

Dear Friend and Student:

Here is Lesson four and it is a very important Lesson too. It deals with the subject of the world's Creator, and goes into the GOD-LAW at some depth. It shows you that the mighty master intelligence that created this Universe did not hold a conversation with a talking snake in the garden of Eden six thousand years ago.

But it does show you something of the magnificence and the power of this Creative Spirit and in a small measure shows you something of the amazing possibilities of your own life when this mighty GOD-LAW is brought into play. By this time of course you have grasped something of the immensity of this mighty Law and please give special attention to this Lesson.

Don't be in a hurry with it and above anything else be sure that you have mastered it before you receive the next one.

Sincerely your friend,
