Dear Mr. Robinson:

We are writing to express to you our grateful appreciation for your kindness in giving to the University the following of your father's works:

- Psychiana (20 lessons)
- Psychiana (Advanced Teaching Number One in 10 lessons)
- Psychiana (Advanced Teaching Number Two in 30 lessons)
- Psychiana (Advanced Teaching Number Three in 22 lessons)
- Is the Story of Jesus Christ Fact or Fiction
- Secret of Realization
- What God Really Is
- Shall we Know Each Other Beyond the Tomb
- For Rent -- A Cross
- Your God Power
- What This War Really Means
- God and Dr. Bannister
- The God Nobody Knows
- America Awakening
- The Name of the Beast
- Through War to God
- Ye Men of Athens

It would appear from the checklist of titles we prepared that, all together, twenty-two books and pamphlets were published by your father, not including the Lessons. If this is correct, then the Library now has all of Dr. Robinson's works.

We greatly appreciate the opportunity you have provided the Library to bring together this collection which will be housed in our Special Collections Room and be permanently preserved.

Again our thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Lee Zimmerman

Dear Mr. Zimmerman:

I decided that the best and most secure place for my father's books would be in the University Library, and therefore I took my own copies in order that they all could be in one place.

I appreciate your interest, and I was more than happy to do all I could, as I know that from this point forward my father's writings will be preserved in the University of Idaho Library.

Again, thank you.

Very truly yours,

Alfred B. Robinson
