

Violet M. Rohn, 92, Moscow

The funeral for Violet M. Rohn is at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Freeze Cemetery, north of Potlatch, Idaho. Pastor Kathy L. Kramer of the Elmore United Methodist Church will officiate, and burial will follow at the cemetery. Viewing is from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. today at Kramer Funeral Home in Palouse.

Mrs. Rohn, a lifelong Potlatch area resident, died Saturday, March 6, 2004, at Latah Health Services in Moscow from causes related to age.

She was born July 13, 1911, north of Potlatch to Archie L. and Rose Hicks Clark. She attended the Freeze Country School and Potlatch High School.

She married Fred J. Rohn Dec. 5, 1934, at Moscow. The couple made their home north of Potlatch, where they farmed and ranched. Mr. Rohn died in 1978. Mrs. Rohn worked as a school bus driver for the Potlatch School District for 34 years, retiring in 1966. Violet also decorated more than 1,000 cakes for weddings and special occasions. She moved to the care center in Moscow in 1998.

She was a member of the Mountain Home 3 and 1 Club, Gritman Hospital Ladies Auxiliary, the Potlatch Senior Citizens, the Will-Do Club, the Working Women's Club and the Latah County Cowbells.

She has also served as a cake decorating judge at many local fairs in Moscow, Lewiston, Coeur d'Alene, St. Maries, Colfax and Spokane. She enjoyed crocheting, quilting and oil painting. She especially loved to take care of her yard.

Survivors include two sons and their wives, Jerry and Judy Rohn and Joe and Evelyn Rohn, all of Potlatch; two brothers, Charles Clark of Walla Walla and Ronnie Clark of Las Vegas; one sister, Hazel Wallace of Prescott, Wash.; six grandchildren; two stepgrandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Memorial gifts may be given to Hospice of the Palouse, 700 S Main, Moscow, ID 83843.
