

minute page

Side A

- 05 A different kind of alfalfa. Plowing alfalfa with a two bottom plow. Alfalfa tea. A hospital stay in 1940
- 06 The depression in Moscow. Five dollars paid light, water, phone and groceries. Housing for students in the depression. Army camp in Moscow became property of U of I. Three students who lived in an abandoned cabin.
- 14 Self contained Moscow with no other wish. Foreign population in town. Kindness to the foreigners in the fifties. Business practices of 1920 Moscow. Women osteopaths in Moscow, their difficulty in getting established. A man doctor who killed himself. Older families ran Moscow.
- 22 Water trough on Sixth Street in Moscow, wooden sidewalks. Quiet, peaceable town, places where men frequented kept quiet and undercover. Police kept peace in Moscow during Prohibition. WCTU during Prohibition.

Side B

- 00 How Troy was settled, two brothers planted rutabagas, that settled Troy. Olson brothers built one house on boundary of first two homesteads in Troy. Mrs. Grove's first income in Troy came from working women for housekeepin. She and her daughter slept in the spare room until a man brought a cook car for them to live in. Worked half days in the print shop. House broken up because some women were through teaching.
- 07 Wilbur Johns offers to sell newspaper(print chop). Got rid of paper just before her daughter graduated high school. Press said to be one that Mark Twain brought. Carl Olson had to fix the press because it wouldn't turn(1930). Hand crank. Every week a man had to carry the chase in. Ready print pages with two blanks for Mrs. Grove to print on. She eventually ran out of room on the blanks, needed extra paper. Ethel, herself and outside correspondent "hunted news".
- 15 Parents keeping daughter's body a week before burial. Treatment for bloated sheep and one for horses.
- 20 Newsmaking in Troy. "The case of the illegitimate baby."
- 25 Friendliness of Troy, men lifting their hat as greeting to her. social activities in Troy. Car accident on way to gather wild flowers for eighth grade graduation.

4th Emily Moore