

ONE OF MANY BEAUTIFUL LETTERS RECEIVED

Seattle, Washington
August 6, 1936

"And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear." Isa. 65, 24.

Dear Dr. Robinson:

I have just returned from town where I posted you a letter containing a money order for balance due on Lessons received; and found your letter with request for funds and offer to send Advanced Course for full payment. It made me very happy to recall the above statement from Isaiah. My heart goes out to you in love and gratitude in this your hour of testing. For I know that after the crucifixion comes the ascension, which is always cause for rejoicing. We know that divinity cannot be crucified. Only the human sense of things, it is that needs to be put to death; that the divine may have full sway in our consciousness.

I wish that I might be able to send you more at this time, for I really owe you for two sets of Lessons as I shared mine with a sick Sister and Brother, a Mr. & Mrs. Petersen whom you have heard from and who have been greatly benefited by studying them. So under no circumstances could I permit you to give me the Advanced Course without payment. If after the delayed payment for the first Lessons, you still feel that you can trust me with the other course, I shall be very happy to accept them and pay as soon as possible.

There are many things that I feel that I should like to talk over with you, but I feel at this time you have your thought fully occupied. I shall send you my best thoughts always. And after the shadows have past, then perhaps I may seek your help. Let me call your attention once again to a saying of Isaiah: "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord."

"PSYCHIANA" the Oversoul, CANNOT FAIL. Never doubt it. I, Your Student DO believe in the Power of the LIVING GOD.

Most sincerely yours,

Emma Markley
