

Nashville January the 31. 1864

Dear father & Mother,

I begin to think it is about time for me to write to you again. I am well to day. I used I have done. I don't but not so bad as it was, we got here Wednesday the 27. it has been nice wether here but to day it is damp we have got our tent up and a stove in it so we can out to get along we have flour to make biscuits, bicenit & we have beans kise, pork, coffee, sugar, one man has ^{to} cook for 17 hands. it is warm here there is no snow here & it dont freeze much. & there is four Companies here, Co. D, E, F, G, they say that the Rebels are
