

THE QUICK AND THE DEAD

lead Jan 18

There are just two different types of people in this world--the "quick" and the "dead". The "Quick" are those who, while they do not look any different from anyone else if you meet them on the street, know the power of the Spirit of God. The "dead" are those human beings who, although kept alive and motivated by the Power of the Spirit of God, know absolutely nothing about Its indwelling Presence, and are, therefore, utterly oblivious to what It can do for them in this life.

The former people are they who, in life's every detail, recognize the existing Spirit of God in them, and, quite naturally they live an overwhelmingly victorious life. The latter, or "the dead", and I mean spiritually, of course, fail in everything they try to do. Not knowing the absolute presence of the Spirit of God IN THEM, and full of the foolish religious theory that you cannot possibly know God until you die, and then only if you believe that Jesus Christ was killed on a cross for you, these good souls paddle their way through life, laboring under the church delusion that they were "born in sin and shapen in iniquity"---a theory which will not hold water. A theory which is nothing more than religious superstition in its fiercest form.

Under this theory, man is handicapped from the very beginning. He enters life under a cloud. He has not a chance---unless, of course, he chooses to believe what one of the eleven major systems of religion operating on the earth today asks him to believe. The Christian will tell him that there is no other way to find God than through Jesus Christ. But the Buddhist comes along, and, advocating a religious philosophy which is practically the same as the Christian philosophy, he tells us that we cannot possibly know God unless we believe in his "trinity" of Gods. Then the other 9 major systems come along, and they tell us the very same thing. In other words, eleven present day systems of religion are bidding in the open market for the "souls" of men.

Each is offering a solution to the "God" proposition, and each is claiming that you cannot know God unless you believe in the particular "god" that system of religion teaches. They all claim to be teaching the "only true god". The careful man, however, will not blindly believe what any of these systems of religion teach. He will investigate them all. And if his conclusions are as mine are, he will, after investigating them all--discard them all.

For eleven years now I have been making the statement that these stories of "crucified gods" are not true. And I include in them, the "crucified god" of the Christian religion. This statement, of course, causes to go up a terrible howl from those who are members of the Christian "faith". They say---"this man Robinson is trying to destroy the church--he should be put in the penitentiary". But that has ever been the cry when some forward-looking thinking individual comes into the limelight, denying the claims of "orthodoxy" and offering to show beyond a shadow of doubt, that these claims are not true.

I am not trying to destroy anything. I am trying to bring to this earth the TRUE CONCEPTION OF GOD, AS THE REALM OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD HAS REVEALED THAT TRUTH TO ME. Naturally, it is most incumbent on me to show the fallacies of what is masquerading as "of God" when I know for a fact that this thing which is masquerading as being "of god" is nothing of the sort.

If, knowing the actual facts of God, and knowing that these "crucified god" stories are not true, what sort of a criminal would I be if I refused to tell the world what the truth of God is, just because the church teaches something else, or because of implied and threatened persecution to me and mine? I should be untrue to God-- I should be untrue to myself--and I should also be untrue to my Country, which Country I love, respect and try to make better. But I am not going to be untrue to either. I am going to keep hammering away at these truths of God, and, sooner than perhaps some suspect, they will become universally known and recognized for what they are--TRUTHS OF THE LIVING GOD.

The "quick" instantly recognize what I am teaching, while the "dead" cannot possibly recognize it as truth, because they have been led in a way which is not true, and they will have to find that out by experience. The Christian religion is no different from the rest of the religions. It is, with one exception, the most recent of them all. Yet every fundamental teaching of this religion may be found in many other systems of religion which were extant on this earth long before the Christian religion was ever heard of.

Every one of these systems of religion (so-called) tries to separate God and man. They make it impossible to believe in God. They erect a barrier between God and man. They say to man--"unless you believe what we teach--you are damned". And they all have a philosophy which dooms man from the very start. He is born in sin and shapen in iniquity. He goes to hell unless he believes what that particular system of religion teaches. And therein lies the death and the failure of every system of religion the world has ever known, which system teaches the erection of ANY barrier between God and man. I don't care if the barrier is even a "crucified god". If it comes between God and man--IT IS NOT TRUE AND SHOULD BE ELIMINATED FROM THE PICTURE AS FAST AS POSSIBLE.

For the truth is that the Spirit of God lives NOW in every man, and every man can, through that in-existing Spirit of God, rise to whatsoever heights he cares to rise to. The Christian religion teaches--"if any man teach any other doctrine--let him be accursed". Yet look at the world today in spite, not only of the Christian religion, but of the ten other major systems operating on earth. Would you say that any one of them or all of them combined have made the presence of God real to this earth? Would you say that any of them are able to do one single thing towards stopping this major calamity which has fallen upon mankind? Would you say that, when each one of them is howling "failuer", they are qualified to teach others about God? Why they cannot even hold what ground they have, and how in under the sun are they going to bring the truths of God to the rest of us?

They cannot. And the reason they cannot is because they do not have those truths to bring to man. And if that be treason--make the most of it. Instead of having the truths of the Great Spirit--God--all the churches of today have is a system of theology which, in its entirety, can be proven to be nothing more nor less than a copy of another old "religion" which was hoary with age long before Christianity was ever heard of. That religion failed to reveal God to man. And the Christian religion, being a copy of this other old religion (which Christians call "pagan") has also failed. I never beat round the bush when writing about things of God. I don't care if the whole church organization rakes issue with me and says I am wrong. The system of religion being taught by me, through the inspiration and revelation of the Spirit of God, has done more to reveal God to man in the past eleven years, than all the churches of christendom have done in their whole existences. That fact cannot be disputed. The records speak for themselves.

Now why has Christianity failed? Why is it impotent to reveal God to the world today and to stop this ghastly carnage in Europe and Asia? Let me tell you---kindly, lovingly, yet firmly--the reason the Christian church has failed is because it is based on old "pagan" ~~myths~~ myths and superstitions, and not on the truths of the invisible Spirit of God. That's why. And I challenge successful contradiction of this statement. Let us see. The Christian tells us that his religion is the only true and original religion there is---but---wait a minute---hold on for a while and let us check that statement before we accept it. For truths too stupendous to trifle with are involved therein. Let us be careful before we accept that claim, for every other system of religion on the face of the earth is making the same claim.

The Christian religion teaches God as a "trinity" of father, son and holy ghost. The religion of India, however, teaches the same thing. The second person in the Christian "trinity" is Jesus Christ and the second person in the Hindoo "trinity" is Jeseus Chrishna. Both were part of God and all of God at the same time. Both were born on the 25th day of December. Both were born of a virgin without sexual intercourse, and both were conceived of "the holy ghost" or the thidr part of the trinity of each system of religion. The mother of the god in each instance was Mary. The lives of these two "seconds" was sought in early childhood by the ruling king, and both were hidden in the river to keep them away from the wrath of this ruling monarch.

They both came to save the world "from sin" and they both lived about the same space of years---33. Then, they both met death on a "cross", they both rose again from the dead, and they both are now, even as I write this, sitting in heaven at the right hand of God Almighty. There is no difference in the two stories---with one exception---the Hindoo had this complete story 1400 years before the Christian had it. How then can the Christian claim "originality" or "tr th" for his story?

In the Hindoo bible the name of the first man found righteous was Noe. The Christian has it Noah. The first man God made in the Christian bible was Adam and his wife was Eve. But, 1400 years before, the Hindoo bibles gave the first man as Adimo and his wife Heva. The three sons of Noah in the Christian bible were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. In the Hi doo bible, 1400 yaers before, they were Sherma, Hama, and Jiapheta. Now, if there be a Christian who is alarmed by these facts, let me ask such an one to remember that the Founder of "Psychiana" is only trying to get at the truth. He loves the Christian church, and that is the reason he wr tes as he does---to help it get the truths of God instead of a lot of old Indian myths and superstitions, which it is today attempting to foist off on the American people as being truths of God. They are NOT the truths of God and we can prove they are not. All they are is old "pagan" mythology, and all of them were known to other religions, and millions of people, thousand sof years before Jesus Christ was ever heard of.

So shall we be honest---both "quick" and "dead". Let the Christian go to any large public library and see if what I am saying is true or not. Dont ask your priest or preacher because he will not tell you. But go and find out for yourselves. In this way only can the truths of God be made known. And unless those truths of God are made known very speedily, this world may perish. Only the Power of the Spirit of God, manifesting through human lives can save this world from complete disaster. All the church systems put together cannot bring to this earth, one scrap of spiritual truth because they have not got it to bring.

But the spiritual truths of God ARE being brought to this earth. The wat is dark and thorny as the way of the religious pioneer always is. But---thank God---we are nringing ACTUAL SPIRITUAL TRUTHS to the world, and we are demonstrating the Power of the Spirit of God on the earth in human lives, and that power will overcome and throw down every enemy of spiritual truth, no matter whether that enemy is supposed to be "of god" or not.

Beloved---this whole system of religion (so-called) has to get acquainted with God or it will perish. There will shortly be unleashed on the earth such a reign of horror and terror that it will make the stoutest hearts quail before it. And it is going to take a better philosophy of God than "Jesus Christ and him crucified" to bring to this earth, the Power of the Spirit of God.

Let the church then awaken to this very desperate situation. Let it at least listen to us here in Moscow Idaho. We are not trying to hurt---we are trying to help. Of course, if the church will not be helped---of it insists on sticking to its old "crucified god" theory, it will go down to total oblivion, and none can help. In that case, and it has already happened, as Dr. Lean Milner Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis said--"THE SPIRIT OF GOD WILL NOT LEAVE THIS EARTH, BUT HIS SPIRIT WILL MANIFEST THROUGH ORGANIZATIONS OUTSIDE OF THE CHURCH".

That is exactly what is happening today. So smug and benign has the church become with its false philosophy, that it wants nothing else. It asks nothing better. It knows it is failing. It is beside ~~####~~ itself in its honest efforts to do something for God and humanity. BUT IT INSISTS ON STICKING TO THE STORY OF JESUS CHRIST AS GOD, WHEN IT CAN BE ABUNDANTLY PROVEN THAT THE CHANCES ARE JESUS CHRIST NEVER EVEN LIVED---LET ALONE WAS GOD ALMIGHTY. And whether the church likes what I write or not, what I write is true because the Spirit of God is upon me, and this Spirit has ordained me to bring to this earth, the ACTUAL TRUTHS OF GOD WHICH CAN NOT ONLY SAVE HUMAN SOULS, BUT WHICH CAN SAVE THE NATIONS AS WELL.

The "quick" and the "dead" are not very far apart today. The "quick" recognize the staggering fact that the Spirit of God lives in them. The "dead" do not know this. They pin their hopes on some church philosophy or other. And these church philosophies cannot save anyone. They do not stand up. The reasoning mind of America does not accept them. Then, shall we not let them go back into pagan mythology from whence they came? Please do. For when these old traditions are gone---there is only one thing left---and that one thing is THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN YOU. Surely that is where God should be. Surely a universal recognition of that fact will stop this war and bring permanent peace to us all.

The Catholic church---the Protestant church---all sects and denominations---all crying failure. TRY GOD BRETHREN. Forget Jesus Christ and Krishna and Buddha and Confucius, and all the rest of these "isms" and "anities". TRY FINDING AND USING THE INVISIBLE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD. THEN YOU WONT FAIL. May the Spirit of Infinite Peace and Truth be upon every priest and preacher in America today. May you all seek of God and find the liberating truths we here in Moscow Idaho are so successfully teaching.
