From The Siffichs

Dear Mrs. Siffichs:

I am truly ashamed of never putting my impulse to write you into action -

To tell you I did receive your card in the summer and give you the news of Macon Siffich - but it is just that I never got at it we have missed you This winter and Red has missed Patsy - his new neighbor is not as friendly she seems somewhat jealous of him and he does not share as much fun as he would like - Do hope New Year is delighting you and that you are really enjoying the winter - I have a young second cousin, Phyllis Anne Dearborn, living at the International House - you might meet her sometime if you see the Idaho girls there - I saw your mother last week - she is looking well - but I know she misses her daughters this winter - Doubtless you hear all the news of Moscow, the University, etc. so you know that life goes on very much as usual - Stephen is growing and is as busy as ever he with writing & etc. with all good wishes - Sincerely - Anna C. Driffield -
