

Louisville Kentucky, June 17th 1863

Dear Vister, I set down with pleasure to answer your letter I Just got Sam well & hearty & I am glad to here that you are all well we are in camp near Louisville we left Washington the 9. of June took the Cars for Parkersburg on the Ohio River then got on the flat boat & went down the River to Louisville, here we lay in camp asile & do not no what they are going to do with us. they have musterd out all of the Sixty two Men & one year men there was some over 40 went out of our Company they was musterd out before we left Washington & went home. & the talk was then that we soon would be musterd out but I do not now
