

Post-Register photo

Review reapportionment.

SOME OF THE legislators of east Idaho at the Idaho Legislature special session are pouring over charts, maps and figures in seeking legislative district reapportionment. From left, clockwise around the table, are Sen. William L. Floyd, Rep. Gary L. Paxman, Sens. Sherry Watkins, who is temporarily replacing her husband, Dane Watkins; and J. Marsden Williams, and Rep. Linden B. Bateman, all of Idaho Falls; and

Rep. John O. Sessions, Driggs. Williams is chairman of the 16-county Southeastern Idaho Regional group and Sessions is chairman of the 10-county East Idaho group. In the background are seen legislators of Madison and Fremont counties, Rep. Rich Orme, St. Anthony; Sen. Mark G. Ricks, Rexburg; and Rep. Melvin Hammond, Rexburg. All are Republicans except Hammond, the lone Democrat.

Legislative drawing

Legislative boundaries

BOISE — THIS IS the initial legislative district proposal submitted by Sens. Mark G. Ricks, R-Rexburg, and William L. Floyd, R-Idaho Falls, and contained in the first bill presented in the House. However, it likely will be altered to place all of Cassia County in District 26, rather than District 33, and remove Elmore County from District 22. Most other districts likely will stay as shown, including those in east Idaho which have less changes than any in the state.