

I wrote a letter the 20.th last Saturday and I got your letter Sunday night. The Mail comes in every day here in camp.
I thought that I would write this letter and I will put in a dollar bill and have you send me some postage stamps. you may send me 15 cents worth for this is my last stamp on this letter.
Now I bought a few stamps to extract in the barracks and I did not have no chance to buy any on the road for I was not allowed to go out of the lines.
Father you must get along the way you can for we must have them lets make up by next fall I ~~hope~~ where my pay comes which will be some time this spring. then I expect to get about 50. or a 100. dollars. you paid in
