Dear Ben:

This is a belated letter to thank you for your interest and friendship during the recent campaign. I always respected the objectivity of your articles, and when you indicated your opinion that I was making headway in eastern Idaho, I felt sure that this was so.

I especially appreciated your contribution to my campaign, and I hope that I may be able to serve in the Senate in such a way as to prove worthy of your confidence and support.

I hope that we will maintain close contact with one another after I go to Washington, and I want you to know that your counsel and advice will always be welcome.

Sincerely,

Frank Church
Senator Elect

Idaho Will Be Proud of Church in the U. S. Senate
