

CARL LANCASTER

Helmer, Harvard; b. 1902

various logger jobs, maintenance man and blacksmith
for Potlatch Forests

.5 hours

minute

Side A

- 01 Sledding down hills. Taking a six-horse sleigh to Kennedy Ford Grange from Harvard.
- 05 A stolen chicken feast.
- 07 Troubles at Princeton: Carl's sleigh is robbed; his buggy top is cut off by a wire across the road.
Losing a sleigh tongue. Carl preferred team to horseback.
- 13 Some early cars. A Case car runs on cream separator oil.
Carl's family separated.
- 18 Carl tangles with a crazy man.
- 23 Carl's work maintaining the railroad section. A bit about the railroad strike.
- 26 Carl switches to woods work. He works all different jobs, depending on where he is needed. Drays, drop skids, headblocks, bunkloads, corner binds and bumper logs.

with Sam Schragger
November 21, 1973