Dear Dr. Robinson.

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the wonderful course of instruction you have been giving me. When I wrote you a year and three months ago, telling you of my financial troubles and wanting a home. I did not mention being ill although you ask if I was.

I have been for a good many years. One Dr. give me up, five years ago. But I kept saying to my self. some day I will get well. I started studying these wonderful lessons, August 1948 I left home and reported for work, one hour after I got to work, pains in one of my limbs caused me to have to return home. I layed in bed ten days not able to rest or sleep day or night.

Then one the hour and every hour I kept repeating. I have Faith in the Power of the Living God. In the evening I was able to go to a clinic. I was given medicine told that I could be cured in 3 weeks. In a few day I went back and was told I would have to have operation, I of course was scared. I finally consented, and was, I went to work next day and was cured in three week and continued working.

It all happen so quick, I just can't hardly believe it yet. This is what the God Law has done for me. The electrifying Power of God.

Although I havent been able to send you any names and addresses, I am sure I have a very large audience who listens and can tell me every thing I say and think. I some time's wonder how people can tell me every thing I think it must be radar. I am sure I will be able to send some of the people in this big audience are maybe they will write you them selves.

When I miss reading my lessons or miss saying I Believe in the power of the Living God I am told about. I am indeed happy and thankfuly for perfect health. Enclosed you will find remaining balance on my account $12.75 I think this is writ.

all

I would like to hear what you have to say about the Deity.

Deity of the Lord Jesus. "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His Name" (John 20:31).

11. The resurrection proves it. "And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead" (Rom. 1:4).

12. The eunuch believed it. "And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God" (Acts 8:37).

13. Paul preached it. "And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God" (Acts 9:20).

The Scriptures set forth Christ in His glorious Person in such a way as to stagger the profoundest intellect, apart from faith. They speak of Him in such a way as to be absolutely undiscoverable to human intellect. This is why our modern critics deny His Deity and belittle His glorious Person. They cannot reason it out upon a scientific basis. They cannot explain His supernatural birth by the law of natural generation, and so they deny it. They parade their brains and wisdom, and speak of modern scholarship and research, but ignore revelation and faith. They seek to put God down upon the level with man, the human creature, and forget that He is ALL WISE and ALL POWERFUL.

Men need to accept what God says, by faith. All around us there are mysteries which the brainiest scientists fail to explain. Then why should the things of Christianity be so easily comprehended and understood? Nay, these things stagger the most profound student, who is not possessed with faith and enlightened by the Holy Spirit. The truth of God's Word must be admitted, even though, we cannot understand and explain it.

Christianity is constituted of mystery. It is written: "Great is the mystery of Godliness: God was manifest in the flesh" (1 Tim. 3:16). This refers to Christ, for He is the center of Christianity and the Christian faith. He is Emmanuel: "God with us" (Matt. 1:23), "the Word"—God—"made flesh" (John 1:1, 14). "In Him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily" (Col. 2:9). Who can explain this to the perfect satisfaction of any finite mind? Now it must be distinctly remembered that scientific knowledge and superior worldly wisdom does not make the human mind infinite. Nay, the most cultured intellect and the most brilliant mind is still only finite. The great mysteries of Christianity are inexplicable to the most enlightened and cultured finite mind. They are open only to simple faith.

We unhesitatingly declare that Christ stands alone among the sons of men. His greatness and sovereignty are unshared and unsharable. He is pre-eminent (Col. 1:18). He is a unique personality, because He is the Son of God, God the Son. He is not the highest product of evolution, but the unique Son of God, the express image of His character (Heb. 1:3). Christ is not one of this world's great men. Men talk of Alexander the Great, and Napoleon the Great, but Jesus was incomparably greater than the world's greatest. Nay, we would not speak of Jesus the Great, for He is apart from all of them. There is an impassable gulf between Christ and the very best and greatest of men. Jesus is not the Great, He is the One and only. He is not a creature, but the Creator. He is the Lord God Almighty.

And what does it matter what one believes about Christ? Whether one believes in His Deity or not? This question is quite frequently flung back into the face of those who stand for and teach the absolute Deity of the Lord Jesus. We are told it is enough that we believe in the teachings of Christ; that this question of His Deity is but a theological and a doctrinal question. Does it matter? We let the Lord Himself answer. "And He said unto them, ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that I am He, ye shall die in your sins" (John 8:23, 24, A. S. V.). It should be noted that the "He" is in italics and is supplied. What Jesus did say is, "For except ye believe that I AM, ye shall die in your sins." He claimed for Himself the Old Testament Jehovistic I AM (Exod. 3:14), and so claimed to be God and Deity. If the Jews died in their sins if they did not believe in His Deity, will we fare any better? I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. Do you?—The Friend of Russia.

"He that * * stoppeth his ears * * and shutteth his eyes from looking upon evil; * * Thine eyes shall see the King" (Is. 33:15, 17, R. V.).

We must learn to stop our ears, and shut our eyes if we are to live day by day seeing the King, and be honored to carry His messages.

"Don't look" at anything God has forbidden.

"The woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and * * she took" (Gen. 3:6).

The eyes need vigilant keeping if we are to walk in the light as He is in the light, under the sprinkled Blood. The victory must be won over the first look. Not one glance must be permitted when the enemy tempts. "Don't look" even at the books that you are not sure about. God will keep us if we shut our eyes!

"Don't look" at the earthly difficulties.

"Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not * * therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me * * and" (I Sam. 13:11, 12).

It is fatal to look around at consequences, especially in times of crisis, or it will be impossible to be still and wait God's times for deliverance. Jesus came to them "in the fourth watch of the night" (Matt. 14:25). It is always His way. God is never behind time! However dark the path may be, wait; do not go before Him, don't "force yourself" like Saul. Shut your eyes and trust. "The crisis demands action," we say! Nay, "dwell in stillness and wait for clearness"—wait until you are sure of the will of God, and leave the "Philistines" to Him. "Don't look" at the

to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me" (Matt. 14:29, 30).

The walk on the water is just a picture of the walk of faith in blessed blindness. It is only possible as long as we "don't look" at temptation, but keep under the sprinkled Blood; "don't look" around, and admit fear for the Philistines; "don't look" at the roaring lion, and be frightened from our post of duty; "don't look" at others, and admit a doubt of our Father's faithfulness.

"Looking unto Jesus" He will uphold us, and we shall walk in triumph on the stormy sea. We shall endure as seeing Him who is invisible.

"Thou whom I have taken hold of * * fear thou not, for I am with thee; look not around thee, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will keep thee; yea, I will uphold thee" (Is. 41:9, 10, R. V. marg.).

"My King, and my God * * I * * will look up" (Ps. 5:2, 3).—The C. and M. Alliance.

IS GOD WAITING?

JAMES H. McCONKEY

I WAS standing on the wall of a great lock. Outside was a huge lake vessel about to enter. At my feet lay the empty lock—waiting. For what? Waiting to be filled. Away beyond lay great Lake Superior with its limitless abundance of supply, also waiting. Waiting for what? Waiting for something to be done at the lock ere the great lake could pour in its fullness. In a moment it was done. The lock-keeper reached out his hand and touched a steel lever. A little wicket gate sprang open under the magic touch. At once the water in the lock began to boil, and seethe. As it seethed I saw it rapidly creeping up the walls of the lock. In a few moments the lock was full. The great gates swung open and the huge ship floated into the lock now filled to the brim with the fullness in-poured from the waiting lake without.

Is not this a picture of a great truth about the Holy Spirit? Here are God's children, like that empty lock, waiting to be filled. And as that great inland sea outside the lock was willing and waiting to pour its abundance into the lock, so here is God willing to pour His fullness of life into the lives of His children. But He is waiting. For what? Waiting, as the lake waited, for something to be done by us. Waiting for us to reach forth and touch that tiny wicket gate of consecration through which His abundant life shall flow and fill. Is it hard to move? Does the rust of worldliness corrode it? Do the weeds and ivy-vines of selfishness cling about and choke it? Is the will stubborn, and slow to yield? Yet God is waiting for it. And once it is done, He reveals Himself in fullness of life even as He has promised; even as He has been all the time willing and ready to do. For all the barriers and hindrances have been upon our side; not upon His. They are the barriers not of His unwillingness, but of our unyieldedness. And so you say you got all of Christ when you were saved? Doubtless you did, but the point in issue here is not whether you got all of Christ, but did Christ get all of you?—The Missionary Worker.

GOSPEL HERALD

THE DEITY OF THE LORD JESUS

THE Deity of the Lord Jesus is abundantly taught in the Scriptures. To deny His essential Deity one must deny the Divine inspiration, authenticity and authority of the Scriptures. We shall not enlarge upon this marvelous theme, but simply assert certain great facts concerning it, and let the reader meditate upon the Scriptures given to prove these facts for himself.

1. The angel asserted it. "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that Holy Thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God" (Luke 1:35).

2. John the Baptist witnessed to it. "And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God" (John 1:34).

3. The Father affirmed it. "And lo a voice from Heaven, saying, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matt. 3:17).

4. Demons acknowledged it. "And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, Thou Son of God? art Thou come hither to torment us before the time"? (Matt. 8:29).

5. Nathanael confessed it. "Nathanael answered and saith unto Him, Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel" (John 1:49).

6. The disciples were confident of it. "Then they that were in the ship came and worshiped Him, saying, Of a truth Thou art the Son of God" (Matt. 14:33).

7. Peter confessed it. "And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matt. 16:16).

8. Jesus proclaimed it. "And the high priest answered and said unto Him, I adjure Thee by the living God, that Thou tell us whether Thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto Him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven" (Matt. 26:63, 64). "I and My Father are one" (John 10:30).

9. The Roman centurion confessed it. "Now when the centurion, and they that were with Him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God" (Matt. 27:54).

10. The purpose of John's Gospel is to declare the seed of Israel also shall cease from being before me for ever. Thus saith the Lord; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the Lord" (Jer. 31:35-37). And the promise goes beyond the present earth. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before Me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain" (Is. 66:22).

One of the literally fulfilled promises which God made to Abraham, was that kings should come of him. One of these was David, to whom the Lord, progressively unfolding His plan, gave an unconditional Covenant, advancing in detail upon the Abrahamic Covenant. The initial statement is found in II Samuel 7:12-16, but I will quote from the exposition of it found in Psalm 89. "I have made a Covenant with My chosen, I have sworn unto David My servant, Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. * * My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and My Covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven. If his children forsake My Law, and walk not in My judgments; if they break My statutes, and keep not My commandments; then will I visit their transgressions with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless My lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer My faithfulness to fail. My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips. Once I have sworn by My holiness that I will not lie unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before Me. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in Heaven" (Ps. 89:3, 4, 28-37). With this compare Luke 1:31-33, and Matthew 1:1.

David understood the Covenant to deal with literal, national matters (II Sam. 7:18-29) as did Solomon (II Chron. 6:14-16). There is not one reference in the New Testament connecting the present session of Christ with the Davidic throne. One writer has listed twenty-one arguments in favor of a literal interpretation of the ~~Davidic Covenant~~. Part of it has been already fulfilled literally in Christ; to spiritualize the balance does violence to Scripture, and makes God's promises a football for men's fancies.

We have considered two unconditional covenants. We notice that disobedience will cause loss of blessing

It makes no difference whether you call this Power The "Power of God" or not, or whether you go to church or not. This invisible Power of The Creator has always been behind you, nourishing you, and strengthening you and developing you, even through times of doubt and complete indifference. The Spirit of God is no psychic fantasy nor savage superstition. It is as real and regular as the law of gravitation...as universal as the mystery of creation...as near as the last drop of your blood.

He who set the stars in place and made the fields to bloom and men to love and labor is not indifferent to our human pain. We may not see this or understand It, but we can find the Truth of It in the smallest blade of grass.

If you attempt to contact this Power as directed, and if you pour out your head and heart, The Spirit of God will take over and bring you your desires. If you are really in earnest, there will come to you strength and courage which He planted in you from the very beginning.

May The Spirit of Infinite Peace be with you always.

Dear Dr. Robinson:

Perhaps you personally will never see this letter - I rather imagine it would be next to impossible for you to see the volume of mail received by your organization. Never-the-less, I feel that I want to write you, partly to explain why I am not sending in lists of names for your mailing list and partly because I thought perhaps you like to know something of your students and their reactions to your teachings, since you have asked that we write you regarding results obtained, etc.

In the first few lessons where you suggest we tell our friends - get little groups together in our homes, etc. I almost stopped studying the lessons with the thought that if I could only find the Spirit or Power of God in me by trying to persuade my friends or acquaintances to think or do as I was doing then I'd better not try to find that Power. I am not a leader or teacher in any manner, nor have I ever been able to sell anyone else on my ideas. I have never liked for anyone else to try to sell me on their ideas, especially so far as religion went. I wanted to do my own searching and studying. Finally, I decided that my not being able to get others interested (at least as yet), or to send you in names, could not possibly mean that if I believe what you teach and work at it that I could not find what I've been reaching out for. So, I have continued and am now on the eighth (8th) lesson.

I am a business woman - a little past 40 yrs - an executive of a good sized organization. Most of my friends or acquaintances are also business persons - busy all the time wither at their work or their so-called play. I live alone in an apartment building and like thousands of others in a city like Chicago, do not know my own neighbors. I have among my friends Catholics, Christian Scientists, all denominations of Protestants and many with no acknowledged religion at all so far as creeds go. I suppose it would be well to tell you right here that I myself am in the last category, as I do not belong to any church. I did not have very strict religious training as a child. We were, however, sent to Sunday Schools in our small town, but I have absolutely no memory of anything gained or learned from it. After I grew up, got curious and realized that there was much more to religion than just christianity or churchanity (as I have called it), I was grateful for not being forced by my parents to accept or believe some certain creed or doctrine, for without any feeling of disloyalty I could try to find the religion that was best for me. I have dabbled in several - including Christian Science, but still had not found what was completely understandable to me, nor anything I could feel was the answer. So far in my lessons with you everything you have said is truth, and while I have not experienced as yet any open manifestations, I believe in your teachings and most of all believe in the Power of God. I am grateful to you for the knowledge of the "in me" part of it - that has given me a different picture of things I could not understand before. I respect anyone's religion if it gives them what they are seeking, but I have never gotten much from any church sermon. I do attend a church here occasionally - not always for church service - to hear Dr. Preston Bradley (perhaps you have heard of him, he is pretty widely known) the only Minister I have ever heard who gave me any message to carry away with me. So you see I have been in complete agreement with you on all you say about the failure of the churches, or rather their leaders.

I have studied each lesson as faithfully as I possibly could. I do not want to offer excuses, but I am very busy with my work and often when I get home all I can do is retire. Many times when I know I am going to be late, I carry the lesson with me and sandwich it in between appointments, but I cannot tell you that I have read each one every day, for I have had to miss a few days - not many though. There are probably hundreds of times during a day when I repeat the Affirmation, but to do it as a routine every hour on the hour was simply impossible. Many days I have so many people come into my office, or so many things piled on my desk, that before I realize I have sat down in my chair around 9: A.M. all of a sudden it is 11: or 12: oclock. I did not allow the routine part of it to bother me, as it seemed to me that I was practically repeating it with about every other breath. Also, at first it was extremely difficult and still isn't easy to relax as you suggest- flat on the back and not moving a muscle. I guess it is naturally hard for me to relax at all, but I am making the effort and find it easier as I go along. I feel much better about the evening exercises now and your instructions on prayer . I can truthfully say that I have always had "Faith in God" In fact felt that there was no question about how much faith , as I believed wholeheartedly in God, but I didn't really know myself what my conception of God was or where to find Him. I believe I do now, and as explained before while there has been no great change in my life or open manifestation, I know that with the Power of God in me I will find my rightful place and purpose here - now. I have always felt that there must be a purpose to my life, but I have never felt despite being more-or-less successful in business, that I had found that either. I don't think I belong in business - I am not a brilliant individual by any means - nor too highly educated. Because of divorced parents I had to get most of my education by working for it. Nothing has been handed to me along those lines. Altho much has been handed to me in other ways - good health - wonderful friends and the ability to work and be successful, all of which I am extremely grateful for. The only thing I can attribute it to is the fact that I try to be fair, honest, tolerant, kind, and pleasant in all my associations. I have never desired wealth, but I have always wanted a home instead of a career - a real home I mean, in a smaller town, with grass and trees around it and filled with love and harmony - shared by someone you could love and respect and work with in doing something worthwhile in life. This now I am concentrating on as I thank the Father within me each night. Too, for the past several years I have had to wear glasses for poor vision and my hearing is not good. I know there is no reason for either of these conditions. So you see, I do have many things to pray for - material things I mean - in addition to the first and foremost - that of finding the Kingdom of God, and I believe that I shall receive them.

Now please let me take this opportunity to thank you so very much for crossing my path. I don't know how you got my name and I don't care - I am just thankful that you got it. I wish I could in turn help your organization right now by sending in hundreds of names of persons who would benefit by this knowledge. Maybe I can later and I do hope and pray I may be able to. I have mentioned the lessons to one friend ( one who has an open mind ) and we have discussed parts of them, but I have to feel her out and decide just what she will accept and I know her well enough to know when she is closing her mind on it. Too many people today have to have proof - something concrete to base their belief on.

Again I thank you for bringing these wonderful messages to me.

Sincerely

Dear, Dr. Robinson

I thought to write to let you know that I did pretty well last year but look like we have a little set back this year.

I suffer with my feet a good bit. I made a good bit of money last year but I can't tell where most of it went. I thought Andrew had finish his course. I want to get all the children's courses paid out. But Bendak's not doing anything

to help.

I am very, very, glad
for this course, if it hadn't been for it I don't know where I would have been.

Dr. I am still reading the 14th lesson. I would be glad if you will say
a word to (God) for Bendak.

I'll be glad to hear from you soon

Dear Friends:

Thanks kindly for your letter of November 24th. I am expecting our present difficulties to be cleared away though Faith in the God Power.

May I refer to other correspondence. I wrote you some time in March or April regarding my sister suffering from heart attacks.
These continued for about four months or so<sup>x</sup> - and then they disappeared. Meantime she had made another visit to the University of California Hospital - and the only change they made in their treatment was to increase the dosage of medicine which she had been taking for more than two years, but without improvement.

In all events - she has now apparently recovered - at least it has been three months since her last attack -- something that has been unknown for five or six years, as she was rushed to her local doctor twice or at least once a week for a long long time.

I understand that this is the GOD LAW at work. No question as to how it works - it worked. AM I RIGHT IN THIS DEDUCTION?
Sister has studied Psychiana with me only a little - still for all the above result was achieved and for which I thank Psychiana.

Thank you so much for your help. I know you are overloaded with work of answering letters, but I continue studying and want to be clear on everything.

Faithfully,

Psychina

Moscow, Idaho

Some few weeks ago I completed my study of the "new Psychina" which I wish to express as the most interesting and most common sense literature I have ever read.

I have read and enjoyed each lesson over and over to grasp all the good which was in them and I can honestly say those lessons have done me a lot of good, showing me how to appreciate the things I have, which I and lots of others have never valued at all. The value of my spiritual mind has increased 100%.

I would like very much to continue studying with you folks on the next 12 lessons, however as the present situation is I will have to put it off for some time, but would like this letter filed as reference so that at a later date I may subscribe and not lose my chance of doing so. Please notify me if this will be O.K.

I not being a very talkative fellow haven't had much progress in spreading the news of Psychina, but I do have a very dear friend and his wife Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Moody of 1312 Hamilton St. Roanoke Rapids, N.C. whom I have talked with and they were interested enough to ask to read the lessons and both have expressed very much enjoyment in reading them. Mr. Moody and I have been wondering how many people here in Roanoke Rapids, are members of Psychina. Could you tell us the number and who they are. I would appreciate it. Also why do names and addresses not appear on advertisements. Seems that for the good and truth which I believe Psychina stands for, I would be glad to have my name shown with what I had to say about Psychina.

I wish to express my sympathy in the death of Mr. Robinson, and that I feel that his work has just begun to live, and the progress of Psychina Religion is yet to come.

Sincerely hoping for that progress and promising to do my best toward it,
I am,

Very truly yours.

Dear Mr. Robinson =

I started taking your course a few weeks ago, I have my 5th lesson, I am learning so much I did not know before. The God-Law is at work, in my home. I have recognized it a number of times, let me if you will go in to detail a little my husband and I have been married over nineteen years. he has drank pretty heavy from time to time, he has lost every job he had on account of it. And he cursed so bad in the run of conversation even - well I sent for your lesson on Aug 17, I had no idea he would read them, I got them

 for myself I always want to learn more of God. may I say here I don't cuss or drink. he got on a bender
 lost his job. so I talked to him
 in two weeks, I used quite a bit that was in the first session as that is the only one I had at that time. I prayed. so he says to me, "Let me see that book you talk so much about." I did and fast. he read and reread it. and said "this man has surely got something here." he is so different he does not drink he say one cannot drink and believe in God.
 as plain as this is. he does not say one cuss word. he got his job back the very same week he started reading and following instructions. he is absolutely

"Psychiana"
Moscow, Idaho

Dear Sir:

I was very sorry to have written you to discontinue the lessons, because I would like very much to continue, and still do, if you felt I was not too bad a risk.

Due to a head accident, my expenses, these past months have have gone to unforeseen heights. Quite past my income I'm afraid, but I'm hoping things will soon balance. You will find enclosed $3.00 for another start on my payments, ~~fact~~ I was very sorry to hear of the passing of Dr. Robinson, and glad that his son will carry on. My reaction to this work is a bit like that of Marcus Bach. It was thru the reading of his book, I desired to know more about "Psychiana". And am keeping the splendid tribute he wrote at the death of Dr. Robinson, in the book, as I lend it to others. And it is being lent continuously.

It might be of interest, that since I am a recent graduate of the college here, a Lutheran one, (Wittenberg), and my work brings me into touch with people from surrounding states, that I do find it valuable to tell them about this work, often they ask about such things, without any effort on my part. Of, course there are times, when I wish the church was not attack quite so fiercely in the lessons, as that makes some quite too mad to read further. Like Dale Carnegie (the author of How to Win Friends etc,) so often says, to tell a person they are wrong, even if they are, does accomplish nothing.

When one over looks that side, and sees the white light that shines thru, one hopes it will continue, and grow in a way to reach all the people. As for me, I really hope you will not stop the lessons to me, and will try to catch up month by month. But I guess you will have to be the judge if it is best.

Sincerely,

weeks ago been doctoring
three years for Catarrah and was getting worse as days went by. When I received lesson
No 5 as I was reading the last page I laid the Lesson down and repeated the words as you suggested, Spirit of the living God in me. Rebel your self to me just then I got a thrill I could never forget for five minutes. I sat with tears streaming down my cheeks, this happens many times each day now and each time I either want to Cry or sing, I feel so happy.

About this same time my Cancer was giving me a lot of pain, I went to see my Dr.
about it he said it had to be taken care of right away so he set the next day at 8 o'clock
when I should be at his office and he would take me to Sacramento for an operation.
When I arrived home that evening
I spent about three hours talking with the spirit of God about all my troubles, to my surprise
next morning the cancer
was gone and a great improvement in my arthritis and Colic. I am improving right along each day and look forward to a day soon with the help of God I will be in good health once more. Thanks to God and to all concerned, your lessons are wonderful.

Gentlemen:-

Now that I have finished the first Series of Lessons, I want to tell you how very much I have enjoyed studying them and I shall continue to re-read them one by one until I will "finally become perfect in the technique of faith in God". My need is to become more consciously aware of the Truth that "I and my Father are one," that of my own human self I can do nothing, "the Father in me He doeth the works."

I am sorry that I did not write while Fr. Robinson was still with us, to thank him personally for the wonderful work he has done for all mankind through the Power of the living God within him. My deepest sympathy went out to the members of his family after hearing about his passing on. It is beyond human understanding why so great a man had to leave so soon.

As much as I would like to subscribe to Fr. Robinson's advanced Series of Lessons, it would not be wise for me to do so at this time. I hope that at some later date I will be able to enroll. The reason is that I have my sisters and their families in Europe and they need every help I can possibly give them. But I am thanking God that I can contribute materially in a small measure so as to keep them from great suffering.

I shall be glad and will do my best to mention the Psychiana teaching to all with whom I come in contact, although I do not go out among people very much. On account of my health, which is now improving slowly, I live a very quiet life. I sincerely hope that the Psychiana Movement will keep on growing, so that some day all the world will "Believe in the Power of the Living God".

I heard God's voice speaking to me once, very clearly saying: "You shall never be forsaken." At the same time a glorious feeling went through my whole being. There was no fear and no doubt but I knew for a certainty that God's promises are kept.

Gratefully

Dear sir; In reply to your letter of some time ago. It was with surprise and sorrow I learn of the passing of Dr. Robinson. I felt like I had lost a friend. I had lost two friends near the same period. My own mother had passed away Sept 24, 1948.

It had been with much pleasure I have read Dr. Robinson's work. That is <sup>as</sup> much of it as it has been <sup>my</sup> privilege to have access to. It gave me a new and acceptable view of the creative being we call God. Long may his doctrine be spread.

Please if it be convenient to you send me the funeral oration to Dr. Robinson and accept my thanks.

Yours Respectfully,
Robert L. Livingston.

Dear Dr. Robinson:-

I would like to suggest a good book which I am sure you would be interested in. It is - "The Magic of Believing" by Claude M. Bristol. (Published by Prentice-Hall, Inc.; New York: Price $2.95)

If you would like to read a good condensation of this book you might secure "Liberty" magazine, Dec. 1948.

I appreciate 'Psychiana' much more than the explanations put forth in the forementioned book, since you give God the credit and power and not just the subconscious. I am personally sure that 'Sciences' next step will be to accept the beliefs of "Psychiana" and see the Power of the Living God behind the subconscious. Without 'God', the sub-conscious would not function at all as it does since the Power of this realm is God given.

I like your system of suggestion, by which we can make impressions in the sub-conscious mind where God can see them and act on them.

I have used this system quite successfully and I have recently discovered something that has brought me much joy and blessings from the Living God.

If you have never done this, I would sincerely advise that you do so at this time.

Rather than ask God to meet your particular needs; you meet His. The experience is remarkable and it only consists of 3 suggestive statements, the first of which is - WHAT WOULD YOU (God) HAVE ME DO?

Before doing this you can be sure that the loving, living, God would not have you do anything injurious to your own wellbeing.

If you have already done this, you know of the blessings received, both internal and external; but if for some reason you have never tried it, and you do so; I would be glad to be of service in supplying the 2nd statement.

If you receive the same spiritual joy which I and others have received from this series of 3 statements, you could write another whole course on just them alone.

I am hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Richard Lorch

how I got through this great movement, that men have ever known, I never think any thought of your dear father, being dead, He is just sleeping

with all His students, through the Spirit & intelligence of a living God. He is not with us in person

a real surprise, to you that how, your father's instructions

never recover from this condition, but thanks be to God & to you, your mother & father, Frank B. Robertson
I am now considered in good health & have dis-

be used for medicine that no other man - has ever before me, had ever discovered human blood

man is created by the Spirit of God, from the dust of the ground, can not the Spirit of work, while the Sun shines, through the Spirit of God to show Mankind, that it is never the will of the great Spirit, of a living god that He should have sickness, sorrow or death, because it is the foolish belief, & the acts of man, not realizing that this great Spirit of god is Life, from everlasting to

Attention Alfred B. Robinson

Dear Alfred:

Your letter of April 27th reached us in due time and was read very eagerly and re-read with deep sorrow. Mr. Lairy and I feel as though we have lost a dear brother, teacher and friend, but rejoice over the fact that we were permitted to study Psychiana while he was still in the flesh and so superlative active in body, mind and spirit. We have been benefitted marvelously in our study of Psychiana and upon receipt of your letter lost sight of our difficulties in the realization of the fact the Spirit of God is guiding us at all times. Dr. Bach's Tribute is a masterpiece not over painted in any respect as Dr. Frank B. Robinson was worthy of that Tribute in every respect.

Usually I can find words to express my feelings in matters of this kind but this time they fail me. We are delighted to know the Psychiana movement will continue to show the world the way to God under such able leadership as yourself dear Alfred assisted by your mother and sister Florence. Here I a younger man nothing in the Realm of God would please me better than to spend my entire time in assisting to spread the truth of the God Power to a spiritually hungry world.

Mrs. Lowry and I are whole heartedly of the Psychiana family and rejoice over the fact that we have been shown the way to God through the teaching of your noble pen and our good friends, sacred brother

It's a matter of refusing to know that Dr. Frank B. Robinson's cloak and mantle have been thrown about you in his passing. With you, Mrs. Lowry and I, "Believe in the Power of the Living God, from whence cometh our strength."

With best wishes for your success in all your undertakings we extend our true fellowship

Thank you for your kind thoughts of sympathy expressed in your letter of recent date.

We know you join with us in mourning the passing of our father and the founder of Psychiana, Frank B. Robinson. Although he is no longer with us physically, I know his spirit is present and is guiding the way for us here. Jan. 2nd. 1949.

Dr. Frank B. Robinson,
Massena, Idaho.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

A few years ago I took your course of study. I studied it as much as I could but at that time I was working for a York county farmer and was unable to devote as much time to the lessons as I should have liked.

I find in these lessons the more I study them the more the substance reveals itself to the student.

I really think you have the most brilliant mind of any one I ever studied under or any speaker I ever heard.

Since studying your lessons Church seems like a dead end to me.

Two years ago Dec. 1st. I went to Decatur, Ind. to take a three weeks course in auctioneering

I took sick the next day after I got there. was taken to the hospital, the x-ray showed a growth in my colon — passage cut off. My belly was distended and the operation being an emergency they couldn't take the growth out,
but instead opened my side for passage. I was in the hospital there two months. I then came home in ambulance
— two drivers. (We live here at Cassstown, Pa. which is 8 miles west of Gettysburg) after I got home two doctors here took over.
They told my wife they thought
I would last about a week.
I kept saying over and over the living God is making me whole and then too I would say I just must make the grade.

my appetite was good and I was given anything I wanted to eat. The doctor came two or three times a week and he soon started telling me I was looking better I would thank him and he would say don't thank me Bob you are doing that yourself. In late July of the same year the two doctors entered me in the Warner hospital in Gettysburg being there nine weeks and operated on three times while there. When they opened my belly to take the growth out of my colon they had to open my other side which gave me two open sides for passage and my belly open about ten inches long. I was discharged the 27th of the following Sept. (a year ago this past Sept.) The two sides are closed and normal passage.

The five incisions left my belly distended which bothers me somewhat other than that I feel ok.

I went to work the 5th of last April operating a planer for the Kettysburg Furniture Co. in Kettysburg. The supervisor told me I could go to work but no heavy lifting.

Now I'll give you some connections about this job. I would plan to go to Kettysburg to see about a job and since we haven't a car I would plan to go with another, but it seemed something came up which prevented me from going in for three weeks. When I went in and told the employer I had been laid up 16 months and couldn't take a job which called for heavy lifting. The employer said, "within a few days I may be able to give you a job feeding boards into a machine."

within a few days I recd. letter to come in. He took me out to see the man feeding the plainer
and ask me if I thought I could do it? I said yes. I went to work the following Monday, within two weeks the Supt. said to me Lynn you are doing OK on that machine I thanked him. He said you came along just at the right time, we just set that machine up a day or two before you came in.

I use the affirmations daily.
This is the way I understand
some of this course.

Thoughts are invisible also the most powerful possession of a human being. My thoughts being invisible, my creator being spirit is invisible. Through my invisible thoughts I talk to my invisible Creator.

by repeating a thought over and over
I create a channel which opens the way for my Creator to get in.

I study these lessons over and over and I always get something new out of them.

I can tell quite a difference
in the way I feel toward life
since having taken your course.
I feel more confident, I have more confidence in my self,
instead of asking someone else
what they think I should do about this or that I decide on my own what I want to do and I feel I can do it and that no human being can keep me from
it.

I keep asking the living God
to stretch my belly and I feel that he'll do it.

I want to make money first to make my wife secure. She's a fine wife, College education, good musician, was a H.S. teacher.

(6)

I would like to help the girl & boy scouts and the two hospitals and the employees who did so much for me.

I'd like very much to come out and see you some time in the future. I feel I could <sup>learn</sup> so much listening to you talk. You would know tell me things which would mean
so much to my life.

Wishing you and yours and all those connected with Psychiana
a Prosperous New Year

Robert C. Lynn,
Cashew,
Penna.

P.S.

I ask the living God time and time again to give Dr. Robinson, my teacher inspiration and health, to help him
learn more about God's laws
so as to help others.
