Dear Sir:

.....As a result of this course my whole life and outlook have changed for the better.I myself have changed immeasurably from a hard-to-understand, extremely complex person to the point where it is practically impossible for me to entertain despondent thoughts. Exactly one year after reading your first lesson I asked my husband if he had noticed any changes for better or worse during the last year. He was very quick and positive in his reply that everything is changed for the better though he cannot put his finger on any one thing. But I know that God has changed me to suit my circumstances and now I am fully expecting even more improvement, especially in the circumstances, just any time now.

Financially I have received $1588.00 in cash, cancelled debts, and merchandise during this year. Last week I celebrated the first happy birthday in my life.

Thank God for Psychiana!

Mrs. C. R. A.
