“PSYCHIANA”

A MOVEMENT OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD ON THE EARTH

LETTER OF TRANSMISSION WITH LESSON 30

Dear Fellow-Student:

Here is your Lesson 30. It continues our studies into the “resurrection” of the world’s many “saviors.” Surely, with all these, the world cannot, or should not be lost. What I am trying to do here in these Lessons, is to bring to you the fact that perhaps what you have always considered the “truths of God,” might very easily not be just that after all. And I know that you want to know the TRUTH about God. By this time you know it, of course. I think, though, it is quite necessary for you to know these things, for when you do grasp them, you will at once see the fallacy of some of the things you have perhaps built your whole faith on. But don’t build any more on faith. THINK. The Christian bible says something about “come, let us reason together.” That’s it—REASON. And there is no REASON in any story of the murder of a God to save a world he himself cursed. That, to me, is pagan mythology or superstition. No one will go out and gouge his or her eyes out through following “PSYCHIANA,” I assure you. You will find but one thing through this Teaching—that one thing is GOD.

Cordially your friend and fellow-Student,

Frank B. Robinson

QUESTIONS FOR LESSON NUMBER 30

1. What is the most important fact to be noted in considering the news item quoted from the Portland OREGONIAN?
2. Give the three incidents listed by Doctor Robinson which are common to the deaths of several of the demigod saviors.
3. Give the names of several of the saviors whose deaths were attended by darkness.
4. What fact leads to the conclusion that the story of the opening of the graves, in the history of Christ, was borrowed from old pagan legends?
5. What natural events probably furnished the basis for the legends of the darkness accompanying the deaths of these “gods”?
6. The principal motive of Christ’s biographers in reporting the incredible events identified with his crucifixion seems to have grown out of what desire?
7. What is the reason for the terrible condition of this world and men today?
8. Will man ever be able to find peace, satisfaction, and power by his own efforts, completely leaving God out of the picture?
9. What does Doctor Robinson ask you to do in order to locate other Students of “PSYCHIANA”?
10. Approximately how old are the stories of the Hindoo savior, Krishna, and the Persian savior, Mithra?
