

Post-Register photo

East Idaho legislators

EASTERN IDAHO legislators who will have a major hand in drafting legislation in the 1980 Idaho Legislature to convene a month hence include three veterans from left; Sen. J. Marsden Williams, R-Idaho Falls, chairman of the Senate Resources and Environment Committee; Rep. Kurt L. Johnson, R-Idaho Falls, chairman of the House Education Committee; and

Sen. Richard A. Egbert, D-Tetonia, dean of the Legislature with 30 years service and ranking minority member of the Joint Finance Appropriation Committee. At right is a newcomer, Sen. Mark G. Ricks, R-Rexburg. They are shown during a break in the action in the 1979 session.