"PSYCHIANA" is not the name of the Lecture - It is the name of this whole movement

Over 1900 years ago, a man upon whom we all look as The Son of God, made YOU this promise. "The things that I do shall ye do also." Translation from the original Hebrew into thousands of tongues has not detracted one jot nor tittle from its forceful truth, nor robbed that promise of its stark simplicity. The things that I do shall ye do also. Dr. Frank B. Robinson, noted <sup>ok,</sup> ~~lecturer~~ and author, and widely known psychologist, believes in that promise, fully and utterly, and in his 6000 word lecture, Psychiana, which you may have without charge, he tells YOU how YOU may attain the power, the dynamic, pulsating, throbbing power that controls the universe. Startling in its immensity, illuminating in its clearness, Dr. Robinson's lecture tells the story of his forty year search for the Truth, a search which was successful, a search that finally brought to him a full realization of the Truth, and the manner in which its power may be applied by any man or woman of normal intelligence, applied to every day life to the end of greater happiness, greater contentment, greater comfort and greater financial success. In it Dr. Robinson tells you WHY he believes as he does, WHY he believes that YOU can understand the power that rules the universe, the power that Jesus used when he performed what a wondering world has called miracles, but which, according to Dr. Robinson, was the simple application of full understanding of that dynamic, all powerful force which comes from the Master of the Universe, the Living God. You will enjoy reading Dr. Robinson's lecture, Psychiana. It will surely startle you with the possibilities it unfolds, possibilities of unlimited power available for the seeking,
