THEME: (ORGAN 30 SECONDS, FADE OUT, PAUSE)

ANNOUNCER: 1 Look at the faces of the people you pass on the 2 street. . . How many do you see who reflect a spirit
 3 of inner peace? And yet there is so much of peace 4 and attainment in the world --- isn't it strange to 5 you that more people aren't happy. For that matter,
 6 search your own heart --- are you happy?
 7 Well, this transcription is for the express purpose
 8 of telling you how you may realize the happiness and 9 material abundance which is your rightful heritage
 10 as a creature of God. Throughout the world today, 11 there are thousands of persons who are realizing that 12 there is a source of eternal, abiding power which is 13 theirs to command. Yes, in more than 67 countries 14 of the world, there has gone a joyous message of 15 new hope, new encouragement --- the message of 16 Psychiana! In a moment you will hear the voice of 17 Dr. Frank B. Robinson, founder of the new scientific 18 ^{TEACHING} ~~religion~~ which offers you the realization of every right 19 desire. There is a mighty law of God, which operates 20 for every living creature, which you can use to bring 21 you peace, happiness, and an abundance of material
 22 things which is yours by the right of existence.

THEME UP: FADE OUT: / - Doctor - Robinson, in person

While I am speaking to you for these few brief moments, let me ask you to rest and - be quiet. I realize that things outwardly may seem disturbing to you, and it may be that you are facing problems which are enough to disturb anyone. If you are, then I have a message for you, and it is a message of power too, - as those who have found and used this dynamic power well know. You may think that your individual problems are perhaps a little too difficult to solve, but let me hasten to assure you that this is not a fact. Do you think for a minute that the great law of Nature, ^{God} which controls everything, could fail you? No, my friends, it cannot fail, if you will but

DOCTOR:

1 understand the secret of realization which will 2 make it possible for you to reach out for the 3 riches which life is waiting to bestow.

4 And I hope in the little town of Dillon, South
 5 Carolina my friend ^{to} his listening who wrote this 6 letter:

7 Dear Dr. Robinson: it begins.

8 I feel that I am at the crossroads....one road
 9 leading to failure, the other to success. I don't 10 know which way to turn. My problem is this. I 11 must have a real job where I can work and make 12 a living and I do not have enough wisdom and 13 understanding to know where the trouble is, and 14 why I do not have this. For sometime now, I've 15 known that thoughts are the things that draw from this 16 Spiritual Realm the things we need. I know that 17 one must expect great things and then go after 18 them. But Dr. Robinson, I do not seem to succeed.
 19 I keep constructive thoughts uppermost in my mind,
 20 but they do not lead me to constructive action.
 21 That is why I don't know ~~now~~ which way to ~~return~~.
 22 I feel that ^{there is a} ~~I am at the cross roads and that some~~ 23 ^{of that} way, you will be kind enough to tell me where my 24 trouble is. How can I succeed? ~~That is what I~~
 25 ~~would like to know.~~

Very truly, (signed)

Answer #3

In answering THIS letter, I can do no better than to give you some practical advice --- When you reach the crossroads of life, When you recognize the fact that one road may lead to failure and the other to success, it's always a very good thing, to stand still. The fact that you RECOGNIZE a conflict, that you know there is trouble somewhere along the line, will help you in the end, to make ^a ~~the~~ wise decision. It is true that you must expect great things. But many a man and many a woman has made a complete shipwreck of their lives through trying to go after, the things they needed. That is because FIRST, there must be wisdom and understanding before there is action. There must be a vision which guides you in the things you do. Without this vision, you will be like the forty souls adrift on a turbulent ocean, victims of a shipwreck. They are parched with thirst. Their bodies are fatigued. They have been stranded on a derelict for many days, when suddenly a ship appears in the distance. As it pulls along side, the pitiful cry is "Water - Water -- We're Dying of Thirst." And the captain of the rescuing ship calls down to them -- "Dip your bucket over the side. You're in the fresh ^{clear} waters of the Amazon."

Pause — Pause

If you are at the crossroads of life, before you look or step ahead, THINK --- are you acting with complete wisdom --- a wisdom that is supplied by the ~~unseen~~, invisible, dynamic spiritual power which is a part of the human race as it exists today. It is easy to use this power, once you understand it. Once you have in mind a definite objective, then above all, recognize the fact that your life WITHOUT the power of the great spiritual realm, will invariably end up in failure, BUT -- working WITH this dynamic spiritual power which exists for all, your life can be nothing less than a grand success. When Andrew Carnegie first came to this country, he worked for one dollar a day. Today, his is one of the biggest fortunes the world has known. This was accomplished because he used ^{the} ~~that~~ law that governs success, the definite practical ^{+ use.} DYNAMIC law that is PRESENT, here and now, for all to understand. Am I talking about some abstract thing? Most assuredly not. I am talking about the most vivid reality the spiritual realm has offered to the human race. A power that is REAL. You can make it manifest and operate in your life, if you will but try.
