

& if a man hant there he is put on exty duty, our burned if a man stands guard four his dond salute him Kite he has him tide up by the thorns but I have not had no trouble yet but Mr. Burned yats will haft to look out when the war is over for some of the men will tend to him, we expect to march in a few days we have drowed new cloes & new tents turned over our olds wons & we haft to have every par of chies we have had inspection of our gunes knapsack & every thing. My gun I fine turned it over to <sup>the</sup> Captain he thought I wood not be able to carry it I suppose I ess the docter told him to do, I am very glad for I have a nuf to carry with out it & keep up in the camps & my load is not so much as the rest of the men
