps into a tradition established by three of the hippest singers of all time, unique personalities that helped patent the concept of cool. Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr. When they worked in tandem as the legendary Rat Pack, Sinatra, Martin and Davis found the perfect combination – one that fused sheer swagger with an easy, amiable style. That approach helped define the cultural undercurrents of that critical period from the late '50s to the early '60s.

Please Return the Evening offers up a superb set of standards that have come to epitomize the Rat Pack's repertoire – songs like Fly Me To The Moon, and I'm Going To Live Until I Die, that look upward with the singular optimism that energized America at the dawn of the '60s, a time that would prove to be the twilight of the swing era.

"We're really fascinated by that mid century American can-do attitude," Perry insists. It's in that singular spirit, a combination of attitude, affability, and desire to go all in – that's made the Cherry Poppin' Daddies interesting as well.

The Daddies most recent album, The Boop-A-Doo, is the second of a planned trilogy of cover tunes designed to outline for fans some of the Daddies swing influences. The Boop-A-Doo covers a much earlier era than Please Return the Evening, songs that might have had their birth at the Cotton Club during the Prohibition era- roughly 1928-1937. Tenor banjo driven tunes like: Lets Misbehave, 42nd Street, and Top Hat showcase the bands versatility and playing chops. Undoubtedly, the Daddies will once again set dance floors ablaze, but this time the music is destined to inspire many a manic Charleston.

Cherry Poppin' Daddies has always prided itself on its craft and musicianship, superior skills that have allowed them to excel in whatever format they choose to tackle. "In many ways, the cover albums encapsulate everything we've woven into our music before," Perry maintains. "Like I am want to say, "The obstacle is the path" we have always thrown difficulties in our own way and had to fight to overcome them. Tackling these eras in a legitimate fashion we knew was going to be hard, but in the end it helped us to build muscles and understand our craft. It also shines a different light on our body of work and who we are as a band. We see ourselves as coming from a Swing, Jazz and Tin Pan Alley tradition that is almost an extinct lineage in music. We aspire to be worthy of carrying the torch but we have always striven to create our own modern, iconoclastic version. Frankly, we feel the tradition we measure our efforts against offers the ultimate example of what modern music should be, but sadly isn't, aspiring to."

Jazz takes a complicated world and makes it simple and approachable...

We try to do that, too.

Clinicians AND Artist Educators

Bob Athayde

Bob Athayde began teaching privately in 1970 and in public schools in 1976. Since 1986, he has taught full time at Stanley Intermediate School in Lafayette, California. Recognized for his outstanding teaching and musicianship, Mr. Athayde has garnered a number of awards including the California Music Educator's Don Schmeer Outstanding Band Teacher of California Award. Mr. Athayde has been featured as featured guest artist/adjudicator on trumpet and piano at the Cal-State Stanislaus Jazz Festival, and has served as an adjudicator in all instrumental music areas for the California Music Educators Association and the University of California at Berkeley Jazz Festival. He also teaches private lessons (trumpet and piano), performs with his own band, Surefire, serves as director of the Lafayette Summer Music Workshop, and teaches, conducts, and adjudicates for various music festivals around the Bay Area. He has worked with a wide array of musicians including Mic Gillette, Mary Fettig, Raoul Rekow, Paul Welcomer, Victor Goines, Steve Turre, and many others.

Corey Christiansen

Widely heralded as a gifted young player with a passionate sound, jazz guitarist Corey Christiansen took up the instrument at the age of five. Corey earned a bachelor's degree in music from Utah State and a master's degree in jazz performance from the University of South Florida. He maintains a very active international teaching and playing career. He first started coming to the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival in 1995 and won "Best Big Band Guitarist" that year. In 1996 he won back-to-back "Best Jazz Guitar Soloist." Corey served as senior editor for Mel Bay Publications from 2000 to 2007 and has written or co-written more than 70 books for the company. As well as maintaining his active touring schedule, he currently teaches full time at Utah State University and is a visiting professor at Indiana University. He has also been an "artist in residence" at the Atlanta Institute of Music since 2007. Corey has conducted countless guitar clinics and concerts across the country and beyond. He has also performed and/or recorded with many outstanding jazz artists including Jimmy Bruno, John Pisano, James Moody, Dr. Lonnie Smith, Jamey Aebersold, Steve Houghton, Joe Negri, Chuck Redd, Christian McBride, George Duke, Danny Gottlieb and many others. Corey draws on the tradition of the masters and yet leans towards the future. He is well rooted in the tradition of the jazz language, but he is bluesy and gritty enough to keep the audience in the palm of his hand.

Rosana Eckert

Rosana Eckert is an internationally recognized live and studio vocalist, songwriter, arranger, jazz educator, and voice-over talent based in Dallas, TX. As a vocal artist, she has recorded four solo CDs and performs regularly throughout the United States and Canada. She has had the pleasure of performing with such jazz greats as Lyle Mays, Kenny Wheeler, George Duke, Jon Faddis, Marvin Stamm, and Bobby McFerrin, and she toured Europe and Scandinavia as a sub in the Grammy Award-winning vocal quartet New York Voices. Her debut CD, At the End of the Day, was praised as "an occasion for celebration" by AllAboutJazz.com and "a superior debut" by the prestigious Cadence Magazine, and the CD was a finalist for Best New Jazz Album in the 2006 Independent Music Awards. Her newest CD, Small Hotel, once again showcases her knack for songwriting as well as her unique arranging style.

A well-rounded musician, Rosana studied music theory, French horn, and later, vocal jazz, at the University of North Texas and became the first woman to join the esteemed jazz faculty in the fall of 1999. Since then, she has been the primary private jazz voice teacher at UNT as well as faculty and co-host of the UNT Vocal Jazz Summer Workshop. Her vocal ensemble arrangements are published by Sound Music Publications, Hal Leonard, and Rosana Eckert Music and have been performed worldwide. In addition to her extensive live performing and teaching, Rosana also works regularly as a studio vocalist and voice-over talent.

Dee Daniels

Whether accompanying herself at the piano, fronting a trio, big band or symphony, Dee Daniels' musical career is as varied as her four-octave vocal range is thrilling.

See Daniels' full bio on page 22

Warren Wolf

Warren Wolf is a multi-instrumentalist and vibes master from Baltimore, MD. Under the guidance of his father Warren Wolf Sr., Warren has a deep background in all genres of music.

See Wolf's full bio on page 27

Ignacio Berroa

Afro-Cuban drummer, Ignacio Berroa, has made numerous contributions to the American music scene and has been recognized by many as one of the greatest drummers of our times.

Barbara Morrison

Her melodic voice, with its three-and-a-half-octave range, is known worldwide, as are her rich, unique, soulful and highly spirited interpretations of familiar jazz and blue classics and original contemporary tunes.

See Morrison's full bio on page 27

Workshop Themes AND Schedules

Designed to entertain, inspire, educate and inform, the 2016 workshops feature artists and educators from around the globe. Workshops are themed to help you focus on your educational goals while attending the festival. Many workshops provide handouts and the chance to play and sing with artists and educators. Please note: schedules are subject to change. Any changes will be indicated on the door of the workshop venues.

WORKSHOP THEMES

Artist Features (AF): Come and see your favorite artists up close and personal. Listen while they play, sing, and share stories. Most allow audience questions, and sometimes students are invited on-stage to play with the world's finest.

Director Helps (DH): These workshops are designed to help directors teach jazz. Directing workshops include: rehearsal techniques, elementary jazz curriculum, teaching improvisation, directing a jazz ensemble, and more!

Master Classes (MC): These are workshops designed for specific instruments. Learn about fingering, tone, and technique from master teachers.

Interdisciplinary/Historical (IH): These workshops explore opportunities for cross-campus collaborations, and draws from the past to help shape the future.

Hands On! (HO): This means INTERACTIVE! Bring your instrument and charts, and be ready to play and sing along. Be prepared to learn about improvisation, scat singing, and improving techniques.

Dance Workshops (DW): Join the fun in a variety of "hands-and-feet on" workshops led by guest artists, university faculty and specialty dance instructors. Our swing and Latin dance classes will get you ready for the dance floor at the Thursday and Saturday night concerts, so grab your dancing shoes!

Thinking About College? (TAC): The University of Idaho encourages visiting students, especially those high school students wondering about their higher education, to explore the campus by taking a campus tour or attending a workshop taught by university faculty.

WORKSHOPS

Artist WORKSHOPS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2016

AF/IH KEVIN KANNER

Mel Lewis: Getting Acquainted with his Sound
Thursday 10:00 am – 11:00 am, Kenworthy Theater

Kevin Kanner will talk about the influential and important drummer Mel Lewis and how to become familiar with his sound. Kevin will share some of his favorite recordings that all musicians can learn from.

AF/IH IGNACIO BERROA W/ FESTIVAL ALL-STARS

Afro-Cuban Jazz and Beyond
Thursday 10:00 am – 11:00 am, Admin Auditorium

Ignacio Berroa will present a historical view of the development of Afro-Cuban music and its strong connection with the music of the United States. He will show you how to incorporate Afro-Cuban rhythms in jazz, and how its development continues today.

HO/DH BOB ATHAYDE

Supporting the Soloist
Thursday 10:00 am – 11:00 am, Forge Theater

This is a great hands-on opportunity for Directors and players of all instruments. Be prepared to come on stage and play. We'll need rhythm section players as well as horn players and vocalists. Learn how to support the solos and work together. Directors are invited to come on stage as well, with an instrument in hand. Soloists will enjoy learning what to expect from the rhythm section and how to better communicate with them.

HO/DH GREG YASINITSKY

Improvisation 101: Major, Minor and Blues
Thursday 10:00 am – 11:00 am, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater

A method for developing improvisors based on using notes from key centers, this clinic encourages participants of all levels, especially beginners, to bring their instruments and see how easy it is to improvise using this approach.

MC ROSANA ECKERT

The Art of Listening to Music
Thursday 11:30 am – 12:30 pm, Kenworthy Theater

How does listening to music impact the young musician? Rosana will share some of her favorite recordings and discuss what she listens for in the music.

AF/MC JUSTIN KAUFILIN

My Jazz Piano Approach
Thursday 11:30 am – 12:30 pm, Admin Auditorium

The young man who has been mentored by jazz greats, including Clark Terry, will give us his insights to improvisation. Mr. Kauflin's life continues to be an interesting journey and he has already experienced a full, bountiful life in jazz—and there's so much more to come!

HO/MC AL GEMBERLING

Swinging and Sliding: The Trombone Playground
Thursday 11:30 am – 12:30 pm, Forge Theater

This is a hands-on workshop. All trombonists are invited to play and participate in a study of style, improvisation and a discussion of the importance of proper technique development to be able to advance your skills and have fun playing this great instrument.

HO/MC COREY CHRISTIANSEN

Creating a Career in Music: How to recognize opportunities, set goals and be successful
Thursday 11:30 am – 12:30 pm, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater

Corey will discuss how to identify areas of work and opportunity within the music business, and teach a systemized approach to being successful by setting both long-term and short-term goals. Be sure to bring note paper and something to write with.

HO/DH BOB ATHAYDE

How to Make a Rhythm Section (Help for Beginners)
Thursday 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm, Kenworthy Theater

This workshop will invite players and directors on stage to learn with their own rhythm section as Bob helps you to understand the basics of the Rhythm section. This section is the beating heart of all of your groups. You will learn how to play together and to be more successful as a section. You can bring charts with you as Bob helps you to simplify chords for the piano and bass players. Bring your instruments, students and bring your charts – you'll find this fun and helpful!

AF/MC GRAHAM DECHTER

Fundamentals for Guitarists
Thursday 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm, Admin Auditorium

Dechter performs, discusses/demonstrates the importance of having a solid command of the "fundamentals" and invites guitarists up to perform for this special master class segment. Bring your instrument and come with questions!

AF/MC KATIE THIROUX

Back to Basics: Sound, Feel, and Time
Thursday 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm, Forge Theater

Bassist Katie Thiroux will present some tips and tricks to help bass players improve their playing and approach. Learn many simple and advanced ways that bassists use the instrument to innovate and develop the music from the bass player's perspective.

TAC 25TH ANNUAL UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO HIGH SCHOOL ART EXHIBITION

Exhibit open anytime

Awards reception Friday 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm, Ridenbaugh Hall

Join us for the statewide annual High School Art Exhibition sponsored by University of Idaho's Art and Design Program. This year's theme is "I Am Me." High school is a time for discovering who we are and who we want to be. We develop talents, interests, strengths, friendships, and most important, our hopes and dreams for the future. Everyone has a unique story to tell and discovering our own story helps us grow. Where does our family come from? Where is our place? What makes me "me?"

TAC SALLY MACHLIS, COLLEGE OF ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Jazzy Drawing

Friday 10:00 am – 11:30 am, Ridenbaugh Hall Art Gallery

Participants will learn about visual artists who were inspired by power of jazz music and use a variety of drawing materials to interpret and respond to jazz music in a studio environment. Participants will also appreciate the opportunity to review the University of Idaho Annual Statewide High School Art Exhibition. They will receive a Jazz Festival button after casting their vote for the People's Choice award.

Questions will be encouraged!

TAC BOB RINKER, DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

The Collision of Science and Art

Friday 10:30 am – 11:20 am, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater Room

What happens when you ask an Engineer how to inspire a football team – and excite the audience at the same time? That's what Bob Rinker of UI's Computer Science Department found out when the UI Marching Band went looking for some sparkle and shine! Drop in on this informative session and find out from Dr. Rinker how interdisciplinary collaboration, a couple engineers, and a few dozen LEDs made beautiful music together.

TAC JILL JOHNSON AND DOUG COLE, DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

What Might Be Living In My Instrument?

Friday 11:30 am – 12:20 pm, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater Room

Why are people that play wind instruments at greater risk of chronic sore throats? Did you know that a musician caught a deadly fungal virus from his bagpipes? How is it possible for organisms to live in musical instruments, and what types of organisms are they? Stop by to see examples of what might be living in your instruments and to learn how to keep your instruments safe.

TAC TOM GORMAN, COLLEGE OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Making Stringed Instruments: What Kind of Wood (and Why?)

Friday 12:30 pm – 2:00 pm, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater Room

Tom Gorman from the College of Natural Resources Renewable Materials program will host Mike Boeck and Steve Weill, Idaho instrument makers, who will show how they choose the wood to make violins, mandolins, and acoustic guitars, how the components are assembled, and what it takes to result in a great acoustic sound. Also included will be a recently-completed stand-up bass that features a soundboard made with Englemann spruce from Idaho; come hear its sound!

TAC JEFFERY DODGE, COLLEGE OF LAW

The Relationship Between Music and International Human Rights

Friday 2:30 pm – 3:20 pm, Commons Clearwater/Whitewater

Like all other human beings, every individual musician is protected by a number of human rights, including the right to freedom of association, freedom of religion, to family and private life, to food, housing and education, etc. — all according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. All human rights are as important for musicians as they are for everyone else, but two of these rights are of special relevance for musicians: the freedom of expression and the right to participate in cultural life. Together, these two rights offer a special protection of musicians against arbitrary censorship and persecution. This workshop will briefly explore the legal foundation of these human rights as it relates to music and musicians worldwide.

TAC CHRISTINE BERVEN, DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Making Waves With Music

Friday 2:30 pm – 3:20 pm, Renfrew Hall room 112

WORKSHOPS — WITH SUPPORT FROM GRITMAN MEDICAL CENTER

Join the fun in a variety of “hands-and-feet on” workshops led by guest artists, university faculty and specialty dance instructors. Our swing and Latin dance classes will get you ready for the dance floor at the Thursday and Saturday night concerts, so grab your dancing shoes!

Dance offers a variety of “hands-and-feet-on” workshops designed just for Jazz Festival participants. These energizing, jazz-related sessions move from Swing to Hip Hop and B-boying, Musical Theater and Disco to Krumping, Show Choir Dance Moves and Rhythm Tap. Grab your dance shoes - our Swing, Ballroom and Latin Dance classes will get you ready for the dance floor at the evening concerts. With classes led by guest artists, university faculty and specialty dance instructors, this is your chance to dance.

WEDNESDAY-SATURDAY FEB 25 - 28

DW SMOOTH BALLROOM: AMERICAN FOXTROT – MORGAN DOUGLAS

Wed 3:15pm / Jeff & Becky Martin Wellness Center

Enjoy dancing to medium-tempo Big Band vocal music (think Frank Sinatra or Bobby Darin) with this smooth progressive dance (now think Fred and Ginger). The foxtrot is an easy dance to learn with a simple combination of walks and chasses; it's ideal for social dancing. Come solo or with a partner, all levels are welcome. The class will offer plenty of time to simply enjoy the dancing and to practice some new steps.

DW LATIN DANCE: HAVE SOME CARIBBEAN FUN – MORGAN DOUGLAS

Wed 4:30pm / Jeff & Becky Martin Wellness Center

You've seen it on Dancing with the Stars! Learn the basics of Latin social dancing including step patterns, leading and following and, of course, Latin hip action. Come solo or with a partner. All levels welcome. Just be ready to move your hips and dance! Also offered Sat 1:30pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 212).

DW KRUMPING – CHRISTA DAVIS

Thurs 9:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
Fri 9:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Learn one of the newest forms of street dancing. You've seen this highly energetic, improvisational movement in movies and music videos and on TV reality dance competitions. As you dance, jab, swing, pop and stomp to upbeat, fast-paced music and learn some background of this Urban Dance movement originating in LA.

DW SWING DANCE – SWING DEVILS

Thurs 10:00am / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Thurs 12:00noon / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Fri 10:00am / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Fri 12:00noon / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Sat 10:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Swing is still here! Have the time of your life learning to swing dance. Learn how people danced and see why the 30s swing bands survived as you move to the rhythms. If people didn't flock to the large dance halls during the Depression, the Big Bands of the late 20s and 30s would never have survived with their Swing Jazz. This is your chance to groove to the beat and develop some flair in your steps.

DW MOVE IT! BODY PERCUSSION PLUS – DIANE WALKER

Thurs 10:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
Fri 10:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Be your own instrument as you improv with body percussion and body “scales,” uneven rhythms and syncopation. Then we'll “stage it” to make the blues form both visible and audible. No experience needed. Come ready to move and have fun with it.

DW HIP HOP & B-BOYING (BREAKING) – JESSI BROWN, BENJAMIN DEVAUD

Thurs 11:00am / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Thurs 1:00pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Thurs 3:00pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Fri 11:00am / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Fri 1:00pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
Sat 10:00am / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)

Everyone is excited for some super-energetic dancing. Don't miss this workshop! We'll get the music going and the rhythm in your body to learn the latest steps and styles and start dancing!

DW BROADWAY JAZZ – CHRISTA DAVIS

Thurs 11:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
Fri 11:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Dancing from the Big Shows. Learn basic movements and dances from Broadway favorites. Discover how Bob Fosse's choreography in Sweet Charity finds its way into Beyoncé's Get Me Bodied. Jazz Hands? Oh yes, there will be Jazz Hands! Explore your theatrical side in this fun and showy class that emphasizes rhythm, style, and stage presence.

DW RHYTHM TAP – LISA NIKSSARIAN, RACHEL WINCHESTER

Thurs 12:30pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
Fri 12:30pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
Sat 11:30am / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Find the rhythm in your feet & become a “hooper”. Find out how to make a hard-hitting tap sound. This is a great way to be a percussive musician. You can even dance a cappella. Any shoes will do.

WORKSHOP KEY: Artist Features AF • Director Helps DH • Master Classes MC • Hands On! HO • Dance Workshops DW • Thinking About College? TAC

DW ALL THAT JAZZ! – BELLE BAGGS

Thurs 1:30pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
 Fri 1:30pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

It's all about rhythm and energy! Immerse yourself and reinforce your sense of dynamics, rhythm and especially syncopation with movement. Jazz dance as it was meant to be! It's something to explore.

DW SHOW CHOIR DANCE MOVES – JESSI BROWN

Thurs 2:00pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
 Fri 2:00pm / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)
 Sat 12:00noon / Physical Education Building (Studio 110)

Bring more energy and personality to your dynamic show choir. Movement enhances the visual aspect of your performance and adds spirit to your vocal music. Learn steps and ideas to incorporate into your stage choreography and end up dancing like Glee.

DW DISCO JAZZ DANCE – LAUREN SMITH

Thurs 2:30pm/Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Do you love the throwback beats of Earth, Wind & Fire, The Tramps, The Bee Gees, and early Michael Jackson? If so, come learn some sweet 70's moves to some groovy tunes!

DW MUSICAL THEATER – RACHEL WINCHESTER

Fri 2:30pm/Physical Education Building (Studio 212)
 Sat 1:00pm/Physical Education Building (Studio 110)

Since Pal Joey in the 1940s, musical theater dance and choreography has drawn from whatever dance type supports the music, plot and characters and boosts the spirit of the show. Personalities are enlarged and plots are enhanced. Experience and explore this world as you learn a movement sequence from a known musical. Use the same movements in show choir choreography.

DW ROOTS OF SWING – SWING DEVILS

Sat 12:30pm/Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

Have fun with historical swing steps. Discover Prohibition Era dances such as the Charleston, the Black Bottom, the Shim Sham Shimmy or Truckin', and put it all to the music. No partner necessary.

DW LATIN DANCE/SALSA – MORGAN DOUGLAS

Sat 1:30/ Physical Education Building (Studio 212)

You've seen it on Dancing with the Stars! Learn the basics of Latin social dancing including step patterns, leading and following and, of course, Latin hip action. Come solo or with a partner. All levels welcome. Just be ready to move your hips and dance!

DW YOGA FOR MUSICIANS – BELLE BAGGS

Sat 11:00am/Physical Education Building (Studio 110)

Proper movement and alignment helps improve sound and tone as well as prevent over-use injuries common in musicians and vocalists. In this all-levels yoga class we will incorporate stretches as well as do poses to open up the energetic centers of the chest and throat. Uplift and restore your energy so that it is a deeper resource for your musical expression.

DW OPEN REHEARSAL:
 DANCERSDRUMMERSDREAMERS® (DDD)
 "GRANMA'S CLUB" – UI DANCERS

Sat 2:00pm/Physical Education Building (Studio 110)

DancersDrummersDreamers® (DDD) is in its 25th year of a unique professional training program that exists at no other university. Music/sound and movement are blended into a seamless whole and the overall performance is like a modern vaudeville show with music, dance, songs and some slapstick comedy. Guest Choreographer Christy McNeil Chand was in-residence for the 2015 Jazz Fest week and choreographed this 40s jazz dance style showpiece. You are invited to see UI dancers rehearse the dance to revive it for the March 2016 DDD show. The great swing music by Sampson & Webb and Garland has been arranged to fit a smaller swing combo for the show.

CLINIC & WORKSHOPS — WITH SUPPORT FROM GRITMAN MEDICAL CENTER

The University of Idaho has the only four-year BS in Dance degree program in the state and continues to receive national attention from private foundations. It offers a well-rounded curriculum that includes the unique professional training program DancersDrummersDreamers, a music/dance collaboration that tours, teaches and performs at regional high schools yearly. The program offers a broad spectrum of studio classes as well as the most current dance theory-into-practice coursework. Many dancers gain teaching experience through employment with local studios while finishing their degree. Graduates are skilled in performing, choreographing, teaching and producing concerts. For more information on the program, please visit us on the Web at www.uidaho.edu/ed/movementsciences/dance-bs and like us on Facebook: DDDatUIDaho.

BIOGRAPHIES

Belle Baggs is a dancer, choreographer and Yoga teacher. She is Clinical Assistant Professor and Co-Program Coordinator of the University of Idaho Dance Program. She is a Certified Movement Analyst and holds her Master of Fine Arts in Modern Dance from University of Utah. She was a continual member of the Performing Dance Company in Utah and has danced professionally as a founding member of the Idaho Moving Project (I~Move) and with inFluxdance, a contemporary dance company out of Salt Lake City. She is a co-founder of the BASK Art Collective—a group of artists engaging in community projects considering social projections and sources of empowerment for women in the Arts. Her work, Settle/Unsettle, was recently premiered in New York City at the 92nd Street Y, in a concert curated by Doug Varone.

Rachel Winchester, a nationally recognized choreographer and passionate dance educator, is a Lecturer in the University of Idaho Dance Program. Shortly after achieving her Bachelor of Fine Arts from San Diego State University, she was selected as a “San Diego Emerging Artist of 2009”. Rachel moved to Eugene, Oregon in 2011, and was a Graduate Teaching Fellow in the Dance Department at the University of Oregon for three years. During this time, her choreography “GIRL POOL (an adaptation)” received one of the highest honors in collegiate dance through presentation at the 2014 American College Dance Association National Conference.

Diane Walker has had a lifelong interest in the relationship between movement and music. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Boston Conservatory and a Masters degree from Colorado State University. As teacher, choreographer and the former head of the University of Idaho dance program she works closely with musicians in a variety of venues. Walker cofounded Dancers Drummers Dreamers – the University of Idaho’s unique music/dance collaboration – with Dan Bukvich. Her goal is to blend music and movement into a seamless whole.

Christa Davis has taught dance, movement and physical education classes at the university level and for students K-12. Her background includes ballet, jazz, modern, contemporary, hip hop, KRUMP and cultural dance. Christa completed a Ph.D. in Physical Education Pedagogy with a Dance emphasis at the University of Idaho, in 2013. She has had the privilege to present her research on KRUMP and kinesthetic instruction at state, regional and national conferences across the United States. Recently, Christa embarked upon a research project using KRUMP and Cross-fit with at-risk children. She is a professor of Kinesiology and Health at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, Idaho.

Jessi Brown began dancing at the age of two at a studio in Boise, studying ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, hip hop, and modern. Her love for Hip Hop grew and she has been teaching the Intermediate Hip Hop class at the University of Idaho for three years. She holds a B.S. degree in Exercise Science and Health with a Dance minor and has been actively involved in performances, as well as research studying the dance style KRUMP. She presented on KRUMP at the national and state AHPERD conferences in 2014 and presented at SHAPE America in March 2015.

Benjamin Devaud started as soccer player, but he began formally dancing at the University of Idaho in 2011. Over time he focused more on dances within the Hip Hop culture, specifically b-boying. He received further intensive training from the American Dance Festival for two summers, taking technique classes in Hip Hop (Teena Custer), Afro-Modern (Michele Gibson), and Modern (Brenda Daniels, Rodger Belman). He graduated with a B.S. in Biology with Dance and Spanish minors. He currently teaches Hip Hop at University of Idaho and danced in the 2015 premiere of Belle Baggs' Settle/Unsettle in New York City. His goals for students are to love the dance and be themselves.

Morgan Douglas is a social dancer who believes that connection is the key to dance. From foxtrot to salsa to swing, dance is a conversation in another language and the dancer must be able to speak and listen, to communicate clearly. He has taught dance for the University of Idaho, Festival Dance, Swing Devils of the Palouse, Sandpoint Swing and numerous individuals. If you ask, he'll say his first loves are West Coast Swing and tango, but the truth is, it doesn't matter as long as he's dancing.

Lisa Nikssarian has been dancing since she was young. She started out at a small dance studio in Castro Valley, California, learning all types of dance styles. She focused her learning on tap, jazz, ballet, and hip hop, and competed and won in many national dance competitions. In her high school and early college years, she had the opportunity to teach at her home studio. After performing for over a year at Las Positas College, she has continued pursuing her dancing career as a dance major at the University of Idaho and hopes to continue teaching.

Lauren Smith is a dancer, teacher and choreographer. She is completing her B.S. in Dance and a B.S. in Exercise Science and Health. She has taught ballet, jazz, and modern courses for Uldaho and ballet for Festival Dance Academy. She has danced professionally with Long Beach Ballet and has performed all throughout China and across the United States. Her choreographic work has been showcased at Uldaho, American College Dance Association, and throughout the Pacific Northwest on tour. She is a member of the International Association for Dance Medicine and Science where her research in dance biomechanics was presented this past fall.

The Swing Devils are a local group of swing dance enthusiasts in Moscow who meet once a week to celebrate the invention of swing music by moving in unison with it. For more than 15 years, the Swing Devils have been promoting jazz dance and jazz music by hosting dances, teaching lessons, and supporting jazz musicians. This merry band of social dancers welcomes those with two left feet as they have extra right ones to spare.

2016 LIONEL HAMPTON

The Lionel Hampton School of Music (LHSOM) at the University of Idaho offers undergraduate and graduate programs that include music performance, education, musical theatre, composition and pedagogy. LHSOM delivers a well-rounded educational experience that is comprehensive, nationally competitive and utilizes a faculty of visionary educators, scholars and musicians. The Jazz Festival features several LHSOM jazz faculty in concert and in clinics and they appear regularly throughout the Pacific Northwest. # ADDITIONAL FESTIVAL TRANSPORTATION

Daytime festival transportation is available Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (no service on Saturday) by using SMART Transit's public transportation system. SMART Transit's normal routes will run on Wednesday. On Thursday and Friday, both routes will detour around Deakin and will not access the Bruce Pittman Center/St Augustine stop. Fixed routes offer service every 30 minutes and leave the Intermodal Transit Center on Railroad Street at 10 and 40 minutes after each hour beginning at 6:40 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m. There are two routes to choose from, a west loop and an east loop. Each loop has alternating routes each half hour. Service is provided at no charge to the rider.

Contact SMART Transit at 208-883-7747 or visit www.smarttransit.org for a complete schedule of departures.

Why UI

Because we are Idaho's land-grant university. And that's something special. More than 125 years ago, we were chosen by our nation's president to serve our state and country by providing a quality, affordable education at a leading research university. It was a big charge, and one we've remained committed to today. Because we believe an educated society is good — well — for everyone.

Jazz IN THE Schools — PRESENTED BY POTLATCH CORPORATION

Jazz in the Schools, the festival's community outreach program, takes master musicians and educators to regional K-12 schools during festival week. There is no cost to participating schools and the program provides teachers and students with jazz education materials, activities and an interactive presentation with educators and artists. Jazz in the Schools meets a very real need in the community, particularly in areas that don't have access to high quality arts programming. It helps to foster an appreciation of music and the arts, and how music can be an important and even transformative part of our lives.

In 2015, the Jazz in the Schools program had one of its most successful years ever, reaching 8,041 students in 45 K-12 schools in Northern Idaho and Eastern Washington during the week of the Festival. Now in its 21st year, the program was designed to share the beauty and grace of this truly American art form. This vision continues to guide the program. Under the direction of John Clayton and Steven Remington, this program continues to grow and improve its presentations to regional schools.

IT'S ALL IN THE DETAILS.

D'Angelico Guitars' long history is defined by its commitment to quality. Designed and inspected in New York City, we're honoring John D'Angelico's legend by creating exceptional instruments where every detail counts.

- Masterful arch: An expertly-crafted archtop design offers organic tone.
- Premium tonewoods: Flame maple, spruce, rosewood, and mahogany provide rich resonance.
- Guaranteed functionality: Grover Imperial Super-Rotomatic tuners offer a smooth turning radius and keep you in tune longer.
- Subtle elegance: Ebony knobs, Mother-of-Pearl inlays, and hand-bound five to seven-ply binding provide understated flair.
- Nods to New York: A legendary Art-Deco inspired headstock, Stairstep-style pickguard and bridge, and a Skyscraper truss rod cover combine to create an homage to our home city.

EXCEED Expectations

The Lionel Hampton School of Music

The Lionel Hampton School of Music is a close-knit community of prominent performers, teachers, composers, and scholars who interact with dedicated and talented students.

Continue your music making at Idaho! We offer instruction from full-time faculty on all instruments and for all voice types. As a music major, you can choose from programs in performance, music education, composition, business, history and theory. You can also take advantage of our great jazz opportunities by adding a jazz emphasis to any music degree.

If you want to pursue a major in a non-music field, a music minor or jazz studies minor can be added to any UIdaho degree.
